Rep. Bill Clayton Relates Committee Findings

A four day public hearing was conducted in Dallas last week by the House Committee to investigate the financial relationship between vending machine companies and taverns. Rep. Bill Clayton, a committee member, stated, "Testimony before our committee brought out that gambling, prostitution, and illicite drug trade was an every day occurrence in many of the taverns that were controlled by the vending machine companies. The reason being that the operator of the tavern did not make much money and they would allow things of this nature to take place to draw customers."

After returning from the Dallas hearings, Rep. Clayton called a meeting of his 169 Acre Limitation Committee in Oklahoma City Monday, Nov. 18, just prior to the annual meeting of the Nation Reclamation Association being held in Oklahoma City this week. Clayton said, "We hope to get some action from the N.R.A. on the 160 Acre law." Clayton also stated that the House Interim Water Committee will meet in Austin Nov. 27, at 9:30 a. m. in the old Supreme Court Room.

This will be the last public hearing of this committee before recommendations are made to the 61st Legislature. "It looks like there will be lots of water legislation to consider this next year," Clayton said.

Rep. Bill Clayton stated that he would like to take this opportunity to express his appreciation for the support given him in the recent election. Clayton said he would like to have your comments pertaining to any or all issues that will come before the next session of the Legislature so he will be able to efficiently represent the wishes of the people of this area.

Elizabeth Rodriquez Resigns Position

Miss Elizabeth Rodriquez, English teacher, has resigned and a replacement has been named, according to Ted Averitt, superintendent of schools.

Miss Rodriquez, who taught adult classes each Monday and Wednesday, will be replaced by Mrs. Bob Lacy. Classes are held from 7 to 9:30 p. m.

Supt. Averitt announced that school will be dismissed at 2 p. m. Wednesday, Nov. 27 for the Thanksgiving holidays.

Residents are reminded that annuals may be purchased until Nov. 22. Kindergarten students pictures will be included in this year's annual.

Averitt noted that with the close of football season this Friday night, there comes the basketball season.

Junior High opens their season with a game with Spade here Nov. 25 at 5 p. m.

Would you like to keep your children in school at Hart?

Then you must do your part in showing your representative that you are not in favor of the consolidation of the area schools as recommended by the Governor's Committee on Education.

A letter to Billy Wayne Clayton, state representative of 72nd District, has been written and persons interested in keeping our schools where they are now located, are asked to come by the school and sign this letter between Nov. 22 and Nov. 29.

The matter of consolidation comes up before the legislature this next year, but NOW is the time to act.

Those who are unable to come by the school and sign this letter are urged to write to Clayton personally, expressing your views on the situation.

Small Boy Eats Poison

Little Danny Rice, two year old son of Napoleon Rice, was listed in satisfactory condition Wednesday night according to hospital spokesman.

The tot was admitted to Plains Memorial Hospital in Dimmitt Tuesday after a near tragic accident when he ate a wafer-like piece of rat poison which he took from a trash basket.

The Rice family lives on the Paul Armstrong farm.

Miracle Of Light Lecture Topic

The November Planetarium program at West Texas Museum demonstrates the sources of light in the universe. "The Miracle of Light" will be the topic of the lecture - demonstration each Sunday at 3 p. m.

The astronomer's most important source of information of the universe is the light which comes from the stars and nebulae in the heavens. Many aspects of the light we see in the sky at night are truly miraculous, simple to comprehend but seldom considered by the layman.

Even the speed of light offers a fantastic subject; although it does take time for light to travel from its source in the stars to man's eyes, it is travelling at the rate of 186,000 miles per second. In one year it travels about 6 trillion miles, or 6,000,000,000,000 miles.

In effect, the sky is a sort of time machine, because we see at any one time the light produced many years ago by the stars.

Financial Facts
By Willis A. Hawkins, Jr.

Here is a peculiar expression — "near money". Yet it is an important division in present day financial set-ups.

Near money may be defined as securities that are not quite money. Something has to take place before the actual cash is forthcoming.

Let's look at some examples of near money: savings account balances; United States Savings bonds; Savings and Loans shares; and United States Treasury bills. You can't pay for a cartload of groceries by tendering your savings account pass book. But the money draws interest for you!

Nor can you get a filled tank of gas at a service station by offering a United States Savings bond, a Savings and Loan share or a United States Treasury bill. "Near Money" must be converted into money before being accepted as a medium of exchange.

Morality?

GUEST EDITORIAL

BY PAUL HARVEY

Russia does not allow college women to visit the bedrooms of college men.

Moscow University does not allow coeds to sign out of their dormitories and spend the night in hotel or motel rooms - with or without parental permission.

Izvestia, the Soviet newspaper, denounces swearing. "Cussing is verbal hooliganism - a crime to be punished."

Egypt, reacting from the licentious days of Farouk, has outlawed kissing in public. Performing "harem-dancers" are required to be clothed from neck to ankles.

Spanish towns such as Los Santos allow strolling couples to "touch hands," nothing more.

East German soldiers have a new, officially prescribed code of conduct. Locker pinups are now taboo. Further, "A soldier in the East German People's Army should kiss the back of a woman's hand only, that his intentions may not be misunderstood. Respect for a girl should be so great that one does not try to force or extort that which is not given willingly."

This evidence of a renaissance of the "old morality" in the Old World provides an interesting comparison with the so-called "new morality" in the United States.

The New York County Bar Association urges that "adultery and homosexuality should no longer be considered crimes."

A Boston University philosophy professor says "the old arguments for chastity before marriage are outmoded."

A New York City specialist in public health says, "One-in-five U. S. brides is pregnant on her wedding day."

London designers display the "nude top" to match the almost nude bottom.

Communists in Russia, following the Bolshevik Revolution, practiced the freest of free love.

Now they - the Russians - are reverting to respect for women, self-discipline and recognition of the sanctity of marriage. These qualities they recognize as necessary to national strength.

Meanwhile, however, they are seeking to weaken us by subverting morality in the United States.

I am not one who blames an international conspiracy for all our home-front immorality. But we do know that admitted Communists in the United States are encouraging the worship of filth.

Communist publications are filled with obscenity urging American youths to public licentiousness, urging them to reject the "morality of the establishment," to disrobe in public and display themselves and reject the "archaic formality of marriage" and "express themselves" through the use of drugs.

While Russia campaigns against "cussing" in Russia, Communists in the United States shout defiance in the vilest language. A mop-haired, barefoot New York youth now on a California campus leads a demonstration in favor of filthy words.

We don't have to let them get away with it. We Americans don't have to wallow in dirt and depravity unresisting.

Indeed, the new President of the United States has a splendid background - and opportunity - to lead Americans back home.

Citing history, he can show that there is nothing constructive or progressive or daring about sin.

And certainly it is nothing "new."

And by example he may lead us to a renewed respect for godliness - for home and family and decency - which once made America the powerhouse of this planet.

And can again.

THE FAMILY LAWYER

Slow Motion Divorce

Not long ago a man filed suit for divorce on the ground that his wife had committed adultery—20 years earlier. But his case was dismissed because of too much procrastination. The court, noting the difficulties of finding out what really happened that long ago, commented:

"A husband cannot wait to make his charges until the years dim the proofs to the contrary."

Like most lawsuits, a divorce suit too long delayed may be barred automatically by a state's statute of limitations. But even if there is no automatic bar, courts are usually skeptical of divorce suits in which the complaining spouse has postponed action for an excessive period of time.

One reason, mentioned above, is the problem of evidence—of dredging facts out of a distant past. Another reason is the feeling that a grievance, if acted upon so slowly, could not have been too serious in the first place.

Thus a woman failed to convince the court that two blows by her husband, inflicted 40 years before, had ruined her marriage.

"There must be some limit to judicial credulity," said the judge. "We think it has been reached here."

Nevertheless, there may well be a legitimate reason for delay. For example, a man who put off a divorce suit for a number of years, after learning of his wife's infidelity, gave an excuse that satisfied the court: he wanted to spare his young children from scandal as long as he could.

In another case a husband was held justified in waiting gallantly, before suing for divorce, while his wife recovered from a severe illness.

Perhaps the best reason for delay is that the wronged spouse continues to have hope that the marriage may yet be preserved.

Thus, a court found no fault with a man who waited seven years—in recurring hope of a reconciliation—before finally seeking a divorce on grounds of marital cruelty. The court felt it would be unfair to blame him for wanting what the law itself encourages: the saving of the marriage.

Pep Community Set Festivities

If anybody happens to be driving on Highway 303 southwest of Littlefield and northwest of Levelland through that great little community of Pep around Thursday, Nov. 28, they would probably be amazed at all the excitement going on.

The Pep community would be celebrating their 23rd annual Thanksgiving festival starting with that good ole country sausage with turkey and trimmings from 11 a. m. till 2 p. m. and the evening meal from 5 p. m. till 7:30 p. m. adults $1.75 and children $1.00 per plate.

Besides all that good food there will be plenty of other enjoyment with all kinds of carnival attractions and prizes lasting throughout the day. Winding up the evening with a cotton and general auction at 6:30 p. m. followed by a dance at 9 p. m. till who knows when. The music will be furnished by a western band.

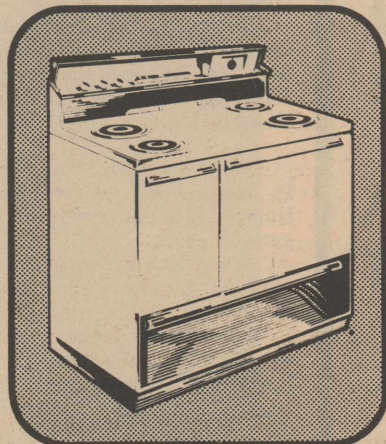

So in case you happen to be on Highway 303 just doing nothing and you notice all that excitement going on, stop in and let the Pep people feed you and entertain you and when they have turned you loose after showing you their hospitality and friendship, you will know you have had a good time, "No Brag Just Fact".

TEXANS DROVE more miles during the past year -- 58 billion -- in more vehicles -- 6.7 million -- than ever before. Yet the Texas Highway Department reports the fatality rate dropped from 6.2 deaths per hundred million vehicle miles driven in 1966 to 5.8 in 1967.

TEXAS HIGHWAY Department has made ample provisions for rest areas along the Interstate highway system in the State. When the system is complete, there will be a safety rest area on each side of the divided routes on an average of every 37 miles, and rest room facilities will be included wherever water is available.

Hart Longhorns Take Matadors

BY DONNIE BLACK

Hart Longhorns hit the field with blood in their eyes as they ran over Matador 36 to 7 in Longhorn Stadium Friday night.

The Longhorn offense looked very strong from every angle. Rambo's air attack was on target and Quiroz along with Robinson could hardly be stopped on the ground.

The scoreboard wasn't dented until midway through the first quarter.

The third time the Horns had possession of the ball, they started a drive on their own 30 yard line which went all the way.

It only took six plays to cover the entire 70 yards. Smith, Robinson, and Quiroz each carried twice.

The score was set up as Quiroz broke loose on the Matador 49 and rambled to the 11 before being knocked out of bounds.

Quiroz followed as he ran the remaining 11 yards on the next play to cross the goal line. The try for extras was no good and the Horns led 6-0.

The next score came early in the second quarter as the Horns again put together a successful drive.

After taking over a Matador punt on their own 28 yard line, the Horns began to move slowly.

The drive consisted of four first downs. There were no long runs as the Horns played rugged football grinding down the field only three or four yards at a time.

The drive was climaxed as Quiroz entered the end zone from two yards out for his second TD of the night.

Jimmy Allensworth kicked and the point after was good leaving the score 13-0.

This rugged type ball slowly ate up the clock and the halftime ended with the clock no differently.

Don Cox kicked off for Matador to start the second half and also to start the Horn's third touchdown drive.

Jimmy Robinson returned the ball to the 23 yard line and the Horns began to move.

On runs by Smith, Quiroz, Robinson and Bruington, the Horns ran a total of 14 plays to cover the 77 yards to pay-dirt.

The Horn front line did a good job of providing a pathway for these backs to follow.

After the Horns had put together six first downs Quiroz crossed the goal-line from five yards out for his third score of the night.

Rambo passed to Quiroz for an extra two. This score put the Horns 21 points in the lead.

The next big score for Hart was set up as Jimmy Allensworth recovered a fumble on Matador's 28 yard line.

Four plays were climaxed as Jimmy Robinson reached pay dirt on a 10 yard run. Allensworth followed with a good kick making a 28-0 reading on the scoreboard.

The final score of the night came after Joe Quiroz returned a Matador punt to the Hart 36 yard line late in the third quarter.

At this point the Horns began their last successful drive in which Quiroz, Rambo, Bruington and Robinson each did a fine job of moving the ball.

The score came as Jimmy Robinson entered the end zone from 12 yards out for his second TD of the night.

Allensworth made the point after good and the Horns led 35-0. Two plays later the third quarter ended.

At the start of the last quarter Matador started their only successful drive after recovering a Longhorn fumble on the Hart 35 yard line.

Cruise and Cox did most of the ground work for Matador and moved to the 8 yard line before Don Cox decided to go all the way. Cox also kicked the extra and Matador finally got their only seven points on the board.

The entire fourth quarter went scoreless for the Horns, but left the final score 35-7.

The entire offensive line did an outstanding job of blocking as they made clear pathways for the backs all during the game.

On the defensive side injured Andy Rogers came back to play a fine game, along with Allensworth, Mitchell and Murry.

Next week the Horns face Turkey there at 7:30. This will be the final game of the season.

Holiday Season Tempts Thieves

Christmas shoppers should take every precaution to protect their packages and automobiles from thieves, warns the National Automobile Theft Bureau.

C. C. Benson, manager of the southwestern division of the NATB, said that Christmas shoppers who leave their cars unlocked and packages in the back seat are leaving an open invitation to thieves of all kinds.

"Car thieves frequently prowl shopping centers and other such areas where shoppers are likely to leave cars unlocked and keys in ignitions while they run inside stores to make quick purchases," said Mr. Benson.

During the holiday season the thief not only has more cars to pick from, but often can find a car filled with packages. Thus, he can get two birds with the same stone -- the car and the packages -- and have an early Christmas, observed the NATB official.

Benson said shoppers should lock all packages in the trunks of their cars when the automobiles are unoccupied. Over 60 per cent of the cars stolen had been left unlocked and over half of these were left with keys in the ignition.

KITCHEN KORNER

By Lela Gallion

We have had some real cool weather having hard freezes slowing down the cotton harvest this year. The grain harvest was over in very good time with a good turnout considering the green bugs and hail that plagued the farmers. Our area had a good corn and soybean crop this year, so really it is something to be very thankful for on this coming Thanksgiving Day, which is a truly American Heritage to celebrate this day by giving thanks for our years' bountiful crops among other blessings which we sometimes are apt to forget. I've been asked to repeat this old fashioned pumpkin pie recipe

OLD FASHIONED PUMPKIN PIE

5 large eggs, well beaten, and continue beating while you add:
1 c. brown sugar
3/4 c. white sugar
1 1/2 tsp. cloves
1 tsp. nutmeg
1 T. cinnamon
1/2 tsp. allspice
1 1/2 tsp. ginger
1/2 tsp. salt
1 T. flour
stop beater and add:
1 No. 2 1/2 can pumpkin
1 can Pet milk
3 c. milk

This will fill four pie shells. Bake at 450 for 10 minutes then at 350 for 50 minutes or until a knife inserted in center comes out clear.

VISIT IN HART

Mrs. Roland Shepard and Mrs. Bill Crader and children spent from Monday to Saturday in Hart.

VISIT IRONSES

Mr. and Mrs. John Smith and Jay of Plainview visited Sunday in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Allen Irons.

ATTENDS CONFERENCE

Rev. C. T. Cunningham was in Fort Worth three days attending the annual Baptist convention entitled "World Missions Conference of Home and Foreign Missions."

Here are two good cookie recipes for that Holiday cookie making.

ICE CREAM COOKIES

6 T. butter
6 T. confectioners sugar
1 beaten egg yolk
1 tsp. vanilla
1 c. flour

Cream butter and sugar thoroughly. Add egg yolks and vanilla, and beat well. Add flour. Drop from teaspoon onto ungreased cookie sheet. Bake in moderate oven (350 degrees) 15-20 minutes. Makes about two dozen cookies.

APRICOT SQUARES

1/2 c. butter or margarine
1/2 c. sugar
2 egg yolks
1 c. flour
1/2 tsp. salt
1/4 tsp. soda
1/2 tsp. vanilla

1 med. jar apricot preserves

Mrs. Farris Wins Gift

Hart of Texas TOPS club met Monday Nov. 18 in the community room of the Farmers State Bank.

The pledge was recited and songs were sung, following the "weighing in" ceremony.

Queen of the week, Mrs. Floyd Farris, was presented a gift.

A report was given by members who attended the luncheon at Olton Tuesday noon, Nov. 12.

Members decided to conduct a contest for a three month period for losing weight. The club will divide in the same groups as before and the team captains will also remain the same.

POULTRY is a low-calorie meat, say Extension foods specialists, but preparation can add many calories.

AN AVERAGE SERVING, 3-1/2 ounces, of roasted turkey has only 190 calories, according to Extension foods specialists.

EQUAL QUANTITIES of poultry are higher in protein than other meats because of their low fat content, say foods specialists with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

CHOOSE your market for cleanliness especially when buying chicken or turkey, say foods specialists with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. A good market keeps fresh birds refrigerated and frozen birds frozen at all times.

UNSTUFFED FROZEN turkeys should be thawed until pliable before cooking. Do not thaw commercially frozen, stuffed birds before cooking, say Extension foods specialists.

HART PRESENTS - Rickey Lynn McKay, two years old, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Dean McKay of Fort Worth. Maternal great-grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Duncan of Olton. Paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Elmer McKay of Bovina.

Cranberry Treats Brighten Holiday Cooking Tastes

The unusual cranberry fruit comes into season in time for versatile holiday use. Cranberries are easy to cook because there is nothing to peel, and there are no seeds or pits, says Gwendolyn Clyatt, Extension consumer marketing specialist.

Cranberry sauce, which contains vitamins A and C, is good with meats and poultry. To make it, first wash and sort berries. Then combine 2 cups of water and 2 cups of sugar, heat to a boil and add 1 pound of cranberries. Then cook over low heat until berries pop usually 15 minutes.

The sauce can be used whole or strained through a food mill or strainer.

Mrs. Clyatt suggests freezing the berries in the bag or box in which they are purchased. Simply put the unopened container into the freezer. Since they go in the freezer dry, they are easy to separate while still frozen.

They need not be thawed before cooking, says the specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. Just a brief rinse in water and they are ready to go into a pie, fruit cake or this recipe for Cranberry Crunch:

1 c. uncooked rolled oats
1/2 c. flour
1 c. brown sugar
1/3 c. butter or margarine
1 lb. cranberry sauce (jellied or whole)

Longhorn Trails

Iona Clevenger

Another six weeks is over. Joyful occasion. Really its kind of sad to think that school will be out in just 24 more weeks. Awww! If anyone loses too much sleep over the fact, let us know and we'll try to console you the best we can.

Our Longhorns made us quite proud of them last Friday night. A 35-7 score looked quite good. But after all, that's what they are made for. The season has been quite hard and our Horns have done great. If you happen to see one of them in the hall, why don't you let him know how you feel.

Prepare for the future, Thanksgiving is only 6 days away!

TAX MAN SAM SEZ:

If you earn part of your income from tips, you are required to report the amount of tips to your employer, who is required by law to withhold Social Security and income taxes on them. If you do not earn enough wages to pay the taxes that should be withheld; you are required to pay the rest to Internal Revenue. A recent court decision upheld an Internal Revenue Agent who assessed taxes, interest and penalties on 10 per cent of the cost of all meals a waitress served. It pays to keep a record of your tip income.

Moments Of Meditation

C. T. Cunningham, pastor of First Baptist Church

Paul says that Jesus is the express image of the invisible. But let's look at some men who saw Him who is invisible.

First, Isaiah.

As a young man he was called to preach. But the people stopped their ears and would not listen. But Isaiah preached anyway. For he had seen the Lord high and lifted up. He had seen the seraphims. He had seen Him who is invisible. Read Isaiah chapter 6.

Next there is Daniel.

He was a man in high position in the court of the king of Babylon. . . But Daniel prayed to his God three times a day. And this got him thrown into the lion's den. Daniel did not fear for he had seen Him who is invisible.

Then we see the three Hebrew children, Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego.

They refused to kneel to the image of the pagan king and worship him. Therefore they were thrown into the fiery furnace, heated seven times hotter than ever before. By the king's own testimony, he saw four men in the furnace. He said, "Did we not put in three, I see four men, and one is like the Son of God." The Hebrew children saw Him who is invisible.

The aged John, exiled to the island of Patmos for witnessing for the Lord.

John had seen many troubles and sorrows. He had served the Lord a long time. But he was faithful to the end. Because he saw Him who is invisible.

How about you? Did you ever see Him who is invisible?

It may be that there are too many things in the way. Or maybe you are not looking in the right direction.

There is no comparison between the size of a dime and the sun. Yet you can put a dime so close to your eye that you can not see the sun.

It doesn't take much to make us blind to God. Just some little things getting in the way.

But you can see Him who is invisible, and your life, like these men of old, will never be the same again.

2. 160 acres, in best water district, 2 miles from town on the pavement, one 8-inch well, 1/2 minerals, 20% down payment. Bal. 6% interest. Pump goes with sale. Approximately $5,000.00 A.S.C. Check, one of the best farms in Texas.

3. 90 acres, real good farm, 20% down payment, 1/2 minerals, on pavement Bal. on 6% interest for 15 years.

4. Have a client who owns a 330 acre farm, a 320 acre farm and 120 acre farm, all in the Olton territory, all three farms are choice variety, will trade these three fine farms for a good ranch in some good ranching country.

5. Also a four room modern house with bath, you can buy for $785.00 with $100.00 down. Balance on monthly payments.

Anyone who can think positive, (how I can buy--not how I can keep from buying) can own one of these fine farms in the Olton territory. We have many more fine farms listed.

Federal Highway Administrators Draw Criticism At State Meet

Federal highway administrators are attempting to grab power far in excess of the intentions of Congress, a top State highway official charged here at College Station today.

John O. Morton, president of the American Association of State Highway Officials, leveled a withering blast at what he termed "this senseless takeover" in the keynote address opening the Forty-Second Annual Highway Short Course at Texas A&M University.

Morton, who also is commissioner of public works and highways of the State of New Hampshire, referred to a group of proposed regulations which will go into effect if not withdrawn before November 22.

The regulations call for two public hearings -- instead of one required presently -- before a highway can be constructed. Any person or group could bring a halt to further progress on the project at either hearing or afterward by citing any of the regulatory points in opposing the proposed construction.

The regulations were published in the Federal Register and if allowed to stand, would have the effect of law after November 22.

Morton noted that this is the first time in the 52-year history of the Federal Aid Highway Program that a government agency has resorted to this means of establishing rules and regulations for the highway program.

"I can only regard this move as being of a sinister nature, conceived by a few people in high authority and possibly accepted by others who are not aware of its serious consequences," Morton said.

Morton pointed out that of the 41-thousand-mile Interstate Highway network, some 6.4 thousand miles are within urban areas. Of this mileage, only 150 miles are in dispute. Practically all the rest has been constructed or resolved.

"Of this total mileage of urban expressways, only 2.5 percent have presented problems of an unusual nature and certainly this constitutes a record of accomplishment and not one of failure," he said.

Morton said highway builders have developed cordial and responsive working relations with community officials and with representatives of every level of government.

"We have encouraged the appearance of interested persons at our public hearings and have given considerate and responsive attention to the suggestions and problems that have been presented . . .

"As a matter of record, of the 41-thousand-mile network of Interstate highways, approximately two-thirds of the mileage is now completed and in service. I can factually report that this accomplishment has been accepted, approved and applauded by the overwhelming majority of the American people," Morton said.

Should the pending regulations go into effect, he said, "For most of the States this will have the effect of bringing about a complete stoppage of the highway program. . . ."

He said the regulations will take the highway program out of the hands of the States and the State highway departments and put it under the direct supervision of "a mammoth federal bureaucracy."

The veteran highway engineer and administrator charged that "at the present time, millions of highway dollars are being dissipated by a Washington bureaucracy -- funds that are urgently needed for well thought-out construction projects.

"Complexities are being created that cannot be untangled at the local, State or federal level. Meaningless reports are being required -- reports that never will be read -- and each day the shuffling of more paper requires added help. All of these dubious requirements are being presented to the public under the guise of creative federalism."

Morton said it is "high time that we raise strong objections to this senseless takeover. To me, a highway program should be one that is aided by the use of federal funds rather than one completely dominated by government bureaucracy.

"The dissolving of the time-honored partnership between the Bureau of Public Roads and the States will destroy the continuity of well thought-out highway programs.

"Necessarily, it will create more confusion and complexity. A program completely dominated by the federal government will never be responsive to a fair and intelligent evaluation of local conditions or local planning."

Tax Man Sam Sez

The Commissioner of Internal Revenue, in his Annual Report Summary for the Fiscal Year of 1967, states "The mission of the Service is to encourage and achieve the highest possible degree of voluntary compliance with the tax laws and regulations and to maintain the highest degree of public confidence in the integrity and efficiency of the Service. This includes communicating the requirements of the law to the public, determining the extent of compliance and causes of non-compliance, and doing all things needful to a proper enforcement of the law."

On the last page of the Commissioner's Report Summary, under the title "Investigation of Alleged Tax Fraud," there is listed "Plea of guilty or nolo contendere or conviction after trial . . . 1,173." Apparently, out of 100 million, there were still 1,000 who didn't volunteer.
