Advances In Insight

By JOE GILMORE

The expression "up Salt Creek" is believed to have come from an actual experience of Henry Clay during his 1832 presidential campaign against Andrew Jackson. Clay is supposed to have hired a boatman to take him up the Ohio River where he was to have delivered a most important speech at Louisville, Ken. According to the story, the boatman was a loyal Jacksonian who converted his loyalty into deed by taking his unsuspecting passenger up the tributary called Salt Creek. Consequently Clay never made the speech and, of course, was never elected president.

Henry Clay was not the first to be deceived by a "Salt Creek" experience. Eve was taken up Salt Creek when the Tempter placed a question mark after, "Yea, hath God said?" Sin begins with a question mark after the Word of God. Eve was deceived by the promise of a wider spectrum of knowledge and position. "For God doth know that in the day ye eat thereof, then your eyes shall be opened, and ye shall be as gods, knowing good and evil. " (Genesis 3:5)

She was not wrong in trying to gain knowledge. God expects us to learn all we can and be all we can be. Reach your capacity. Be all you are capable of being. Eve found herself "up Salt Creek" when she substituted knowledge in place of obedience to God. Uncontrolled and undisciplined curiosity has ruined many a young life with a "Salt Creek" experience. Drug abuse, alcoholism, back-road petting and habits which cause spiritual and bodily harm all lead "up Salt Creek. " We need to remember that the Devil is a liar and the father of it (John 8:44). We must also remind ourselves that the "fear of the Lord is the beginning of knowledge. (Proverbs 1:22).

HD Agent's REPORT

Colors affect emotions and thus affect interior decorating. For example, some wall colors in eating rooms decrease the appetite; other colors increase it. While individual likes and dislikes for colors vary, emotional reactions to colors are quite consistent.

For example lavender interiors actually reduce eating time and the size of the meals ordered in a recent color conditioning study. In airplanes, air sickness was common where the interiors were painted in unappetizing colors. These conditions were alleviated when proper colors were selected reports the spec-

The most appetizing colors are peach, orange, redorange, clear yellow and pale green. Blue was found to be fairly satisfying, but variations of yellow were very distaste-

Goldenrod yellow seemed rancid while lemon yellow seemed acid. Deep yellow with amustard or olive case were decidedly distasteful.

Of other deep colors, brown and tan seemed most compatible with foods. Deep green and blue were more appealing, although dark colors were generally not as appetizing as light ones.

Patchwork is the outstanding fabric design for Spring 1970. To make your own, first adjust your pattern and lay it on newspaper to determine yardage. Choose harmonizing fabrics of similar weights to make patchwork that is flat and smooth. Keep straight grain of all patches going in same direction. Two easy ways to make patch: Cut rectangular patches from fabric scraps (6 1/2" square is good size). Stitch together in long strips. Stitch strips together side by side. Or, start with new fabrics, dut in long bands. Stitch together side by side, alternating fabrics. Then cut the whole piece into strips of patches. Shift strips into patchwork design and stitch together. Make patches different sizes but keep width same for those that will be stitched together in the same strip. Press all seams open each step of the way. For an extra touch, outline patches with fringe or zigzag stitches or alternate a strip of patches with a strip of solid fabrics.

Do-it-yourself barbeque chefs should do their barbequing out in the open warns the National Safety Council Charcoal briquets give off the odorless but deadly carbon monoxide gas that must have room to escape Poisonings and asphyxiations have been reported when briquets were burned indoors. They should not be used in a garage or any enclosed area as a porch, tent, cabin, or car. This also applies to Japanese type hibachis that are often used in home Use them only in a well-ventilated house or near an open window or door.

When using briquets in a fireplace, make certain the damper is wide open and there is a good draft in the chimney.

Wills and Estate Planning

What will happen to your children if you are killed in an accident tomorrow? How will your property be divided? How much inheritance is taxable? Mr. Eric Swenson, Spur lawyer, and Mr. Norman Brints, Agricultural Extension Service Area Farm and Ranch Management specialist, will discus s these and other questions Thurs day, March 5 at 2 p. m. in the District Courtroom in Jayton. The program Wills and Estate

SC Agent Is In County Regularly

452 persons had business with a social security representative on one or more of his/her visits at the Courthouse here during 1969, according to a report just releas.ed by Don Austin, the field representative from Abilene for Kent County.

Austin may be visited here on regular monthly schedule, posted at the Courthouse, the post office, and a few other locations. Claims for retirement, survivors, disability, or medicare benefits may be filed with Austin on any of his trips to Austin.

If it will be 2 or 3 weeks before his/her visit, local residents may want to go to the social security office in the post office building in Abilene. Austin invites anyone who desired information about any part of the social security program to drop in to see him. His next trips to Jayton will be on March. No Appointment is necessary, but on some visits there may be so many callers that a wait becomes necessary.

Baptist Youth Choir To Participate

The youth choir of First Baptist Church, Jayton, under the direction of Bob Hamilton will be among the 10,000 plus musicians attending the Festival of Praise, an inspirational and patriotic music spectacular to be held March 6 at the Theme for the program, which has been honored by a proclamation from Texas Governor Preston Smith, is "His Truth is Marching on."

Planning is being sporsored by the Home Demonstration

Estate planning is a compromise among (l) minimizing: amount of taxes due after death, (2) distributing the property to designated heirs as desired, and (3) assuring financial security during the remainder of one's lifetime.

The first step in estate planning, regardless of the size of the estate concerned, is to seek counsel from an attorney and other competent advisers. One of the most effective tools of estate planning is the creation of a properly drawn will. The will can assist in the distribution of property as desired as well as take advantage of many estate set:lement costs.

Since this is a part of the farm and ranch business that can be put off easily, a majority of farmers and ranchers in the Rolling Plains do not have a will or an estate plan of any type. The development of an estate plan can be one of the most important acts a manager can perform.

Stop and think about your situation. If you should meet with a fatal accidnet or sickness tomorrow, who would receive your property? Do you keep your business records in an orderly fashion to ease interpretation? How much of a burden would you leave for your spouse?

Be sure and come Thursday for more on wills and estate

We started with a sleek new shape and a low road-

Also, there is another idealogy, or way of life being perpetrated that bugs me. It all can be summed up in one word, "policy."

Policy is a nice sounding word to get around responsibility. Another term that fits right in with this same thought is "group discipline."

Here is the way "policy" is used as a "cure all" for all ills. A business, a school, or a government agency, has perhaps just one member of its personnel that is out of line or in whom they find fault. But rather than dealing with this situation on its face, they pass a policy, which effects the entire staff of persons.

Some times in the school there will be a few students who are causing some sort of trouble or unrest, but rather than dealing with these students, and eliminating the trouble the entire group is disciplined or have their privileges curtailed, or a "new policy" is passed.

"The merit system, in business, in government, and in school, has many things to recomment its installation, and its use. Rut we don't have it, and we never will have it, because it requires the taking on of too much responsibility. It requires judging individuals on their accompolishments and ag one seems to want to do this.

As a result, we see in government offices, two workem, performing side by side. One of them is dedicated, and doing a fine job The other one does not care, does sloppy and careless work, and creates a lot of ill will for the office, and yet they both draw exactly the same amount of pay The same thing is true in the school. What the public would class as a good teacher, or a poor teacher, or a bad teacher, perform side by side, working on the same pay scale. Yet, one of them could be considered under paid, and the And yet, it may take several years, for the school board to get the poor teachers out of the system --- and the children suf-

And this situation will continue. There is no workable way to stop it. People do not want to face up to the responsibilities of their jobs. And if they did, the public probably would not like that either.

Texas Lt. Governor Ben Barnes, has risen in Texas politics like a morning star . He advanced from State Representative to Speaker of the House, almost overnight. through a precious gift from then Covernor John Connally. Then he was elected Lt. Governor in a big landslide.

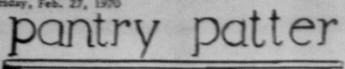

It is no secret that Barnes aspires to be Governor, and his close confidants say he will be a candidate in 1972.

Barnes has had two headon collisions with Governor Preston Smith, and both times he has come away licking his. wounds.

First, in the last session of the Legislature, he pushed through the one-year plan, and it was passed by both Houses. But Gov. Smith vetoed the measure, and then the people of the State supported Smith, voting down the annual legislative plan.

Recently Burnes put out the word to the State Prem that a special session would have to be called to get new needed funds to keep welfare checks up. But again, Smith put him down and set him in his place. Smith merely borrowed some State money not now being used, from other funds, to take care of the emergency.

This is a feud that will be interesting to watch as it unfolds within the next two

Citrus inuits are best known for their high content of Vitamin C. Lemons and cranges originated in Southeastern Asia. Lemon juice was bottled as early as 971 A. D. Today, 45% of world's supply of lemons comes from California. Lemons are more costly to harvest than oranges and grapefruit. Each lemon tree must be picked 9 or 10 times a year. The lemon is such a delicate fruit that pickers wear gloves so fingernails won't damage the fruit. Lemons add flavor and nutrition to any meal, especially when calories and salt must be restricted. A few drops perk up flavor or meat, vegetables and salads, especially saltless dishes. Lemon Juice sprinkled over cut fruit as apples and bananar precents them from turning brown. To get the most juice from a lemon,
