Lamb Clothing for Hitler Received in Talco

This city and county is receiving a wordy wardrobe from Nazi sympathizers, the kind that has been distributed throughout Germany and a large portion of Europe. It is the sheep's clothing for the war-wolf Adolph Hitler and his henchmen.

The long suit of this wardrobe is a 16-page magazine purporting to describe the religious freedom in Germany. It was received by this newspaper and mailed from "The German Library of Information," in New York City.

The magazine, called "Facts in Review," attempts to show that the Nazis are religious, though according to American newspaper reporters in Germany, religious freedom does not exist, nor does any other kind.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Flewharty, Mrs. W. E. Kirkham, Mrs. W. A. Cloar, Mrs. E. W. Smith, Mrs. Ollie Morrison, Mrs. A. L. Sly, Mrs. L. G. Morrison and Mrs. Walter Foster attended the Eastern Star school of instruction at Atlanta Saturday, where Mrs. Kirkham and Mrs. Smith received their "A" certificates and Mr. and Mrs. Flewharty, Mrs. Cloar, Mrs. Sly, Mrs. Morrison and Mrs. Foster received their "B" certificates.

TALCO CHORAL CLUB BROADCASTS ON FRIDAY

Talco Choral Club under the direction of L. E. Gilbert, gave a short program Friday afternoon over radio station KPLT, beginning at 2:45. The program was broadcast to every room in the school building through the school's sound system.

Such propaganda, for it cannot be regarded as anything else, is indicative that the venomous "Fifth Column" that is sapping the strength and morale of European defenses is alive and at work in this country. By playing upon the receptive minds and sympathetic hearts of Americans, these distributors of Nazi poison are attempting to gain a stronger foothold for what they hope may eventually become a deathgrip on the throat of American ideals and democracy.

The fact that Hitler in his autobiography declares that the church should be destroyed and has done his utmost to stamp out religious freedom in Germany, give the lie to any attempt from any one or from any organization to show Hitler as anything except a murderous murderer.

PARTY FOR WPA HELD MONDAY AT CITY HALL

Talco's WPA sewing room, under the direction of Mrs. Ruby French, and the employees entertained a group of business men Monday night in the city hall.

The affair was opened by a string band, consisting of students from Ripley, under the supervision of Jack Hayes. The band is also a part of the WPA training program.

The auditorium was decorated in red, white and blue flowers, carrying out the national colors. Displays of woodcraft and sewing of different kinds were in evidence.

Morris Davis of Mt. Pleasant, assistant supervisor of recreational projects, acted as master of ceremonies and Jack Hayes of Mt. Pleasant, recreational leader, had charge of song service.

Mayor C. E. Jones was principal speaker, relating the necessity of keeping the sewing room going and its advantages to the community. Following Mr. Jones, the sponsors present made short talks on the sewing room project and all expressed themselves as being for it 100%.

Refreshments of cold drinks, cake and potato chips were served.

Beginning Monday, May 20, thru Saturday, May 25 has been designated a national WPA week, so that people of the communities can see the work being done by WPA workers. The sewing room will be open to visitors the remainder of the week.

NOBODY'S BUSINESS

By JULIAN CAPERS, JR.

AUSTIN.—The pip-squeak oratory of petty state and local politicians this week was literally blacked-out by the echoes of bursting bombs and crashing shells on European battlefields, as citizens of Texas heard President Roosevelt ask for a billion dollars to build military and naval defenses to prevent this nation being swallowed up by the blood-hungry legions of the German mad-dog, Hitler.

Thruout Texas and every state in the union, Americans of all shades of political belief gave ungrudging approval of the President's plea for defense funds and activity, as partisan politics was, by silent agreement, laid aside until the international situation becomes clarified. Notwithstanding the bitter opposition which exists everywhere to some of Roosevelt's domestic policies, there seems to be unanimous agreement among Americans that the President's conduct of foreign affairs has been faultless, and reflects the spirit and feeling of all Americans.

Congress Lends Aid

Congressional leaders gave quick indications that they would move swiftly to provide the money needed and such supplemental legislation as is needed to make its expenditure effective to protect this nation from the European maelstrom. Senator Tom Connally of Texas, patriot that he is, moved immediately to push through the upper chamber laws to safeguard the United States from the deadly "fifth column" activity which has paralyzed the neutral nations invaded by the Germans. Out of his efforts doubtless will come quickly laws to control aliens who seek to tear down this government and to aid its enemies by "boring from within."

After the President's vivid speech, in which he pointed out that the two oceans no longer mean security to us, with modern aircraft able to attack American objectives within a few hours from half a dozen accessible bases, the situation was brought home to Texans with tremendous impact. A million Texas mothers and fathers envisioned their sons being blasted to death in bloody trenches; parents visualized their homes and their children destroyed by aerial bombs in unfortified Texas towns.

Clowns Out of Luck

Besides these painful realities, the radio barrage of little men, seeking little jobs, from Governor to constable, simply failed to register. The thump of the bass fiddle, the squawk of the hill-billy crooner, leave the people cold. The maudlin, drooling sentimentality about home and mother, the piddling quarrels over taxes, the loud-mouthed declarations of devotion to the "hoary headed old pioneers,"—all sound a little silly against the background of bursting bombs and roaring artillery which may be deciding the fate of civilization for centuries to come.

The elections probably will be quiet affairs this year. The folks may make some changes—they doubtless will. But it now appears they will do it without enthusiasm, without hurrah and with a deadly serious purpose in mind.

The politician who doesn't understand how to do anything but clown, or to "pour it on" somebody in a mock warfare of words, may be desperately out of luck next July, no matter whether he is running for President or constable.

PLACING THE WREATH

Marriage to Soon Break Up Key Quadruplets

The love of a man for a maid and a maid for man is destined to end the companionship of Oklahoma's Key sisters, first quadruplets known to have reached maturity. Mona will be married on June 18 to Robert W. Fowler, accountant for an oil company.

To celebrate their twenty-fifth birthday June 4, Mona, Roberta, Mary and Leota have purchased individual clothes, marking for the first time their emergence as separate individuals. Since their birth in Hollis, Okla., they have dressed identically and have been practically inseparable.

Now that Mona plans to marry, her three sisters expect to settle down to teaching school in Texas next year.

Marriage will bring new responsibilities to Mona. Since childhood the sisters have divided their chores. Mona isn't an expert cook, but she expects to be.

She also will have to learn to handle cash. She and Roberta always have let Mary and Leota be the bankers.

But that shouldn't worry Mona. After all, she's marrying an accountant.

Fiery Attack on Patman's Record

Advocating the rushing of an adequate defense program and calling upon Congressman Wright Patman to support the President fully in defense legislation, R. G. Dick Waters of Texarkana, spoke Saturday at Deport in behalf of his candidacy for congress. Waters charged that in the past Patman has failed to support defense plans.

Waters launched a fiery attack on the twelve-year record of the incumbent, reviewing among other things Patman's connection with McKesson-Robbins, giant drug and liquor firm, which he described as the greatest drug and whiskey monopoly in the world. According to records produced by Waters, the firm paid Patman as much as $300 and expenses for each in a series of speeches he made in behalf of the Robinson-Patman Act. This act, and the so-called Fair Trade bill which Waters said McKesson-Robbins tried to lobby through the Texas legislature, would hit the pocket-book of every consumer, the speaker declared.

The speaker held up a can of baking powder, declaring it now sells for 19c but that under price-fixing legislation advocated by Patman sponsors it would be unlawful for a merchant to sell it for less than 25c, the price printed on the label.

"I know I am running against Wright Patman, about 100 postmasters and other appointees, but I do not fear the Patman machine," Waters said.

Waters challenged Patman to de-

HALESBORO

The WHD Club met with Mrs. Philip Hobbs in the home of Mrs. F. M. Hobbs Tuesday afternoon. Linen for the kitchen was topic for discussion. Several pieces of beautiful linen were displayed. Mrs. Horace Jeffus, club president, presented each one present with an "Aunt Sammy's" cook book. The club will meet May 28 with Mrs. J. J. Alsbrook. Mmes. Homer Hobbs of Bogata, Floyd Fleming of Lone Oak and F. M. Hobbs were visitors.

Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Crawford and son of Cunningham, were Sunday visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Buster Wright.

Karl Kimball of Deport and Mr. and Mrs. George Stevenson and daughter, Miss Maude of Paris, were visitors in this community on Sunday.

Horace Kilgore and family have moved from the Ben Ward farm to Rugby.

Several from here attended the baccalaureate sermons at Deport and Bogata Sunday.

Continued rains are delaying farm work. Some crops are getting very foul.

Waters challenged Patman to debate his record in Congress, adding that "I want him to say how much he made in his speeches, for which he received an honorarium. I raise the ante and say Patman received $300 daily for these speeches." (He had read a Patman statement that he had received $100 for the speeches.)

"I presume I am speaking of my opponent," said Waters, alluding to the fact Patman thus far has not announced, "or maybe he has become so high and bold that he doesn't have to pay any attention to a couple of country boys running against him." Howard Smith of Hopkins county is the other candidate.

SMOOTH As a Graceful Gliding Swan

GRAND PRIZE
Genuine Lager Beer

The velvety texture of GRAND PRIZE immediately distinguishes it as a truly fine beer. There is no hint of harshness, bitterness or sweetness . . . Just a silken, mellow smoothness that is always pleasing. Finest ingredients obtainable and months of AGEING in cold cellars (the largest in the South) give GRAND PRIZE this noticeable superiority!

THERE IS NO FINER BEER AT ANY PRICE!
