Announced

The First Christian Church will conduct a special Maunday (sic) Thursday Communion Service for the entire community in addition to its annual Easter Sunrise Service, Hal Dungan, pastor of the Church announced this week.

The Communion Service will be held at 6:30 p.m. Thursday, April 11 (today) in the sanctuary of the Christian Church. The! service will be open to all people who have confessed their faith in Jesus Christ as their Lord, regardless of denominational affiliation.

Those attending will be able to attend services at their own churches at 7:30 p.m. that same evening. Rev. Dungan and Elders of the First Christian Church will officiate the service.

In keeping with the annual custom of having sunrise services, the Sunrise Service will be held in the First Christian Sanctuary at 6 a.m. Pastors from various churches in the community will conduct the service which will last about 40 min-

Because of the significance of Easter and the week immediately preceding it to all Christians, these services are offered, the Reverend said.

"And the Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us, (and we beheld his glory as of the only begotten of the Father), full of grace and truth." (Jo.

On our journey into the poys and answer period of our Wonderful Lord we find Those who had of a person or thing, which of Mrs. T. E. Simpson and Mrs. W. beauty of pink and orange reflected in the sky just before the sunrise itself appears over the hills. In this sense the glory is in the qualities or character- a visitor . istics of the sunrise which we can percieve.

The "glory" of Jesus Christ lies in the characteristics of His natue that makes us want to adore Him. These traits are not the halo that painters placed around His head. We find in the scriptures that men saw His Glory in His humanity. His instant compassion, tenderness, understanding, and fearlessness-His look and Words which penetrated deep into hearts. His refusal to compromise with evil and ultimate self-giving on the cross. He did it for you and me, all, who-so-ever will come unto Him and believe. "But as many as receive Him, to them gave He the power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on His name." (John 1:

CARD OF THANKS

To our many many friends we want to take this time to try and thank each and everyone for the wonderful things you have done for my mother, Mrs. Ida Page since Feb. 18, 1963: when she fell and broke her right arm, and was shut in for a while. We want to thank the ones who answered the calls. Mrs. Gladys Day, who then called Mr. Hob Smith and Mr. Warren. God bless them for the wonderful care. Then we do thank God for the good doctors and nurses the good food, the ones who visited in hospital, and at home, the cards, letters, gifts, telephone calls and most of all for you all who prayed. We know it was the hand of God that undertaken for her. We appreciated every thing that has been done for her now, and from time to time, we are thankful she is able to visit with her S. E. at Odessa and W. A. at Kermit.

Our love and prayers go out for you all.

Mrs. Pages' daughter, Mrs. Velma Watkins, Lubbock, Tex.

Fine Arts Program Presented April 4 By Study Club

Fine Arts program featuring girls . hand painted china was present ed April 4 ,for members and guests of the Knox City Study

The meeting was held in the Woman's Club House at 4 p.m. Mrs. E. R. Carpenter directed the program and presented Mrs. Abe Watson and several of her pupils who had work on display. Mrs. Watson gave a short history on the art of china painting and conducted a question

Those who had work on dis a deep and richer meaning of play were Mmes. M. L. Williams, His glory. To define glory as Jack Coats, Russell Boyd, and that expression of the nature E. R. Carpenter of Knox City, itself, envokes our praise. The R. Hobbs of Rule. Music for the glory of a sunrise must be in its program was provided by Linda

> Hostesses were Mrs. J. R. Hitchcock, and E. R .Carpenter. Mrs. Alma Culwell was also

Next meeting of the club will be on April 25, in the High School Library and will be presented by Mrs. Jean Shwadlenak and her class of Homemaking
