Bi-District Friday At Sweetwater

Teamwork! 35-6!

By DAVID COUNTS

The Knox City Greyhounds had a plan Friday night in Greyhound Stadium. They worked the plan to perfection by beating the Rule Bobcats 35-6 for the District 4-A championship.

From the opening kickoff to the final whistle, there was no question which team was in command of the game. The night was perfect for a Bobcat "skinnin'". The wind was out of the north about 15 mph. The afternoon rain had stopped but the dampness was on the field and in the air.

The Greyhounds won the coin toss and elected to take advantage of the brisk wind. The Bobcats then elected to receive. The Bobcats lost eight yards on their first three plays. On fourth down, the ball sailed over the punter's head and Adam White recovered in the end zone for a Greyhound touchdown. The extra point kick failed. Score 6-0 with 2:05 gone in the game.

On the second play following the Hound kickoff, Jay Rutherford intercepted a pass on the Cats 16 yard line. The Hounds failed to take advantage of this scoring opportunity when they fumbled the ball back to the Cats on the first play. The Bobcats made a good move in a 10 play drive that came to a stop on a fourth down incomplete pass at the Hound 35 yard line.

The Hounds moved back downfield on a long drive but turned the ball over to the Bobcats at the Cats 19 yard line on a pass interception. The Bobcats came back down

To Face Klondike In Bi-District

Hounds Travel To Sweetwater Friday

By STACY ANGLE

When Knox City's Greyhounds travel to Sweetwater Friday night to face the Klondike Cougars, Coach Jimmy Rogers commented that this would probably be the most physical game the Hounds have played as several of Klondike's team members weigh in over the 220 pound mark.

The Hounds, who defeated Rule Friday night to take top district honors in District 4-A, will face the Cougars, who defeated Roby by a margin of 14-7, the winners of District 3-A. The Cougars, whose record is now 10-1, lost their only game to Class AA Plains, who won their respective district.

Both Knox City and Klondike are rated in the Top 10 by the Harris Poll and United Press International.

Plans were for the Hounds to take to the field Tuesday afternoon for practice despite weather conditions, according to Rogers. As far as listing any injured players, he commented that the team was basically in "good shape."

★ Houndettes Are ★ ★ 'Austin Bound' ★

By Coach Dale Wainscott

The Knox City Houndettes will proudly represent Knox City High School at the state volleyball tournament in Austin Saturday, November 22. To achieve this, the Houndettes traveled to Stephenville last Thursday and defeated three teams of an eight team bracket to win the regional championship.

The first victory was against Paradise with the scores being 15-3, 15-8. This match was not the toughest but the girls seemed to be mentally ready for anyone at this point.

The second victory was over Moran, who had defeated us earlier this year. This was our toughest match. The Houndettes winning the first game 15-1 and losing the second 6-15. The difference between the two teams came out in the last game with the Houndettes on top 15-13 to win the whole match.

Their last match of the day was against Novice who also had eliminated two teams on their end of the bracket. The final match ended quick with the scores being 15-6, 15-12.

The most significant factor to the victories was that the girls prepared themselves mentally together as a team. Supporting each other on and off the bench, you could tell our girls wanted the championship just that much more than all the other teams and prepared.

There were no statistics kept but we do know that there were minimal errors.

FANS WERE on hand to greet the Knox City High School volleyball team Thursday night after their win at Stephenville. Team member Mindy Hutchinson, in center, is greeted by Cornelia Tolleson, at right, as other fans wait their turn to congratulate the team.

Diane Helms and Adela Rocha contributed with excellent play both defensively and offensively. Scoring leaders for the three matches were Mary Ann Albus and Chayo Garcia with 21 scoring serves. Karae Beason had 12 scoring serves, Mindy Hutchinson 15, Kay Howell 14, and Patty Durham 11.

The Houndettes were on the court most of the time during the day. They started at 9:00 a.m. and did not have a good break until just before the final game at 1:30 p.m.

The state tournament will be on the University of Texas campus at Gregory Gym. Their first match Saturday will be against Leon at 10:10 a.m. and if we are successful will play in the finals at 6:00 p.m. for the 1980 Class A state championship. There will be other matches throughout the day for other classes in the state.

This is what athletics is all about, what all the kids work towards and hope for each year in all sports and we hope to bring home "the " 1980 Class A State Volleyball Championship.

Holiday Notes

Here's a three-point reminder to note when you go shopping for presents for youngsters from ages six and older:

1. Look for safety features. Avoid toys with small removable parts, sharp points, non-fast colors.
2. Choose a gift that teaches a child while it entertains.
3. Give something the whole family can enjoy, store easily, and that won't annoy the neighbors.

One gift you might consider is a music matching game that looks like a red and black jukebox. It's child lap-size, electronic, challenges players on three levels of expertise: "Novice," "Whiz," and "Pro," and converts into a three-octave playing instrument. It's safe, easy to learn and can be played by one to four players, of all ages. Winners get flashing lights; losers are "razed."

The name of the game is "Melody Madness" and it comes with a booklet that teaches how the game is played, and how to play tunes on the instrument board. The game's from GAF, makers of top quality popular View-Master products.

Can you think of a more noteworthy gift for your favorite young musician?

THE SEASON'S first snow which began blanketing Knox City and the area early Sunday morning turned into a winter storm and the reported seven-inch, wet snow caused broken power lines, telephone lines, and cable TV lines. Many trees had limbs broken and some of the big trees were completely uprooted.

the field with a 55 yard pass but turned the ball over to the Hound 14 when the Hounds recovered a fumble.

The Hounds took the ball on a 13 play drive for 74 yards using almost eight minutes of the quarter when Rule had the wind advantage. Ricky Gonzales had runs of seven, nine, two and seven yards. Ricky Gutierrez had a run of three yards, Tim Roberson had runs of three, fifteen, one and five yards, and Jay Rutherford had runs of five, two and one yards with a ten yard pass from Rutherford to Chuck Hutchinson thrown in. Rutherford scored with the last one yard run and then on a run for two points. Rutherford again got into the end zone for a 14-0 score.

The Hound offensive line was a well oiled piece of machinery as they took complete control of the line of scrimmage.

On the kickoff, Ricky Gonzales shanked the ball. It went high into the strong north wind and to the west. The ball hit on the Rule 40 and Steve Rutherford covered the ball for the Hounds on the Rule 39. A very heads up play for the freshman Rutherford.

The Rule defense spread out to stop Roberson and Gonzales. Rutherford took advantage of this and rode the blocking of center Andy Barnard and guard Kelley Boone in for a touchdown on a one yard run with only 1:47 left in the first half. A kick try failed and the score was 20-0.

Rule made a desperate attempt to get on the scoreboard before halftime but hard rush by the Hound defensive line and desperation passes were tipped away by Glen Hedgecock and Tim Roberson as the first half ended.

Rule elected to receive the ball to start the second half so the Hounds took the wind. Following the kickoff, the Hound defense held and forced a punt.

The Hounds started driving but a clipping penalty caused the Hounds to have to punt for the first time. A Hound punt was killed on the Bobcat five yard line.

Two Rule passes were incomplete and on third down, Andy Barnard crashed through to trip the quarterback for a safety. Two points were added to make the score 22-0.

On the free kick from Rule following the safety, Ricky Gutierrez returned the ball 30 yards to the Bobcat 34 yard line.

The Hound offensive line continued where they left off before intermissions by blowing the Rule line back on every play. Nine plays later Jay Rutherford on a quarterback sneak for a yard and a touchdown. Gonzales kicked the extra point. Score was 29-0 with 1:30 left in the third quarter.

On the first play after the kickoff, the Rule player fumbled and James Stafford recovered for the Hounds on the Bobcat nine yard line. Ricky Gutierrez carried for six yards and again for three yards and the touchdown.

The extra point try was no good. Score was 35-0.

Rule had a glimmer of excitement on a 73 yard pass and run play that scored their only score with 8:36 left in the game. An attempt to pass for two points failed.

The remainder of the game was all the Greyhounds. The offense and defense was devastating.

For four quarters, the Greyhounds played with the intensity of a champion. The Hounds got lots of breaks of which they made most of them themselves. More important they know what to do with them and did.

Friday night, the Hounds will play Klondike in Sweetwater at 7:30 p.m. for the bi-district championship. I know you will want to be there to watch "another one bite the dust!"

The first official baseball team—the Knickerbocker Club of New York, organized Sept. 23, 1845—lost its first game 23 to 1. That first contest with the New York Baseball Club took place at Elysian Field in Hoboken, N.J., on June 19, 1846. Three seasons later the Knickerbockers became the first team to be outfitted uniformly, in blue and white suits. At the time of its first game, though, there were no standard baseball rules. Each team supplied its own ball, which often varied in size, elasticity and composition.

When asked about the team's weakness, Coach Rogers stated that not being in the playoffs would be a factor as this is the second time for Klondike to be in a bi-district contest.

The win over Rule for the Hounds was termed as a "great" win; however, Rogers has talked with his players and even though the Bobcat victory was indeed a "great" win, the team must now look to what's ahead of them and see how far they can make it into the playoffs.

Big Country Savings Makes New Plans

STAMFORD - Big Country Savings, an $86 plus million savings and loan association, announced today that the NOW account, an interest-bearing checking account will be available beginning December 31, 1980, at all offices in Stamford, Haskell, Quanah and Abilene.

The Federal Financial Institutions Examination Council recently stated that in addition to the individuals, eligible parties will also include sole proprietorships, which are owned and operated by a single individual who controls the entire beneficial interest of the proprietorship; school districts, operated primarily for educational purposes and are not operated for profit; and trusts in which the entire beneficial interest is held by one or more individuals.

John W. Harrell, president of Big Country Savings, stated "The NOW account works just like a regular checking account except that it will earn 5 1/4% interest. Federal law has prevented us from offering this type of account before, but new regulations will allow us to make it available beginning December 31, 1980."

"The ability to earn interest on a checking account is a tremendous benefit for the consumer," Harrell continued. "And we're very proud to offer this type of service. This account is one more way we can help our customers make every cent count."

Chief's Notes

By Dave Thompson
Knox City Chief of Police

Once again it seems like winter is here, snowstorm on Sunday definitely made us aware of what winter driving is all about. I've noticed that the drivers here in Knox City do a very good job of getting around on slick streets, last year's bad weather and this year's so far have resulted in very few accidents here in the city.

There are a few tips that we would like to pass on to motorists, tips that can do a lot to continue the trend of fewer accidents. One of the biggest violations that we have noticed is that of cars driving around with the windows blocked by snow. It's kind of hard to avoid accidents when you can't see them in the first place. One young man almost drove into the Patrol Car on Monday morning, he could see to his left, I happened to be approaching from his right and that was where he could not see because of blocked vision. I realize that it takes a few minutes out in the cold to scrape off windows, but if you stop and think about it, that few minutes could save a lot of time and expense later on.

A full gas tank can go a long way to increase traction on snow packed roads, the added weight of a full tank of fuel is sometimes all that is needed to get out of a slick spot. On Sunday night, I was able to bring several people back in to Knox City after their vehicles slid off roadways outside of town. The only reason that I was able to get to them and to get back out was because of the weight of a full gas tank. Most of the stalled vehicles that I observed were pickup trucks, some sort of weight in the back end would have helped them out.

It is a very good idea to have a set of booster cables in the trunk of your car, especially if your vehicle has an older battery installed. When traveling any distance, it is a wise idea to place some warm clothing or a blanket or two in the car, they might just come in handy in case of being stranded by accident.

As far as driving, please watch your speed and keep one important fact in mind: Just because the speed limit might be set at one speed, that does not mean that you have to drive at that speed. The speed limits are posted for normal safe operation of dry road surfaces, motorists can be cited for driving the speed limit if the conditions indicate that the speed is too fast for the existing conditions. Sounds odd, but that's the law and it is a good point to keep in mind.

One item before I close, there have been a lot of vehicles here in Knox City observed with either headlights or tail lights not working. It is very important to have all required lights working during operation in hours of darkness, and weather like this places an extra importance on that requirement. If you become stalled and have to leave your vehicle on the roadway, try to leave your emergency flashers going so oncoming traffic can see where your vehicle is. Just one more way to help in avoiding accidents here, and wherever you might be driving.

Study Club To Meet Thursday

The Knox City Study Club will meet Thursday, November 20, (today) at the Community Center at 2:30 p.m.

Speaker will be Mrs. Ben Smith of Hurst who will present a demonstration on creative arts.

FACTS & FIGURES

Last year, Americans consumed over 3.7 billion cases of soft drinks; this year is due to set another record. Men, women and children enjoy the refreshing, pleasant taste of soft drinks.

Recently, the Food and Drug Administration advised pregnant women to avoid caffeine-containing foods, beverages and drugs, or to use them sparingly. This was based on a recent study that found caffeine, when fed to pregnant rats, caused birth defects and delayed skeletal development in their offspring. Most soft drinks contain caffeine, but recently one manufacturer introduced a soft drink without caffeine or sugar.

Cotton Program Is Slated

The Knox County Crops Committee is sponsoring an educational program on cotton grading as it relates to marketing on Thursday, November 20, at 7:30 p.m. at the Knox County Courthouse in Benjamin.

According to a spokesman for the committee, the grading of cotton has been a concern of many farmers and they feel this program will help explain some unanswered questions. Dr. James Supak, agronomist from the High Plains, will conduct the program.

Committee members include Vernal Zeissel, chairman, Ray Escobar, Bob McWhorter, David Albus, Gary Schur, Clarence Brown, B.M. Brown, Kenneth Carroll, Elvis Blake, Waylin Hardin, Louis Baty, and Larry Smith.

A short meeting will be held prior to the cotton meeting at 7:00 p.m. in the Courthouse to discuss the past year, possible programs for next year and prepare for the next program building meeting on December 9 in Rhineland.

Local's Recipe Is Published

Knox City resident Mrs. Dorothy Williams recently submitted a recipe to "Potpourri of Cookery" and it has been published.

The recipe, "Chili Pie Texas Style", consists of 1 lb. ground beef, 1 large onion (chopped), 1 can cream of chicken soup, 1 can cream of mushroom soup, 1 can enchilada sauce, grated cheese and corn chips. Cotton Harvest Up Some

The cotton harvest picked up some momentum the past week, according to B.B. Manly Jr. of the USDA Cotton Marketing Services Office in Abilene. Activity increased in the area south and west of Abilene. Other areas have not received a freeze kill to date.

About 14,000 samples were classes during the week, bringing the season total to 22,760.

Local prices show little change from a week ago. Grades below 42, staple 31, are not in strong demand and sell for 28 to 31 cents over CCC loan values. Grades 42 or higher, staple 31 and longer, bring 35 to 37 cents above loan values. Demand is poor, and very little cotton is being sold. Mixed lots bring from 70 to 79 cents per pound.

Cottonseed prices paid producers ranged from $110 to $120 per ton.

The quality of cotton classed during the week ending November 4 showed some changes, probably reflecting increased ginning activity in the irrigated areas in and around Glasscock County. Grades were 68 percent light spotted, 20 percent spotted, and 9 percent white. Grade 42 was predominant at 47 percent. Grade 52 comprised 19 percent, grade 43 was 14 percent, and grade 41 was 8 percent. Fiber length was longer than the previous week. Staple 31 was predominant at 36 percent, staple 30 at 28 percent, and staple 32 was 19 percent. Around 9 percent of the samples were reduced in grade because of bark or grass. Micronaire readings continue very good with 96 percent in the premium 35 to 49 range.

John H. Waters, officer in charge of the Munday Marketing Service Office, reports the crop movement has been very slow, and only a few hundred samples were classed.

SCS Offers Tips On Terrace Maintenance

Building terraces helps control erosion-but how well terraces do their job protecting cultivated land depends on how they are farmed. Terraces can be built parallel or non-parallel, but parallel terraces are easier to farm and maintain.

In farming terraces, you can use either a one-way or two-way plow. A one-way plow for several years eventually creates steps from terrace to terrace. Because the soil removed between terraces cannot be replaced, the profile between terraces becomes hollowed out and terraces become benched.

If a two-way plow is used, the dead furrow or hollowed out portion is in the terrace channel where it can be smoothed out.

When using a two-way plow on parallel terraces plow the front slope of each terrace towards the ridge. Plow uphill the remaining area from the channel to the ridge of the next terrace. Plowing uphill tends to keep up with the downslope movement or the soil. On deep soils plowing can be done downslope to decrease the slope between terraces. Plowing downslope tends to bench the area between terraces and requires periodic raising or terrace ridges.

When using a one-way plow, plow so that dead furrows, or hollowed out spots, do not follow in the same place too often. Either raise the terrace ridge by back furrowing or deepen the channel by dead furrowing.

When working terraced land for either row crops or grain, operate all cutting tools such as disks, cultivators, or spring tooth harrows on the contour using the terraces as guidelines.

When row crops are planted in terraced fields it is often to the farmers advantage to sow small grain, high residue crops on the terrace. This serves two purposes: (1) to keep the terrace from blowing and, (2) to have a field that is strip cropped and contour farmed to keep from plowing down the terrace.

The main objective of terrace maintenance is to keep the base width and original height of the terrace as it was when the terrace was built. With contour farming and maintenance with a one-way plow or two-way plow this objective can be achieved.

FRESHMAN CLASS NEWS
By Greg Skiles

Last week, the freshmen decorated the hall for the Rule game. We had fun decorating the halls. This year, quite a few freshmen have suited up on the varsity team. They are Steve Rutherford, Dwayne Watkins, Junior Grindstaff, Chad Whitley and Chris Whitaker.

In English, this week, we are reading non-fiction books. We are reading history. We will read a book then make a bookcover describing the book. On the inside we will write a summary.

BAND NEWS
By Mindy Hutchinson

The Band will now prepare a halftime show for the coming week when the Greyhounds take on Klondike at Sweetwater. The band would like to say thanks to all the fans at the Rule game. It makes the football game so much more exciting when the fans partake in the spirit-raising chants. The Band last Friday night marched in a solid line across the field where they featured the drill team to "Hot Stuff" and proceeded to the 50 yard line to begin playing "Activity March" to a V-W step two. The band played the school song and marched off playing "The Horse". Go Hounds Get-A-Cougar. The Band is backing ya "All the Way!!!"

PEP CLUB NEWS
By Angie Bateman

The Pep Club elected their Miss Spirit last week. She is Mindy Hutchinson. Mindy has shown a lot of spirit this year! Congratulations Mindy! She was crowned at the Pep Rally by our Pep Club vice-president, Mary Albus. Other nominees for Miss Spirit were Maggie Curd, Sarah Jones, and Angie Bateman. The whole Pep Club has shown a great amount of spirit! Keep up the good work. We will really need the enthusiasm in the next games, so come to cheer the Hounds on to State!

Glaucoma Hits Many

In the United States alone, about 800,000 cases of glaucoma are undetected. Glaucoma, a rapidly destructive eye disease, is characterized by high pressure within the eyeball, says a booklet from the American Medical Association. This pressure causes deterioration of the optic nerve and can lead to blindness. The latest figures show that 12 per cent of all blindness in the United States results from glaucoma. With proper medical treatment, however, visual damage can be prevented.

Aluminum Can Recycling Looks Better and Better

The more you look at aluminum beverage can recycling, the better it's likely to look. That's because everybody benefits. In the last eight years thousands of civic groups and over a million individual can collectors have earned over $250 million through recycling. The public profits from a cleaner environment and aluminum companies get to put the used metal back to work.

Recycling also creates jobs. The recycling industry is growing fast. Since 1970, it has added an estimated 18,000 new jobs to the economy. These jobs involve buying, processing, transporting and remelting used cans into new aluminum. Moreover, recycling aluminum can help some municipalities generate extra revenue. Aluminum is the most valuable material found in quantity in municipal resource recovery systems. Recycling also helps to relieve overburdened landfill facilities.

Everybody benefits from can recycling because it creates jobs, conserves energy and raw materials and helps groups and individuals earn extra money.

Recycling conserves energy by saving 95 percent of the energy needed to make new aluminum from ore. In 1979, recycling helped one company, Alcoa, reduce its consumption of coal and bauxite, both valuable natural resources.

More and more Americans are collecting used aluminum cans. Last year alone over nine billion cans were turned in for recycling. That's almost six times as many cans as were collected in 1973.
