MR. AND MRS. WADE COX

Former Cowboy And His Wife Celebrate 60th Anniversary

Back in 1902 when Wade Cox was a young man of 20, he rode his horse from McGregor, Texas, to Borden County. He began work on the Hood Ranch which then sprawled between Lamesa and Snyder.

It would seem almost impossible for a man to find his "one and only" in such barren ranch land, but Cox did just that. He said, "I started noticing this young woman who was a sister to my bosses' wife when we would ride up to their house."

And she apparently took a liking to the cowboy. One year later in 1903, they were married.

The couple now live in Hart. Wade is 83 and his wife, Ellen, is 82. Monday, Oct. 14, marked their 60th wedding anniversary.

Looking back over their lives, it might be interesting to note they have eight living children and the oldest is 67. That's Miles, who also lives in Hart. He has celebrated many wedding anniversaries himself.

Mr. and Mrs. Cox were married in Gail and continued to live for awhile in Borden County. "Later," said Cox, "I sold what cattle I had and moved to New Mexico. I filed on what land I could at a place that was then Jenkins." The land was north of Crossroads.

Mrs. Cox said, "We didn't get very lonesome because we were too busy." This was between 1913 and 1919 when the whole southwest was mostly prairie.

From New Mexico, the Coxes' moved back to Borden County, lived there a few years, and in 1922 moved to Hart. Another move was made several years later back to New Mexico, but the couple have settled in Hart. They've lived here now six years.

There is another son, Bird, who also lives here. Demmie McLain, a daughter, makes her home in Manteca, Calif., as does another son, Edwin.

Marlin lives in Hobbs. Francis Height resides in Broadview, N.M. Arno is at Brownfield, and Bertha Dougherty is in Seattle. She is the youngest at 36.

The couple was asked how

Fred Bass' Neck Broken

Fred Bass, 37, was listed in satisfactory condition last week after his neck was broken in a car-horse collision between Guthrie and Dickens.

Bass was riding in a 1964 Oldsmobile being driven by Norlan Dudley when the accident occurred. The vehicle struck the horse about 6:15 a.m. Thursday, Oct. 10.

Two other men and Dudley, were not injured. They were T. C. Ray and Tom McGill. The men reportedly came upon a heard of Pitchfork Ranch horses being headed across the highway.

When the auto struck one of the animals, the horse was thrown over the hood. Its hoof crashed through the windshield striking Bass.

The Hart man was driven into Lubbock and taken to Methodist Hospital. The four were returning from Dallas.

The Bovina Mustangs will take off their wraps Friday night and attempt to put the branding iron to Hart's high-flying Longhorns in the 2-B district opener.

The out-of-town game will begin at 7:30 p.m.

Bovina will enter the game with a 3-3, won-lost record, but Coach Hallie Gee will be spurring his Mustangs forward with a district game at stake.

Springlake, a team which dropped Hart 23-6, shot past Bovina 25-8 in the season opener.

And while the Mustangs were down, Farwell rode roughshod over them 46-0.

Then Bovina caught fire and turned back Whitharral, 45-6, blasted Amherst, 26-0, and jumped on Meadow, 14-0.

Last week the Mustangs ran into resurging Friona, a team which has won six in a row, and Bovina dropped its third game, 38-0. Besides Friona being a Class AA school, the Mustangs were nursing injuries from the Meadow game.

Fans will get a close up look at Bovina's finest back-field men, Dennis Johnson, full-back; David Anderson, quarterback; and Phillip Lloyd and Tally Kelso, halfbacks.

Against Whitharral, Anderson threw for two touchdowns and Johnson sprinted for a coup-

Who's Gonna Be Ugly Man?

Hilarity will punctuate an evening of gala entertainment, Thursday, Oct. 24, when the Mother's Club and the Booster Club combine talents to present a style show and box supper.

Highlighting the evening will be an "Ugly Man" contest. Any man who has a dollar can nominate himself as a contestant, and several entries are expected.

After the nominations are made, persons can vote for contestants of their choice at one cent per vote.

Contestants will be given opportunities to spiel off their winning characteristics intermittently throughout the evening, and these qualifying characteristics may very well range from the fantastically absurd to the utterly ridiculous.

The contest may very well be a hard fought battle since Hart has within its confines, one man who was once chosen as the "Ugliest Man in Three Counties".

However, it remains to be seen whether this man will try to steal the show by entering the contest or leave the field wide open for a new title holder.

ARTIE Bennett, left, and Dan Sharp, third graders in Mrs. Irene Cheatham's room, try on their firemen hats given them last week by the Hart Fire Department. Hart were given to all the lower grades in conjunction with Fire Prevention Week.

le himself. In addition to receiving two touchdown passes in that game, Lloyd was Bovina's outstanding defensive man.

Another strong Bovina back is Al Schamblin, an extra point specialist.

Kelso was injured early in the season but against Meadow came back to lead the way. Bovina had 260 yards rushing to 128 for the Broncos.

Kelso hit for one touchdown, while Anderson broke loose for 16 yards and the other tally. Schamblin kicked both extra points.

In the Amherst game, Kelso led the Mustang attack with three TD's, opening with a 16-yarder and later breaking loose for 10-yard and 3-yard touchdowns.

In that game, the other Mustang score came when Anderson passed 29 yards to Johnson. Bovina had 223 yards on the ground and 61 passing, while Amherst got 86 ground yards and 11 by air.

Several Longhorns have been nursing injuries this week which they suffered in Hart's 6-0 win over Silverton.

Mother's Club To Hold Supper

Hart Mothers Club is sponsoring a box supper at the school lunchroom, Thursday, October 24 at 8 p.m.

There will be a separate auction of boxes for school students and adults.

Booster Club members will present a style show with men modeling womens clothing.

Included in the program is an ugly man contest for which everyone may select his choice for a penny a vote. Voting will be at the box supper.

Also at the box supper, a pig will be given away. Chances are 50 cents each and maybe purchased from any member of the Booster Club.

Sewer Work Progressing

Work on sewer improvements in the City of Hart is coming along well and may be completed by Dec. 1, Mayor Ed Harris said this week.

"Workers have made real good progress during the good weather lately," said Mayor Harris, "and right now they're ahead of schedule."

MRS. ZELLA HEIGHT

RECIPE OF THE WEEK

A favorite recipe this week on how to prepare steak is offered by Mrs. Zella Height.

The family moved to Hart in 1931. Her husband, Jim, is a farmer and a big-game hunter. Mrs. Height says her hobbies are cooking and carrying dishes to the sick.

The Height's children are W. C. of Lubbock and Dorothy Jo of Waxahachie. Both are married. There are five grandsons and one granddaughter.

Mr. and Mrs. Height attend the Baptist Church.

Here recipe for preparing steak is:

Tear heavy duty foil into pieces and lay it out. Tear according to size of steaks.

Have electric skillet really hot with just enough Crisco to brown steaks hurried on both sides.

Season heavily with Season All salt when steak is layed on foil and a pat of sweet cream butter.

Wrap steak up, being careful not to tear foil, and place on a cookie sheet.

Have oven 400 to 450 degrees. Cook for 20 minutes in foil and serve on plate so steak won't lose natural juices.

Mrs. Height also tells how to bake a potato.

She says: To bake a medium-sized potato, first scrub well and wrap in foil. Put it in a Presto cooker with tiny bit of water.

Cook it seven or eight minutes at 15 degrees. Take out and put in oven while steaks are cooking.

Then slit potato and put butter in. Rewrap it and leave until steaks are done.

Mrs. Height said a tossed salad would round out the meal.

IN LUBBOCK

The Joe Newman family spent a day last week in Lubbock Sunday with Glenna's sister, Mrs. R. H. Ready, and Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Newman.

HOSPITAL

Mrs. Hubert Newman has been staying with Mrs. M. A. Martin, who is in the Methodist Hospital.

FOOTBALL GAME

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Foster and Mr. and Mrs. Lee Harris were in Lubbock last Saturday night to attend the football game between Texas Tech and TCU.

Rhoda Guild Holds Meet

Dressing Room Talk Light And Deafening Morrison Is Grid Winner

The Longhorns were jubilant in the dressing room. They had just knocked off Class A Silver-ton, 6-0, in the hardest and best played game of the season.

"I couldn't go anywhere", said Billy Farris, "everytime I got the ball, they hit me before I could start."

"They were really tough," Larry McKay said to a teammate.

Coach Cleveland called the boys down momentarily and said, "I'm real proud of all of you, let's make up our minds right now we're going to get everybody."

He was referring to Bovina, Happy, Lazbuddie and Vega in that order.

While he had their attention, he told the injured to report Saturday morning for treatment. Farris was nursing a cut nose and mashed lip; McKay had re-injured his knee and Kenneth Fincher was limping.

Joe Rubalcaba was limping slightly from an ankle injury and Roger Lancaster was being treated for a hurt knee.

Coach Nicholson told the boys that Bovina was liable to be plenty tough.

The Longhorns resumed their whistling and yelling. "Boy," said James Mitchell, "there were some big boys out there. That number 44 was tough, I couldn't get hold of him."

Mitchell did alright however, as he consistently threw Silver-ton backs for minus yardage.

Gary Heller broke in, "I couldn't go outside their tackles, they came up real tough." "Those boys don't like to lose," added center Phil Green.

Mitchell was asked how he kept getting through the Owl defensive line. He said, "I was shooting the gap. The guard on my side was splitting out, but he moved back in later. I hoped he would stay split out all night."

When Joe Rubalcaba was asked what play he scored on, he said, "It was dive right." He added, "I hit off my right tackle and cut to the outside and it was wide open."

Rubalcaba was talking about his 69-yard touchdown run, the only score in the game.

Carl Ward said, "They were holding me up, and it really hurt when that boy slugged me." He made reference to the next to last play of the game.

Fincher saved the day on an interception. He had this to say: "he (an Owl defender) took one away from me, and I thought it would be fair if I took it away from him."

Fincher wrestled the ball out of the arms of its intender, intercepting near the Hart goal.

Farris said, "I think the refs got mixed up on that roughing the kicker penalty when they only penalized Silver-ton five yards. They asked me if I wanted the penalty and told me it would be first and 10. So, I took the penalty, but it was still fourth down." Farris kidded Rubalcaba, saying, "I didn't know you could run that fast Joe."

Someone cracked, "He can't in workout, but he can run pretty fast when he's scared."

When asked about the staunch defense shown by the Longhorns, Coach Nicholson said, "We shot our linebackers most of the game until they started completing those flat passes to number 32, then we had to pull those stunts off."

Cleveland said, "Man, games like that are hard on coaches, but we were happy with those six points in the last few seconds."

14 points. Ferguson was 33 off and Popejoy 50.

Morrison will receive $6, Varner $4 and Miss Adams $2.

There's still time to enter the contest for this week. Just pick up a copy of the October 10 Hart Beat, fill out the contest page and turn it in to one of the sponsoring merchants by 4 p.m. Friday.

Rugged Longhorn Defense Brads Silverton Attack

Hart's Joe Rubalcaba broke over his right tackle early in the first quarter here Friday night against Silverton and sprinted 69 yards for the game's only touchdown.

The score came with 8:23 remaining in the first frame, and it was anybody's ball game to the final whistle.

Tension gripped players and fans alike, and coaches were undoubtedly wishing for a tall glass of sweet milk.

Both teams were rough on defense in a game which emphasized rock-'em-sock-'em football.

Silverton won the toss and elected to receive. Three running plays and they had moved the ball only one yard. So the Owls boomed the ball out on a punt, down to Hart's 46-yard line.

Billy Farris churned for two to the 48 and Rubalcaba hit to the mid-stripe. On third down Max Garrison intercepted a Longhorn pass on his own 45.

With the Owls in possession, they called on Fred Stafford, who found a gaping hole, and rambled to Hart's 26-yard marker. On the next play, however, the ball scooted away from an Owl ball carrier and Longhorn Tommy Morrison pounced on it at the 26.

Kenneth Fincher carried to the 31, and on the following down, Rubalcaba let loose. He took a handoff from Gary Heller, hit between his right tackle and end and found daylight. After he passed the line of scrimmage, Rubalcaba cut sharply to his right and headed down the sideline for 69 yards. He outran three Owl secondary men to the goal.

The extra point attempt was off to the right, and Hart took a lead they would never relinquish.

Silverton, a class A power, was in trouble again following the kickoff. Fincher kicked a low dribbler which was finally fielded on the Silverton 25 and returned back to the 29.

On the first play Farris "red-dogged" from his linebacker position, caused the Owl back to fumble, then jumped on the loose hog hide himself.

The Longhorns came out of the huddle with the ball on Silverton's 27. Farris slashed to the 22, and an Owl piled on after the whistle had blown. The penalty moved the ball to Silverton's 11, half the distance to the goal.

A stout defensive stand by the Owls pushed Heller back to the 12 on the first play, and on the third and fourth downs, threw the 'horns back to the 25.

Hardly had the Owls laid their pinkies on the pigskin until they had fumbled again. Once more it was Morrison who hugged the loose ball, this time on the Owl's 23.

Fincher rambled for good yardage to the 15, and Rubalcaba punched to the 12 and a first down. Heller wormed to the 9 and Farris managed two more to the 7.

An incomplete pass to David Gardner brought up fourth down and five-to-go for a first. Fincher looked like he might get the necessary yardage, but he was chopped down at the Silverton 4, and the Owls took over.

Quarterback Gregg Towe tried a jump pass to end Dennis Tomlin which fell incomplete. Stafford got two yards on the second down and the Owls quick kicked on the third.

The punt went only to Silverton's 37, but a 15-yard clipping penalty against the Longhorns moved the ball back to Hart's 49. Three running plays netted only five yards, and Hart was forced to punt.

Here's where Longhorn guard James Mitchell led the defensive charge. With the ball on the Silverton 25, Mitchell shot the gap twice in a row to throw Owl ballcarriers back to their own 18.

Silverton punted to the Hart 45, and once more the Longhorns took possession, playing ball control along with aggressive defense.

After Hart had moved to midfield, Heller fired a pass complete to Fincher on the Silverton 46, only to have the ball batted out of his arm and see an Owl recover.

Monty Smith, the big Silverton fullback, began his workhorse chores. He slanted off guard to his 49 then let teammate Stafford carry to Hart's 44, picking up the Owl's first 1st down of the game.

Stafford kept the pressure on with another first down gallop to the Longhorn 38, but a five-yard backfield-in-motion penalty moved the Owls back to the 43.

Once more Mitchell broke through the offensive line to tackle the Owl quarterback for a five yard loss, and on the next play it was Fincher who collared an Owl back behind the line of scrimmage.

With the Owls needing 24 yards for a first, they punted to Hart's 32 and held the Longhorn at the 41, forcing them to punt.

The Longhorns again came alive on defense with Mitchell, Harvey Sullivan and Rubalcaba forcing the play.

Each play became more filled with suspense as both teams looked for an opening.

The Longhorns couldn't get a drive going after receiving the ball and punted out to the Owl's 20. Towe fielded the ball and found the way cleared by downfield blockers. He cut to his left sideline and hot footed it to Hart's 24 before Fincher overrode him from behind.

The play was rubbed out by a clipping penalty and the ball was brought back to the Owl's 19. Farris crashed through the Silverton line to drag Towe for a loss back to the 13, and Smith could only get out to the 17 before his team had to punt again.

Hart came alive offensively shortly before the half, taking over at Silverton's 40. Heller got four to the 36, and then picked up a first down to the 25.

On the next play Heller passed to Fincher on the 8-yard line, but an illegal procedure penalty moved the ball back to the Owl 30.

Only scant seconds remained in the first half when the Owls dropped Hart runners back to the 36.

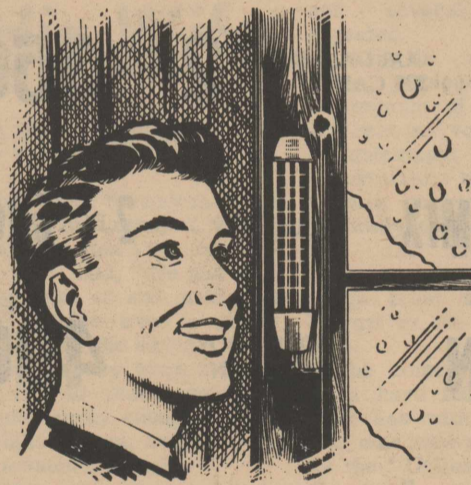

Moments after the second half got underway, Max Garrison broke loose from his 21 yard line and rambled all the way to Hart's 23. Garrison was dragged down from behind by Carl Ward.

On the next play Hart defenders broke through to knock down Smith for an eight-yard loss back to the Longhorn 31. Smith collapsed in the huddle, and an ambulance was brought onto the playing field. The big fullback regained his feet however and only rested a few minutes before re-entering the game.

Play got rougher and rougher, and several times either an Owl player or a Longhorn would come limping to the sidelines.

Midway in the fourth quarter, the Longhorns had to kick out from their own end of the field, and a short punt went out-of-bounds on Silverton's 34. Stafford caught a pass from Towe on the first play that carried to Hart's 40.

Another complete pass from Towe to Garrison moved to the 26, and Silverton was threatening. Garrison lugged again to the Longhorn 20, but on the next play two Hart players broke through to drop Towe back to the 31.

On third down Stafford passed to Garrison on the Hart 27, which carried to Hart's 20 once again. Hart's Gardner made a great play when he was the only man who stood between Towe and the goal, tackling the quarterback on the 24, after all the other Longhorns had been blocked down.

Sullivan, Roger Lancaster, Rubalcaba and Farris led the defensive attack late in the game when Silverton again began rolling toward the Longhorn goal.

Lancaster boarded an Owl fumble on his own 29 to kill the last Owl threat. With only a few seconds left, fisticuffs interrupted play. An Owl player and a Longhorn were escorted from the game.

The duel ended with Hart in possession of the ball on their own 31.

This week the once beaten Longhorns will travel to Bovina and the first district game.
