

Sales Tax Rebate Is Up For KC

AUSTIN, TEX.--State Comptroller Bob Bullock Thursday sent payments totaling $34.7 million to Texas cities with the one percent city sales tax.

The payments, the first of 1982 to the nearly one thousand cities who collect the tax, totaled $1.6 million more than these cities received in January of last year.

Knox City was among those towns in the state that showed a percentage increase rather than a decrease, with a net payment for this period of $3,643.81, reflecting a 10.38 percent increase, above last year's $3,301.26.

Munday's net payment was $2,231.87, decreasing a 27.76 percent from last year's comparable payment of $3,089.69.

Aspermont had an increase of 48.80 percent, receiving $4,787.04 as compared to 1981's $3,217.02.

Crowell's net pay was $1,531.57 this year, showing a decrease of -6.18 percent from last year's $1,632.37.

Haskell's $5,090.01 was -11.09 percent below last year's $5,724.60.

Paducah's net payment this period was $6,642.60, a whopping 264.92 percent increase over last year's $1,820.30.

Quanah had a -46.81 percent decrease, receiving $3,528.90 as compared to $6,634.76 last year.

Rochester showed no amount for this period, and none were shown for Benjamin, O'Brien, Goree, or Weinert.

Rule was down -48.94 percent with this period's net payment $892.54 as compared to $1,748.09 in 1981.

Seymour had an increase of 79.40 percent, receiving $5,146.93 this period with $2,868.89 last year.

Stamford had a slight decrease with its net pay of $7,594.33 a -1.16 percent below last year's $7,683.44.

The city sales taxes are collected along with the state sales tax by merchants and businesses and rebated monthly to the cities in which they are collected by the Comptroller.

County Show Goes On Despite Bitter Cold

The annual Knox County Junior Livestock Show opened Friday afternoon in the Livestock Barn in Munday with judging of sheep, poultry, and rabbits.

Action continued Saturday despite the cold, blustery weather with swine and cattle judging, and it took judge Don Ballard of Rochester only a little more than three hours to complete the cattle judging. According to officials, most of the traditional livestock numbers were down from last year, including a bout a 50 percent decline in the number of steer entries. Even though steer numbers were down from the previous year, the quality was reported to be as good as usual.

Grand champion steer honors went to Melissa Zeissel's Limousin steer with Ronnie Brown's Simmental steer in the reserve champion spot.

Karomy Sloan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Sloan, had the grand champion swine and Daniel Godsey had the reserve champion.

Brand Cude had the champion and the reserve champion breeding ewe.

Champion lamb honors went to Todd Thompson with reserve honors going to Trey Thompson.

Derek Cypert had the champion broilers with Wayne Hutchinson of Knox City winning reserve honors.

DOUG MEINZER
...over 30 years

Meinzer Retires From ASCS

Doug Meinzer of Knox City completed over 30 years of service with the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation (ASCS), effective January 9.

Meinzer was compliance field man for Knox County many years and at the time of his retirement was chief field assistant over two districts, which consists of 12 counties. This position was terminated on January 9 due to workload and budget reductions.

A graduate of Benjamin High School, he is married to the former Bobbie Floyd. They are the parents of three children, Judy Price of Cisco, Penny Baker of Amarillo, and Tyke, a junior student at Knox City High School. They also have four grandchildren, Scotty, Christi, Sandy and Timmy. Doug is a member of the First Baptist Church, the Knox City Fire Department, and the Knox City School Board.

ASCS officials noted that Doug has been a loyal and dedicated employee to ASCS and is missed by all his associates with the ASCS as well as the farmers and ranchers of Knox County.

Scouts Receive Honors

Three members of Troop 161 were inducted into the Order of the Arrow Lodge 35 in Wichita Falls January 9 and 10. Scouts receiving this honor were Michael Rauch, Tracy Carter and Cliff Hacker.

David Thompson, who was already an Order of the Arrow member, received his Brotherhood Vows of the Order and became a Brotherhood member.

To become an Order of the Arrow member, the scouts have to excel in camping and leadership. They are voted on by the members of the local troop. This is considered a great honor to be an Order of the Arrow member, according to Scoutmaster David Albus. These scouts camped out January 9 and 10 and survived the cold weather just fine by living up to the scout motto "Be Prepared".

Other O.A. members in the local troop are Andy Correll, James Evatt, Michael Albus, David Albus and Mike Oliver.

Auxiliary Is Doing Well On Project

Members of the Knox County Hospital Auxiliary heard president Peggy McGaughey report Monday night at the monthly meeting that $3,000.00 had been paid toward the purchase of the bedside monitor purchased in November. The balance is $193.20 which the auxiliary will pay off in the near future, Mrs. McGaughey said.

She also reported that jars placed in stores here, as well as in Munday, brought in contributions of almost $200.00 which was greatly appreciated by the auxiliary. Also, memorials are being made in favorable amounts, she said.

In other items of business, a bake sale was discussed but tabled for a later date, possibly near Easter.

Auxiliary members have volunteered their help for the upcoming Open House to be held at the Knox County Hospital following the current remodeling, Mrs. McGaughey said.

Mrs. Jerry Smith, president-elect and Thrift Shop chairman, asked the News to remind readers that the shop will not open on extremely cold days as the building is hard to heat. Otherwise, the shop is open Tuesdays through Saturdays.

Members were told that more volunteer help is needed at the hospital as well as some fill-in help at the Thrift Shop.

The next monthly meeting will be February 15.

City Cafe Reopens Under New Manager

City Cafe Reopens Under New Manager

Mrs. Davis plans to offer breakfasts which will be served at any time of the day, steaks, seafood, Mexican food, along with a choice of other foods on the complete menu.

The cafe will be open from 6:00 a.m. until 10:00 p.m. every day.

Other O.A. members in the local troop are Andy Correll, James Evatt, Michael Albus, David Albus and Mike Oliver.

Two School Board Positions Expiring

Our service makes Valley the top name in irrigation.

Your system's down. Your crops need water.

If you own a Valley system, you can rest easy. You know that no part is ever more than 48 hours away. Parts we don't stock we can order from our regional warehouse. Our priority parts program sees to it that critically needed parts get on a plane or truck from the factory, usually within hours, at no extra charge.

On top of that, the factory backs us up with a summer emergency response program that puts technical service people on call 24 hours a day, seven days a week, holidays included.

And, we send our servicemen off for intensive factory training. So when they go into action, they know what to do and how to do it, fast!

When people buy from us, they buy our service first and our equipment second. It's another reason why Valley dominates the field.

Crime Prevention Program Launched

COLLEGE STATION -- Crime--perhaps the most persistent and troublesome problem currently facing Texans--is under attack. Launching a new educational program in crime prevention is the Texas Agricultural Extension Service of the Texas A&M University System.

"Since preventing crime is the role of every good citizen, the new program will focus on actions that can be taken by both individuals and organized groups to reduce crime in their neighborhoods and communities," points out Dr. J. Fred Cross of Stephenville, Extension community development specialist and chairman of the Extension Crime Prevention Task Force.

The Extension Crime Prevention Program will focus on the following six areas: vandalism prevention, home security, farm security, personal protection, neighborhood and community watch, and prevention of con games and other frauds.

County Extension agents will be providing leadership in conducting local programs aimed at crime prevention, says Cross. Local law enforcement officials also will be involved.

Each program area is supported by visual aids and handout materials that have been developed with assistance from the Texas Crime Prevention Institute.

"Anyone interested in learning more about this new educational program should contact their local county Extension agent," adds Cross. "The programs are available to any group wanting to learn more about crime prevention."

JUNIOR CLASS NEWS

By Toni Hewitt
The first week in February, the Junior class will begin selling the chocolate bars and chocolate-covered almonds. This is the last major project we can have this year as Juniors.

It is time for the Juniors to start thinking about buying their class rings. On Wednesday, a ring salesman came to the school for those who wanted to order rings from the school. Everyone is excited about getting their rings. It has made a lot of us realize that next year we'll finally be SENIORS.

Bad Weather Puts Damper On Basketball

By Dale Wainscott
Bad weather and schools being closed down put a damper on basketball for Tuesday night, so the games were moved to Saturday night. We all enjoyed the days off but our basketball showed the non-practice.

Friday night, the Houndettes played Rochester winning 60-31. They played well for not getting to practice. High point girls were Delores Staford and Diane Helms with 10 each. Top rebounder was Stella Eddington with 12. Leading in assists was Mindy Hutchinson with eight.

Saturday night was not quite the same. Old Glory girls were more ready to play than we were. We stepped out and our press did not work well at all. This proves a point-the district teams are better prepared for us and out to get us. The score for the night was 41-32. High point this game was Sharon Roberson with 17. No one else was in double figures, though Mindy had eight and Patty and Delores both had six. Leading rebounder was Karae Beason with 13; behind her was Sharon with 10. Again Mindy led in the assist department with 10.

Our only game this week is with Paint Creek here Friday night. JV's will play Thursday against Aspermont at 6:30, here.

Eighth Grade Boys Win Big In Tourney

BY DANNY BALIS

On January 14, the eighth grade boys rolled over Haskell with a score of 34-26. Everyone did a spectacular job, overpowering the Indians throughout the game. After our victory we went on to beat Crowell in the championship game, 24-22. The battle was a thriller with the score tied at 22-22 with seven seconds left in the game, and with George Rocha at the free throw line. He sank both of his attempts, ending the game with an exciting victory.

District To Sponsor 1982 Essay Contest

The Board of Directors of the Wichita-Brazos Soil and Water Conservation District are sponsoring a Conservation Essay Contest for all students in grades nine through twelve in the Soil Conservation District. Schools eligible to participate are Goree, Benjamin, Munday, and Knox City. The directors' sponsorship of this activity is hoped to stimulate a greater interest and appreciation in the conservation of our natural resources.

The Directors have arranged to give some appropriate awards to the winners of the first three places in each school and the overall winner in the district.

MINUTES OF THE CITY COUNCIL MEETING

JANUARY 12, 1982

The City Council met in a regular session with Mayor Charles Auburg, Councilmen Carol Felts, Celso Gonzales, Larry Staggs and L.V. Worley present.

The minutes were read, corrected and approved. The corrected portion will read: "Carol Felts made a motion to adopt Ordinance No. 1088 requiring permits for building, remodeling, moving or removing structures or mobile homes in the city of Knox City. Celso Gonzales seconded the motion and four voted for the motion, thus it carried."

The Nightwatchman's expenses were discussed, but since he had not provided information and since he was not present, no decision could be made. The council agreed that no radio would be purchased at this time.

The Council was advised that Liability Insurance can be acquired through the Texas Municipal League at a 25% savings. The Council agreed to look into the program.

Larry Staggs made a motion to call a City Election and to hold it jointly with the School and Hospital Districts. Carol Felts seconded the motion and all voted for it.

The Council discussed whether to publish unapproved minutes each month or to delay publication until they are approved. Larry Staggs made a motion to publish the minutes unapproved. Carol Felts seconded the motion and all voted for it.

The Council discussed the parking situation at the bank and verified the fact that the City's Traffic Ordinance covers the situation and agreed to paint stripes across the driveway to assist the bank.

Larry Staggs gave a report on the Ambulance Service. He feels that Jackie Young is doing a fine job in handling the paperwork and that she and her assistants are doing a fine job of providing emergency services.

Craig Williams' letter of resignation was read.

Police Department applicants were discussed. The Council was advised that Eddie Elmore of Rochester has applied. He is inexperienced but willing to acquire certification. Jerrell Blackman of Seymour has applied. He is a certified officer working for the City of Seymour. John Turner has applied. He is a previous employee of the City and is presently working for the County of Haskell. The Council agreed to meet again January 19 and make a decision at that time. The meeting was adjourned.

April's Advice

BY APRIL STAMPS
County Extension Agent

HANDLE CREDIT HISTORY 'WITH CARE' - INVESTIGATE, UP DATE

Operating on credit has become a way of life with today's high cost of goods and services and the dangers of carrying large sums of money. So handle your credit history "with care" - investigate it and keep it up to date.

This is especially important if you're planning to apply for new credit or have been turned down for credit unexpectedly.

Start with local credit-reporting agencies, such as the credit bureau. These agencies keep a record of how consumers use credit or misuse it.

If you've ever used credit, a local or nearby credit bureau probably has a file on you. This file is the major source of your credit history, unless you live in a small town where you've established credibility and intend to apply only for local credit.

Your credit bureau is important because most potential creditors don't send separate inquiries to each creditor - they merely request information from the credit bureau.

You have a right to see your file, or at least a summary of the information in it.

If you have been denied credit within the last 30 days, this service is free. If not, a fee will be charged for the report. Fee amounts vary from bureau to bureau.

Understanding the credit bureau's job is important, too. They are privately owned agencies who do not determine credit worthiness. That is the job of the creditor - only the creditor decides to grant or deny credit.

Credit bureaus simply provide the facts in your file - and they charge the potential creditor for the service.

If you have no credit history, some creditors may interpret the lack of credit history almost as negatively as they would poor credit use. So it's a good idea to establish credit and be sure the record is on file with the bureau.

Telephone Tax Drops One Percent

SAN ANGELO--Telephone users throughout the country got at least one gift for Christmas that isn't the wrong size or the wrong color.

On Jan. 1, 1982, the federal excise tax on telephone service dropped from two percent to one percent.

Nationwide, the one percent reduction should save telephone customers approximately $516 million, according to estimates by the U.S. Independent Telephone Association.

The tax was imposed by Congress as a "temporary" measure during World War II. Congress voted in 1970 to gradually eliminate the tax, reducing it one percent per year beginning in 1973 and continuing until 1982 when the tax would be eliminated.

However, the Fiscal Year 1981 Budget Reconciliation Bill, signed by former President Jimmy Carter on Dec. 5, 1980, contained a provision maintaining the excise tax on telephone and typewriter service at the two percent level during 1980. And this year's tax bill further postpones the phase out, keeping the tax at one percent until Jan. 1, 1985.

Grazing Systems Produce

Can you imagine stirrup high grass with only a few scattered oak, elm, hackberry or cottonwood trees to break the landscape? The early settlers of the Rolling Plains of Texas were able to look to the horizon and view this sight every day. Now it seems that those lush grasslands have been replaced, in many cases, with low quality grasses and dense stands of brush.

Judy Fairchild, range conservationist for the USDA, Soil Conservation Service in Knox City says that the low quality grassland can be changed for the better here.

"Deferred grazing systems provide the rest needed for tall, vigorous range grasses," Fairchild said. "Deferred grazing is the removal of livestock from certain parts of the ranch while other parts are being grazed at various seasons," she explained. She says that deferred grazing allows rest for range grasses such as little bluestem and sideoats grama so they can develop a good root system and produce bigger plants. Bigger plants and new plants from seed mean more forage for grazing.

"Pastures now grazed yearlong can be easily introduced into a grazing system," Fairchild said. "Developing a grazing system for a ranch allows the deferred grazing needed for more grass production." Studies show other benefits from a planned grazing system are:

- renewed vigor of desirable forage plants
- increased seed production of desirable plants
- reduced erosion and healing of eroded areas
- improved livestock distribution
- reduced travel and labor due to fewer groups of livestock
- increased livestock production
- increased wildlife numbers

The number of grazing systems in use is infinite. A farmer or rancher must know what his land produces before he can determine which grazing system is best for him and his livestock, Fairchild stated. A landuser can continuously graze his land year round, but this is not as effective for improvement as a system where livestock are concentrated into fewer herds and rotated among pastures.

An example of a deferred-rotation grazing system is the Merrill four pasture system. "In this system," she explains, "there are four pastures and three herds of livestock. The three herds graze in three of the four pastures for four months, then they are rotated so that one of the grazed pastures is now rested and the previously rested pasture is now grazed. Other types of systems are from two pastures to 36 with one or two herds of livestock."

There are many systems that can be used and a good manager that properly applies a grazing system will benefit by an improved grass stand, increased livestock production and improved range condition. Whatever the range capabilities, a farmer or rancher can develop a grazing system on his land that will result in the improvements desired. For more information on grazing systems, readers should contact the USDA Soil Conservation Service Office.
