Work Is Progressing On Kent County Airport

The State of Texas is spending about $30,000,000 in Kent County for an airport. The county road department is doing the work on it. When the airport, which is located about 5 miles southeast of town, is completed, it will be very nice. The paved runway will be of sufficient quality to handle even the small two engine jets, according to Judge Bob Gallagher.

It seems there are a few people around, who are having their fun, ridiculing the airport, but Judge Gallagher talks seriously about it. He thinks it is a good investment. He told the Chronicle editor last week several local people are talking about buying small planes, or several people going together and buying one.

Also, he says someday, the small towns are going to make comebacks, and the ones that are working at the job, will be the ones that get new payrolls, and the things it takes to make a come back.

Anyway, it is really going to be nice, and it is costing the taxpayers of Kent County very, very little money.

Post Office News

Postmaster R. L. Alexander said today that increases in most postage rates will take effect May 16 as the new United States Postal Service begins its task of achieving self-sufficiency as required by the Postal Reorganization Act. Mr. Alexander noted that general postage rates have not been increased since 1967 when Congress passed what was to become its final legislative act in this respect.

He pointed out that, earlier, requests for rate increases were proposed to Congress in 1969 by both President Johnson and President Nixon. In addition, President Nixon proposed an increase again in 1970, although none of the proposed increases was acted upon by Congress.

Mr. Alexander explained that the new increases--authorized on a temporary basis until the newly created Postal Rate Commission can make recommendations to the Governors of the Postal Service on permanent changes--will raise first-class letter rates from 6 to 8 cents an ounce, and airmail letter rates from 10 to 11 cents an ounce. Post cards will go from 5 to 6 cents each and airmail post cards will go from 8 to 9 cents each.

The increases will be borne more by business than by individuals, the postmaster pointed out, since about 75 per cent of first class and airmail is from commercial mailers.

In addition to increases in first-class rates, second and third class will also go up on May 16. However, the full increases proposed by the Postal Service will not be put into effect on a temporary basis, in second and third class, since the postal reform legislation contemplates that such increases by phases over 5 years--or ten years for non-profit organization--provided Congress appropriates the

Mod Moms Take Trip

Monday, May 17, the Mod Moms toured Southwestern Apparel clothing factory. Those who went were; Bette League, Bessie Trammel, Roseann Johnson, Loretta Lee, Bea Shipp, Nikki Phillips, Delores Gaston, and Bert Stanaland.

The tour was a fascinating experience. We saw the ready-to-wear clothing process from laying out the fabric for cutting to pressing the finished garment. We also got a preview of the fall line of clothing and learned some sewing tips and ideas for new clothing. All the clothing from Southwestern Apparel is sent to Arlington where it is marketed. Their line of clothing was designed for young women and girls.

After dinner we went to Haskell where a visit to Lane-Felker had been scheduled. Mrs. Lane showed us some of the new fall line that had just come in and then she brought us up to date on what is "in" with present fashion.

We enjoyed the trip; had a ball; and even made it back to Jayton in time to pick up the kids at school. Reporter

Draft Office Report

The June draft call for Texas announced today by Colonel Melvin N. Glantz, the Director of Selective Service for Texas. Glantz said 540 men would be inducted in Texas in June. The call nationally was 15,000 men, but recently the Department of Defense announced a combined May-June call of 20,000 men with lottery number limitation of 125 for the combined call. This is the same as the original May limitation on lottery numbers.

Glantz said 1750 men would be ordered to take their pre-induction physical examinations in June.

Local boards in Texas are mailing orders now for pre-induction and induction to men under their jurisdiction. This office has new hours.

Friendship Appreciated

Jayton is a small town. It has some fine merchants, who are doing their best to supply the people of the county with the products they need. Some of them are having difficulty doing this, because of the inflation of the economy and other conditions. The merchants of Jayton are not supplying all the needs, in every area, of the people. This means the people of the community have to go to other communities to get some of these needs. Where they go to get these needs, depends on the attitude of the people, and the merchants in particular.

merchants are working at the job of supplying the needs, and enticing Jayton people to come over and trade with them.

This town has a weekly newspaper. This newspaper has a "columnist" (we use this word liberally) who asks the people to read his column and get all the news about Kent County. What he means is all the bad news. He never misses a guess on using his column to criticize the people at the court house, or this newspaper. I have wondered if they think this will bring goodwill to their community, or help them get business from the Kent County community? Just a passing thought.

UNKEL ZEKE SEZ

DEAR MISTER EDITOR:

Do you recollect the report a few years back where this cotton mill in North Carolina give 200,000 dippers to this African country, and the men over there used em fer head turbans? The way things is gitting turned around, Mister Editor, switching ends with them dippers wouldn't git a line in the papers now.

Not to long back, the wimmen set at home and welcomed their men back from huntin' and fishing, cause what the men brung home was what the family had to eat. Now I see by the paper where a bunch of wimmen is calling theirselves Friends of Animals, and they want to do away with hunting complete. That is, they want to stop men from hunting animals and start hunting wimmen more.

Before everthing got switched around, wimmen that wanted the men to pay some mind to em could think of a lot better things to do than carry signs around on a stick invitin' the men to prove their manhood. And while one bunch of wimmen is trying to stop hunting, more of em is trying to git laws passed to make three-year marriage contracts legal. It looks like the wimmen want the men around the house, but not fer long.

A salesman stopped by the country store Saturday night, and he got into a discussion the fellers was having about how old is old enuff to vote. The salesman, that looked to be about 40 year old, said he was fer raising the voting age to 40. Furthermore, he said, the worst mistake ever made in trying to run a Government by the people and fer the people was when the men give the wimmen the right to vote.

Mister Editor, I won't go that fer, cause I know if we got the wimmen really riled they could vote men plum out of the country. But it does look like wimmen has got this disease of turning everthing around and looking at it from the back side. And I think we ought to worry when the wimmen that interduced a bill making marrying a three-year contract said they knowed the idee would go over with the 18-year-old voters.

Actual, it ain't the short-term marrying that's switched around, it's the understandin' of what marriage is in the first place. Maybe I'm wrong, but I allus had the idee that gitting married is a serious business, and that pickin' a mate was a fer cry from buyin' a car that you can turn in as soon as the next model comes out.

But general speakin', Mister Editor, the more some things gits turned around, the more they wind up like they was. Fer instants, I take all this stuff about free love and "commune" living with a big grain of salt. All these folks is trying to do is git the family idee catching on again. The old fashion family, pa, ma and the younguns, may come back in style if we keep switching around.

Your friend,
Unkel Zeke

THE FAMILY LAWYER

Ad Piracy

Poster ads for a circus were so eye-catching that a printer made up some copies—without asking anyone's permission! The owner of the circus promptly filed suit, charging infringement of copyright. But in court, the printer argued:

"More advertisements cannot be copyrighted. The Constitution says copyright is intended only for the 'useful arts'. That means something on a higher artistic level than just ads, which are plain commercialism."

Nevertheless, the court ruled that ads are indeed protectable by copyright and held the printer liable. The court said the Constitution drew no line between high-brow and lowbrow art.

In earlier years, many courts did draw such a line. But today, almost everywhere, ads are entitled to the same copyright protection as a book or a painting. Courts have recognized that a great deal of money and a great deal of talent are now going into the creation of ads.

It is still true, however, that a copyright won't stand up if the ad is dishonest. Thus:

A series of ads was developed by a sales agency, to be used by piano dealers. When one dealer began using the ads without permission, the agency sued him for copyright infringement.

But the judge refused to mix in, when he discovered that the ads were riddled with deceit.

"The law should extend its protection," he said, "only to ads that speak the truth."

Furthermore, only the specific details of an ad—the words, the drawings—are protected, not the general idea.

In another case a merchant advertised a contest in which people were supposed to write letters, telling why they liked to shop in his store.

Later, another merchant announced a contest along the same lines, but describing it in different language. Was this an infringement of copyright?

A court said no, since only the general idea had been copied. If general ideas were copyrightable, said the court, one person could stake out an entire field of thought and keep it as his own private monopoly.

Are You The One For $100.00 Reward?

A reward of $100.00 has been announced for the person catching the 53 pound yellow catfish released in Lake Sweetwater May 17. The reward is posted by the Sweetwater Chamber of Commerce.

The fish was caught in Lake Sweetwater May 12th, by Terry Boley and is the largest recorded catch from this lake. Roy Linn, local game warden, suggested the fish was a "stocker" and if so, would be nine years old.

Fishing permits for Lake Sweetwater are $5.00 per year for a family permit, $1.00 per day for a family permit, and $5.00 per day for an individual permit. Permits are available at Sportsman's Landing and the Golf Pro Shop at Lake Sweetwater and at the City Hall in Sweetwater.

The promotion of this record catch and the posting of the $100.00 prize are projects of the Tourism and Conventions Committee of the Sweetwater Chamber of Commerce. Jimmy Waddell is 1971 chairman of this committee.

Fireplaces served the early colonists of America for both heating and cooking. Bake ovens of brick were often built into the fireplace. A fire was made in the oven, then raked out and the bread or meat put in to be baked by the heat of the bricks.

Even today, everybody loves a genuine fireplace. It's a relaxing escape and a distinctive setting for special occasions.

Now you can have the fireplace you've always dreamed of, and at approximately one-third the cost of a masonry fireplace. Every part—from hearth to chimney top—is factory-built for fast, easy and low-cost installation. It's a simple, fun, do-it-yourself weekend project.

Great for your new home, the Heatilator Mark 123 is also ideal for a remodeling project or vacation home. It can be placed anywhere in any room.

—even the kitchen or master bedroom. Requiring no masonry footings or foundation, it can be set directly on wood floors and against walls with no clearance needed. And it can be built into a wall, out from a wall, add flair to that unused corner or divide a room in any manner.

ABOUT PEOPLE YOU KNOW BY CLIQUE

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Shackelford are moving to Munday to make their home. They have sold their home on the Truby FM Road to Mr. Mrs. James Hughes of Munday.

The Shackelfords have been residents of Anson since 1959. He served as a depot agent with Ft. Worth and Denver Railway Co. until his retirement January 31st 1970. Mrs. Shackelford was employed with Graves and Millie for eleven years, retiring Dec. 26, 1970.

The Shackelfords formerly lived in Munday and will be moving back into their home here. So many times we loose contact with former residents of Anson. It is good to hear from them to keep in touch. Here is a clipping from the Anson News. Mr. and Mrs. Shackelford lived in Jayton several years in the 50's. He was a depot agent here at the time.

Gene Shackelford Jr. and Russell T. Kelley will be awarded Bachelor of Business Administration degrees and Marilyn Jo Young the Bachelor of Science during commencement exercises May 23 at McCurry College.

Betty Jane Walker of Lueders will also receive the BS degree. Gene Shackelford majored in Economics and Kelley in Finance. Both coeds are elementary education majors.

Miss Young is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Young. Gene Shackelford is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Gene Shackelford. Kelley is the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Kelley, and Betty Walker is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Julian Lambert. Graduation exercises will start at 3 p.m. in Radford Memorial Auditorium.

Gene is a former Jayton boy. His parents moved to Munday when he was very small and lived here several years. Gene, Sr. was depot agent here before going to Stamford to work with the railroad there.

Mrs. Granville Smith and Shannon of Victoria spent last week in Jayton with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Parks and Granville's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Smith. She returned Friday morning.

Mrs. Bill Harrison is in the hospital for treatment for her back. She hopes to return home in a day or two.

The ladies are in a big fixing their own jewelry, rings, necklaces, and bracelets and etc. Well, why not, after all the things we see all around us year, after year, day after day, have been fixed by some one. Every dress that is made, picture that has been painted, were made by some one. So how do we know if we can make the lovely things we admire so much till we have tried.

One lady asked me several years ago, when I would paint her a picture. I told her to get her some paint, and paint her own, she had as much talent as I. Today she has murals in Hotel Lobby, a College and a Church. She sells a painting now and then.

Her son got the bug. He is an architect and sells his painting for real fancy prices. So, girls, try real hard before you say you can't. The majority of the time, the can't will never come up. You will be having so much fun just trying you may get a surprise.

Mrs. K. P. Brantner and Mrs. W. K. Joiner have opened the doors of the Brantner Store only for a short time to finish selling out their merchandise that was left on hand when they closed out.

They have no over head not even an electric light. When it gets too warm they close the doors. You know, I think they are enjoying it.

Since news dead line of last week we find there was more damage in the community than first thought.

What must have been a small twister did quite a bit of damage in several places around Jayton. Trees were down at the Dean Young place. Down at Dave Boydston home also their barn and chicken house blew away. Damage was at Olen Ray Cheyne home north of town.

Some barns at the old Lansdown place are gone. Still haven't been found at our last report. One home had all their cabinet door to fly open while the storm was in progress, pressure of the storm, evidently.

Norain at Girard. It seemed to make up, southwest of Clairemont, making its way across the country and on to Guthrie, where it rained. Some places, where they had norain to speak of in the last two years, Bill Parks got over two inches the first to really be enough to help.

The pastures are bare. It isn't known whether he will have to re-seed his pastures.

This Thursday May 20 the clouds are beginning to look good perhaps by printing time we will have more. Oh yes, we can still use more here. I don't think anyone will fuss at some good old mud tracking about the place. The frog chorus in credit lake surely does sound nice.

They won these for selling the Figurette Liner or garments. Oleta's car is a Mercury Monterey, yellow body and white top.

She said the day they picked up their cars that 20 cars were picked up. When they have driven them 25000 miles they they will get a new car as long as they work for the company.

Nelda won her car after only 2 months of work.

It is with regret that we see Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Short move from our midst. They have been real boosters of the community and school always taking an interest in the going on in this their, hometown.

We want to take this opportunity today so long to our many friends in and around Jayton, this isn't good bye, for we will be dropping by Jayton from time to time. Our twenty years in Kent Adolphus Moreland was in the office Monday, he had a narrow escape last week when the hot water heater and the cook stove caught fire at the same time doing quite a bit of damage to their home. Dolphus carried water from the outside and almost had the fire under control, when the fire truck arrived. His ears are all blistered, his hair singed. The fire was so intense it could have been very dangerous. He said the good Lord must have been taking care of him. Mrs. Moreland ran a long way for help, at this time they are still quite shaken up.

Hartense North called Mrs. W. T. North Mothers day. She was at home and would go back to the doctor in two weeks.

Several blood donors went to Stamford to give blood for Bearl Murdoch Monday of this week.

Grammar Page of Girard was in Jayton Tuesday of this week on business, and visiting with friends at the court house. He stated it was still dry up his way. He said that he didn't see the sand so bad till he got to where it had rained, while driving to Jayton.

What does a guy do when he is riding a freshly broke horse and first a rein turns loose, and then the other turns loose? James Henry Smith had this to happen lately. Well he said he just fell over grabbed the mane and hung on. Although he fell off he never did turn loose of the horse and was able to get it stopped.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Peacock spent some time in the home of his sister Mrs. Ruby Matthews.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Gallagher were in Jayton on business Tuesday and came by for a visit and to renew their subscription to the Chronicle.

They spent the weekend in Oklahoma City with Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Gallagher and family. As they were leaving the city the rain started in diluges and kept on to almost Lawton. So there should be a good big spread of country wet up that way.

Sunday we really had one more sand storm. Like in the early 30's, although doors and windows were closed and air conditioners were going, the dust was almost suffocating. Here in Jayton, seemed to be the worst, as the rain was heavier here and the land had not been turned. Some people spread a cloth over their food to keep the dust out while they ate. Let's hope we have nothing like that any way soon.

John Fowler was in the Stamford hospital with a virus over the weekend. He is now at home feeling much better.

IT IS REPORTED that a fifth of mankind watched the moon-walk on television. Estimates are that youngsters graduating from school today will spend more time watching TV than they did in the classroom. Since education takes place out of school as well as in the classroom, it follows that television is a mighty educator. The vital question: What kind of education does TV provide?

FACED with this question, television executives, writers, producers, directors and performers should think seriously about the purpose and consequence of the programming sent over the airways. It would be interesting to see the changes should the media accept the

The H.D. Council News

The H. D. Council met May 12 for a regular meeting. Those attending were: Mrs. Wyatt, Simpson, Darden and Turner from Girard and Mrs. East, Hahn, Boland from Jayton and the agent Mrs. Stanaland.

Plans were made to prepare and serve lunches to the Lions Club as a money making project for the council and a service for the Lions Club.

Mrs. Stanaland explained the new tax-sharing plan the congress has proposed now and encouraged the members to write their Senators and express their wishes on this subject.

The congress and administration have developed a plan for rural development through federal tax-sharing with the state. The state would possibly have a big say in their share of federal money would be spent. At first looked as if the Extension Service would be eliminated but the plan has been revised to maintain an extension program at least as big as it is now. This does not mean that Extension Service would necessarily function the same as it does now.

Home Demonstration 4-H, expanded nutrition workshops and short courses could be discontinued as we know it now. If you have opinion on this subject you may write to your senators at this address:

THE DEFENDERS

SALUTE the men and women of the Armed Forces of the United States of America. These are the men and women who work tirelessly in our defense day after day. Although they are often far from home in lonely, remote corners of the world, they continue to safeguard the values and ideals of their native land. Let us at home strive to protect these ideals for them so that they may return to a united America. While we work to keep our country strong, we honor the Armed Forces, the defenders of the UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.

Our priceless heritage embodied in the flag of the United States, is as alive today as it was when written for the ages in the Declaration of Independence and the Constitution. It stands for all the world to see and for all Americans to cherish. And in the tradition of Washington, Jefferson, and Hamilton, we, too, have a privilege, a right, and a duty. While we may disagree as to the methods, we should not disagree as to the goal -- that of preserving the greatest democratic society the world has ever known. Our flag is a symbol, not of sentiment, but of history, the history of men and women willing to live and die for it. Surely this willingness is with us still, because daily we experience more of the blessings that are ours -- ours because we are Americans.
