Sartain And Judy Are Named School Favorites

THIS WEEK IN JAYTON

Harold Wayne Judy is being said now to be a no-fault insurance. A few months ago, we said that it would cut the cost of auto insurance in half. We are told by some it will cut it by maybe ten percent. A Lubbock attorney Tuesday he felt it would be the auto rates. Heaven

Teaver, head of the State Insurance Board, says he is also insurance is too high for several reasons, but particularly, because too much of the insurance dollar disappears in administrative costs.

He says for every dollar of claims to auto insurance holders, they have paid $2.20. This is too much, he thinks. All of us who pay premiums will agree.

An Abilene jury of eight women and four men has found Gu Mutcher and two others guilty of conspiring to accept a bribe. But, even if the three accept the sentence, none will spend a single day in jail. Judge Daniel gave them a five year probation.

Their is appealing the case, because they do not want the reputation, and all the penalties that go with being a convicted felon.

Really, I can't see it. If they are going to be set free and not spend any time in jail, they should have been declared innocent, and set on their way.

Every day you see where someone of the rank and file found guilty of a check law violation, involving only a few dollars, and this person is actually sent to prison, on a two to five year term.

Let a person be convicted of a political felony, involving thousands of dollars in violation of public confidence, and it seems about all the courts want, is a speedy decision.

It's just not fair. We talk about justice, but until all people, regardless of station or race, are treated with the same degree of seriousness in the courts, justice is only a word we throw around, and not the real thing.

Alabama Governor George Wallace is making a bid for the Democratic nomination for president. He was in Texas recently, and is urging his supporters to attend the precinct conventions in May and go to vote for him. His hope is to get a lot of instructed delegates from Texas. And who knows, he just might do it.

A lot of liberal Democrats are looking at old George with a undiced eye since he has heaved up the big pile of money in Florida last week.

Harvard University, founded in 1636, is the oldest college in the United States.

The students of Jayton High School have elected favorites and personalities to be featured in the 1971-72 yearbook, The Jaybird. Harold Judy, son of Mrs. Dorothy Judy, and Billie Sartain, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Billie Sartain, were chosen Mr. and Miss Jayton High school.

Kent County Judge To Be Elected In May Primary

The Kent County Commissioners Court, in a special Monday session, in the opinion of the editor of the Jayton Chronicle, exercised a very good judgment in deciding to let the voters of the county determine who the next County Judge will be, to replace resigned Judge Bob Gallagher.

Since the First Primary is so near at hand, Judge Gallagher agreed to hold the office until after the Primary. The court agreed that whoever won the Primary May 6th, would be appointed to serve until the new term began Jan. 1.

Filing deadline for the candidates to this office has been set for April 6th. This is more than two weeks off, and gives plenty of time for people to decide whether or not they want to become candidates.

In other action Monday the court voted to buy a set of law books for $880 for the county law library. Also it was agreed by members of the court that the county will not do any terracing, tank building or cleaning out tanks for individuals, the court minutes show.

Jaybird Athletic Banquet Planned For April 15th

high school athletes. We hope you will plan to attend this event and help support your high school athletes. The tickets will be priced at $2.25 each and will go on sale Friday, March 24th. Alternates who help with make-up and stage settings are Marilyn Bennett, Bill McMeans, and Terry F. or.

Highway Patrol Checks One Accident In February

The Texas Highway Patrol investigated one accident on rural highways in Kent County during the month of February, according to Sergeant Frank Jrcik, Highway Patrol supervisor of this area.

These crashed resulted in no persons killed and no persons injured. The rural traffic accident summary for this county during the first two months of 1972 shows a total of one accidents resulting in no persons killed, and no persons injured.

The rural traffic accident summary for the 60 counties of the Lubbock Department of Public Safety Region for February, 1972 shows a total of 478 accidents resulting in 15 persons killed and 233 persons injured as compared to February, 1971 with 521 accidents resulting in 20 persons killed and 251 persons injured.

The 15 traffic deaths for the month of February, 1972 occurred in the following counties: Wise, three; Hale and Lubbock; two each, Garza, Lamb, Lynn, Carson, Donley, Moore, Swisher, and Wheeler, one each.

Rolling Plains Track Meet Here Saturday

Coach Bruce Land expects from 400 to 500 athletes to be in Jayton Saturday competing in the Rolling Plains Track Meet.

To get underway at 9 a.m. Saturday, he expects about 25 Class B teams and from 12 to 15 Class A teams. The meet was cancelled last year because of a wet track. School officials are hoping for good weather this year. The National Shoe Ball Company of Coney Island, N. Y., built the first shoe ball alley in 1914. The opera "Aida" was written in celebration of the Suez Canal opening.

Kent 4-H Club Favorite Food Show Here Saturday

The Kent County 4-H Food Show was held on March 18 at the Jayton Community Center. There was approximately 40 persons who attended.

Those who judged the meat group and milk group were Mrs. Barbara Elliot H.D., Agent from Haskell County and Mrs. Mary Newberry, H.D., Agent from Jones County. Mrs. Alice Ballenger H.D., Agent from Fisher County and Mrs. Jonnie Hoolenpile, 4-H leader from Fisher County judged the fruit-vegetable and bread-cereal groups.

There were three Senior and thirteen Junior participants. The results of the show are: Valorie Panter-Blue Ribbon, high point winner in Sr. meat group, Minette Geeslin-red ribbon, high point winner in Sr. fruit-vegetable group.

The high point winners are eligible to compete in the District Food Show. Congratulations to all of the participants. Those of you who have never attended a food show or helped 4-Hers prepare for one don't know how much work it is. The food show really is a complicated contest; this is a brief description of some of the responsibilities of a 4-Her who decides to enter.

The 4-Her decides on a favorite dish that he or she has prepared at home and enters the show in the food group that the particular dish is from.

Then the 4-Her must decide what type of table setting to have-formal or informal. After this she must find a plate, glass, flatware, tablecloth and napkin, serving dish and an appropriate centerpiece. All this must fit neatly on a card table. Along with this the 4-Her must complete a foods record book and attend several project meetings. The most important part is the 4-Hers knowledge of nutrition and this takes hours of study at home and at 4-H meetings.

The food and table setting is called the exhibit and this is judged the day of the food show. The record book is judged separately. The score from the records and exhibit are added together to determine what ribbon the child will win. The child who had the highest score within a food group will be the high point winner. All of this takes much work from the 4-Her and much encouragement from the parents, leaders, and agent.

Raldo Goodall Is Candidate For County Judge

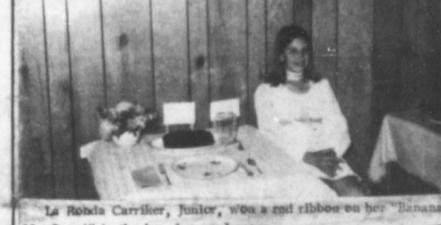

The Jayton Chronicle is authorized by R. G. (Raldo) Goodall to state that he is candidate for the office of Kent County Judge, and ex-officio County Superintendent in the Primary May 6.

He will issue a statement at a later date. He said he would appreciate the people giving his candidacy full consideration.

Chances are, at some time or other, you've probably written an irate complaint letter to a manufacturer. How quick we are to do that! But have you ever written for advice on using a manufacturer's product? Or, to ask for booklet?

Lisa Pickens, Junior, won a blue ribbon on her "Chicken Hunter-Style" in the meat group.

Robbin Carraker, Junior, won a red ribbon on her "Banana Nut Bread" in the bread-cereal group.

Julie Panter, Junior, won a red ribbon on her "Macaroni Salad" in the fruit-vegetable group.

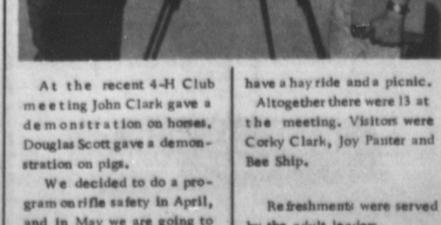

Elaine Gallagher, Junior, won a red ribbon on her "Fruit Dessert" in the fruit-vegetable group.

Tammy Panter, Junior, won a red ribbon on her "Jambalaya" in the meat group.

Melodie SoRelle, Junior, won a red ribbon on her "Ambrosia Fruit Dessert" in the fruit-vegetable group.

Lex Dunham won a blue ribbon on his "Chile Con Queso" dip in the milk group.

At the recent 4-H Club meeting John Clark gave a demonstration on horses. Douglas Scott gave a demonstration on pigs. We decided to do a program on rifle safety in April, and in May we are going to have a hayride and a picnic. Altogether there were 13 at the meeting. Visitors were Cory Clark, Joy Panter and Bee Ship. Refreshments were served by the adult leaders.

DEAR MISTER EDITOR:

Ed Doolittle, that allowed some time back that he was trying for at least one good laugh a week, reported to the fellers at the country store Saturday night that he got his last week. He had saw by the paper where National Pay Yore Bills Week was observed, sponsored by the American Collectors Association.

Of all the weeks ever set aside, from Crime Prevention to Peanut Butter Sandwich, Ed said Pay Yore Bills involved more folks direct. The hole country is running on credit, said Ed, and Governments is leading the way. If everybody was to pay their bills, the unemployment rate would shoot up out of sight on account of all the collectors and time-payment clerks out of work. When you git right down to it, said Ed, Pay Yore Bills Week is hazardous to the national health.

Clem Webster said they was a grain of truth in Ed's thalarky, but Pay Yore Bills Week come and went and Ed must of been one of powerful few that paid any mind. Clem said Pay Yore Bills can be bunched with Brotherhood Week and Clean-Up Week for all the good they do. All of them is hard cases of getting the horse to drink after you git him to the water, was Clem's words.

Actual, went on Clem, the country is in such a fix that credit is somepun a feller, a company and a Government has got to have. Clem recalled a few years back when this little town wanted to put in some sewer and water lines, but they couldn't sell no bonds to big investors cause they had never borrowed money afore and didn't have a credit rating.

Now you take President Nixon's $25 billion bill for this budget year, Clem said, and you can see how far good credit can carry you. The country has gone $425 billion in the hole, and we're going right on to $493 billion in June of next year. The trick, tho, Clem explained, is that the country pays its bills no matter how much it has to borrow to do it. The Collectors Association said two out of ever five Americans has debt troubles, but Clem was of a mind they was three Americans short in their figgers.

Zeke Grubb broke in to declare that Nixon's new $25 billion debt was a good debt, where what most that folks has is bad debts. The President said his deficit was good cause it was a "full employment" debt, but when Democrats went in debt during times of full employment they had bad debts. What the Democrats needed was a excuse, declared Zeke. He said if a conservative bunch can spend like we're doing it'd be a sight in the world to see what liberals could do with Pay Yore Bills Week.

Personal, Mister Editor, I allus figgered a business that had to git out and scratch fer its income stood a bigger risk of going in the hole than a Government that knows its income in advance, but I reckon that jest shows my ignorance.

Sincerely
Unkle Zeke

UNDERWAY

There she goes . . . UNDERWAY at last! You can almost feel her confidence when she hits the water. But who knows what adventures await her on the Seven Seas? How many crucial tests must the captain face before she finally rests at a harbor of safety?

We're the captains of our own ships in the voyage through life. We begin with determined optimism. We have youth, ambition, determination. We have health and strength. But as we get "underway," we soon find ourselves faced with sudden trials and obstacles. It is in these moments of crisis that our faith and courage are challenged.

Just as the ship has its modern equipment and its lighthouses, so we too have a tower of direction and strength found in the Church. In the Church of Jesus Christ we find a lasting faith, guiding us into the calm harbor of ETERNAL life.

As It Looks From Here

Rep. Omar Burleson
Member of Congress, Texas

TENS OF THOUSANDS OF YOUNG men, the exact number unknown, were evacuated from Vietnam and are now living in Canada and Should they be forgiven and granted amnesty? If so, should they apply only draft resisters? Or also deserters?

Should their forgiveness be contingent on conditions of employment or should these men continue subject to prosecution, which would mean that most would remain in jail?

These are questions that arise from the raw emotions generated by the war itself. These questions run the full spectrum from the ennobling of the draft to the above the law to the betrayal of these men to indulgent cowards to written off by their Country, permanently or indefinitely.

There are estimated to be 100,000 young men living outside the United States, having left to avoid the draft and dodging punishment. Late last year the Department of Defense estimated 249 deserters still at large.

Legislation introduced in Congress distinguishes between the draft dodger and deserter and provides that amnesty be granted the draft resisters on condition that they return to the United States and within three years as provided in House Bill, either in civil or military programs.
Deserters are not included in proposed legislation.

When the Congress by legislation the President by executive action can grant amnesty and there is precedent
in the U.S. Constitution, Article II, Section 2, says,
"The President... shall have power to grant Reprieves and pardons for offenses against the States..." The amnesty does not use the word amnesty but there is a tradition of it being applied. George Washington granted this forgiveness to men who staged the Whiskey Rebellion in 1794.

On December 8, 1863,
Abraham Lincoln issued a proclamation for general amnesty for men who would sign an oath of allegiance to the Union. This was more than a year before Lee surrendered at Appomattox. Andrew Johnson declared three generations, requiring an oath of allegiance, in 1865, 1867 and 1968. In 1924, Calvin Coolidge granted amnesty to men who had deserted since the World War I armistice.

Former President Truman appointed a board to look into the matter of recommending pardons for 15,805 men convicted of violating Selective Service during World War II.
The board recommended 1,523 pardons and they were granted by Mr. Truman.

For whatever may eventually be the case justifying amnesty for deserters and draft evaders of the present war, the time is certainly not now and neither by legislation nor Presidential order is it soon likely.

The war in Vietnam is winding down but it is not over.
We still have men in Southeast Asia and some are fighting and a few are dying. At least 55,000 American boys have already died in that unfortunate conflict. Other American men languish in North Vietnam prisons. To welcome home, at this time, the draft dodgers and deserters, as if what they did was guilt-less and incidental, would be a monumental affront to those who have performed their duty and continue to perform it.

The word "amnesty" derives from the Greek word amnesia, meaning "forgetfulness." In reverse, to grant amnesty at this time to the draft evaders and deserters would be forgetfulness of those 55,000 or more who have given their lives in Vietnam and the environs and forgetful of those prisoners of war whose condition and circumstances should be wringing the heart of America.

Time has a way of changing things but not enough now to make us forgetful.

J. L. Hill To Retire As PCA President

At a meeting of the Board of Directors Friday, March 10, 1972, J. L. Hill, Jr., President of the Rolling Plains Production Credit Association, advised the Board of his decision to retire effective June 30, 1972. He had originally planned to retire at the end of 1972 but due to other business interests, decided to retire at the earlier date.

Mr. Hill became Manager of the Stamford Production Credit Association in 1935 and has served approximately 37 years as head of that organization and the Rolling Plains PCA which resulted from a merger of the Stamford and Memphis PCA's in 1965. When he became Manager of the Stamford PCA in 1935, loans outstanding were approximately $100,000.00. Currently, loans outstanding total $20,000,000.00. Prior to becoming Manager of the Stamford Production Credit Association, Mr. Hill was associated with a bank in Rule, Texas, for 10 years. In commenting on his initial connection with the banking business, he jokingly stated that the bank was real good to him in the beginning - that he was permitted to work for them 3 months and they did not charge him a thing for the training.

Mr. and Mrs. Hill plan to continue residing in Stamford following his retirement. He will devote full time to real estate and other business interests. Following Mr. Hill's decision to retire, the Board elevated J. R. Gleaton to the position of President effective June 30, 1972. with R. D. Cobb and Bill Glenn to serve as Vice Presidents. The Rolling Plains PCA maintains its headquarters in Stamford with Field Offices at Munday, Childress, Matador and Spur.

Canning Demonstration

The canning demonstration by Mrs. Hattie Kilgore Davis was well attended by Kent County people. Mrs. Davis gave a very good 2 hour demonstration on canning with a pressure cooker and also by the hot water bath method. She did some actual canning of tomatoes, beans and pineapple. Mrs. Davis said that there has been a great increase in canning in the past few years and the reason for this was determined by a survey.

Those who attended the demonstration were: Joy Panter, Jan Montgomery, Mrs. Gordon Hamilton, Nikki Phillips, Grace Stanaland, Mrs. Nellie Fuller, Bea Shipp, Bert Stanaland, Mrs. Lois Turner, Mrs. Lois Simpson, Mrs. Clara Darden, Mrs. W. W. Hodges, Mrs. Roy Nance, Mrs. Edith Thompson, Mrs. Virgil Kilpatrick, Mrs. Ruth White, Laura Arnold.

The survey showed that the women liked to see the full jars on the pantry shelves. Mrs. Davis pointed out that a person really did save money by canning and this could be seen when a person counted the number of fruits or vegetables in home canned and compare it to the number in the com-mercially canned products. I wish to take this opportunity to say thanks for the calls, prayers, flowers, and everything done for me during the illness and death of my father, Oscar H. Hutchings. May God's richest blessings be with you. Grace Hutchinson 7-1tp

Food Reserves Low On County Grass

By: Rhett H. Johnson
District Conservationist

The signs of spring are very evident on the rangeland of the Duck Creek Soil and Water Conservation District.

The mesquite are greening up, many of the brush species are blooming, the warm season grasses are even taking on that green color. Spring is the awakening time of the year for the plants and the beginning of life for many young.

On the surface, spring looks like the strongest time of the year for plants, with all the green leaves sprouting forth. But, let's take a look underneath, at what is really happening to our plants.

You remember last fall, we received those joyous rains that allowed our plants to make tremendous growth. They produced many leaves, they made a good seed crop, and they also stored up a food reserve in their root systems.

This stored food supply is the most important one item in the life cycle of a plant. It is the stored food that our plants are using at the present time to grow these first green leaves. All plants will use practically 100% of their stored food to make this first green growth.

After all this stored food is used in this initial growth, the plants are at the weakest point in their life cycles. They now have to depend solely on the new leaves to manufacture the food needed by the plant to survive. The same holds true for young grass seedlings. They have depended on the food in the seed for their initial growth, but now depend on the food manufactured in the leaves for survival.

It is at this time that the grass manager needs to be very careful in how he manages his livestock and grass. If he allows his livestock to graze all of the new green leaves as they make their first growth he is removing the food or the ability of the plant to make the food necessary for survival. If he allows the first leaves to grow without grazing or little grazing use, the plant will immediately begin to manufacture new food in its leaves. This food will be used to increase the vigor of the plant, and allow it to produce new storage at its maximum level. If all or a high percentage of the first leaves are removed by grazing,

Norman Hahn has applied a good range management program on this pasture. Even though rootplowing and seeding were carried out, the pasture would not have been without the the plant will weaken to the point of very low productivity or it will die from starvation.

How can a rancher rest his range to allow it to make this first growth without grazing? No two management operations are the same but here are a few alternatives that he might consider:

1. Use small grain and forage sorghums to carry cattle in the spring while resting rangeland
2. Rest one half of the ranch in the spring and one half in the fall, changing the pattern each year
3. Initiate a rotation deferred grazing system that allows for spring and fall rest periods
4. Establish improved permanent pastures to be used to carry livestock while resting part of rangeland
5. Use stocker cattle in the dormant season, resting range during the growing season

These are the major alternatives a manager can apply in planning a deferment program on your land, the Soil Conservation Service personnel will be glad to assist you in inventoring your situation and installing a deferment program.
