WINTERS ENTERPRISE

BALLINGER- The special election held last Tuesday, September 9, 2014 for the District 28 Texas Senate seat vacated by State Sen. Robert Duncan followed in Runnels County the overall trend, with Republican Charles Perry leading the six-way race.

In Runnels County Perry received 174 votes (49 percent), followed by Jodey Arrington another Republican contender who got 107 (30 percent), and far behind by the sole Democrat in the race Greg Wortham with 59 (17 percent).

Each one of Republican Delwin Jones and Libertarian Kerry Douglas McKeenon received five votes, while E.M. Garza got three.

As of press time and with just over 60 percent of the precincts counted in all 51 counties comprising State Senate District 28, the office of the Texas Secretary of State reported Perry had 54 percent of the votes while Arrington was second with 30 percent. Former Sweetwater Mayor Greg Wortham, was third with just over 12 percent.

To win the election a candidate must receive at least 50 percent of the total votes. If no candidate reaches that number a runoff between the top two contenders will be held. The date of a possible runoff will be decided by Gov. Rick Perry and has not yet been announced. Polls were open on election day from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m.

In Runnels County there were a total of 112 votes casted during early voting, and the rest (251) were casted in the four polling locations installed on special election day in Ballinger, Winters and Miles.

The winner of the special election will serve the rest of Robert Duncan's term, which ends in 2017. Duncan left his seat to become Chancellor at the Texas Tech System in Lubbock, Texas.

Hundreds enjoy fun-filled day at the Dove Fest

RUBEN CANTU-RODRIGUEZ
WINTERS ENTERPRISE

WINTERS- The 12th Dove Fest held in Winters last Saturday, September 6, 2014 was a great success, with the best turnout in several years. The parade featuring Dove Fest Queen candidates, antique cars, tractors and more made Main Street glow with colorful floats, and the entertainment at the Community Center brought dozens under the big tent.

The first Dove Fest Queen pageant attracted Winters High School juniors and seniors, with the crown being for WHS senior Gabriela Jimenez. As winner of the Queen Contest she will be awarded a $1,000 college scholarship. The court was comprised of first runner up senior Adreanna Lopez, and second runner up junior Gabriella Madrid. Also participating in the pageant were Chelsea Gray, Elizabeth Wenzel, Damaris Sanchez, and Marissa Gray.

Judges of the pageant were Patty Esfandiary, and Cheryl Esfandiary, of the Abilene and Albany Beehive restaurants, and Winters High School alumni Mark Mathis.

"We had a great fest, the turnout was one of the best we've had in the last few years and this will be benefiting the local economy," said Randall Conner, Executive Director of the Winters Area Business and Industrial

Proceeds from the fest benefit local youth and civic organizations, which in return provide volunteers for the fest.

Adreanna Lopez's float got first place in the parade, while Mike Neal's float placed first in the Independent category, a beautiful classic Ford Thunderbird was also recognized placing first in the Antique Cars category.

Forty tables were setup at the Gun and Knife Show, held at the old Dollar General store on Main Street.

A total of 765 meals were served at the Community Center during the Hunters Appreciation Dinner. The number of meals served is the highest since 2010. A barbecue meal was served at the New Chick-Inn next to the Gun Show.

The gun-raffle tickets were flying off the shelves. The lucky winners this year were Bonnie Ballard, proud new owner of a Remington 870 pump-action shotgun; Jimmy White won a Browning Silver Hunter semi-automatic shotgun; the Browning X-Bolt .243 rifle was for Glenn Wortham; Elma Bernal got the Colt .223 rifle; Lance Donica won a Savage 22-250 rifle, and Sandy Mesey won a Beretta over and under shotgun.

The fest started early in the morning, at the Rodeo Arena Road, were dozens attended the Clay Pigeon Fun Shoot to challenge each other's skills at the Annie Oakley shoot.

A live and silent auction, auctioning off items donated by area businesses, was held under the big tent, outside the Winters Community Center. The little rain falling at noon didn't seem to affect the turnout. Attendants, vendors and the entertain-

Blizzards defeat Christoval to get second win of the season

WINTERS ENTERPRISE

WINTERS- The Winters Blizzards cruised for three quarters and then struggled wrapping up the game allowing 18 points, but at the end still claimed the victory by a score of 19-18 over the Christoval Cougars.

The Blizzards still share the top of the District 2-2A Div. II standing with Miles and Menard with 2-0, followed by Roby with 1-1 while Bronte and Roscoe share the bottom without any wins during this season.

Winters took the lead early in the first quarter, with 4:12 to play, Jimmy John Ripley completed a 45-yard pass to Daryl Hagle, and with Lukas Kraatz kick the score-board opened 7-0.

Winters kept the lead during second and third quarter and it was until the fourth when Christoval became a serious threat to the Blizzards. Seth Parker carried the ball 19 yards into the end zone with 9:23 left in the game, and the kick was blocked to put the game 13-6.

Winters immediately responded, and Stephon Cleghorn returned the kickoff 70 yards into the end zone, the kick was failed and the score with 9:11 left to play was 19-6.

Christoval would still score two touchdowns more, with 2:28 left in the game by means of a 95-yard pass from Jakob Whitworth to Hayden Hargraves. Christoval went for the two-point conversion but Winters' defense stopped the run short from the end zone, 19-12.

The game would become a thriller with 36 seconds to play. Luke Parker

Runnels Co showdown revives old rivalry

RUBEN CANTU-RODRIGUEZ
WINTERS ENTERPRISE

WINTERS- The Runnels County showdown, a match that revives an old rivalry between the Ballinger Bearcats and Winters Blizzards will be held this Friday night, September 12, at Blizzard Stadium in Winters, Texas.

Ballinger will be looking for its first win of the 2014 season while the Blizzards will be looking forward to maintain their undefeated. Historically the match has been turning the gridiron red-hot since its first edition, in 1923 when the teams tied 6-6. Ballinger and Winters have played each other 68 times, with the balance favoring the Bearcats by a broad margin of 51-13-4.

With a steaming rivalry and a fluctuating population in both Ballinger and Winters the teams stopped playing each other after the season of 1987. Bearcats and Blizzards faced each other again until 2012, after a 25-year hiatus. Statistically the numbers lean toward the Bearcats, with a total of 1,307 points scored by 507 scored by Winters. However, in 17 matches Ballinger won by a difference of one touchdown or less. Historically Winters has won six games by a difference of one touchdown or less.

The last time the Winters Blizzards defeated Ballinger was in 1971 (43 years ago), when the Big Blue outscored the Bearcats 27-14. Ever since Ballinger has a record of 17-1-1 with tie being during the season of 1976.

Winters has struggled with Ballinger over the last two years. In 2012, the first match after the quarter-of-a-century break, the Bearcats defeated Winters 47-7. Last year the score was 34-14 also in favor of the Ballinger Bearcats.

This year the coin is in the air. Game is at 7:30 p.m. at Blizzard Stadium in Winters, Texas.

LAST WEEK'S ANSWER GRID

Weather Whys

Q: You see on cartoons that raindrops usually appear like a teardrop. Are they really shaped that way?

A: Not really, says Brent McRoberts of Texas A&M University. The common appearance of raindrops being shaped like a big tear is not very accurate, he notes. "Literature has frequently told us that raindrops are often tears from above, and thus are shaped like a teardrop. But that's not the case. The shape of a raindrop depends on its size. Small raindrops are actually spherical in shape and they take on different shapes as they fall to the ground. The larger ones are often compared to the shape of a hamburger bun. This is caused by air resistance on the drop as it falls to earth."

Quail research ranch field day slated for Sept. 26

STEVE BYRNS
SPECIAL TO THE WINTERS ENTERPRISE

ROBY - "Restoration of Quail and Their Habitats" will be the theme of the 7th annual Rolling Plains Quail Research Ranch Field Day set from 8:30 a.m.-3 p.m. Sept. 26 at the ranch 11 miles west of Roby on U.S. Highway 180.

The field day is being co-sponsored by the research ranch and the Texas A&M AgriLife Extension Service's legislatively funded "Reversing the Decline of Quail Initiative."

"This year's theme is fitting seeing that we're looking at the best quail season the state has had since 2008," said Dr. Dale Rollins, AgriLife Extension wildlife specialist at San Angelo and the ranch's director.

"Most of Texas has seen a decent rebound in the quail populations, both bobwhites and blues," he said. "Some areas have seen a surprisingly good rebound."

Rollins said the field day tour topics will include updates on the quail restoration projects, renovation of Conservation Reserve Program fields to enhance their use as quail habitat and demonstrations of several research methodologies used at the ranch.

After a catered lunch, updates will be provided on the Texas Quail Index, the three-year disease study Operation Idiopathic Decline and future plans on the ranch.

"This should be a great field day," Rollins said.

"The ranch enjoyed some great quail-making weather in May and June, then July and August proved to be a reality check. We've recorded 96 nests by our radio-marked hens thus far this summer, compared to only a total of 108 nests over the past four years. I'm anxious to see if the various indices we use to track quail abundance will confirm what we're seeing during our daily travels around the ranch."

Rollins said he's especially pleased with the response of transplanted blue quail introduced to the ranch.

"We translocated 78 blues trapped from various ranches west of San Angelo last March," he said. "They were sequestered for 30 days in 'surrogators' used to imprint young birds to a particular location. These birds were released in late April. As of this point, their survival, site fidelity and nesting success has been better than I would have predicted."

Three Texas Department of Agriculture continuing education units will be available.

Individual preregistration is $10 until Sept. 19 and $20 thereafter and upon arrival.

For more information and to preregister, contact Mary Lynn Nelms at 325-653-4576 or ml-nelms@tamu.edu.

Go to the ranch's website at <http://www.quail-research.org> for program updates.

Veteran's Corner

Newly-enrolled veterans or enrolled veterans who do not have the legacy Veteran Identification Card (VIC) will need two forms of identification to request the new Veteran Health Identification Card (VHIC). Why are two forms of ID needed? VHICs are used to access U.S. military bases and, in some cases, allow access through U.S. airport security. As a result, VA wants to ensure the new VHICs are issued appropriately and to the correct person. As of August 2014, to ensure your identity, VA has strengthened requirements to receive a new VHIC. Veterans must now provide one form of primary identification and one form of secondary identification when requesting a VHIC. Features of the New Veteran Health Identification Card include: increased security for your personal information — no personally identifiable information is contained on the magnetic stripe or barcode. Member ID is the unique identifier for the veteran as established by the Department of Defense. If a veteran does not have a unique identifier from DOD, the "Member ID" label and information will not be printed on the card. The Plan ID is the unique Health Plan Identifier assigned to the Department of Veteran Affairs as established by the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services. This number is the same for all VHICs. The emblem of your latest branch of service is displayed on your card. Several special awards also will be listed. The VHIC replaces the legacy Veteran Identification Card and is issued only to Veterans who are enrolled in the VA health care system. The VHIC is for identification and check-in at VA appointments. It cannot be used as a credit card or an insurance card and it does not authorize or pay for care at non-VA facilities. For more information, contact Sandra at the Veterans Service Office at 602 Strong Ave on Tuesdays and Thursdays from 10am to 3pm, or call 365-3612.

ShareLunker season begins Oct. 1

WINTERS ENTERPRISE
STAFF REPORT

ATHENS- The 29th season of the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department Toyota ShareLunker program will begin October 1.

Anyone legally catching a 13-pound or bigger largemouth bass from Texas waters, public or private, between October 1 and April 30 may submit the fish to the Toyota ShareLunker program. Fish will be picked up by TPWD personnel within 12 hours.

ShareLunker entries that genetic testing shows are pure Florida largemouth bass are used in a selective breeding program at the Texas Freshwater Fisheries Center (TFFC) in Athens. Offspring from ShareLunkers that spawn are stocked into each waterbody that produces and entry during the season. Some offspring may be used for research, while others may be retained by the hatchery system for use as future brooders.

The angler catching each fish decides what will happen to it following its use by TPWD. Most anglers choose to return the fish to the waterbody where it was caught. Some donate the fish to TPWD for display at TFFC.

Fish that are intergrades, or hybrids of Florida and northern largemouth bass, are not used for spawning and are returned to the waterbody where caught as soon as possible.

Genetic testing of ShareLunker entries shows that pure Florida largemouth bass have as much as 18 times greater chance of producing a 13-pound offspring as intergrades do. Limited capacity at TPWD hatcheries requires using all available pond space for the offspring of pure Florida fish.

Anglers entering fish into the Toyota ShareLunker program receive a free replica of their fish, a certificate and ShareLunker clothing and are recognized at a banquet at the Texas Freshwater Fisheries Center in Athens. The person who catches the season's largest entry will be named Angler of the Year and will receive a G. Loomis rod, Shimano reel and PowerPro line combination. If the Angler of the Year is a Texas resident, that person also receives a lifetime Texas fishing license.

Prizes and funding for the banquet are provided by Toyota, which also provides a Tundra pickup truck for use in picking up and returning the majority of lunkers and their offspring.

ShareLunker catches can be reported 24 hours a day, seven days a week during the season, by calling (903) 681-0550. If poor cellphone service prevents use of the voice number, anglers can leave a phone number (including area code) at (888) 784-0600. That number is also monitored 24/7 during the season.

Most anglers who catch ShareLunkers are unprepared to catch and care for large fish. Yet catching a 13-pound bass is possible almost anywhere you fish in Texas. Taking a few simple steps can help ensure the survival of ShareLunkers. First, carry a landing net, preferably a rubber one or a net with unknotted mesh, to avoid damaging the fish's slime coat. Fill your livewell before you begin fishing. Program the ShareLunker numbers into your phone before the season begins. Carry a scale and check its accuracy before the season begins.

ment continued with the fun. Dove hunts in the Winters area were in high demand. Local and area hunters took advantage of the high number of doves currently flocking throughout the region. Dozens of bikers also enjoyed the motorcycle fun run, and the scenic bike run. The Dove Fest wrapped up with a dance at the Winters Community Center featuring Justin Kaczyk and the Natural Outlaws. The Winters Dove Fest is hosted each year by the Winters Dove Fest Committee, City of Winters, Winters Area Chamber of Commerce, and the Winters Area Business and Industrial Corp. Proceeds from all Dove Fest events go to support 16 local youth and non-profit organizations which work to make Dove Fest a success.
