Local Girl To Be Contestant In "Miss Hi-Plains Cotton"

The annual Hi-Plains Cotton Festival will be held in Plainview on Oct. 17, 18 and 19, at the Agriculture Center on South Highway 87. Between 25,000 and 30,000 spectators are expected to view merchant's wares and special events of the three night show.

The highlight of the three day event will be the selection of the 1968 "Miss Hi-Plains Cotton" on Thursday night, Oct. 17th. All girls entered in this contest must be between the ages of 14 and 17 years, and come from a cotton producing family. Each candidate is sponsored by a Home Demonstration Club, 4-H Club, FFA Chapter, FHA Chapter, Young Farmers or Young Homemakers organization. Twenty four girls from this area are now entered.

Miss Dee Ann Clevenger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Deryl Clevenger will represent the FHA in the contest.

The second night will feature an old time gospel singing program. Arch Gibson, President of the National Gospel Singers of America, has informed us that several gospel singing groups from North Texas, Oklahoma, and Eastern New Mexico will provide the entertainment. This is a new feature of the Hi-Plains Cotton Festival and it is anticipated that this entertainment will draw a large crowd.

The final show on Saturday night will be the "Prince Bolls" and "Princess Blossom" contest. Pre-school age children are eligible for this contest and also must be from cotton producing families.

Booth exhibits will open each night at 6:30 with the special event beginning at 7:30 p. m. Everyone is invited to attend and bring their family for fun and entertainment. There is no admission charge.

An added feature to this years Cotton Festival will be four kiddie rides that will be inside the building in the exhibit area. There will be a charge for each of the rides.

Hi-Plains Cotton Festival is sponsored by the Plainview Chamber of Commerce.

Bob Bennett Resigns Position On Board

Hart School Board met Tuesday night in regular session. Approval was given to adult classes at Hart High School.

The adult classes will be at 4 p. m. and 7:30 p. m. and will probably be held on Mondays and Wednesdays. Final decision on the meeting dates will be made Monday.

Mrs. Warren Lemons and Mrs. Elizabeth Rodriguez will be the instructors.

The resignation of Bob Bennett as a member of the board of trustees was accepted.

Audit of the 1967-68 school budget was approved.

Approval was given for the PTA to sponsor a basketball tournament to secure funds for special projects.

The board placed their okay on Great American Reserve Insurance for teachers and school personnel.

Parcel Post Rates Increase Saturday

Postmistress Jewel Brooks reminded postal customers today that higher parcel post and catalog rates will go into effect Saturday (October 19).

The rate increase will average 10.5 per cent and in most cases will mean an additional ten cents postage per parcel.

The higher rates were approved by the Interstate Commerce Commission in July.

Under the new rates the minimum charge for local parcel delivery will go from 40 to 50 cents. The minimum charge for parcels destined outside the local delivery area will be raised from 50 cents to 60 cents.

Almost all parcels that are charged up to $1.10 under present rates will go up 10 cents. This accounts for more than 80 per cent of all parcel post, Postmistress Brooks pointed out.

There will be a 15-cent hike on most parcels now charged between $1.10 and $4, and a 20-cent increase on parcels now charged over $4.

Parcel post rates are based on the weight of the package and the distance it is mailed.

Higher rates for the delivery of packages and catalogs are required to bring revenue from this type of mail within four per cent of operating costs, as required by law, Postmistress Brooks explained. The higher rates are designed to put parcels and catalogs, which are fourth-class mail, on a break-even basis.

Additional revenue is needed from parcel post and catalogs to offset higher costs resulting from pay increases approved last year for postal employees.

First Graders Dismissal Time Is Changed

Effective Oct. 21st first and second grade students in Hart Elementary School will be dismissed at 3 p. m.

Parents are urged to make note of this change in schedule.

Frank Ford Reprimands Professional Politicians

Commenting on the number of Austin officials who attended the Clayton appreciation dinner in Littlefield Monday night, Rep. Clayton's Republican opponent, Frank Ford, stated this week that he welcomes their entry into the race.

"These are the same professional politicians", said Ford, "who voted to increase our sales tax by 50 per cent this year while ignoring nearly every mayor and city councilman in the district by not returning any of the increase to the local governments".

"This dinner was initiated in Austin by the same special interest power-clique which pressured my opponent into sponsoring daylight savings time against the wishes of the people who elected him just because L.B.J. and the T.V. lobbyists wanted it. These are the ones who have overlooked this district's pressing need for more flood control and conservation dams, and who didn't even seem to notice the rising crime rates until someone told them it was a political issue."

"These are the same politicians," Ford continued, "who seemed to ignore the fact that Texas dropped from 40th to 44th among the states in literacy over the past eight years while they voted at every regular session to double their own salaries."

"These are the ones who recently added $30 million in new spending in the secrecy of the Speaker's apartment, including $500,000 for development of L.B.J.'s state park, and are now talking about the need for $350 million in new taxes as soon as the next session of the Legislature convenes."

"I also consider it to be a state issue," Ford concluded, "that Texas' one-party monopoly was the political breeding ground for L.B.J., whose recent prominence in national politics has resulted in a tragic no-win war, depressed farm prices, inflation, sky-rocketing crime rates and $20,000 salaries in the war on poverty for friends of the administration while the poor stay poor."

"These politicians have had their say. On Nov. 5, the people will have their say, and I believe that they plan to make a few changes at that time."

No School In Hart?

Texas school superintendents including Hart's Ted Averitt and board member Ralph Futrell, attended a meeting in Austin last week at which the schoolmen heard an explanation of proposed changes in public school education in the state.

The schoolmen came away with the distinct impression that the Governor's Committee which drew up the proposals is deadly serious and has substantial backing.

That means trouble for the state's small schools. As The Enterprise reported three weeks ago when the report was issued, one of the primary changes would be the consolidation of all schools with less than 2,600 students into larger schools.

Consolidation would mean the end of the Hart school district, along with others.

So we may as well get ready for a fight. The blue ribbon committee said the changes were necessary to improve the quality of education in Texas.

There would be more equitable taxes--since there is the contention that the urban areas foot too much of the education bill and the rural areas not enough. There would be bigger school districts, which it is contended would offer students a better-balanced education.

But the flaws in the plan are immediately apparent. It would change the whole social structure of the countryside; it would without doubt mean the end of many small towns such as Hart, in which the schools are an integral part of the community.

Is that enough reason to oppose the plan? We think it is, when there is the real possibility that larger schools do not necessarily guarantee a better education. The student may be exposed to a greater curriculum, but that does not guarantee he will learn more or become a better-rounded individual.

And the committee's members haven't seen a dropout problem until they make it necessary to transport students 25 or 30 miles each way to school every day.

In a larger school, far from their own communities, the rural-area student might also feel left out. When the school day was done, that 25 or 30 mile ride home would still be facing him, and he would find it difficult to participate in extracurricular activities.

Hart's 1968 Homecoming this week offers a good example of what the future might hold if our schools are closed. There would be no more Hart graduates; eventually there'd be no more Homecomings; our students would have less opportunity to develop through participation in athletics and other extracurricular programs; and the town would lose one of the elements which truly gives a city its personality.

The Hart Beat admits that there probably need to be changes made in public school education to offer our students more in the fast-moving world of today. If there's any way of doing it without the consolidation feature of the proposals, we would be in favor of it.

But we stand foursquare against consolidation for the reasons enumerated above and for many more we might mention if we had more space.

The people of Texas should rise up and say no, through letters to their state representatives and senators, and to everybody from Gov. John Connally to gubernatorial hopefuls Preston Smith and Paul Eggers.

NOW is the time to begin acting.

Eggers Endorses Education Bill

"We must encourage bilingual education in Texas, but Lt. Gov. Preston Smith apparently doesn't agree," Clemente Garcia, Jr. of Corpus Christi said today.

Garcia is state chairman of Amigos for Eggers, a non-partisan group supporting Paul Eggers, Republican candidate for governor.

"One reason 60 per cent of the Mexican-Americans never finish high school in Texas is because of a language barrier.

"When a bilingual education bill passed the House of Representatives in 1967, it was never referred to committee in the Senate where Mr. Smith was the presiding officer.

"Paul Eggers endorsed a bilingual program early in his campaign. We need it. Too many children can't learn to become productive citizens because their school lessons are in a language they don't understand.

"Mr. Smith also found many controversial aspects in the recently issued education report. Eggers was quick to express his general approval, but Smith came to the Valley and sharply criticized the committee that made broad suggestions to improve education in Texas."

The eighth annual Wayland College International Relations Conference is scheduled Oct. 30, 31 and Nov. 1.

"Representatives of at least two African countries and missionaries on leave from African assignments are to appear on the Conference program," said Dr. Eugene W. Jones, professor of political science at Wayland.

Designed to promote world peace through understanding among nations, the conferences are sponsored by the Wayland Statesmen's Club, organization of students of which Miss Barbara McAninch, Trent, a senior, is president.

Ebenezer Moses Debrah, ambassador from Ghana to the U. S., is to address a banquet group at 7:30 p. m. Nov. 1. Debrah will be honored at a reception at 8 p. m., Oct. 31 in the Home Life Building. Local and state officials have been invited to the reception.

A representative of a foreign nation is to address the student body at 10 a. m., Oct. 31. The public is invited, Miss McAninch said.

A press conference is scheduled on the afternoon of Nov. 1.

Ghana, on the west coast of lower Africa, advancing rapidly since the turn of this century when its exportation of cocoa became important, has around 8,000,000 inhabitants. The country became independent in 1957, after about 80 years of British rule.

Mrs. Bob Price, wife of the U. S. Representative from the 18th District, took his place on the campaign trail Monday in behalf of her husband's re-election bid.

Price, who visited the Panhandle briefly and got his re-election campaign underway this weekend, flew back to the Capital Sunday afternoon because of the extended congressional session. Price has a near perfect attendance record on the floor.

Mrs. Price, accompanied by the wife of Paul Eggers, Republican gubernatorial candidate, made stops in Tulia, Dimmitt, Muleshoe, Friona and Hereford Monday, and attended a luncheon in Canyon Tuesday.

Price said Sunday that campaign dates missed because of late adjournment will be made up where possible, but that he felt his place was on the House floor "where the interest of the people of the district can best be served."

Mrs. Eggers arrived in Amarillo Sunday afternoon and attended a reception and tea in Pampa Sunday evening.

The distaff campaigners' tour began at 10 a. m. Monday in Tulia. An overnight stay in Hereford is planned tonight.

Mrs. Price and the three Price children are making their home in Pampa this fall where the children are enrolled in school.

Texas Voters Given Warning

Texas voters who may be tempted to mark their ballots for the third party candidate for President were told that such action would put them at the mercy of Washington politicians to determine who is elected.

This warning was voiced jointly by Senator John Tower of Texas, Senator Strom Thurmond of South Carolina and Ben H. Carpenter of Dallas, chairman of the Texans for Nixon Committee. Mr. Carpenter's committee is composed largely of Democrats and Independent voters.

An advertisement signed by these three prominent activists for Nixon appeared in over 500 weekly newspapers across the state.

The advertisement said the "most" that Wallace supporters could hope for would be to throw the election into the "turmoil" of electing a President by vote of the House of Representatives. In that case, the ad stated, every Wallace vote would automatically become a vote for Hubert Humphrey.

Wording in the advertisement advocated Nixon as a better choice, and declared that his election would insure a change and a new direction in national affairs.

Mrs. Swindle Leads Program

FALL AND WINTER pastures -- Good fall and winter pastures can make a tremendous difference in the dairy feed bill. Temporary pastures, say Texas A&M University Extension dairy specialists, are the most dependable source of grazing and that the use of adapted varieties, proper seed-bed preparation and fertilization are most important in getting maximum plant growth.

SAFE DRIVING TIP--WATCH out for farm and road-maintenance vehicles and machinery whenever you drive on the highway. Two types of devices warn you of these slow-moving vehicles. One is red flashing lights. The other, gaining in use throughout the country, is a triangle that has a fluorescent orange center for day visibility and a red reflective border for night.

Moments Of Meditation

C. T. Cunningham, pastor of First Baptist Church

Edgar A. Guest tells, in form of a poem, a story of a man going into a blacksmith shop.

This man sees a number of hammers all worn-out, on the floor. He asks the blacksmith how many anvils did it take to wear out that many hammers. The old blacksmith revealed to him that was the only anvil he had ever used.

Many may try to discredit or destroy God's Word. Or some may disbelieve it or try to disprove it. But in the end they are like the hammers. Worn out, gone, thrown away, and forgotten, and God's Word still enduring.

Again many may take this attitude toward God's church. Criticizing, always finding fault, never getting in the game, just standing on the sidelines. This is termed as being an "armchair quarterback; sidewalk superintendent," etc.

Some may choose to just neglect God's Word, His church and disregard all spiritual things. This may make some feel "bigger" or "more of a man". But in whose sight, God's or some people?

God's Word or His church cannot be destroyed, not by force or by neglect. Not by power, because God says "All power is Mine". And negativism never has had a lasting influence on anyone or anything.

So you may try to forget God and all things in the spiritual realm. But what you are really doing is destroying yourself and those on whom you have an influence.

Don't beat yourself to death fighting God. Just let God come into your life and you will be ready to do those things that He wants you to be doing.

Now is the time, this is the place.

$500 Prize Offered In W.T. Art Show

Five hundred dollars will be the top prize at the first annual West Texas Chamber of Commerce West Texas Art Show in Snyder next February, according to an announcement made this week by Harlan Bridwell, chairman of the Tourist Committee of the WTCC.

The all West Texas Show is slated for Feb. 18, but announcements are going out this week to artists in all parts of West Texas so that they will have sufficient time to prepare special work for the show.

There will be three divisions: oil, watercolor and other media. First, second and third prizes will be awarded in each division in the amounts of $100, $75 and $50.

Wacil McNair, Snyder, who will serve as chairman of the art show, says that entries will be limited to 600 because of the lack of proper space to display any more than that. He pointed out that in a recent Snyder art show which was restricted to an area of 125 miles there were more than 300 entries, so this West Texas show will be limited to 600.

Artists may submit only two pictures each, according to the chairman. Entry fee is $3.00 per picture and all work must have been done within the past two years. Too, the work must be original, no copies allowed, no class work accepted and competition is open to all artists 18 years of age or older.

The art show is being held in conjunction with the annual Tourist Development Conference, which will be held in the Snyder Coliseum. Full details of the tourist conference will be announced later by Harlan Bridwell, Bridgeport, WTCC committee chairman and Tom Barnett, Fort Worth, chairman of the Cultural Affairs Committee of the WTCC, joint sponsors of the conference and art show.

Subject matter for the art show must be related to West Texas scenic, historic or tourist attractions. Participants in the competition must also be residents of the 132-county area served by the WTCC.

McNair stated "Inasmuch as we expect an avalanche of entries I would suggest an early return of the entry blanks because we must accept entries on a first come, first served basis. Entries may be made immediately although the work to be entered may not yet be completed by the artist."

The prize winning work which receives the "Best of Show" award will become the property of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce and it is anticipated that this work will form the nucleus of the WTCC art collection, which will be placed on permanent display in the offices of the regional organization.

Judging of the first West Texas art show will be done by noted artists of the Southwest, whose names will be announced in the near future.

"Interested artists should contact the WTCC offices at Box 1561, Abilene, for full details of the show and entry blanks, if they are not readily available through their own art group", McNair said.

Bulldogs Defeat

BY DONNIE BLACK

Hart Longhorns didn't seem to have the stuff Friday night as they fell to Amherst 34-19 in a hard-fought battle.

The game got underway as Gary Robinson kicked off for Amherst. Landria Bruington returned the kick to the 30 yard line. Action broke loose as the Horns started a drive on the 30 and went the complete 70 yards to paydirt with Smith and Jimmy Robinson moving on the ground.

A pass completion from Gary Rambo to Ronnie Barham for 38 yards helped sustain the drive. Robinson carried the ball around the end for the final 13 yards and the six points.

Joe Quiroz kicked the conversion and the scoreboard read 7-0 in favor of Hart with almost nine minutes left in the first quarter of play.

Arthur Rivas kicked for Hart and Willy Moore returned to the 32. Amherst decided to try to even things up as they also ground their way down the field to enter the end zone.

Their trio of groundgainers consisted of Royce McAdams, Mike Coffer, and Gary Robinson.

Willy Moore broke loose on Hart's 37 and ended the drive standing in the end zone. Amherst failed to complete a pass on the extra point try and fell one point behind Hart.

After receiving Amherst's kick, Hart ran into their first major problem of the night as Jimmy Robinson couldn't hang on to the ball.

Amherst recovered the ball on Hart's 16 yard line and four plays later, after a 15 yard penalty, scored on a pass from McAdams to Micky Johnson which covered 20 yards.

Amherst took the lead - never to be behind the rest of the game. The try for extras was stopped short and left the score standing 12-7.

Amherst kicked and Robinson returned it to the 28 yard line for Hart. After making two first downs on runs by Smith and Robinson, the Horns fell short on the 50 yard line. Hawkins punted and the ball rolled dead on the 18 yard line.

Amherst, with strong running by McAdams, moved to the 45 yard line before the first quarter ended.

The Bulldogs started the second quarter in style as they maintained their steady yardage gain on the ground. After making four first downs to keep the drive alive, McAdams moved into the end zone from the eight yard line.

Tommy Kelton ran through on the extra try to make an eight point touchdown which up-lifted the score to 20-7.

Robinson kicked for Amherst and Smith made a tremendous run as he moved to the 44 yard line and broke several tackles before being stopped.

The Longhorns decided to move on the first play from scrimmage as Rambo connected with Longoria for a completion which moved the ball to Amherst's 36.

Two plays later Rambo repeated his procedure as Longoria handled another pass to put the Horns on the 10.

Jimmy Robinson then entered the end zone for the final score of the first half.

Rivas kicked off for Hart to start the second half and Moore made it to the 34 on the return. Amherst started a 66 yard drive which consisted of four first downs before entering the paydirt on a three yard run by McAdams.

McAdams went to the air on the try for extras but the pass fell incomplete leaving the score 26-13.

After Amherst's kick, Hart had their second bad break of the night as the kickoff was fumbled. Amherst recovered it on Hart's 36 yard line. On the first down play McAdams passed to Johnson who entered the end zone uncontended for a 36 yard touchdown.

DEFENSE---A Hart Longhorn dives in after an Amherst Bulldog during their bout. The Longhorns fell to the Bulldogs, but only after a tough fight.

Amherst's final 34 night.

Third quarter neared Longhorns were able to begin final play of the game on Amherst's line where Hart fumbled.

Fourth down play Hart was forced to punt from paydirt. Robinson made the most of it as he barreled across the goal line for Hart's last TD of the night.

The extra point try fell short on an incomplete pass from Rambo to Quiroz. Only 34 seconds remained in the third quarter with the final score of the night 34-19 as neither team could get a successful drive going the entire fourth quarter.

Outstanding offense was shown by Rambo, Barham and Robinson. Robinson scored all three of the Hart touchdowns and Barham caught several Rambo passes in critical situations.

Next week is Homecoming for the Longhorns and they will challenge Anton here Friday night at 8 o'clock.

Shorthorns Down

CHARLES BLACK

Shorthorns rolled over on Thursday night, an effort on the part of the player who gained 229 yards on the ground.

Robinson returned Am-herst's kick to the 37 yard line where Hart began their drive for the first score of the game.

After three first downs on runs by Dyer and Wayne Ethridge, the Shorthorns neared the end zone. Dyer carried from one yard out for the touchdown and followed this by running for the two extra points. The young Hart team led 8-0.

The score remained unchanged until the first quarter ended. On the opening play of the second quarter Amherst's team, after recovering a Hart fumble on the 10 yard line, pushed their way to the goal line and managed to make their try for extras good. The score was locked at 8-8.

The Shorthorns didn't like the looks of the scoreboard and started their second touchdown drive of the night upon the return of the Amherst kick. The drive started on the 30 yard line. One first down led to another as Dyer, Hill and Ethridge moved the ball down to the nine yard line.

Dyer carried it into the end zone to complete the scoring of both teams for the night.

The entire second half went scoreless for both teams with Amherst only one TD behind a victory.

The Shorthorns played outstanding defense the entire game, and especially under the pressure which the second half brought.

The final score was 14-8 with Amherst holding the short end of the stick.

A WORKER WHO BECAME disabled before age 24 needs only one and one-half years of work under social security coverage to be eligible for a social security benefit. A worker who became disabled after 24 but before age 31 needs to have worked one-half the time from age 21 up to the time the disability began. Young disabled veterans of military service are also potentially eligible. Be sure to inquire at your nearest social security office if you are disabled.

DID YOU know that if you are between the ages of 18 and 22 you can attend school on social security? That's an exaggeration but you can draw student benefits if your dad or mother is drawing and social security benefits may allow you to complete your college training.

Overseas Mailing Tips Given By Postmaster

Designated periods for mailing Christmas parcels to members of the armed forces overseas were announced this week by Postmaster Jewel Brooks.

Dates for surface transportation are from Oct. 14 to Nov. 9; SAM (space available) is set Oct. 21 to Nov. 23; PAL is Oct. 28 to Nov. 30; and air-mail parcels may be mailed from Nov. 30 to Dec. 11.

"armed forces overseas" includes personnel of the armed forces, members of their families and U. S. civilians employed overseas who receive their mail through an APO or FPO, New York, San Francisco or Seattle.

The Hart postmaster stressed that parcels should be wrapped in strong boxes and addressed completely.

She also said that a slip showing list of contents and the name and address of the sender and the addressee should be enclosed in the parcel.

Some parcels may require customs declarations. Information on this may be obtained at the post office.

Other advice for the mailing of overseas parcels is as follows:

PACKAGING (Very Important) - All articles should be packed in boxes of wood, metal, solid fiberboard, or strong double-faced corrugated fiberboard.

All fiberboard boxes should be securely wrapped in heavy paper which materially strengthens the package. Each box should be well tied with strong cord. Sufficient cushioning material should be used to prevent any rattling or loosening of articles within the package. Unless tightly filled, boxes are likely to be crushed.

PROHIBITED ARTICLES-

In addition to the articles normally prohibited in the mail, matches of all kinds and lighter fluid may not be mailed to overseas military addresses. Cigarettes, other tobacco products, coffee, and various other items are prohibited in parcels addressed to some military post offices. See your postmaster.

POSTAGE - The domestic rates of postage are applicable, and postage must be fully prepaid. When fourth-class or air parcel post rates are applicable, the zone rate from the post office where mailed through which the parcel is addressed will be charged. Air mail articles not in excess of eight ounces are chargeable at the rate of eight cents per ounce.

ADDRESSING - Addresses must be legible and complete, and should be prepared by typewriter or pen and ink. All APO numbers have been changed to five digits which are identical with the zip code.

SPACE AVAILABLE MAIL (SAM) - Gift parcels weighing not more than five pounds and measuring not more than 60 inches in length and girth combined addressed to members of the armed forces in Vietnam will be provided air-lift service on a space available basis from the west coast even though prepaid at the surface rate.

STATE Capital NEWS

By VERN SANFORD

Presidential candidates, wooing Texas voters and the state's 25 electoral votes, are becoming familiar visitors in the Lone Star State.

Republican Richard Nixon swooped into Dallas for a rally Friday. He's likely to return, as is his running mate, Spiro T. Agnew, who also was here earlier.

Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey will try to breathe new life into the late-starting Democratic drive with a barnstorming tour starting October 22. Ed Muskie, Humphrey's No. 2 man, is supposed to drop in around the 30th.

Third party candidate George Wallace made plans to return to Texas this week. He scheduled a high-noon rally for Fort Worth for Thursday (Oct. 17). Both Wallace and Vice-presidential candidate Gen. Curtis E. LeMay are being encouraged by backers to make repeat performances before November 5.

While waiting for the candidates to make their personal appeals, their supporters fought the battle of the polls.

Humphrey's national headquarters claimed a Belden sampling showed 35 per cent of the Texans interviewed favored Humphrey; 33 per cent were for Nixon; and 26 per cent for Wallace; with just six per cent undecided.

"Strange," retorted Nixon's state camp, since its Merrill-Wirthlin poll showed: Nixon 34 per cent; Humphrey 27 per cent; Wallace 22 per cent; and undecided 17 per cent.

Houston Chronicle interviewers concluded Nixon is leading with 40 per cent of the vote. Humphrey ran second in the Chronicle's poll with 33 per cent; and Wallace third with 28 per cent.

Activity in the Humphrey camps definitely is on the upswing. Texas Citizens for Humphrey-Muskie -- headed by Sen. Ralph Yarborough -- and Texas Democrats for Humphrey-Muskie -- led by Congressman Jim Wright of Fort Worth and Will D. Davis of Austin -- are battling against time to rally the traditional Democratic strength.

Former Gov. Allan Shivers, who emerged as national chairman of Democrats for Nixon, is actively encouraging "splitting the ticket" -- for the GOP national nominee and the Democratic state and local candidates.

APPOINTMENTS-- Austin District Judge Tom Reavley replaced retiring Judge James R. Norvell of San Antonio as an associate justice of the State Supreme Court.

Gov. John Connally promptly tapped Norvell as a special judge to review the complex, 12-year-old lower Rio Grande Valley water rights controversy now on appeal before the 13th Court of Civil Appeals in Corpus Christi.

Connally named former Corporation Court Judge Jerome Chamberlain as judge of Criminal District Court No. 1 in Dallas County to succeed Judge J. Frank Wilson, resigned.

W. Astor Kirk of Austin, who has been deputy director of the Southwest Regional Office of Economic Opportunity, now is regional director of the Mid-Atlantic OEO in Washington, D. C.

P. C. Naylor Jr. of San Antonio will serve as chairman of the Texas Real Estate Commission next year.

State Board of Education requests information before Nov. 11 on Texans eligible for appointment to a board vacancy in the district covered by Bastrop, Blanco, Burleson, Burnett, Caldwell, Hays, Lee, Travis, Washington and Williamson Counties.

COURTS SPEAK -- Awards totaling $477,900 to seven persons injured in a truck and Greyhound bus wreck three years ago was upheld by the State Supreme Court.

High Court, while declining to annul an order appointing Houston attorney Leon Jaworski to the board of trustees of the Robert A. Welch charitable foundation, agreed that the appointment should be given full court hearing.

Right of Temple to retain 549.9 acres of land annexed five years ago was upheld by the Supreme Court, even though the city had not provided water or sewer service to the territory.

Same court backed a trial court decision in holding that no vacancy existed with regard to 155.1 acres of land in Upton County and that the property belongs to Atlantic Refining Company.

Court of Criminal Appeals stuck by its earlier reversal of a seven-year sentence given Houston tobacconist Mair J. Schepps charged as an accomplice in printing counterfeit cigarette tax stamps. State motion for rehearing was overruled.

ELECTION SUIT FAILS-- Laurel N. Dunn, an independent candidate for the 11th District congressional seat held by U. S. Rep. W. R. Poag, lost in his lawsuit before the Texas

Supreme Court to challenge state election regulations.

Under state law, ballots may be marked either way, so long as the voter is consistent all through his ballot.

ALL OUTSTANDING Series E and H Savings Bonds are still earning interest -- now at the increased rate of 4.25 per cent when held to next maturity.

'Why Not Marijuana?' Newly Published Book

According to a new book on marijuana, 2.3 million Americans use the drug regularly.

"Why not Marijuana," newly published by the TANE Press Division of Texas Alcohol Narcotics Education, says that there are 50 million users in the world, and that the number in the U. S. is rising.

Dr. Lindsay R. Curtis, surgeon-writer, of Ogden, Utah, is author of the cartoon-illustrated book. He says "There is no evidence that the use of marijuana per se will lead to the need for the heavier narcotics, but many studies have shown that many heroin addicts began their drug careers by smoking marijuana." One study, conducted in New Orleans, showed that 44 of 58 addicts started on marijuana.

"Although marijuana is not physically addicting, the user often develops a psychological drug dependence." He has no withdrawal symptoms, yet experience finds him returning again and again to the drug, Dr. Curtis said.

The euphoric, "high" feeling or marijuana use often progresses quickly to irritability, excitability and sometimes to violent behaviour, including homicidal and suicidal, the book says.

Dr. Curtis has written several books on drug problems, including, alcohol, goof balls and pep pills, glue sniffing, and tobacco. They are distributed by TANE Press, mostly through schools and churches.

The parent organization, called "TANE", is a non-profit organization chartered by the State of Texas. Its materials, however, have wide acceptance nationally, and throughout the English-speaking world. Some are being translated into other languages for use in the Far East and South America.

Most of Dr. Curtis' cartoon-illustrated books have been adapted to color film strips.

"Our purpose is not to sell books, nor film strips, but to convey a vitally-needed message - to save the health and lives of young people, by simply giving them the facts. Through the books and visual aids, we can convey the facts," said Albert F. Tucker, TANE Executive Director.

The organization is supported financially by Texas churches of several denominations and individual contributions. Programs include public school assembly programs, a free film lending library, production of audio visual aids, publishing, and a 100-man speakers bureau.

WOULD YOUR CONGRESSMAN VOTE FOR GEORGE WALLACE?

Some fine Texans are tempted to vote for the 3rd party candidate because they admire his stand and his statements on some of the major campaign issues . . .

STOP AND THINK WHAT WILL ACTUALLY HAPPEN . . .

The best that Wallace supporters can hope for is enough strength to throw the election into the turmoil of a Congressional election by the House of Representatives . . .

THEN WHAT HAPPENS?

The answer is certain and simple. Wallace supporters are at the mercy of Washington Politicians! Every vote for George Wallace automatically becomes a vote for Hubert Humphrey!

THERE IS A BETTER CHOICE . . .

Land Commissioner Tells Of Improvements

Under the many programs of the General Land Office are a few that stand out as major accomplishments in recent years. The Veterans Land Program has permitted 36,500 Texas veterans to purchase a tract of land in the State of Texas. Interest in the new program is great, and the veterans are filing new contracts daily, thereby taking advantage of the opportunity offered them under the revised Veterans Land Program. Even though this program is a great aid to the economy and a help to Texas veterans, it has also made a yearly profit of $3,000,000 for the taxpayers and the people of this state.

In the last two years sulphur activities in far West Texas have occupied the limelight. During the past year we have taken in $2,174,978 from the leasing of sulphur in the state. This money, along with the revenue derived from oil and gas, goes into the Permanent School Fund to make better education a reality for our young people.

Today our Permanent School Fund is over the three-quarter billion mark, having an accumulated total of $775,138,151. Of this amount $324,457,642 has been placed in the fund since January 1, 1961, the date on which Jerry Sadler became Land Commissioner of the State of Texas. The Permanent University Fund today contains $514,589,348 and by proper management and foresight $161,289,338 has been placed in the fund since January 1, 1961.

These funds aid in lightening the load of the taxpayers and in making money available for better education in our state, both at the public school level and the college level.

These major programs have been most beneficial to the state and they have been accomplished at a minimum expense. During Sadler's tenure of office he has managed to return to the state an average of $284,000 of unspent revenue each year authorized by the Legislature in the Appropriation Bill to be spent by the General Land Office.

This represents a saving of $1,280,000 over the past seven years through proper management and economy practices that he has adhered to in supervising the General Land Office of the State of Texas as Land Commissioner.

Local Postmaster Attends Convention

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Brooks were among the largest crowd in history to attend the National Convention of Postmasters which met Sept. 28 through Oct. 4 in Las Vegas, Nev. The 65th National League of Postmasters drew a record registration of 1594 postmasters representing every state in the union.

Mrs. Brooks, a voting delegate, was one of 37 postmasters attending the convention from Texas.

Henry B. Montague, Chief US Postal Inspector, and Postmaster General W. Marvin Watson were among the distinguished speakers at the convention.

Watson, a Texan, was appointed Special Assistant to the President by President Johnson in 1965. He was named Postmaster General early in 1968.

Enroute home, the Brooks received word that Mrs. Faye Wester of El Paso, sister of Brooks, would undergo back surgery on Monday. They were with her for the operation and report that she was doing well when they left El Paso.

Local Ordinances Can Offer Big Trouble

Safeguarding John Q. Public against the possibility of his bringing trouble on himself becomes more difficult every day. Typical is the case of the would-be plumber who doesn't feel he needs either experience or talent to install a plumbing system. Overlooking his doubtful joint brazing, pipe selection and fitting, plus his dubious choice of components, there is still the very real chance of local ordinances and codes (concerned with sanitation standards) making him rip out his entire job, only to have it done by a licensed plumbing contractor. American-Standard recommends seeing your plumber before you begin work.

M. K. Neptune To Begin Tour

Republican land commissioner nominee Millard K. Neptune said this week he would leave Friday (October 18) on the " ' 68 Victory Express" -- a bus which will visit 68 Texas cities in 17 days.

Neptune said the bus will depart from Lufkin Friday and will circle the state by Nov. 2. He will be joined on the bus, for several days' campaigning at a time, by several other Republican statewide candidates, including Doug DeCluitt, lieutenant governor; Sproesser Wynn, attorney general; Muel Sanchez III, treasurer; John M. Bennett Jr., comptroller; and E. G. Schuhart II, agriculture commissioner.

Neptune, former senior vice president of Texas Eastern Transmission Corporation and presently a rancher and business consultant, said at a news conference in Austin this week he believes the General Land Office "is stagnant."

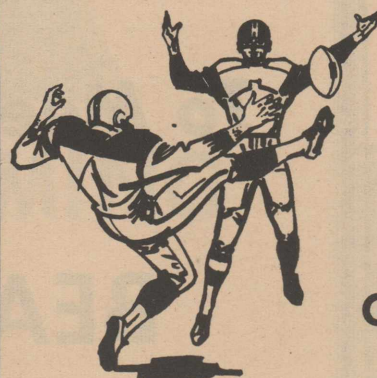

He said an "aggressive Land Commissioner could generate millions of dollars more revenue for the Permanent School and University Funds."

IN HALE CENTER

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hamm visited in Hale Center Monday with his sister, Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Barnes. Mr. Barnes has been ill for quite some time.

WOW! Has this ever been a hectic week and busy!

Homecoming has been going on all week something like this: Wednesday, Western Day; Thursday, Dress-up day; and Friday, Maroon and White Day. Thursday was also the night for the bee-u-ti-ful(!!) bonfire. Highlight of the bonfire was crowning of the Bonfire King.

The king candidates were Gary Rambo, Jimmy Allensworth, and Joe Quiroz.

The high-school gymnasium was the setting Friday morning for the impressive "Pinning Ceremony." Spirit was the undertone as the Pep Squad members pinned their heroes.

Friday night we take on Anton Bulldogs in a Homecoming joust. At 7:15 the 1968 Football Queen will be crowned.

Candidates for this honor are Reba English, Sr.; Nanci Reed, Sr.; Pam Shive, Jr.; Gaylene Hawkins, Soph.; and Dee Clevenger, Freshman.

As the girls are driven around the field a special quartet will sing "Longhorns in Action." After the football action, a get-together will be held in the gym by the Seniors for all High School students. This was and still is a great week - let's go for a VICTORY!

SOCK IT TO 'EM HORNS!

The FTA met Monday afternoon in the library. President Iona Clevenger called the meeting to order. District Convention and the Halloween Carnival were the main topics for discussion. Any FTA member who does not have an introduction sheet should see Mrs. Myers immediately.

VICTORY, HORNS, VICTORY

In a fight-to-the-finish game Friday night, Amherst came up the victor as the Horns and Bulldogs clashed. The final score was 34-19. The high school in its entirety won the Spirit Stick in the Pep Rally.

Lela Gallion Awarded Gift

Hart of Texas TOPS Club met Monday night Oct. 14 in the community room at 7:30 p. m.

After the weighing in was completed, the regular meeting was held with a discussion on those who will attend the meeting and luncheon at Olton on Nov. 12.

A motion was made and accepted to meet on the first Monday of each month at 6:45 p. m. to allow the parents and teachers to get out in time to attend P.T.A. meetings.

Charms were awarded those losing 10 pounds and to those without a weight gain in an eight week period.

Pictures were taken of the ones receiving the charms and last month's queen.

Receiving the gift for the most weight loss this week was Lela Gallion.

Financial Facts

By Willis A. Hawkins, Jr.

Everyone is interested in money. It is our medium of exchange and is classified into three categories: coins, currency and demand deposits, namely - checking account balances.

When coins were first developed, they were not uniform as to the quantity and quality of the metal they contained. Each coin had to be weighed and tested by the recipient. Moreover, older coins became less valuable because of the general wear. Later, all coins were standardized and issued by the Treasury.

All paper money is classified as currency and falls into two divisions: currency outstanding and not in the process of being retired; and notes in the process of retirement. These include Federal Reserve Bank notes, 1916-1943;

National bank notes, 1863-1935; Treasury notes, 1890-1893; and Silver certificates 1875-1963.
