WASHINGTON (AP) — Lyn Nofziger, President Reagan's former political director, was sentenced to 90 days in prison today and fined $30,000 for illegally lobbying administration officials after he left the White House.

U.S. District Judge Thomas Flannery said Nofziger could remain free pending an appeal of his three felony convictions of contacting former colleagues on behalf of private clients within a year of leaving President Reagan's staff.

Nofziger could have been sentenced to two years on each of the three counts. $30,000 was the maximum cumulative fine the judge could have assessed.

Flannery imposed a complicated sentence of two to eight months' incarceration for each of the counts but then suspended all but 30 days of each of the sentences so that Nofziger will have to serve only 90 days if his appeal is denied.

The judge rejected the defense plea that Nofziger be sentenced only to a short period of unsupervised probation.

Before he was sentenced, Nofziger stood before the judge and said he wanted to reiterate "my belief that despite my conviction I have done nothing ethically, morally or legally wrong."

"Like other honorable people, I have gone through life making mistakes, doing stupid things. I doubt that there is a person in this room who hasn't. But I am not a criminal and I think the record of my life will bear out that statement."

Flannery ordered Nofziger to pay the $30,000 fine within 30 days.

The judge also ordered that after his imprisonment Nofziger be placed on two years' probation. The judge agreed to a defense request that Nofziger be sent to a minimum-security federal prison.

Before he was sentenced, Nofziger told the judge, "I know there are those in this courtroom who believe that I should be sent to prison unless I come here today and plead guilt, express remorse and ask forgiveness."

But, he added, "I cannot do that if I am to be true to myself and to those hundreds of fine people all over the country who have supported me in recent months because they believe I am an honorable man."

Still, Nofziger said, "I do have remorse. I am distressed beyond measure. I trusted in others rather than relying on myself. I am distressed if I have embarrassed my family and my friends and my president."

He had been found guilty Feb. 11 of violating the Ethics in Government Act.

Ask Us

Q. — Are all city water customers eligible to vote in the upcoming bond election related to city utility lines?

A. — No. Legal residents of the city, registered to vote, will vote in the bond election. Some rural residences are served by city water, but these persons will not be eligible to vote since they do not live within the city limits.

In Brief

Grass fire

BIG SPRING, Texas (AP) — A grass fire that was apparently ignited by a city workman's welding torch singed 250 acres of park land and damaged a water tower, city officials say.

A large area of Scenic Mountain State Park and a city water tower were ablaze just after noon Thursday after sparks from a workman's torch hit the dry grasses, said City Public Works Director Tom Decell.

Decell said workers were building a new water tower adjacent to two 1 million-gallon tanks and the park when the fire started.

Seek court costs...

Defendants reply to 'non-suit' filing in prison lawsuits

Attorneys representing Scurry County and Cogdell Memorial Hospital in lawsuits filed here attempting to stop construction of a state of Texas prison have filed motions for dismissal with prejudice or for summary judgment.

Brad Crawford filed the motions in 132nd District Court Thursday afternoon in response to plaintiffs' motions for a non-suit which were filed last week.

The motions for non-suit, filed by plaintiffs acting as their own attorney, asked that the suits be dismissed "without prejudice" and that each party pay their own court costs.

In the filing Thursday, defendants seek both court costs and a legal guarantee that no new suits are filed by asking that the suit be dismissed "with prejudice."

In addition, defendants claim that the plaintiffs had no authority to file the motions for non-suit since plaintiffs were still represented by counsel.

Defendants claim that the defense counsel's motion to withdraw from the case does not comply with provisions of civil procedure and that plaintiff attorney George Thompson of Lubbock did not state "good cause" See LAWSUIT, page 9

Two Snyder banks ranked nationwide

Two Snyder banks have gained national recognition by being ranked among the top 100 community banks in the United States.

The two financial institutions—Snyder National Bank and West Texas State Bank—were listed in the March 14 issue of the national publication, American Banker.

Snyder National ranked 39th in the nation while West Texas State Bank was listed as No. 65. The rankings were based on the return on average assets for the first nine months of 1987.

Just last month, the two Snyder institutions were listed among the 50 most profitable banks in Texas by the Texas Business magazine. That ranking placed them among the top two percent of the banks in the state.

The new national rankings include only seven banks in Texas. Arp State Bank was 25th on the list while First State Bank of Athens was No. 36. Other Texas banks in the national rankings were Citizens Bank of Rusk, First State Bank of Three Rivers and First National Bank of Albany.

Snyder National President Rex Robinson again said he was pleased that Snyder National was noted for its strength and stability.

"It is a tribute to our officers, directors and employees as well as a loyal customer base."

Bill Parker, president of West Texas State Bank, also praised his bank's staff and customers. "Just like I said last month, Snyder is a great place to conduct business. This recognition reflects positively on all the financial institutions here."

Both Parker and Robinson pointed to good income from agriculture this fall as helping improve the economic outlook of the area.

The two bank presidents also pointed toward construction of the prison which is due to begin soon, predicting a positive impact on the economy. At the peak of construction, some 350 employees are expected to be working on the $15 million project.

Scoutarama set Saturday at park site

The annual Scoutarama for Scurry County Boy Scout, Cub Scout and Tiger Scout troops is slated Saturday at the Towle Park National Guard Armory.

The event will be from 1 until 4 p.m. Saturday with setups to begin Friday night.

In addition to scouting displays, the Scoutarama features also the annual Pinewood Derby finals for local troops. Some 15 finalist cars are to be entered.

The scouting booths will be set up inside the armory. Tickets will be on sale at the door, priced at $1.

Organizer for the event is Mark Musselman, Lone Buffalo District activities director.

Sequence of plays for Saturday noted

The sequence of plays was announced Friday for the UIL one-act play area contest for AAAAA schools to be held in Worsham Auditorium Saturday beginning at 1 p.m.

Six schools will compete and the public is invited at no charge to view all plays.

After the start, play times are approximate. Under UIL rules, the production may not exceed 40 minutes and a 10 minute break is allowed between plays.

No one will be admitted once a performance has begun. The play sequence is:

—1 p.m.: San Angelo Central performing "The Actor's Nightmare."

—2 p.m.: Sherman High School, "The Crucible."

—3 p.m.: Lubbock Monterrey, "I Never Sang for My Father."

—4 p.m.: Midland Lee High School, "The Madwoman of Chailiot."

—5 p.m.: Amarillo High School, "Peer Gynt."

—6 p.m.: Keller High School, "The Royal Game."

Contest sponsors note there may be a 30-minute break after the 3 p.m. performance.

The judge Saturday will be Warren Watson, a New York-based actor and former drama instructor at Dallas Community College.

All six schools are to arrive in Snyder Friday night with rehearsals to begin at 8 p.m. and to resume at 8 a.m. Saturday.

Two winners will be chosen to advance to regional competition scheduled on the campus of Texas Tech University.

Contest organizers have been Jerry Worsham, Jim Rambo and Donna Browning.

The competition will follow the area one-act play contest for AAAAA schools here Friday. Snyder High School's "The Corn is Green" is an entry in that event.

The SDN Column

By Roy McQueen

The feller on Deep Creek says, "When everything seems to be working perfectly, something is probably wrong that you don't yet know about."

Keeping tabs on our neighbors: In any discussion, perspective is important. Such was the case of a story told by Bill Beckham in the Wink Bulletin.

A fellow was having his first session with his shrink. The psychiatrist put a check mark on the blackboard and asked him what that mark made him think of.

"It makes me think of sex," the patient replied. "The doctor drew a circle on the board and asked, 'What do you think of that?'"

"Sex," the patient said. Then the shrink drew two squares and made the same inquiry. Again "sex" was the patient's response. "You are sick," the counselor concluded. "You are obsessed with sex." "Me obsessed?" the patient said, "You are the one drawing those dirty pictures."

It was Gene Dow in the Colorado City Record who made the following observations: "Dream castles are built by neurotics. They are inhabited by psychotics, and the rent is collected by psychiatrists."

Larry Crabtree, in the Vernon Daily Record, hates to spend money—especially on advice. Lamented Crabtree: "Just think, if I had gotten the right kind of financial advice, I could have gotten some of the money being paid to the IRS."

Airport project to resume soon

Winston Field airport renovation work will resume on May 1 and should be complete within 150 days, with an expanded version of the project to include the paving of the east-west runway, county officials said following Wednesday and Thursday meetings with the project engineer.

Don McCrary of the San Antonio engineering firm that is overseeing the work was unable to meet with the county commissioners court as planned on Monday morning, but County Judge Bobby Goodwin noted Thursday that the meetings were advisory and no court action was necessary because commissioners earlier this year approved expanding the project if enough money was left.

The court was advised last week that the $1.7 million federal grant would be adequate to include the east-west runway.

Work was stopped because of the weather earlier this year, with the main runway leveled and paved and a portion of the taxiways and hangar areas.

Ethical guidelines necessary

CHICAGO (AP) — "It's Over, Debbie," a doctor's essay on the mercy killing of a patient, has focused debate on euthanasia much like the Karen Ann Quinlan case did in the 1970s, says a prominent medical journal's editor.

The newly galvanized debate over euthanasia will be fruitless, however, unless it results in guidelines enabling doctors to deal with ethical dilemmas, Dr. George Lundberg wrote for today's Journal of the American Medical Association.

"Such discussions should not be confined to whispers in doctors' dressing rooms and hallways," says the editorial in JAMA, which started the debate by publishing the unsigned essay Jan. 8.

In addition to the editorial, today's issue of JAMA included two commentaries on the essay and excerpts from 18 of the more than 150 letters the journal received.

The essay's author described injecting a potentially lethal dose of morphine into a 20-year-old hospital patient dying of ovarian cancer.

The physician, a gynecology resident awakened in the middle of the night to attend the woman, indicated the patient was a stranger, but that her pain and her plea, "Let's get this over with," were moving.

"I believe the stark nature of the essay and the ambiguities within it, when coupled with a profession and public ready to talk about dying in greater detail, produced this massive national response," said Lundberg.

"Debbie" crystallized attention (on euthanasia) for this decade much as the Karen Quinlan case in the previous decade," he added.

The parents of Miss Quinlan, who lapsed into a coma in 1975, obtained court permission in 1976 to withdraw life-support systems. Miss Quinlan never regained consciousness, and died nine years later.

In his editorial, Lundberg sought to guide the course of the euthanasia debate by identifying six types of euthanasia.

Two banks says they may merge

DALLAS (AP) — Texas American Bancshares Inc. and National Bancshares Corp. officials say they have begun preliminary merger discussions that may require federal assistance.

Fort Worth-based Texas American and San Antonio-based National Bancshares issued separate statements Thursday, labeling the talks as "very preliminary."

Bank officials would not say how much might be required from the Federal Deposit Insurance Corp.

"We are not at the FDIC with a gun at our heads," said Joseph M. Grant, Texas American chairman.

Richard W. Calvert, chairman of National Bancshares, declined to say why his bank believes it needs FDIC assistance.

Grant said officials of the two banks, which began discussions last fall, believe FDIC assistance is needed to attract capital from investors.

If the two banks were combined, they would have $8 billion in assets with 64 subsidiary banks and branches. Grant estimated the companies could save from combining duplicative support facilities.

Dear Abby

Busy Honeybees Sometimes Bumble as They Buzz About

By Abigail Van Buren

© 1988 by Universal Press Syndicate

DEAR ABBY: This is in response to "Delaware Beekeeper" and "Larry of Lakewood, Ohio."

The honeybee will indeed land on soft-drink cans and bottles and get into them. I know several people who were stung in the mouth from a honeybee that got into their soft-drink can.

True, honeybees will sting only in defense of their hive or if they are threatened, but when a honeybee gets into someone's mouth and feels pressure, it will sting to protect itself. I am a beekeeper, and I know the difference between a yellow jacket, wasp and a honeybee.

At work, at lunchtime we have to keep our soft drinks covered because the bees swarm on top of any open can.

I would also like to add that the flight of the bumblebee is not only from flower to flower. If you go to a swimming pool or watering hole in the summertime, if there is a beehive in the area, you will see bees collecting water for their hive.

Also, the honeybee does not gather honey from flowers as Larry stated; bees gather pollen and nectar from flowers and then make the honey.

BIG AL,
LOUISIANA BEEKEEPER

DEAR AL: Read on:

DEAR ABBY: I was appalled to read in your column that great numbers of people wrote to say that bees get a bad rap because people mistake wasps and yellow jackets for bees.

Who cares? I wish you'd have focused on the real issue — that being stung on the inside of the mouth is a potentially fatal situation!

When I was stung on the tongue (at the age of 24), I was terrified of the very real possibility that my throat would swell closed, and I would die of asphyxiation!

So again I say, I don't care if it's a bee, wasp or whatever. It's terrifying to get an insect in one's mouth, feel it sting, then have to pull the stinger out of one's tongue or other oral tissue; worse if the stinger is too far down to reach.

JULIANNE TANSKI,
LAKEWOOD, CALIF.

DEAR JULIANNE: Let's put the cap on this stinging issue with a final word from a reader with a sense of humor:

DEAR ABBY: Your "It was a wasp, not a bee column" reminds me of this story: A bee, wearing a yarmulke, met another bee who asked, "Why are you wearing that skullcap? You're not Jewish."

The bee replied, "I know, I just don't want anyone to mistake me for a WASP."

GEORGE H. RIESSER,
P.H.D., HOUSTON

DEAR ABBY: You stated that when a man dies, he leaves only one widow — the woman to whom he was married at the time of his death. Well, my ex-husband died after we were divorced and neither one of us remarried. Can I be identified as a widow? Yes!

Did you know that the government considers ALL ex-wives who were married to a man for more than 10 years his "widows"? That is, provided they have not remarried. Furthermore, ALL of those widows are entitled to collect his Social Security benefits!

It is possible for one to six "widows" to collect from the demise of a no-good fickle philanderer.

RESPECTABLE WIDOW,
NEWPORT BEACH, CALIF.

DEAR WIDOW: Who would dream that after a marriage had been legally dissolved by divorce, an ex-wife could be considered a widow! Surely not I. Obviously I couldn't have been more wrong — as far as the folks at Social Security are concerned.

Hunts, banks nearing settlement

DALLAS (AP) — Both sides in the suits between the Hunt brothers and their bank lenders over $1.5 billion in disputed loans are near a settlement and have asked a federal bankruptcy judge to put a hold on Placid Oil Co. reorganization hearings, attorneys say.

"Negotiations are at the stage where the major parties have come to what I call a handshake deal," Placid attorney Henry W. Simon said Thursday. "That deal is not in writing, and the hand-shake is not now binding, but it does represent at least a conclusion of an intensive series of all the Placid-related issues."

Neither Simon nor First RepublicBank Corp. attorney Paul Wickes, key negotiators for the case, would discuss the substance of the negotiations. The Dallas Morning News reported today.

Astro-Graph

By Bemice Bede Osol

April 9, 1988

In the year ahead you should enjoy greater material security than you have in the past. There are strong indications that you will derive income from more than one source.

ARIES (March 21-April 19) You may be a bit tense and overactive today. Be careful you don't lose your cool around the wrong people; your dignity and reputation could suffer. Know where to look for romance and you'll find it. The Astro-Graph-Matchmaker set instantly reveals which signs are romantically perfect for you. Mail $2 to Matchmaker, c/o this newspaper, P.O. Box 91428, Cleveland, OH 44101-3428.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20) It's best to have your own plans today. If you don't, you may find yourself under the domination of another person, participating in involvements that you'd rather not.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20) Try to avoid the company of a person today with whom you've had a misunderstanding that isn't resolved. If you're not, you won't want to cross swords again.

CANCER (June 21-July 22) If you and your mate have a disagreement at home today, don't air it in public later. It will make your audience feel very uncomfortable.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) When attempting to do difficult tasks today, it's important to be methodical. If you're not, you could have a lot of aggravation with precious little accomplishment.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) Usually you are an extremely conscientious person, but today you could get a bit careless regarding something you are asked to do by another; you might do a poor job.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23) There is a possibility that you and your mate will take opposing views on even minor issues today. If you see this coming, for the sake of peace, start being more agreeable.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) Your powers of observation are very keen today, especially your critical faculties. Don't speak out of turn and wound someone's feelings.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21) This is one of those days when money could burn a hole in your pocket. For the sake of your budget, it's best to stay away from stores that have expensive goodies.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) Feelings might be a bit intense at home today. It's best to yield on minor points so you avoid locking horns with a family member or in-law.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 19) Today, don't pretend you're knowledgeable about a subject about which you really know very little. Your facade will be pierced and you could end up being embarrassed.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20) Attend to matters personally today that affect your material security. It may be more convenient to delegate them to others, but they won't do as good a job.

Snyder High School Athletic Director David Baugh has hired former Big Spring linebacker coach Jack Dorsett as his defensive coordinator.

Dorsett is also completing the Snyder goes into the game hitting .264 in district play; .306 for the season. Otto leads the batsmen with a .486 season mark but Gartman's .412 paces the district effort. Garcia is hitting .333 in district play, Echols .313 and Otto .267.

Skin ailment has many causes

By Peter H. Gott, M.D.

DEAR DR. GOTT: The doctor told us that the swelling and pain in our daughter's ankles and knees is from erythema nodosum. He said it will run its course in about 12 weeks and won't recur. Is he correct?

DEAR READER: Erythema nodosum is an inflammation of the skin, usually in the area of the shin bones, that is a consequence of certain infections. These infections range from the innocuous, such as strep throat, to the serious, including tuberculosis, ulcerative colitis and fungal lung inflammation. Some forms of drug allergy show up as erythema nodosum; sulfas, iodides and birth-control pills have been reported to cause this reaction.

Therefore, the answer to your question depends on the cause of your daughter's skin inflammation. As much as a year of penicillin therapy may be necessary to cure strep-induced erythema nodosum. Other forms may clear without treatment, only to recur again and again — until the underlying disease is cured. Erythema nodosum isn't so much a disease in its own right as it is a reflection, a sign of inflammation elsewhere in the body. Unless your daughter's doctor has established a specific diagnosis and suggested therapy, I'm afraid that you will be disappointed after 12 weeks and he will end up wishing he hadn't made such a rash prediction.

DEAR DR. GOTT: While in labor, I had sharp pains in my thigh. Now, two years later, my leg will just buckle, then get very tender and sore. An orthopedic surgeon gave me a cortisone shot in the bursa, which made it worse. Is this a nerve, muscle, bursa or joint problem? Should I go to a sports-medicine clinic?

DEAR READER: Your question suggests that you may have developed a pinched nerve in your back, possibly as a result of a slipped disc. In my opinion, you need either a myelogram (a special X-ray of the spinal column) or a CT scan (another type of spinal X-ray).

I'd forget the orthopedic speciality, including a sports-medicine clinic, and ask your doctor to refer you to a neurosurgeon. If you do have a slipped disc, you may be a candidate for surgical repair or removal of the structure between two of your backbones. Once a disc herniates, it can compress surrounding nerves, causing pain and numbness — and, later, weakness — that can be permanent if the abnormality is not corrected.

If you have questions about MEDICAL SPECIALISTS, you can get answers in Dr. Gott's new Health Report on the subject. Send $1 and your name and address to P.O. Box 91369, Cleveland, OH 44101-3369. Be sure to ask for the Health Report on Medical Specialists.

Hijackers threaten to blow up jet; leave Iranian airport

NICOSIA, Cyprus (AP) — A Kuwaiti jumbo jet carrying 55 people took off from an Iranian airport today after Arab hijackers threatened to blow it up, Iran's news agency said.

The captain said he did not know where the plane was going, the Islamic Republic News Agency reported.

IRNA said the Kuwait Airways Boeing 747 left at 2:28 p.m. (6:58 a.m. EDT) after workers at Mashhad airport in northeastern Iran removed obstacles authorities had placed on the runway to keep the plane on the ground.

The plane was hijacked Tuesday on a flight from Bangkok to Kuwait and forced to land at Mashhad.

The gunmen — believed to number about six — have released 57 passengers since Tuesday. One freed passenger described the hijackers as determined and "willing to die."

All the remaining hostages aboard the plane were believed to be Arabs, including more than 30 Kuwaitis, three of them members of the emirate's royal family.

The hijackers' main demand is freedom for 17 pro-Iranian terrorists jailed in Kuwait for bombing the U.S. and French embassies there in 1983.

"Iranian officials have told the hijackers that all the airports in the world will be closed to them," the agency said. The report was monitored in Nicosia.

Authorities at the Syrian-policed Beirut Airport in Lebanon said they would not allow the jetliner to land.

"We are not going to receive it," said a control tower official who spoke on condition he not be identified. He said all runways would be blocked if the pirates attempted to bring down the jet.

IRNA said that before their departure, the hijackers radioed a message to the emir of Kuwait saying he must comply with their demands or they would blow up the plane. They claimed to have rigged the plane with explosives and also threatened to kill a passenger.

Airport authorities immediately agreed to remove obstacles to takeoff, the agency said.

Earlier, the hijackers brought a man to the top of the stairway and fired three warning shots, then tossed a grenade out the door, the agency reported. It did not say whether it exploded.

The captain was quoted as saying a passenger was forced into the cockpit and beaten, IRNA reported.

It said the captain gave that report after being queried about a wail of pain heard over control-tower radio. It was not clear whether the man shown in the stairway was the beaten passenger.

The incident occurred after the hijackers demanded engineering-starting equipment, two days' food and a clear runway, and Iran refused, granting them only food for one meal, IRNA said.

After the hijackers released some of the hostages on Thursday, the jet was refueled, but only after the hijackers fired five shots at security men, IRNA reported.

IRNA had quoted the hijackers as saying they decided to leave because they did not trust Kuwait's government nor its efforts to negotiate a peaceful end.

for withdrawal and failed to provide for the substitution of other plaintiff counsel.

District Judge Joe Evins of Edinburg must rule on the various motions pending before the court. Judge Evins was appointed to hear the case after 132nd District Judge Gene Dulaney stepped down.

On March 11, Judge Evins had combined the five cases into one and had set April 15 as the deadline for all motions to be filed.

Attorneys for other defendants—the city, industrial foundation, the state of Texas and the Texas Department of Corrections—have similar summary judgment motions pending seeking dismissal "with prejudice."

Attorneys estimated that combined court costs incurred by defendants to be approximately $10,000. This includes filing fees and costs of depositions, but does not include attorney fees.

The first of five suits were filed Dec. 9 and questioned various incentives offered the TDC for location of a 1,000-bed prison in Scurry County. The prison will employ 250 persons with an annual payroll of $6.7 million.

Construction is due to begin April 18—the same day a groundbreaking ceremony and joint civic club luncheon will be held in honor of the TDC.

Plaintiffs in the suit are Jeanne Bullard, Gloria Griffin, Jonisue Stiff, Ava Lopour, Joe Lopour and Louise Thompson.

Officials look for identity, clues in fatal car bombing

FORT WORTH, Texas (AP) — Investigators were trying to identify the body of a man who was trapped inside his flaming car after a bomb blast that scattered debris over a two-block area.

Authorities late Thursday were sifting through the wreckage of the car that exploded in flames, burning the body beyond recognition.

Witnesses told police that the victim had parked his car and crossed the street to order food at a barbecue stand when two men in another car pulled up beside the vehicle, threw an object into the car and sped away.

"It all happened so fast," said a woman at the Truck Box Barbecue, a mobile food stand.

"I saw the white car take off and then just a few seconds later, the other car exploded. Glass was flying. Metal was flying," she told the Fort Worth Star-Telegram.

"The really amazing thing is that no one else was hurt," said homicide Sgt. Paul Kratz.

"Just the way that the car is damaged leads you to believe it would be in the passenger compartment," Kratz said. "The force was on the interior of the car, not under the hood."

There explosion shortly before 2:30 p.m. Thursday sent a plume of smoke skyward that was visible from three-quarters of a mile away, authorities said.

"At this point, we don't know what type of bomb it was. Obviously it was a pretty spectacular explosion," Kratz said.

The blast near the intersection of Loop 820 and North Beach Street ripped the roof off the car and dropped it 100 feet away, said Fire Department spokesman R.C. Knight.

"It's charred black, the roof is gone and all the doors are blown open on it and there are no tires on it — they've all burned off," Knight said.

Kratz said the car was rented on February 25 and the name of the person who rented the car is

Bishop College to receive funds

DALLAS (AP) — Bishop College will receive student aid funds from the U.S. Department of Education for the current year, virtually assuring the financially troubled black school's ability to remain open through the spring term, officials say.

But department officials said it is unlikely that Bishop will be allowed to receive federal funds next year.

Federal funds for this year could total $500,000, Michael Goldstein, a Bishop attorney, said Thursday.

"This will have a tremendous impact psychologically for the college. It will be galvanizing," he said.

The money should allow school officials to meet a bankruptcy-court mandate that supporters raise $50,000 every two weeks and pay the majority of operating expenses through May 25, the end of the semester, Goldstein said.

Kenneth Whitehead, acting assistant secretary for postsecondary education, said he decided to reverse an earlier decision to deny the funds to Bishop because the college had fulfilled its obligations to its students by providing educational programs this year.

"Our principal reason for this decision ... is our desire to allow aid to which students are entitled, to flow to those students," Whitehead told the Dallas Morning News in a phone interview.

Eggs linked to salmonella outbreak

CHICAGO (AP) — Raw or undercooked eggs — even from perfect and sanitized shells — may be spreading the salmonella bacteria in the Northeast, says a federal researcher who fears the problem may be spreading.

Even sound Grade A eggs, which are screened for defects and cleansed outside with chemical disinfectant, appear to be implicated in the sickening of hundreds of people in recent years, the researcher said Thursday.

Ice rink melts; show cancelled

FORT WORTH, Texas (AP) — A meltdown at the Tarrant County Convention Center left Disney's World On Ice in puddles and hundreds of tiny Mickey Mouse and Snow White fans out in the cold.

After a Tuesday opening that attracted more than 6,000 fans to an ice version of a Snow White adventure, convention center officials were forced to cancel two performances Wednesday when a blown fuse melted the 80-by-200-foot rink.

A cast of Disney characters — including Doc, Happy, Sleepy, Grumpy, Sneezzy, Dopey and Bashful — got an unscheduled day off.

"It's unbelievable," said Melvin Morgan, executive director of the convention center. "This has never happened to us before — or to them."

Greg Ericson, regional marketing director for the show, estimated ticket sale losses "could be anywhere from $40,000 to $200,000. I think there may be some kind of insurance covering this, but I'm not positive."
