Tuesday the low dropped all the way to 20, and the afternoon sun pushed the mercury up to the 55 degree mark. Starting Dec. 2 and continuing through until Dec. 5, the area had a lot of fog and heavy mist -- but very little actual moisture.

By Monday area cotton producers were back in the fields in full swing.

But then Wednesday, temperatures dropped and cloud cover moved back over the area.

The cold weather is merely an inconvenience most of the time, but moisture along with the cold weather could slow a fast moving cotton harvest considerably.

The bad weather overthelatter part of last week slowed the harvest some, and gave the three area gins a chance to begin to catch up with themselves,

By Wednesday the three gins had weighed in 8762 bales. All but 917 bales -- or 7845 bales -- had been ginned.

Light Ceremony Is Set Dec . 12

PLAINVIEW -- An expanding Christmas lighting ceremony at Wayland Baptist College will be staged at 6:45 p.m., Dec. 12, with the students caroling before the lights are turned on, according to Tommy Lyons, chairman of the committee.

Special Christmas music will be sung by Wayland International Choir, and the Hand Bell Choir will play before "The Setting of the Christmas Star" ceremoney takes place. The public is invited to share the occasion with the college.

To avoid the sporadic lighting that resulted last year when several circuits were used, this year a single circuit is being installed so that all lights will come on at once, according to Lyons. Another 150 feet length of lights has been purchased to add to the overall effectiveness of design.

From each residence hall students will come singing, caroling, and bearing a candle. These candles range in size from three feet to nine feet in height and will be placed across the front of Gates Hall. Joining in to make this a tradition are Joining in to make this a tradition to be remembered is the art department, which is creating a life-sized manger scene to be set on front campus.

Following the ceremony during the next week, students will be allowed to visit the residence hall parlors to see the Christmas decorations during the 6-7 p.m. period.

Brotherhood Hall will keep open house from 2 to 4 o'clock Sunday afternoon.

Georgia—Tech Tilt Slated

LUBBOCK -- Neither Georgia or Texas Tech -- foes in the Sun Bowl at El Paso Dec. 26 -- is a stranger to post season play.

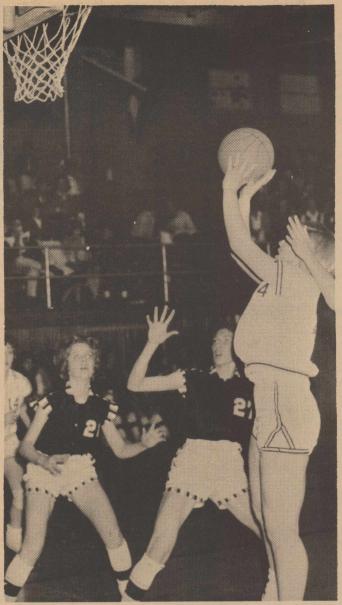

Georgia's Bulldogs have played in seven such contests, the Red Raiders eight.

Georgia has three times been to the Orange Bowl, defeating Texas Christian 40-26 in 1941 and Missouri 14-0 in 1960, losing to Texas 41-28 in 1949. Also, the Southeastern Conference team holds decisions in the 1943 Rose Bowl over UCLA 9-0 and in the 1945 Oil Bowl 20-6 over Tulsa and has been tied by Maryland 20-20 in the 1947 Gator Bowl. Texas A&M won the 1950 Presidential Cup game from Georgia 40-20.

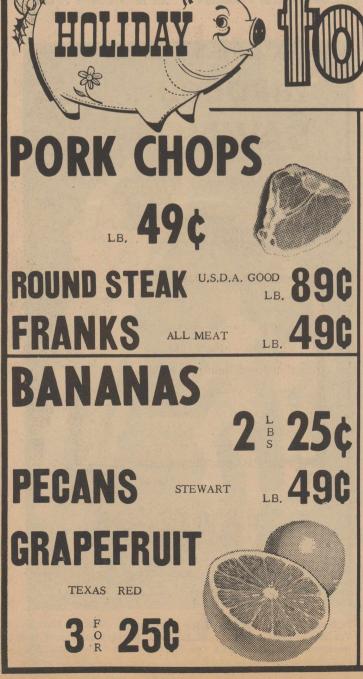

Texas Tech lost in three Sun Bowl games — to West Virginia 7-6 in 1938, to Tulsa 6-0 in 1942, to Miami of Ohio 13-12 in 1948 — before downing College of the Pacific 25-14 in 1952. The Raiders went again to the Sun Bowl in 1956 bowing to Wyoming 21-14.

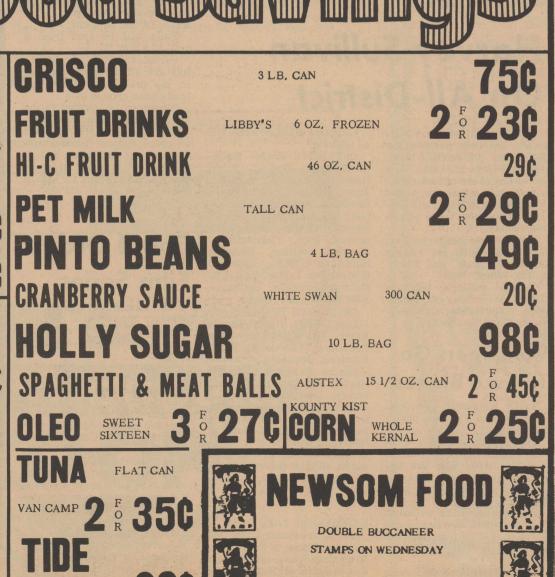

Tech's other bowl victory came in the 1954 Gator over Auburn 35-13 (when the outstanding back for the losers was Vince Dooley, the present Georgia coach.) Also, Tech lost in the 1939 Cotton Bowl to St. Mary's 20-13 and in the Raisin Bowl of 1950 to San Jose 20-13.

Tickets to the bowl are a-vailable at the Texas Tech athletic office for $5. A mailing fee of 50 cents should accompany each mail order.

Hey Kids! Santa's Ready For Letters

Christmas is coming -- the culmination of an entire year of work for Santa Claus and his helpers at the North Pole. The jolly old fellow is all set now to start taking orders for Christmas, or so he informed the Hart Beat in a letter we received from the North Pole this week.

He is keeping the same Zip Code with the Post Office that he had last year, but letters must be mailed by Dec. 17 for him to get the orders processed in time for Christmas delivery.

Once Santa has finished with the letters, he will send them back to Hart, and they will be published in the Hart Beat. Here's the letter we received in the mail this week: Toyland, North Pole

Dec. 1964

The Hart Beat Hart, Texas 79064

Once again I'm getting anxious to see you and all my little friends in and around Hart. It's been almost a year since I have been able to visit in the area, and that's a long time to be away from the fine group of friends living in the Hart

There have been a lot of changes made around here during the past year, and they have made the old workshop a lot more efficient. My helpers and I have been very busy all year long, and we have the best presents in the history of the workshop this year -- and in record-breaking numbers,

We're just waiting for the proper time to spread happiness and good cheer all over the world this year. We're doing our best to see that everyone has the very nicest and happiest Christmas ever this year -- we wouldn't want it any other way.

Bill, please remind the children in the Hart area that I still have a Zip Code (same as last year -- 99701) and ask them to please use the zip number on all their letters to me.

Oh, yes, and ask them to include their own zip numbers on their return addresses. It would sure make things a lot easier on old Santa if every boy and girl would take just a minute or two and add a zip code number for me to use when I make the rounds this Christmas.

You see, one of the changes we've made around here was to install one of those computer gadgets to sort the mail. It really zips them through, but it goes all to pieces when it gets hold of a letter without a zip number -- and then one of the helpers has to stop making presents and go sort our the letters without any zip numbers.

And then, too, the zip numbers make it a lot easier for me to find my way around and get the proper presents to the proper children when I make my trip through Hart on Christmas Eve.

I'm trying to set up a visit now to Hart before I make my annual trip; so I can check up on just what all my little friends have been doing during the past year.

Until I see you again, I send my love, best wishes and hopes for the merriest of merry holidays to you and all my friends in Hart.

Cotton Vote Set Dec. 15

Just what a "yes" or "no" vote will mean in the Dec. 15 referendum on upland cotton marketing quotas was explained today by Jim Elder, chairman Agricultural Stabilization and Castro County Conservation Committee.

All farmers who engaged in the production of upland cotton in 1964 are eligible to vote in the referendum.

The chairman said the basic program choices are:

-- If at least two-thirds of the growers who vote in the referendum approve of quotas, the quotas will be in effect for the 1965 upland cotton crop, marketing penalities will apply to any excess cotton produced on a farm, price-support loans at a level within the range of 65 to 90 percent of parity will be available to farmers who do not exceed their acreage allotments, and -- in addition-price support payments can be earned by farmers for keeping their acreage within the farm's "domestic" allotment.

B -- If more than one-third of the growers who vote oppose the quotas, then there will be no quotas and no penalties applicable to the 1965 upland cotton crop, no "domestic allotment" program providing price- support payments, and price support to farmers who comply with their acreage allotments will be available at 50 percent of parity, as directed by law.

The regular acreage allotment program is not affected by the outcome of the balloting. The allotments will remain

Allotments and other program details for individual farms will be made available to growers within the next few days, so that farmers may have the information prior to the Dec. 15 referendum.

Hart Girls Win Kress Tournament

The Longhornettes beat the Olton Fillies 46-43 in the first game of the Kress Tournament, and then the Hart girls went on to win first place in the tourney.

The girls had a perfect week this week -- winning four out of four. So far the Longhornettes have lost but a single game -that being to Roosevelt.

Connie Bailey and Dixie Kendrick scored 18 points each against the Olton girls.

Leading Olton's offensive effort was Sherry Caddel with 20

Linda Popejoy did a fine job of returning the ball to the forwards, and Retta Henderson and Judy Humphrey rebounded well for the Longhornettes.

Hart Jumped to animmediate 10 point lead at the end of the first period. Then the Long-hornettes had to fight off the Fillies to get the 46-43 victory.

Friday, in one of the wild-est games of the season, the Hart girls downed Kress -- for the second time during the season -- by a score this time of Hart led all the way, but there were several times when it looked as if the Kress girls might wipe out the Hart margin completely.

Retta Henderson fouled out of the game in the first half, and she was replaced at the guard position by starting forward Connie Bailey.

Though Miss Bailey had never before played at a guard position, her effort from the back court earned her a berth on the all-tournament team.

Hart led by four points at the end of the first and second periods of play. The margin at the end of the third quarter was seven points and Hart led by four points at the final buzzer.

In the final game the Longhornettes stampeded past Hale Center 54-34.

This win gave the Hart girls the first-place trophy.

Connie Bailey scored 29 points against Hale Center, and Dixie Kendrick dropped in 17 points.

Hale Center had been averaging 45 points per game; so the Hart guards -- Judy Humphrey, Linda Popejoy and Retta Henderson -- played a fine game in the winning game of the

Hart gained an eight point lead in the first quarter, and then the Longhornettes widened the margin of victory in each subsequent period of play.

Both Dixie Kendrick and Connie Bailey landed berths on the all-tournament team.

In other tourney action, Bovina and Nazareth played Thursday night. Bovina won 40-25. Bovina was beaten out of the finals by Silverton -and Silverton was beaten by Hale Nazareth beat Quitaque and then Olton to win the consolation bracket.

The Longhorns lost their first game in the tournament, falling to Olton -- which won second place in the tourney -- 46-37. Gary Heller scored 27 points to lead the offensive effort. Olton's high scorer was Joe Priest with 20 points. Hart led the Mustangs for three quarters -- 14-8, 25-23 and 35-30 -- before running into a scoring drought in the final period at the same time Olton started hitting their shots for the 46-37 final score.

Friday the Longhorns downed Lockney 57-43 to stay in the tournament.

Heller led the Hart effort with 31 points. High point scorer for Lockney hit 24 points.

The Longhorns managed a one point lead after the first period - 12-11. At the halftime the score was tied 20-20. Hart trailed by a point -- 36-35--at the end of the third period, but then pulled away for the 57-43 victory.

In the last game the Longhorns were soundly trounced by Hale Center 65-19

Heller scored 10 points in the

Hart trailed 16-2 after one period of play, 30-5 after the half, 47-13 at the end of the third period and 65-19 at the end of the game.

Gary Heller won a spot on the all-tounament team.

After beating Hart by nine points, Olton won second place. Hale Center won the tournament consolation trophy for their victory over the Longhorns. Hale Center was beaten only by Quitaque. Quitaque beat Olton for first place in the tourney.

Tuesday the Hart teams paid a visit to Spade.

The Longhornettes won 66-30, after leading 42-11 at the Dixie Kendrick took top honors with 25 points, followed by Connie Bailey with 20 points.

The "B" teamgirls, however lost their contest with the Spade girls 31-27,

The Longhorns didn't fare too well either. Spade downed the Hart boys 63-47.

Gary Heller hit 19 points for Hart, and Larry McKay added 16 in the losing effort.

During the first games of the Kress tournament, Hart's "B" teams were tangling disastrously with Dimmitt. Both teams lost their contests.

The next action on hand for the high school cagers is the Roosevelt Tournament.

Tournament starts Thursday, but Harts first game will come when the Longhorns take on Shallowater at 5 p.m.

The Longhornettes will tangle with Idalou at 6:15 p.m. Friday.

Phosphate Use Is Discussed

BY W. F. "BILL" BENNETT AGRONOMIST Grain sorghum harvest is over. Cotton harvest is under-Thoughts are turning to fertilizer use for the 1955 crop. As in the past, questions are arising as to whether phosphorus should be used and if so, what kind, how much and when and how to apply it.

This past crop season has shown some good responses to phosphate on all crops. Responses have generally been good on grain sorghum even in a year when yields have been slightly below normal. Ingeneral, grain sorghum yields with phosphate applied have been 6000 plus. Without phosphate, yields have been around 5500. These figures obviously will vary from from the form and some fields. farm to farm and some fields without phosphorus have yielded in excess of 6000 pounds grain per acre, but these are the exception rather than the rule. It is no longer a question of whether to apply phosphorus. Instead, it is a matter of how much and when and how to apply. The best basis is a soil test to determine whether the soil can supply sufficient quantities of phosphorus.

Source of phosphate is closely related to time and method of application. Banding phosphorus has generally given better results than broadcast phosphorus if used in equivalent quantities. Dry phosphorus sources usually are more adapted for broadcasting. Liquid phosphorus sources are more easily banded.
Sources of phosphorus can be divided into two broad groups

the ammonium phosphates

ammonium phosphates are available in several grades such as 11-37-1, 18-46-0, 11-48-1, as 11-37-0, 18-46-0, 11-48-0, 16-20-0 and so on. Their biggest advantages are their 100 percent water-solubility and the presence of both nitrogen and phosphorus in the same liquid or dry pellet. Nitrogen associated directly with phosphorus will usually increase phosphorus uptake by the plant. The calcium phosphates generally available are 0-20-0 and 0-46-

0. The biggest advantage of these materials is their slightly cheaper cost - an advantage and the calcium phosphates. The offset by the higher availabilammonium phosphates are aity of phosphorus in the ammonium ium phosphates.

One point to consider on broadcast phosphorus is to incorporate the fertilizer into the soil as much as possible. If still possible, broadcast phosphorus should be applied, disked in and turned under when plow-There is some concern that such a practice may place the phosphate too deep for roots to obtain it. This is not true unless there is some restriction of root growth due to poor physical condition, excess moisture in the soil or similar factors. In fact, phosphorus which is deep would generally tend to encourage deeper root growth which is usually desir-able. Broadcasting of phosphorus on top of plowed ground and then bedding-up may place too much of the phosphate above seed level. Liquid phosphorus sources are gaining in popularity as a means of easily banding a phosphate source. This banding operation, which is a dual ap-plication of ammonia and liquid, can be done when gound is still flat or can be put in the sides of the bed on 20-inch centers. Row spacing or double row maize may dictate narrower or wider chisel spacings.
