Annual Consumers Event Breaks Record

Over 250 attended the 1974 Annual meeting of the Stratford Consumers Company's held Saturday night in the high school cafeteria.

Five members of the board of directors were reelected to office and the company's annual report was given by Leon Guthrie, manager.

The board elected for this year includes Arthur Judd, president; A.E. Pronger Jr., vice-president; Joe Flores, secretary; with other members H.L. Haile and S.J. Lavake.

Guthrie's report on company business was highlighted by the fact the gross business of the cooperative topped $500,000 for the first time since its beginning back in 1930.

The Consumers Company's total gross sale for 1973 were $550,694.27 an increase over last year's record setting total sales by some $150,356.69.

Guthrie said the big increase was the largest increase in one year the company had ever experienced.

The net margin of the company jumped to a whopping $43,340.95 for 1973 as compared to $11,767.31 a year previous.

Guthrie reported that with the fuel situation as it is today, he did not know what the new year would hold for the cooperative.

"We used to try to figure a year ahead," Guthrie told those present. "Now all we can do is try to keep the doors open from day to day!" he added.

Consumers used to be a 24-hour operation seven days per week. Since the changes brought on by the fuel crisis, the cooperative is open six days per week and closed from 10 p.m. until 7 a.m.

The Bruce Ayers group from Gruver presented a musical program for those attending and were well received. They played several Country and Western songs and instrumentals.

Mrs. Mattie Baskin was winner of the $50 door prize with Mrs. C.W. Moon winning $20 and Ed Sanders winner of $10 door prize at the drawing.

Mrs. W.S. Whorton of Dalhart won the prize for the lady travelling the farthest to the meeting with Marvin Harrison's 87 years topping the Oldest Man present prize list.

The meal was catered by Supten's of Amarillo.

Four Local Elections Slated For April 6

Apparently possible candidates are taking a "wait and see" attitude in the four local elections set for April 6, according to a check with authorities on Tuesday.

Of the four elections with a total of 10 seats which will be open only two candidates have filed as of Tuesday noon. Deadline for filing to get names on the ballots is Wednesday afternoon.

There are three places up for election on the City Council in Stratford, the office of Mayor plus two council seats; there are two places up for election on the board of trustees of the Stratford Independent School Board with two filed; there are three places up for election on the board of the Stratford Hospital District and two places on the County School Board.

Deadline for filing for all four elections is Wednesday afternoon.

City Manager Max Stephenson said Tuesday no candidates had filed with him for either the Council seats nor the Hospital Board. Stephenson also serves as secretary for the hospital district.

Supt. E.L. Bass said Tuesday, an incumbent, Johnny Summerour had filed along with Joe Wells to seek election to the board.

County Judge W.S. Frizzell said Tuesday no one had filed with him for the office of school trustee from Precinct 3 or the seat of trustee at large. Frizzell did state that T.F. Baskin III had announced he would not seek the office of trustee at large. Baskin was appointed to the office last year after Don Riffe was elected to the board of the SISD.

All four elections will be held on April 6. If past performance is a precedent, there will be a flurry of filings on Wednesday at the last minute for the 10 seats on the various boards.

Mark Keener Wins Calf At Houston

John Mark Keener, son of Mr. and Mrs. Poe Keener of Stratford, was one of 14 boys to be a winner in the Calf Scramble held on Sunday (Feb. 24) at the matinee performance of the Houston Livestock Show & Rodeo.

Keener received a $225 certificate from the East End State Bank of Houston to be used toward the purchase of a registered calf of his choosing. Under the supervision of Sherman County Agricultural Agent Jim Allison, he will feed, raise and care for the calf until next year's show when he will return with the calf for the judging in the Calf Scramble Division and the Junior Breeding Division of the show.

Keener received his $225 from Mr. and Mrs. T.A. Miller, both of Houston and representatives of the East End State Bank following his win Sunday afternoon.

Wyatt Oakley, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Oakley of Stratford and also a member of the Sherman County 4-H, was an entry in the calf scramble, and had a calf for a minute, but lost it. Wyatt says he won't lose the animal next year when he plans to return to Houston.

To encourage and further educate 4-H and FFA boys in the raising, feeding and breeding of high quality Texas cattle, the Calf Scramble started in 1942. Since its beginning, the scramble has paid boys over $1 million to buy more than 7,000 calves. Only half of the 388 boys taking part in this year's scramble will win in the contest.

The Calf Scramble is the fourth event in each performance of the Houston Livestock Show & Rodeo and begins with 24 boys lined up in a square in the center of the Astrodome Arena. After a given signal, each boy race after one of 12 calves which have been turned loose. The objective is for the boy to place his halter on a calf and return it to the square in the center of the arena. The 12 winners who manage this feat receive certificates from area businessmen for the purchase of their calf.

Visit Your Schools This Week

The public is invited to visit public schools in its area during the annual observance of Texas Public Schools Week, March 4-8, officials of the activity announced today. All classrooms from first grade through senior high levels will be open for visitation by the general public during the week.

In recognition of the event, schools will display student work and some schools will present special programs. School officials are encouraging parents especially to visit the schools their children attend. They are invited, not only to visit, but to talk with teachers and have lunch with their children.

The Texas Public School System was founded 120 years ago on the premise that the more education the individual has, the more likely he is to become a good citizen. Parents showing active interest in the school system are more likely to have children who show higher scholastic achievement.

Whiter than Snow...

"Purge me with hyssop, and I shall be clean: wash me, and I shall be whiter than snow." The Psalmist desired to be pure and white as snow, and knew that this could come only from God. Complete joy, and gladness of a pure heart can be yours too, when you walk close with the Lord.

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

Of Interest To THE WOMEN

MR. AND MRS. DAVID ALAN BROWN

Wiley-Brown Exchange Vows

Miss Janice Marie Willey and David Alan Brown were united in marriage Sunday, February 24, 1974, at 2:30 p.m. in the Church of Christ. Bro. Bob Beaty performed the double ring ceremony.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. J.J. Wiley and Mr. and Mrs. M.H. Brown of Stratford.

The vows were read before an arched candelabra with greenery centered with white ribbon and white bells. On either side of the candelabra, were matching urns of Gladiola, large Mums, pom-pom Mums, Pink Statice and Jade. The flowers were flanked by matching candelabras of Swedish steel.

The pews were decorated with garnet bows. The decor was completed by the white aisle cloth which was already in place and the aisle was closed with streamers of garnet ribbon and a vase of white mums trimmed in pink on a pedestal. Guests were seated from the side aisles.

Mark Beaty sang a solo, "For All We Know" while Mrs. Don Knight, Valerie Knight and Mrs. James Boardman sang, "I Love You Truly".

The candles were lighted by Dwayne and Teresa Willey, brother and sister-in-law of the bride. Teresa wore a floor length gown of ruby velvet with a hot pink crepe raised bodice. Her wrist corsage was of hot pink carnations tied with garnet.

The bride, escorted to the altar by her father, and given in marriage by her parents, wore a floor length gown of Miramist over Peau de Soie. The gown was designed with stand-up collar, raised bodice and long sleeves gathered to a wide cuff and had a full length train attached at the raised waistline. The sheer sleeves, bodice, skirt and train were lavishly embroidered with cotton lace. Seed pearls were scattered throughout the lace. The small stand-up collar was accented with a pearl choker that belonged to her late Grandmother Willey and was worn by her sister, Janetta Britten, at her wedding. Her veil of illusion fell to the waist and was trimmed with sequins and pearls. She carried a cascade bouquet of hot pink carnations backed with Plumosa Fern and centered with Cymbidium Orchids with pink throats. Streamers of hot pink and garnet ribbons tied with love knots completed the bouquet. The Wedding dress was fashioned by her mother.

Miss Brenda Dodson, cousin of the bride, was maid of honor. Miss D'Lynn Brown, sister of the bridegroom and Vicki Stokes were bridesmaids. The attendants wore identical floor length dresses of ruby velvet with stand-up collars, raised bodices and long sleeves. White embroidered trim accented the stand-up collar and raised bodices. The headpieces were made of ruby velvet. They carried matching cascade bouquets of hot pink carnations and Plumosa Fern backed with streamers of variagated shades of garnet.

Belinda Britten and Christie Willey, nieces of the bride, were flower girls. Their dresses were floor length ruby velvet identical to the attendants. They wore ruby velvet bows in their hair and carried matching baskets of garnet pom-pom mums with gypsophila and leatherleaf. Each girl wore a miniature carnation corsage of hot pink.

James Brown, served his brother as best man. Groomsman were Wesley Wiley, brother of the bride and Terry Brooks. All men in the wedding party wore formal attire and pale pink carnation Boutonnaires. The bridegroom wore a tiny sweet heart rose in pale pink.

Joy Williams and Charles Britten, bothers-in-law of the bride, served as ushers.

The mother of the bride wore a turquoise and beige two-piece ensemble with bone accessories.

The bridegroom's mother chose a three-piece turquoise ensemble with camel and white accessories. They wore identical corsages of pale pink sweetheart roses.

The grandmothers, Mrs. M.V. Partridge of Stratford and Mrs. J.Y. McAdams from Dalhart wore corsages of hot pink carnations and garnet ribbons centered with a cameo.

Miss Cherie Brown, sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Merlene Williams, niece of the bride, registered the guests. They wore identical pink print, floor length gowns and corsages of pale pink carnations tied with garnet ribbon.

A reception followed the ceremony in the fellowship hall of the church. The table was covered in pale pink satin with a net overlay and centered with the bride's bouquet. Pale pink candles complimented the milk glass service and the net cloth was caught up on the corners with bows of pink and garnet. The four-tiered wedding cake was accented with pink and ruby rose, wedding bells, doves and topped with miniature bride and groom enclosed in a brandy snifter. Mrs. Judy Williams, sister of the bride, served the cake while another sister, Mrs. Janetta Britten, served the pink punch from a white milk glass punch bowl. Public School Week

The first Texas Constitution, in 1845, authorized support for a system of free schools to provide an equal opportunity for all. This provision has always been a part of the great American dream. In Texas, we have provided vast sums of money to support this dream. The last session of the Texas Legislature took a long look at the Texas Public School system. They wanted to know if some schools were better than others. They wanted to know whether some schools were better financed than others. They wanted to know if some schools had better facilities, better and superior scholastic systems.

When was the last time you took a look at the schools your children attend? Texas Public Schools Week, March 4-8 will provide you with the opportunity to see your schools in operation. During that week, all classrooms--elementary through high school--will be open to the public for visitation. This is an excellent time for you to find out what kind of schools your children attend.

Texas Public Schools are your concern. Your tax dollar goes to support and maintain them. Your children's future rests on the kind of education they are receiving today.

Is your school system providing your child with the values and skills, the means for living productive lives in a complex social environment? Find out all you can. Visit your local schools during Texas Public Schools Week--March 4-8.

Applications Being Taken For Patrolmen

Major C.W. Bell, Regional Commander of the Texas Department of Public Safety, announced today the DPS is accepting applications for the post of State Trooper.

Applicants selected as cadets will enter 18 weeks of training at the DPS Law Enforcement Academy in Austin in a class tentatively scheduled to begin June 11, 1974.

Bell said general qualifications for DPS Troopers are: Applicants must be 20 through 35 years of age (inclusive), good moral character; excellent physical condition; height not less than 68 inches nor more than 76 inches; weight not less than three and one-half pounds per inch of height; visual acuity no worse than 20/40 correctable to 20/20; and a citizen of the United States. Educational qualifications, which are now a minimum of 45 semester hours of college, will increase to 60 semester hours on September 1, 1974.

He pointed out that qualified female applicants are now being accepted for the uniformed services of the DPS, and that the Department has been increasingly successful in recruiting persons from minority groups.

During the training period, cadets participate in some 850 hours of law enforcement classes on a wide variety of subjects such as criminal and traffic law, human and community relations, and investigative techniques. The schooling includes rigorous physical training, marksmanship, and skills related to pursuit driving.

Some of the classes are taught under an agreement between DOS and St. Edward's University, and Academy graduates receive credit for six semester hours of college work.

After graduation, cadets will be commissioned as Probationary Trooper I at a salary of $743 monthly and assigned to the Highway Patrol, License & Weight Service, Motor Vehicle Inspection Service or Driver License Service according to the needs of DPS and consideration of personal preference.

The salary automatically increases to $768 per month after six months. Upon completion of 12 months commissioned service, Probationary Troopers are promoted to Trooper I at a salary of $820 monthly. Officers electing to remain in a non-supervisory uniformed position are eligible to complete for promotion to Trooper II after 60 months commissioned service.

All DPS officers receive fringe benefits including hospitalization and life insurance, paid vacations and sick leave, and holidays as for all State employees. Uniforms, vehicles and equipment are furnished and Troopers receive a uniform cleaning allowance. Expenses are paid when away from home station.

In addition, personnel are members of both the State Employees Retirement System and social security.

Bell said prospective applicants should contact any DPS office of Trooper for application forms. The completed material should then be taken to the nearest Regional, District or Sub-District Department of Public Safety office where the competitive examination is given each Tuesday and Wednesday of the week.

Arrangements will be made for a physical examination. A character investigation will also be conducted and applicants who are selected for the Academy will be notified prior to the start of the recruit school.

COUNCIL DELAYS ACTION ON RATE HIKE

No action was taken by members of the Stratford City Council at their meeting last Thursday night on a request for a rate increase by representatives of General Telephone Company.

Mayor Annell Wall says the Council will take the request up for action at their March 14 meeting.

The General Telephone Company is seeking a hike in most rates for telephone service for local subscribers.

All interested persons are urged to attend the March 14 meeting to lodge protests or urge the rate increase, whatever is their feeling, said Mayor Wall.

TIPS FOR OUTDOORSMEN

by Vern Sanford

Removing Kinks From Line

Every time you load your freshwater reel, either spinning or casting, there will be kinks in your line. This regardless of how careful you are in winding on a new spool of monofilament.

But, there's a quick cure.

Climb aboard your favorite floater, crank up the powerhouse and spin out into the lake far enough from shore to permit release of the line slowly and completely down to the bare spool. Then, continuing to drive slowly, rewind until all of the line is back on the spool.

One point to remember is to trail only the line behind the boat—no lure on it, not even a swivel.

A 10 or 15 minute ride is sufficient to remove all kinks.

Follow the same procedure to remove line twists that result from trolling.

Watch What's Following

Want to know which lure interests the fish most?

Okay, after each cast drag the lure alongside the boat, or dock, or wherever you're fishing—and on past you—before you lift it out of the water. While doing so, watch closely to see if fish are following the bait.

It does happen. In fact it's amazing how many fish follow the lure right up to the boat, then dart away when they see you.

Anyway, it's a good inkling as to what lure interests the fish.

Many a bass has hit a lure right alongside the boat, or just as the angler was about to bring the bait in for another cast. It's quite a surprise, too, because it's just not expected.

But, if you want an even greater thrill, let it happen in the darkness of night. That'll scare the living day-lights out of you!

Get To Know Your Schools

In Texas, we will be facing many hard choices in the next few years regarding the methods by which we finance our public schools. Will there have to be major tax reforms? Will the state have to provide a larger cost of public education? Yes, Public school financing is in a severe financial bind and major reforms may have to be instigated in order to resolve this problem.

Just how much do you know about your local school district? During Texas Public Schools Week, March 4-8, you are invited to visit the public schools in your area or neighborhood. You are invited to evaluate your local schools. Visit and observe—is there enough funding being provided to assure your child of quality education? Are your teachers experienced? Are your schools being adequately maintained? These are some of the questions you can find answers to during Texas Public Schools Week, March 4-8.

Whether a parent or not, your visit and comments will be most welcome. Show your interest and your concern during Texas Public Schools Week, March 4-8.

Highlights

AND Sidelights

by Bill Boykin

TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN, Tex. — Many delegates to the Constitutional Convention think it is now virtually impossible to wind up their revision job by April 7.

President Price Daniel Jr.'s 90-day timetable for the historic task went out the window when debate on the education article dragged over 11 half-day sessions.

communications office recently directed the attention of the Times Herald Washington Bureau to a story that, in the opinion of the White House, merited more attention than it had received.

"Publishers of Texas daily and weekly newspapers attending a January meeting of TPA in Austin were asked how they would vote on impeachment of President Nixon if they were members of the House," Mayer added.

Even Daniel conceded as the education article debate droned toward a close that the convention is off schedule. He said he still feels, however, that there is a chance to make up for lost time by speedy action on relatively non-controversial (if any) sections.

More pessimistic delegates are starting now that the whole convention assignment is in jeopardy due to strong feeling on many issues.

"Eighty-nine would have voted against impeachment; one, for," Mayer's story pointed out.

GASOLINE ALLOCATED — The Rio Grande Valley and the Midland-Odessa area, which reported severe gasoline shortages, have received additional supplies through the State Emergency Fuel Allocation Office.

At root of the problem, many now acknowledge, is the basic difficulty of getting elected officials to agree on monumental decisions during an election year.

SEFAC ordered 200,000 more gallons sent to the Valley and 869,000 gallons to Midland-Odessa.

Pressure is mounting for recess until after the May and June primary elections.

The total emergency allocation routed to the Valley now comes to about 925,000 gallons.

Daniel hopes to keep the delegates plugging away at decision making until early April. If it is then obvious that the job is a long way from complete, he probably will go along with motions to take off until after the elections, although he isn't ready to commit himself to that.

Shipments are made from the state's set-aside for emergencies and hardships. SEFAC operates in conjunction with the Federal Energy Office to administer the federal fuel allocation program.

The state's set-aside amounts to three per cent of all fuel marketable in Texas on a month-to-month basis. SEFAC determines where it is to be delivered based on need.

Some delegates would like to move up the recess date to March — and head for home as soon as all convention committees have handed in their reports.

Other emergency allocations include 120,000 gallons to Laredo, 195,000 to Corpus Christi, 8,000 gallons to San Antonio, 90,000 to Longview and 60,000 to Dallas.

NIXON POLL NOTED — An informal poll on the question of impeachment of President Richard Nixon at the January files of a licensing agency containing routine information concerning status of a license, including whether or not his license is current, are disclosable under the open records act.

Texas Press Association convention drew the attention of the White House.

According to Margaret Mayer, Dallas Times Herald Washington correspondent: "A call from the White House

pany of Dallas had exceeded its powers and "failed to comply with the law in regard to the acquisition of certain investments."

Republic National has been in business since 1928 and has more than $10 billion in policies in force. Odum said there is no change in the company's obligation to pay claims.

DONATES ANIMALS FOR RESEARCH—Latimer Murfee of Letter M Ranches, Cypress, and also a landowner in Sherman County, views Carefree Cavalier 3 and WSR Thelricks S505 just prior to loading for their trip to the Texas A&M Research Center at Uvalde. Murfee purchased and donated these two Brangus bulls to the Research Station for use in beef research programs in Texas.

Murfee Sponsors Bulls For Research Studies

A planned "Brangus cows for know-how" project of the Texas A&M University Research and Extension Center at Uvalde was initially launched with "bull power" support, in January, by the Letter M Ranches' purchase and donation of two outstanding Brangus bulls to the Uvalde Center.

Devons, and Longhorns.

Latimer Murfee, owner of the Letter M Ranches, Cypress, Texas, as well as extensive ranching interests in Sherman County and the Texas Panhandle, made the purchases January 5 at the Willow Springs - Harris Farms Sale held at Sealy, Texas. Murfee purchased WSR Thelricks S-505, for $2450, and Carefree Cavalier 3 for $1825 and then donated both of these bulls, consigned by Willow Springs Ranch, to the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station for the specific use of the Uvalde Research and Extension Center.

The Uvalde Center serves an 18-county area of Southwest Texas. One of its major research thrusts will be in a combination of livestock, wildlife, and range management. Last fall the Crystal City Research Station, located only 40 miles away, was placed under the administrative control of the Uvalde Center; plans are underway to develop a major portion of the Station into an intensive beef and forage production Center to support the successful conversion of many acres of Rio Grande Plain's more fertile and irrigated land to intensive beef production. Among the research objectives proposed for a multidisciplinary approach are:

COURTS SPEAK — A 1973 act permitting cities to issue revenue bonds to promote new industries has been, in effect, held unconstitutional by the Texas Supreme Court in a McAllen case.

High Court held Tyler's Peoples National Bank and its officers not at fault in jailing a man who guarded his property from foreclosure sale with a shotgun.

1. To evaluate cattle of Bos indicus and Bos taurus breeding under intensive beef production systems in the regional production environment of the Rio Grande Plain; 2. To study modifications of existing cattle management practices as an aid to increasing beef production under intensive systems of production, with special emphasis on improving reproductive performance; and 3. To develop beef cattle production management systems that optimize total efficiency and economy from conception to carcass.

A number of Brangus breeders have expressed interest in donating females for the proposed research which will include studies in genetic background evaluation, environmental stress studies and management studies, and will also include complete economic analyses of the beef production systems studied. The genetic evaluation, for example, will consider fertility, growth curves, parasite and disease resistance, grazing behavior, environmental adaptation, brood cow longevity, and carcass merit. The donated herd will be referred to as "Brangus cows for know-how." Brangus breeders interested in providing animals for this long-term research should contact Dr. Fowler at Uvalde.

"We are extremely pleased with the merit of these outstanding Brangus bulls," commented Dr. Stewart H. Fowler, Resident Director of Research at the Uvalde Center. According to Dr. Fowler, "These bulls represent strong diverse bloodlines of the Brangus breed and will provide flexibility in our breeding program from the very start, and we are most gratified by this faith and support placed behind our proposed research program by Murfee."

Murfee is chairman of the Research Committee, Texas Brangus Breeders Association. He has followed Dr. Fowler's interest in a Brangus research herd even prior to Dr. Fowler's joining the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station in August 1972. Dr. Fowler had previously served as head of the Animal Science Department at Mississippi State University, where he had added research herds of Barzonas, Beefasters, Brahman, and Santa Gertudis, and had completed partial arrangements to establish additional research herds of Brangus.

Additional breeds will be added to the total research program of the Uvalde Center, both at Crystal City and in an extensive beef production program as soon as 5000 to 10,000 acres of typical Rio Grande Plain rangeland can be acquired. Breed Associations and breeders of other beef breeds and urged to indicate their interest in possible participation as are ranchers and other land owners who might be interested in making land available on a long-term lease or as a gift to the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station to facilitate extensive beef cattle, wildlife, and range management studies.

Social Security News

Have you a question about social security? Address it to Robert H. Schaller, Branch Manager, P.O. Box 1292, Guyton, Oklahoma 73942. You will receive an answer in this column or by mail.

Q. My father died a few years ago and I draw social security on his record. I am just now 17 years old. I will finish high school this year. After I graduate I want to enroll in a business school or college. Is it true that I can continue to draw my social security benefits after I reach age 18 if I continue in school?

A. Yes, under certain conditions. You must remain unmarried and you must attend school on a full-time basis at a school that has been approved by the Social Security Administration. This could be either a business or vocational school, a college or university. If you meet these requirements, you may receive benefits until age 22. Shortly before you reach 18, you will receive a form concerning your intention to continue in school. You should complete this form immediately and send it to your social security office in order to prevent any interruption in your benefits.

Q. I am retired and my 16 year old son draws social security benefits on my record. He is hopelessly disabled and will never be able to work. I am concerned as to whether his benefits will end should I die before he does.

A. Assuming that your son meets our disability requirements, he will continue to draw his benefits as long as he remains disabled and does not marry. However, in order to establish his disability, you should contact the social security office nearest you when he is 17 1/2 years old to report his disability. The social security office will at that time undertake the necessary development to determine his disability.

RELIGIOUS REFLECTIONS

by LOYCE BROWN

Daniel purposed in his heart that he would not defile himself with the kings meat. That was quite a resolution considering its time and circumstance. This Time (in January) is, customarily, a time for new and such purposing. I was privileged today to get a spiritual glimpse into a whole host of such purposings by hearing a few resolutions. Here are some: "Love God More; Express my love for God more; Walk more closely, carefully and consecratedly in 'The Way'; To serve God's cause (making known the Gospel); to be a better American Citizen; To be a better world Citizen; To seek and obediently follow the Holy Spirit's Leadership; To do my work as though, as the TV spot shows, 'my name was stamped on it'; to rejoice more; to live to the fullest this 'more abundant' life Christ has provided for me; to help make the world a better place; to do something constructive in and for my community; to be more alert to the Holy Spirit's leading in caring more, glorifying His name more and in truly loving my neighbor; to read His Word; to schedule for myself a better prayer and meditation time. To plan my work and activities with an eye to pleasing, rather than grieving the Holy Spirit; to make my creator glad he made me and subjected me here in hope". I enjoyed hearing them. I've heard others-like losing weight, saving money, being kinder to co-workers etc., but these just seemed extra TREASURABLE. Here's a thought on Resolving: "Resolute, crystallized, my will, by self force hardened. Then, sickeningly, was shattered eer the Test was done. Revived, restored by Spirit-Quickening molderd. Next time, it lent itself to His--and won!"

Soil Conservation

by Bill Sladek News

CONSERVATION! - ITS EFFECTS ON THE URBAN DWELLER-A question of this type put to average layman will receive many answers. "Man, every time it rains in the mountains the streams get so muddy you couldn't catch a trout if you wanted to." "I have my entire yard planted to a good grass and when it rains very little runoff occurs so how in the world can conservation affect me. We could go on and on with answers of this nature, but would prefer to take a close look at how conservation really affects you, the urbanite.

Those who lived in Sherman County in the "Dirty Thirties" can readily vouch that anything that would have controlled the blowing soil would have been a welcome relief. These were dry times, but we have had dry times since and with far less movement of soil. We are prone to look at the amount of land under irrigation and say that this has controlled the dust storms. This might be true but we still have in excess of 100,000 acres still in dryland conditions. Locally, we have learned to control the blowing with cover and equipment. The one way is still used, but has given way to the chisel type plow in one or more of the operations. It has been reported that in the 30's even the grassland "blew out" in places. As a result better grassland management was recognized as a necessity.

When you do your weekly shopping for groceries in your "air polluting" automobile you still expect to find fresh vegetables to your liking. These vegetables were not raised on washed out or worn out soils, but were raised on highly productive soils. The steak or roast you might have for Sunday dinner will come from a steer fed on grain raised on productive soils. Even the bread on your table was produced on highly productive soils.

Are you looking for a better hybrid sorghum?

Big yields year-on and year-out are the result of planting Northrup King sorghum hybrids. In fact, many NK sorghum hybrids have yielded 1,000 pounds of grain for every pound of seed planted — produced carloads of grain. You can do it too — stop in or call while seed supplies are available.

Livestock Report Off

Last week 5757 cattle and calves sold through the arena at Texhoma. Our steer and heifer calves sold $1.00 to $3.00 lower with feeder steers selling $2-$4.00 lower. The cow market was $1.50 to $3.00 higher.

Some representative sales are as follows: 12 WF steer calves Av. Wt. 256# at $64.00 per cwt.; 59 Blk WF heifer calves Av. Wt. 315 # at $51.50 per cwt.; 130 WF steers Av. Wt. 677# $43.35 per cwt.; 46 WF heifers Av. Wt. 524# at $43.80 per cwt.

For next Friday, we are expecting 3500 to 4000 cattle at the time of this writing. We are now taking consignments for every Friday in March and are ready to start on April. If you have cattle that are now feeder weights and fit within your growing program, it is our opinion that it might be advisable to sell them on this current market and replace with light cattle at the same time and on the same market.

Economists who study the figures are saying that this is only a temporary dip in interest rates and that the long term trend is just like the price of every other commodity which we use in our economy--Up

There are several powerful forces behind the continuing rise in interest rates. One of the strongest forces is inflation. Our economy has had a built in inflation factor ever since the end of World War II. Lenders, in an effort to offset the washout of the value of their dollars which they lend out for 20 or 30 years, add an "inflation factor" to the interest rate they charge. This helps protect them from the loss in purchasing power of the dollar which they will get back when the loan comes due 20 or 20 years from now.

Another primary factor in higher interest rates is that the money supply has not grown fast enough to provide the dollars which the economy needs. And, on top of that, the demand for capital to finance U.S. industry has grown faster than the retained earnings which industry plows back into plant and equipment and the individual savings that supply the funds to meet this need. So, the money lenders are in a seller's market because there is so much competition for funds.

All of the major U.S. industries, such as railroads, steel, chemical, oils and utilities must raise massive sums of money during the next 10 years. These demands have come from many sources: business expanding capacity, antipollution controls for industry, military expenditures, government financing of highways, hospitals and schools.

Meanwhile, the supply of funds has not expanded anything like the expansion in industry and the growth in business expenditures. Personal savings still run 6 percent to 7 percent of personal income, about where they were in the early 1950s.

The combination of continual boom in capital spending by U.S. industry and a sluggish rate of personal savings has kept constant upward pressure on interest rates.
