Special Recognition Is Given Tony Martinez For Heroism

Tony Martinez Jr. was given special recognition for heroism Thursday night when American Legion Post 311 hosted a Legion zone meeting in the American Legion Hall.

The 17 year old senior was presented a citation from the Texas House of Representatives by Jack Flynt of Dimmitt, past commander of the Texas American Legion and present executive committee member of the 18th District. Bill Brady of Claude, 18th District Commander, assisted with the presentation.

The citation read: Whereas it is appropriate that the Texas Legislature pay tribute to a real hero, Tony Martinez Jr.; Now, therefore, be it-

Resolved by the House of Representatives of the State of Texas, that Senate concurring, that he be commended for his heroism and that his parents be congratulated on the love and guidance in his life that contributed to his selfless action in saving the lives of his friends; and, be it further-

Resolved, That a copy of this Resolution be prepared for Tony Martinez Jr. in tribute from the 60th Legislature, now convened in Special Session, and from all the people of Texas, and- that we also extend to him our good wishes for his future and the realization of his ambition to become a dentist."

The resolution was signed by Preston Smith, lieutenant governor and president of the Senate, and Ben Barnes, speaker of the House.

Martinez saved the lives of two little neighbor girls, Linda and Diana Ledesma by rescuing them from their burning trailer home Feb. 25. A sister, Rebecca, 11 months, was burned to death in the fire.

Earlier this year, the youth received recognition from the Texas Farm and Ranch Safety Council and local and district American Legion.

The young hero's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Tony Martinez Sr. He is a member of Future Farmers of America and St. Johns Catholic Church. He was a former member of the Hart Longhorn football team until sidelined by a knee injury.

Out of town Legionnaires included Roy R. Beard of Amarillo, immediate past commander of the 18th District; Henry Teuble of Tulia, district chaplain; E. L. Hochstein of Nazareth, past zone commander; James Wilhelm of Nazareth, deputy and sergeant-at-arms on the state level; and Mrs. Sam Williams of Friona, president of the district Ladies Auxiliary.

TONY MARTINEZ JR is presented a citation from the Texas House of Representatives. Award was made by Jack Flynt, past commander of Texas American Legion.

Wayland College To Stage 'The Taming Of The Shrew'

Wayland College Theater's Production of "The Taming of the Shrew", scheduled Oct. 10, 11, and 12, is shaping up as one of the best comedy presentations on the Wayland stage in a long time.

Under direction of Jerry Watson, instructor in speech and theater at Wayland, the Shakespearean version of a husband's calculated madness at getting the better of a spoiled, domineering wife, is shaping up as sure-fire comedy.

Corky Johnston, Lubbock, in the male lead of Petruchio, and Elayne Read, Amarillo, as Katherine, furnish much of the action as tamer and shrew.

Johnston and Miss Read, among the cast of almost 20, by no means monopolize the action. Others contribute some of the surest laugh provokers.

Curtain time will be 8 p. m. for each performance. The production will be the Wayland Theater's first appearance in the Herral Memorial Auditorium which provides the proper setting for the results of the hard work and the talent of the College Theater. Dr. McDonald Held, director of the College Theater, pointed out.

The theater production class, assisted by some members of the cast, under Watson's direction, will make the stage scenery and properties. Costumes will be rented.

THE 1967 AMENDMENTS to the social security law lowered the work requirement for disability benefits for persons becoming disabled prior to their 31st birthday. If you became disabled between ages 24 and 31, then you need to have worked one-half the time from age 21 until you became disabled. If you became disabled before age 24, then you need to have worked only one and one-half years during the three years before you became disabled. If you fall in either category, please check with your nearest social security office to see if you can get disability benefits.

Education Is Key Issue In Frank Ford Campaign

Frank Ford, Republican candidate for State Representative, this week named education as one of the key issues of his campaign. "In 1960", said Ford, "Texas ranked 33rd among the states in per-child funds for education. We have since dropped to 28th. In 1960 we ranked 40th in literacy, and have since dropped to 44th. This is not a record to be proud of, as education is the most important function of state government, and accounts for 45 per cent of state expenditures."

"Anyone who has observed the little children at work and play in our schools across this district", Ford continued,

"knows that the light of hope shines in their faces - black, brown and white, and that this hope is the hope of our nation. If the adults in our big cities had the same feeling of brotherhood and understanding as these little children do, America would truly be on the road to greatness."

"The question that our generation has to answer, then, is whether these hopes and dreams are going to be fulfilled, or whether they are doomed to be broken in frustration and dependency. Jobs for the unskilled are disappearing fast, and if many of these children are going to know the dignity of productive work, the time for action in Texas is NOW."

"We must increase our attention to primary education and the development of basic skills, give additional help to children with specific learning disabilities, increase pre-school opportunities and bilingual education where needed. Instructional practices and programs must be up-dated constantly, and technical and vocational training increased, with emphasis on job training by private industry. These actions would constitute the best investment we ever made in our future." Ford is a candidate in the 72nd Legislative District.

Hybrid Sorghum Potential Predicts 100 Bushel Yields

Sorghum yields in the United States have jumped dramatically since being triggered by the introduction of hybrids in the mid-1950's, but there is still an excellent increase potential ahead. This is the view of Dr. Bruce Maunder, DeKalb's director of sorghum research and one of the world's most progressive sorghum breeders.

Average sorghum yields were running at about 20 bushels per acre when hybrid sorghums were made available to farmers in 1956. By 1967 the national average had risen to 50 bushels per acre, and Dr. Maunder believes that the average sorghum yield should move to 100 bushels by the year 2000.

Although some of the top sorghum farmers have already surpassed this figure, as evidenced by the fact that thirteen yields in the 1967 DeKalb Sorghum Masters Club harvested better than 178 bushels per acre, the national average nevertheless still stands below 50 bushels per acre.

Since the advent of hybrid sorghums a dozen years ago, U. S. yields have been moving upward at about 6 per cent per year. While some agricultural economists believe this pace will slow to about 2 per cent annually, Dr. Maunder doesn't necessarily agree with this theory and thinks the yearly increases will be more than this.

"I don't feel that we need to expect this reduction," declares Dr. Maunder. "I think we still have a long way to go yet, both in cultural practices and in new hybrids that we can develop."

What are the factors which will support a national increase to a 100-bushel average?

Dr. Maunder lists seven items and estimates the percentage of influence that each will play. He emphasizes, however, that the percentages are certainly only projections. Here are the factors and their possible influences:

20% - Fertilizer necessary to reach higher yield goals, including greater use of secondary and micronutrients

10% - More efficient use of water, including better timing where irrigation is used

16% - Better plant spacing

34% - Continued improvement in plant breeding

10% - Increased use of herbicides

5% - Increased use of insecticides

5% - Bioregulators, such as hormones, etc.

Since it is anticipated that improvement through plant breeding will be the major influence for increased yields, at 34 per cent, it is interesting to look at some categories of breeding improvements which might be expected. They include:

More hybrid vigor by genetic diversity - for example crossing sorghums from all over the world.

More stress resistance, such as resistance to drought.

Improved stalk strength.

More disease resistance.

Better grain quality and type, such as with yellow endosperm breeding.

Improved plant efficiency - for example, in the use of fertilizer and water.

Better vigor under cold stress for both seedling and more advanced stages of growth.

Earlier types with same hy-trib traits as present maturities.

Shorter, uniform hybrids containing the above improvements.

In concluding his discussion on the future of hybrid sorghum development, Dr. Maunder points out, "The main thing is that we can't go all the way with any one factor. We must have a balanced hybrid which not only has high yield, but also has the right maturity, the right disease resistance, superior stalk quality and drought resistance. Obviously the perfect hybrid and most efficient cultural practices are not presently available, but progress toward this goal will be the reward of dedicated efforts by modern farm operators as well as by those in related agricultural disciplines."

Tax Man Sam Sez:

Everybody knows that the new surtax law raised the amount of income tax that you will pay (7 1/2 per cent this year) by 10 per cent. What a lot of folks don't know is that the rules for paying estimated taxes have also been tightened up. Most of us work for wages and our employers withhold income tax and social security tax from our wages and pay it to Uncle, and we don't have to worry about filing an estimated tax return. However, those folks who are self-employed or who have income outside of their pay check, do have a problem. This type of taxpayers have been required to file an estimated tax return in the past, but there were lots of good excuses that wiped out a tax penalty if you did not file and you met the exception. Congress decided to wipe out and tighten up these exceptions. If you are self-employed or if you have substantial income on which you have not paid any tax, you better review the amount of estimated tax that you are due to pay on September 15, or find out whether you have to file and pay because your good excuse is gone.

Moments Of Meditation

C. T. Cunningham, pastor of First Baptist Church

Do you worry?
You say, "Of course, I worry. Doesn't everybody?"

Well, there seems much to be worried about today. But let's not lose faith in God's power to save to the uttermost. Here is someone else's idea about worry.

This is from the "Apron-Pocket Book of Meditation and Prayer," compiled by Margaret Benson and Hellen Smith. Page 33.

"Worry: noun; undue anxiety. Undue: adj.; improper. Also unchristian."

Have you ever thought that worry is a sin against God?

We spend much time uselessly worrying about this or that or the other, you can fill in the gaps. Such a procedure is a complete and utter waste of time and a complete contradiction of our faith in God.

What is wrong with us that we can say a prayer and in the next breath tell our friends we are "so worried"?

Perhaps it is too much to ask that we delete "worry" and "anxiety" from your vocabularies; but we could rehabilitate our thinking by substitution. Every time we are tempted to say "I'm so worried," let us say, instead a prayer for faith.

Our faith is our contact with God. It needs, therefore, to be a vital and living relationship. In daily living we so often deny our faith and fail to give a witness to God's power in man's life. A friend may be looking to you for encouragement and strength. But if this person sees in your life that there is worry, anxiety and a feeling of hopelessness, why should he or she think that you could be of any help?

But if your life shows daily that you are living in a vital relationship with God, that expresses itself in joyous, happy living, then they will want what you have.

Don't fail that friend or God.

Longhorns Win Over Hereford

BY DONNIE BLACK

Hart Longhorns took their first home game of the season as they ran over Hereford's junior varsity here Friday night. The Horns defense was much improved over the two previous games as they held Hereford to only one score for the night.

Hart won the toss and elected to receive and John Cockeran kicked off for Hereford. The kick was short and Charles Bass returned it to the 32 yard line. On the first down play Smith carried to the 33.

A five yard penalty was called against Hereford for off-sides. This moved the ball to the 38 and gave the Horns the play over.

Rambo then carried to make his way to the 43 and on the following play Smith was dropped for a loss of two.

The bombs exploded as Landria Bruington tore down the sideline and went in to the end zone standing for a 57 yard touchdown. Jimmy Allensworth kicked the extra point and left the score standing 7-0 early in the first quarter.

Arthur Rivas kicked for the Horns and Steve Whitaker returned to the 36 where he was met by a host of ambitious Horns.

Hereford fought to the 44 with carries by Hendon and Duncan before falling short of the first on fourth down.

The ball went over and Hart tried their luck with a first and ten on Hereford's 44. Bruington and Smith ground it out as they totaled enough yardage for the first on the 32.

After tries by Bruington and Quiroz, Rambo was dropped on the 38 in a critical fourth down situation. Hereford again tried their luck but couldn't penetrate the Horn's defense.

As the fourth down arose Rush punted, Joe Quiroz returned it to Hart's own 27 where on the following play he fumbled. Hereford took over on the 28 as the first quarter ended.

Early in the second quarter Hereford found themselves in trouble again as they failed to make the first on an incomplete pass from Hendon intended for Mays.

Hart took over on the 14 deep in their own territory. Hereford's defense came alive as they held the fired up Horns to little yardage.

Hawkins punted for Hart and Loerwald returned it to Hereford's 48. With no chance on the ground and after two incomplete passes Rush punted for Hereford. Quiroz returned it to Hart's own 34.

From this point, both teams moved well on offense but neither was able to score. The half time rolled around with the Horns on top 7-0.

Arthur Rivas kicked off for Hart to start the second half. Hereford returned to the 36. After making one first down Hereford ran into the punting situation on the 50 yard line. Rush punted a long one and Quiroz was stopped at the 13 deep in Longhorn territory. The Hereford team seemed sure of themselves once more as they held the Horn's to the fourth down.

Hawkins belted a punt which rolled dead on the 44.

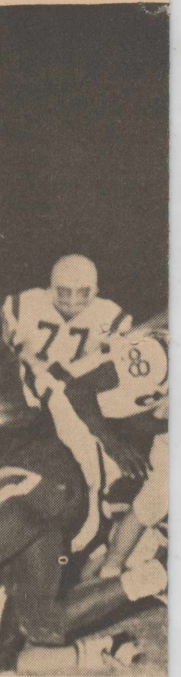

On the first down play, Hendon hit Duncan which carried them to the 16 yard line of Hart. Hereford then went for their only score of the night as Hendon passed to Mays for the TD.

The extra try was a repeat of the previous play as Mays latched on the Hendon's pass for two points to put Hereford ahead for the first time. The score was 8 to 7.

Hereford's kick entered the end zone and was brought out to the 20 yard line for Hart. The Horns couldn't gain the needed yardage for the first and Hawkins punted.

Hereford ran into the same problem and approached the air attack. Quiroz took advantage and picked off one of Hendon's passes, then proceeded to make a spectacular run as he covered 65 yards on the interception for the Horns' second TD.

The kick for extras was faked and Rambo ball into the hands for two instead. Horns took the

Shorthorns-Steers Fight To Draw

BY DONNIE BLACK

Hart Shorthorns met Farwell Steers last Saturday in their second game of the season. The game was a defensive battle all the way as neither team was able to score.

Dyer kicked off for Hart and Ray Norton returned it to Hart's 25 for the most yardage gained against the Shorthorns on any one play of the game.

Farwell couldn't make the first after a 15 yard penalty and hard tackles were made by Bates, Barham, Dyer, and Mc Adams.

and by making a first down, moved to their own 41 yard line. At this point the first quarter ended.

Going into the second quarter the Shorthorns failed to make the first as Hill and Dyer couldn't penetrate the Steers' defense. Dyer punted for the Shorthorns.

Farwell returned it to Hart's 45 yard line and they, in turn, couldn't move the ball. Even though the ball switched back and forth, there wasn't a dull moment with the possibility of Dyer and Ethridge breaking for the long run and for Farwell the strong running of Nortan, Steele, and Boling.

Hart penetrated into Farwell's territory only once in the first half on a perfectly executed pass from Dyer to Rambo which carried them to the 38 yard line.

In the next two plays Dyer moved to the 20 where time ran out in the first half.

The second half was a repeat of the first with no hand-outs given to either team. They worked for every yard they made.

The game ended as the Shorthorns stood off a touchdown attempt on the one yard line on a tremendous goal line stand. Final score was tied 0 to 0.

The Shorthorn defense, headed by Bates, Dyer and Barham who all made several tackles, made it's finest showing of the season thus far.

Now I lay me down to sleep,

If I should die before I wake,
I have a few requests to make.

Place my Algebra in my hand
And tell Coach Seymour I didn't understand.

Place my History at my feet
And tell Mr. Keller it had me beat.

Lay my Spanish at my head
And tell Mrs. Myers I'm glad I'm dead.

Lay my English at my side
And tell Mrs. Rowland I'm glad I died.

DOES SOCIAL SECURITY affect your child between the ages of 18 and 22 who is in school? Yes, if you're drawing social security, so can he or she.

IS IT TRUE that a child over age 18 must be disabled before he can draw social security on the account of a retired wage earner? No, a child between 18 and 22 can draw if he is a full time student.

ARE YOU a student between 18 and 22 years of age? did you know that if your dad or mother is drawing social security you should be drawing it too? If dad or mom is not drawing for you, you should file yourself.

THERE ARE MANY young workers who became disabled before their 24th birthday. If this happened to you and you paid in one and one-half years of social security before you became disabled, you may be eligible for disability social security benefits. It would be wise to check with your social security office.

THE 1967 AMENDMENTS to the social security law lowered the amount of work required to qualify for benefits if you became disabled before age 31. If you had filed a claim before and this claim was denied because you had not worked long enough, it would be advisable to recheck with your nearest social security office.

PARENTS OF DECEASED workers may be eligible for social security benefits. If you were receiving at least one-half of your support from your child at the time of his death, you should contact your nearest social security office. The office in Lubbock is located at 3428 Avenue H and is open from 8:30 a. m. to 4:45 p. m.

PARENTS WHO WERE dependent upon their deceased son or daughter at the time of death must file a statement of support within two years of their child's death. This proof of support must be filed with the Social Security Administration so that you will be eligible for parents benefits when you are age 62.

'Angel King' Detained By Illinois Police

Not since the days of the Keystone Kops has there been a comedy to equal the "detainment" Wednesday of Jackson M. Luker of Buckley by Kankakee police.

It all started when the "angel king" and well-known former Urbana resident walked into the Western Union office in Kankakee to send a telegram to President Johnson.

Luker, with one of his Angel food cakes in a box and a copy of the lengthy telegram in his hand, approached the desk.

The Western Union people took a quick look at the telegram and the box Luker had with him and then called the police.

Luker's telegram, which is appended at the end of this story, is his solution to the trouble in Vietnam, and after hearing what the opposition to the war offers for solutions, Luker's idea is probably as good as any.

But, the word bomb disturbed the Western Union people. The police arrived, and asked Luker what he had in the box.

"An angel bomb," Luker reportedly replied.

A captain on the Kankakee police force explained Thursday that the officers investigating were young men on the force and did not personally know Luker.

Taking Luker very seriously, the police called for reinforcements. The package was gingerly removed to a parking lot.

Luker, who is 60, was reportedly handcuffed and taken to the police station.

When the officers opened the box, they saw popcorn wedging tightly a shiny aluminum object. Closer investigation revealed an angel food cake.

The captain said that when he was called in on the case, the officers had brought 23 other boxes to the police station in case there might be a bomb in one of the boxes.

The captain said he told them they were really "shrewd" for bringing a possible bomb into the police station.

After FBI agents and the "older" members of the Kankakee police force closely scrutinized the copy for the telegram, Luker was released.

Veteran's Children Eligible For Pension, Compensation

Children of deceased servicemen may be eligible for Veterans Administration pensions even though their mothers are not.

This reminder was made today by Jack Coker, Manager, VA Regional Office, Waco, Texas.

"This situation occurs under two sets of circumstances," Coker said. "First, the unmarried widow may be ineligible because her income exceeds limits set by law.

"Second, when a widow receiving a pension for herself and her children remarries, she loses her personal eligibility for a pension based on her veteran husband's death."

Minor children, however, may continue to receive pension payments in either case, even though they live with their mother, Coker said. Their personal eligibility is limited only by their personal incomes.

If a child's income is greater than $1,800 per year, no pension will be paid, but the child's own earnings are not counted.

Coker stressed that a widow's personal ineligibility should not prevent her making application to any Veteran's Administration office.

"Unless an application is made, we have no way of knowing about children who might be eligible," he said.

Pensions may be paid to certain survivors of veterans of all wars, including the Korean Conflict and the Vietnam era, who die of causes not related to their service. Eligibility and the amount of pension are determined by the survivor's income.

Compensation, on the other hand, is paid to the survivors of veterans who die of service-connected causes, and income of the survivor has no bearing on eligibility or amount paid. Remarriage of the widow receiving compensation makes her ineligible, but as in the case of pensions, the mother's remarriage does not affect the eligibility of her children.

Full details are available at any VA office, Coker said. All applications should be accompanied by full identifying information on the veterans including, if possible, a VA claim number or insurance number.
