Bloodmobile To Visit KC Next Tuesday

Readers are reminded of the semi-annual visit of the Red River Regional Red Cross Bloodmobile next Tuesday, April 29, in the Fellowship Hall of the First United Methodist Church from 2:00 until 6:30 p.m.

Mrs. Doris Crownover and Mrs. Ginger Johnston, Knox City Red Cross Services co-chairpersons, are urging Knox City and area residents to give the 'gift of life'.

A goal of 82 units of blood has been set for Knox City to insure that the blood and blood product needs are met.

The Red River Regional Red Cross Blood Center is the processing site for 40 regional hospitals. Regular deliveries are made to these hospitals but when a special need arises at a hospital such as the Knox County Hospital, the Red Cross Center sends out the necessary units of blood. On any given day, any of these 40 hospitals will use from 50 to 100 units of blood to save lives.

Because blood can only be stored for 21 days, donors are always needed to replace the supply.

"Each county or community has its fair share," Mrs. Crownover said, "and if Knox City doesn't make its goal, another area will have to make up the difference."

"There is no substitute for blood, only the human body manufactures it and without the volunteer donors, the blood and blood products needed by patients in our hospital and the other hospitals in the region will not be available," she explained.

Mrs. Crownover said that Patti Tucka, with the Red River Region donor resource development in Wichita Falls, was to be here Wednesday of this week to speak to the seniors in Knox City High School and urge the 18 year olds along with the 17 year olds who have written parental permission to give blood Tuesday.

A person may give blood every 56 days if they are between the ages of 18 and 65, are in good health and weigh at least 110 pounds.

The actual process of giving blood only takes from seven to ten minutes, but with time for registration, the medical history and refreshments, the donor should expect to spend about an hour at the Bloodmobile.

For the convenience of those who need to make an appointment for donating blood, donors may call Mrs. Crownover at 658-3442. Those who do not need to make an appointment may drop by the church any time between the designated hours.

"One hour is not a lot of time to give when it could save someone's life," Mrs. Crownover said. Blood cannot be made anywhere except in the human body and must be given voluntarily. It is truly the gift of life.

Remember to give next Tuesday, April 29, from 2:00 to 6:30 p.m. at the First United Methodist Church!

Downtown Parking Lot Is Now Taking Shape

With so many good people giving of their time, talents, and money, the Knox City Downtown Parking Lot is finally becoming a reality.

What was once the hopes of the late Martha Jones, Knox City pharmacist who headed the Chamber of Commerce several years ago, other civic leaders have taken the responsibility of seeing it finished.

David Counts, Chamber director who has been in charge of the project, along with the Citizens State Bank who donated funds to help with its completion, and many other individuals continue to work daily and passersby can now see that the mini-park, which primarily will serve as the downtown parking lot, is taking shape.

On Odessa Track

Hounds To Compete For Regional Honors

It's regional track meet time and six Knox City Greyhounds, along with Coach Jimmy Rogers, will be traveling to Odessa Friday and Saturday of this week for the all important contest.

Qualifying for the regional meet are the 400 meter team of Dwayne Johnson, Tim Roberson, Rickey Gonzales, and Scott Lynn; the 1600 meter relay team of Johnson, Roberson, Gonzales and Russel Hacker; Johnson in the 110 meter hurdles, Lynn and Gonzales in the 100 meter run and Roberson in the 200 meter run and also in the long jump. Shelton Rhodes will serve as alternate.

On Friday, field events will begin at 2:00 p.m. and running preliminaries are scheduled to begin at 4:00 p.m. Finals are slated for Saturday at 1:00 p.m.

According to Coach Rogers, the first two place winners of each event will advance to the state contest to be held in Austin the early part of May. Rogers further stated that our local tracksters will definitely "be in the running" and even though the field will be strong the Hounds time will be competitive to the other contestants.

During last Saturday's regional qualifiers meet at Aspermont, the Hounds made a tremendous showing. Team totals were not kept; however, the Hounds would have been the first place finishers.

The 400 relay team set a new school record posting a time of 43.2 while the 1600 meter relay squad also put a new school record "under their belts" with their running time of 3:28.8.

Johnson placed first in the 110 meter high hurdles with a 14.9.

Setting another new school record in the 200 meter run was Lynn, who ran to the finish in a 22.45 clocking.

Two Hounds finished first and second in the 100 meter run with Lynn taking first and Gonzales second. Their times were 11.09 and 11.18, respectively.

In the long jump competition, Gonzales finished third with a 20'11" leap while Roberson placed fourth with a jump of 20'10".

VISITING DURING the Tuesday luncheon hosted by the Knox City Chamber of Commerce at City Cafe are Chamber manager Callie Ann Combs of Munday and Doris Crownover, KC Chamber secretary-manager. Representatives from Anson and Albany were also present for the chamber get-together.

O'Brien Happenings

By CHARLENE BROTHERS

Did you notice in the paper some time back that the Treasury Department was holding up refunding some of the money that was due people on their income tax? Wonder how long we would get by with holding up on our payment? They would probably be down on our backs in a few days. However I have been told that they were suppose to let you pay it out by the month or quarter, if you could not send the whole amount at one time.

Only a few more days until election time. Be sure and go out and vote for the candidate of your choice. So many of the offices this time do not have but one running, so you might think it would not be important enough to go and vote, but just remember the few that do have opponents and go and vote. These will need your help. The people here at O'Brien can vote at the gin office from 7:00 a.m. to 7:00 p.m. on Saturday, May 3. I surely will be glad when it is over. I have been enjoying my going from house to house better than I thought I would at first. I meet so many people that used to live at O'Brien or else they knew J.O. when he was younger, or knew his mother and daddy years ago.

We enjoyed our weekend, we went to Azle to help our oldest grandson celebrate his birthday, and as usual when this bunch gets together it has to have some motorcycle riding. They all seemed to have a good time.

HERE AND THERE

Visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Johnston during the weekend were Mr. and Mrs. Jim Johnston, Jamie and Wendi; Mr. and Mrs. James Duncan and Carla of Lubbock; Mr. and Mrs. Don Johnston, Kenda and Lance of Slaton and Joe Matura of Pilot Point. (I think, anyway he visited with some friends in O'Brien during the weekend.)

4-H Projects Members Involved

Texas 4-H members are involved in more than 60 different projects ranging from aerospace to wildlife science that vary in complexity as much as their names imply.

The 4-H project forms the basis for educational programs conducted through the Texas Agricultural Extension Service 4-H youth development programs, points out Sharon Book, county Extension 4-H program coordinator. Members meet in small groups under the direction of a trained volunteer to study and experience various aspects related to the project of their choosing.

Some of the more popular 4-H projects among Texas 4-Hers are foods and nutrition, clothing, horses, safety, gardening and livestock, Sharon notes. These projects help 4-H members understand and appreciate the skills involved and to actually learn and practice many of them.

For example, in the foods and nutrition project, members learn not only how to prepare certain foods but how to plan complete and nutritious meals. They also learn how foods affect their health and to develop good eating habits. Clothing projects teach members skills in fabric selection, pattern adaptation and sewing skills. They also learn how to coordinate clothing and how to look their best for the least amount of money.

4-Hers in the horse project learn about the physical makeup of the horse, riding skills, showmanship and a variety of related skills.

The safety project is popular in that it can be related to any other 4-H project and teaches members to practice safety in their everyday lives.

Gardening and livestock projects are among the more traditional 4-H projects and their popularity remains high. Both rural and urban youth raise vegetables and flowers, rabbits and sheep. Many of the larger animals requiring more space are most often found in rural or suburban areas.

Youth between the ages of 9 and 19 who would like more information on how to learn and grow in the 4-H program, should contact the county Extension office Sharon added.

Olney Savings Breaks Ground In Graham

Olney -- Olney Savings Association, a $200 plus a million savings and loan association, broke ground earlier this month for its twelfth branch office in Graham.

"Construction will begin immediately on a 2,000 square foot facility, scheduled to be completed by January 1, 1981," according to D.D. McClatchy, president of Olney Savings.

The new branch office building is a unique, triangular shaped structure of a pure white decorative sand plaster exterior accented with sparkling clear glass with anodized aluminum settings and oak paneling.

The interior will feature 13 foot ceilings trimmed in oak paneling with many large windows, overlooking a naturally landscaped and professionally lighted parklike view of the valley. Over twenty-five trees will be utilized, along with plantings and rock material indigenous to the area.

McClatchy explained, "Our new branch office building was especially designed for the people in and around the Graham area. The new facility will emphasize individualized service for the entire family and its complete savings and borrowing needs."

Olney Savings Breaks Ground in Graham....April 4, 1981.

The designers and architects of Bank Building Corporation/Southwest in Richardson, have blueprinted a beautiful new home for Olney Savings. We express our sincere thanks to them and extend an invitation to everyone to act as our sidewalk superintendants, "he said."

McClatchy concluded, "We've always looked upon the city of Graham and its surrounding area as a very special community. We are proud to have the opportunity to become active civic supporters. And we look forward to the opportunity to serve our customers better."

F-X Lab Booklet Available Locally

A new, free, eight-page illustrated booklet, entitled, "The Story of Willie Bacteria, or How to take care of your septic tank or cesspool" is now available to owners of septic tanks and cesspools from: Guinn's Sheet Metal & Plumbing, P.O. Box 36, Knox City, Texas 79529.

In a light vein, illustrated by cartoons, the booklet explains the workings of the septic tank and cesspool in simplified fashion. It describes the bacterial action of the disposal system and what is necessary for its proper functioning.

Chief attraction in the booklet is a humanized "Willie Bacteria", who is responsible for maintaining the efficiency of the disposal system. When the septic tank or cesspool user ignores the fact that "Willie" is working to keep the disposal system free from disease, and saturates him with an overdose of detergents, acids, lyes, caustics and other irritants, "Willie" is very unhappy, and more often than not, just stops working.

But, there is a bright side to the story too, for "Willie Bacteria" has found a way to educate the septic tank or cesspool user, so that "Willie" can do his job under modern, up-to-date working conditions, and prevent the fuss, mess, inconvenience, and expense of a clogged disposal system. The booklet was produced by The FX-Lab Company, Inc., 1275 Bloomfield Ave., Industrial Park Bldg. #2-13, Fairfield, New Jersey 07006.

"FHA/HERO - A Pocket of Life - Reach In and Find Yourself" was the theme for the 1980 State Meeting in Houston. Attending from Knox City were Angela Reid, Tammie Helton, Staci Eaton, Patty Durham, Angie Quintana, and Karae Beason. They were joined by chapter members Staci Carver and Kim Conner from Benjamin. Also accompanying the group were chapter advisors Vera Newton and Veeta Reid. The group left Knox City early Wednesday morning via charter bus along with several other area chapters.

There was some free time for sightseeing Thursday for part of the group. They toured the San Jacinto Monument and Battleship Texas. Many members had their first ferry ride. Another fun attraction was shopping at the Galleria.

Thursday night was the time to really get down to business because it was time for the First General Session which involved the House of Delegates meeting and the Talent Show. Staci Eaton and Karae Beason served as voting delegates.

Angela Reid presided at the Third General Session. During this session, she also gave a film presentation and recognized members who had completed different levels of Encounter.

Speakers for the meeting included Grant Teaff, coach of the Baylor University Bears, Laura Rigga, 1978-79 National FHA President, and Elvin Caraway, past National FFA Officer. All of the speakers encouraged members to think positive, be enthusiastic, and show willingness to give the best of themselves.

The meeting ended Friday night with the installation of the 1980-81 State Officers.
Knox City FHA'ers ended their trip with an all night bus ride and arrived back in Knox City at 8:30 Saturday morning.

State meetings are a time for learning more about the organization, developing leadership, making and reviewing friendships, having fun, and seeing new places.

SERVICES OF THE CHURCH OF GOD IN CHRIST

The call meeting for the North end of the Abilene District was held last Thursday night in Knox City and in Abilene on Friday night. The churches are preparing to attend the state Minister's Workers Convocation in Lubbock this week.
Sunday school had a good attendance with Supt. Smith in charge.
In the morning service,

Missionary Wilson brought a great message from Deut. 11: 1, 2.
YPWW was the last service of the day here.
The convocation convened April 21 at AME Methodist Church in Lubbock and will close April 26, Lord's Willing.
Brother Earl (Bite) Wilson is home after having surgery and we are thankful that he is doing so well. We are concerned and are praying for all of the families that have sick and suffering loved ones.

INCLUDE MEDICINE CABINET IN YOUR SPRING CLEANING

When the robin red breast reminds you spring has finally arrived and the good news stirs you into an energetic round of spring cleaning, don't forget the medicine cabinet. It's unwise to keep prescription drugs "on hand" after the specific condition for which they were ordered has been cured, especially if you've been collecting them for years. You would not want to take patent medicines without your doctor's advice, self-diagnosis can do more harm than good.

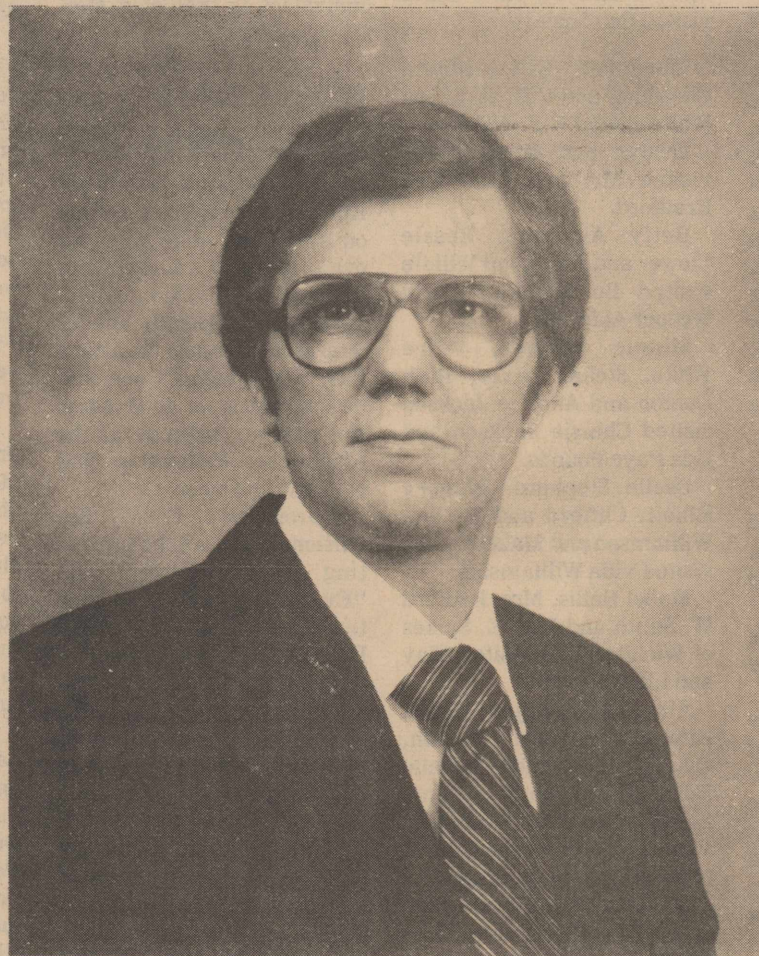

The less crowded your drug storage area is the less chance for a mistake when reaching for a bottle. If you like you can bring us any drugs you wish to discard and we'll be glad to dispose of them safely.

YOU OR YOUR DOCTOR CAN PHONE US when you need a delivery. We will deliver promptly without extra charge. A great many people rely on us for their health needs. We welcome requests for delivery service and charge accounts.

Study Club Hears Two Local Residents

The Knox City Study Club met Thursday, April 17, at 2:30 p.m. in the Community Center. President Winifred White called the meeting to order and Lena McGee led the group in repeating "The Club Collect" while Sammie Carpenter led the "Pledge of Allegiance".

With Elizabeth Wilson at the piano, Charlotte Patterson sang "Over The Rainbow".

Lillian Logan, program leader, introduced two well-known Knox City residents, Rob Harrison and Dell Rumley, who discussed the immediate subject division, "Home Is Where The Hurt Is". This tied in with the program topic, "Safety Division of Public Affairs".

Harrison reminded the group of the many common errors involved in keeping homes and their surroundings safe. He also listed ways of handling emergency situations that arise in the home or other places where various members of the family might be involved. Rob gave special attention to fire hazards, fire prevention, and fire protection.

Mrs. Rumley discussed the services of the MBFA company, for which she works, particularly the Home Health Division. Home Health deals with Home Nursing and home care. The services are especially beneficial for the many senior citizens who prefer to remain in their own homes.

Roll call was answered with "A Careless Act" that brought many admissions of careless, foolish acts that cause accidents and bodily harm.

The Study Club made plans to serve the April birthday party at the Brazos Valley Care Home, which was Friday, April 18, at 2:30 p.m.

Ten club members including Winifred White, Lillian Logan, Elizabeth Wilson, Charlotte Patterson, Sammie Carpenter, Mary Beth Smith, Sudia Cash, Virginia Casey, Tess Wall, and Lena McGee attending the meeting.

Music will be furnished by Charlotte Patterson and Elizabeth Wilson.

May hostesses will be Wretha Fitzgerald, Jo Roberts, and Gladys Reed.

A LOOK AT MOBILE HOMES

Mobile homes increase in popularity as costs of conventional housing continue their upward spiral.

While difference in initial cost tends to be the big attraction, other cost-related factors are ever-present on the minds of those looking for affordable housing.

PRICES

Percentage-wise, mobile home prices are rising more rapidly than conventional housing, but in actual dollars, the gap has grown wider.

Between 1974 and 1978, the average price of a new house increased from $38,900 to $62,500—a 61 percent hike.

During the same period, average cost of a new mobile home increased 71 percent — from $9,300 to $15,900.

SITE OWNERSHIP

The move to the owned site is a trend gathering momentum among mobile home owners.

Approximately 60 percent of the new mobile home owners are permanently erecting them on owned tracts of land, either in residential subdivisions or on individual sites.

Owners often find they can own their own site for less than the cost of rental space in a park.

LIBERAL FINANCING
Liberalization of mobile-home financing has spurred additional interest by making it possible to finance the mobile home and the land at a lower interest rate with a single mortgage.

Lower down payments and longer-term mortgages also add to the attractiveness of the mobile home-on-site package.

APPRECIATION

The age-old question of whether a mobile home will appreciate in value is still being kicked around.

Increasingly, mobile home buyers are becoming aware that locating the unit on an owned site balances gain or loss in the unit's value against appreciation in value of the land.

But, several recent studies indicate that indeed, mobile home can and are appreciating in value in certain areas.

LOANS

The way lenders view the mobile home has tremendous influence on assessed value and other lending practices.

The majority of lenders continue to make use of the book-value approach in determining the amount of the loan advanced on used mobile homes.

This approach is often inappropriate in assessing the value of permanent housing. In contrast, an increasing number of lenders now look upon the mobile home as a permanent and essential element of the total housing supply and assess value accordingly.

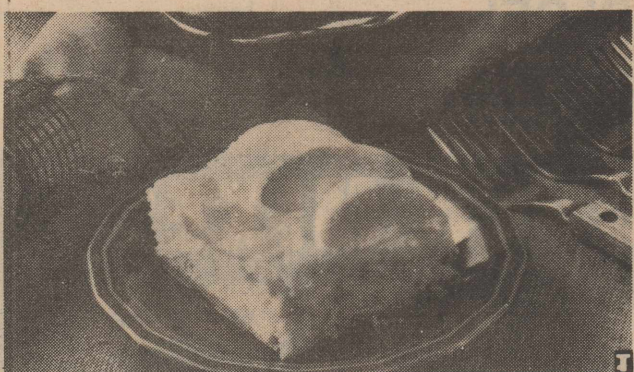

Where on-site appraisals similar to those used in determining value of a conventional house are used, the neighborhood where the mobile home is located, the home's style and amenities, and the care and improvements contributed to the mobile home are all weighed in determining value.

On-site appraisals of mobile homes do not assure higher values but they do consider essentially the same factors used in assessing value of conventional housing.

McFarlin of Lubbock announce the engagement of their daughter, Dana Gaye, to former Knox City resident, Loyd Russell Hamilton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hamilton of Idalou. She is presently employed by Hygeia Bottled Water in Lubbock. Hamilton, a 1976 graduate of Idalou High School, attends Texas Tech University. He is employed by the City of Idalou as Public Works Director. The prospective bridegroom is the grandson of Mrs. Corrie Hamilton of Knox City, the late C.L. Hamilton, and the late Mr. and Mrs. N.L. As State Vice President

Local Completes Busy FHA Year

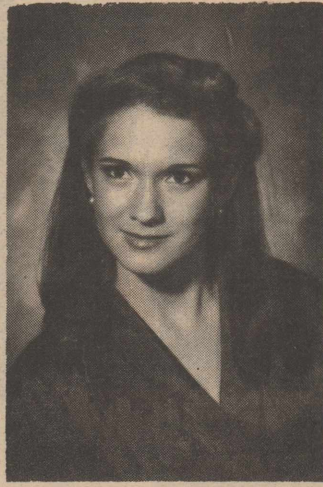

Angelia Reid concluded her term as Future Homemakers of America State Vice President of Encounter at the State meeting in Houston April 16 through 18. Angelia was kept very busy while in Houston with many activities and responsibilities.

Her first duty was Wednesday afternoon when she attended a meeting of presiders where all plans for the sessions were finalized.

The president's party Wednesday night was a time for renewing friendships and reminiscing. A magician captured the imagination of the audience as he shared his tricks with them.

There was no time for rest for the busy state officer, so it was up bright and early Thursday morning to attend the Nominating Committee and State Officers breakfast.

Executive Council meeting occupied the remainder of Thursday morning. This was a time for reviewing all plans for the meeting and transacting business of the association. Thursday afternoon was the time for practicing on the arena stage.

ANGELIA REID
...V-P of Encounter

All state officers must have the cooperation of good chapter members. Local chapter members from Knox City and Benjamin mounted and displayed the Encounter backdrop for Angelia Thursday afternoon.

The meeting began Thursday night with the Parade of Officers. State officers introduced themselves and explained what they had enjoyed most about their individual office.

Angelia was the presiding officer at the Third General Session. She also presented the film "Solo" and recognized members who have completed different levels of Encounter.

The State Executive Council Dinner Friday night honored incoming and outgoing state officers.

The installation of officers Friday night concluded Angelia's year as State FHA vice president of Encounter.

For RR Commission

News Endorses Hightower

April 17, 1980

To the editor:

I'll be frank, just as I've been throughout my campaign. The purpose of this letter is to ask for your endorsement of my candidacy for the Texas Railroad Commission.

The campaign has been difficult, yet easy. The difficulty has been in running for an office that not many Texans are familiar with. The easy part has been the seemingly-endless variety of issues to discuss, all directly related to the Railroad Commission. I won't dwell on them here, but during my campaign, I've had the opportunity to discuss with Texas voters items such as gas utility rates, retroactive rate increases, utility company advertising costs, defective pipelines with histories of massive oil leaks, pollution of underground water supplies, gasoline prices, rail freight service, the difficulty and expense of obtaining trucking permits, the potential dangers of mismanaged stripmining, the need for speeding-up development of alternative energy sources such as solar and wind power and gasohol, and the incumbent commissioners' foot-dragging on the adoption of basic due-process regulations regarding the termination of gas utility service.

These are very real issues which affect millions of Texans, but few people know that the Railroad Commission has any authority in most of these matters. I believe, as you know by now, that that's because the Railroad Commission has operated largely as a closed society, with the decisions being made jointly by industry representatives and their like-minded friends, the three Commissioners.

I don't ascribe any patently evil intent to any of the incumbents. I simply suggest that they were each appointed to the Commission because they were already sympathetic to the industry positions. Likewise, their reelection campaigns consistently—and this year is certainly no exception—have been financed overwhelmingly by the very industries they're responsible for regulating.

That's why last year I decided to make this race.

For nearly three years, as editor of The Texas Observer, I followed and researched and wrote about the Texas Railroad Commission and other state regulatory agencies which, it became apparent, have become little more than official advocates for the industries they're supposed to oversee. This leaves the people out in the cold, with no one to stand up for them in the face of these industries and their batteries of lawyers and figure-juggling accountants. I believe that on a three-member state agency with the power of the Texas Railroad Commission, the consumers and bill payers must have a least one representative who starts out on their side—who is in no way tied philosophically or financially or by background to the industries the Commission regulates. That's why I announced before I began my campaign that I would not accept any contributions from the industries regulated by the Commission. (The January disclosure statement of my opponent, on the other hand, showed that more than $100,000 of his $112,000 had come from the executives, lawyers or lobbyists or companies regulated by the Railroad Commission.)

of Texas are no longer uninformed about what the Railroad Commission does; it will let the other two members know that if they don't consider the interests of the public, then other consumer candidates will be waiting in the wings to take them on when they're up for reelection. And, of course, all the while, I'll be there on the inside, ready to raise a tumultuous uproar every time I see the consumers and billpayers of Texas being shut out of the decision-making process. I won't take my role lightly, but I won't shrink from it, either.

be fun. For all of us. Take a chance.

Sincerely,
Jim Hightower

(Editor's Note: You asked for our endorsement—you've got it! In fact you've had our support since the first day you announced your candidacy for Railroad Commissioner. We believe that most of the voters in Knox City will remember the Railroad Commission's part in closing the Knox City Depot when the entire community turned out for the hearing to ask that it remain open. We believe also that you would stand up for 'us little people' rather than go with the 'biggies'.)

"Your attitude should be the kind that was shown us by Jesus Christ..." (Phil. 2:5).

Paul tells us about the mind of Christ, which is also the mind of the Holy Spirit. His whole life was spent in loving, cheering and helping others; sharing the same spirit. His heart was always tender and sympathetic to all. Is this the picture of our life? Not being selfish but humble, thinking of others as better than ourselves. Our attitude should be the kind that was shown by Jesus Christ who though he was God did not demand and cling to his right as God. (V. 6-7).

When Jesus came to earth, paid the price for our salvation on the Cross. It was there he commanded his Spirit back into the hands of the Father. Jesus told his followers not to leave Jerusalem until the Holy Spirit came upon them in fulfillment of the Father's promise. Paul says, "And because we are his sons, God has sent the Spirit of his Son into our hearts..." (Gal. 4:6). The promise of The Father to send you The Holy Spirit and to all believers who tarry in faith believing as Jesus commanded. The power of the Holy Spirit will help you to live an overcoming life, though the way gets hard and long and the burdens heavy.
