K-LLL to sponsor Rick Trevino concert at Panhandle South Plains Fair

A variety of free entertainment, sponsored by Lubbock organizations, is scheduled each evening in the coliseum during the week days of the 77th annual Panhandle-South Plains Fair, reports Steve L. Lewis, fair manager. The fair begins an eight day run Sept. 24 and concludes Oct. 1.

K-LLL radio is sponsoring shows by popular young country music entertainer Rick Trevino at 7 and 9 p.m. Monday, Sept. 26. Trevino, who is returning to the South Plains after very popular performances during the 1994 Lubbock Arts Festival, attracts cross-over audiences among country and Tejano music fans with both English and Spanish recordings. Ticket promotions for Trevino are being handled by K-LLL and give-away locations will be announced during regular broadcasting by the radio. Tickets are required for show admission.

Tuesday, Sept. 27, local and area junior 4-H Club members will model clothing they have constructed as part of their 4-H clothing project. The show is sponsored by the 22 county Area II Texas Agriculture Extension Service. Using a theme of "Shooting Stars", the show will feature special guest appearances by Marsha Sharp and some of the Lady Raiders. A coke and tee-shirt autograph party for the models is scheduled immediately following the show. The 4-H Fashion Follies begins at 6 p.m. and tickets are not required for show admission.

Telemundo 46 and Magic 93 radio KXTQ have joined in sponsoring pioneer Tejano recording star Ram Herrera on Wednesday, Sept. 29. Performances are set for 7 and 9 p.m. and tickets will be distributed to fans during ticket give-aways on the television and radio stations. Herrera is considered a moving force in the development of Tejano music. Show admission is by ticket only.

Contemporary Christian music will fill the coliseum Thursday when 1993 Group of the Year Dove Award Winners "4-Him" return for their second consecutive performance at the fair. Sponsored by K-JAK Christian radio, tickets for this exciting and inspirational group are being distributed by the radio station and Lubbock Christian bookstores. "4-Him" will appear in one concert at 7 p.m. Sept. 29 and tickets are needed for entry to the show.

Free coliseum show tickets do not include gate admission to the fair grounds and are for general admission. Seating is not reserved.

Continuing with a policy of "more to see that's free", Sheep Dog Trials and Championship Bull Riding will return to the Livestock Pavilion during the week of the fair, Sept. 24-Oct. 1. Both events are free to fair-goers.

Hoping to increase the number of dogs competing this year from 1993 when 63 dogs and 17 exhibitors entered the trials, 1994 competitors will be testing the herding skills of their dogs while competing for $1,000 in added prize money. Sheep Dog Trials are set for Monday and Tuesday nights, Sept. 26 and 27, at 6 p.m.

Entry fees for Sheep Dog Trials are $20 for open, open ranch, ranch and nursery classes; and $5 for novice classes. Novice and nursery classes will not be competing for cash prizes.

Sheep Dog Trial officials include Greg Vance, superintendent, and Connie Vance, show secretary. Judging the event will be Robert Miller of Tuttle, Okla.

For more information on this event, contact the Vances at Rt. 5, Box 229-W, Lubbock, TX 79407 or telephone 806-885-2392. Sheep Dog Trials are in accordance with the Texas Sheep Dog Association.

Championship Bull Riding, featuring most of the top pro and semi-pro bull riders in the Southwest, kicks off at 8 p.m. Wednesday, Sept. 29. Riders in the competition will be competing for added prize money and a championship belt buckle. Stock for the bull riding will be provided by Charley Thompson's C-Bar-C Rodeo Company.

Winner of the 1993 bull riding contest was Jimmy Slack of Guymon, Okla. Previous winners include Travis Sullivan of Winston, NM in 1992;

Adam Carrillo of El Paso in 1991; Jason Pierce of Johnson City, 1990; and Patrick Trujillo of Albuquerque, 1989.

OBVIOUSLY DEPICTING THE SEAGRAVES EAGLES, "Goofy, Dopey and Sleepy" - they were, as the Cowboys flew past them 23-13 in the season opener, Friday, Sept. 2. Pictured below are the "restless Cowboys" waiting for the Eagle-Cowboy confrontation to begin.

Cowboys beat Morton

The Plains Cowboys rode away with another victory Saturday night, defeating the Morton Indians 46-12. (The regularly scheduled Friday night game was postponed due to the death of a Morton teenager, Jeff Terry, who was killed in an accident Wednesday night.)

The Indians led off the scoring with a 19-yard touchdown run two minutes into the game. The Cowboys quickly came back on the attack when David Bitolas intercepted a pass at the Indian 32-yard line and ran it to the 15. A Victor Bernal pass completion to Brad McMinn brought the Cowboys to the 1-yard line, where David Bitolas ran it in for the first of many Cowboy touchdowns. The extra point attempt was good by Victor Bernal, bringing the score to 7-6 with five minutes left in the first quarter.

Marte Pierce and Eric Ramos made a joint effort on holding the Indians to little yardage on kick-off returns, while Stephen Bitolas scored on a 70-yard punt return to make the score 13-6.

David Bitolas scored again six seconds into the second quarter to bring the score to 19-6. Shannon Ward contributed to the Cowboy victory with two touchdown receptions. Brad McMinn scored on an 11-yard reception and David Bitolas finished Cowboy scoring with a 21-yard touchdown run.

The Indians made a last ditch effort with a 34-yard touchdown run to bring the final score to 46-12.

Cowboy quarterback, Victor Bernal was 9 for 13, passing for a total of 207 yards, while the Cowboys rushed for a total of 165 yards.

"Our team wasn't very focused at first, but then later on in the game we got focused and we turned it on as a team," said Bernal.

"Even though it was really early in the season, I thought we played great. Victor threw the ball really well," said McMinn who was on the receiving end of many of Bernal's passes.

The Cowboys next game will be Friday night against Sundown High School in Sundown.

PLAINS HIGH SCHOOL STUDENT OF THE WEEK for the week of Sept. 5-9 was William Chavez. Nominated by Melisa Rogers, she made this speech as she presented the award, "I am very proud that the student I nominated as Student of the Week was chosen by the faculty. I think this shows that I am not the only person who has seen a change in this young man. I chose this student because of how hard he had worked this year as opposed to last year. I see a remarkable change in his attitude as well as the quality of his work. He is trying very hard and I want the whole school to know how proud I am of him. It is my honor to name William Chavez as "Student of the Week". William is a junior and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Manuel Chavez.
