Public May View Apartments Sunday

The Knox City Housing FmHA Apartments, which include nine new apartments for rental housing, have been completed and an open house has been scheduled Sunday, November 9, from 2:00 until 4:00 p.m. The new units are located at South Seventh & Aspen.

The long-sought construction began in June after the contract was awarded in February to R.B. Todd and Company of Lorenzo. Mr. Todd's daughter, Carol, has been overseer of the project and will represent her father at the open house Sunday. Superintendent of housing has been Hershell Upchurch. Whitaker, Hall, McQueen, and Jones of Lubbock were architects, engineers, and planners for the project.

Leon Burkham is chairman of the local Housing Authority Board with David Albus as co-chairman. Board members include Leon Ward, Elva Gonzales, and Chad Wilson. The board members are appointed by the mayor and serve two year terms. The board hires the executive director and managers of both the Housing and Urban Development low-rent apartments as well as the new Knox City Housing FmHA apartments. Serving in these positions are Mavis and Allen Lowrey. They accept and approve tenant applications and do all the paper work while the board makes decisions on the policies set by HUD.

Mrs. Lowrey reported that the low-rent housing units built here in 1953 shortly after the Knox City tornado, and occupied in 1954, underwent complete modernization in August of 1979, and the 32 apartments have been self-supporting in recent years. The original monies came from HUD, and monies for the new apartments came through the Farmers Home Administration for rural housing, which is entirely separate from the low rent units.

The original application for the new apartments called for ten apartments, but in the interim, inflation ate up one apartment, Mrs. Lowrey said, and the project became nine apartments, including three one-bedroom and six two-bedroom apartments.

Electric ranges and refrigerators are furnished in the new apartments, and tenants will enjoy central heating and cooling, also. Utility bills will be paid by the tenants, Mrs. Lowrey said.

The low-rent HUD units have central heating, she explained.

Grounds for the new apartments have been partially landscaped, she said.

The completion of the units is another step forward for

Chairman Expresses Appreciation

The 1980 Arts, Craft and Hobby Show is now in the past and already plans are in the making for next year's show, according to Betty Smith, chairman. Changes in rules, new rules, ideas, plans and the main concern each year - the building, are being evaluated, she said.

Mrs. Smith explained that this year's show has many beautiful brush strokes, intricate stitches, glue, scissors, whittling, and others that helped to make a quality show, but it takes behind the scene activities - pushing a broom, dusting, hammering on new hangers, delivery of stands, delivery of ribbons and even sometimes a mashed thumb in making old stands like new. Mrs. Smith expressed a big thanks to many persons for their time and voluntary help including Doris Crownover, Bill Oden, Odell Harbert, Marti Tackitt, Barbara Barnard, Faye Graham, Frank Smith, Stuart Miller, Romain Stubbs, Dick Evatt and the delivery and storage crew, as well as the judges, Bobby Hudson, Mary Rike, and Gayla Nanny.

Hounds Overpower Newcastle Bobcats

By DAVID COUNTS

The Knox City Greyhounds scored a touchdown on their first play from scrimmage Friday night on their way to a 56-7 victory over the visiting Newcastle Bobcats.

Richard Daniel set the tone of the game on the first play as he tackled the Bobcat runner for a four yard loss. The Greyhound defense was devastating.

Jay Rutherford started the scoring parade on a one yard run. The touchdown was set up by a 34 yard punt return by Ricky Gonzales. Gonzales then kicked the first of his six extra points for the night.

Jay Rutherford set up the second Hound TD when he tackled the Bobcat punter on his own two yard line. Rutherford scored on a quarterback sneak. After Gonzales' kick the score was 14-0.

Chuck Hutchinson caught a Jay Rutherford pass for 15 yards and a touchdown with 2:27 time left in the first quarter. Gonzales kick. Score 21-0. Ricky Gonzales then swept around right end for 61 yards and a touchdown on the last play of the quarter. Kick good. Score was 28-0.

Rance Hacker set up a scoring opportunity by recovering a fumble. Jay Rutherford then passes to Hacker for a six yard touchdown.

The Hounds second team took over at this point. Tyke Meinzer then directed his troops down on a drive which resulted in a touchdown when he passed 34 yards to Kevin Leach.

Sammy Grindstaff set up the next score when he ran 19 yards up the middle to the one yard line. Meinzer then took it in for the score. Score at halftime, 49-0.

David Flores and Arturo Rocha recovered Bobcat fumbles and Ricky Gonzales intercepted a pass to keep the offensive show going in the first half for the Hounds.

A mess of penalties set up the Bobcats on the Hound one yard line shortly after the half. On the third play, they scored. Score 49-7 after the extra point conversion.

James Stafford set up the next Hound score with a 36 yard run. Meinzer then carried it into the end zone for the touchdown. Meinzer kicked the extra point to end the scoring for the night with 5:14 left in the third quarter.

Jeff Reece and John Reynolds intercepted passes and David Lankford recovered a fumble to keep the Bobcats at bay the remainder of the night.

The Greyhounds will travel to Rochester Friday night to meet the Steers at 7:30 p.m.

Cotton Harvest Is Off To A Slow Start

B.B. Manly Jr., area director of the USDA Marketing Services office in Abilene reports that 3500 cotton samples had been classed from the 1980-81 cotton harvest as of October 31. About one-third of the area gins have started ginning operations, but the cotton harvest is relatively late this season. Many producers have waited for frost to kill cotton rather than applying desiccants. A killing freeze occurred throughout most of the cotton producing area Tuesday night, October 28, so wide-spread harvesting is expected around November 10. Cotton production will be extremely low this season, in drastic contrast to the record high yields of the previous season. Manly estimated total cotton production of the Abilene-Munday area at about 280,000 bales, which compares to 1,141,000 bales of cotton produced last season.

Manly reported that the Automatic Data Processing (ADP) system has been installed and is currently operational as was planned for this season. Classing data is being sent to cotton producers in the Abilene classing territory on machine-readable punch cards rather than the original class card (green card). A computer printout of weekly classing results is being provided to each gin. Manly explained that the cotton is still being classed manually, but the reporting of quality information on punch cards is intended to hasten marketing. There have been several questions concerning the numerical codes in the "remarks" column on the punch card. These codes have been changed this season, and an explanation is printed on the reverse side of each card. Local cotton prices ranged from 31 to 36 cents per pound over CCC loan values. Most cotton sold at 70 to 80 cents per pound, depending mostly upon staple length. The supply of new-crop cotton was light, and trading was slow to inactive. Demand was moderate for most qualities, but was good for staple 32 or longer cotton.

Some farmers have received 110 dollars per ton for cottonseed, but seed prices have not yet been established at most gins.

The quality of early harvested cotton has been relatively low this season.

Grades have been much duller than usual, and fiber length has been relatively short; but micronaire readings have been mostly within the desirable 35 to 49 range. During the past week, grades were 4% white, 66% it. spotted, and 30% spotted. Grade 52 comprised 40%, grade 42 comprised 23%, grade 43 comprised 17%, and grade 53 accounted for 11% of the samples classed. Fiber length was 41% staple 30, 31% staple 31, and 18% staple 29. The average staple length for the week was 30.17. Micronaire readings were 97% within the 35 to 49 range, with the average mike being 42. About 11% of the samples were reduced in grade because of bark or grass content.

The Munday Marketing Services office is scheduled to be opened on November 10, with John Waters in charge this season.

Co. 4-H Food Show Set For Saturday

4-H'ers will match foods and nutrition expertise against each other in the Knox County 4-H Food Show set for Saturday, November 8.

About 30 youth will compete in senior and junior divisions, according to April Werley, County Extension Agent.

Entries will be on public display at 12:00 noon at the Benjamin Memorial Building. A tasting tea will also be held and a small fee will be charged.

Senior division entrants are ages 14-19 while junior division youth are ages 9-13.

For the contest, each 4-H entrant will compete in one of four classes, including main dish, side dish, breads and desserts, or snacks and beverages.

"Because the foods and nutrition program focuses on nutrition, each contestant will have to demonstrate what she or he knows about nutrition, meal planning, food buying and meal service, as well as preparation techniques," Miss Werley explains.

Knox County 4-H Food Show is sponsored by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University Service and The Morrison Milling Company of Denton.

More Honor Roll Names Submitted

Marie Auburg, third grade teacher in the Knox City-O'Brien Schools, asked the News office this week to add six additional names to the third grade honor roll. She explained that a mix-up caused the omission on the original list.

Also making the honor roll were Stephen Andrada, Marci Berryman, Brian Rogers, Missy Wilkinson, Dawn Turner, and Nicki Ivie.

Mrs. Auburg said they regretted the omission.

Houndettes Split Games With Hamlin

By Dale Waincott

Traveling to Hamlin last week, the Houndettes split matches with the Hamlin Pied Pipers. We won the first match 15-5, 15-6 while Hamlin won the second match 10-15, 12-15. The team had several chances to come back in the second match but we could not score the points needed because of errors. Our biggest problem is inconsistency. At times, we play really well, covering the court defensively and offensively, then we relax and our opponent seems to take advantage and take charge.

Against Hamlin, the leading spikers were Mindy Hutchinson and Mary Albus. Leading setters were Kay Howell with 14 and Chayo Garcia with 13. In the serving column, Mary Albus led with 14 of 16 and Mindy Hutchinson with 16 of 17.

The JV's came back with another victory under their belts. Making their record nine wins and five losses. The scores for the JV match were 15-7, 15-0. Leaders in the spiking column were Angie Quintana and Delores Stafford, leading setters were Sharon Roberson and Mary Garcia, and leading servers were Delores Stafford and Kristi Boone. The JV's can be proud of their 1980 volleyball season.

It is possible that the Houndettes and Crowell will play a game at Vernon Regional Junior College next Monday, November 3. This will better prepare the Houndettes to meet Harrold at Bi-District which will be played at VRJC at Vernon November 10, at 7:00 p.m.

PRUSSIC ACID POISONING IN LIVESTOCK

Frost will be hitting Knox County before long, and this could lead to prussic acid poisoning in livestock: grazing certain pasture grasses and forages, points out Jim Mazurkiewicz, county agent with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University System.

Although many plants contain the toxic material that causes poisoning, those causing the highest mortality in livestock when grazed after they have been frozen and wilted are Johnson and Sudan grasses and sorghum or hybrids of these.

The most dangerous time as far as the grazing of these plants is concerned is following frost when the plant material begins to wilt, Mazurkiewicz emphasizes. Livestock should not be allowed access to the wilted material until it has dried completely. This usually takes three or four days of good sunlight. New plant growth usually becomes non-toxic and can be grazed within 10 days to two weeks following a rain.

As far as prussic acid poisoning is concerned, the poison acts rapidly and can kill animals within minutes. In most acute cases, animals become affected within 10-15 minutes after eating toxic material and can die in two to three minutes. Symptoms may include a brief period of stimulation followed by depression and paralysis. Signs of colic may be present. Stupor (loss of sensibility), difficult breathing and frequent convulsions may result. Death is caused by suffocation since oxygen remains in the blood and is not exchanged to the tissues. This also causes the blood to appear bright red.

To prevent prussic acid poisoning in livestock, Mazurkiewicz, outlines these steps:

1. Allow plant material affected by frost to dry thoroughly before grazing. This may require a week or more of good sunlight.

2. Feed animals hay or a supplement before turning them in on plants that may contain prussic acid. Animals that are not hungry will not be affected as seriously by toxic material since their intake will be limited.

3. Remove all animals from the pasture if one in the herd shows any signs of poisoning.

4. Call a veterinarian immediately if an animal appears to be poisoned. An antidote to treat affected animals is highly efficient if given early. This product is available from veterinarians.

5. Have suspect plant material checked by the Texas Veterinary Medical Diagnostic Laboratories at College Station or Amarillo. Local veterinarians will be happy to submit samples for you.

The overall key to preventing prussic acid poisoning in livestock is to be aware of plant materials that may cause poisoning and then to keep cattle from grazing such plants until a safe period has passed, Mazurkiewicz points out.

Guard Against Dust Storms

According to Pete Elliston of the local Soil Conservation Service, sand or dust storms are our major air pollutant in Knox City.

Elliston stated that due to the sandy texture of some soil in Knox County many farmers leave vegetation either growing or in the form of residue from preceding crops on the surface of the soil to aid in control of this menace-old man dust.

Dust storms not only pollute the air but valuable small grained, highly fertile soil particles are blown from fields leaving the coarser, large grained particles in the field or along fence rows. In any case dust storms are bad, not only to the land from an economic stand point but especially to the doctor's patient who is suffering from infected sinuses and to the wives who have to dust and wet mop or vacuum more frequently.

Elliston further stated that many fields in the county are so susceptible to wind erosion that only sowed crops such as wheat should be planted. This would afford protection against blowing during the critical blow season which is normally late fall through the spring.

The purpose for which the Soil Conservation Service was established was to assist land users with this type problem and others. Anyone desiring assistance controlling wind erosion or other conservation problems should contact the local SCS office in Knox City.

Taxpayers Using Toll-Free Number

AUSTIN, Tex.-State Comptroller Bob Bullock Friday said Texans with tax problems and questions are sidestepping the mail in favor of the telephone.

Bullock said his agency recorded 241,052 incoming telephone calls on the agency's toll-free number during the last fiscal year which ended August 31.

"Texas taxpayers seem to feel the convenience and speed of using the telephone makes letter writing as obsolete as the pony express," Bullock said.

Records show that this is an increase of about nine percent in the number of WATS line calls completed through the Comptroller's switchboard over the same time a year ago.

Bullock said the 83,241 calls logged in sales tax resulted in more than 9,300 written follow-ups to questions and the completion of more than 17,000 corrective documents to clear up taxpayers accounts.

The Comptroller's toll-free number, from anywhere in Texas, is 1-800-252-5555.

News Notes from the Brazos Valley Care Home

By Laura Ivie

Sunday morning, November 2, Ozelle Stephens taught Sunday School. Romans I was read and discussed to the 16 residents attending. For the Sunday morning singing, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Tankersley and Lacy Headrick were at the Care Home to spread a little Christian spirit with their beautiful hymns. They were assisted by Peggy Guinn on the piano.

Sunday afternoon, Ronnie White was in charge of the church service. There were 20 residents attending. Matthew Chapter 20 was ministered to the people. Several songs were sung by the Ronnie White family.

On October 25, one of our residents, H.E. Wall Sr., celebrated his 91st birthday. Helping Mr. Wall celebrate his happy day was his wife Allene, his sons H.E. Wall Jr. and wife, George R. Wall and wife, Robert L. Wall and wife, and several grandchildren, John and Debbie Johnson, Sherry and Shelly Wall, and Robert Wall Jr. Among all the birthday gifts were a pair of snappy red pajamas and a macrame saw. The saw is 120 years old and was given to Mr. Wall by his dad. His granddaughter, Debbie, made a macrame hanger out of the saw and presented it to him on his birthday. Mr. Wall was very proud of the saw and Debbie.

Halloween Day, the fifth and sixth grade class from Benjamin came marching into the care home. They had made cards for the residents and brought candy also. The cards were linoleum block prints and each child had designed their own. Let me tell you folks, it was fantastic! There was such a feeling of joy watching these kids go to each resident's room and pass out their gifts, things they had made themselves. Their teacher, Jessie Roberts, said the children had been very excited about this and really looked forward to it. I just can't tell you how happy I was, these kids caring like most adults don't. They took time to make these things for our people and I think it's great. They're learning to care for elderly people at this young age. If they keep this up can you imagine the good feelings they'll have when they're older. It's up to us to teach our children the importance of caring for our elderly people. We have to lead the way by showing them we care.

The children that came to the Care Home were Buster Redwine, Jeff Pierce, Kemp

Jones, SuLynn Oxford, Lorrie Rolston, Carmen Estrada, Stephanie Taylor, Jim White, Kim Cash, Jody Stone, Becky Griffith, Sue Gideon, Joel Bolanos, Stacia Ryder and Shane Spinks. Our deepest and warmest thanks to these kids, Mrs. Roberts and to Benjamin for caring. God bless each of you and we love you.

TEST YOUR SHOPPING SKILLS

How are your shopping skills? If they're not so good, you could be losing lots of money at the grocery market. Test your skills with the easy checklist below (answer "yes" or "no"):

I plan weekly menus.

I plan meals to include weekly newspaper specials.

I compare brands for the best buys.

I compile a grocery list based on my menus.

I am flexible and include unadvertised specials.

I read food labels.

I check expiration dates on food products.

I go shopping alone if possible.

I organize my shopping list to go with the order of the store aisles.

I buy only what I can store and use before spoilage.

I occasionally buy in quantity for the freezer when I find specials.

I store food properly as soon as I return from the market.

I watch the checkout cashier to see actual amount charged.

I examine produce carefully for damage.

I do not go to the grocery store with an empty stomach.

There are many more shopping tips than the 15 listed above, but each statement should have received a "yes" answer.

If you have less than 12 "yes" answers, you can be sure you are not using your time, energy or money efficiently.

Study the statements and map out a different and better strategy for your trips to the market.

KC Women Host Delta Kappa Gamma

Beta Chi Chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma met Saturday, November 1, at 2:30 p.m. in the Knox City Community Center with Knox City members as hostesses.

Donnie Fincher, president, opened the meeting and asked Gretchen Colehour to give "A Moment of Meditation".

Mrs. Colehour brought a beautiful and impressive message. She began by reminding the group that November 1 was All Saints Day. She mentioned the Saint Teresa and gave her book mark quotation:

"Let nothing trouble thee, Let nothing afflict thee, All things are passing; God never changes. Patience obtains everything, Nothing is wanting to him Who possesses God. God alone suffices."

She closed with a word of prayer.

Mrs. Colehour introduced Carolyn Sloan with Virginia Casey at the piano. Carolyn sang "The Sound of Music" and "I Believe".

Program chairman Mary Martin gave an introduction for the program and asked for the group to sing "A Lot of Friendship" led by Mary Jo Lankford with Mary Martin at the piano.

Margie Lott discussed "Personal Growth and Services". Marie Ward discussed "Professional Affairs As They Relate To Possible, Probable, and Preferable Futures". Hazel Long "did a little thing" on "Research". She asked members to fully realize just how many things we have today that belong in the throw away class. She mentioned that wedding dresses are now among the "throw away" group. Hazel passed out a clever little test for members present.

Mary D. Sawyers gave a very interesting report on the Area VII workshop held in Mineral Wells on October 4. She also reminded the group that unpaid dues must be in by December 1.

The next meeting will be in Mary Martin's home in Haskell on December 6.

The meeting closed with singing the "Delta Kappa Gamma Song" led by Mary Jo Lankford with Mary Martin at the piano.

Knox City hostesses served refreshments of party sandwiches, toasted pecans, cheese rolls, brownies and coffee to 34 Beta Chi members.

Those attending from Knox City were Hazel Long, Sudia Cash, Sammie Carpenter, Mary Jo Lankford, Lois Smith, Exa Faye Reed, Margaret Chafin, Gretchen Colehour, Zoy Risinger, and Lillian Logan.
