Texans at risk of tax ID theft

WINTERS ENTERPRISE STAFF REPORT

To coincide with Tax Identity Theft Awareness Week, the AARP Fraud Watch Network is launching an education effort to help people protect themselves from tax scams, releasing a new video, a tip sheet and encouraging people to take advantage of AARP's free tax preparation services.

Many taxpayers are putting themselves at greater risk of tax identity theft, according to a recent national study released by the AARP Fraud Watch Network in conjunction with the education campaign to help prevent scammers from stealing Texans hard-earned money.

According to the Federal Trade Commission, Texas ranks eighth in ID theft complaints. In this identity theft scheme, scammers electronically file a tax return under someone else's name to collect their tax refund. All they need is a birthdate and Social Security number, and many taxpayers make their personal information easy pickings by: Failing to lock their mailbox, leaving valuables exposed in their car, failing to destroy personal information.

To protect yourself and your family from tax identity theft mail tax returns as early in the tax season as possible, don't give out personal information unless you know who's asking for it and why they need it, shred personal and financial documents.

CRMWD hosts youth hunts

WINTERS ENTERPRISE
STAFF REPORT

BALLINGER— The Colorado River Municipal Water District hosted two deer hunts during the 2014-2015 deer season for kids from a Texas Children's Ranch. On both hunts, five children from the home participated in the doe and spike hunts.

Wal-Mart of Ballinger, Texas, donated a gift card, along with an anonymous donor from Nebraska who donated several Academy gifts cards for the hunts. Each child received a participation gift card, plus gift cards were awarded as prizes for the biggest doe and biggest spike harvested, best marksmanship and a luck of the draw prize.

Besides the hunt, all the young hunters had the opportunity to participate in what has become one of their favorite events: a trip to the shooting range. The boys ruled the shooting range, but the young ladies had all the luck hunting.

Winners of the October 25, 2014 prizes were: Marksmanship - Andrew (score of 38), Biggest Doe - Kailey (guided by Michael Lee), Biggest Spike - Kailey (guided by

Michael Lee), and Luck of Draw - James.

In the January 17, 2015 hunt, those ranking atop were: Marksmanship - John (score of 40), Biggest Doe - Haley (guided by Michael Lee), Biggest Spike - Edna (guided by Mary Ann Evans), and Luck of Draw - John.

On the October hunt, breakfast goodies and soft drinks were provided by David and Vicki Stewart of Rockwood, Texas. Lunch was provided by the Ballinger Morning Lions Club of Ballinger, Texas, who prepared grilled hamburgers with the fixings, chips and cookies. Enough food was left over for all to enjoy another burger after the evening hunt. Also, Norene Jamison, of Voss, Texas, baked up a big batch of homemade cookies for each of the hunts.

Breakfast on Saturday and Sunday of the January hunt was provided by Elm Creek Village of Lake Ivie, and lunch was provided by Concho Park Marina, of Lake Ivie. After the evening hunt, a taco soup and sausage meal was served by Debra Halfmann of Lake Ivie. Once again, soft drinks and snacks made available by David and Vicki Stewart of Rockwood, and of course those homemade cookies by Norene Jamison.

At both events, Texas Parks and Wildlife Game Wardens Lane Pickney of Runnels County and Norman Terry of Coleman County gave very informative programs which included a wide spectrum of issues including game laws, safety issues, a Q&A session and work related stories.

Those assisting as guides on the hunts were Tom and Mary Ann Evans of Lake Ivie, Kristen and Kurt Wankowski of Doole, Mark Halfmann of San Angelo, and Michael, Joel, Kelsey, and Heather of the children's home.

Deer corn was provided by Coleman Grain Inc. of Coleman, Texas, Shopping Basket of Ballinger, and Ballinger Feed and Seed of Ballinger, Texas. The use of corn is a great asset, as it allows the young hunters a greater opportunity to observe wildlife and harvest a deer.

Special thanks go out to all who supported this event and gave of themselves, and their resources, to make this opportunity available for these children.

Texas Department of Insurance alerts of timeshare fraud

WINTERS ENTERPRISE
STAFF REPORT

AUSTIN— The Texas Department of Insurance warns owners of timeshare vacation properties of a fraud scheme involving unlicensed title insurance companies. Consumers should always make sure they are dealing with properly licensed title companies and can contact TDI's Consumer Help Line at 1-800-252-3439 for assistance.

Timeshare fraud typically begins when a person contacts timeshare owners and either says they are representing a buyer or offers to help them sell their properties. The person sends the owner to work with a specific title company, but the company doesn't exist. The company address, phone number, and website are legitimate-looking but are all fake. Finally, the person asks the owner to send money to an account in Mexico and then disappears without providing any services.

"These fraudulent schemes typically involve a company that has gone by several different names, but none are licensed by TDI," said Commissioner David Mattax. "Timeshare fraud is a serious crime, which can cost consumers thousands of dollars."

TDI urges consumers to follow these tips to avoid becoming a victim of timeshare fraud:

Make sure any title company you work with is licensed or registered to sell title insurance in Texas by calling the TDI Consumer Help Line at 1-800-252-3439.

Know the company's exact name. Unlicensed companies often use names that are similar to the names of licensed companies.

Verify that the title insurance company you're using has a physical office with a real address and a working phone number. If possible, visit the office in person.

Ask the buyer's representative to send you details in writing about the services offered.

Ask questions about expenses you are asked to pay up front. Seek a second opinion if the explanation is suspicious. If you are asked to transfer funds to Mexico, contact the taxing authority in Mexico or an attorney to advise you.

For more information or to report suspected insurance fraud, call the Consumer Help Line at 1-800-252-3439 or visit www.tdi.texas.gov.

Veteran's Corner

The budget cuts mandated by the Budget Control Act (BCA) of 2011 pose a threat to national security and will substantially impact military pay and benefits. These automatic cuts, known as Sequestration, require that 50 percent of budget cuts come from Defense even though Defense only makes up 17 percent of the federal budget. These cuts were intended to be so punitive that Congress and the Administration would be forced to work together to find reasonable alternatives. Unfortunately, this has not occurred—Congress and the White House continue to be consumed with partisan bickering and have been unable to come to a long term agreement on the budget without sequestration cuts. Everyone is strongly urged to ask legislators to exclude Defense from sequestration. For more information, contact Sandra at the Veterans Service Office at 602 Strong Ave on Tuesdays and Thursdays from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m., or call 365-3612.

Blizzards fall to 3-4

WINTERS ENTERPRISE STAFF REPORT

WINTERS- The Winters Blizzards fell to 3-4 in District 7-2A last week, as they lost both of their games.

On Tuesday, the Blizzards traveled to Hawley to face the first place Bearcats. The Blizzards led 9-8 at the end of the first quarter, but after that it was all Bearcats, as they outscored the Blizzards 24-2 in the second quarter and 21-9 in the second half for a 55-20 win. Daryl Hagle led the Blizzards with seven points.

On Friday, the Blizzards hosted the Haskell Indians and lost 66-38. The Indians jumped out to a 20-7 first quarter lead, then cruised the rest of the way for the 28-point win. Jake Brock had 17 points for the Blizzards, while Daniel Gerhart, in his best game of the year, had 11.

Halfway through district play, the Blizzards are 3-4 and two games out of playoff contention. This week they will travel to Roscoe and to Anson.

THE IDLE AMERICAN America for me...

Cometary by
Dr. Don Newbury

A candidate for political office — pontificating for the “umpteenth” time on the campaign stump — spewed words at 200 per minute, with gusts to 250. At full bluster, he quoted the old line about “standing on the shoulders of others gone before.”

“If his shoulders are as slick as his speeches, you won’t find any footprints on ‘em,” one critic muttered.

This is, however, a great truth worth revisiting. Many shoulders of folks who’ve gone on — as well as those still serving in military and public service posts — have helped America “stay stitched” at a time when more values are on trial than we have enough gavels for....

Upon exiting movies recently — Unbroken, then American Sniper — I thought of this sobering quote. May God be thanked for others’ shoulders on which we stand in a world where too many choose to hunker down.

“One nation under God” and other patriotic thoughts flooded. Immediately I remembered the band playing the National Anthem at a high school football game in Mineral Wells, TX, some 25 years ago. The entire stadium was pin-drop quiet. I was thankful for the reverence of the moment, and figured Fort Wolters, a long-time military base there, probably fostered this attitude of gratitude. (Mineral Wells’ Vietnam Memorial Wall, with names updated annually as on the Wall in Washington, DC, attracts many visitors from throughout the state and beyond.)

A friend recently mentioned his understandable pride in his grandson, Spencer Seay. Spencer spent seven years in the US Army, including two tours in Iraq. He and wife Lauren — Cleburne residents and CHS graduates — were in Dallas for the national premiere showing of American Sniper....

Their experience warrants re-telling: Seated next to them in the sold-out theater were several teenage boys. They were boisterous during previews, and Lauren worried that they might spoil their outing.

At movie’s end, she realized they had heard NOTHING from any of them — except for the several times they wept.

She lauded hero Chris Kyle — on whose life the movie centers — for his love of God, family and country. She recommends the book, too....

Also recalled was an organization called “Bugles Across America” (buglesacrossamerica.org). Founded in 2000 by Tom J. Day, BAA continues to expand under his presidential leadership. A Marine vet, he works passionately arranging for live buglers to play taps at funerals throughout the country. He and 7,500 other buglers play taps for burials — military or civilian — at no charge. (Day also has opened a museum next door to his home near Chicago, IL.)

Day himself has played taps at 5,500 funerals to date, starting with his drum-and-bugle corps membership at age 10. For years, alongside of him almost every time is his 32-year-old daughter who has cerebral palsy and autism.

If you want some “red, white and blue” cheer, visit the website. You’ll be thrilled to learn more about these BAA patriots, ages 10-92. They are real live heroes of our Uncle Sam, even if few were born on the Fourth of July....

TEXAS
Don Newbury

Growing numbers of folks are learning about the organization. The website provides contact information for families who want taps played for burial of loved ones. (Pentagon sources confirm that some 3,500 WWII vets die monthly, and 40% of their families are requesting BAA buglers.)

Irrespective of faith, creed, color or conviction, “who-soever will” are granted bugle tributes. Yes, sometimes wrong notes are hit, but aren’t they during life, too? Tom remembers one service that went awry....

Scheduled to play taps for a highly decorated Vietnam veteran, he decided to affix the shiny bayonet to his rifle for his three-shot tribute prior to taps. The first shot sounded strange, and on the second, the barrel exploded, sending the bayonet 15 feet into the air, “stabbing” the earth seconds later at the priest’s feet. (“God, just help me to get taps right,” Day prayed.) The rest went well. The family insisted on making photos. The priest laughed, saying he couldn’t wait to get back to the rectory to tell the nuns about the bugler who almost killed him.

We hope to take our six grandchildren to Chicago to meet Tom. We want to know a bonafide patriot who has “been there, done that,” and, at age 75, still is....
