Sherman County 9-1-1 System

Sherman County telephone subscribers in the Stratford (396), Texhoma (827), Stevens (753), Lautz (769) and Kerrick (727) exchanges will be able to access 9-1-1 services beginning December 17, 1991: The Sherman County 9-1-1 system is one of 23 planned systems to be implemented across the Panhandle.

The availability of 9-1-1 service in Sherman County was made possible through a cooperative effort with Sherman County, the Cities of Stratford and Texhoma, the Panhandle Regional Planning Commission. Local elected officials, law enforcement, emergency medical services, and fire department personnel, local businesses and the citizens of the area have volunteered their services to ensure that the 9-1-1 service will be held Tuesday, December 17, 1991, from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. at the Sherman County Sheriff's Office, Stratford, Texas. The public is invited to attend.

Increased Traffic On Thanksgiving Holiday

This increased traffic has area and law enforcement statewide awareness during this critical driving period.

Major V.J. Cawthon, Regional Commander for the Department of Public Safety stated, "We know that the potential for injury and loss of life is greater during holiday periods, especially a high volume holiday like Thanksgiving. We are asking people to drive defensively."

Many motorist have heard the term "defensive driving", however, it seems few know what it involves. "Most of the art of defensive driving comes from common sense and your own instinct. Training and knowledge of the proper procedures make these senses effective," Cawthon more explained.

Defensive driving can and should become a way of life for all drivers regardless of age or experience according to safety experts. Don't assume the other driver will make the right move. Be prepared for anything. Defensive drivers are in tune with their minds and bodies as well as the road. They are ready for any situation the road might hand tune. They give in to distractions; are only 100 tickets and they cost $5.00 daydreams, fatique, anger, stress, frustration or perhaps alcohol. They are not prepared to react when a dangerous situation arises.

Defensive drivers also make fewer mistakes. Drivers on the average make one error for every two miles they travel. While not The Santa Mailbox will be at every mistake leads to an accident, about 85% of all collisions are the common mistake is speeding.

> Once, again, all available Troopers will be on the highways this holiday as they have in the past to try to make the roads as safe as possible for all of us. This holiday give safety a second thought.

My sincere thanks to everyone for the many visits, cards, gifts and calls while I was in the hospital and since returning home. May God

I wish to express my thanks to Rev. Mike Leonard and the members of First Assembly of God Church for hosting the Community annual Thanksgiving Service. The music was special and the refreshments were yummy. I also wish to thank Rev. Derrel Lewis for bringing the message and Rev. David Harker and Fr. Juanito de Dios for leading in the service. A special thanks goes to you who contributed to the offering which goes to support the ministry to transients. We received $753.24.

Sincerely John Wagoner, President Sherman Co. Ministerial Alliance

Last Tuesday night was the official opening for the 91-92 basketball season and this night saw the Elkettes traveling to Hartley to take on the Lady Tigers.

The Elkettes started fast as they pressed their way to a 29-14 lead at halftime. They continued to press their way to a 65-31 victory at the end of regulation play. Leading the way for the Elkettes was Jolina Garoutte with 17 points while Angie Porras and Sunny Lasley pitched in with 13 points each.

The second game saw the Elkettes traveling to River Road to face the Lady Cats. An extremely slow start in the first half saw the Elkettes trailing at halftime 22-17. The Elkettes turned up the after burners in the third quarter as they pressured their way to a 20 point third quarter to lead after three by a score of 37-29. The last quarter saw the two teams battle evenly with the Elkettes holding on for an 8 point victory 52-44.

Coach Rapp comments: "The ladies are playing hard and in the River Road game the subs came off the bench to keep us in the game. We are extremely proud of the girls for coming back to win the River Road Game. They showed some real character in Our next game is at Clayton on December 3rd starting at 4:00 p.m.

Letters To The Editor

Brad Wilson

To Marty Robertson

My name is Brad Wilson and I live with Brad McBryde in Lubbock. We get the Stratford Star every Thursday, and I saw the picture of Lane Robertson and wanted to let you know I recently quit using snuff also. It's been about 3 weeks now and with the help of McBryde and my other room mate Matt Harkins I have been able to stick it out.

> Sincerely Brad Wilson 11-22-91

Editors Note

I want to especially thank Brad for taking the time to write and let us know of his progress and we appreciate very much hearing from him. Joyce Ann Lasley and I have sent him a Certificate from the American Cancer Society stating of the success he has achieved. Good Luck Brad and again thanks for your letter.

XIT Cellular

XIT Cellular is located on Hwy. 87 North in Dalhart, Phone 384-3333 Dumas, Phone 935-8777 or Toll Free 1-800-232-3312. This business represents a revolutionary advancement in communications technology that provides mobile telephone service of far greater capacity and better transmission quality than conventional mobile phone service. Its technology operated by dividing an area into smaller geographic areas called cells, each served by its own radio transmitter. Cell sites are connected by wireline facilities to a Mobile Telephone Switching Office which is linked to the regular landline network through the local telephone company central office. As a caller drives across a cellular service area, the call is automatically passed from one transmitter tower to another without noticeable interruption. Every cellular user is assigned a unique seven-digit number and may place as well as receive calls directly without operator assistance. This is available to anyone who may be interested in utilizing this service. Cell Sites in operation are Dalhart, Dumas, Stratford, Adrian and in Hereford in December. Cellular service is especially beneficial for emergency security and business uses. The manager and staff wish each and all Joyous Holiday Seasons.

Dear Editor

We have heard a lot recently about Magic Johnson and his willingness to come forward and let the world know that he has against the message "safe sex" is tested positive with the HIV virus. using condoms. I am sorry for him in that he has contracted this virus and it is saddening to hear the way he contracted it, but to me, what is more saddening that that, he is leading our young people to believe it is all right to have sex out of wedlock as long as they practice "safe sex". Sex out of marriage is a sin against God no matter what kind of condom you use, and even if the physical part of your body isn't affected by the virus, diseases or pregnancy, your mental and spritual state will be. We "The world" are trying to teach our children how to have safe sex, but because we "the world" don't or won't admit the effect it has, we don't take the responsibility or even know how to help our children with these effects. Consequently we have teensuicide and drug abuse.

We as parents need to seek God's guidance in the way we should handle this. "Safe Sex" is to abstain from it until you are married, the way God planned.

We as Christians need to stand

Happy anniversary to the chocolate chip cookie! As the packaged gourmet chocolate chip cookie observes its tenth anniversary, Americans are eating more and more of them. Based on an average nine to ten chocolate chips per cookie, Americans consume an estimated 500 billion chocolate chips per year in packaged cookies alone—enough chips to circle the earth's equator 80

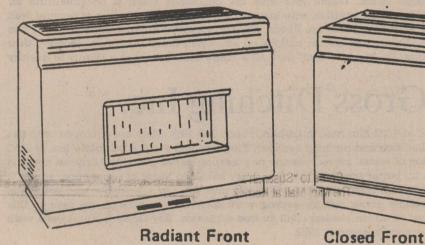

According to Keith Lively, president of the Famous Amos Chocolate Chip Cookie Company—one of the nation's most popular brands of chocolate chip cookies—the boom in the popularity of chocolate chip cookies has helped the cookie category become the nation's favorite dessert category, now accounting for $6.5 billion in annual sales.

This year Americans will munch approximately 14 pounds of cookies per person—and one in every four cookies eaten will contain chocolate

Plains feedlots through more than two decades have no from those wells turned out good, contaminated groundwater, a Texas Agricultural Extension contamination, "Wyatt said. "But contacting farmers and ranchers Service study shows.

"The well water in all feedlot wells and in farm irrigation wells appear to be suitable for irrigation, livestock watering and John Sweeten, an Extension service agricualtural engineer.

Sweeten and Dr. Thomas Marek, a researcher for the Texas Agricultural Experiement Station in Amarillo, devised the study in cooperation with the Texas Cattle Feeder Association and the High Sciences Laboratory at Texas feedlot runoff collection playas. Tech University.

existed for more than 20 years.

After the wells in the first study showed no contamination, the makeup of the High Plains, in second trail was designed to see if which the depth to the water contaminated underground water could be detected away from the and layers of clay under the feedlot wells. None was found.

More than 5 million head of cattle are marketed annually from feedlots in about 26 Texas High Plains Counties. The area also includes about 4 million irrigated acres of cropland and sits atop portions of the Ogallala Aquifer which reaches into Nebraska.

Sweeten pointed out the most of the feedlots have operated under Texas Water Commission permits requiring no discharge of wastewater since the late 1960's. The commission is requiring revised permits for many feedlots under updated 1987 rules that have rigorous groundwater qualaity protection criteria, he said.

The research, for the first time, shows the condition of underground water at and near High Plains Feedlots, according to Wayne Wyatt, manager of the High Plains Underground Water Conservation District.

"Now we have a data base to measure against in case any appreciable changes are detected in the future," said Wyatt, whose agency enforces groundwater laws in that district. "We are very pleased with the results, but the important thing is that we will continue to monitor from time to time. Then if there ever is a problem, the feedlot can correct it

The first study included samples from wells at 26 feedlots that have a combined capacity of 730,000 head of cattle. The nitrate-nitrogen levels averaged 2.8 milligrams per liter. The U.S. Protection Environmental Agency's standard for human drinking water is 10 milligrams per

The samples also were tested for ammonium, sodium, chloride, sulfate, potassium and phosphorus. The average values indicate that this well water could be used for irrigation or livestock watering without restriction, Sweeten said.

"Once the sampling results I felt there was no problem with

After meeting certain criteria-human consumption," said Dr. such as feedlot capacity of at least 5,000 head of cattle, in operation for at least 20 years and surrounded by irrigated farmland--two "typical" High Plains feedlots in Parmer and Castro Counties were chosen for the study. At both locations, groundwater was sampled from four feedlot Plains Underground Water wells and 10-11 irrigation wells Conservation District based in from two-thirds to seven-eighths of Lubbock and the Environmental a mile from the feed pens or > Sweeten said the geological aquifer is ofen more than 250 feet surface retard chemical movement, helps prevent water contamination by the feedlots.

> "Though these feedlots have existed for more than 25 years, they are not causing groundwater contamination Sweeten said. He added, however, that a different set of geological circumstance may lead to different comtamination findings elsewhere.
