Voters in the Clarendon Consolidated Independent School District will head to the polls this Saturday, May 3, to decide which of four candidates will take three seats on the Board of Trustees.

Incumbents Robin Ellis and Chuck Robertson are joined on the ballot by former Clarendon alderman Will Thompson and Clarendon College math instructor Linda Rowland.

Early voting in the election closed Tuesday, and officials with the Donley County Clerk's office said only 38 people had cast ballots as of early that afternoon.

School trustees are elected at-large and serve three-year terms.

Saturday's only polling place will be in the Donley County Courthouse Annex, and balloting will be held from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m.

The new rates take effect on May 12, 2016.

Stage to start final journey here Clarendon-Matador run will close 136-year story

A vintage stagecoach will come to Clarendon next week to start the final run of its 136-year history.

The Journey stagecoach was originally built in New Hampshire in 1880 and spent its early years working on the Overland Stage Lines before retiring the first time in 1905.

Now its owner, Rick Hamby, says the Journey will carry letters from West Texas students back to its home in Missouri after it makes one last stage run from Clarendon to Matador.

The stage will arrive at the Saints' Roost Museum next Wednesday, May 11, where Hamby and his crew will camp out for two nights.

Next Thursday, letters will be exchanged from local fourth and fifth graders for fifth graders from West Plains Elementary back in Missouri, and the public will get to visit the stagecoach at the Museum.

The Journey will then leave Clarendon on Friday on a seven-day trip through the Rolling Plains with Matador as its destination before it is loaded up and returned to Missouri on Saturday, May 21.

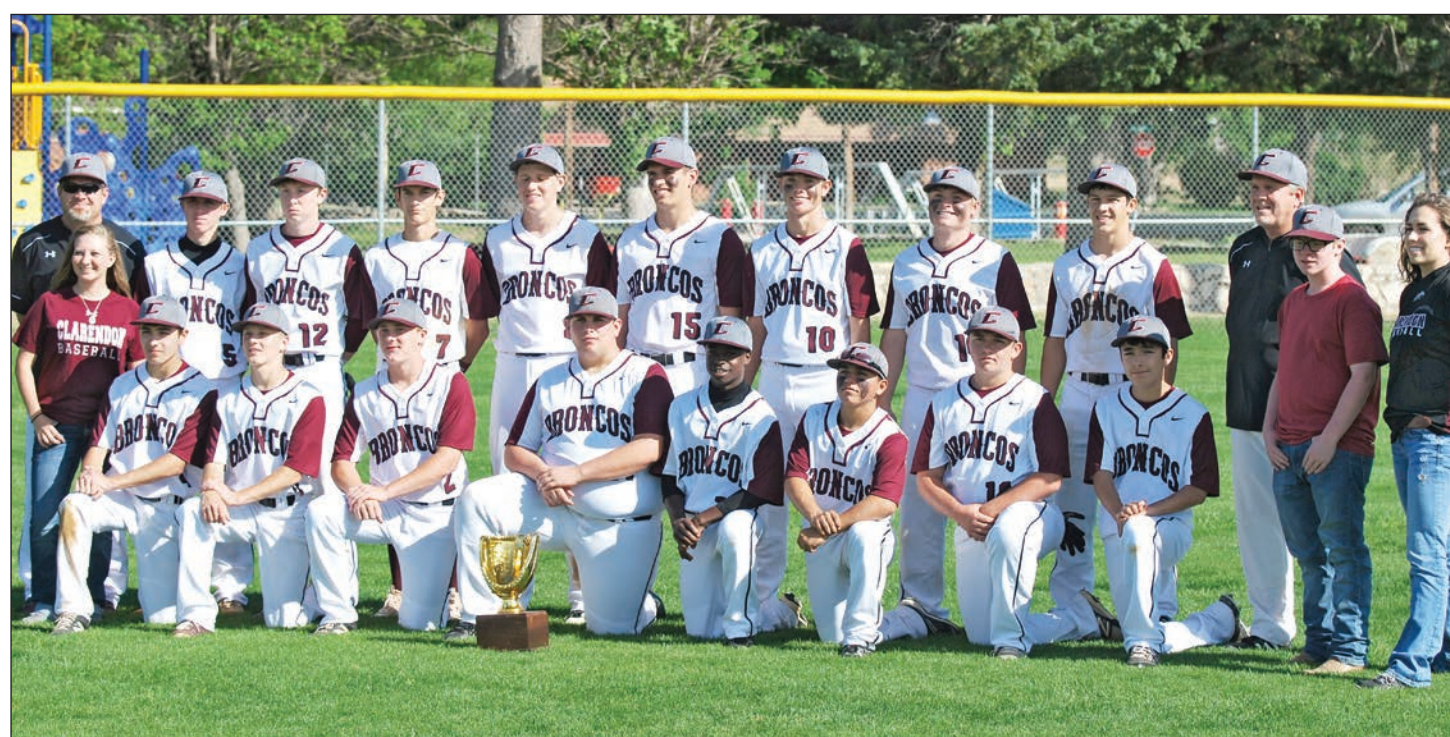

The stagecoach's first retirement ended in 1955 when it was put into service at the Adventure Town Frontier Park in New York. Five years later, it became part of the Silver Dollar Line at Silver Dollar

City in Branson before being relegated to décor at that venue in the 1970s and eventually sold.

Hamby bought the Journey in 1999, and the stagecoach made the first Missouri to Arizona overland mail run in 120 years in 2001. Since that time, it has completed seven long-distance runs.

Several people are expected to be with Journey crew next week to document its final run, and a special newspaper will be distributed to celebrate the stagecoach and the Clarendon-Matador run.

For more information, check out Just For Kids Radio Roundup on Facebook.

US does not need ally in Saudi Arabia

By Doug Bandow, Cato Institute

Despite recently expressing doubts about America's relationship with Saudi Arabia, President Barack Obama again flew to Riyadh and sought to "reassure" the Saudi royals about U.S. support.

In fact, the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia raises the question: what are allies for? If the president wants to leave his mark on American foreign policy, he should have started moving Washington and Riyadh toward a more normal relationship.

Most important, the U.S. should drop any security guarantee, whether explicit or implicit. If the KSA is worth defending, its own people should do so. At the same time, the U.S. should take a more even-handed approach in the Iranian-Saudi cold war, looking for opportunities to draw Tehran away from Islamic extremism.

Washington needs to put distance between America and its counterproductive partners, such as Riyadh.

America's relationship with the KSA was always based on oil. But supplies are expanding; even the U.S. is going from net consumer to exporter. Anyway, a successor regime would sell to the highest bidder.

Saudi Arabia is supposed to promote regional stability, but intervened in Bahrain to block reforms by the Sunni monarchy for the Shia majority, funded radical insurgents in an attempt to oust Syrian President Bashar al-Assad, and is seeking to destabilize Lebanon's fragile confessional political system.

Worse, Riyadh has turned Yemen's long-running domestic conflict into a destructive sectarian battle with Iran. Unfortunately aiding the kingdom's brutal behavior could create future terrorists targeting America.

Since the 1979 overthrow of the Shah Washington has seen the KSA as a significant barrier to expansion by Tehran. However, the nuclear agreement creates important new opportunities.

Change will not come easily or quickly, given determined resistance in Tehran, but Iran is far more likely to evolve in a more liberal and democratic direction than Saudi Arabia. Security concerns will remain in the meantime, but monarchy has more to fear domestically than internationally.

The KSA also is nominally a leader in the war on terrorism. Yet Riyadh's attack on Yemen has empowered that nation's al-Qaeda affiliate. Moreover, domestic "anti-terrorism" efforts are directed at suppressing dissent more than violence.

Worse, Riyadh has underwritten Islamic radicalism around the world. The government funds fundamentalist madrassahs. Intolerant Wahhabist teaching creates the foundation for violence.

While the royal regime apparently has not directly supported terrorism, individual Saudis have, both funding and joining al-Qaeda. The George W. Bush administration refused to release a 28-page section of the 9/11 report detailing apparent Saudi support for terrorism. Wikileaks disclosures discussed the continuing flow of Saudi money to terrorists.

Finally, the kingdom does not share values with America, democratic or other. Saudi Arabia is at best a slightly more civilized variant of the Islamic State.

The latest Freedom House rated the KSA as "Not Free." The group said simply: "Political dissent is criminalized." Reported Human Rights Watch: "Saudi authorities continued arbitrary arrests, trials, and convictions of peaceful dissidents. Dozens of human rights defenders and activists continued to serve long prison sentences for criticizing authorities or advocating political and rights reforms." The State Department took 52 pages to detail Saudi human rights malpractices in its recently released annual report.

Religious freedom also doesn't exist. The U.S. Commission on International Religious Freedom noted that "Saudi Arabia remains unique in the extent to which it restricts public expression of any religion other than Islam." At least there is liberty to violate in countries such as Iran. Not so in Saudi Arabia.

In practice, Saudi Arabia differs little than the Soviet Union. Both were totalitarian states animated by transcendent worldviews. Both regimes suppressed human liberty in service to those visions, one secular, and the other religious. The main difference is that the second posed a direct security threat to America, while the first sometimes interferes with U.S. interests indirectly.

None of this prevents Washington and Riyadh from cooperating. However, the U.S. should stop acting as supplicant.

The royals' continued rule, however advantageous for U.S. geopolitical interests in the short-term, is by no means vital to America in any meaningful sense of the word. The greatest danger for Washington may be the moral hazard from defending such a regime, encouraging it to resist needed reforms.

Would the U.S. "lose leverage" by disengaging? Riyadh is likely to do more if the U.S. drops its promise to defend the kingdom.

Which would be all to the good. America has spent decades attempting to micro-manage and geopolitically engineer the region, with disastrous results. Let Saudi Arabia spend its money and lives for a change.

President Obama wasted his final trip to the KSA pursuing politics as normal. Washington needs to put distance between America and its counterproductive partners, such as Riyadh.

Oh, my, how we rant on and on...

Asking folks to stop and think seems pointless these days. Most won't.

A while back, I stopped momentarily when an overheard conversational snippet made me smile. Someone said, "Too much is being said these days far too often about far too little."

Maybe closer examination of the statement is warranted. It may come close to painting a picture of a muddled world bombarded daily by noise by the ton and meaningful articulation by the ounce....

Oh, I doubt that it merits publication in the book of world-famous quotes. It probably won't even appear on a little hand-painted art piece to hang on grandma's wall, unless it's made at vacation Bible school.

It may be worthy, though, of filing away with other gems for offspring to consider when they think adding "as my old momma always said" seems to legitimize whatever they're claiming.

Upon hearing a "momma claim" such as "a stitch in time saves nine," I wonder how many offspring think it was actually their moms who originated the proverb....

My 103-year-old Uncle Mort dominated a free-wheeling discussion erupting the other day down at the general store in the thicket. It started, as most of them do, when claims grew anvil-hot about cheating at the domino table.

Nostrils flared, fingers pointed and nose hair stiffened in a melee with a hubbub soon equaling the decibels of a presidential debate. Clearly, three of the wheels of reason had fallen off, and the fourth was wobbling.

Just as things were about to get physical, combatants quietened, seemingly open to Mort's claim to "know what's wrong with the world."...

They shuffled the dominos for a new game, pondering Mort's sweeping claim that many of the hurts of the world would go away "if we didn't have so blamed many things that plug in."

"What doesn't plug in requires batteries that have chargers that do," he gruffed.

As the others pondered Mort's mentions, he "muddied up" the conversation with the claim that coloring books are making a comeback because adults are taking to them. "And please take note that so far, none of the coloring books plug in."...

Such logic provides faint hope for the return of intrigue to simpler things, like the wonderment of listening to seashells, studying fireflies in flight or watching morning glories yawn their way to slumber at day's end.

We might hope that more people would strike "right quick" or "quick now" from common conversational usage.

Must everything be done quickly? Too often I hear prayers begun thusly: "Quick now, let's pray." It's as though if we don't pray quickly, our petitions may be too far down the list to be heard...

Yearnings for simplification make me want to find old Ma and Pa Kettle movies. Only those long of tooth saw them in first runs.

the idle american
by don newbury

They starred Marjorie Main and Percy Kilbride, the former a raucous "in charge" woman, and the latter a man of meekness. Nothing rattled Pa Kettle. (The "blankness" of his face wouldn't have changed if he had seen Niagara Falls run backwards or had learned postage stamps have decreased in price.)

Life does not need to speed through at full gallop. Moseying must also be included in more places than school zones....

Perhaps it is my dislike for so much "right quick" admonitions that causes me to re-think my current policy of watching TV only if recorded. Even 15-minute delays allow the skipping of commercials.

Someone pointed out that to miss commercials is to eliminate some of the best creativity on the "toob." Isn't this why many of us watch Super Bowls, mostly to check out new commercials?

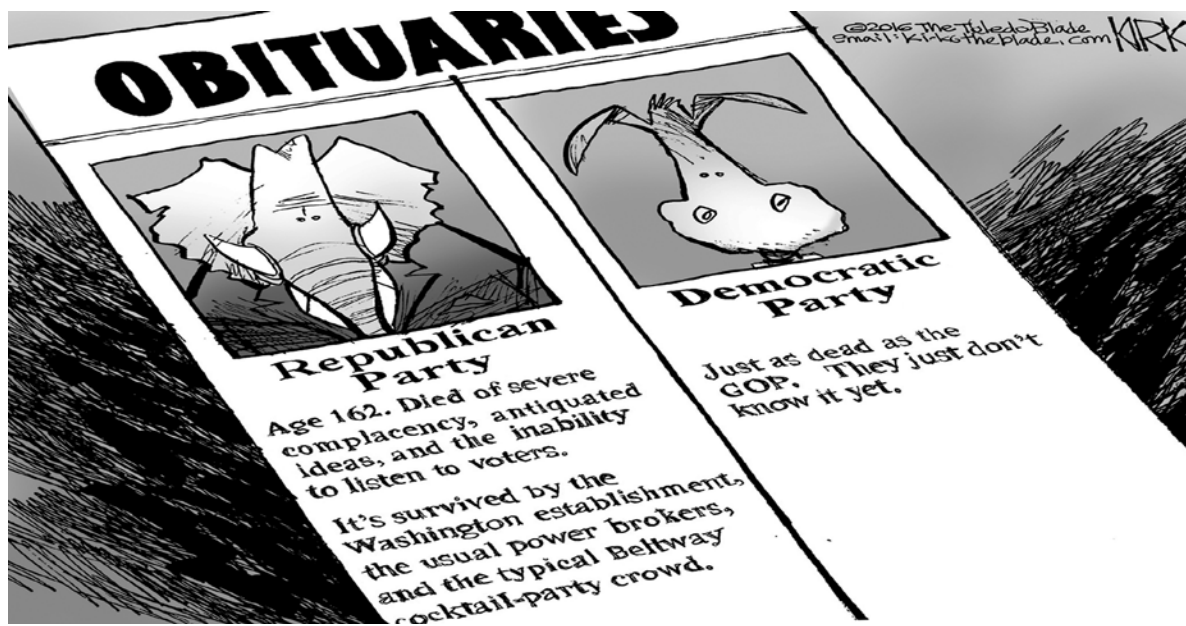

What about the most clever "new word" in Southwest Airlines' ad campaign? Whoever came up with "trans-FAREncy" deserves a raise....

And kudos to DIRECTV and its vignettes of the frontier family, where the "man of the cabin" defends their TV cable hook-up because they are "settlers." These ads still bring smiles, even after viewing for the umpteenth time.

Wayda minute. I didn't intend to start "talking up" TV. It's one of the major offenders of the "plug-ins."

Now, where did I put that coloring book?....

Some birthdays better than others

By Tumbleweed Smith

A couple we know are having fun traveling and enjoying a full social life with dozens of friends. They both lost their spouses and are grateful that they have found someone to spend time with. Les and Marilyn are in love but have chosen to remain single, saying it's easier that way with their respective children. They continue to live in separate houses. Marilyn celebrated her 70th birthday this year and it was nothing special. She went to her son's house in Ohio expecting a little attention. She got just that: little attention. Her son and his wife gave her $25 worth of movie tickets. This is their usual gift for just about any gift-giving occasion. There was no party, no cake, no big deal. When Marilyn asked her son if anything else was going to happen to celebrate her birthday, her son said, "Mom, you expect too much."

In my mind, a 70th birthday should be a special occasion. It is definitely a milestone. When I had mine, we had a weeklong celebration on South Padre.

We rented a condo and all our kids and grandkids were there. On my birthday my son turned on the TV. The image on the screen was a picture of a baby. I thought I recognized that baby. It was me. My son Kevin, a video producer, made a documentary of my life, narrated by my grandson. My son BZ a composer, created some special music for it. Both daughters-in-law helped my wife go through thousands of photos to find pictures of me taken at various stages of my life. It was a beautiful piece of work that brought me to tears, thinking how fortunate I was to have a family that went to a lot of effort on my behalf. I will always treasure that video. It made my 70th birthday perhaps the best one ever.

Back to Marilyn. While she was visiting her son in Ohio (at her own expense) his mother-in-law was also getting ready to have her 70th birthday. He and his wife were planning a big party for her. They were constantly on the phone, contracting with the country club, the bakery, the caterer, the dance band and all the other entities involved in putting on a big event. Marilyn heard it all and felt like she was in the way, so she thanked her son and his wife for their (not so generous) gift and went home, feeling worthless. She later heard the party was the big social event of the year and 80 people attended.

Some months later, Marilyn paid a return visit to her son and his family. This time, they took her out for a meal. Marilyn's daughter-in-law had also invited her mother, the one that had the big 70th birthday party. During the course of the evening, Marilyn's daughter-in-law asked her mother how she liked the new flat panel TV that she and her husband had given her for her birthday. Marilyn sank lower in her chair.

Marilyn has always been more than generous with her kids and grandkids when gift-giving season comes around. She has taken each grandchild on a trip. The next holiday season she is considering giving her son and his wife in Ohio $25 worth of movie tickets.

Local Christians gathered to pray for America last Tuesday evening, April 26. About 75 people met at the Donley County Courthouse to lift up America in prayer to God. The meeting was on the same day that Franklin Graham prayed for America on the steps of the Capitol in Austin. There were eight prayer leaders representing different churches in the area. The meeting opened with the Pledge of Allegiance and singing God Bless America and closed with singing Amazing Grace.

CC Ladies advance to Regional Tournament

The Clarendon College Lady Bulldogs are playing in the regional tournament this week in Lubbock after splitting two games with Odessa and dropping two to Midland over the weekend. The women fell at home, 10-0, to Odessa Saturday before winning the second game 7-4.

Odessa had 12 hits compared with the Bulldogs' nine, but Odessa stranded 10 runners on base.

Glorianna Eddy racked up three RBIs on two hits for the Lady Bulldogs. She homered in the first inning and doubled in the fifth inning.

Ryata Daniel got the win for the Lady Bulldogs. She allowed four runs over seven innings. Daniel struck out three, walked none and gave up 12 hits. Ashley Jenkins took the loss for Odessa. She lasted just four innings, walked three, struck out three, and allowed three runs.

Odessa jumped out to an early 1-0 lead in the top of the first.

The Lady Bulldogs went up for good in the first, scoring two runs on a two-run home run by Eddy.

After posting one run in the third, the Bulldogs again scored one in the fifth. In the third, the Lady Bulldogs scored on an RBI double by Natalie De La Rosa, scoring Courtney Turner.

After pushing across one run in the top of the fifth, Odessa faced just a 3-2 deficit. A groundout by Vanessa Muro fueled Odessa's comeback. Finally, Daniel induced an inning-ending ground out from Destiny Cervantes.

It didn't take long for Clarendon to respond as they scored three runs of their own in the sixth. The Lady Bulldogs scored on an RBI single by Haley Rodriguez, an RBI triple by Turner, and a groundout by Eddy.

One run in the top of the seventh helped Odessa close its deficit to 7-4. An RBI single by Mariah Jameyson set off Odessa rally. But, Daniel got Taylor Fogle to fly out to end the game.

On Sunday, the CC women faced Midland in two games and lost 8-0 and 11-1.

Spring celebrations begin to bloom

Here it is, the month of May filled with celebrations.

As a young kid we celebrated May 1 as "May Day" and would practice learning the May Pole dance; hoping we would not mess up when our parents were watching. I don't know if the May Pole is performed at the Clarendon or Hedley school, but it was fun to learn.

Mothers Day is May 8. I'll be taking flowers to my Mom and hope they don't blow away. High School graduation for Clarendon is May 27, Hedley is May 28, and the Block Party is also on the 28th.

This is also the three-day weekend, Memorial Day is May 30.

Green-belt Lake is deep enough to allow pleasure boats and water skiing but not jet skis.

I hope the combination of graduation celebrating and lakeside fun doesn't bring mischief to our community as it has in the past. Come and have fun but be respectful of others' property.

Anne Purvis sends along a big thank you for everyone that out-guessed the weather and showed up for the Community Prayer Rally at the Courthouse last week. Approximately 80 people were in attendance, Nelda Grider brought her keyboard and furnished music. It was reported the spirit of Jesus was also present, He heard our voice crying out for help with our country. Keep the spirit alive and He will pull us through again.

Welcome, baby Monroe

This week on Monday, at 9:34 p.m., my new baby cousin was born. His name is Monroe Alan Newhouse. He weighed 7.15 pounds and was 18.5 inches long. Now I am the oldest of six cousins on my mom's side. I am very excited and happy he is here. He is very cute.

I am looking forward to him coming home in a few days so I can hold him. I hope, when he comes him, I can help feed him.

I am happy that Matthew is now a big brother like me. I think he will be a very good big brother. I hope Matthew takes very good care of his baby brother.

Last week my baseball team played the other Clarendon team. We ended up losing by two points. The final score was 5-7. I hope to hit a homerun at a game sometime.

Quilting club works on quilts for children

Golden Needles Quilters were hosted by Wilma Callis in her home on april 28, to work on two children's quilts. The ladies finished one which had a cross-stitch embroidered design of a large bear and a giraffe "lying down together." It's recipient will be Jacoby Andrew, Wilma's 17th great-grandchild.

Peggy Tally pieced the second quilt with its pattern of "love and hearts" to encourage a sweet little girl. There was much laughter and fun as the members stitched and celebrated the birthday of Suzan Chas-sande Baroz with a salad lunch and a cake baked by Allene Leathers. Others present were Eva Lee Swinney, Carlene Hollar, Barbara Helms, Mary Gene Lynn, Wilma Lindley, Annis Stavenhagen, Mary Lynn Manning, Janan Koontz, and Gay Cole.

Drugs in the News

Eye Drops after Cataract Surgery

The Food and Drug Administration (FDA) recently approved BromSite (bromfenac ophthalmic solution) to help treat inflammation and manage pain after cataract surgery. This is the first nonsteroidal anti-inflammatory drug (NSAID) approved to specifically treat pain and inflammation after a cataract surgical procedure. BromSite is formulated with special chemicals designed to improve the medication's ability to work in the eye. The results from two large clinical trials showed that more people who used BromSite after surgery reported less pain one day after surgery and less inflammation fifteen days after surgery compared to the group that had used simple eye drops.

Cataracts are an eye condition where the lens of the eye becomes cloudy. Depending on the severity of the cloudiness, the vision from the affected eye may not be clear.

More than books available at the Library

The Burton Memorial Library has several services available for the public's benefit, including several electronic databases.

Through its affiliation with the TexShare Core, 62 e-resources are accessible, including nine general information resources, 11 for homework and education, five for business, seven for genealogy and history, 11 for books and literature, six for health and medicine, seven for science and technology, three Spanish language, two for career development, and one for newspapers.

The TexShare is a consortium of Texas libraries joining together to share print and electronic material and expertise for the benefit of all Texans.

These databases would cost the library $68,397.79 if purchased separately, but Burton Memorial gets all of them for just $117.51 for fiscal year 2016. Local library patrons only need a library card and a PIN to access these databases.

Connect to the databases by visiting www.hlc-lib.org.

The city library also serves as a Pay Station where the public can pay many different accounts. These payments are posted the same day. Among the many are credit cards, phone bills, utility bills, cable television bills, and more. Call 874-3685 or stop in to see if your bill can be paid at the library.

Burton Memorial also has added to its video section, and lots of new books are available for reading or listening.

Visiting day at Hedley to be held on May 12

Hedley Kindergarten and Pre-K visiting day will be held on Thursday, May 12, from 9:00 in the morning, until 12:15 p.m. Lunch will be included. For Kindergarten, your child must be five years old before September 1, and for Pre-K, four years old before September 1. If you wish to register your child that day, you will need to bring their birth Certificate, shot record, and social security card. If you have any questions, feel free to call Hedley School at 806-856-5323.

The Clarendon Lions Club held its regular Tuesday noon meeting May 3, 2016, with Boss Lion Jacob Fangman wielding the gavel.

We had 17 members and Lion Sweetheart Kendra Davis present this week, and the monkey was racking in fine money.

Lion Robert Riza reported on the college and said graduation is this Friday with finals next week. The Bulldogs are playing at Midland this week, and the Lady Bulldogs are in the regional tournament in Lubbock.

Lion Mike Norrell reported on the public school where testing season is in full swing. One athlete is headed to state in track, and five students are going to the state academic competition.

Lion David Dockery reported that City Hall will have to have some modifications to be handicapped accessible for public meetings as part of the USDA grant for water system improvements.

Lion Landon Lambert and Lion John Howard reported on county affairs.

Lion Ashlee Estlack reported that the 5K was a big success with all expenses now paid and only a couple of sponsors yet to pay.

The club voted to sponsor the Mulkey Block Party on May 28 and the Col. Charles Goodnight Chuckwagon Cookoff on September 24.

There being no further business, we were adjourned to spread Lionism and good cheer throughout our fair county.

Bryce Grahn runs his way to State

By Sandy Anderberg

Bryce Grahn competed at the Regional Meet last week at Ratliff Stadium in Odessa and earned the right to advance to the State Meet to be held in Mike Myers Stadium in Austin Thursday through Saturday May 12-14.

Grahn finished second in the 1600m run with a time of 4:37.17. The first place finisher ran the race in a time of 4:33. He placed third in the 3200m run with a time of 10:04.17, which was six seconds behind the first place finisher.

If Grahn's third place time holds as the fastest of all third place finishers in the regional meets, he will earn a wildcard and will advance to the state meet in the two-mile as well.

Colt Wood also competed in the meet in the 400m dash finishing in sixth place with a time of 52.04.

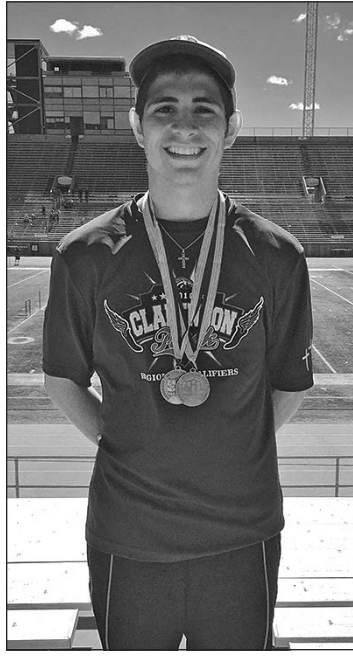

"Bryce and Colt competed really well at regionals," coach

Johnny Nino said.

"Colt finished sixth but ran his best time. The track kids competed well all during the track season. I am very excited about next year. I would like to thank all the track participants for their time and effort all year long. Coach Grahn has been great, and I greatly appreciate him for all that he does."

Freshman Jenci Hernandez competed in her first regional meet for the Lady Broncos running the 3200m. She finished in 14th place with a time of 14:31.

"I want to give a special thanks to Jenci for getting herself to the regional track meet," coach Alton Gaines said. "That is a big deal when you can get there as a freshman. It was a good finish to the season for our girl's track. So proud of all of the Lady Bronco track girls and managers and I look forward to next year. Thank you, ladies."

NOTICE OF RATE CHANGE REQUEST

Southwestern Electric Power Company (SWEPCO or Company) publishes this notice that on March 16, 2016, it filed its Statement of Intent and Application for Authority to Amend Transmission Cost Recovery Factor (TCRF) with the Public Utility Commission of Texas (PUCT or Commission) in Docket No. 45691. The filing was made in accordance with the Public Utility Regulatory Act (PURA) § 36.209 and the Tex. Admin. Code (TAC) § 25.239. The TCRF will recover SWEPCO's reasonable and necessary costs for transmission infrastructure improvements as well as changes in wholesale transmission charges under a tariff approved by the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission (FERC) to the extent that the costs or charges have not otherwise been recovered. In this application, SWEPCO seeks to recover its transmission capital investments through December 31, 2015. SWEPCO also seeks to recover through the TCRF approved transmission charges that are not otherwise being recovered through current rates.

This notice is being published in accordance with PURA § 36.103 and 16 TAC § 22.51(a)(1).

STATEMENT OF INTENT TO CHANGE RATES

SWEPCO requests that the Commission approve a TCRF that would result in an increase in SWEPCO's Texas retail revenue requirement of $4,922,815 per annum above the amount approved in SWEPCO's previous TCRF case (PUCT Docket No. 44496). This amounts to a 1.55 percent increase in SWEPCO's overall annualized current Texas retail revenue requirement. SWEPCO proposes that its requested rate change become effective 35 days after the filing of the Statement of Intent and Application. The proposed effective date is subject to suspension and extension by actions that may be taken by the Commission.

All customers in SWEPCO's Texas retail rate classes will be affected by this change. The impact of the rate change on various customer classes will vary from the overall impact described in this notice.

REQUEST FOR TEMPORARY RATES

SWEPCO requests that the Commission or assigned administrative law judge issue an order establishing SWEPCO's existing TCRF as a temporary rate effective 120 days after the filing of the Statement of Intent and Application subject to refund or surcharge to the extent the TCRF established pursuant to the Statement of Intent and Application differs from the existing TCRF.

CONTACT INFORMATION

Persons with questions or who want more information on SWEPCO's Statement of Intent and Application may contact SWEPCO at 428 Travis Street, Shreveport, Louisiana 71101, or call toll-free at (888) 216-3523 during normal business hours. A complete copy of the Statement of Intent and Application and related filings is available for inspection at the address listed in the previous sentence.

The Commission has assigned Docket No. 45691 to this proceeding. Persons who wish to intervene in or comment upon these proceedings should notify the Commission as soon as possible, as an intervention deadline will be imposed. A request to intervene or for further information should be mailed to the Public Utility Commission of Texas, P.O. Box 13326, Austin, Texas 78711-3326. Further information may also be obtained by calling the Public Utility Commission at (512) 936-7120 or (888) 782-8477. Hearing- and speech-impaired individuals with text telephones (TTY) may contact the Commission at (512) 936-7136. A request for intervention or for further information should refer to Docket No. 45691. Unless otherwise ordered by the presiding officer, motions to intervene will be due 45 days from the date SWEPCO filed its Statement of Intent and Application with the Commission.

Lady Broncos depart early from post-season play

By Sandy Anderberg

The Lady Broncos played hard in their two post-season games, but could not put it all together to get the win. They lost two games to Abernathy in their best two-out-of-three games.

They played the first game Thursday evening in Plainview and lost 4-8. According to head coach Gary Jack; the first game of the series did not go as they had planned.

"Our Bi-District playoff series was a wild one to say the least," Jack said. "We started Thursday playing at Amarillo High. We did not play a very solid game in game one. We had a lot of mistakes fielding and throwing allowing them six easy runs. We battled to the end and came up short."

Briley Chadwick was on the mound and Allyson Hogan was behind the plate.

"Briley had a very good day pitching, we just didn't back her up very well defensively," Jack said. "Allyson did a good job catching. Briley, Jensen (Hatley), Hannah (Hommel), Shelby (Baxter), and Briana (Butler) hit the ball very well in game one."

The Lady Broncos played game two in Plainview on Saturday evening. Despite giving their all, the ladies were defeated 9-10. Hogan opened in the game and Chadwick came in to pitch in the fourth inning. Butler was behind the plate.

"This was a very exciting game and we played very hard throughout the game," Jack said. "Abernathy took a 3-0 lead into the third inning, but we were able to come out and score three runs to tie it up with hits from Brooke (Martin), Briana, Allyson, Jensen, and Shelby."

The Lady Broncos went into the fourth and were able to take a one-run lead from hits by Hannah, Emily (Johnson), Karlee (Adams), and Jensen. But Abernathy fought back to regain the lead with a big fifth inning making the score 9-4. But the Lady Broncos were not finished and still had fight in them. Several of the players had big at bats and they were able to tie the score at nine all in the sixth inning.

"We made some good plays in the bottom of the sixth to keep them from scoring," Jack said. "We had runners on first and second with one out but could not get them home to take the lead. Abernathy came in and had runners on first and third with one out and was able to get a runner home safely to win the game."

Jack knows the girls played hard and was proud of the way they battled.

"This was a good playoff game and series," he said. "I'm very proud of our girls and the way they battled back in game two to the very end. We will miss our seniors; Sterling King (injured the last seven games.) Karlee Adams, Brooke Martin, and Shelby Baxter. They did a good job for us this year."

First basemen Karlee Adams gets an out for the Lady Broncos during the ladies first playoff game last Thursday.

Broncos end perfect district season

By Sandy Anderberg

The regular season is over for the Bronco baseball team. And it is ending on a perfect season in district play. The Broncos picked off each District foe one team at a time and finished at 19-5 overall. They will begin post-season play this week with time and place to be announced.

Last week, the Broncos sealed their District Championship by clobbering Nazareth and Wellington. They defeated the Swifts on the road 18-2 and finished the Rockets at home 15-3.

Chance Lockhart was on the mound for the Broncos for five innings. He gave up only two hits, while walking two and striking out four.

The Broncos had their bats going as senior Bryce Hatley had a single, a home run and accounted for six RBIs on two hits in the game. Kade Hunsaker recorded an RBI single in the first inning, and Josh Cobb slammed a two-run home run. Clay Koetting and Caleb Cobb each added an RBI double to get the scoring going for the Broncos early in the game.

The fourth and fifth innings added more runs for the Broncos as Nick Shadle had an RBI single and Preston Elam posted a double.

The Broncos picked up right where they left off in their game with Wellington. The Rockets were no match for the Broncos with Hatley and Caleb Cobb on the mound.

Offensively, the Broncos were sharp as they scored 12 runs in the first three innings. The runs were aided by several walks from the Wellington pitcher, but the Broncos had their bats humming as well. Hunsaker hit a two-run single, Hatley had an RBI single, and Cooper Bilbrey made it look easy with a RBI double. Before the game ended, Nick Shadle hit a huge two-run triple to seal the win.

"I was very pleased with the game," coach Brad Elam said. "But we did make a few too many mistakes. We went 10-0 in district, which is a great accomplishment for these players. I am grateful to the seniors for all they have done and thankful for the great fan support. We had a great crowd at the game and we were glad we able to put on a good show for them."

Regional Runners

Colt Wood, Jenci Hernandez, and Bryce Grahn competed in the regional track meet last week for Clarendon High School. Wood ran the 400m, Hernandez ran the 3200m, and Grahn competed in both the 1600m and 3200m.

'Medigap' insurance covers what Medicare doesn't

By Bob Moos, Southwest public affairs officer, US Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services

If you're about to turn 65, you may be shopping soon for a health plan that covers the costs that traditional Medicare doesn't.

As welcome as Medicare's health care coverage is, it does have its gaps. The traditional fee-for-service program generally pays 80 percent of the medical bills. Which means the remaining 20 percent becomes the responsibility of beneficiaries.

To protect themselves, many people buy supplemental coverage from private insurers. The "Medigap" insurance, as it's called, helps fill the gaps that deductibles, copayments and coinsurance leave. It makes out-of-pocket costs more manageable.

Not everyone should consider a Medigap policy. You don't need to supplement your Medicare coverage if you're on Medicaid or signed up for a private Medicare Advantage plan or enrolled in a group health plan through an employer or former employer.

But about one in four Medicare beneficiaries does purchase a Medigap policy.

The best time to buy one is within six months of turning 65 and enrolling in Medicare's Part B medical insurance. During that period, insurers can't refuse to sell you a policy, or charge you more than other people, because of a health problem.

If you try to buy after those six months, there's no guarantee an insurer will cover you.

To help you understand what you're buying, the government standardized Medigap benefits years ago and labeled each kind of plan with a letter, from A to N. Today, there are 10 kinds of plans. All insurers selling a particular kind of plan must offer the same package of benefits.

Visit www.medicare.gov and click on "Supplements and Other Insurance" to find out more about each of the 10 available kinds of plans.

All 10 standardized plans cover these basic benefits: the coinsurance for extended hospital stays, the coinsurance for doctor visits and outpatient services, the coinsurance for hospice care, and the cost of the first three pints of any blood you might need.

Beyond that, different Medigap plans cover additional out-of-pocket expenses, such as the hospital deductible, the outpatient deductible, the coinsurance for skilled nursing care, and the cost of medical emergencies while traveling outside the country.

You'll pay the insurer a monthly premium for your Medigap policy in addition to the monthly premium you'll pay Medicare for Part B. Although insurers must offer the same benefits within each kind of plan, their premiums can vary widely. So shop around.

It's also wise to find out how often an insurer has raised premiums. It's not just the initial price, but what happens year to year. An insurance broker will have that information.

One note of caution: Medigap insurance doesn't plug all the holes. It's not a way to pay for long-term custodial care, dental care, eyeglasses or hearing aids. Also, new Medigap policyholders need to buy separate drug coverage under Medicare's Part D if they want it.

Still, the combination of traditional Medicare coverage and a Medigap plan makes good sense for beneficiaries who prefer a broad choice of doctors, hospitals and other health care providers but still want to limit their out-of-pocket expenses.

If you're interested in supplemental insurance, here are four steps to follow:

- First, decide which benefits you want and which standardized Medigap plan best meets your needs. Visit www.medicare.gov or call 1-800-633-4227 and request a free copy of the Medicare publication "Choosing a Medigap Policy."

- Next, find out which insurers sell Medigap policies in your area. Visit www.medicare.gov for a comparison of supplemental plans. Or call the Texas Health Information Counseling and Advocacy Program at 1-800-252-9240 or the Texas Department of Insurance at 1-800-252-3439.

- Then, do some research on the insurers that interest you. Besides comparing premiums, check the companies' customer service. The State Department of Insurance will have a record of consumer complaints against particular insurers.

- Finally, pick the policy that best fits your needs. Contact the insurance company directly, or work with an insurance broker or agent. Once your application has been accepted, you can keep your insurance as long as you pay the premiums.

TEXAS COMMISSION ON ENVIRONMENTAL QUALITY
NOTICE OF APPLICATION AND PRELIMINARY DECISION FOR WATER QUALITY LAND APPLICATION PERMIT FOR MUNICIPAL WASTEWATER RENEWAL PERMIT NO. WQ0010709001

APPLICATION AND PRELIMINARY DECISION. City of Hedley, P.O. Box 185, Hedley, Texas 79237, has applied to the Texas Commission on Environmental Quality (TCEQ) for a renewal of TCEQ Permit No. WQ0010709001, which authorizes the disposal of treated domestic wastewater at a daily average flow not to exceed 50,000 gallons per day via evaporation. This permit will not authorize a discharge of pollutants into water in the state. TCEQ received this application on November 17, 2015.

The wastewater treatment facility and disposal site are located northeast of the City of Hedley, approximately 1.2 miles north and 0.8 mile east of the intersection of U.S Highway 287 and State Highway 203, in Donley County, Texas, 79237. The wastewater treatment facility and disposal site are located in the drainage basin of Salt Fork Red River in Segment No. 0222 of the Red River Basin.

The TCEQ Executive Director has completed the technical review of the application and prepared a draft permit. The draft permit, if approved, would establish the conditions under which the facility must operate. The Executive Director has made a preliminary decision that this permit, if issued, meets all statutory and regulatory requirements. The permit application, Executive Director's preliminary decision, and draft permit are available for viewing and copying at the Hedley City Hall, 109 Main Street, Hedley, Texas. LEGAL NOTICE

hb610/index.html?lat=34.883333&lng=-100.643333&zoom=13&type=r
CHANGE IN LAW: The Texas Legislature enacted Senate Bill 709, effective September 1, 2015, amending the requirements for comments and contested case hearing. This application is subject for comments and contested case hearings. This application is subject to those changes in law. PUBLIC COMMENT / PUBLIC MEETING. You may submit public comments or request a public meeting about this application. The purpose of a public meeting is to provide the opportunity to submit comments or to ask questions about the application. TCEQ holds a public meeting if the Executive Director determines that there is a significant degree of public interest in the application or if requested by a local legislator. A public meeting is not a contested case hearing.

OPPORTUNITY FOR A CONTESTED CASE HEARING. After the deadline for submitting public comments, the Executive Director will consider all timely comments and prepare a response to all relevant and material, or significant public comments. Unless the application is directly referred for a contested case hearing, the response to comments will be mailed to everyone who submitted public comments and to those persons who are on the mailing list for this application. If comments are received, the mailing will also provide instructions for requesting a contested case hearing or reconsideration of the Executive Director's decision. A contested case hearing is a legal proceeding similar to a civil trial in a state district court.

TO REQUEST A CONTESTED CASE HEARING, YOU MUST INCLUDE THE FOLLOWING ITEMS IN YOUR REQUEST: your name; address, phone number; applicant's name and permit number; the location and distance of your property/activities relative to the facility; a specific description of how you would be adversely affected by the facility in a way not common to the general public; and the statement "[I/we] request a contested case hearing." If the request for contested case hearing is filed on behalf of a group or association, the request must designate the group's representative for receiving future correspondence; identify an individual member of the group who would be adversely affected by the proposed facility or activity; provide the information discussed above regarding the affected member's location and distance from the facility or activity; explain how and why the member would be affected; and explain how the interests the group seeks to protect are germane to the group's purpose. Following the close of all applicable comment and request periods, the Executive Director will forward the application and any requests for reconsideration or for a contested case hearing to the TCEQ Commissioners for their consideration at a scheduled Commission meeting.

The Commission will only grant a contested case hearing on disputed issues of fact that are relevant and material to the Commission's decision on the application. Further, the Commission will only grant a hearing on issues that were raised in timely filed comments that were not subsequently withdrawn. TCEQ may act on an application to renew a permit for discharge of wastewater without providing an opportunity for a contested case hearing if certain criteria are met.

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR ACTION. The Executive Director may issue final approval of the application unless a timely contested case hearing request or request for reconsideration is filed. If a timely hearing request or request for reconsideration is filed, the Executive Director will not issue final approval of the permit and will forward the application and request to the TCEQ Commissioners for their consideration at a scheduled Commission meeting.

MAILING LIST. If you submit public comments, a request for a contested case hearing or a reconsideration of the Executive Director's decision, you will be added to the mailing list for this specific application to receive future public notices mailed by the Office of the Chief Clerk. In addition, you may request to be placed on: (1) the permanent mailing list for a specific applicant name and permit number; and/or (2) the mailing list for a specific county. If you wish to be placed on the permanent and/or the county mailing list, clearly specify which list(s) and send your request to TCEQ Office of the Chief Clerk at the address below. All written public comments and public meeting requests must be submitted to the Office of the Chief Clerk, MC 105, Texas Commission on Environmental Quality, P.O. Box 13087, Austin, TX 78711-3087 or electronically at www.tceq.texas.gov/about/comments.html within 30 days from the date of newspaper publication of this notice.

AEP SOUTHWESTERN ELECTRIC POWER COMPANY

A unit of American Electric Power

BADGE OF HONOR

During the work week, Predictive Maintenance Coordinator David Rumsey is busy maintaining and monitoring safety at Southwestern Electric Power Company's Turk Plant. In his free time, he's a reserve police officer in Atlanta, Texas. In fact, he logs more than 500 hours each year as a volunteer with the department—patrolling neighborhoods, assisting in traffic and crowd control, and supporting fellow officers. It's a true commitment and a dedication to serving the people in his own hometown. Even more, it's another example of a SWEPCO employee focused on helping the community. For David, it's a badge of honor, one we can all see.

We may be a power company, but the true power in our communities comes from our people.
