STORM REPORT

As Reported by...
Stormie Meriwether,
Twelfth Grade Student

Dear Friends, Well, I'm glad that's over! Getting my wisdom teeth out was the worst thing in my life. They were so nice and sweet when I went first went in. The needle for the IV wasn't as bad as I thought it would be. The next thing I knew I was in the car beside my mom and we were in Pampa. My mouth was full of gauze, my head was full of fog and I was in pain. Pop had to get my medicine from the pharmacy before it closed. Baba came to the car

Celebration Of Life For Bruce Topper

Bruce Topper, 82, of Pampa, passed away, December 14, 2021 in Pampa.

Celebration of Life memorial services were 2:00 P.M., Monday, December 20, 2021 at the Carmichael-Whately Colonial Chapel in Pampa with Bob Miller, pastor of CrossRoads Country Church of Amarillo, officiating. Arrangements and cremation were under the direction of Carmichael-Whately Funeral Directors and Crematory.

Bruce was born on February 4, 1939, in French Camp, CA. As a young boy his family moved to Wheeler where he attended school and graduated Wheeler High School in 1957. Bruce was a lifelong cowboy both personally and occupationally. He worked at various ranches and feedlots around the Panhandle. Bruce loved the cowboy life and when he no longer could work cattle due to an injury, he stayed busy attending rodeos and he opened his own Boot & Saddle repair shop. He liked working with leather and he enjoyed braiding reins and was big fan of the sport of Boxing. Bruce loved people and could strike up a conversation with anyone. He will

He was preceded in death by his parents, Betty & George Topper; two sons, Brent Topper and Steve Helton; and by a brother, Roger Topper.

I find that there is not much to say, or that needs to be said at this time. It is the Christmas season. In some respects it is the season of loud jubilation, but the inverse is just as true – it is the season of silence. It is the season of extravagance, and the season of smallness. All of these components are necessary, and it is my hope that they will be delivered for all, in the proportion to which each person is receptive, and capable of enjoying without being smothered by too much or too little.

I recently read an interesting concept of living according to and within the scale one is capable of and called to. I would think this scale could fluctuate, like a pendulum. But the general concept rang true to me and frankly I found a source of blame therein for some of my struggles of perspective: my living out of alignment with the scale or scope to which I am are by Robertson Funeral Directors of Shamrock.

Stefan was born May 4, 1974 in Abilene to Mario Saul and Gerri McEachern Jimenez. He was a 1992 graduate of Abilene High School and moved to Shamrock in 1993. He had worked at Dion's of Texas for several years and as a fast food manager. Stefan's life was one that left many people with memories of his good nature and kind deeds. He was even the subject of a small book published several years ago illustrating his care for even the simplest of animals. He was a quiet person and his kindnesses were done quietly. He acted as described in Matthew 6:1 "Be careful not to do your good deeds publicly, to be seen by men." But as people have mourned his passing, they have come forward with stories of his good deeds. And those good memories speak on his behalf. To add to that, he left behind two daughters of outer and inner beauty who are leading inspiring lives of their own. And family and friends who will miss him beyond words.

He was preceded in death by his wife, Maria Jimenez. Survivors include his parents, Mario and Gerri Jimenez of Abilene; his daughters, Summer Rein Maxey of Joshua and Sofia Jimenez of Shamrock; a brother, Mik Jimenez of Mineral Wells; a grandchild, Dash Maxey; and numerous aunts, uncles, cousins, nieces and nephews.

Quinn Minute
Christmas Carol

by Rix Quinn
 One of my favorite stories is "A Christmas Carol" by Charles Dickens. How many other tales feature a miser, four ghosts, tombstones, and a goose?

called to live within at the moment. Each person is capable of and called to different levels of proportion in all things, and the right scope, or scale, is needed in order to ensure the right perspective is kept.

And this is applicable to the Christmas season, with all of its wonder and all of its potential to overwhelm. And what I've said thus far is a sort of vague and circuitous way of saying: may you receive all of the blessings of the season, dosed to the measure which enables you to acknowledge, receive, savor, reflect, give thanks, and share. Merry Christmas.

SERIOUS LOCK DOWN ADVICE

> Everyone PLEASE be careful because people are going crazy from being locked down at home!

> I was just talking about this with the microwave and the toaster while drinking my tea, and we all agreed that things are getting bad.

> I didn't mention any of this to the washing machine, because she puts a different spin on EVERYTHING!! Certainly couldn't share with the fridge, cause he's been acting cold and distant!

> In the end, the iron straightened me out! She said the situation isn't all that pressing and all the wrinkles will soon get ironed out!

> The vacuum, however, was very unsympathetic...told me to just suck it up! But the fan was VERY optimistic and gave me hope that it will all blow over soon!

WHY DOGS LIVE LESS THAN HUMAN

Here's the surprising answer of a 6 year old child.
 Being a veterinarian, I had been called to examine a ten-year-old Irish Wolfhound named Belker. The dog's owners, Ron, his wife Lisa, and their little boy Shane, were all very attached to Belker, and they were hoping for a miracle.

I examined Belker and found he was dying of cancer. I told the family we couldn't do anything for Belker, and offered to perform the euthanasia procedure for the old dog in their home.
 As we made arrangements, Ron and Lisa told me they thought it would be good for six-year-old Shane to observe the procedure. They felt as though Shane might learn something from the experience.

The next day, I felt the familiar catch in my throat as Belker's family surrounded him. Shane seemed so calm, petting the old dog for the last time, that I wondered if he understood what was going on. Within a few minutes, Belker slipped peacefully away.
 The little boy seemed to accept Belker's transition without any difficulty or confusion. We sat together for a while after Belker's Death, wondering aloud about the sad fact that dogs' lives are shorter than human lives. Shane, who had been listening quietly, piped up, "I know why."

Startled, we all turned to him. What came out of his mouth next stunned me. I'd never heard a more comforting explanation. It has changed the way I try and live.

He said, "People are born so that they can learn how to live a good life — like loving everybody all the time and being nice, right?" The six-year-old continued,
 "Well, dogs already know how to do that, so they don't have to stay for as long as we do."
 Live simply.
 Love generously.
 Care deeply.
 Speak kindly.

to see me and give me the medicine. When I got home there was a surprise for me from Baba in the sack. I tried to smile, but it hurt. Thanks, Baba! I was hungry so I ate ice cream, jello, and yogurt. I put an ice pack on my face. It was not fun.

The next morning I had to go to school. That was torture, but I made it out alive.

Day two we had the Meriwether Christmas Party. I was thankful for the noodles, mac and cheese and mashed potatoes! My nephew, Ethan, had his wisdom teeth out 13 days ago and he said he had trouble eating too. It's better to get them pulled while you are very young.

The Christmas party was great! I was very happy to be with my big family again! Everything was perfect until we started to leave and we couldn't find the car keys. They weren't somewhere in the car or it would start. The car was unlocked. Then Mom remembered that when she went to the car to get her camera it wasn't there. She thought she left it at the OKC house. Now that keys were missing also, we thought maybe someone took both. Everyone searched. We checked security cameras. Finally my mother remembered putting her camera in the front room on a shelf. Guess what else was in the camera bag! Merry Christmas! That's it!
