SCHOOL OPENING POSTPONED ONE WEEK

The public school opening at Know City has been postponed one week and therefore will begin on Tuesday, Sept. 13th instead of the 6th as stated two weeks ago. This is done in order to aid the gathering of cotton before cold weather sets in. Cotton has opened consider-

DROUTH BROKEN BY DOWNPOUR OVER WEST TEXAS

Thursday afternoon a drenching rain fell over this section of the country and as far as we have been able to learn the precipitation was general. About two inches fell here, giving a thorough season for all late crops and putting the ground in an ideal condition for the breaking and sowing of wheat.

CHRISTIAN REVIVAL CLOSES SUNDAY NIGHT

The Christian revival, under direction of Evangelist U. K. Forrest, has continued through the week with increasing interest. Eld. Forrest thinks and speaks with a precision that is convincing and instructive. The meeting will close Sunday evening, leaving much lasting good as a result of the series of services. The Church of Christ will be organized here and house of worship built as soon as possible.

"THE COLONEL'S MAID" STAGED AT OPERA HOUSE

"The Colonel's maid," a three act comedy presented by a groupe of Throckmorton young people at the opera house last Tuesday evening was an undoubted success. From the moment the worthy Colonel Rudd presented himself before the curtain to read the cast of characters, it was a "scream."

An item that we unintentionally overlooked last week was the Fordson Tractor demonstration given by the Jee Hestor of the east of Knox City. The enterprising farmer's barbecue and water for the spectators tractor behaved admirably its merits were proven.

The story of the play briefly was about as follows: Colonel Rudd and Colonel Richard of South Carolina had been bitter enemies for years, due to a duel fought for the hand and heart of the fair Emmeline. Colonel Rudd was the victor and Colonel Bird went to bury his sorrow, naturally supposing that Colonel Bird wedded Emmeline.

lost the companion of their joys and sorrows, and still the old fires of animosity burned as brightly as ever. These two old gentlemen, ordinarily kindest of men, lost no opportunity to slander and harm each other. Then, in this state of affairs, Bob Rudd Jr., a young man as pride will, fell in love with Bird, now and vivacious. He refused to consider marriage without the consent of both his father and her. In an attempt to bring about, Bob went to visit in Bird home. Under the Name of Foster, and gained the good will of the old Colonel, but fearing discovery, returned home, where he found that other forces were at work in his affairs, his father had determined that he should marry his cousin, Julia Carroll. Bob refuses, and explodes his own bombshell at a rather inopportune moment, since Ching, the Chinese cook, had burned up two breakfasts that morning. The maid had left the house was in a state that defied description, and Julia and her mild-tempered mother, who is a house keeping expert with a gifted tongue, were monetarily expected. They arrived in the midst of the turmoil, were ushered through the cyclone smitten kitchen by the redoubtable Ching, and found the dignified Colonel, under a pile of dishes—he had tried to set the table at the orders of the ruling Celestial, whose black cat had upset him. Things were finally quieted, the Colonel set out to entertain his visitors, while Bob hired Marjorie, who had come at his suggestion, to act as maid and incidentally to win the approval of the Colonel, which she promptly did. Julia's mother and the Colonel persevere faithfully in their match-making efforts, but make very little headway with either Bob or Julia, since Julia had bestowed her girlish fancies on Ned Graydon, whose bum memory is his one liability. Bob and Julia had a council of war and called Ned to the house. He came as an old college friend of Bob, "selling things in the summer time" to pay his way. This council was caused by the arrival of Colonel Bird in search of his daughter, and his declaration that he intended to

The Conference on idleness to be held in Washington is not to discuss wages or open shop. May-be they are going to give some instructions on how to make two days work out of one like they did in 1919.

Mr. Balfour of England in speaking of the duties the United States are imposing on "high speed steel" said "Let us live, let us work and let us pay you what we owe you." We are perfectly willing to grant the first two requests and more than anxious to give our consent to the last.

American troops being recalled from German patrol are complaining. We are not surprised that the 1-4 of 1 per cent prospect stirs the boys a bit.

The oil well proposition and the road bond situation in Knox City remind one of the old political line of Oliver Goldsmith which ran "Who can direct when all pretend to know." A thousand theories and plans for each have been advanced and not much of a practical nature done for either. The latter goes forth to for the digging auditor listens minutes and then something let me tell should be done. And in rounds he gathers enough plans to dig a thousand wells but gets no help in putting down one. One cause of delayed action has been the rather extreme demands of oil well promoters. When we could have gotten an oil test we had 40 cent cotton and felt that we didn't need one and since the slump the Capitalist have withdrawn their wild-cat operations, leaving only the actual producers in the fields, and the concessions they ask are too great for our community at this time. And so we add week to week, month to month without obtaining results that would be pleasing to all. "In unity there is strength" and whether we are marching to victory or defeat we should all stand together, remembering that a woman team never starts a load.

Cooler weather prevailed here several days this week bringing much relief to crops, people and stock. There has been no rain to speak of in this immediate vicinity since June 13th, at which time from June 6th to 13th about 22 inches fell. Crops have held up remarkably well, and now that cooler weather will prevail they will mature rapidly.

New Cause for Lightning

An old negro preacher in a southern rural district accounted for the lightning in this way: "Every time Satan looks down an' sees de Lawd's work gwine on, fire flashes fum his eyes, Dat's de lightin'. An' w'en he falls ter hit a church w'd it he lays back and hollers, Dat's de thunder."

"But, parson," said an old deacon, "whar is Satan in de winter time? We don't have no lightin' den."

The preacher studied a minute and then said: "Well, hit may be, Br'er Williams, dat bell's froze over den!"—Atlanta Constitution.

Emanuel Turner left Tuesday for Fort Worth where he will enter Texas Christian University for the present term. Young Turner has long possessed an ambition to attain an education and he is still on his way and will have the best wishes of his many friends here in the fulfillment of his laudable ambition.

H. M. Warren returned Tuesday from a trip to Hamlin, Stamford, and Abilene. Mr. Warren says that our particular section has been most fortunate this year in making a crop when other portions of the country has met with such reverses.

Why Use Texhoma Gasoline?

Out of the total of $2,200. in Prize money, the winners of $1875. used TEXHOMA GASOLINE.

Six of the nine racers who won prize money in the Automobile races, used TEXHOMA GASOLINE. The following table shows the names of the winners who used TEXHOMA GASOLINE and the amount of money they won:

Glenn Breed, San Antonio, Hudson Special.....	$800.00
Used Texhoma Gasoline.
Red Shafer, Fort Worth, Duesenberg Motor Special....	400.00
Used Texhoma Gasoline.
George Clark, San Angelo, Hutson Special	400.00
Used Texhoma Gasoline.
Tennil, Taylor, Ford Special.....	125.00
Used Texhoma Gasoline.
Fields, San Angelo, Ford Special.....	100.00
Used Texhoma Gasoline.
King, Clabern, Mercer	50.00
Used Texhoma Gasoline.

The majority of all the money of the twenty racers used TEXHOMA GASOLINE. Why did they choose TEXHOMA in preference to all other kinds of gasoline? There is only one answer. They were taking no chances of losing and selected the BEST Gasoline on the market.

The three fastest drivers in the Auto TEXHOMA GASOLINE.

Here are the facts gathered by the Automobile Editor of the Abilene Reporter, Abilene, Texas, after the Auto Races recently held in that city: Glenn Breed, of San Antonio, driving a Hutson Special (the car that beat them all and won every race it entered) used TEXHOMA GASOLINE. Breed won $800. in money, being first place in three races.

George Clark, of San Angelo, driving a Hutson Special, won $400. in money, being second man in the three races, and he used TEXHOMA GASOLINE.

Red Shafer, of Fort Worth, driver of the Chevrolet with a Duesenberg Motor, winner of $400.00 in money, being first man in one race, secon man in one race and third man in one race, used TEXHOMA GASOLINE.

Of the eight cars that entered the 25 mile race, six were filled with TEXHOMA. The only three cars that finished the 25 mile race, the two Hudson Specials and the Dhesenberg, used TEXHOMA GASOLINE.

If TEXHOMA GASOLINE is good enough for racing cars, it is good enough for any motor. The BTST is none too good for racing cars. We always sell the BEST gasoline and Oils thae the market affords.

Julia and Bob refusing to be reasonable. Marjoria in duress vile in the kitchen for fear of recognition, Bob dreading that Colonel Bird will discover his real name, and Ned readily acquiring a stupendous list of names and merchandise. Life certainly wasn't monotonous in the Rudd household. Matters finally come to a crisis, and the lovers decided that Ned and Julia must elope to save the ship (of love) while they were making preparations. Colonel Bird discovered that Julia's mother is the fair Emmeline of his boyhood romance, whom he had cherished in his heart thru the years and whom he had thought the dead wife of Colonel Rudd. Explanations were made to him and the audience's that Colonel Rudd had married Emmeline's sister Caroline, and Emmeline had married Rudd's cousin John Carroll Emmeline consented to reward the Colonel's long fidelity and they began a celebration which Marjoria in her capacity as maid was discovered. Christian Woman's Ass'n

The Christian Woman's Association met at the Methodist church last Monday afternoon with a good attendance, about 15 ladies being present. It was a pleasure also to have with us Bro. Hawkins, pastor of the Methodist church.

A song, prayer, and the reading in concert of the 37th Psalm constituted the devotional service. A very beautiful and appropriate reading was given by Miss Sadie Sue Hardburger. A business session followed. Reports of committees made. Bro. Hawkins was made chairman of the finance committee and this committee will at some early date make a drive to increase the sum of money now on hand so that when calls come for help, as they are sure to, throughout the winter months, the fund will be sufficient to care for these needs.

Perhaps a little history of this association would be interesting just here. It was organized four years ago. Its chief aim and purpose is to take care of the poor, the sick and the needy, and all calls of distress in a systematic way, both for transients and those who live here. When a person who is in need of clothes or money is found, instead of begging from house to house, their worthiness is investigated and the organization is financed.

ness and poverty have been cared for.

The town should be very proud of the organized effort and assistance in its upkeep in every possible way. Mrs. J. W. is the faithful and efficient and anyone knowing where help is needed will help her and the matter will be looked into at once.

The association meets every Monday throughout the year at the different churches. Everybody in the town and community is invited to come to these meetings.

After our business session we were invited to the basement of the church where the delicious punch and refreshments were served. We had the pleasure of being shown over the newly completed basement, which is indeed a thing of beauty and usefulness.
