When Hines and E. V. Peck, Hahn and Abbott Co. handle tax values were in line with them. They received taxes on a 12% assessment this year amounted to $35 million dollars. This is an increase of more than a half million over last year. Oil production the year increased by almost 100 barrels per day, the county was told.

When Hahn, Raldo Goodall, W. H. Parks and Ricky were guests of the court.

So you all come on out!

Kent County voters Saturday elected two new commissioners, and put two of its citizens into a runoff for County Judge.

Bill Parks nosed out veteran precinct One Commissioner Gordon Hamilton, 138 to 106. Ricky Kyle had a one vote lead over Sarah Byrd, who was serving out the unexpired term of her husband Elwood Byrd. This vote was 104 to 103.

Raldo Goodall topped the list in the judges race, getting 230 votes. Norman Hahn was second with 226, followed by Monroe Davis with 186 and Sleepy Browning with 108.

This will see Goodall and Hahn in a runoff, June third.

Four year Governor Preston Smith received less than ten percent of the votes, not even carrying his home county. Also Lt. Gov. Ben Barnes, who two years ago received more votes than any Texan had ever polled, Saturday ran a poor third for Governor. Dolph Briscoe came close to getting Governor with a runoff. He faces Frances Farenthold of Corpus Christi, a liberal legislator, who ran on a "Clean up the Mess in Austin" ticket.

Also there will be several other state runoffs.

Soil Stewardship Week Now Being Observed

Soil Stewardship Week is being observed across the nation May 7 through May 14. This week is observed to remind us of our obligation to God as stewards of the soil, water and other natural resources. It is sponsored annually by soil and water conservation districts through the country.

During this period when most of us live at a faster pace than ever before, it seems that a lot of us have lost sight of the fact that our soil, water, air and other resources are a God given gift to sustain us while on this earth. And they will sustain us as God intended long as we take care of them but if they are allowed to deteriorate they will not. When God made the earth it was perfect, man has been responsible for the damage that has been done to our natural resources. Man will have to be the one to stop the damage and abuse of our resources.

We can improve our environment and protect what God has given us if we really want to and work together. I urge everyone in the county to become more "conservation minded" and to join with others in supporting efforts and activities that are aimed at improving our quality of life. A good start would be to become involved in promoting and supporting Soil Stewardship Week.

Convenience And Comfort Important In The Home

Roberta E. Stanaland
 County Home Demonstration Agent

Homemakers should arrange their kitchens for convenience and comfort. Does the work in your kitchen does the work in your kitchen? If your storage is arranged conveniently it will save you time and energy for other "fun" activities.

Reaching to different heights requires varying amounts of energy. Reaching to elbow height requires the least amount of energy. Stopping to low heights requires more energy than reaching and stretching.

One should plan your storage so that the most used items are at elbow reach. Also the items should be stored at the areas that they are used first. These areas are the cooking center, sink and mixing center. The supplies and utensils that are to be used for mixing food for meals should be conveniently stored at the mixing center. The food that need water for cooking are stored near the sink area. The utensils for cooking vegetables and dish washing supplies are stored at the sink area also. Ready-to-eat foods, such as canned foods, are stored near the range. The utensils and seasonings needed for cooking and preparing these foods are kept at the cooking center.

Why don't you evaluate your kitchen storage to see if some improvements can be made. Storage in the right place saves steps, time, stooping, stretching, and it saves you!

Nutritional Labeling Is Very Important

County Home Demonstration Agent

"The homemaker concerned about the nutritional value of packaged foods should know that the Food and Drug Administration is proposing the establishment of a uniform system of voluntary nutritional labeling for packaged foods."

That's the report given by Frances Reasonover, food and nutrition specialist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service at Texas A&M University.

The proposal was made in response to requests by consumer groups and to a recommendation favoring nutritional labeling by the 1969 White House Conference on Food, Nutrition and Health.

The system would encourage manufacturers to list calories, fat, protein, carbohydrates, vitamins and minerals on food packages.

"The increasing number of processed and formulated foods makes it difficult for consumers to identify the nutritional qualities of the foods they buy," the specialist noted.

Under the proposed guidelines the information panel, displayed prominently on food packages, would contain the nutritional information concerning the product.

This list would include a statement of what's considered the size of an average serving for the product expressed in common household terms, such as cups and slices.

It would give the number of calories per serving rounded off to the nearest five calorie increment. Provided also would be the number of grams of protein, fat and carbohydrates per serving rounded off to the nearest gram.

"Many people are interested in vitamin and mineral intake," Miss Reasonover explained. "The panel would contain the percentages of these nutrients found in that particular food."

The amount of protein in each serving would be expressed as a percentage of the recommended dietary allowance for adults.

Although the standards would be voluntary, the FDA conducted a study that indicates consumers would tend to purchase products with the nutritional labeling over those without the labeling.

When driving long distances, limit yourself to 300 miles per day—tops. Don't try to break your own endurance record or you might break something even more valuable.

If you're a poor plane traveler, get as much sleep during the trip as possible. Drink plenty of water and avoid alcohol, which tends to dry out the body, and you'll arrive in finer fettle.

It was explained how the gin owed Continental Moss Gordon Co. a total of $213,867.88. The gin did some refinancing, and purchased this note for $75,000.00, amounting to a reduction of $138,867.87 or about 36¢ on the dollar.

Payments have been made since then to reduce the note to $44,000.00 and a standing improvement of $169,000.00.

Persons making reports of interest to the farmers were Charles Stenholm, E. E.

Spicer, J. W. Borden, Billy Hollomon and others.

In the election of directors, the following were re-elected Elvin Lee, Monroe Davis, and R. R. Chisholm.

Jerry Williams of Sweetwater was introduced to the group. His company made the loan when the gin purchased the Continental notes.

Letter To The Editor

"DUGOUT CITY"

Soon after the T. P. railroad reached Colorado City, a stage line ran from the railroad to Estacado, an old settlement on the Plains in Crosby County. It ran for miles through a Canyon and Dugout City was born, about 10 or 12 miles southwest of Clairemont. If those trails were straightened the distance would have probably been more than fifteen miles.

One Sunday afternoon, April 30th led by Mark Geeslin as trail blazer, we headed for Dugout City. Mark proved his scout training by following almost invisible trails. When we had to leave the camp we had to walk about a mile, and climb down a steep trail for about fifty feet or more, which was pretty rough.

Jack Rogers cared for the stage horses, and I am told that Ing Rogers and Wood Byrd's, fathers were born there. When we reached the bottom, there were ruins of several dugouts chimneys and several graves in rock pens. There is a monument over the grave of an eighteen year old girl who died in 1888. When we started back to the surface to my surprise the ascent was much easier than the descent. We came back by Boley Brown's monument on the spot where he died in 1911. The visitors were Mrs. C. R. Little and Miss McNeal Vencil of Pasadena, Calif., sisters of Mrs. Adolphus Moreland, Mark Geeslin, Joe Thompson, R. A. Moreland Jr. and Adolphus Moreland and wife.

Unkle Zeke Sez

DEAR MISTER EDITOR:

They ain't much chance of getting a vote on it in Congress, but the fellers at the country store has adopted, endorsed and passed along to Washington the Doolittle Depot and Culture Exchange Plan. A discussion of Ed's idea took up most of the session Saturday night.

Ed had took note where the Chinese invited a few members of Congress to come over for a visit, and where everybody else was mad cause they won't go. Ed's plan calls for shipping the hole Congress to China for a month in exchange for the same number of Chinamen. The idea is fer em to walk in one another's shoes. They would trade jobs and wages. The Congressmen would spend the time working in the rice mudholes or sweeping snow off the streets, and visitors here could run all over the country and make speeches about what ought to be done in Congress.

Ed told the fellers his plan is the closest we'll get to a law that makes Congressmen tend to their job in Congress. He had took note of a bill to cut down on absents in Congress, and of how quick it was buried somewhere. That bill has as much chance as the Justice Department does of investigating that ITT deal, was Ed's word.

Actual, Ed went on, absents fer law makers is a national ailment. He reported where he saw South Carolina had to send out police to arrest legislators and bring em in so they could get enuff together fer a vote. The way it is, allowed Ed, is that all these folks work harder to stay elected than they do to get elected, which don't leave no time fer the job.

If the Doolittle plan was give a try, declared Ed, Congressmen would come home happy to do their jobs and take their chances at the polls. And maybe they could get down to business and take a hard look at the problems in this country, stead of jest promising us more of our money as a cure for everybody. Ed said.

Clem Webster allowed he was surprised to hear Ed push his plan, since Ed allus like to say getting more Republicans in Congress was the only hope fer the country.

Democrat Clem said he figured what Ed had in mind was sending a boatload of Democrats to China in exchange fer folks that would support the Administration's plan to ease old Chang Ky Chek out of the picture.

It were Zeke Grubb that backed Ed's plan strong, but he went on to say that he wanted an amendment setting the exchange fer full two year, and fer farmers to set in Congress while the Congressman was gone. Zeke said farmers has got to the place they think no laws is good laws. Zeke said that plan to fix the egg surplus by killing 10 million of the country's 320 million laying hens was a example of gitting more Government help than we can stand these days.

The only thing that would settle, said Zeke, is which goes first, the chicken or the egg.

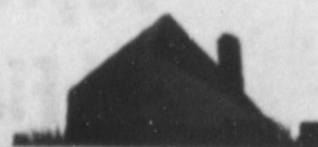

Yours truly, Uncle Zeke

WOOD in HOUSING

A little-known fact about wood can save your house in a hurricane. When you think of wood, you think of a warm, friendly material. But it may surprise you to know that pound for pound wood is stronger than steel. And that a wood-frame house with wood sheathing can withstand winds better than other kinds of construction.

Wood houses weathered the lashings of hurricane Camille in 1969 with little damage. And in the shock of the recent Los Angeles earthquake, wood structures held firm.

New ways of attaching wood paneling and plywood floors add even more strength. Instead of nails, builders now use structural adhesives. Panels go up faster; floors are stiffer, quieter.

ABOUT PEOPLE YOU KNOW

By Clique Smith Phone 237-3593

Mrs. Bonnie Hall was in Jayton over the election weekend and attended the barbecue at the school lunch room given by the Farmer's Coop Society of Jayton. She was seeing friends who came into town to vote and to attend the supper.

Mrs. Andy Ship of Rankin was seeing friends in Jayton Saturday. The Ships were one of the early day families in Kent Co. She said that she and her husband lived on the O-Oranch when it was owned by Mr. Billby in Oklahoma. That her husband worked at the usual cowboy wage of $25. per month and she cooked for the cowboys at 1 5¢ per meal. She has been visiting her brother-in-law, who has been ill in Rotan. Just have a feeling that she could tell quite a bit of the early days of our county and the area.

Mr. and Mrs. Archie Milwee of Arizona have been visiting his mother for several days last week. They came in a mobile camper, and they can visit whenever they please, close by the nursing home.

Mr. and Mrs. Strickland brought Mrs. Ship over Saturday afternoon to see the Kent county community center and library. They saw the paintings that are soon to be moved for others to be displayed.

To the ones who wish to try your hand at Macrame at the Community center, May 16 at 10 a. m. Cord such as used for piping in dresses for children. There is a cord put out for this purpose. Four ply wool yarn is very colorful and can be very easily. It is not as strong as some but one can learn with it. Bring a board to secure this to, so if you do not finish the article it can be carried home, without worry to be finished later.

Bob Harrison of Okla. City visited several days with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Harrison, recently.

Conrad Carriker celebrated his 7th birthday, Monday, May 7 with seven guests present. They enjoyed playing games and were served ice cream and cake.

Those present were Willie Cheyne, Beth and Debbie Owen, Jim League, Kindell Stansland, Monte Sartain and Darren Dyer. Conrad has recently moved to Jayton from Houston with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Weldon Carriker.

Mrs. Lee Parker and her sister Mrs. J. T. Holmes of Clyde and her niece and son, Mrs. Darrold Patton and Koy of Clyde, spent last week visiting Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Power, Kandy, Karin and Tod of Centerton, Ark. They also visited Lee's uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Cheston Franks of Rogers, Ark. Much rain has fallen in Oklahoma and North Western Arkansas.

Mrs. Lee Parker visited her aunt Mrs. Winnie Rowland of Abilene Tuesday. She also visited an aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Jay of Homlin Tuesday.

Mrs. Garth Gregory was in town one day last week to renew their subscription to the Chronicle. She reports daughter, Penny is at home and much improve.

Tuesday of this last week the Bennie Smiths were in Hamlin seeing the doctor for a check up and while there, Bennie went to the John Deere house and was surprised to find one of his nephews J. W. Woods there. He was with a construction crew redoing the building, a nice surprise.

Recent visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Meador, for their 65 anniversary were Mr. and Mrs. Nolan Corder, Mr. and Mrs. Dee Corder, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Corder and Mrs. Lizzie Vandiver, all of Fort Worth. The Corders grew up in the Jayton community.

Mrs. Beulah Kidd and Pearl Hallum visited with Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Meador one day last week.

THE FAMILY LAWYER

Deadly Dust

When bugs invaded his field of honeydew melons, a farmer enlisted the services of a crop dusting company. The company promptly sent out a pilot to spray the field. But because of prevailing breezes, the deadly dust drifted to the beehives on a neighbor's farm.

Bees languished and died by the thousands. Result: a damage suit filed against the crop dusting company by the farmer who owned the bees.

In court, the company protested that it could not be held responsible for the vagaries of the weather. Nevertheless, the court granted the farmer's claim. The court pointed out that the pilot, if he had been reasonably careful, would have foreseen the danger and delayed his spraying until the wind died down.

Crop dusting zoomed in popularity after World War II. Surplus airplanes were available. So were surplus pilots. And so were new and potent insecticides.

But, like many technological advances, this one has brought legal complications in its wake. Repeatedly, courts have held crop dusters responsible for failing to take reasonable precautions in their work.

One pilot underestimated the carrying power of his spray equipment. Another pilot failed to give fair warning to a neighboring landowner. A third pilot disregarded the special characteristics of the chemical he was using. In each case, a court found enough evidence of negligence to impose legal liability on the company.

In fact, some courts have imposed liability even if the pilot took all the usual safety precautions before spraying. They say that, simply by using such dangerous stuff, the company automatically takes full responsibility for the consequences.

Occasionally the plane itself, rather than the chemical, will cause harm. In one case, the sudden gunning of a crop duster's motor threw a flock of turkeys into a panic. They hurled themselves against a fence, with many of them perishing.

Was this also the company's fault? A court decided that it was indeed. The judge said the timidity of turkeys was so well known that the pilot should have known what to expect.

NEW SYSTEMS DEVELOPED TO AID DENTISTS

Answering the new trend toward sit-down dentistry.

Two electro-controlled dental chair systems have been developed for modern "sit-down dentistry" techniques. The chairs are designed to meet the changing needs of modern dentistry as more doctors move from stand-up to sit-down dental techniques. In sit-down dentistry, the patient is in a near reclining posture with the dentist and assistant seated on either side. This new technique reduces the dentist's fatigue.

The result of two years of research and testing by Litton Industries Dental division, the new posture-formed dental chairs are completely motorized with control switches that can raise the seat the 32 inches for stand-up procedures or to within 12 inches off the floor with the patient in a near reclining position for sit-down dentistry.

Priced at $2,475, the chairs feature maximum patient comfort and trim, modern lines. The Serenity 1™ has a contemporary configuration while the Serenity 2™ chair is more traditional.

A Mother's Love Is A Haven In The Storms Of Life

A Mother's Love is like an island In life's ocean vast and wide, A peaceful, quiet shelter From the restless, rising tide...

A Mother's Love is like a fortress And we seek protection there When the waves of tribulation Seem to drown us in despair...

A Mother's Love's a sanctuary Where our souls can find sweet rest From the struggle and the tension Of life's fast and futile quest...

A Mother's Love is like a tower Rising far above the crowd, And her smile is like the sunshine Breaking through a threatening cloud...

A Mother's Love is like a beacon Burning bright with Faith and Prayer, And through the changing scenes of life We can find a Haven There...

For A Mother's Love is fashioned After God's enduring love, It is endless and unfailing Like the love of Him above...

For God knew in His great wisdom That He couldn't be Everywhere, So He put His Little Children In a Loving Mother's Care.

WHEN WINTER TURNS TO SPRING, OFFER THE FAMILY ICE TEA OR HOT TEA, AS THE WEATHER DICTATES. BOTH ARE REFRESHING WAYS TO BEAT THE SEASON'S UNPREDICTABLY BALMY AND CHILLING CHANGES OF PACE.

Family Planning Needed, Says M. D.

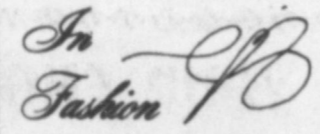

"Despite all the publicity concerning morning-after birth control pills, none looks very promising... a pill for men is still a dream... information on contraceptive use of prostaglandins is meager... there may be discouraging news coming for those who think injections may be the best answer to preventing pregnancy..."

So says a recent special report in the Journal of the American Medical Association titled "How Soon Will We Have The 'Ideal' Contraceptive?" The author, Dr. Edward T. Tyler of Los Angeles, President of the International Family Planning Research Association says, "While we admire the continuing attempts to produce better contraceptives, we have a variety of excellent methods already available."

These include not just the oral contraceptive—which Dr. Tyler helped pioneer—but the diaphragm, intrauterine devices, and various spermicides—which can even be obtained in drugstores without prescription.

Says the doctor: "If we wait for vastly new, advanced techniques, instead of making better use of what we now have, it may be too late for the 'ideal' method to help solve our problems!"

It has been truly said that if one waits long enough fashions of yesteryear come back in. And so it is today. The favorite fabrics for this season are seersucker, muslin, denim and cotton knits.

Some of the long dresses for resort wear are backless with a ruffle instead of a regular hem at the bottom of the skirt.

Neutral shades have stripes or designs of bright colors.

Big brimmed hats are being featured by designers.

What Is A Mother

It takes a Mother's Love to make a house a home,
A place to be remembered,
no matter where we roam...
It takes a Mother's Patience to bring a child up right,
And her Courage and her Cheerfulness to make a dark day bright...
It takes a Mother's Thoughtfulness to mend the heart's deep "hurts",
And her Skill and her Endurance to mend little socks and shirts...
It takes a Mother's Kindness to forgive us when we err,
To sympathize in trouble and bow her head in prayer...
It takes a Mother's Wisdom to recognize our needs
And to give us reassurance by her loving words and deeds...
