350 Attend Church Event

Over 350 attended dedication services Sunday for the new St. Johns Catholic Church here.

The church was dedicated by Bishop Lawrence De Falco of the Amarillo Diocese. Also present for the service were three visiting clergy and five sisters from Nazareth.

Proceeds from a dinner following the service and from a fancy-work booth were placed at over $749.

Money will be used to purchase new pews for the church.

IN HART, NATION

It's Zip Code Week

Next week will be "zip code week" in Hart, according to Postmaster Jewel Brooks.

The week has been officially proclaimed by President L. B. Johnson for Oct. 10-15.

"This is a good time to get the zip codes missing from your lists," Postmaster Brooks noted.

"This Christmas, zip code will be as important as shopping and mailing early for the efficient and on-time delivery of the record-breaking mail expected in the pre-holiday weeks."

Next Monday, all residents will receive cards for this purpose.

Postmaster Brooks said that postal clerks will place a card in each post office box and that carriers will place one in each box on the rural and star routes.

Cards will have blanks for addresses used most often, but for which individuals do not

KITCHEN KORNER

BY LELA GALLION

I almost believe that winter is here this morning, it is so chilly. There are a lot of good cooking and eating apples on the market now and at some good prices. I am sure that every one is price conscious these days and it helps to buy the foods that are most plentiful.

These Fresh Apple cookies are real good to use apples in.

FRESH APPLE COOKIES

- 1/2 c. shortening
- 1/2 t. salt
- 1 1/3 c. brown sugar
- 1 t. nutmeg
- 1 t. cinnamon
- 1/2 t. cloves
- 1 t. baking soda
- 1 egg
- 1/3 c. milk, sweet or sour
- 1 c. raisins
- 1 c. unpeeled apples finely chopped
- 2 c. flour
- 1/2 c. nuts

Mix all ingredients together and drop by heaping teaspoon on baking sheet. Bake 11 to 14 minutes at 400 degrees. While still warm, frost with a thin icing made with 1 1/2 cups powdered sugar, 1/2 teaspoon vanilla and a pinch of salt. Add cream until thin enough to spread.

CINNAMON ROLLS

Make shortcake dough on package of biscuit mix. Roll out 1/4-inch thick into rectangle 7 x 16 inches. Spread with 2 1/2 tablespoons soft butter. Sprinkle with mixture of 1/4 cup sugar and 1 teaspoon cinnamon. Roll up tightly, beginning with the 16-inch side. Pinch edge of dough securely to roll to prevent unrolling. Cut into 1-inch slices. Place rolls on greased cooky sheet, cut-side-up. Bake about 15 minutes in 425 degree oven. Makes 16 rolls.

I sometimes put 1 stick of melted oleo in pan plus 1 cup brown sugar and 1/2 cup chopped English Walnuts then lay the rolls on top and bake 20 minutes at 375. Invert pan immediately on taking from the oven.

WALDORF SPIRAL SALAD

- 6 red apples
- 4 cups cold water
- 1/3 cup lemon juice, fresh, frozen, or canned
- 1 cup diced celery
- 1/3 cup seedless raisins, plumped
- 1 cup tiny marshmallows
- 1/4 cup mayonnaise
- 1/4 cup heavy cream, whipped
- 1/2 cup coarsely broken Californian walnuts
- 6 lettuce cups.

Pare apples very thick, being sure each paring is long and unbroken. Measure water and add 3 tablespoons of lemon juice; drop parings in to keep color bright.

Core pared apples and dice fine; sprinkle with remaining lemon juice. Combine apple cubes, celery, raisins, marshmallows, and mayonnaise. Fold in whipped cream. Just before serving, add nuts.

Curl each paring into cup shape on lettuce. Fill with salad. Makes 6 servings.

FRANKFURTER PIZZAS

- 1 pound frankfurters, cut into 1/4 inch thick slices
 - 5 large round buns or English muffins
 - 1 can (8 ounces) tomato sauce
 - 1 clove garlic, minced
 - 1/2 teaspoon sweet basil
 - 1/2 teaspoon leaf oregano
 - 1 can (4 ounces) mushroom stems and pieces, drained
 - 1/4 cup Parmesan cheese
- Split buns or muffins and toast cut side. Combine tomato sauce, garlic, basil, oregano and mushroom stems and pieces. Add frankfurters. Spread 1/3 cup mixture on each toasted bun or muffin half. Sprinkle with Parmesan cheese. Bake in hot oven (425 degrees) 10 minutes. Makes 5 servings.

SPICED HOT MOCHA

- 1 square (1-ounce) unsweetened chocolate
- 1 cup water
- 1/2 cup sugar
- dash of salt
- 1/4 cup instant coffee
- 1 quart milk
- 1/2 cup heavy cream, whipped
- nutmeg
- cinnamon stick (optional)

In top of double boiler put chocolate and water; cook over medium heat, stirring constantly, until chocolate is melted. Stir in sugar, salt and powdered instant coffee, continue cooking, stirring constantly, for 3 minutes. Place top of double boiler in bottom of boiler containing hot water. Stir in milk and cook until milk is heated. Serve hot in heavy mugs. Top each serving with whipped cream and dash of nutmeg. If desired, serve with cinnamon sticks. Makes six 7-ounce servings.

TCU-Tech Tilt Set

LUBBOCK-Texas Tech invades Fort Worth to battle Texas Christian University for the unofficial championship of West Texas Saturday night.

At stake will be a small saddle emblematic of the "title," donated by the Lubbock Avalanche-Journal and Amon Carter Jr. Texas Tech currently holds the saddle, by virtue of a see-saw 28-24 triumph at Lubbock last fall.

Team records aren't imposing. Texas Tech is 1-2, TCU 0-3. Tech opened with a 23-7 win over Kansas, then dropped games to Texas 31-21 and to Texas A&M 35-14. TCU's losses were squeakers to highly-rated Nebraska 14-10 and Ohio State 14-7 before a 21-0 white-washing by Arkansas. In the defeat by the Razorbacks, however, the Horned Frogs piled up more total yardage and five times penetrated the Arkansas 18-yard line.

Texas Tech goes into the game in probably its worst physical shape in several years. Three more men may have been lost in the A&M contest--center Jerry Turner, tackle Stanley Edwards, and half-back Alan Schriewer, all with knee injuries.

Cattle Scabies Inspection Scheduled For This County

Inspection for Psoroptic scabies in cattle in this county was announced this week.

Included in the inspection will be a 38-county Panhandle area.

A team of 16 cattle inspectors hopes to complete the inspection by March 31, 1967.

Reason for the inspection is to determine if scabies does exist in Panhandle cattle and if it doesn't, report the team's findings so restrictions facing Panhandle cattle marketed in other states will be lifted.

Studies indicate an area, which includes the Texas Panhandle and some adjoining counties in Colorado, New Mexico, Oklahoma and Kansas, is a frequent trouble spot for scabies.

Dr. Robert Brown, assistant chief staff veterinarian,

USDA, said that most states blame Texas cattle for scabies outbreaks. He said 15 scabies outbreaks were reported throughout the United States last year and, in most cases, scabies was traced back to Texas cattle.

Counties affected by a federal quarantine include Lamb, Castro, Hale, Floyd, Swisher, Briscoe, Motley and Randall Counties.

Counties to be inspected will work through county agents to line up herds. Most producers will be asked to pen their cattle when possible.

HORNS DOWN

The Hart Longhorns' defensive brilliance overmatched the Hereford "B" Whitefaces and carried the Longhorns to a 12-0 victory at Hereford Thursday night.

The Longhorn defense, with a will-to-win spirit, blocked one punt, recovered a fumble deep in Hereford territory, and did not allow their hosts a single pass completion.

Hereford's Bill Bussell took the opening kickoff at the goal line and elected to try to run the ball out. However, Quincy Hawkins slashed through the line of blockers and dropped Russell at the eight. Ruben Gonzales and Russell combined talents to move the ball out to the 17 in three tries. With a fourth and one situation, Jerry Brady dropped back in punt formation and sent the ball flying out to the 50.

Bob Crick grabbed the ball at this point and made three yards before he was swarmed under. Two running attempts and an incomplete pass later, the Horns were facing fourth down and 11 yards needed. On fourth the Hereford boys drew a 15 yard penalty and the Horns were back in business at the Hereford 33.

Bill Russell proceeded to pick off Gary Rambo's first down pass and put the White faces back in business at their own 18.

The Longhorn defense went to work and allowed their host's only one yard in three tries. Jerry Brady's kick sailed out of bounds at his own 21, giving the Horns another scoring chance.

Two tries by George Ed Bennett netted only two yards and Longhorn hopes began to drop. However, on third down, Bob Crick romped 19 yards to put the Horns in front, 6-0. The extra point pass fell incomplete and the score stood unchanged.

The Whitefaces took the kickoff on the 15 and Bill Russell made it back to the 34 before he was caught, from behind.

Again the Longhorn defense went to work and sent the ball back to the 28 in three tries. Jerry Brady again attempted to punt but W. A. Hawkins got a hand on the ball and Jim Kendrick covered the ball for the Horns at the Hereford 29.

The Horns offense lost 13 yards in three plays and Bennett was forced to punt, dropping the ball at the Hereford five.

Now Hereford, helped by a 15 yard penalty began to move. With Steve McAndrews and Bill Russell picking up most of the yardage, the Whitefaces rolled up four first downs and moved to the 13 before the Longhorns' defense came to life. With a first and 10 from the 13, the Whitefaces were thrown for four straight losses, ending in a fourth down play that saw Elgin Williams dropped at the Hart 44 by Donnie Black.

This time the Horns got the breaks and moved from their own 44 to the Hereford 42 before luck deserted them. A second down pass from Gary Rambo bounced out of the hands of one Horn and then into the arms of George Ed Bennett at the Hereford 15. Bennett fought on down to the eight before the ball squirted free and bounced across the field. Half a dozen assorted Longhorns had a shot at the ball and failed to hang on and Jimmy Victor recovered for Hereford.

Both teams had another chance at the ball before the half ended, but neither team was able to gain much ground.

Bob Crick started the second half by returning the kickoff 19 yards to his 29. Three tries by the Horns netted only seven yards and Bennett booted the ball down to the Hereford 27.

On first down Bill Russell and the ball became separated from each other and Jim Kendrick fell on the ball at the Hereford 20.

Hereford took to the air in an attempt to beat the clock. On third down Jerry Brady was forced to eat the ball on his 19 for an eight yard loss. A fourth down pass from Bill Cole to Steve McAndrews was broken up and the Horns took over with :19 left to play. Quarterback Quincy Hawkins followed Coach Ewing's shouted suggestions to call a quarterback sneak to use up the clock. The play paid off, but not in the way everyone expected, as Quincy ran straight up the middle for 19 yards and another six points.

Ricky Bennett was stopped short on the extra point try and the score stood at 12-0 with 14 seconds left to play.

Tommy Gonzales' kickoff carried into the end zone and Hereford took over at its own 20. Hereford's Jim Hall picked up 10 yards on the final play of the ballgame.

Bob Crick carried away the honors for the outstanding offensive back of the game and Larry Parker, Joe Quiroz, Jim Kendrick, Andy Rogers, Donnie Black and Quincy Hawkins were the defensive standouts for the Longhorns.

Hart Residents Donate Blood To Aven Children

Local residents rolled up their sleeves last Thursday to donate blood for the children of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Aven, Brett, 6, and Matt, 3.

The boys are suffering from hemophilia, a disease causing excessive bleeding.

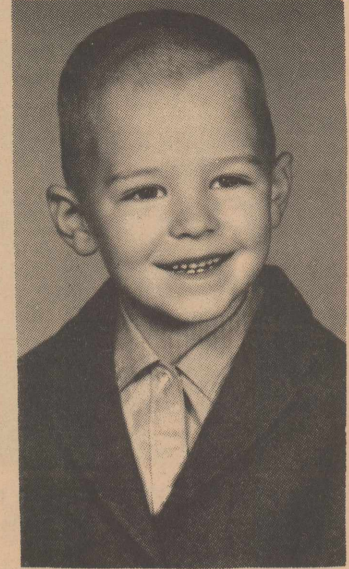

The Amon Carter Blood Bank has been providing blood for the youths. In order to repay the blood bank, the volunteer blood donors met here last Thursday.

The disease was discovered when Brett was 3 and Matt was one and a half years old.

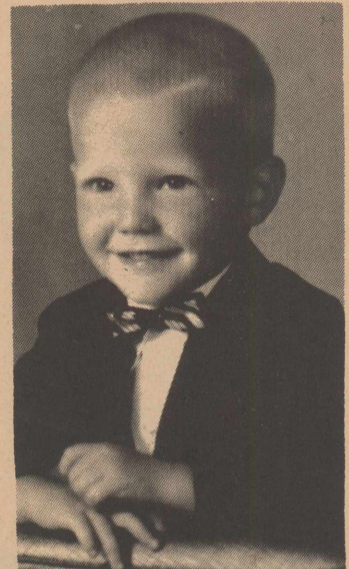

Hemophilia has struck in the family before. Two brothers of Mrs. D. L. Lewis, grandmother of the children, were hit with the disease. Both are now living normal lives.

The two Aven children wear "dog tags" at all times—even when taking baths—to describe their disease and blood types.

When an emergency transfusion is needed after an accident, the boys are brought to Methodist Hospital in Lubbock.

State of Texas spent $1,860,633,769 during the fiscal year ending August 31, 1966, for its normal governmental functions, according to State Treasurer Jesse James.

WATER PLAN RESTUDIED--

Texas Water Development Board pulled back its massive $3,700,000,000 proposed statewide water plan for re-evaluation in view of strong criticism during its series of 30 public hearings.

Board announced 16 additional studies to determine reasonable "alternates" which may be put into the plan in case populations grow and water needs are higher than those originally predicted.

Among subjects scheduled for new looks are:

- * Alternative sources of irrigation water for West Texas, including possible diversions from surplus East Texas basins;

- * Reduction of water quantities from San Antonio's surface water supply, originally tagged for delivery to lower Rio Grande Valley for new irrigation;

- * Importing water into or above Highland Lakes in the Colorado River basin;

- * New sources of industrial and municipal water for Abilene, San Angelo, Odessa, Lubbock and the Trans Pecos-El Paso areas.

Board also will cooperate with the U. S. Bureau of Reclamation in determining costs of delivering water to West Texas, utilizing a pump-back system up the Colorado River Channel.

The annual meeting of Plains Cotton Growers, Inc., held in Lubbock Sept. 21, drew about 150 farmers, ginners and other cotton-related businessmen from over the organization's 23-county area.

Kenneth Holum, assistant secretary of the U. S. Department of the interior, in the principal address told the group that West Texas must solve its water problems, and pledged "you can count on us in the Department of Interior to work with you on solving that problem."

The opening speech of the meeting was given by Dr. Grover E. Murray, president of Texas Technological College, Lubbock. Dr. Murray discussed the proposed establishment of an International Center for Arid and Semi-Arid Land Studies at Texas Tech.

In the afternoon session J. D. Smith of Littlefield gave the president's annual report and Donald A. Johnson, Lubbock, gave the report of the executive vice-president.

Smith, after lauding the accomplishments of PCG on behalf of the High Plains cotton industry for the past 10 years, concluded by saying "I take no credit for PCG accomplishments, past or future. The board of directors, the staff, committee members, and countless other people in our industry are the ones responsible for the tremendous job done by Plains Cotton Growers.

"And if each of these, and each of you, is as proud to be a part of PCG as I am, then you can rest assured that we will continue to have an active organization, and an organization which will continue to adequately regard us for all that we put into it."

Johnson stressed the necessity in the area for two things. One, he said, we must make a greater effort to increase markets for the kind of cotton we are now growing, and two, we must go all out to upgrade the quality of our cotton in order to broaden the base of our potential market.

He pointed out that in two more years Congress will be considering a new cotton program. "And the treatment received by the High Plains in these deliberations will largely depend on how much progress we have made toward marketing a higher percentage of our crop."

Some sections of the cotton belt are already thinking about asking for acreage increases in areas which have very little cotton going into the government loan and for acreage restrictions in areas, such as the High Plains, where much of the cotton winds up in the loan.

Industry leaders feel that representatives of the "high quality" producers will have a concrete proposal for carrying out such acreage redistribution when Congress next considers a new cotton law.

And Johnson says "The progress we have made and the programs we have going toward marketing more of our cotton will be our best answer to such proposals."

PCG directors, confirmed by the membership at the annual meeting, held a session immediately following the membership meeting to elect officers for the 1966-67 year. Each of the organization's three officers was re-elected for a one-year term.

They are J. D. Smith of Littlefield, president; L. D. (Don) Anderson of Crosbyton, vice-president; and W. L. Edelman, Friona, secretary-treasurer.

Members present for the annual meeting also ratified the new PCG by-laws unanimously adopted by the board of directors Feb. 25.

As the season approaches when many cotton farmers are considering the use of harvest-aid chemicals, Texas Agricultural Extension Service personnel are urging extreme care.

The Extension Service, under the direction of District Agent Billy C. Gunter, has been conducting educational meetings throughout the area on the subject, and they are advising each farmer to check with his county agent before making final decisions. "On a year like this conditions vary from area to area and from field to field, and the decision to use or not to use harvest-aid chemicals must be made on an individual basis," Gunter said.
