Texas Gov. Bill Clements' expected arrival in Snyder Wednesday around 2 p.m. will be the latest in a series of GOP rallies he has attended since Tuesday in a line headed this direction from the Dallas-Fort Worth metroplex.

Clements' entourage is traveling through the area by automobile.

On Tuesday, Clements stumped for fellow Republicans in Granbury, Stephenville, Eastland and Breckenridge.

Wednesday morning, he was scheduled to be in Abilene for a 9 a.m. visit at Republican headquarters there and a tour of the Taylor County Courthouse.

Around noon, he was to be in Sweetwater prior to his arrival here. From Snyder, he will be traveling to Lamesa, a spokesman said.

In Snyder, his first stop is to be at the Snyder Daily News for an

Avion trailer rally begins

The fall rally for the Texas unit of the Avion Travelcade Club begins Wednesday at the Scurry County Coliseum with registration scheduled from 2 until 4 p.m.

Wednesday morning, more than 60 travel trailers had already arrived with approximately 100 now expected. The Avion group held its fall rally in Snyder in 1986 also and more than 80 trailers were here for that event.

During their stay, club members will be touring both the Diamond M Museum and Scurry County Museum, the Cornelius-Dodson House and will play a golf tournament at the Western Texas College course.

A range of activities are planned also at the coliseum through the end of the rally Sunday.

On Wednesday, following the afternoon registration, a special program is slated at the coliseum from 7 until 9 p.m.

On Thursday, the day will begin at 7 a.m. with coffee and doughnuts served.

From 9 until 11 a.m., registration will continue along with a sign-up for the local tours.

Members will register at that time also for the golf tournament as well as tournaments planned for dominos and bridge.

Tours of both local museums are slated from 1 until 4 p.m. Thursday and, at 7 o'clock that night, entertainment and prizes are planned at the coliseum.

On Friday, breakfast will be served to members from 7 until 9

Dukakis: response probably 'too late'

By The Associated Press
Michael Dukakis admitted that "perhaps I responded too late" to rival George Bush's attacks as the Democratic nominee shrugged off a double-digit deficit in new polls. The Republican contender renewed his charge that Dukakis lacks the necessary experience to govern the nation.

With less than two weeks remaining until Election Day, Dukakis insisted in a late-night television interview Tuesday that there was still time for him to overtake front-runner Bush.

But when asked shortly after the program about polls showing him trailing by 13 and 14 percentage points, the Democratic nominee simply replied, "Forging ahead."

In the 90-minute interview on ABC's "Nightline," questioner Ted Koppel asked Dukakis what Bush had done to "nail your hide to the wall thus far." The Democratic nominee failed to challenge Koppel's assessment of the White House race before answering the question.

"Two things," Dukakis said.

"The Bush campaign made a very careful and deliberate decision way back in the spring to run a tough, attacking, negative campaign. And they've been doing it ever since and perhaps I responded too late, perhaps I should have been out there attacking or counterattacking from the beginning."

He also criticized Republican advertising and charged Bush with running a campaign "loaded with distortions."

The vice president, targeting a must-win Dukakis state, told an audience in Lima, Ohio, that the election is a referendum on peace and prosperity and that Dukakis is too inexperienced to be president.

"We cannot gamble America's future on a president who hasn't had one single day's experience in national defense matters or foreign affairs," Bush said.

Bush was delivering a speech on economics today in Detroit before traveling to South Dakota and Montana. Republican vice presidential candidate Dan Quayle was in Florida, campaigning for Senate candidate Connie Mack III and touring Miami's Little Havana community.

Dukakis was meeting with Hispanic leaders in Denver before traveling to Illinois while running mate Lloyd Bentsen was stumping in Montana and California, the major electoral prize with 47 votes.

Polls released Tuesday suggested that the Democratic ticket faces a difficult task in its quest for the White House.

Event to honor surgeon

A reception for new surgeon Dr. Thomas M. Aycock is scheduled Sunday at Cogdell Memorial Hospital from 2 until 3:30 p.m.

The event is planned to welcome Aycock to the medical staff at Cogdell and the public is invited. Sponsors for the reception are the Cogdell Memorial Hospital Auxiliary.

"We're delighted to have Dr. Aycock join our staff and we look forward to a lasting relationship with him," noted Cogdell Administrator Tom Hochwalt.

The board-certified surgeon has implemented daily office hours here in facilities formerly used by Dr. Mark Pate.

He also serves on the medical staff at Rolling Plains Memorial Hospital in Sweetwater. He moved to Sweetwater last June.

He recently left active military duty with the U.S. Air Force, achieving the rank of colonel. From July of 1987, he served as chairman of the department of surgery at the regional hospital serving Carswell AFB just outside Fort Worth.

Prior to that, he has served with USAF medical facilities in Germany from 1985-87 and in Japan from 1982-85.

He also served an earlier stint of active military duty and was on the naval hospital ship the U.S.S. Repose during tours in South Vietnam from 1968-69.

Aycock graduated from the ## Local drug case has new appeal pending

The 11th Court of Appeals in Eastland has been ordered by the Texas Court of Criminal Appeals to reconsider an appeal filed by a Scurry County defendant found guilty here July 21, 1987 of delivery of a controlled substance.

In its finding, the court instructed the Eastland court to reconsider if parole law instructions given to an 132nd District Court jury here might have influenced the sentence handed down against Mozelle King, 47.

The ruling by the Texas Court of Criminal Appeals to remand the case back to the lower appellate court was by a 7-2 decision.

During a two-day trial here, the jury heard testimony from a confidential informant that he had purchased the drug Dilaudid from Mrs. King. She was found guilty of four counts of delivery and given a 45-year sentence.

Prosecuting the case was District Attorney Ernie Armstrong and District Judge Gene Dulaney presided.

The feller on Deep Creek says, "Wisdom only comes with experience and experience only comes with time."

There are numerous Snyder residents who are former college football players. John Boren and Tommy Echols played at Hardin-Simmons. David Holt, Ted Crenwelge and Milton Ham were Horned Frogs. David Baugh and Tommy Doyle played at Texas Tech, and Mike Line played at ACU.

Mike Jordan is from SMU, Pete Greene and Davis Sisson played at Sul Ross and Bill Moss was with the Mean Green of North Texas.

All had their moments of glory, but chamber manager Bill Moss has the undisputed distinction of getting the loudest roar from the crowd.

Moss played high school football in Seymour and decided on North Texas State because of the promise of getting to play. Play he did until a body block early in the second game put him out for the remainder of the season.

After surgery, Moss was in a cast up to his waist and mobility was difficult at best. The doctors decided that he could attend the homecoming game that afternoon in Denton against Hardin-Simmons.

Moss found him a good seat on the North Texas bench. He was enjoying the warm fall afternoon and the Eagles' halftime lead over the visiting Cowboys.

The halftime show was terrific. The famous Cowboy band had made the trip along with the white horses that performed with the band. It was college football at its best.

Because of the leg cast, Moss decided to stay on the bench at halftime to enjoy the pageantry of college football. His leg was propped up and movement was almost impossible.

Along the sidelines, Moss watched as the Hardin-Simmons horse stopped directly in front of him. He watched helplessly as the show horse raised its finely-groomed tail.

His leg cast was no longer clinical white. The crowd loved it, and Moss did get the biggest ovation of the afternoon.

Ira slates Halloween activities

The Ira Halloween Carnival will be Saturday in the old gymnasium.

The Ira PTA will be serving chili, beans, nachos and sandwiches from 5:30 until 8 p.m. in the cafeteria.

Carnival booths will be open from 6 until 9 p.m., at which time "Put 'n on the Hits" will begin, followed by a coronation ceremony.

Booths will include a Spook House and a PTA sponsored cake walk. Some of the other booths include: kindergarten, needle in the haystack; first grade, fishing booth; second grade, trick or treat; third grade, shoot out; and 12th grade, dime throw.

Ask Us

Q. — How many times a week or month does the Flight for Life helicopter come to Snyder?

A. — Cogdell Memorial Hospital officials report that for August the emergency helicopter made five flights here, none in September and four for October, the latest being Oct. 24.

In Brief

Copters crash

YUMA, Ariz. (AP) — Two Marine Corps helicopters crashed in a desert gunnery range during a training exercise, and the 10 people believed aboard were presumed dead, the Pentagon said today.

It was the second crash involving military helicopters this week.

The aircraft were being used in a "troop insertion exercise" with crews using night-vision goggles when the crash occurred, said Army Maj. Linda Dumoulin, a Pentagon duty officer.

Four people were on a CH-46 helicopter and six on a UH-1 copter.

Soviet shuttle

MOSCOW (AP) — The Tass news agency said today the Soviet space shuttle will blast off on its maiden flight Saturday morning, making an unmanned trip into space designed to break the U.S. monopoly on reusable spacecraft.

"The Energia system is to blast off at 6:23 (a.m.) Moscow time on Oct. 29," Tass said in its brief dispatch.

GNP note

WASHINGTON (AP) — The U.S. economy grew at a modest 2.2 percent annual rate from July through September, the weakest performance in almost two years, the government reported today.

The Commerce Department blamed the weak growth rate on the impact of the summer drought, a deterioration in the country's trade performance and a drop in government purchases of defense equipment.

Jury ordered KKK to pay $1 million

ATLANTA (AP) — A state lawmaker vowed to seek wages, guns and even Confederate flags from 11 Klansmen to collect his share of a $1 million award to civil rights marchers pelted with rocks in nearly all-white Forsyth County.

A federal jury found the Ku Klux Klansmen and two white supremacist groups responsible for disrupting the Jan. 17, 1987, march north of Atlanta, and awarded $948,650 in damages to 49 demonstrators who filed suit.

"It is a message to the Ku Klux Klan nationwide that this can happen to you," said state Rep. J.E. "Billy" McKinney, one of the demonstrators.

DEAR READERS: According to the National Adolescent Student Health Survey, says USA Today, most teens-agers know how AIDS is transmitted, but they don't know how to avoid getting a sexually transmitted disease. More than 11,000 eighth-, ninth- and 10th-graders were surveyed. The facts are frightening:

— More than half do not know that taking birth control pills won't protect them from a sexually transmitted disease.

— Nearly four out of every 10 students don't know an adult they could talk to if they thought they might have a sexually transmitted disease.

— Half are either unsure or believe — wrongly — that washing after sex reduces chances of AIDS infection.

About sexual behavior:

— 94 percent of girls and 76 percent of boys say it's acceptable to say no to sex.

— 62 percent of boys and 43 percent of girls believe it is acceptable for people their age to have sex with someone they've dated for a long time.

— 18 percent of boys and 4 percent of girls say it's acceptable for people their age to have sex with several people.

So, now that we know the problem, what's the solution? Education. In the home. In the schools. In the churches. Ignorance is the enemy. What our young people don't know can not only hurt them — it can kill them. Being "careful" is not enough. The best preventative is abstaining from sex until one reaches the time in his or her life when there is one partner only!

her. Yet when she reads in the newspaper, "An elderly woman was killed in an auto accident. Mrs. Brown was 67 years old," she feels old.

Abby, why do the newspapers call these people "elderly"? Why not just say, "Mrs. Brown was 67 years old"? People are living much longer today, and some people in their 70s and 80s are in good health, still active and productive, and are not "old."

I hope you print this. Maybe newspaper editors and reporters will get the message and quit referring to people in their late 60s as "elderly."

OFFENDED
IN ARCADIA, CALIF.

DISAPPOINTED

DEAR DISAPPOINTED: You heard wrong. I have clearly stated that I am not opposed to using live animals for medical and biomedical research if the animals are treated humanely. However, I do oppose using animals to test cosmetics and household products.

Low-calorie opening

By James Jacoby

A conservative player should not consider opening the bidding with East's hand, even in third position. The values are too meager, and it is not even certain that the heart suit is what East would like partner to lead if South became declarer. Still the deed was done and it turned out to be devilishly effective. Over East's one heart, South bid one spade and West jumped to three hearts. North supported spades and South guessed right to go on to game. Although it may be right to play a game contract, look how the bold one-heart bid by East made the best defense easy.

The king of hearts lead told East that West had the queen as well. So East overtook the first trick with the ace to lead back his singleton club. Now declarer was up against it. He could tell that East would win the spade ace and then put his partner in with the heart queen for a club ruff to set the contract. So South took a reasonable shot at making his contract — he played East for the diamond queen. Alas, when he took the diamond finesse to his jack in hopes of shedding the losing heart from dummy on a good diamond, West won the queen and gave his partner a club ruff. The defenders still had a heart trick and the spade ace coming to them for down two.

TO THE VOTERS OF SCURRY AND BORDEN COUNTIES OF TEXAS

When the incumbent Republican District Judge Gene L. Dulaney recently came by to "personally ask" you to vote for his re-election as 132nd District Judge, did he:

Tell you he was the Republican candidate seeking re-election...

...and explain why the political card he gave you says he is independent and mature;

...and explain that he would be 69 years of age on November 19, 1988;

...and explain if he were not able to complete his four year term, the Republican Governor would appoint his replacement and who that may be.

Tell you that he had prior judicial experience...

...and explain that it was as municipal judge for the city of Snyder, Texas, primarily hearing traffic tickets, before his current term.

Tell you that in January, 1985, the month he was sworn into office, he purchased a new desk, chair, and credenza from a furniture store in Lubbock, Texas, for a total of $5,995.00 for the 132nd District Judge's office.

...and explain that he was conservative and that was the best deal he could get for the taxpayer's money.

...and explain that the auditor signed two separate checks, one for the new desk and credenza dated February 25, 1985, for $4,880.86 and one for the new chair dated March 18, 1985, for $1,114.00 both payable to Cagle's in Lubbock.

...and explain that by separating the two purchases the COUNTY did not have to take competitive bids for purchases over $5,000.00. See: public records, B.J. Bartels, County Auditor, Scurry County Courthouse, 573-7121.

Foshee talks to TI-IN class

Don Foshee, an employee of NASA until 1984, visited the TI-IN astronomy class Sept. 8. Since he was one of the program developers he told the class first-hand how everything began.

According to Foshee, a Mrs. Pat Tinsley first approached him and his employee in 1984 about their independent satellite service and asked them if they could help her begin an educational program over satellite. They said yes and that was the beginning of TI-IN.

The TI-IN satellite travels in an elliptical orbit that ranges from 23,000 miles to just 100 miles out from Earth. Because of the difference in signal strength across the U. S., different sites have different size dishes which pick up the signal.

Since TI-IN began in 1984, it has grown rapidly and now has over 500 sites across the continental U. S.

Both Ira and Hermleigh schools subscribe to TI-IN.

Ten percent of the Hmong who fought for the United States in Southeast Asia were killed, a percentage which, if they had been Americans, would have put some 270,000 names on the Vietnam Veterans Memorial in Washington rather than the 58,156 that are inscribed there today.

DR. GOTT

Peter
Gott, M.D.

DEAR DR. GOTT: I was told I had peripheral neuropathy due to alcohol. I was advised to stop drinking (which I did) and take Elavil. After two months I noticed no change in my back and lower leg pain. Am I on the right track?

DEAR READER: Alcohol abuse is a common cause of peripheral neuropathy, a malfunction of nerves in the arms and legs, marked by numbness, tingling and weakness. You are certainly on the right track.

Stopping alcohol is an important step for you to take. If you were drinking heavily, you may have become vitamin-deficient as a consequence of the alcohol abuse; make sure that you take a vitamin supplement because a deficiency can produce neuropathy.

There are other causes of neuropathy; these include diabetes and neurological diseases. Therefore, I think that you should check with your doctor for examination and testing.

I should add that Elavil, an anti-depressant, has been reported to cause peripheral neuropathy. In addition, alcoholics must be very cautious about taking mind-altering substances; it's too easy to substitute one form of drug abuse for another. I'd discuss this situation with your doctor. You need further testing and, in my opinion, you ought to consider stopping the Elavil.

DEAR DR. GOTT: Moments after my son's birth his respirations accelerated to an alarming rate. He was diagnosed with Group B strep and developed pneumonia. He recovered and the doctor says he will have no lasting effects, but he's only 18 months old and has had bronchitis three times. What happened to him?

DEAR READER: Infections — even with strep — are common in newborns. Your child was treated appropriately; I doubt that he will have any long-term consequences of his pneumonia.

However, you will want to have him checked regularly by his pediatrician, who will be able to advise you about preventing future health problems. Children with neo-natal pneumonia are not necessarily prone to bronchitis.

DEAR DR. GOTT: I take fertility drugs. Because of my mixed-up cycle, I probably won't know when I become pregnant. I also take tetracycline for acne and I know that it does terrible things to babies' teeth. Should I stop the tetracycline?

DEAR READER: The use of any drugs, including the antibiotic tetracycline, is potentially hazardous during pregnancy. Discuss this situation with your obstetrician before you either discontinue or begin taking medicine. Perhaps a topical cream or other skin treatment would be more appropriate for your acne while your fertility status is in doubt.

For more information, I am sending you my Health Report "Consumer Tips on Medicines." Other readers who would like a copy should send $1 and their name and address to P. O. Box 92368, Cleveland, OH 44101-3369. Be sure to mention the title.

New bill is trying to restore balance

WASHINGTON (AP) — Gordon Gekko, the ruthless insider trader in the movie "Wall Street," had a motto — "Greed is good" — that to many encapsulated the philosophy of freewheeling corporate merger speculators.

Members of Congress, after passing the first legislative response to the wave of insider trading scandals that erupted two years ago, are hoping to replace the motto with another — "Greed is dangerous."

"Greed and fear are competing emotions, but until now there has not been a proper balance between the two. I think now the fear of apprehension is going to be at least as great as the lure of greed," said Rep. Edward J. Markey, D-Mass., chief sponsor of the bill and chairman of the House subcommittee that oversees the securities markets.

The bill passed the House 410-0 last month and by a voice vote in the Senate early Saturday morning in the waning hours of the 100th Congress.

Its key provisions would: —Increase the maximum criminal penalties for insider trading from five years in jail to 10 years, and boost fines from $500,000 to $2.5 million for a company and from $100,000 to $1 million for an individual.

—Hold firms liable to fines for the actions of their employees if the firms "knowingly or recklessly" fail to detect and prevent insider trading.

—Authorize the Securities and Exchange Commission to offer a bounty to tipsters of up to 10 percent of any fine collected.

—Codify the right of investors to sue inside traders if they lost money by trading in the same securities and at the same time as insiders.

—Permit the SEC to issue subpoenas and investigate insider trading on behalf of foreign countries, with the idea that foreign countries would offer reciprocal privileges to the United States.

The SEC and the industry had been pushing for a legislative definition of insider trading, which until now has been defined by regulators and the courts.

But, to win the support of House Energy and Commerce Chairman John Dingell, D-Mich., the bill leaves insider trading undefined.

Dingell believes a written definition would in effect become a road map to evasion, providing defense attorneys with loopholes.

Markey predicted the most immediate effect of the bill will be to change the attitude toward insider trading, a crime that is both hard to detect and difficult to prove.

"Jail is the greatest fear these white collar criminals have," Markey said. In addition, firms, because of the new liability provisions, "can't be like the three monkeys and say just because they are deaf, dumb and blind they can get off," he said.

Western Texas College

In reference to Pete Greene's public statement that I had spent $33,158.23 from Jan. 1, 1985 through Sept. 30, 1988, compared to $8,962.22 spent by Judge Holt from Jan. 1, 1981 through Dec. 31, 1984, I would like the public to be advised that:

Beginning in 1987, as the result of a joint agreement among the Commissioner's Court, the County Auditor, the District Clerk and the District Judge, approximately one-half of the salary of Deputy Clerk Carolyn Harrington was transferred from the District Clerk's budget to the budget of the District Judge. Mrs. Harrington, in addition to her other duties, acts as my Court Administrator and secretary.

That transfer from one budget to another accounts for an increase of $22,017.00 in my budget. This was merely a transfer from one budget to another and did not cost the taxpayers one cent extra.

WTC golfers in tourney

TEXARKANA, Ark. - Coach Dave Foster's Westerners will be among the teams competing in the Texarkana Fall Golf Invitational, scheduled to open here Thursday at Texarkana Country Club.

The 36-hole tournament will continue through Friday. "Almost every junior college team in the state will be there. It should be a real good tournament," said Foster.

Dusters to open season

WACO - Western Texas College's Lady Dusters open their 1988-89 basketball season by taking on Wharton at 6 p.m. in the Highlissie Classic here today.

The three-day event is being held at Highlander Gym on the McLennan Community College campus. Western plays Kilgore at 4 p.m. Thursday and McLennan at 8 p.m. Friday.

Underclassmen vie again

Snyder underclassmen football teams have a near full slate of games scheduled Thursday.

The local junior varsity will play Abilene Cooper at the Lee Complex in Abilene at 7 p.m. Also on the road will be the local seventh grade teams, which play in Sweetwater at 4 p.m. and 5 p.m.

A freshman B-team game between Snyder and Sweetwater has been cancelled.

At home Thursday, Snyder eighth graders host Sweetwater at 4 p.m. and 5:30 p.m.

Tiger players probable

Coach David Baugh reported that backup quarterback Toby Goodwin will likely miss the remainder of the season with a severely sprained ankle but other players who were injured in last week's ballgame are probable to play this Friday.

Snyder entertains Pecos at 8 p.m.

Robert Talamantez, Isrrael Hinojos, Tommy Lane, Tracy Odom and Benny Miller all went out of the ballgame with various injuries. Hinojos, Lane, Odom and Miller have all seen limited workouts and all five have been listed as "probable" by Baugh.

La Russa selected manager of year in American League

OAKLAND, Calif. (AP) - Tony La Russa got two of the three championships he was looking for this season. Now the Oakland Athletics' skipper has picked up a bonus title: American League Manager of the Year.

La Russa outpolled Boston manager Joe Morgan in close balloting to win the award announced Tuesday by the Baseball Writers Association of America. He received 103 points to 89 for Morgan and 37 for Sparky Anderson of the Detroit Tigers.

The 44-year-old La Russa also won the award five years ago when he led the Chicago White Sox to 99 victories and the AL West title.

"This is an award for the organization," said La Russa. "I'm pleased for myself, but what the writers are saying is that the Oakland A's did a good job."

La Russa piloted the Athletics to an Oakland-record 104 victories, the divisional crown and a four-game sweep of the Red Sox for the AL pennant. The A's lost the World Series in five games to the underdog Los Angeles Dodgers.

"If you lose the World Series, you should be very upset. I don't want my players to say 'We made it and 24 other teams were watching us on TV.' I was, until today, very upset," he said with a smile.

Under La Russa, the A's improved by 23 victories in 1988.

Ladies rip Big Spring

Snyder's Lady Tigers rallied from behind to defeat Big Spring here Tuesday and set up a key volleyball match with Andrews this weekend.

The Tigers trailed 14-9 in the first game and 13-8 in the second before pulling out both, 16-14, 15-13, to overcome the Lady Steers. Now locked in a three-way tie for third place in the District 4-4A standings, Snyder kept its playoff hopes alive with the win.

"It couldn't get any closer, huh?," said Coach Patty Grimmer, whose Tigers improved to 18-11 overall and 8-5 in district play.

"In both games, it was a total team effort. When we had trouble, people went in and did their job. Everybody played. It's nice to know that all of them can come in and take over," said Grimmer. "I thought all of them did a good job."

Serving for points were Teena Brazier 12, Angie Brewster 6, Melody Pickering 5, Rhonda Echols and Holly Fuller 3, and Sandra Morin and Cindy Srna 1.

Brazier served out the last seven points - including four aces - in the first game. In the second contest, Snyder trailed 9-3 before rallying to 9-8, then fell behind 13-8 but came back again.

It couldn't be much closer in the battle for second place in the district, either. Pecos has wrapped up the 4-4A crown. Tuesday's 15-4, 15-12 win over Fort Stockton put the Lady Eagles at 13-0 in league action and 27-2 for the season.

The win over Fort Stockton

also aided Snyder, as it pushed the Panthers from second to third place in the standings.

Snyder hopes to call on Pecos for help again Saturday, when the Eagles take on one of two obstacles left in the Lady Tigers' way to the playoffs. Pecos plays Sweetwater, currently alone in second place with a 9-4 record.

A Sweetwater defeat, coupled with a Snyder win over Andrews - the Tigers' other obstacle - would force a playoff for second place in the district.

The start for Saturday's varsity match has been rescheduled for noon at the high school gym. At 11 a.m., junior varsity teams will play in the high school gym and freshmen teams will play in the junior high gym.

The rescheduling comes about because some students are involved in band activity.

morale, quipped "I guess us oldtimers (Chuck Noll of Pittsburgh and Don Shula of Miami) have to rally together."

Landry underwent a crossfire of criticism for a third down call late in the Eagles' game that led to quarterback Steve Pelluer grounding the ball.

Landry said he thought the ball was on the 30 yard line instead of the 23. The penalty took Dallas out of field goal position and the Eagles scored the game winning touchdown after the punt.

As it turned out, Pelluer rolled out the wrong way on the third and three play.

Landry said with his young team he knew there would be down periods this year.

"I knew a valley would be there," he said. "I just wish I could take all the responsibility for our losses. I know where we are and where we are going. Things are under control. The solution is in sight.

"I said it would be a three-year program and it will be a three-year program. We've had an unfortunate dip but we've played exceptionally well in six of eight games. The losses have been disappointing but we're a better team than we were last year."

Landry said the Cowboys were relegated to a spoiler role for the rest of the season.

"We want to play to win because all the teams we play will be contenders," Landry said. "It will be a struggle and I'd think a 4-4 record would be a reasonable goal considering the caliber of teams. We are just seven points per game away from being a good football team."

Landry underlined his commitment to youth by cutting 13-year veteran linebacker Mike Hegman.

"It wasn't easy to do because I think a good deal of Mike," Landry said. "But I feel we need to go with our younger players."

Hegman's brightest moment as a player came when he stole the ball from Pittsburgh's Terry Bradshaw and ran 37 yards for a touchdown in Super Bowl XIII.

The Cowboys host the Phoenix Cardinals at noon Sunday. The oddsmakers made Dallas field goal favorites.

"We'll have to score in the high 20s to stay with the Cardinals," Landry said.

The most points Dallas has scored this year was 26 against Atlanta.

"We're fighting the down syndrome right now but it's something we have to overcome," Landry said. "I had hoped we would be in much better shape after the first half of the season but that doesn't change our potential."

also aided Snyder, as it pushed the Panthers from second to third place in the standings.

Snyder hopes to call on Pecos for help again Saturday, when the Eagles take on one of two obstacles left in the Lady Tigers' way to the playoffs.

Pecos plays Sweetwater, currently alone in second place with a 9-4 record.

A Sweetwater defeat, coupled with a Snyder win over Andrews - the Tigers' other obstacle - would force a playoff for second place in the district.

The start for Saturday's varsity match has been rescheduled for noon at the high school gym.

At 11 a.m., junior varsity teams will play in the high school gym and freshmen teams will play in the junior high gym.

The rescheduling comes about because some students are involved in band activity.

morale, quipped "I guess us oldtimers (Chuck Noll of Pittsburgh and Don Shula of Miami) have to rally together."

Landry underwent a crossfire of criticism for a third down call late in the Eagles' game that led to quarterback Steve Pelluer grounding the ball.

Landry said he thought the ball was on the 30 yard line instead of the 23. The penalty took Dallas out of field goal position and the Eagles scored the game winning touchdown after the punt.

As it turned out, Pelluer rolled out the wrong way on the third and three play.

Landry said with his young team he knew there would be down periods this year.

"I knew a valley would be there," he said. "I just wish I could take all the responsibility for our losses. I know where we are and where we are going. Things are under control. The solution is in sight.

"I said it would be a three-year program and it will be a three-year program. We've had an unfortunate dip but we've played exceptionally well in six of eight games. The losses have been disappointing but we're a better team than we were last year."

Landry said the Cowboys were relegated to a spoiler role for the rest of the season.

"We want to play to win because all the teams we play will be contenders," Landry said. "It will be a struggle and I'd think a 4-4 record would be a reasonable goal considering the caliber of teams. We are just seven points per game away from being a good football team."

Landry underlined his commitment to youth by cutting 13-year veteran linebacker Mike Hegman.

"It wasn't easy to do because I think a good deal of Mike," Landry said. "But I feel we need to go with our younger players."

Hegman's brightest moment as a player came when he stole the ball from Pittsburgh's Terry Bradshaw and ran 37 yards for a touchdown in Super Bowl XIII.

The Cowboys host the Phoenix Cardinals at noon Sunday. The oddsmakers made Dallas field goal favorites.

"We'll have to score in the high 20s to stay with the Cardinals," Landry said.

The most points Dallas has scored this year was 26 against Atlanta.

"We're fighting the down syndrome right now but it's something we have to overcome," Landry said. "I had hoped we would be in much better shape after the first half of the season but that doesn't change our potential."

tion. "We certainly tried to keep the young people in mind and hope that Cleveland can go forward and straighten up the situation," said Liberty Superintendent Allen Brown. "It was a very lively discussion, and we want to help the superintendent do the best he can through a very difficult period." Brown and six other area superintendents met behind closed doors to discuss the situation. In addition to announcing the probation, the committee said it was upholding the Cleveland school board's decision to forfeit its last two games of the season. The fighting erupted Friday after the visiting Lumberton Raiders snapped a 21-game losing streak, dating to 1986, when an 82-yard scoring drive pushed them ahead of the Cleveland Indians 13-12. The Lumberton quarterback had dropped to his knee to ground the ball and run out the remaining seconds of the game when he was attacked by Cleveland players, witnesses said. As many of 20 players from both teams joined the melee in the middle of the field. No one was seriously injured. Cleveland school board members held an emergency meeting Sunday and voted to forfeit the remaining games with Liberty and Silsbee.

To The People Of Scurry County:
Pete Greene misrepresented the facts about the award granted me in the case styled "George J. Lee and wife Marjorie Lee vs. Cloyce Talbott, Par Producing and Patterson Petroleum, Inc." in his ad attacking Judge Gene L. Dulaney. The $5,000 award granted me was not for alfalfa alone. It was also for fence and land damage and was much less than I asked for.

Cloyce Talbott,
Par Producing and Patterson Petroleum, Inc.

No. 15047
IN THE DISTRICT COURT
SCURRY COUNTY, TEXAS
132ND JUDICIAL DISTRICT

FINDINGS OF FACT AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

The above-captioned cause came on for trial before the Court without a jury on April 4, 1986. All parties and their attorneys were present. After considering the pleadings, the evidence, the argument and briefs from counsel, the Court, in response to a request from Defendants, makes its findings of fact and conclusions of law as follows:

FINDINGS OF FACT

- 1. On or about February 12, 1983, defendant Cloyce Talbott and his employees entered upon the property of George and Marjorie Lee without their permission.
- 2. Cloyce Talbott collected oil on said property by drilling holes thereon.
- 3. In the process of said drilling and collection operations, Cloyce Talbott inflicted the following damages on the property:
  - a. Destruction of existing fence.....$500.00
  - b. Bulldozing and removal of dirt.....$750.00
  - c. Destruction of land's cultibility resulting in breaking, leveling, and reseeding of land.....$2,000.00
  - d. Loss of alfalfa crops.....$5,000.00

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

- 1. Cloyce Talbott was acting individually, as Par Producing Company, and as an authorized representative of Patterson Petroleum, Inc.
- 2. Cloyce Talbott was the first taker of abandoned oil thus acquiring title thereto.
- 3. Defendant collected the abandoned oil as a trespasser and not as lease operator and is therefore liable for damages resulting therefrom being the sum of $8,250.

SIGNED this 10 day of June, 1986.

Frenzied teenagers go wild at party

SAN ANTONIO (AP) — Eight people were injured and one teenage girl was arrested when a frenzied crowd estimated at 1,500 ran wild at an autograph party for the Puerto Rican rock group Menudo and tried to tear clothing, shoes and earrings from their idols.

Three of the injured were taken to San Antonio hospitals Tuesday night and two were kept overnight, police said.

One young Menudo performer said he became so scared during the melee at Ingram Park Mall that he began crying and another said he crawled like a commando beneath the stage to escape the screaming girls.

The rampaging teens overpowered the 15 mall security guards, forcing authorities to call in about 30 San Antonio Police officers to help quell the disturbance, authorities said.

Menudo has sparked similar displays of teen affection, which have been termed "the Latin version of Beatlemania," during its international tours.

None of the Menudo members was hurt, and the group plans to go on with a scheduled Thursday night performance here, a group spokesman said.

Store owners closed their doors when people began trampling on others who were pushed to the floor during the tumult, witnesses said.

"We just pulled the gates down and we were safe," Gordon's Jewelers assistant manager Ed Iturralde said.

It took 10 to 15 minutes for police to disperse the crowd and get the six band members safely out a back door to a waiting van that sped them to their hotel, Sgt. Pete Velasquez said.

A 15-year-old girl was arrested on a charge of disorderly conduct and was taken to the county juvenile detention center, Velasquez said.

"She wouldn't let go of one of the Menudo group members," he said.

Angelo Garcia, 11, the youngest member of Menudo, said the band was caught off-guard by girls storming the stage area.

"I was super-scared," Garcia told the San Antonio Light later.

"When all the girls jumped on the stage. The choreographer thought at first I was laughing, but I had started to cry."

Sergio Gonzales, 15, a group member who has been in Menudo for three years, said they had encountered the same kind of activity in other cities.

"It's happened in New York and even in El Paso, but never in San Antonio. The security wasn't prepared," he said.

Gonzales said he lost a $75 pair of sunglasses and his favorite T-shirt was ripped from his body.

One enthusiastic fan tried to take off the boots from another group member, Ruben Gomez.

Soviets break ice in final effort to free whales

ABOARD THE ADMIRAL MAKAROV (AP) — Two Soviet icebreakers flying U.S. and Russian flags worked through the night to smash through an ice ridge blocking the path to freedom for two whales trapped in ice off Alaska for nearly three weeks.

Rescuers, meanwhile, said Tuesday they succeeded in moving the California gray whales around a shoal that had stymied progress for three days.

As darkness fell, the mammals were only about two miles from the water opened by the Soviet ships.

Rescuers planned to use a tractor-like device propelled by pontoon augers today to cut the relatively thin ice remaining between the whales and the icebreakers' farthest advance.

The whales will probably be free by late this afternoon if things go as well as they did Tuesday, said rescue coordinator Ron Morris of the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration.

Morris, Rear Adm. Sigmund Petersen of NOAA and Capt. Jim McClelland of the U.S. Coast Guard flew to the icebreaker Admiral Makarov around noon as it waited about 25 miles northeast of Barrow.

After a perfunctory briefing, the icebreaker's skipper said he was ready to begin work immediately.

"We shall commence just now," said Sergei Fedorovich Reshetov. "In five minutes, our engines will be ready."

The 440-foot icebreaker, an American flag flying above its frost-encrusted superstructure, quickly cruised through thin ice to the pressure ridge that is the last significant barrier to freedom. In just a few hours, the ship had battled almost three-fourths of the way through the ridge, a jumble of ice blocks as big as small houses.

With only about 100 yards to go, the Admiral Makarov, which draws about 40 feet of water, nearly ran out of room. McClelland said he thought the ship nudged the seabed from time to time.

The plan was for the 496-foot Vladimir Arseniev, an ice-breaking cargo ship which draws only about 20 feet, to finish the job. Rescuers, however, did not think the smaller ship could go all the way to the whales.

The Admiral Makarov ran its bow up over the ice, shuddering only slightly as its 20,000 tons broke through thicknesses of 6 to 8 feet.

Spidery cracks raced in all directions outward from the ship as it battered its way through ice blanketed with snow bearing the tracks of polar bears.

The vessel repeated the maneuver again and again, leaving millions of dirty ice cubes as rubble.

"It's a magnificent ship," Petersen said as he watched the icebreaker work.

"With the wind going as it is, it couldn't be better," McClelland said.

Rescuers counted on a steady east wind and prevailing currents to carry debris left by the icebreakers out of the whales' path.

Meanwhile, chain saw-wielding Eskimos cut a detour for the whales to swim around shallow water through which the animals had refused to pass.

By cutting breathing holes in the deeper water away from the shoal, the Eskimos were able to lure the whales about two miles from the place where they were found. A third whale disappeared Friday and is believed dead.

The icebreakers had been returning to their home port of Vladivostok when they were diverted, said Alexander Patzevich, chief officer and second in command. The vessels dropped off personnel and 1,000 tons of equipment to establish a floating polar research station last week.

Election voter turnout expected to be low as decline continues

WASHINGTON (AP) — The turnout in the presidential election is expected to be one of the lowest this century, continuing a trend of declining voter participation in a nation that prides itself as a beacon of Western democracy, say political analysts.

Public interest groups are warning that only 50 percent or less of the eligible voters will go to the polls on Nov. 8, about the same as the record low 49 percent turnout in the 1924 presidential election.

The declining turnout, down from a record high 79 percent in 1896, puts the United States at the bottom of the voter participation list in the world's democratic systems.

Belgium heads the average voter participation list with 95 percent while the United States ranks last with 53 percent and Ireland second to last at 62 percent, according to figures compiled by Frances Fox Piven and Richard Cloward in their book, "Why Americans Don't Vote."

Most political scientists attribute the low American participation to the requirement that voters register days or weeks before they cast their ballot. In contrast, registration in West European democracies is generally automatic, with the voter receiving a notice in the mail.

"In fact, American registration procedures are Byzantine compared with those that prevail in other democracies," said Piven and Cloward.

Walter Dean Burnham, an expert on voter participation, says that without "the two-step hurdle" of registration and voting, turnout would increase 8 to 10 percent. Figures show that 87 percent of those who do register go to the polls on Election Day.

Other reasons cited by analysts for low participation include the declining power of the political party system, the generally apolitical nature of the electorate and television, which tends to focus on personalities rather than parties.

"As a result, people don't feel very represented and it's not very important for them to vote," said Burnham, a professor of government at the University of Texas at Austin.

Political parties in Europe are far more homogeneous than the Democratic or Republican parties in the United States, making

Obituaries

Fay Johnson

BIG SPRING—Graveside services were set for 2 p.m. Wednesday at the New Hope Cemetery near Stamford for Fay C. Johnson, 60, who died Monday in a Big Spring hospital.

She was the daughter of Effie Cole of Snyder and the sister of Sylvia Mayfield, also of Snyder.

Born in Honey Grove, she was a long-time resident of Big Spring where she worked as a cook and waitress. She was a Baptist.

Survivors include her husband, R. T. Johnson of Big Spring; two daughters, Linda Jones of Henderson, Nev., and Tonya Elaine Ross of San Angelo; a son, Michael L. Johnson of Big Spring; her mother; five brothers, Roy Cole of Dallas, Larry Cole of Wichita Falls, Coy Cole of Paris, Odis Cole and Jerry Cole, both of Abilene; five other sisters, Addie M. McClung of Artesia, N.M., Anita Perkins of Comanche, Okla., Louise Hymel of Donie, Jennie Sue Anderson of Meridian and Kathy Ross of Wichita Falls; and four grandchildren.

it easier for voters to take sides and for the parties to target constituents, said G. Bingham Powell, chairman of the School of Government at the University of Rochester.

Many Americans do not identify with either of the two major parties, said Powell, who studies the difference between the U.S. and European political systems.

Scholars also note that among the non-voters about 75 percent are low-income, less educated Americans who do not feel represented by the existing system and are generally less likely to vote.

Others believe the decline in voter participation stems from the general attitude of many Americans.

"Not voting is a reflection of the fact that we're relatively content with life, sated with our lifestyles," said Michael Robinson, a Georgetown University scholar. "People don't see any reason to vote and change this."

And many analysts contend that the George Bush-Michael Dukakis race has focused heavily on negative campaigning, further alienating voters.

"If all you see every night is Dukakis bashing Bush or vice versa, why would you rush out to vote for them?"

Lockhart gets death term

SAN ANTONIO (AP) — A Bexar County jury's sentencing of a Beaumont man to death completes the work of the police officer he was convicted of killing, the victim's father said.

A jury Tuesday sentenced Michael Lee Lockhart to death by injection for the March 22 killing of 29-year-old Paul Hulse, Jr., a Beaumont police officer who followed a suspicious car to a Beaumont motel.

"My son started an investigation, as a result he lost his life," said Paul Hulse, Sr. "The jury just finished his job. They don't want this beast like a roving lion out in society devouring whoever he wants."

Lockhart, 28, also accused of slayings in Indiana and Florida, may soon face prosecution for the killing of an Ohio woman.

On Tuesday, a Wood County, Ohio, prosecutor said a grand jury may be called to hear new evidence about the slaying of a Bowling Green woman, in which Lockhart is a suspect. The county prosecutor, Betty Montgomery, said genetic tests will be conducted on body fluids found in the apartment of the slain woman to see if they match those of Lockhart.

At least 143 survivors of lost ship are found on island

MANILA, Philippines (AP) — At least 143 people survived the sinking of a passenger ship during the height of Typhoon Ruby, shipping executives said today as efforts continued to find hundreds more still missing.

There were unconfirmed reports scores of others may have reached safety on another island.

The 2,855-ton Dona Marilyn was carrying about 518 passengers and crew when it sank Monday in heavy seas about 300 miles southeast of Manila in the Visayan Sea. Ships and helicopters searched the area today.

Bernardo Cabilon, Tacloban station manager of Sulpicio Lines, which owned the Dona Marilyn, said 120 of the 143 survivors managed to reach the small, remote island of Almagro with lifejackets and life boats.

Admission to all game booths will be 25 cents.

In Cebu, Sulpicio President Carlos Go said the remaining survivors had been found by rescuers on other islands and in the choppy seas.

Cabilon said he had been informed some survivors washed ashore wearing two lifejackets. "I'm expecting more survivors. We have not called off operations."

He said the bodies of 26 victims washed ashore at Almagro. The Coast Guard said another body was found today in waters near where the ship sank. Almagro's mayor, Raul Escalante, said he had buried 18 of the victims in a common grave.

The Dona Marilyn left Manila on Sunday bound for Tacloban but was buffeted Monday by strong waves and winds of up to 140 mph, Cabilon said. The coast guard said the skipper reported the vessel listing to the port side in heavy seas in a radioed distress signal before the ship went down.
