Rolling Plains PCA is one of 34 Texas associations that together loaned more than $942 million to the state's farmers and ranchers in 1971, he said.

The association, with offices in Stamford, Childress, Matador, Munday and Spur, makes agricultural loans in Briscoe, Childress, Collingsworth, Cottle, Dickens, Donley, Foard, Hall, Hardeman, Haskell, Jones, Kent, King, Knox, Motley, Shackelford and Stonewall counties.

Butz Wants To Get Farm Income Up

Dr. Earl L. Butz repeated several times to the Senate Agricultural Committee that, "My major intention is to get farm income up." He listed four alternatives as possible ways of achieving this goal. They are:

1. Government purchase of grain in market place.
2. Increase diversion payments.
3. Creation of strategic grain reserve and use of reseal program.
4. Increases in loan rate, including the rate for 1971 corn crop.

Dr. Butz pledge, "I will speak as vigorously as I can for farmers." He said that, if the present law doesn't work, he will come back to Congress for additional authority to make it work.

In his questioning, Dr. Butz told the committee he was for action that would raise corn prices ten cents a bushel immediately. (This would also help to raise grain sorghum prices by 15 cents per hundred.

and dropped some money, he called to the man, who picked up the money and fled. Later he learned of the robbery.

Grandparents Club Meets

The Kent County Grandparents club met Jan. 13th at Girard, with 12 members present. Many were sick and not able to attend.

We missed all that were absent. We hope they will soon be feeling better. Those present paid dues. Those that missed can still pay dues at the next meeting.

The club invites new members.

Mrs. Robert Harrison wanted to tell about a wedding that had taken place, but to tell it she had to violate the rules, and this required the payment of a 25¢ fine. Mrs. Elbert Walker took up a collection for her so she could go ahead and tell the story. It was about a grandson that got married. Also Mrs. Buster Chisum did some unauthorized talking. All had a good time.

The next meeting will be Feb. 10th, with a pancake supper. Please you are asked to let the president of the club know if you plan to come, so arrangements can be made. Please bring bacon or sausage.

A good crowd is expected. Jewel Hooper, reporter

Scouts Hold Big Annual Recognition Banquet

More than 480 Scout leaders and their wives filled the Fair Park Coliseum in Lubbock Saturday night for the 46th Annual Recognition banquet of the South Plains Council, Boy Scouts of America.

Honored at the event were five area men who were presented the Silver Beaver Award, and a Hart, Texas woman who received the first Silver Fawn Award ever presented in the council.

Honored with the Silver Beaver Award for "distinguished service to boyhood" were Tom Branon, Lamesa; John B. Gean, C. Paul Mills, and Bill J. Swinney, all of Lubbock; and the Rev. James Patterson, Kress. The Silver Beaver is the highest award that can be presented to registered adult males by the local council of the Boy Scouts.

Presented the Silver Fawn Award was Mrs. Betty Griswold, Hart, who began serving as a Den Mother in 1952 and is still at it. Mrs. Griswold is the first woman in the South Plains Council to receive the award that was created a year ago to recognize the contributions of women to the program of the Boy Scouts of America.

Re-elected as president of the South Plains Council for 1972 was Clyde J. Morganti, Lubbock, a special assistant to the President of Texas Tech University. John E. (Jack) Baker, Lubbock businessman and a member of the city council was elected South Plains Council Commissioner, succeeding John N. Rogers, also of Lubbock. Jim Word, Floydada was elected a vice president, while W. A. Leligon, Brownfield and Lloyd C. Woods, Plainview, were re-elected as vice Presidents. Murlin Derebery, Lubbock, was re-elected treasurer of the organization. The officers were installed by a high school senior, Keith Anderson of Ralls. Anderson serves as Chairman of the Explorer Post Presidents Association in the South Plains Council. Anderson, along with Steve McMurry, Lubbock, a Texas Tech student, was elected to the Executive Board of the council at the business meeting preceding the banquet. It is the first time that "youth" representatives have served on the governing board of the council.

In addition to the newly elected "youth" representatives, the following men were newly elected to the Executive Board of the council: Ed Wester, Floydada; Ransom Gallaway, Spur, Bob McLean, Dimmitt; Thad McDonnell, Leveland; Fred Garrison and Norman Wright, Plainview; John Saleh, O'Donnell; and Dr. E. C. Leslie, Dr. Heenan Johnson, Bobby J. Moody, the Rev. Robert D. Nicholson, Jose Ramirez, and Bruce Gentry, all of Lubbock.

Commander Thomas J. Keane, USNR (Ret.) of Forest Hills, New York, was the featured speaker of the event. He enumerated the many experiences he has observed where young men in Scouting develop into the dynamic leaders of the community because of their belief in the Scout Oath and the Scout Law. Keane speaks throughout the country on behalf of the Scouting program.

Judge Halbert O. Woodard, Lubbock, served as master of ceremonies for the event. Troop 402, sponsored by First United Methodist Church conducted the opening and closing flag ceremonies. The invocation was given by Chief Master Sergeant Carlos C. Rodriguez, Scoutmaster of Troop 548 at Reese Air Force Base, and the Silver Beaver Award ceremony was conducted by the Rev. Walter M. Bartholf, Sr., Muleshoe.

LETTER TO EDITOR

I thought that the following reminiscence might be of some interest to the readers.

More than 60 years ago we had a farm in a farming community some 3 miles northwest of Double Mountain. I kept house and farmed there for 2 years. The land there was owned by Buck Ervin, Sid Owen, Walter Scott, Bob Goodrum, Tom Hughs, Ben Scott, Walton Davis, Fern York, Dad McGee, Tom Dixon, Will Underwood, Morelands and probably others.

The Old Perkie School House was the community center. A preacher would come around occasionally and preach. On Sunday afternoons we would have singings, and there was some good singers around. When there was a protracted meeting the young people would attend church then go to a home and probably dance until day light.

I have seen a herd of 40 or 50 antelope, and a bunch of 8 or 10 coyotes near the mountains. A panther was around for awhile. Some badly frightened boys on an afternoon beat it to their horses. The panther was not around very long.

There were some of the largest rattlesnakes around that I ever saw. I remember shooting one from my door with a Winchester rifle.

There were quite a few Blue Top Quail around. I have had them to eat from my horse troughs and raise their young in my feed lot, but I never killed one. One day when I came to Jayton some vandals raided my bird reserve and frightened my birds away.

Uncle Sam McCombs ran a small store grocery and post office at Luzon, just south of the Salt Fork; an important meeting place for all concerned.

Sixty years ago some woman and girls still used side saddles. When a boy went with a girl he had to help her mount her horse. If she was pretty heavy sometimes it was a little difficult. I know from experience some of those girls could ride almost like drunken Indians, and it took a pretty good horse to keep up with them.

Well, old Short Corners is just a memory in the minds of our few old timers who remain for some time. This former farming community has been enclosed within the SoRelle pasture. Sam Johnson, Ben Hager and I are the only ones that I know of who lived in Short Corners 60 years ago.

I realize that the young people of this generation will look at this writing as a fairy tale, but never the less it is all true experiences.

In earlier days we had no highways and automobiles. A good horse was the fastest mode of transportation, but we got there, just the same.

Later on if agreeable, I might write of a mystery that occurred near Double Mountain many years ago.

I wish good luck to all. Adolphus Moreland

This Week In Jayton

Veteran West Texas Congressman George Mahon, who has more about U. S. Government money matters than any person alive, has recently come unbuckled in regard to the national economy. He has been highly critical of the new budget submitted by the President. He charges administration with trickery to really hide the amount of deficit in the budget.

The forty billion dollar deficit in the budget for this year, is larger than the total national debt was back pre-World War II days. Mahon says we are bordering on a national disaster in financial matters, and if anyone knows, he should.

The administration, and Congress deals with the cure of a billion dollars, the chicken feed. Most people have no idea of how much money a billion dollars really is. Really, it amounts to a grand million.

I heard this illustrated in a familiar way a few days ago, was put like this.

Say, if, back in the days of the 1930's, a business was started with capital assets of one billion dollars. And, everyday, at that time until the present time, the firm lost a grand dollar a day, at the present time it would still have more than two hundred and fifty million dollars of the money left. Sounds like a lot of money, doesn't it?

Statement that the Texas fiscal picture is in a mess, perhaps the understatement of the year.

Texasans don't know how to finance their party primaries, in effect is the way the officials are elected. They don't know, really, whether their legislative or constitutional districts will be connected with the fact of a final deadline for filing of the first Monday of February, only days away, many questions unanswered.

A panel of federal judges, last week ruled out the Constitutional districting plan, and in its place a plan of their own.

They left one alternative, and that was for the legislature to get together and work up a suitable plan.

Democratic Congressmen really ought about the plan. At least twelve, more than a majority, of the State's Congressmen consider they have been gerrymandered by the

"There! That's it!"

Unkel Zeke Sez

DEAR MISTER EDITOR:

I got my weekly laugh last week when I saw by the papers where this woman in France had been crying for 12 days straight. That's all the piece said. It didn't go into why she was crying, and I reckon that was the funny part. I feel sorry for the woman, but I got to laughing when I decided she was crying cause she was missing all the fun in this country.

For instant, she can't share the joys of Ed Doolittle's girl that works in the city. Ed told the fellers at the country store not long back that his girl got a pay raise full blessed by Wage and Price Control, but when they took out her increase in Social Security payment she was making $2.30 less a week than she was afore. That's the way we keep up with the cost of living in this modern age, was Ed's words. It ain't no wonder that $15,000 a year man quit his job in South Carolina cause they give him a raise, allowed Ed, he probable couldn't afford it.

And since we devalued the dollar, went on Ed, if you ain't no sounder than one you ain't able to be up and about. This must be the only place in the world, allowed Ed, where a feller can go bankrupt making $24 a month payments on everthing in his house, but he can borrow money at nine per cent interest to put up a business that does a million dollar a year business and returns him two per cent on his money. All he's got to do is tell the Government, said Ed, cause if anybody knows how it feels to come out on the little end of borrowing, it's them.

Since 1946, we has give other countries more than $140 billion we borrowed, and we had to raise our limit to $420 billion so our debt would be legal. We'll probable go in the hole another $20 billion this year, while our President keeps talking about sharing "revenues" with the states. And ever time a country gits a chanet, like India done in the war with Pakistan, they show us how much they appreciate our help. And that woman in France is crying.

This is the kind of country where when Congressmen git ashamed of folks talking about the money they git fer not farming, they plant their land in gords and elephant grass and writ the crops off their taxes cause nobody will buy what they raise. This is where younger git kicked out of college cause they bought the same homework from the same outfit, and they sue the homework company fer damaging their character. This is where counterfitters don't even bother to make paper money green, cause our vending machines is color blind.

Yessir, this is where we got real lemon in floor wax and artificial lemon in lemon candy, and where a scientist serious says cigarette smoke

One stormy night our lights went out. The darkness was total. Little Mary screamed and grabbed me. The boys, trying to be brave, banged across the room. I comforted them, trying to hold all against the terrors of the dark. Then the back door banged, and there was Bob standing in the door holding a lighted candle. "Daddy, Daddy," cried the children, their fears forgotten, as the room resumed its safe proportions in the light. Gaily they helped to light the candles and build a roaring fire. How like that candle is my church. The spiritual resources it offers light my life with a sense of proportion and confidence, no matter how dark things seem. Your church can brighten your life, if you give it a chance.

lmen to the doctor at Mun-Monday of this week with and sore throats.

Mrs. Minnie Culver and Nellie Lawson of Matagorda, and Alice Ritz of Bay City, were here to attend the funeral of their brother Ivey Murdoch.
They have been visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Truman Murdoch.

For some two weeks with the walking flu (doctor's name for the bug) is something you want to steer clear of. But

Mrs. Oleta Moore spent the weekend with her parents at DeLeon.

Mr. and Mrs. L.C. Smith returned home after a week in Lubbock with daughter Ann and family, while Edd was in the veterans' hospital for surgery.

John Fowler, Bill and Vanassa have been sick with colds and flu.

Dolphus Moreland is feeling much improved after having a virus and cold last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Porter of Temple attended the funeral of Ivey Murdoch last week. At one time in the 30's Bill barbered with Ivey. Mrs. Porter went to Lubbock to visit her mother. She reports she is doing fine and liking her new home.

Bob Gallagher recently visited with his grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Ollie Davis at Lubbock.

Recent visitors in the Robert Koonce home were, daughter Sheri and family of Wichita Falls, and Alma Joy and family of Odessa.

Ralph Branter recently received a broken arm and a broken leg when his horse fell while chasing cows in tall grass, to cancel a ditch.

Ralph's horse and also the horse William Ray Smith was riding fell, but Ralph was the only one injured. It broke the arm on one side and the leg on the other side. Lets hope he will soon be up and out.

We are going to miss Ivey Murdoch. He always seemed a part of Jayton. Many men, as boys can say that Ivey gave them their first hair cut.

Visiting in the home of Evelyn and Truman Murdoch recently were their children, Maurine of Denver, Lowry Air Force Base, Darwin and family of Andrews, Red and family of Morton, Janelle and family of Sanderson, Charlie recently out of the Army.

Mrs. Minnie Culver and Nellie Lawson of Matagorda,
and Alice Ritz of Bay City,
were here to attend the funeral
of their brother Ivey Murdoch.
They have been visiting in the

the walking flu (doctor's name
want to steer clear of. But just how, is the big question.

When most everyone is sick, or just recovering, the doctor said they have been so busy, and these are really sick people and when the doctor and nurses get sick they just have to keep going. Glad that I could stay at home taking it easy.

The Bill Vencils are adding on to their living room with a fire place.

Naylon Vencil, Greg and Scott of Odessa visited with his parents. The Bill Vencils over the weekend while Joan went to Crowell to be with her grandmother, who is very ill at this time.

Mrs. Lois Simpson was in from Girard Monday afternoon. She came by to renew her subscription to the Chronicle.

Other subscriptions are Howard Goswick, Robert
Bolch, Hobert Lewis, W.D.
Clark, C.A. Luna, Mrs. R.J.
Kellett, R.A. Moreland Sr., J.L. Smith, McNeal Vencil.

Mrs. Nan Jones, of Stamford, the daughter of Mrs.
Emitt Raney and the niece of Sally McAteer and Junie Long is to have surgery on Thursday.
The Raney's lived in Jayton when Jan and Nan were small.
He was manager of the Jayton Rule Oil Mill.

The cotton is still coming to the gins and is keeping the gins pretty busy. Lots of the fields are already plowed, while some of the fields are still untouched by the cotton strippers.

It seems that many of the farmers get caught up, they then are helping their neighbors, with a few more days of good weather. Things should begin to slow down a bit.

Jan Montgomery visited with her brother and wife in Waco over the weekend.

Jan said they had received calls from the John Montgo-merys and the Jimmy Montgo-merys and they were all well.

Louis Smith is having a series of treatments in the Methodist Hospital.

Betty Williams went to be with Faye Alexander at the Methodist hospital, Monday night, after Faye was in a car accident.

Barney Mack Benson of Spur was in Hamlin seeing the doctor. He recently had a finger, crushed in some machinery, which had to be amputated. He is doing well.

Royce Stanaland received injuries when his arm was caught in a cotton stripper.
He was being rushed to the hospital for first aid, when he was met by his wife, Sharon, rushing their daughter to the hospital, after she had eaten aspirins. They are doing just fine.

MOD MOMS MEET

The MOD MOMS met at the office of the Home Demonstration Agent to work on the final plans of the Texas Community Improvement Program.

They also discussed the Mothers March of Dimes to be made soon. Those attending were Janette Seaton, Bea Shipp, Jan Montgomery, Bessie Trammell, Nancy Cheyne, Bert Stanaland.

FAYE ALEXANDER IN CAR WRECK

Mrs. Rex (Faye) Alexander was seriously injured Monday when her car was in collision with a pick up as she turned off the Spur Farm to Market road west, into the high way just east of Crosbyton. She was on her way to visit Rex's mother, Mrs. R. L. Alexander who is a patient in the Cros-byton hospital. She was carried to the Methodist hospital where she had surgery, suffering from a broken pelvis, plus an injured hip. She is in intensive care, and probably will be for several days, however the doctor said he thought she would be alright in time for her injuries to heal.

plan. They want Governor Smith to call a special session of the Legislature to make a new plan. They charge the court with implementing a plan which highly favors the Republicans. And, if you look at District No. 12 of the new plan, which would encompass the county, you can see the logic for their claims, as it takes care of Cong. Bob Price, a Republican, moving his likely Democratic opponent into another District.

Governor Smith has his back up, and says emphatically he will not call a session, either to draw up new Congressional districts, or Legislative Districts in case the court throws out them too. In this act the governor is relatively divorcing himself from all party leaders in the state, including powerful Democratic Congressman, who could wield a powerful influence against him.

But, the governor has considerable logic behind his move. As he says, the Legislature had plenty of time and opportunity to devise districting plans that were equitable, but they refused to do so. Why could we expect them to do any better in another try?

In the opinion of this writer, there has never been a time in the history of the state when the politicians have been petty politicians first, and statesmen last, or not at all.

The first districting plan of the legislative districts showed signs of gerrymandering and political patronage in almost every district line.
Also the Congressional plan had huge bottlenecks and signs of inequities all over the State, where the makers of the plan were helping friends and crippling foes. The legislature quit and went home without ever coming up with a State Senate redistricting plan. The courts overturned the legislative districting plan. So a committee of the Speaker, the Lt. Governor, and three top elected State officials drew up another legislative districting plan. But, if the people had any hopes of getting a better plan from this committee, they were doomed to disappointment, as this one looked even more poli-

Root plowing and seeding is under way in Kent County for 1972. Soil Conservation Service personnel are assist-and applying this conserva-

Root Plowing & Seeding

Ranchers in Kent County have been using the root plow to good advantage over the past years as a means of controlling competitive woody plants. Approximately 50,000 acres have been rootplowed and seeded in Kent County since the use of the root plow began.

Certainly the root plow is not the cure all, nor should it be used in all instances. If the rancher finds that he has dense thick brush, with a small amount of the better grasses such as sideouts grama, plims bristlegrass, little bluestem, Arizona cottontop, etc. then he should give rootplowing major consideration in planning his brush control program. With a small percentage of the better grasses on the ground to respond to the moisture release of the brush control, seeding along with the brush control would be needed. Rootplowing and seeding would do a fine job in this instance.

If the rancher makes the decision to rootplow, there are a few rules of thumb that he should follow in carrying out the practice to insure a success.

Plowing on most mature trees should be 14 inches in depth.
This will allow the blade to be tically inspired than the other.

So, really, there is two sides to this issue. No good Texan in his right mind, could approve of the courts, themselves coming up with a districting plan, but, also, who could expect anything else or better from the Texas Legislature?

The only conclusion we can come to, is that the state of political affairs in Texas has reached a new depth of high-handed - political maneuvering. Right now the Republicans have the upper hand.
Now, watch them try to hold it.

And, while all this party fueled, and even in-party fueled is going on, look at the mess the State is in?
Who has the answer?

It has been more than 50 years since World War I and the disastrous inflation that swept Germany after that conflict. However, a brief historical note in The Winthrop Minnesota, News is a reminder of what inflation did on that occasion. In the words of The News, "We have read of postwar years that is WWI in Germany. We were reminded of this when a few pieces of currency from that time came into our possession. One was a million mark note. If it were valid now, with the current value of the mark now between 25 and 30 cents, this note would represent $250,000 to $300,000. It is worthless, except as a curio." The Winthrop News item was written before the dollar was devalued in late December 1971.

Everyone agrees that inflation is bad, but few realize just how bad it can be. It can overwhelm the smartest of men and the best laid plans of government. Its only real prevention -- or cure -- is a balance between spending and taxation. --Selected striving to live, but if they are over grazed the first winter, their chances for survival the next spring are slim.

In planning brush control by rootplowing and seeding, landowners should always take into consideration their wildlife cover. This can be accomplished by working with Soil Conservation Service Personnel in the planning of a wildlife Brush Control Pattern before the rootplow reaches the ranch.

These are a few of the rules that that ranchers should remember as we have enter the rootplowing and seeding season. A number of ranchers are rootplowing at the present time and many others are planning on rootplowing and seeding before May 30th.

A Change In Seasons

A change in seasons always seems to herald a change in activities. If the pace of everyday living is quickened, food must be relied upon to supply the extra energy needed. While a basic breakfast of fruit or juice, ready-to-eat cereal with milk, bread and spread and a beverage provides a good start on the body's nutrient needs for the day, sometimes a heartier meal is desirable. For better morning fare Kay Kellogg suggests a breakfast built around Baked French Toast as the main event. This recipe features another ingredient use for versatile packaged corn flake crumbs. Suitable accompaniments may include crisp bacon, warm maple syrup or honey and the customary fruit plus a beverage to complete the menu.

- BAKED FRENCH TOAST
- 4 cups corn flakes or 1 cup packaged corn flake crumbs
  - 2 eggs, well-beaten
  - 1/2 cup milk
  - 1/2 teaspoon salt
  - 1/2 teaspoon vanilla flavoring
  - 8 slices day-old bread, cut in halves
  - 1/4 cup regular margarine or butter, melted
1. If using corn flakes, crush into fine crumbs. Set aside.
2. Combine eggs, milk, salt and vanilla in shallow dish or pan. Dip bread in egg mixture turning once and allowing time for both sides to absorb liquid. Coat evenly with corn flakes crumbs and place in single layer on well-greased baking sheet. Drizzle with margarine.
3. Bake in hot oven (450° F.) about 10 minutes or until golden brown.
Yield: 4 servings. 3 toast halves each.

- 2 1/4 c. raw cranberries, coarsely chopped
- Sift together flour, baking powder and salt. Add soda to shortening; mix well. Gradually blend in sugar. Beat in eggs one at a time. Add flour mixture alternately with orange juice. Stir in rind, nuts and cranberries. Turn into well greased, lightly floured 9x5x3-inch pan. Bake at 350 degrees for 1 hour and 30 minutes. Remove from pan and cool. 15-20 servings.

ORANGE-PECAN BREAD

  - 4 t. baking powder
  - 1/2 t. soda
  - 1/2 t. salt
  - 1 c. chopped pecans
  - 2 eggs, well beaten
  - 1/2 c. milk
  - 1/2 c. orange juice
  - 1 T. grated orange rind
  - 3/4 c. orange marmalade
- Mix and sift together dry ingredients. Stir in pecans. Combine eggs, milk, orange juice, orange rind and marmalade; stir in dry ingredients. Mix well. Turn into greased loaf pan and bake 1 hour at 350 degrees.

My Trip To Holy Land

By Wenonah Porter, Temple, Texas (Former Jayton Resident)

My trip to the Holy Land, in Nov., was one of the most wonderful experiences of my life.

I went with a group from here, sponsored by R. E. Baker, pastor of Memorial Baptist Church. We went by bus to Dallas, where we flew by an American Airlines 747 to N. Y., and on another 747 from N. Y. to Frankfurt, Germany. From Frankfurt, we took a smaller plane, a 727, to Tel Aviv, and on to our hotel in old Jerusalem by bus, arriving at night. Our days were all very full, as we were trying to see so much in such a short time. We visited so many places that were very meaningful to us. We saw the ugly part of Israel and the land flowing with milk and honey!

We took a walking tour of the old city the first day there, making a visit to the Garden Tomb, St. Stephens Gate, the Pool of Bethesda, Pilates Judgement Hall, the Chapel of the Flagellation, the Ecce Homo Arch, and the Gabbatha of the Fortress of Antonia, where Jesus was tried before Pilate. We then proceeded to the Temple area on Mt. Moriah and visited the Dome of the Rock, built on the ancient site of Solomon's Temple. From here we went to the western or walling wall, and continued on through the Bazaar to the Holy Sepulchre, over the traditional site of Calvary. We were walking over some of the same old cobblestones that Jesus had walked.

Our next tour was by bus--continuing our sights of the old city as well as new Jerusalem. We drove to the Mt. of Olives, from which we had an outstanding view of the city and surrounding area. We went to the Garden of Gethsemane where we visited the church of all Nations, and on to Mt. Zion, where we saw the room of the last supper and King David's Tomb. We proceeded to the church of John the Baptist, and then to the Shrine of the Book, where the Dead Sea Scrolls were exhibited. We later saw the Qumran, where the scrolls were found. After lunch, we drove to Bethlehem for a visit to the Church of the Nativity, where we saw the shepherds' field and the field of Boaz. We made a visit to Lazarus' tomb before going on to Bethany, home of Mary and Martha, and continued on by way of the Inn of the Good Samaritan and on to Jericho, where we saw the excavation of the ancient Canaanite city of Jericho. From there, we could see the Mt. of Temptation. Our next stops were the Jordan River and the Dead Sea.

On Thursday, our tour took us to Emmaus, where the resurrected Jesus revealed himself, and to Shiloh where the Ark of Covenant was kept and then on to Samaria, stopping to see Jacob's well and the tomb of Joseph. We passed Nain, where Christ raised to life the widow's son. From here we could see Mt. Tabor, the traditional place of the Transfiguration. We reached Tiberias, built during the time of Jesus, and from there took a cruise on the sea of Galilee to Capernaum. Many unforgettable happenings are related to this area. We proceeded on to Iabgha, place of the multiplication of the loaves and fishes, and on to Nazareth, Jesus' home, before going back to our hotel for the night.

We toured next, the coastal area to Haifa. We saw the ruins of Solomon's stables and a secret passage, thought to be the passage through which David escaped the hands of King Saul. Arriving in Haifa, we ascended to Mt. Carmel and saw the cave and well of Elijah. We motored on to Caesarea, the ancient port founded by Herod the Great. This was where Peter baptized Cornelius and his household, the first Gentile converts, and where Paul was imprisoned for two years. We saw, too, the great Roman Theater from the time of Herod, the hippodrome, and the fortified walls.

Our next day was to be a free one, but we chose to make another tour to Beershebe and Ashkelon. We stopped by Solomon's pools, started by Herod and still used to furnish water to Jerusalem. We drove to the Mediterranean, where we enjoyed the sandy beaches and beautiful blue water, and took a stroll through the area, where ruins of the Crusaders stood. We returned to Jerusalem through the valley of Elah, where David slew Goliath.

From Jerusalem, we went to Athens, Greece, where we saw the acropolis, with the ruins of the Parthenon, and ascended Mars Hill where Paul preached. In Corinth, the city where Paul spoke so brilliantly and upheld the teachings of Jesus, we saw the Temple of Apollo and the Roman ruins containing the platform from which Paul preached. We also saw the beautiful Corinth Canal, which divides the Aegean and the Ionian Seas.

We returned home November 10, about midnight, looking forward to the time we could make the same trip again. It was a dream of a lifetime.

NOTICE. . . . .
To the people of the City of Jayton:

The City Council of the City of Jayton is taking into consideration the installation of a Sanitary Sewer System within the City Limits of the City of Jayton.

At the present time there are funds available through the Farmers Home Administration that will pay 50% or more of the costs of the system. This 50% will be IN THE FORM OF A GRANT. The cost per month for this system for you will be approximately $3.00 or $4.00 per month. It is the belief of the members of the Jayton City Council that if we do not take advantage of this Farmers Home Administration money now, that when time comes and the State Health Department requires a sanitary sewer system to comply with State Law, these funds will not be available, and the costs to construct the system will be very much greater.

The other cost of the system, not covered by grants, will be a loan from the Farmers Home Administration, to be paid out of revenue, instead of an increase in taxes. Since this will be a revenue bond, all eligible voters within the City of Jayton will be qualified to vote. You do not have to be a property owner to vote in such an election.

A questionnaire will be mailed to you with your water bill in the near future. Please make your wishes known on this questionnaire as to whether or not you want a sewer system, and mail it with your payment of the water bill, or bring it to the City Office.

We would request that water users and anyone interested to answer this questionnaire, because it is you who will be paying the system.

Your signature on the questionnaire obligates you in a way.

Farmers and Ranchers GROW With Rolling Plains Production Credit Association-- The Go Ahead People

That's another good thing about Production Credit. Rolling Plains PCA has grown. The figures speak for themselves. And you can bet that our Rolling Plains PCA members, who are stockholders and sole owners of their credit source, have grown too.

Look at the growth rate. Loans outstanding and total amount loaned have more than doubled in the past 5 years. Association capital has increased almost 100 percent.

Still another good thing about Rolling Plains PCA is that all this time, we've been reducing the amount of difference between what money costs us and what it costs our stockholders.

You've seen us grow. Now find out how you can grow. Come in and talk to the go ahead people at any one of our offices in
