City Election Set, Incumbents To Step Aside

Hart city commission this week called its annual city election for Tuesday April 6.

Terms of all three members expire---Mayor Ed Harris, and commissioners Norlan Dudley and Claude Cox.

And all three apparently will not seek re-election.

"I'm not going to run again and the other members have told me they're not, either," Mayor Harris said Tuesday.

Candidates for the three offices have until March 6 to file for a place on the ballot.

The election will be held the first Tuesday in April at the Hart city office, with polls open from 8 a.m. to 7 p.m.

The commission has named E. E. Foster to serve as presiding judge, with Martha Bauman and Stewart Newsom as clerks.

Leap Frog Temps Here

Hart weather played leapfrog during the month of December with the low recorded for that month on Dec. 17 at 4 degrees.

High for the month was 72 degrees recorded Dec. 28. On that same day, a low of 44 degrees was noted.

The month saw very little moisture.

Low thus far this month has been 19 degrees recorded on both Jan. 9 and 10.

High has been 70 degrees on Jan. 8.

The first day of the year saw a reading at 7 a.m. of 57 and high for the day set at 68 degrees.

During the next week, temperatures dropped as low as 20 and went as high as 75.

Reading Jan. 8 at 6:30 a.m. was 26 degrees. At 2:15 that afternoon, temperature soared to 70 and then began dropping rapidly after a norther hit the area. At 4 p.m. the reading was 42 and at 6:20 p.m., it was 33 degrees.

The next two days saw a low of 19 with a high of 34 on Jan. 9 and 48 on Jan. 10.

Monday, the low was 23 and a high of 55 was recorded.

HART CAGERS DIVIDE PAIR WITH HAPPY

Hart basketballers opened the district wars here Tuesday night by splitting with teams from Happy.

The Hart girls won their game, 43-38, with Connie Bailey hitting for 26 points and Dixie Kendrick scoring 16.

The Longhorns lost their battle to Happy, 72-40, despite a 23-point scoring performance by Gary Heller.

Next game on tap for the Hart teams is Friday night, when they meet Roosevelt here in a non-district encounter. Girl's game begins at 6:30 p.m.

Next Tuesday night, the Hart teams will travel to Lazbuddie for their second district game.

No Injuries As Train, Truck Hit

A Lubbock truck driver narrowly escaped death and serious injury Friday night in a truck-train collision here.

The driver, H. H. White, emerged from the thunderous crash with only a few scratches.

The collision occurred about 6:25 p.m. when the Fort Worth and Denver freight, headed west, was pulling into the Hart station.

The truck-trailer was headed south with a load of steel and the driver apparently did not see or hear the train, according to H. E. Loman at the FWD depot. "Just after dark, I heard a tremendous crash and went outside to investigate," Loman said.

The front of the train hit just behind the truck cab, separating the cab from the trailer. Several tons of steel on the trailer scattered down the track.

Front of the train engine was damaged only slightly and three men on the engine were unharmed.

"The train wasn't running fast because it was pulling into stop at the depot," Loman said.

Loman said the train used its whistle and had its headlight and oscillating lights going as it pulled into the depot area.

New Construction
This Year
Over
$24,000,000!

That's right! Reddy Kilowatt will invest $24,607,000.00 this year, in the service area of Southwestern Public Service Company, as evidence of the faith we all share in a growing land that 100 years ago promised less but has delivered more than perhaps any other area in our nation. We'll be completing another large steam electric generating unit, adding new transmission and distribution lines with one view in mind — to give you better service at the lowest possible cost. You'll have, at the touch of your finger, all the power you'll need for a powerful area.

Picture shows an example of modern construction methods. The aerial, truck-mounted bucket lift is being used by two linemen in a safe and efficient manner to construct a new 230,000 volt transmission line.

Boom!

A Kentucky judge, skeptical of the testimony of a scientific expert, recalled a story he had once heard from a lecturer:

"Take the bumblebee. Apply to him the recognized aerodynamic tests. From the size, shape and weight of his body, in relation to total wing area, he cannot possibly fly. But the bumblebee does not know this, and he goes ahead and flies anyway."

The story sheds light on a new legal troublemaker, the sonic boom. Experts, applying the recognized aerodynamic tests, predicted that the boom could not possibly cause extensive damage. But windows, not knowing this, went ahead and broke anyway. As supersonic flights multiplied, so did complaints about cracked plaster and shattered bric-a-brac. Rightly or wrongly, the boom was blamed for making a dog neurotic and a man arthritic, for rupturing a swimming pool and splitting a toilet bowl.

All this commotion raised some novel points of law that are still not settled. For example: When is it negligent for a pilot to break the sound barrier? Can you collect insurance for sonic boom damage if your policy protects you against "explosions"?

Luckily for most claimants, the United States Air Force stands ready to pay for the damage it causes—without quibbling about such technicalities. Air Force bases have set up regular procedures for handling claims.

However, the Air Force has no desire—indeed, no right—to pay for damage it does not cause. This is no easy road to government money. Every claim is meticulously investigated by a team of specialists before it is paid.

No doubt the problem will get worse when civilian airlines switch to supersonic jets. As an Air Force claims official put it to a group of insurance men:

"You ain't seen nothin' yet." But for the present, the problem has been kept within reasonable bounds. Pilots are carefully schooled in holding a minimum. And citizens are being urged to realize that the boom is caused not by hot sky but by vital decisions.

The message is getting through. The boom is a boomerang that this man-made sound is the irksome sound of the reassuring sound.

WATER CHANGES SOUGHT- Texas Research League has called for a switch in water planning functions from the Water Commission to the Water Development Board.

League sees Commission's role as a water rights' administration agency.

Initial decisions on water supplies needed for the next century must be made within six years to assure Texas' continued growth and prosperity. So states the League in the first of a series of four reports following its two-year study.

League said the state must be prepared to finance "a reasonable share" of some $4,000,000 in water development projects during the rest of this century. It recommends broadening the purposes for which state water development funds can be invested.

COMPLIANCE PLEDGED -- State Board of Education voted 13-5 to comply with the 1964 Civil Rights law, a necessary ingredient for acceptance of some $37,000,000 in Federal funds for public school operation.

1965 Oilseeds Supports Told

Charley E. Hill, office manager of the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Castro County Office, has announced support prices to be in effect for 1965-crop oilseeds. The national average supports will be $2.25 per bushel for soybeans and $43 per ton basis (100) grade for cottonseed. Terminal and county support rates with adjustments for grade and quality difference will be announced later.

"In determining the support prices for soybeans and cottonseed, several factors were considered. Among these were the supply of the commodity in relation to demand, the ability of the Commodity Credit Corporation to dispose of stocks acquired under price support and the support levels for other commodities. The law also provides that whenever the price of cottonseed or soybeans is supported, the support price of the other must be kept at a level which enable these commodities to compete on equal terms on the market."

Supports for 1964 crops were $2.25 per bushel for soybeans and $44 per ton for cottonseed.

CARD OF THANKS

The English language does not contain words adequate to express our deep appreciation for the many acts of kindness, kind words of sympathy, the beautiful flowers, the wonderful meals, and the many other expressions of love that you so graciously shared with us during the illness of our loved one, and in our sorrow of his passing. We especially want to express our appreciation to the Joe Newman family for sharing their home with the family and serving the meals. We will ever remember your kindness with love in our hearts, and will ever be praying that God will bless you for your kindness and love.

We know beyond a doubt that the people of Hart are the most wonderful in the world, and are ever ready to share the burdens and sorrow of their friends. No other people on earth could be so kind and loving as you are. From the very depths of our hearts we say God bless you, and may his love ever shine in your lives. The Jim Height Family.
