NUMBER 18

THIS YOUNG MAN is in the typical pose featured last Friday at the Senior's pancake supper. The supper attracted scores of people and helped the upperclassmen earn a total of $113. The supper preceded a football game between Hart and Lazbuddie.

Turkey Shoot Set For Sunday

The Hart Gun Club will hold a turkey shoot Sunday, Nov. 17, beginning at 1 p.m. it was announced Wednesday by acting President Bill Rich.

The shoot will be held 1/2 mile north of Hart at the trap grounds.

Rich said turkeys and hams will be awarded winners and that other merchandise such as pocket knives and athletic socks will also be given away.

Price on shooting for the turkeys and hams is $2, while the lesser merchandise will run from 50 cents to a dollar.

Rich said if weather is unfavorable Sunday, the shoot will be postponed one week. He added that shells will be furnished upon receipt of tickets.

Legion Post Pays Tribute

A tribute was paid to Hart teachers who had served in the armed forces Tuesday morning when 26 members of American Legion Post 311 met at Alford's Cafe.

Bud Steiret, commander and master of ceremonies paid the tribute to Supt. of Schools Paul Kennedy and teachers J. V.

Wescott, G. C. Graves, Don Ewing, Eddie Nicholson and Jim Grubaugh.

After breakfast, a number of the Legionnaires presented a short program at a school assembly.

The meeting Tuesday was in observance of Veterans' Day.

Vega Blocking Pathway To District I-B Crown

Only Vega and a bulldozing back named Wayne Taylor stand in the way of the first I-B District championship ever won by the Hart Longhorns.

Although Taylor's scoring record is incomplete, he has scored 14 touchdowns in seven games and has run for half that many extra points.

The two Longhorn teams will get a close up look at one another at 7:30 p.m. Friday in Vega. Hart will enter the fray with a 7-1-1 record, while its opponents will put a season tabulation of 6-3 on the line.

Both units are 3-0 in district competition.

The outcome of two early-season Vega games, both apparent losses, were unavailable. Following is the outcome of seven encounters:

Vega 32, Estelline 8; Vega 30, Follett 22; Vega 26, Texline 0; Vega 18, Happy 13; Vega 40, Lazbuddie 14; Claude 12, Vega 6; Vega 20, Bovina 14.

Comparing the two units on paper against district foes, Hart beat Happy 12-0, dropped Bovina, 16-0 and got past Lazbuddie, 29-14.

The game is being boomed as the big one in Class B, and both teams are loading up for bear. The hungry Hart Longhorns, with an exceptional season, have won against stiff odds this year.

A pre-season rating placed Hart no better than third.

Winner of Friday's game will wind up with all the marbles and a chance to represent this district at regional. The loser will take undisputed possession of second place.

Hart not only must stop the high scoring antics of Mr. Wayne Taylor, they also must corral the stampeding runs of younger brother, Don, and a quarterback named Robert Gibson. Halfback Johnnie Price could be another threat.

Against Follett, Price ran for a seven-yard touchdown, while Wayne Taylor was running for two tallies and brother Don ran for 15 yards and another one.

Wayne Taylor scored three times against Texline running three, 52 and 82 yards for touchdowns. Freshman quarterback Johnnie Hailburton broke loose for a 35-yard touchdown run in the game.

It was all Wayne Taylor against Happy as the shifty back crossed the goal three times.

Against Lazbuddie the same Taylor racked up four touchdowns. Quarterback Gibson scored the other two.

All year long Vega has gotten out front early in the game while employing rugged defense to stay there.

Even in their 12-6 loss to Claude, Vega's Gibson took the first play after the opening kickoff and ran 73 yards for an out-front touchdown.

Bovina met the same Wayne Taylor and saw him score twice to knock the Mustangs entirely out of district contention.

With both Hart and Vega sporting top defensive teams, it will be interesting to see what the Taylor brothers, Gibson and Price do in comparison to Billy Farris, Dennis McLain, Joe Rubalcaba and Gary Heller.

Hart Joins Rest Of State In Vote To Keep Poll Tax

Out of some 400 eligible voters in Hart, 113 turned up Saturday to exercise their say-so on four amendments to the state constitution.

The controversial poll tax issue saw 23 voters cast ballots to do away with the tax while 91 voted to retain the tax.

The trend followed along county and state lines. Only one of the amendments was favored by voters. It was increased welfare payments for the aged, blind, or otherwise handicapped.

In Hart 62 voted for the Welfare amendment and 41 voted against.

On the Jefferson County amendment which concerned insurance and retirement benefits for county officials, the amendment had 34 voting for and 63 against it.

On amendment number four, involving the continuation of the Veterans' Land Fund, voters cast 51 ballots for and 54 against.

In Castro County tabulations are as follow:

Amendment 1: 127 for, 499 against.

Amendment 2: 316 for, 259 against.

Amendment 3: 192 for, 326 against.

Amendment 4: 249 for, 314 against.

Supper Raises $113

People waited in line last Friday afternoon at the school cafeteria to fill up on pancakes in a senior-sponsored pancake supper.

Seniors reported townfolks were hungry enough to buy $113 worth of the tasty morsels.

The supper was held prior to the Hart-Lazbuddie game and was only one of the money raising projects proposed by the upperclassmen. Money made from the supper and other sales will be used to finance a trip at the close of school.

MRS. RUTH SHIVE

RECIPE OF THE WEEK

This week's recipe should be plenty popular with the youngsters. It's a "dog on a stick" submitted by Mrs. Ruth Shive.

Over the years Mrs. Shive has had plenty of experience making the treat for her seven children.

Living most of her life on a farm three-and-one-half-miles west of Hart, Mrs. Shive and her husband, Eldon, have a real investment in the community.

Among them are Vivian, now Mrs. Carmen Pigg; Jerry, 18, a student at Lippert's Business College in Plainview; Linda, 13, Pamela, 12, Donnie, 10, Alan, 8, and Lyle, 5.

Mrs. Shive says her favorite passtime is playing with grandson, Kirk. She also likes to sew and cook.

She cans around 300 quarts of vegetables each year.

The Hart woman is a member of the Baptist Church.

Her recipe for "dog on a stick" follows:

- 1 1/2 cup flour
- 2 tsp. baking powder
- 1 tsp. salt
- 2 tbsp. sugar
- 1 egg
- milk--about one cup
- 1 1/2 dozen weiners stuck on sticks

Mix all together in large bowl and add milk until about consistency of thick corn bread. This is enough for 18.

Dip weiners in batter and fry in hot fat.

MRS. WILLIAM D. BELL

Teacher Loves Children, Sets High Goals For Them

(EDITOR'S NOTE: This is the third in a series of features which will be run throughout the school year on Hart school teachers. This week's personality is Mrs. William D. Bell.)

For two years now Mrs. Bell has been a fourth grade classroom teacher. The challenges in those two years have been abundant.

But no matter the trials and tribulations of teaching, Mrs. Bell says, "I like every minute I'm in the classroom. I think teachers should be dedicated to the profession and to the children too."

The Hart teacher has lived here 14 years. She finished high school at Portales then attended Eastern New Mexico and Wayland, majoring in elementary education and English and minoring in secretarial science.

Along with the reading, writing and arithmetic Mrs. Bell must "stuff" down her fourth graders, she also has a physical fitness class.

The same dedication underlies all her teaching. She states, "I love children. I love working with them and I especially love to see their response in all circumstances."

Mrs. Bell went into the teaching profession because she felt she could be of service and because she believes rural areas need good teachers.

Another thing which influenced her to become a teacher is the fact her children are in school and she had more free time.

She unhesitatingly says, "But I don't have any---any more."

Her outside interest are watching football games and sewing dresses. Her family is another outside-the-classroom interest.

As far as having further educational ambitions, Mrs. Bell said she intends to stay up with the modern education plans.

She feels that the most rewarding facet about teaching is for her to set high goals in citizenship, spiritual growth and mental growth and work to see it come about.

LITTLE MISS Alice Steiert, 16-months, adds a bit more charm to the citrus tree bearing in the background. The hardy fruit, in producing late unto the year, is sort of a novelty. Bud Steiert, owner, called the fruit a "false lime". One bad catch about all the beauty, the lime is all seed and is poisonous. It would take a mighty tough-skinned man to pick the fruit for thousands of thorns decorate the tree's limbs. Steiert said the tree has been on his place since 1934 and produces every year.

Cotton IS STRONG

Cotton is a natural muscleman—strong as steel. Its fiber strength is 100,000 pounds per square inch—even stronger when wet. In the washing machine, in the rain, or soaked with perspiration, when extra strength is needed, cotton really flexes its muscles. Its toughness laughs at abrasion, as rugged Army field tests have shown, and you won't find cotton coming apart at the seams. There is no denying it—nothing looks like cotton, does like cotton, is like cotton. It's in a class by itself.

Lazbuddie 29-14 Hart Victim

Hart's Longhorns, looking ahead to Vega, allowed a "Johnny-Come-Lately" Lazbuddie team two touchdowns in the last quarter here last Friday but had little trouble winning, 29-14.

In taking the decisive victory, Hart pushed toward the District I-B showdown Friday with Vega. The winner will represent this district in the regional playoff. The out-of-town game Friday will be another clash between two Longhorn units.

Lazbuddie is scoring against Hart, became the first team this year to cross the home goal. Hart had consecutively shut out Happy, Bovina, Anton and Silverton prior to the Lazbuddie game.

Hart kicked off to get the game underway Friday then both teams played heads up defense to keep each other at bay.

Not until midway in the first quarter did Hart generate steam needed to drive within striking distance. Lazbuddie went into a shotgun offense in an effort to exploit the passing game.

Passing from the Hart 35, Lazbuddie quarterback Kenneth McGeehee aimed one downfield which was picked off by secondary man David Gardner. He returned the ball back to his own 49.

On the first play from scrimmage Dennis McLain, who enjoyed his greatest night, broke loose for a 21 yard gain to the Lazbuddie 30, Kenneth Fincher carried for another good gainer to the 21.

With second and one to go, Gary Heller rolled out to his right and spiraled a perfect strike to Carl Ward for touchdown number one. Heller tried to find an open receiver on the point after, but when they were all covered, he ducked his head and plunged for the two points. With 4:08 remaining in the first quarter, Hart had taken an 8-0 lead.

Lazbuddie saw another one of its passes picked off moments later, and it too was turned into a Hart touchdown.

McGeehee tried to jump pass to his right end but overthrew the target. Fincher made the grab on his own 35 and rambled back to the Lazbuddie 28.

McLain found running room to the 19 and Billy Farris uncorked to the 10. McLain carried again, to the five. On the next play Farris ripped the middle and went into the endzone.

A 15-yard penalty for holding nullified the score and moved the ball back to the Lazbuddie 19.

The triumph for the visitors was short-lived, however, when Heller passed to Farris in the right flat and the shifty half-back weaved his way through defenders into the endzone.

The extra point was kicked by Larry McKay and Hart had themselves a 15-0 advantage. The score came with 10:49 remaining until halftime.

Things moved slowly for a while after the touchdown when McKay kicked out-of-bounds three times on the kick-off. On the last kick, Lazbuddie took over on their 40. The visitors only had the ball one play until they put it into the air and Ward intercepted for Hart. He captured the pigskin on his own 25.

Two plays later a Lazbuddie player, Johnny Mitchell, suffered a broken nose and the game was delayed about 10 minutes while an ambulance carried him to a hospital.

Lazbuddie threatened about midway in the second quarter when Johnny Mabry and Gary Mac Brown carried to Hart's 21. McGeehee moments before had recovered a fumble on the Hart 30.

A stout defense by Hart held Lazbuddie, then it was McLain's time to shine again. The race-horse back took the first play from scrimmage 79 yards on a spectacular touchdown run.

McLain broke over his right tackle and end, cut to the outside and outran three secondary men to the goal. Heller, on the extra-point attempt faked a kick and wheeled to throw a low pass to Farris complete in the endzone. The score then stood 23-0 and Coach Dub Cleveland began to substitute freely with his reserves.

Hardly had Hart kicked off until Fincher had intercepted another long pass and returned it to his 35. Harvey Sullivan had intercepted a Lazbuddie pass only two plays earlier but Hart had been off side.

HART'S CARL Ward, 80, and two unidentified teammates get set to "chill" a Lazbuddie back. Hart won the district contest 29-14 to set up the all-important game Friday with Vega. Lazbuddie, in getting its two touchdowns, became the first team this year to score on Hart's home field.

Hart fumbled on its first running play and Lazbuddie recovered on the home team's 31-yard line. Brown, on the first play, was stopped at the line of scrimmage, but a Hart lineman piled on and 15 yards were stepped off to the 17-yard line and a big first down.

Lazbuddie made its most serious threat in the last two minutes before the half. From the 17, McGeehee slithered to Hart's 10. Brown picked up a first down to the eight and Bradshaw carried to the six.

From that point Hart called on it hard-nosed defense. Ward led defenders in stacking up the play twice at the line of scrimmage then throwing Bradshaw back to the 10-yard line on a fourth down.

Time ran out in the half with Hart still on its 10. The home unit received 65 yards in penalties the first two quarters.

Hart's Ward had hardly returned the opening second half

Time ran out in the half with Hart still on its 10. The home unit received 65 yards in penalties the first two quarters.

Hart's Ward had hardly returned the opening second half kickoff back to the 50-yard line when McLain was showing his heels again.

On the first play the swift back broke over the right side of his line and rambled the entire 50-yards for a lightning-quick score, which put Hart ahead, 29-0.

Heller attempting to pass, was rubbed out near the goal line on the extra point try.

The mood of the game suddenly changed with Hart playing almost a full team of reserves. After Hart had moved all the way again to the Lazbuddie three-yard line, the visiting Longhorns began a 97-yard drive.

After McGeehee had connected from his 46 to Brown, moving the ball to Hart's 15-yard line, there was no stopping the Lazbuddie 11. The entire first unit of Hart was rushed back into the game, all to no avail.

On the first down from the 15, McGeehee ran to his right and threw to his left to Brown and a touchdown. Happy Jennings passed to Brown for the two extra points.

Lazbuddie got another touchdown early in the fourth quarter as it put the pressure on Hart. A recovered fumble by the visitors on Hart's 49 was the beginning of the TD drive.

Jennings caught a pass from McGeehee on the first down and rambled down the sideline to Hart's 19. A screen pass to Mabry moved to the 15. Jennings raced to the 12 and Mabry picked up yardage to the two-yard line. Brown blasted across for the touchdown with 8:08 still remaining in the fourth quarter.

The extra-point try was in and out of the hands of Brown.

Lazbuddie looked like it might be headed goalward again after recovering a Hart fumble, but they too fumbled on the Hart 41.

Only 3:22 remained to play when Hart was stopped on three running plays at its 41 and still needed six yards for a first. Fincher dropped back in punt formation, but instead of kicking, he ran to his right and threw a perfect strike to Mc-

DAVID GARDNER made a neat interception on this play to kill a Lazbuddie drive. The defender is being dragged down by an intended receiver. Two of Gardner's teammates come in to throw blocks. The Hart 11 won by a 29-14 score, extending its record to 3-0 in district competition and 7-1-1 for the season. A battle for the crown will be climaxed Friday in Vega.

Lain to the Lazbuddie 44 and a first down.

Still passing, Heller threw long to Ward or Gardner, each crossing into the same zone. The ball was first tipped by a Lazbuddie defender, then by Ward and another Lazbuddie secondary man before it bounced into the arms of Gardner on the visitors 15.

Hart moved to the 13 before fumbling. Lazbuddie threw three times, moving the ball to their 40 as the final whistle sounded.

Methodist Homecoming To Feature Former Pastors

Members of the Hart First Methodist Church are going all out to make their homecoming Nov. 17-21, a tremendous success.

Being distributed is a brochure giving pertinent facts and naming officers and service organizations at the church.

Homecoming services will be held each evening according to Pastor E. H. Phillips. They will begin at 7:30 a.m. Monday through Thursday.

On Sunday, Rev. R. O. Browder, a former pastor, will bring the message.

REV. E.H. PHILLIPS

Monday, the 7:30 p.m. service Rev. Lee Couch, another former Hart pastor, and presently pastor at the first church in Canadian, will speak.

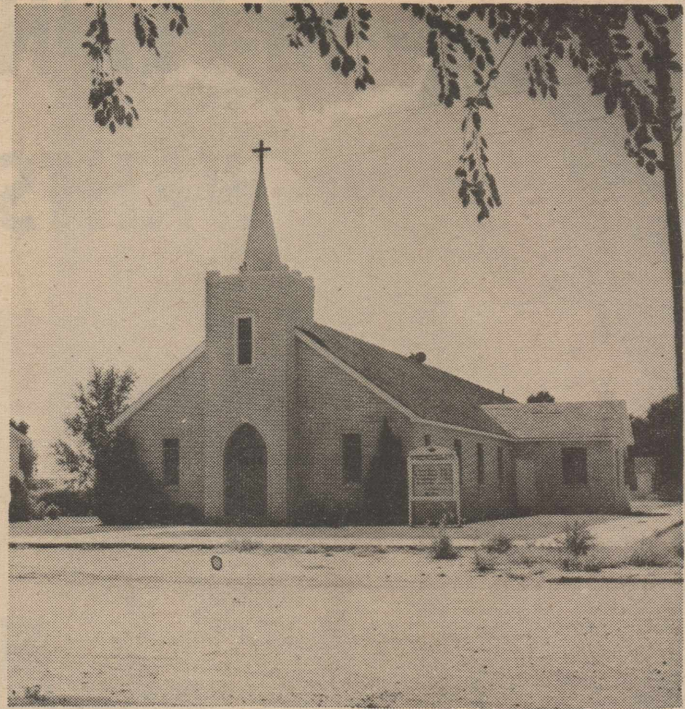

Wednesday evening Rev. Lyman Wood of the Wesley Methodist Church in Borger, will once again preach from the Hart pulpit.

Thursday at 7:30 p.m. there will be a church thanksgiving dinner, which will precede a worship service. At that time the church will dedicate its educational building.

District Supt. Dr. J.E. Shewbert will be in charge of the dedication service and bring the message of the evening.

Included in the pamphlet published by the church, the history of the organization is prepared by Mrs. Lens Maples, a charter member.

Cornerstone of the First Methodist Church, according to Mrs. Maples, was laid in April 1922, when Rev. G.R. Fort of Dimmitt came to Hart and preached on Saturday night. He was the first Methodist pre-cher to hold services in Hart.

FIRST METHODIST CHURCH

Original members of the church were Mr. and Mrs. Walter Jobe, Morris Jobe, Jack Jobe, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Rutherford, Eunice Rutherford, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Lust, Miss Lois Branson, Rob Duff, Mrs. Doyle Duff, Belton Finney, E. I. Mc-Lain, Mr. and Mrs. E. G Shives, Leroy Shives and Mrs. Lena Maples.

Listed in the brochure are all the pastors of the church since its beginning in 1922. As many as 25 pastors have filled the pulpit since the church's beginning.

Number Of Situations

WASHINGTON—Unemployment can reflect the desire to work but inability to find a job. It can also reflect the ability to work but lack of great desires for a job.

Present employment surveys by the Department of Labor don't show the difference.

The average unemployment rate is 4.8 per cent. That is for all the jobless. Teen-aged boys have a 13.1 per cent rate; teen-aged girls 12.7 per cent. Married women have a 6.4 per cent rate. Single men over 20 have an 8.8 per cent rate.

It is possible that some teenagers, though seeking work, show no great desire for it because they are living at home with their parents. It is possible that some married women are very choosy about the type of work they will accept so long as their husbands are supporting them.

These surmises are suggested by the fact that among the group clearly with the greatest incentive to work, married men not separated from their wives, the unemployment rate is 2.3 per cent, less than half the average.

Just One Year Worth $17,500

WASHINGTON---Parents of high school students have a chance to make this year worth an average of $17,500 apiece to their children. It is a startlingly large sum for a teenager to get for a year's effort. Many persons highly skilled make far less. But if parents keep their children in school this year, they can reasonably expect them to earn an average of $17,500 more over their working lives than if they dropped out, according to the Chamber of Commerce of the United States. A full four years of high school would be worth $70,000 extra.

Youths who drop out, moreover, may drift from one transitory job to another throughout their lives. For educated persons, good, permanent jobs are plentiful.

The problem is critical. We have one time for schooling, when we are young. Yet about one million youths will quit this year unless parents, friends, teachers, businessmen, and others act to help the waverers now.
