Seven Hart Future Farmers of America were announced as winners of the state's top FFA award--the Lone Star Farmer degree--last Friday at the state FFA convention in Austin.

The youths are:
David Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Smith.
Bob Crick, son of Mr. and Mrs. Verle Crick.

Doug Martin, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Martin, Jr.
Billy Bob Bell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Bell.

Jerry Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Smith.

The awards are based on work done by the boys in their FFA chapter, along with qualities exhibited in leadership and citizenship. Chapter advisor and vocational agriculture teacher at Hart is Lanny Tucker.

One of the youths, David Smith, was selected as Lone Star Farmer of Area I earlier this year. He competed at the state convention with 10 other area winners for the state's highest honor.

David was named runner-up in the competition, finishing second to a boy from Idalou.

David also received a Santa Fe Railway educational award at the state meeting and will attend the National FFA Convention in Kansas City in October.

FOR DRAW PROJECT

Work Plan Is Completed

Tentative work plans are complete for both the upper and lower watershed protection projects on Running Water Draw, Soil Conservation Service has announced. The Draw extends from north of Clovis, southeastward through Plainview, with drainage area divided into two subwatersheds to facilitate planning and administration, but have been developed simultaneously since they are component parts of the larger watershed.

The preparation of the tentative work plan was done by the Soil Conservation Service at the request of local sponsors. Money to pay for the cost of preparing these workplans was made available through a trust fund set up by the County Commissioners Courts and City Councils in the Counties affected by the Watershed Project. In excess of $70,000 was put into the trust fund by these sub-divisions of local government, says Virgle L. Cunn-

Work Continues On Hart History

Hart Beat staff members continued work this week on a special historical edition which will be published Aug. 11 in connection with the county's Diamond Jubilee celebration.

Residents with pictures or information on Hart or Hart residents from the period 1890-1950 are asked to contact the paper as soon as possible.

A RESULT OF THE WEATHER -- Two grain storage tanks at Hart Grain Company's leg between Hart and Olton collapsed last Thursday afternoon. It was believed that heavy rains on July 10 caused the foundation of the larger tank to sink. It fell, landing on the smaller tank.

Hart Pastor Evangelist For Washington-Oregon Meet

The Rev. Dinzel Leonard, pastor of the Hart Baptist Church, has been named evangelist for the Family Camp of the Washington and Oregon Baptist Convention.

Rev. Leonard will be working with the Rev. Tommy Allen, pastor of a Lewiston Baptist church. Rev. Allen has held a revival at Hart and was former pastor at Hale Center.

Wise Shopping Makes Bargains

Almost everyone talks about food prices and the weather. You as a consumer can do something about food prices, although the weather problem is not quite that simple, says Mrs. Gwen Clyatt, Texas A&M University Extension consumer marketing specialist.

You can receive more for four food dollar if you make wiser choices. Careful planning and shopping can give your food budget more mileage, she emphasizes.

Mrs. Clyatt suggests these steps to smart shopping:

Keep alert to what your favorite market is featuring. Watch and study food advertisements, and plan your menus to include as many "specials" as possible. Try to remember the regular prices so you'll know if the special is really a good buy.

Buy featured foods in quantity if you can use them and if storage space allows.

When planning menus for the family, keep their nutritional needs as well as likes in mind.

Make a shopping list to cut down on impulse buying. Take the time to shop around in your favorite store. Every week there are new and different food items from which you can choose.

Figure the real cost, or cost-per-serving, for the true cost of the food item. The cost per pound or unit of an item is often misleading if you do not check the number of servings. Meat, for example, which has a large amount of bone at a lower price per pound, will often cost more per serving than boneless meat that actually costs more per pound.

When selecting convenience foods, consider time and cost. Some cost the same or slightly more, and others cost less than those with no convenience.

Locally grown fresh vegetable supplies have slacked off a bit due to hot weather. However, some local items of good quality continue to come to market to supplement those from other growing areas. Best values include bell peppers, southern peas, cucumbers, okra, carrots, squash, eggplant, tomatoes, radishes, lettuce and green onions. Frozen vegetables are among "specials" of the week.

Among good fruit choices are watermelons, cantaloupes and honey dew melons, peaches, plums, grapes, pineapples and bananas. Fruit cocktail is being featured in a number of stores.

Best beef values include round steaks and roasts, ground beef, short ribs and chuck roasts and steaks. Pork is a featured item in some stores, and fryers are good buys.

STATE CAPITAL Highlights AND Sidelights

Lt. Gov. Preston Smith appointed the following as an advisory committee to the Legislative Council Study Committee on County Government:

Harold Green, president, County Judges and Commissioners Assn.; L. D. McCormick, president, County Treasurers Assn.; O. D. Ginegan, president, County Tax Assessors - Collectors Assn.; V. G. Young, assistant director Agricultural Extension Services at Texas A&M University; Joe G. Resweber, Harris County attorney; Dick Kirby, president, County Auditors Assn.; and Bill Waters, president, District and County Attorneys Assn.

Council is composed of 10 State Representatives and five Senators, with Smith as chairman and House Speaker Ben Barnes, vice-chairman.

CONTRASTING JOB SITUATION--Texas employment is continuing its upward trend, but at the same time, unemployment is rising too, the Texas Employment Commission reports.

Total employment rose from 3,867,600 in April to 3,898,000 in mid-May, while unemployment rose from 121,000 to 124,000 during the same period. The number of workers on non-farm payrolls rose by 6,500 to 3,585,300, and farm employment jumped 23,900 during May. The 3,000 increase in unemployment was caused by early entrants into the market from schools.

OTHER PARKS NEED REPAIR--According to William M. Gosdin, park services director, state parks' buildings need repairs to the tune of $970,000.

State Parks are expected to get $2,200,000 for improvement from federal sources during each of the coming two years. But Gosdin said a complete statewide outdoor recreation plan is needed by 1970 to keep the state qualified for federal aid for park construction.

MORE BOAT RAMPS--Thirty-three new boat ramps across the state, making a total of 94 such ramps, have been approved by the Texas Highway Commission.

Twenty of the new ones are adjacent to farm-to-market or park roads.

These new ramps will increase launching facilities by more than one-half and will cost $241,800, or an average of $7,327 each. Source of money, provided for under the Texas Water Safety Act, comes from Certificate of Number fees collected from Texas boat owners.

And, speaking of boats, new boat inspection fees and unclaimed boat gasoline sales taxes are reaping about $100,000 a month for the state.

According to the State Parks and Wildlife Department, a new system is being set up so that fines collected for boat safety law violations will go to a State fund, rather than to county funds where most other law-breakers' fines are deposited.

BIG THicket ENDORSED--State Parks and Wildlife Commission endorsed "in principle" the creation of a Big Thicket State Park. It will embrace some 15,000 acres of the 300,000 acres in Liberty, Hardin, Tyler and Livingston Counties known as the "Big Thicket."

Will Odom of Austin, commission chairman, said endorsement would be made "specific" after the Parks and Wildlife staff has studied the proposal. Then all the Commission needs is legislative approval.

SHORT SNORTS - Governor Connally has approved nine grants under the Economic Opportunity Act. Fort Worth and Tarrant County got the biggest chunk of money -- $368,980 -- for use in planned parenthood services, family-neighborhood services, poverty centers and dental care. Waco and McLennan County received $346,130 for day-care services, booster education, remedial and summer education, expansion of Planned Parenthood.

Department of Agriculture designated as drought disaster areas Carson, Lipscomb, Wheeler, Hemphill and Collingsworth Counties.

Dr. Hal Potts, Dallas, is new district program consultant for Texas OEO, appointed by Governor Connally.

DRAW PROJECT

ham, area conservationist, SCS Amarillo.

Estimated total construction costs, including fair market values of land to be covered by water or structures is $2.5 million. It is estimated that total Public Law 566 expenditures will be in the neighborhood of $1.6 million. The entire project is being carried out under the authority of the Watershed Protection and Flood Prevention Act (Public Law 566, 83rd Congress) as Amended.

The primary purpose of the project is flood prevention. Major floods on this draw cause severe damage to crops, fences, farm improvements, county and state roads and bridges, and low water crossings in the agricultural area of the watershed.

Severe damage is also done to industrial, commercial, and public properties in the City of Plainview. It is estimated that more than $1 million in non-agricultural damage would occur in the City of Plainview if a flood such as that of 1941 were to recur. The 1941 flood was one that is expected only once in every 38 years. The entire project consists of 8 floodwater retarding structures and 5.3 miles of channel improvement. All channel improvement will be done in and adjacent to the City of Plainview. The floodwater structures will be allocated on private lands at intervals along the draw.

In addition to reducing damages to agricultural and non-agricultural areas, there will be secondary benefits of ground water recharge at an estimated rate of 6,000 acre feet per year.

The dollar value placed on an acre foot of water is $16 per acre foot. The ratio of average annual project benefits to the average annual project cost is above two to one. Water based recreation, one of the hoped for primary benefits, has been ruled out as unfeasible due to the high permeability of the soils in the floodplain of the draw.

Only one small recreation area is planned and that is the Clovis Site, just north of Clovis, New Mexico. It is anticipated that some forms of private recreation enterprises will be established at one or more of the structures.

The next phase in the project is securing adequate land treatment on private land that contributes to the drainage area of the Watershed. This phase is being spearheaded by local Soil Conservation Districts with technical assistance from the Soil Conservation Service. Adequate treatment of land in the watershed must be secured before any construction is started. Treatment is considered adequate when 75% of the active erosion from wind and water is controlled. This is necessary to prevent sedimentation of the flood prevention structures and thereby prolong the effective life of the project.

McMurry Trip Is Described By Hart Girl

BY KAY SMITH

We left at 8:30 Tuesday morning, June 5, and arrived in Abilene around noon, ate dinner and registered.

Registration was held in the Radford Building on the campus at McMurry. We were then assigned to our dorms and given the number of the goups we were to be in.

At the dorms we were assigned to our rooms and roommates. At 3:00 we had orientation followed by group sessions. After supper, the first presentation began at 7 p. m. with worship at 9 P. M. There was free time from 9:45 to 10:30, when we were to be in the dorms.

Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday, breakfast was at 7:30 with worship following at 8:30.

From 9 to 12 we had "time blocks". Activities for the "time blocks" were posted on the bulletin board near the entrance to the dining hall each morning. From 1:00 to 2:30 was rest and free time. Other "time blocks" were from 2:30 to 4:30 and from 7 to 9.

During the "time blocks" at night from 7 to 9 we had presentations. These presentations were put on by a special group of teens that had arrived a day early in order to put on the presentations. They consisted of stunts and plays which had to do with the theme of the senior high convocation, "Living It Up".

Wednesday night during the presentation a movie was shown followed by a group discussion. Thursday night was a hootenanny and Friday, each group put on a play.

Saturday, group discussions were held at 8:30 with a final presentation at 10:00 followed by closing worship and communion services at 10:45. At noon we had lunch and departed for home.

Everyone of us had a wonderful time and came back a little richer than when we left.

Jubilee Books Are On Sale

After World War I, the population increase caused the consolidation of the first schools in the County. They were the Lone Star and the Killough schools. They were consolidated during 1921, and the same year Parrott, or Grandview, consolidated with Lakeview to become the Junbo School. Within the next few years brick school buildings were constructed at Hart, Cleo, Jumbo, Sunnyside, Big Square, and Flagg. All were built during the twenties."

The above is a paragraph taken from an 80-page historical booklet about Castro County, which is now on sale, as announced by Goldman Dyer, chairman of the committee in charge of preparing it.

Cotton Loan Maturity Date Is August 1

Farmers have until the close of business on August 1 to redeem their 1965-crop cotton which is under Commodity Credit Corporation loans, Charley E. Hill, office manager, Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation County Committee, said this week.

Hill explained that growers who have 1965-crop upland and extra long staple cotton under loan may redeem their crop at any time through August 1 by paying off the loan plus charges and interest.

Any of the cotton on which loans have not been repaid by that time will be acquired by CCC, but this does not include cotton on which CCC may call loans on an earlier date or cotton on which there is a basis for a claim against the producer.

As provided in the loan agreements, CCC will not pay for any market value which the cotton may have in excess of the amount of the loan plus charges and interest.

Advance notice is given that the 1965-crop cotton will be acquired by CCC after August 1 so that borrowers may have sufficient time to redeem their cotton and mills and merchants will be able to obtain additional cotton they may need from the loan before that date.

The August 1 deadline applies to all 1965-crop cotton under loan, including cotton represented by warehouse receipts sent to a local bank at the request of the producer on a purchaser of the equity. This cotton may be redeemed by paying the bank not later than the close of business on August 1.

Through July 1, a total of 6,965,234 bales of 1965-crop cotton was reported pledged for loans. As of the same date, 1,528,992 bales had been redeemed, leaving loans outstanding on 5,352,298 bales.

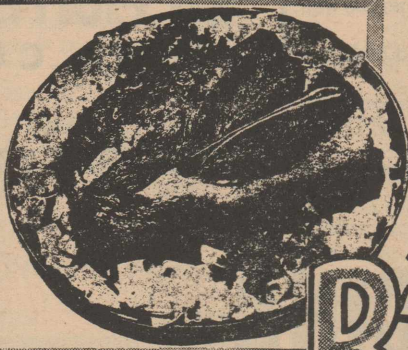

The acreage of cotton planted this year is down to 10,567,000 acres, the smallest in nearly 100 years, the U. S. Department of Agriculture has reported.

Estimated acreage is 25 percent less than the 14,153,000 acres planted last year and about one-third less than the 1960-64 average of 15,728,000 acres. This sharp decline results from heavy grower participation in the 35-percent diversion option of the 1966 upland cotton program.

Charley E. Hill, Castro County ASC office manager explained that growers on the larger farms had the choice of participating in the program by underplanting their cotton allotment by 12.5, 25, or 35 percent, putting the diverted acres into an approved conserving use, and meeting other program provisions. Program benefits include diversion and price-support payments and eligibility for price-support cotton loans.

Growers on small farms (with allotments not over 10 acres or with a projected production of 3,600 pounds or less) could receive payment without having to reduce plantings provided they signed a program application. If the operator chose to reduce the acreage on such a farm, an additional diversion payment was available on the acres actually diverted at the level signed up.

Farm program participants whose cotton, wheat, or feed grain crop was lost after planting had the opportunity to plant other crops on such acreage and still qualify for program benefits. Producers signed up in the program who were unable to plant cotton, wheat, or feed grains this spring because of natural disaster could still qualify for program benefits provided an allotment or feed grain crop was not subsequently planted there for harvest in the current year.

ASC REPORT

BY CHARLIE HILL, CASTRO CO. ASCS

Have you measured and reported your feed grain, cotton and diverted acres?

All participating producers are urged to do this now. Don't wait until the last day, August 15th. We haven't received any word as to when payments will be made, but certainly nothing can be done until you certify to your acreage.

DIVERTED ACRES

Diverted acres may not be grazed until after Nov. 1, 1966, in Castro County regardless of any information you may have read or heard. Weeds must also be controlled on the diverted acres in order to be eligible for payment.
