Antique Car Is Being Rebuilt

Parked under the covered driveway of the R. N. Pierce residence in Jayton is the hull of an old 1927 Model T Ford Coupe. But Pierce says this car will be running as good as when it was new by the time school opens again.

He is completely rebuilding the car. All parts are new, many of them hand made by machine shops all over the country.

He has made no estimate as to what it is costing to rebuild the old jalopy. The girls would probably tell you privately it has cost them a number of new dresses, or Roger a number of new suits, or a car.

Pierce bought this car back in the early days when he was in business in Gordon his old home town. For many years the old car was abandoned, along with the millions of other old worn out jalopies. But when the antique car hobby got in full swing a couple of years ago, he decided to rebuild it. Man, did it have class when it rolled into Gordon some 42 years ago. This was the year the Model T took on the new swingline look.

The End Of An Era

Moody H. Galbreath closed out Saturday a 19 year tenure as superintendent of the Girard public schools as the school closed up the final session, to be joined in with Jayton to form the Jayton-Girard Independent School district.

For 19 years Galbreath, more than any other person, directed the lives of the people in the Girard Community.

He and Mrs. Galbreath are moving to Anson. He will retire after teaching for 38 years. She wants to teach a few more years.

He will raise night crawler fishing worms at his worm farm, fish some, make a few speeches around over the country and perhaps do a bit of Methodist Lay Preaching.

Galbreath lists as perhaps one of his most pleasing experiences, the years he headed the Texas Small School Association. He piloted a number of programs to help the small schools of the State. He did a lot of lobbying in Austin and rubbed shoulders with a number of high state officials while heading the TSSA.

The Galbreath first went to Girard in July of 1950 from Lueders.

The family consists of Keith the son and the daughter Kay Mazingo, who with her husband are now teaching in Austin.

At the time the decision was made to close the Girard school Mr. Galbreath had a three year contract. The decision was made to honor his contract and let him "go fishing" for the next three years. He said "I am using this money to build our new home in Anson."

He said he was willing, and offered to work out his contract but the decision was made to let him retire and draw his pay.

The lives of a great many people have been touched and influenced during his 19 years at Girard. A great many people, he not only taught them but their children as well.

As the editor of the Chronicle interviewed him in his office Friday morning as he cleaned off his desk and prepared to leave, he had sort of a sad look on his face, even though he tried to be jolly, and this is understandable.

Banana Split Eclairs

Halve the eclairs and double the fun!

The smart hostess uses her head and serves glamorous, easy-to-make food. Banana Split Eclairs are just such a choice! Designed to be a party's highlight, they let the homemaker relax and enjoy her guests. Set out the "fixings" and let ice cream lovers assemble desserts to suit themselves.

The crisp, elegant, elongated cream puffs are ready and waiting to be cut in half. Scoops of multi-colored ice creams are frozen hard and arranged in your prettiest glass bowl. Bananas are sliced and sprinkled with orange juice to keep them from darkening and to enhance their flavor. And ice cream toppings are nearby to top off the eclair-based banana splits.

When made with enriched flour, the delicious eclairs carry nutritional gifts from the milling industry to you. Enriched flour is an important source of the essential B-vitamins, thiamine, niacin and riboflavin and the mineral, iron - all necessary in maintaining good health.

10 eclairs

- 1 cup water
- 2 to 3 bananas, sliced
- 1/2 cup butter
- 3 pints ice cream, different flavors
- 1 cup enriched flour*
- 1/2 cup ice cream topping
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 15 maraschino cherries, halved
- 4 eggs

Bring water and butter to boil, stirring until butter melts. Add flour and salt all at once. Reduce heat. Cook, stirring constantly until mixture is smooth and forms a soft ball, 1 to 2 minutes. Remove from heat and cool slightly. Add eggs, one at a time, beating well after each. Drop batter onto greased baking sheet, spreading to form 1 x 5-inch rectangles. Bake in preheated 400° oven 25 to 35 minutes, or until firm. Cool. Cut off tops and invert. Fill tops and bottoms with banana slices. Top with a scoop of each ice cream flavor. Drizzle with topping and garnish with cherry halves.

*Spoon flour into dry measuring cup; level. Do not scoop.

ATTEND FUNERAL

Out of town relatives attending the Guff Lafoon funeral in Jayton were:

A niece Mr. and Mrs. Owen King of Seminole formerly Maurice Lafoon and daughter Brodie Fay.

A niece Mrs. Vivian Kingery Gee of Oklahoma City and a daughter Dorothy Rathburn and her son Mike.

A daughter Mrs. Allen Hayden of Yucapita Calif.

A son A. J. Lafoon and wife of Rowell N. M.

Guff was born March 18 1877 in Virginia. He joined the New Hope Christian Church in Brunswick County Va. in 1894.

He married Bessie Beard March 18 1912 who preceded him on Jan. 26 1959. A/ae two daughters preceded him.

Guff went to King County in 1936 from Virginia and worked for many of the cow outfits in surrounding counties around the turn of the century.

He hired out himself and a team to help build the railroad through Jayton and Spur. And in about 1908 he turned to ranching and farming for him self six miles north east of Jayton.

In 1927 he moved into Jayton and soon thereafter went into the wrecking business.

Some of the old timers remember Guff as one of the best windmill mechanics in the country.

Between 1919 and 1920 Guff owned the longest one single telephone line from the Jayton exchange and all the phones on the line and serviced them.

Gus Smith of Aspermont and Bryon Smith of Lubbock are two remaining old timers who used Guff's line.

When Whitaker came in Guff sold to him and hauled his line in.

BOW KNOT BUNS ARE FUN TO SHAPE

Bow Knot buns are made of a refrigerator-type yeast dough in strips and shaped into knots. Fun to make, they are an interesting accompaniment for coffee or tea.

BOW KNOTS

- 4 to 4 1/2 cups unsifted flour
- 1/2 cup sugar
- 2 teaspoons salt
- 2 packages Fleischmann's Active Dry Yeast
- 1/4 cup milk
- 1/2 cup water
- 1/2 cup (1 stick) Fleischmann's Margarine

In a large bowl thoroughly mix 1 1/2 cups flour, sugar, salt and undissolved Fleischmann's Active Dry Yeast.

Combine milk, water and 1/2 cup Fleischmann's Margarine in a saucepan. Heat over low heat until liquids are warm. (Margarine does not need to melt.) Gradually add dry ingredients and beat 2 minutes at medium speed of electric mixer, scraping bowl occasionally. Add egg and 1/2 cup flour, or enough flour to make a thick batter. Beat at high speed 2 minutes, scraping bowl occasionally. Stir in enough additional flour to make a stiff batter. Cover bowl tightly with plastic wrap or aluminum foil. Refrigerate dough 2 to 24 hours.

- 1 egg (at room temperature)
- Melted Fleischmann's Margarine
- 1/2 cup unsifted flour
- 1/2 cup firmly packed dark brown sugar
- 1 teaspoon ground cinnamon
- 2 tablespoons Fleischmann's Margarine

Turn dough out onto lightly floured surface and divide in half. Roll each half into a 15 x 12 rectangle. Cut into 15 one-inch strips. Hold ends of each strip and tie into a knot. Press loose loop in the center of dough. Place on greased baking sheets. Brush with melted Fleischmann's Margarine. Mix together remaining 1/2 cup flour, brown sugar, cinnamon and 2 tablespoons Fleischmann's Margarine until crumbly. Sprinkle over Bow Knots. Let rise uncovered in a warm place, free of draft, until doubled in bulk, about 1 hour.

Bake in hot oven (400°F.) about 12 minutes until done. Remove from baking sheets and place on wire racks to cool. Makes 30 buns.

4-H Bike Riders Get Safety Tips

A new nationwide bicycle program for 4-H youngsters has been announced jointly by the Cooperative Extension Service and the National 4-H Service Committee. It is designed for boys and girls from 9 to 19, with special emphasis on participation by youth of elementary school age.

Already an estimated 125,000 4-H'ers have bicycle projects, according to the Extension Service. From coast-to-coast, bicycling is one of the fastest growing fun and leisure time activities.

Goodyear Sponsors

The program is sponsored by The Goodyear Tire & Rubber Company of Akron, Ohio. Officials of the company and 4-H representatives negotiated for more than a year in setting up the educational pattern.

A series of annual awards will be provided by the sponsor. They consist of individual certificates for all participating members and a $50 U.S. savings bond for the state champion. Six 4-H'ers will get expense-paid educational trips to the National 4-H Congress held in Chicago. The trips will be awarded on a sectional basis.

Four national $600 scholarships also will be awarded. Guidebooks and other instructional materials are being specially written for this new program, according to a 4-H spokesman, and will be ready later this year. The bicycle project could well be advanced preparation for driving a motor vehicle. Similar safety rules, maintenance and mechanical checks apply.

Safety Stressed

The 4-H'ers will learn correct hand signals for turning or stopping, which are the same as for a motor vehicle. They are urged to obey traffic signs and signals. They are taught to yield right-of-way to pedestrians and practice courtesy at all times.

A lot of fun has been built into the program, too. Exhibitions of riding skill, games and contests are planned. Safety factors in bicycle selection will be brought to the attention of youngsters and parents as well.

Bikes Right

For example, the popular "high rise" bike may or may not fit the rider, or "regular" bikes may need adjustments. Hand-me-down bikes are not always satisfactory either, according to some authorities, because the size, weight and balance may be unsuitable for the child.

The most recent statistics available report accidents involving bicycles and motor vehicles resulted in 700 deaths annually. Of this number 64 per cent involved persons 14 years or younger.

Fashion Takes On New Dimension

In California couture collections, spring's elegantly ladylike fashions take on a new dimension. For daytime, the ensemble's the thing... and dress plus jacket costumes are in the forefront of fashion. Silhouettes are soft and fluid. Jackets are either long and belted or cropped to show a wide belt on the softly shaped dress underneath.

Where there is fullness, it's controlled. Where there are pleats for movement and flare, they are inverted and soft rather than razor-sharp. Hemlines are pegged at a ladylike level: at the top of the knee to a few inches above.

The subtle silhouettes naturally focus interest on the fabrics—and especially those with extra dimension. Cotton, the fabric of a thousand faces, rises to the occasion with surfaces that are ribbed or nubby... puckered or tweedy... waffled or sculptured. Prints-on-textures add further interest in the form of eye-pleasing plaids and checks, florals, abstracts, and geometrics.

What it all adds up to are spring costumes that are pretty, feminine, and flattering—a look the ladies like and the men applaud.

Ask Amy

BY AMY ADAMS

LEGAL ADVICE IS HASTY

Dear Amy: Since our marriage 19 years ago, we have had in-law problems (his people) . . . and we had six children, 3 girls and 3 boys. I have one son, 21 years old and in Viet Nam, by my first marriage. You see, Amy, I rushed into my second marriage because I had no one to turn to and my boy was 1 1/2 years old. I have 5 children at home and one girl married. They are wonderful children. They have never given me any trouble. That is why I have taken all the problems from my husband and, his family. But now it has become worse. I am terribly confused because now when my husband comes home from work, he jumps on the kids and he accuses me and the children of things that are not true. He never wants me or the kids to step out of the door. He wants us to stay home and never go anywhere. Every day it gets worse. A lawyer advised that the only recourse I have is divorce. Now you tell me what to do.

Confused

Dear Confused: I don't agree with the lawyer. You don't want recourse, you want help with your marriage . . . don't you? Your husband has a problem and if you love him, you will try to get to the bottom of it. It would be to your advantage to visit the Family Counseling Service with a hubby, if possible, or without him, if necessary.

Dear Amy: Re: Removing the gummy stuff from price labels on hard surfaced objects, I use nail polish remover. Another helpful hint is to use the remover to take off the ugly black rims that are left after adhesive tape is used.

A Reader (Chicago, Ill.)

Dear Amy: When I want to take out a BB gun, my parents will not let me. I am old enough and they still won't let me.

Mr. BB Gunn

Dear BB: No one, in my opinion, is 'old enough' to use a gun unless he has had proper instruction on the care and use of same. And I goes without saying that this BB gun is to be used for sport in a well protected place with adult supervision.

The Council particularly stresses prevention of farm fires since fire damage to farms and rural property is three to six times greater than in the average city fire.

Cotton, Feed Replant Dates Told By ASCS

"Cotton which has failed for any reason prior to June 1 must be replanted to be eligible for price support payments. The replant date for feed grains is June 25. Crops may be planted after these dates but replanting is not required to earn the price support payments."

"If your crop is destroyed after these dates and you desire to devote the acreage to another use, you must make a written request and secure approval before devoting the area to the other use," he said.

CROP REPORTS About 40,000 Texas farmers will receive a crop acreage questionnaire from Mr. Cary Palmer, State Statistician, Texas Crop and Livestock Service, Austin, Texas.

The information obtained will be the basis for the official estimates of crop acreages for the State of Texas and for each county. Accurate estimates are of great importance to farmers in planning production and marketings and in providing an unbiased picture of Texas agriculture.

"We urge each of you, who receive a questionnaire, to execute it and return it promptly," Winter said.

Banana Split Eclairs

Halve the eclairs and double the fun!

The smart hostess uses her head and serves glamorous, easy-to-make food. Banana Split Eclairs are just such a choice! Designed to be a party's highlight, they let the homemaker relax and enjoy her guests. Set out the "fixings" and let ice cream lovers assemble desserts to suit themselves.

The crisp, elegant, elongated cream puffs are ready and waiting to be cut in half. Scoops of multi-colored ice creams are frozen hard and arranged in your prettiest glass bowl. Bananas are sliced and sprinkled with orange juice to keep them from darkening and to enhance their flavor. And ice cream toppings are nearby to top off the eclair-based banana splits.

When made with enriched flour, the delicious eclairs carry nutritional gifts from the milling industry to you. Enriched flour is an important source of the essential B-vitamins, thiamine, niacin and riboflavin and the mineral, iron - all necessary in maintaining good health.

ATTEND FUNERAL

Out of town relatives attending the Guff Lafoon funeral in Jayton were:

A niece Mr. and Mrs. Owen King of Seminole formerly Maurine Lafoon and daughter Brocie Fay.

A niece Mrs. Vivian Kingery Gee of Oklahoma City and a daughter Dorothy Rathburn and her son Mike.

A daughter Mrs. Allon Hayden of Yucapia Calif. A son A. J. Lafoon and wife of Roswell N. M.

Guff was born March 18 1877 in Virginia. He joined the New Hope Christian Church in Brunswick County Va. in 1894. He married Bessie Beard March 18 1912 who preceded him on Jan. 20 1920. Also two daughters preceded him.

Guff went to King County in 1906 from Virginia and worked for many of the cow outfits in surrounding counties around the turn of the century.

He hired out himself and a team to help build the railroad through Jayton and Spur. And in about 1908 he turned to ranching and farming for him self six miles north east of Jayton.

In 1927 he moved into Jayton and soon thereafter went into the wrecking business. Some of the old timers remember Guff as one of the best windmill mechanics in the country.

Between 1910 and 1920 Guff owned the longest one single telephone line from the Jayton exchange and all the phones on the line and serviced them.

Gus Smith of Aspermont and Bryon Smith of Lubbock are two remaining old timers who used Guff's line.

When Whitaker came in Guff sold to him and hauled his line in. Mildred Lafoon Hayden

BOW KNOT BUNS ARE FUN TO SHAPE

Bow Knot buns are made of a refrigerator-type yeast dough, cut into strips and shaped into knots. Fun to make, they are an accompaniment for coffee or tea.

- | | |
|---|--|
| 4 to 4 1/2 cups unsifted flour | 1 egg (at room temperature) |
| 1/2 cup sugar | Melted Fleischmann's Margarine |
| 2 teaspoons salt | 1/2 cup unsifted flour |
| 2 packages Fleischmann's Active Dry Yeast | 1/2 cup firmly packed dark brown sugar |
| 1/4 cup milk | 1 teaspoon ground cinnamon |
| 1/2 cup water | 2 tablespoons Fleischmann's Margarine |
| 1/2 cup (1 stick) Fleischmann's Margarine | |

In a large bowl thoroughly mix 1 1/2 cups flour, sugar, salt and undissolved Fleischmann's Active Dry Yeast.

Combine milk, water and 1/2 cup Fleischmann's Margarine in a saucepan. Heat over low heat until liquids are warm. (Margarine does not need to melt.) Gradually add to dry ingredients and beat 2 minutes at medium speed of electric mixer, scraping bowl occasionally. Add egg and 1/2 cup flour, or enough flour to make a thick batter. Beat at high speed 2 minutes, scraping bowl occasionally. Stir in enough additional flour to make a stiff batter. Cover bowl tightly with plastic wrap or aluminum foil. Refrigerate dough 2 to 24 hours.

Turn dough out onto lightly floured surface, divide in half. Roll each half into a 15x10 rectangle. Cut into 15 one-inch strips. Roll ends of each strip and tie into a knot. Lay on greased baking sheets. Brush with 1/2 cup Fleischmann's Margarine. Mix together remaining 1/2 cup flour, brown sugar, cinnamon and 2 tablespoons Fleischmann's Margarine until crumbly. Sprinkle over Bow Knots. Let rise uncovered in a warm place, but draft, until doubled in bulk, about 1 hour. Bake in hot oven (400°F) about 12 minutes until done. Remove from baking sheets and place on wire racks to cool. Makes 30 buns.

4-H Bike Riders Get Safety Tips

A new nationwide bicycle program for 4-H youngsters has been announced jointly by the Cooperative Extension Service and the National 4-H Service Committee. It is designed for boys and girls from 9 to 19, with special emphasis on participation by youth of elementary school age.

Already an estimated 125,000 4-H'ers have bicycle projects, according to the Extension Service. From coast-to-coast, bicycling is one of the fastest growing fun and leisure time activities.

Goodyear Sponsors

The program is sponsored by The Goodyear Tire & Rubber Company of Akron, Ohio. Officials of the company and 4-H representatives negotiated for more than a year in setting up the educational pattern.

A series of annual awards will be provided by the sponsor. They consist of individual certificates for all participating members and a $50 U.S. savings bond for the state champion. Six 4-H'ers will get expense-paid educational trips to the National 4-H Congress held in Chicago. The trips will be awarded on a sectional basis. Four national $600 scholarships also will be awarded.

Guidebooks and other instructional materials are being specially written for this new program, according to a 4-H spokesman, and will be ready later this year. The bicycle project could well be advanced preparation for driving a motor vehicle. Similar safety rules, maintenance and mechanical checks apply.

Safety Stressed

The 4-H'ers will learn correct hand signals for turning or stopping, which are the same as for a motor vehicle. They are urged to obey traffic signs and signals. They are taught to yield right-of-way to pedestrians and practice courtesy at all times.

A lot of fun has been built into the program, too. Exhibitions of riding skill, games and contests are planned. Safety factors in bicycle selection will be brought to the attention of youngsters and parents as well.

Bikes Right

For example, the popular "high rise" bike may or may not fit the rider; or "regular" bikes may need adjustments. Hand-me-down bikes are not always satisfactory either, according to some authorities, because the size, weight and balance may be unsuitable for the child.

The most recent statistics available report accidents involving bicycles and motor vehicles resulted in 700 deaths annually. Of this number 64 per cent involved persons 14 years or younger.

Fashion Takes On New Dimension

In California couture collections, spring's elegantly ladylike fashions take on a new dimension. For daytime, the ensemble's the thing... dress plus jacket costumes are in the forefront of fashion. Silhouettes are soft and fluid. Jackets are either long and belted or cropped to show a wide belt on the softly shaped dress underneath.

Where there is fullness, it's controlled. Where there are pleats for movement and flare, they are inverted and soft rather than razor-sharp. Hemlines are pegged at a ladylike level: at the top of the knee to a few inches above.

The subtle silhouettes naturally focus interest on the fabrics—and especially those with extra dimension. Cotton, the fabric of a thousand fashions, rises to the occasion with surfaces that are ribbed or nubby... puckered or tweedy... wadded or sculptured. Prints-on-textures add further interest in the form of eye-pleasing plaids and checks, pais, abstracts, and geometrics.

What it all adds up to are spring costumes that are pretty, feminine, and flattering—a look that ladies like and the men applaud.

I read in the press where Mexico has stopped the Hippies and Gypsies from crossing into their country. Say the long lines are hurting their tourist trade so when caught they arrest them and put them in jail. Remove their long whiskers and shave their heads and then sell them to "Get for Bruno" and not to return. Our government should take a lesson from Mexico with reference to these "Far Out" crazies.

CROP REPORTS
About 40,000 Texas farmers will receive a crop acreage questionnaire from Mr. Cary Palmer, State Statistician, Texas Crop and Livestock Service, Austin, Texas.

The information obtained will be the basis for the official estimates of crop acreages for the State of Texas and for each county. Accurate estimates are of great importance to farmers in planning production and marketings and in providing an unbiased picture of Texas agriculture.

"We urge each of you, who receive a questionnaire, to execute it and return it promptly," Winter said.

Fire Prevention Stressed by NSC

Each year, according to National Safety Council statistics, farm fires result in the loss of 500 lives and $200 million in property damage.

The Council particularly stresses prevention of farm fires since fire damage to farms and rural property is three to six times greater than in the average city fire.

Jack Burke, a program specialist in the Council's Farm Department, explains that it takes longer for fire fighters to get to the scene than it does in the average city.

cents per acre. It is an optional service provided for those who are not certain of their acreage and who desire an official measurement before they certify their acreage. The request for the service should be made as soon as the crops are up, but not later than June 30. As administrative practical, the services will be performed on a "first come - first served" basis. Therefore, make requests for the service as early as possible.

The penalty is so severe for erroneously certifying acreages that we believe all farm operators who are not certain of their acreages will want to consider this service. The farm will be subject to penalties if the reported acreages are found to be either overstated or understated," Winter said.

Ask Amy
BY AMY ADAMS

LEGAL ADVICE IS HASTY

Dear Amy:
Since our marriage 19 years ago, we have had in-law problems (his people) . . . and we had six children, 3 girls and 3 boys. I have one son, 21 years old and in Viet Nam, by my first marriage. You see, Amy, I rushed into my second marriage because I had no one to turn to and my boy was 1 1/2 years old.

I have 5 children at home and one girl married. They are wonderful children. They have never given me any trouble. That is why I have taken all the problems from my husband and his family. But now it has become worse. I am terribly confused because now when my husband comes home from work, he jumps on the kids and he accuses me and the children of things that are not true. He never wants me or the kids to step out of the door. He wants us to stay home and never go anywhere. Every day it gets worse.

A lawyer advised that the only recourse I have is divorce. Now you tell me what to do.

Confused

Dear Confused:
I don't agree with the lawyer. You don't want recourse, you want help with your marriage . . . don't you?
Your husband has a problem and if you love him, you will try to get to the bottom of it. It would be to your advantage to visit the Family Counseling Service with hubby, if possible, or without him, if necessary.

Dear Amy:
"Corrine" needs help in her understanding of life and perhaps life as I see it can give her a new insight into her problem.
She says she wants to fill her life with dreams. Well, her life now means two things: a preparation for the future and to live now. We can't live in the present only for the future because then we would miss out on the essentials of life itself: LIVING EACH DAY TO ITS FULLEST! Bringing herself closer to reality is not shattering her dreams. Our dreams lie in reality, for life is reality. We can fulfill our dreams only by living . . . not by dreaming. She wants to live it Utopia, but Utopia doesn't exist - Reality exists.

She wants to come and go at the wind. But she must remember that the wind doesn't always blow. It sometimes stays still for days, but life doesn't stand still . . .
A Reader

Dear Amy:
I don't know you and carless. However, "Corrine" should be told to go to church and find out how happy Christian people solve their problems. You see her to a psychiatrist.
Perhaps you need a bit of yourself!
A Believer in God

Dear Believer:
You enclosed a copy of my reply along with your letter to me, but apparently you did not read it. Only once is the word "psychiatrist" mentioned and was only to be used as a last resort. The entire gist of my reply concerned finding myself by helping others - and it my book, that is being Christian

No one, in my opinion, is 'old enough' to use a gun unless he has had proper instruction of the care and use of same. And I goes without saying that this BB gun is to be used for sport in a well protected place with adult supervision. . . .

Home Medical Equipment May Be Paid

Every person 65 or older who is enrolled for the medical, or doctor's part of Medicare may be able to receive reimbursement toward the purchase or rental of durable medical equipment needed for their use at home.

John G. Hutton, social security district manager pointed out that many patients need wheel chairs, hospital beds, special walkers, oxygen equipment, or similar items for use in their homes while they convalesce from an illness. If such appliances have been prescribed by a physician, the patient may apply for reimbursement of the rental or purchase price, just as he applies for reimbursement of the doctor bills.

In submitting the claim for reimbursement, the patient must attach an itemized bill for the rental or purchase and a statement from his doctor showing that the equipment is needed and an estimate of the length of time it will be required.

Reimbursement usually will be made to the patient in monthly installments, Hutton said.

For further information about this or other Medicare matters, Hutton said, local residents should visit, call or write the Lubbock Social Security office at 3428 Avenue H. The telephone number is POS-854L.
