World Ranger Day — Park rangers hold a variety of roles. As the front line of preservation and conservation, all park rangers are integral to national park systems. In the United States, the National Park Service (NPS) employs rangers to provide both law enforcement and cultural and educational services. Around the world, a park ranger's role may vary depending on the environment they serve.

Under Construction — The 2023 Kidz Building Camp is underway. Work began Monday evening and will conclude on Friday. More details and photos in next week's edition.

While the day recognizes the contributions of rangers, it also highlights their sacrifices. According to professional groups, at least 1,000 park rangers have been killed in the line of duty over the past 10 years - 75% by commercial poachers and armed militia groups. Accordingly, the day commemorates rangers killed or injured in the line of duty.

Summer is here and that means plenty of sunshine and heat! It has been hot and we all want to be cool. We want to look cool, do cool things and keep cool while doing them.

Have you heard the expression "as cool as a cucumber?" I'm so cool that I get to be the guest host on the page this week while all of the regular animals are chillin' out on vacation. Now that's cool!

It's important to keep your cool and yourself cool during sizzling, hot weather. Fill in the crossword puzzle with things that you can use to keep yourself "as cool as a cucumber."

- use it to protect your skin from burning
- your body gives off drops of this to balance its temperature
- holds liquid for biking and hiking
- brand name for flavored frozen water on a stick
- protect your eyes from the harmful rays of the sun
- swim or float in this to keep cool
- a gentle wind
- moves air around
- when the sun's rays are blocked, we are resting in this
- cover for the head (bigger is better)
- large one for the beach can protect your whole family
- machine controlling temperature and amount of water in the air
- H₂O - drink plenty of this
- sweet dessert; frozen cream and eggs

We cacti are keeping cool by wearing our cowboy hats. Can you find and circle 12 words that start with the letter "c"?

Cheesecake

July 30th is National Cheesecake Day. Sometimes a whole cheesecake seems like too much to have around the house, so here is a recipe for mini cheesecakes. These little treats can take care of your sweet tooth, but not linger around too long.

Mini Cheesecakes

sallysbakingaddiction.com

Ingredients

Graham Cracker Crust

- 2/3 cup (80g) graham cracker crumbs (about 5 1/2 full sheet graham crackers)
- 2 Tablespoons (28g) unsalted butter, melted
- 1 Tablespoon (12g) granulated sugar

Cheesecake

- 8 ounces (226g) full-fat brick cream cheese, softened to room temperature
- 1/4 cup (50g) granulated sugar
- 1/4 cup (60g) full-fat sour cream, at room temperature
- 1/2 teaspoon pure vanilla extract
- 1 teaspoon fresh lemon juice (optional, but recommended)
- 1 large egg, at room temperature

Instructions

Preheat oven to 350°F (177°C). Line a standard 12-count muffin pan with 9-10 liners. (For a mini muffin pan, see recipe note.) This recipe yields only 9-10 mini cheesecakes, so there will be 2-3 empty. You could skip the liners and spray the pan with non-stick spray or grease with butter, but the mini cheesecakes are pretty stubborn to release from the pan. I recommend using liners to make things easier.

Make the crust: Combine all of the crust ingredients in a medium bowl. Mixture will be sandy. Firmly press a heaping Tablespoon of crust mixture into each liner. (I use closer to 1 and 1/2 Tablespoons of crust per mini cheesecake.) Pre-bake for 5 minutes.

Make the filling: Using a hand-held or stand mixer fitted with a paddle or whisk attachment, beat the cream cheese and granulated sugar together on medium-high speed in a large bowl until the mixture is smooth and creamy, about 1 minute. Add the sour cream, vanilla extract, and lemon juice then beat until fully combined. On medium speed, add the egg and beat just until combined. Batter will be thick. Divide the batter between all the liners. It's about 1 Tablespoon per cheesecake.

Bake until the edges are set, and the centers only slightly jiggle, about 18-20 minutes.

Set the pan on a wire rack and allow cheesecakes to cool at room temperature for 30 minutes, then transfer to the refrigerator and chill for at least 2 hours and up to 1 day. If chilling for longer than 2 hours, loosely cover the cheesecakes. The cheesecakes will slightly sink in the middle as they chill. It gives you room for toppings! Once chilled, add any desired toppings (see Note below) and serve. Cover and store leftover cheesecakes in the refrigerator for up to 5 days.

Notes

Make Ahead Instructions: Prepare the cheesecakes through Step 3 up to 2-3 days in advance. Cover unbaked cheesecakes and store in the refrigerator until ready to bake. Continue with Step 4. Freeze individual baked cheesecakes for up to 3 months. Thaw overnight in the refrigerator before serving.

Super Mini Cheesecakes: Line a 24-count mini muffin pan with mini muffin liners or grease with nonstick spray or butter. For easy and seamless removal from the pan, using liners is preferable. Make the crust and cheesecake batter as directed. Press 2 teaspoons of crust into each mini muffin liner. Pre-bake at 350°F (177°C) for 4 minutes. Remove from the oven and fill each with cheesecake batter. Bake for 10-11 minutes or until the cheesecakes appear set on top. Continue with Step 6 in this recipe. Yields approximately 30 super mini cheesecakes.

Gas prices remain stable

By GasBuddy

Average gasoline prices in Texas rose 9.2 cents per last week, averaging $3.23 per gallon, according to GasBuddy's survey of 13,114 stations in Texas. Prices in Texas are 2.3 cents per gallon higher than a month ago and stand 58.5 cents per gallon lower than a year ago. According to GasBuddy price reports, the cheapest station in Texas was priced at $2.45 while the most expensive was $4.17 per gallon.

The national average price of gasoline rose 2.1 cents last week, averaging $3.55 per gallon. The national average is down 0.4 cents per gallon from a month ago and stands 78.0 cents per gallon lower than a year ago. The national average price of diesel rose 2.7 cents in the last week and stands at $3.83 per gallon.

"For another week, we saw little meaningful change in the national average, which has been stuck in the same 10 cent range we're in today since April. It's been a remarkably quiet summer for gas prices, which have been far less active than normal," said Patrick De Haan, head of petroleum analysis at GasBuddy.

De Haan added, "However, with tremendous heat gripping much of the country, I remain concerned about the fuel that such high temperatures will provide for tropical systems that venture into the Atlantic and Caribbean. For now, I don't expect much change in the toss up that has been gas prices for weeks on end. But, with gasoline demand now hitting its summer high, there remain some risks that could disturb gas prices in a significant way before summer's end."

GasBuddy data is compiled from more than 11 million weekly price reports covering over 150,000 gas stations across the country.

Texas has the largest veteran population in U.S.

Texas has the largest veteran population of any state, at over 1,543,160. Additionally, Texas leads the nation in veterans filing disability claims associated with the PACT Act, at over 73,490, since it was enacted in August 2022. In that time, the Texas Veterans Commission (TVC) has experienced a 25% increase in VA disability Claims assistance. The PACT Act greatly expanded Claims eligibility for toxic exposure, burn pits and more.

"More veterans choose to live in Texas; and in Texas, we take care of our veterans. The Texas Veterans Commission works every day to improve the lives of our Texas veterans, their families, and survivors," said TVC Chairwoman and U.S. Navy veteran Laura Koerner.

"Texans are forever indebted to our veterans and their families for the bravery and sacrifice they have given to protect our nation and the freedoms we cherish," said Governor Greg Abbott. "Thanks to the Texas Veterans Commission, we continue to work to ensure the tens of thousands of Texas veterans who fought so bravely to protect their fellow Americans have access to the support they need to thrive. Texas will always honor the service and sacrifice of these courageous heroes and their families."

Helping veterans starts here. The Texas Veterans Commission advocates for and provides superior service to veterans that will significantly improve the quality of life for all Texas veterans, their families, and survivors. How comfortable am I?

By Brett Hoyle, Pastor, First Baptist Church

Comfort is king, as countless areas in you life makes clear. You adjust the thermostat for a comfortable temperature, your bed may adjust for maximum comfort, your car seat adjusts for the sake of comfort, and you may drastically avoid people who make you uncomfortable. With the aforementioned examples, they are not bad in and of themselves, but the reality is that when one lives our comfort, that can become a tremendous spiritual hinderance and even lead into idolatry.

Deuteronomy 4:25-26 warns the Israelites against the dangers of idolizing comfort by saying, "When you father children and children's children, and have grown old in the land, if you act corruptly by making a carved image in the form of anything, and by doing what is evil in the sight of the Lord your God, so as to provoke him to anger...You will not live long in it [the promised land], but will be utterly destroyed." It is interesting that there is a warning against getting comfortable, complacent and apathetic, even as you are enjoying the gifts and blessings of God. When one's life begins to revolve around comfort and preferences instead of the mission of Christ and glorifying God, then one is in dangerous territory. The danger of comfort is that it seduces you away from a fervent and vibrant faith in Christ, and replaces it with a love for the comforts we begin to depend on for happiness. Instead of forsaking all things and following Christ, one's obedience has limits, based on when, where and convenience instead of the attitude of "Wherever He leads I'll go." Through Israel's history, one sees that comfort cooled their love for God which began to open the door for idol worship and a host of other sins that were an abomination to God.

As you consider the warning against idolizing comfort, may you also be encouraged by many godly examples who traded in their comfort for a cross to bear daily as they walked with Christ each day. Moses shunned the luxuries of Egyptian royalty, Daniel denied himself food from the King's table, Esther risked her life, Matthew left his lucrative career, and Jesus left the glory of heaven to die on the cross, so that you could one day enjoy the comforts and glory of heaven.

To Include or Exclude

By Teena Hughs

We had a family reunion for my side of the family this past weekend. It was the first reunion we have had in over 50 years, and it was a great reunion!!!

When one cousin, Oran, texted to say he and his sister, and their spouses, were coming, he said, "Thank you for including us."

I thought it was a little strange that he thanked us for including them, but I didn't really think anything about it until he said it again when he signed a family reunion guest book, and then again when they were leaving.

After they left, my brother shared part of a conversation he had with Oran. Oran's dad passed away at age 35, and his grandmother Carson died at an early age. His grandfather remarried, and so did his mother. It turns out that the step-grandmother was Cinderella's step-mother on steroids. On Oran's grandfather's deathbed, she got him to sign a new will with XXX; she cut Oran and his sisters out of the will. When their mother died, she got a restraining order to keep her from being buried next to Oran's father.

We were all teenagers the last time we were together, so since we haven't had any contact with one another, I am sure Oran didn't feel included in our family, and that breaks my heart! There isn't a much worse feeling than not feeling included, feeling left out, or not feeling wanted, especially by family.

I guess the purpose of writing this is to say that I need to do a better job of including people, especially my family. I reasoned that because I haven't had any contact from them, they don't want anything to do with us; sadly, we do have two family members like that. However, everyone at this reunion does want to be family to one another!

So, this is the way I handle situations like this. I invite everyone; then, I pray and ask God that the people who are supposed to be here, will be here. The last time I did this, the people I really didn't want to come, but I invited anyway, didn't come; however, some of the people I really wanted to come, didn't come either! God knew who needed to be here, so it is better to include rather than exclude and make people feel bad or hurt their feelings.

To include or exclude is up to each of us. With family, there is no question, I will invite all of them! With others, I will invite everyone somehow, some way; I don't want anyone to feel left out or unwanted. With that said, I am being totally honest when I say I might do a little praying and ask God for everyone not to come!

County Receives Good Audit Report

Parmer County Commissioners met in regular session on Monday, July 24, 2023 at 10:00 a.m. in the County Courtroom of the Parmer County Courthouse in Farwell, Texas. The meeting began with prayer and the Pledge of Allegiance to the American Flag and Texas Flag.

David Ford from APEX Clean Energy reported that about 75% of land leases have been finalized for a wind farm project in the Lariat area. The project is slated to begin construction in late 2024 or early 2025.

CPA John Merriss presented the 2022 Outside Audit Report to the court. He reported that Parmer County is in excellent shape fiscally with a near 24-month sustainability rating. The average rating for most counties is around 6-9 months.

The Treasurer's Quarterly Report was reviewed and approved. You can find it on page 9 in this issue of the Friona Star.

Sheriff Geske reported to the Court that the Parmer County Law Enforcement Center is currently housing 36 inmates of which 4 are paying customers from Dawson County and 10 paying customers from Lubbock County. He also mentioned that an interlocal agreement with the City of Friona was being discussed.

In other business, a tile line under a county road in Precinct 2 was approved. A contract extension with Rana Crow to maintain the county website was tabled. A request by Rob Pomper to use the courthouse lawn for Border Town Days was approved. Commissioners also discussed possible grants in Texas Senate Bill 22 but the legislature still has not finished the implementation language.

There were no comments from the public during the open forum. Minutes from the July 10th meeting were read and approved. Commissioners approved the payment of the accounts payables as presented by County Treasurer Sharon May. The Treasurer's Payroll Report was also approved. The next regular meeting is Monday, August 14th.

All meetings are open to the public. Information in this article is only a summary.

Obituaries

Wyndol David Grimsley

Wyndol David Grimsley, age 92, passed away Saturday, July 22, 2023 in Friona. Viewing was held on Tuesday, July 25, 2023 from 9:00AM to 8:00 PM in the Ron Smiley Memorial Chapel of HANSARD FAMILY. The Celebration of Life Memorial Service was held at 1:30 P.M., Wednesday, July 26, 2023 at Sixth Street Church of Christ in Friona with Jeff Procter, officiating. Arrangements by HANSARD FAMILY Funeral Home of Friona.

David was active in the community, serving as a director on numerous local and county boards and committees. He was a faithful member of the Sixth Street Church of Christ, where he previously served as a deacon. Until the later years of his life, David enjoyed fishing with several local 'fishing buddies,' which at least once a summer included a carload of his grandchildren.

David was born on October 6, 1930, in Olton, Texas, to I.D. 'Bud' and Theo Santa Fe Farrar Grimsley. He was the third of four children: Jack, Geraldine (Smith), and Juanell (Gullett). He grew up in a farmhouse northwest of Olton that still stands, and where his youngest sister, Juanell, still resides. David graduated from Olton High School in 1948. He met his wife, Uldene Bomar from Springlake, at a skating rink in town and they were married that same year.

Together, David and his father built the couple a three-room house next to his parents' home, and David began tenant farming land outside of Olton. A baby boy, Jimmy, soon arrived, followed six years later by a little brother, Jayson. In 1959 the couple moved their young household to Friona and created a homestead of their own northeast of town. The family has raised wheat, sorghum, corn, cotton, cattle, kids, grandkids - and now great-grandkids - on that same family farm for the last 64 years.

David's life has been, to his family, an example of stewardship, quiet patience, and loyalty. He was rarely seen without a smile, and few conversations with him went by without him working in a good joke he'd recently heard. His steadfast and constant presence in our lives leaves a void that we are thankful to be able to fill with many happy memories. He will be missed by all who knew him.

He was preceded in death by Uldene, his wife for 71 years; his son, James "Jimmy" Grimsley; and a great-granddaughter, Sayge Massie.

He is survived by his son Jayson and wife Jyl, of Friona; his sister, Juanell Gullett of Olton; seven grandchildren: Holly Heard (Ted) of Lubbock, Poppy Stokes of McKinney, Kyle Grimsley (Kylie) of Dalhart, Justin Grimsley (Julie) of Benbrook, Jena Massie (Shawn) of Lubbock, Jacy Weatherly of Canyon, and Cody Grimsley (Erin) of Friona; and 15 great-grandchildren.

The family would like to say a special thank you to the attendants, nurses and staff of Prairie Acres and Parmer Medical Center who have so patiently and selflessly treated our dad and grandad as one of their own during the last years of his life, and a special thank you for the loving care given by Friona Bluebonnet Home Health & Hospice. In lieu of flowers, the family requests donations to Prairie Acres Nursing Home or the Parmer Medical Center in Friona.

You may send blessings to the family and sign the online guest book at hansardfamily.com
