Cotton Farmers To Vote On 1969 Allotment Issue

Cotton farmers in Castro County will vote the middle of May to decide whether they want to be able to sell or lease their cotton allotments outside the county, Jim Elder, Chairman, Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation

County Committee, has announced.

The referendum on the question will be conducted during the period May 13 through May 17. Ballots may be returned by mail or delivered by hand to the ASCS county office during that time.

Mailed ballots must be post-marked not later than May 17 and must arrive at the ASCS county office before ballots are counted on May 22.

The only question to be decided by the balloting is whether 1969 upland cotton allotments may be transferred to farms which are located in other counties by sale or by lease.

Transfers of allotments by an owner to a farm that he owns or controls may be made across county lines without regard to the outcome of the referendum. In no case may transfers be made outside the State.

An affirmative vote by at least two-thirds of the county's cotton farmers who vote will permit such transfers by sale or lease for 1969.

Three similar referendums were conducted in 1965, 1966 and 1967, and growers in 95 counties throughout the Cotton Belt have already voted -- in 1966 or 1967 -- to approve such transfers for the 1969 crop.

The 1965 vote, however, covered only the 1966-68 crops, so the vote this year will be held in counties where such transfers have not previously been approved for 1969, including those where transfers were approved in the 1965 vote.

Mr. Elder points out that voting by mail is easy and convenient, and the vote therefore should be large and fully representative of the wishes of the cotton farmers in the county.

Copies of the ballot will be sent to all cotton producers of record in the county, together with information describing the program's purpose and operation.

Any cotton producer who has a question about the referendum or about who is eligible to vote is urged to get in touch with the ASCS county office.

The final date for producers to obtain loans on 1967-crop cotton is extended from April 30 to May 31, 1968. This will permit producers more time to market their cotton and should result in more orderly marketing.

Texas Liquor Control Board is heading for an early showdown test of its new get-tough policies on subterfuge private clubs.

In a surprise order, the Board outlawed cash sales in all bottle clubs.

Some club operators, who already were complaining mightily about an earlier LCB directive prohibiting manager-members from issuing guest cards to walk-in customers, were hard hit. One promptly filed a lawsuit here to enjoin the board's regulations.

Net result of the cash sale requirement will be to eliminate the casual guests, since operators wouldn't want to run the risk of granting total strangers a month's credit for a highly-perishable commodity.

Hotel-motel clubs who expect to solve the problem by putting club charges on room tabs may find the Board's definition of a cash sale quite restrictive: "It shall be deemed that a cash sale has been made if payment for a service or commodity is made on the same date or within eight hours after the occurrence of such service or the delivery of such commodity."

Clubs also received a long list of new instructions for keeping records and running their affairs according to by-laws and through boards of directors.

More rules are expected to be forthcoming from the LCB. Times may be hard for all but strictly-private and proper clubs in the near future.

LCB Attorney Lynwood Elliott said he thinks the cash sale directive will restrict clubs: "I feel, quite frankly, that when you prohibit a club from making a cash sale it will be less inclined to serve the public at large and will start serving properly screened members."

Situation is expected to bring new pressure for liquor-by-the-drink legalization. Club owners claim they are being made political footballs.

RIOT CONTROL TRAINING -- All Department of Public Safety officers have undergone an intensive, accelerated riot control training program. Plans are drawn for maximum assistance to local authorities. State also is buying $200,000 worth of anti-riot equipment for use of National and State Guards.

DPS reported it stands ready to make "major commitment" of personnel and equipment on request from a local law enforcement agency -- although it hopes none will be necessary.

COURTS SPEAK-- Supreme Court held taxable natural gas used as fuel for engines that pump oil.

In a variety of other opinions, High Court ruled as follows:

* Lower courts were right in concluding that a Houston fireman was suspended improperly for buying two mink stoles and a color tv set (believed to have been stolen) from another fireman. (Suspended firefighter denied any knowledge of stolen goods.)

* Women should be enjoined from operating an alleged house of prostitution near Brenham.

* American Travelers Insurance Company, Ltd., a Bahamas-based corporation, cannot do business in Texas without a state permit.

* A Refugio County woman who granted a pipeline easement across her property in 1943 is still stuck with the deal for future extension of parallel lines.

Thirteenth Court of Civil Appeals supported a Nueces County trial court view that voter registration applications cannot be submitted en masse.

Third Court of Civil Appeals held that a firm must pay $11,556 in sales taxes, plus interest and penalties, on the cost of transporting materials to job sites.

SHORT SNORTS--Rep. Gus Mutscher of Brenham not only is assured of election as Speaker of the House of Representatives next January, but reportedly has a second term as speaker virtually nailed down.

Special Program Slated Marking Helium Centennial

The lights will go on in the Pioneer Amphitheatre in the Palo Duro Canyon State Park on Thursday evening, May 16, at 8 p. m. and the public is invited. The occasion is entertainment of the visitors who will be in Amarillo at that time for the dedication of the Helium capsule which is an event of national significance. In order to honor the three hundred leaders of business and industry who will be in the Panhandle on that date, the Board of the Texas Panhandle Heritage Foundation has arranged a special program in the amphitheatre which will enable the visitors to enjoy some of the accomplishments in this area and to experience the impact of an evening in the theatre.

OPPORTUNITY
Hay supplies were tight at the end of the current winter season and now is the time to make sure the same situation doesn't happen again. The favorable statewide soil moisture situation, points out Neal Pratt, Extension agronomist, gives hay producers an opportunity to make large tonnages of high quality hay this year. He suggests starting with a soil test; fertilizing according to the test recommendations and harvesting at the right growth stage.

AFTER BATH SLIPPERS
Make soft after-bath slippers from cotton terry washcloths. One washcloth, folded and gathered around the edges, will make a slipper. Trim with matching cotton ball fringe.

During the first section of the program, the West Texas State University Chorale will sing under the leadership of the distinguished composer of this area, Houston Bright. Some of their selections will be accompanied by brass instruments in very stirring arrangements. As the shadows lengthen, the second section of the program will draw in the Kwahadi Indian Dancers of Amarillo, well known for their colorful and exciting portrayals of Indian days. The Kwahadis last danced on the stage in the Canyon at the national convention of the Men's Garden Clubs of America.

The third part of the program, after darkness has come, will be a short sound and light demonstration showing the history and development of the Canyon itself and ending with horses and flags in a grand finale.

Two of the functions in the program of the dedication of the helium capsule are open to the public. The first will be the program in the Palo Duro Canyon at 8 p. m. The second will be the dedication itself at 10 a. m. on Friday morning May 17. This will take place at the intersection of Interstate 40 and Nelson and will include many interesting attractions. There will be a transportation exhibit, helium exhibits, shows, Don Piccard will be there with balloons for transporting riders and the Goodyear blimp will also be in evidence. Join in these two celebrations of the helium centennial, and welcome the visitors!

Underground Wiring Practical On Farms

Underground electrical circuits to farm buildings, light posts and other equipment, eliminates the possibility of wires coming down in wind or ice storms. Too, says W. S. Allen, Extension agricultural engineer at Texas A&M University, other advantages are a neater appearing farmstead, fewer clearance problems and safety.

The types of wires and cables used for underground installation are likely to cost more per foot than those used for overhead construction, Allen points out. On the other hand, labor costs should be less if farm labor and equipment is used to plow out the trenches.

Cables intended for interior wiring should never be used for underground circuits, Allen continues. There are two plastic covered cables approved for direct burial. Type USE is available in single-conductor and three-conductor types. When used above the ground or for interior wiring it must be protected by conduit. Type UF cable is available in two and three-conductor cables and is also approved for direct burial.

Underground cables should be buried deep enough to avoid the risk of being contacted by any farm implement such as a plow or cultivator, he suggests. Where these buried cables may be run over by heavy loads, a board laid over the cable before the trench is backfilled will help distribute the weight above the cable.

Since replacement of buried cables is difficult, the size of conductors should be carefully planned so that replacement due to inadequacy will be unlikely, the engineer points out. Determination of wire sizes follows the same basic steps as for overhead installation.

40th Pioneer Round-Up Slated For Saturday

Complete plans for the 40th Pioneer Round-Up to be held on Saturday, May 18, are taking shape, according to Miss Doris Hoke, president of the sponsoring organization, the Plainview Business and Professional Women's Club.

The square dance on Saturday night following the program is always of much interest to local and area square dancers. Miss Lou Ella Scarbrough is chairman of this activity.

Jones was born in Bonham, Texas and moved to Dallas at the age of fifteen. He was introduced to square dancing in 1957 and started calling in early 1958. He called and taught two clubs in the Dallas area for six years each and for the last ten years has called for various weekend institutes and festivals in Texas, Oklahoma, Arkansas and Louisiana.

He moved to Lubbock in 1965 and is currently calling and teaching for two clubs in the Lubbock and Brownfield areas. He taught the last two classes in Plainview and has called for various clubs in Lubbock, Amarillo, Muleshoe, Bovina, Morton, Vernon, Wichita Falls and Clovis, New Mexico.

Miss Scarbrough and Mr. Jones cordially invite all square dancers to attend the Pioneer Round-Up and participate in the square dance which will begin

4-H'ers Boost Home Sewing

Home sewing may no longer be a necessity, but it is one of the fastest growing home arts. Making one's own clothes is a favorite hobby of more women today than ever before. What's more, there is a certain prestige attached to home sewing.

The machine itself has been so greatly improved during the past decade that it can do almost anything -- from embroidering and darning to buttonholes and invisible stitching.

Choice and design of fabrics provide a kaleidoscope of color and textures. Trimmings, fastenings and patterns help make home sewing easier, and give clothes the "custom-made" look.

Into this exciting world of fashion have come young 4-H girls just learning to sew, and their older sisters who are well on their way to becoming amateur couturieres. Under the guidance of well qualified volunteer clothing leaders, some 700,000 girls between 9 and 19 years of age are turning out school clothes, sports attire, formals and even suits and coats.

These girls represent every state, and annually compete for award provided by Coats & Clark Inc., national sponsor of the 4-H Clothing program.

Regional Office Describes Terms

Two important words for veterans and their dependents -- "Compensation" and "pension" -- are often used interchangeably by the public, but their meanings are vastly different to the Veterans Administration, the Manager of the Waco VA Regional Office said today.

Coker explained that "compensation" is payment the Veterans Administration makes because of a disability a man suffered in military service. The payment may go to a veteran who has been disabled by an injury or a disease that originated or was aggravated while he was in active service. In case of death for such a service-connected cause, compensation payments go to the veteran's survivors.

The financial condition of the recipient is NOT taken into consideration in cases of compensation payment Coker pointed out.

Pension, on the other hand, is paid on a basis of need for disabilities or death due to causes not connected with military service, Coker said. The income of the recipient has a direct bearing on the amount of the pension.

Information concerning either benefit is available by mail, phone or personal inquiry at any local VA office.

BITTERWEED CONTROL

The poisonous bitterweed can be controlled by spraying infested areas with 1 pound per acre of 2,4-D low volatile ester. Application should be made, advises G. O. Hoffman, Extension range, brush and weed control specialist, when the plants are growing vigorously and in the bud stage and when the temperature is above 55 degrees F. Since soil moisture conditions are good over areas of Texas where the weed is most damaging, Hoffman believes spraying this spring will pay good dividends. He suggests a visit with the local county agent for details on a spraying program.

UNDERGROUND CIRCUITS

Underground electrical circuits to farm buildings, light posts and other equipment are not only practical but eliminate possibility of wires coming down during wind and ice storms, says W. S. Allen, Extension agricultural engineer. But, adds the engineer, such wiring must be carefully planned and only approved materials used.

FROZEN FOODS

Shop carefully for high quality frozen foods. If you squeeze the packages of frozen vegetables gently and they crunch to your touch, it means there's icy frost. This indicates the package may have been defrosted and refrozen, says Extension foods and nutrition specialist at Texas A&M University. Quality can't survive that kind of treatment.

Lake Greenbelt Dedication Set

CLARENDON-- Lake Greenbelt, a blue oasis in a sea of picturesque rolling green hills and cottonwoods will become the mecca for an estimated 25,000 visitors from a two-state area expected to visit Texas' newest lake in the eastern Panhandle soon.

The occasion will be a five-day celebration marking the grand opening and formal dedication of the lake during the Memorial Day weekend, May 29 through June 2.

Greenbelt Lake--owned and operated by the Greenbelt Municipal and Industrial Water Authority--will be open to the public for fishing on May 29. A three-day fishing contest will follow with a colorful Greenbelt Queen Contest on Saturday night and formal dedication and nationally sanctioned boat racing on Sunday afternoon.

Mike McCully, Clarendon postmaster, heads a special Greenbelt Celebration committee which will help sponsor the affair in cooperation with other Greenbelt member towns, Hedley, Memphis, Childress, Quanah and Crowell. The celebration is being underwritten by the Clarendon Chamber of Commerce.

The lake, already half of its total 60,000 acre feet capacity, is now open for boating, swimming and picnicking. The Texas Parks and Wildlife Department, which recently authorized its first expenditure for improvements at the lake, has set May 29 as the first day for fishing. In addition to such popular game fish as bass, crappie and catfish, Lake Greenbelt is the only public lake in Texas where northern pike is stocked.

Located four miles north of Clarendon on the Red River, Lake Greenbelt features deep, blue waters and white sandy beaches. Already half full, the lake will be some 88 feet deep at the dam and back up water for some four miles when filled.

Sherwood Shores No. 9, a fabulous lake-side resort on the north side of the lake was opened last September and hundreds of lots have already been sold with home construction underway. George D'Armond, developer of the Greenbelt resort, said plans call for several swimming pools, parks, and paved streets, water and utilities over the some 700-acre estates. Sherwood Shores will be adjacent to the new 18-hole Clarendon Country club to be constructed on the lake shores beginning in the near future.

More than 1,000 dollars in prizes will be awarded to visitors during the grand opening weekend. Prizes will go to winners in the fishing contest with door prizes to be presented at intervals during the celebration.

Beauties from the six Greenbelt towns will compete in the beauty contest scheduled for Saturday night, June 1 in the Clarendon Junior College Gymnasium. Contestants will be unmarried, from 17 to 22 years of age and sponsored by a civic or social club. The young ladies will be judged in formal gowns and bathing suits by Amarillo television personalities. Following the contest, area high school and college youths will be invited to a dance at Clarendon's Electric Theatre.

Dedication of the lake has been scheduled for Sunday, June 2 at 1 p. m. Judge Otho Dent of Austin, a member of the Texas Water Rights Commission and one of the state officials who worked with the Greenbelt project since its inception, will be the principal speaker. Following the dedication will be the boat races sponsored by the National Outboard Association. Plans call for 16 heats of four boats to the heat in races over a half mile area with quarter mile turns. A thousand dollars in purse money has been posted by the Clarendon Chamber of Commerce.

Civic organizations from the various Greenbelt towns are invited to have concession stands at the lake for the weekend.

LETTUCE CUPS

To separate whole lettuce leaves from a head, first core the head of lettuce. Hold the cored end up and put it under a strong stream of cold water from the sink faucet, recommends Extension foods and nutrition specialists at Texas A&M University. The weight of the water in the head separates the leaves. Peel them off slowly, pulling them downward from the stem end while the water flows through the leaves.

"700 acres of PIONEER sorghum averaged 8,568 pounds for me."

Elvin Wilson, Friona, Texas

Many of last year's bumper yields came from small acreages. But Elvin Wilson had 735 acres—all Pioneer hybrid 820—that averaged 8,568 pounds per acre.

Good weather, good farming and good seed boosted Elvin's yields. He double rowed on a 40" bed, watered four times in addition to pre-watering, controlled weeds with Propazine, and put on 280 pounds of nitrogen.

Hybrid 820 makes the most of his good farming—shades the ground fast, produces big yields, stands right up to harvest. Isn't this the kind of sorghum you want, too? See me soon.

HemisFair '68 Offers Helps For Handicapped

HemisFair '68 has set up special guided tours for the convenience and comfort of handicapped visitors to the international exposition.

The special tours are held 9:30 a. m. and 4 p. m. each Tuesday and Sunday. They originate at the Gate 3 entrance, which may be approached from Commerce or Durango Streets or Interstate Highway 37.

The handicapped were given consideration in overall planning for the World's Fair. All pavilions, both governmental and private, are easily accessible by wheelchair, and most other facilities on the site have ramps instead of stairs.

Wheelchairs may be rented from booths near the Lake Pavilion and Goliad Food Plaza on the HemisFair grounds.

Numerous special services are available at HemisFair.

Baby strollers can be rented on the grounds, tourist information is available at several locations, and public lockers may be rented to store personal items while enjoying a tour of the fair.

Beneath the Lake Pavilion are several special services, such as a branch U. S. Post Office, Lost Children Station, Lost and Found, and a 25-bed infirmary.

If anyone thinks that rain dance performed daily by the Flying Indians of Mexico atop a 114-foot pole at HemisFair is not part of the ritual, just ask the U. S. Weather Bureau.

San Antonio rainfall is about 9 inches above normal.

Moments Of Meditation

C. T. Cunningham, pastor of First Baptist Church

"And He brought him forth abroad, and said, Look now toward heaven, and tell the stars, if thou be able to number them; and he said unto him, So shall thy seed be." Genesis 15:5.

We are profoundly impressed with the unlimited resources of the God of the Bible.

He never does anything small.

When He makes an ocean He makes it so deep that no man can fathom it. When He makes a mountain He makes it so large that no one can measure or weigh it. When He makes flowers, He scatters multiplied millions of them where there is no one to admire them but Himself. When He makes grace, He makes it without sides or bottom and leaves the top off. Instead of giving salvation with a medicine dropper, He pours it forth like a river.

When God sets out to do a thing for us, He does it with a prodigality of love-prompted abundance that fairly staggers one who reckons things by the coldly calculating standards of earth.

Whatever blessing is in our cup, it is sure to run over. With Him the calf is always the fatted calf; the robe is always the best robe; the joy is unspeakable; the peace passeth understanding; the grace is so abundant that the recipient has all-sufficiency for all things, and abounds to every good work.

There is no grudging in God's benevolence; He does not measure out His goodness as the apothecary counts his drops and measures his drams, slowly and exactly, drop by drop.

God's way is always characterized by multitudinous and overflowing bounty, like that in nature which is so profuse in beauty and life that every drop of the ocean, every square inch of the forest, every molecule of water, teams with marvels and defies the research and investigation of man.

Well may we cry with the Apostle, "I have all and abound."

IN A RACE

Texas agriculture is in the midst of a fast, accelerating technological race, says W. E. Black, Extension economist. New knowledge and skills are being applied daily to crop and livestock production by producers who assume that prevailing economic conditions and market relationships will not change. But, he adds, changes are coming fast and economic and market relations are not exempt.

Governor Proclaims May 'Senior Citizen Month'

Governor John Connally has proclaimed May "Senior Citizen Month" in Texas and urged all citizens to join in honoring fellow Texans "who have reached a status of seniority and respect."

In his proclamation, the Governor said the State of Texas recognizes both a debt of gratitude to and an obligation for its senior citizens, and called on Texans to include senior citizens into the normal sphere of life.

"Texas of today exists on the foundations laid by these surviving Texans of yesterday. Their work, their efforts, their very lives stand as an enduring challenge to the future," Governor Connally said, and added: "If we are to enjoy the full productive capacities of our resources, we must continue to utilize the skills and knowledge of our older citizens in all civic and community endeavors. Their inspiration and counsel form a continuing asset in the growth and development of Texas."

The Texas observance of "Senior Citizen Month" coincides with the national observance proclaimed by President Lyndon B. Johnson. Texas activities for the month are being sponsored by the Governor's committee on Aging. Cooperating with the Committee in its statewide programs are the Texas Safety Association, Agricultural Extension Service of Texas A&M University, and other state agencies and local organizations.

Safety for the aging will be emphasized in both national and state programs as accidents are a major problem among older persons. Over 28,000 persons age 65 and over die each year in the nation as a result of accidental injuries and an additional 800,000 more in this age group suffer disabling injuries.

In Texas, the annual toll is some 1,300 fatalities and an estimated 39,000 injuries, according to the Texas Safety Association. Falls are the leading cause of accidental death for persons over age 65. Falls account for 43 percent of all the accidental deaths with 77 percent of these occurring in private homes.
