JUDGE WALLACE A CANDIDATE

For some time the friends of Judge H. H. Wallace have been discussing him as a suitable successor to Judge S. W. Stephens, associate justice of the court of civil appeals at Ft. Worth. This talk took definite shape in the form of a bar and citizen's meeting which was held at the court house in Amarillo on the evening of the 19th.--The meeting was called to order and L. G. Wilson of Canyon, and John Hoffer of Clarendon, were elected chairman and secretary, respectively. Several letters from gentlemen residing at a distance were read, regretting their inability to be present and wishing the movement rich and fruitful results. A series of resolutions were then adapted indorsing Judge Wallace and announcing his candidacy. The indorsement was in the most unqualified terms and the announcement to be addressed to the Democracy of the second supreme judicial district. A committee was appointed and instructed to propose an address to the Democracy of the district announcing Judge Wallace's candidacy and his claims for recognition at their hands, which address will be prepared and before the public in due

...e. A campaign committee, with L. G. Wilson, of Canyon, and J. D. Hamlin, of Amarillo, as chairman and secretary, respectively, was duly appointed. Then the meeting addressed subject to a call by the campaign committee.

Judge Wallace is one of the best district judges in Tex. and, though but a little over 40, has served the people of the seventh district long and faithfully. As a judge always found on the side of law and order. He is well educated and quick to comprehend all points of law as well as of fact. His judgment and ruling are ever marked for their accuracy and justness, and he is remarkable for the simplicity of his manner and the quickness of his rulings. He is one of the most approachable of men, at any and all times. The plainest country nester commands his attention as easily and quickly as the most exalted officers, bankers or railroad officers.

If the people of this district confer this promotion on Judge Wallace, they will find it well merited and we predict that his career will be one to be pointed to with pride.

RANSOM—TO WHOM?

EMERSON in '63.

Pay ransom to the owner
And fill the bag to the brim.
Who is the owner? The slave is owner,
And ever was. Pay him.

The Oyster Supper.

The Methodist Ladies' oyster supper was, for once, a fair success; previous ones usually being defeated by bad weather or other unforeseen circumstances. The reporter, however, being ill, was present but a short while, and is unable to give a full account of it—to say nothing of the lack of time and space. Sixty dollars in cash, and a good deal more of social enjoyment—over and above the thousands of bivalves—were taken in. But here is a good place to remark that it took labor and sacrifice for the accomplishment—on the part of some. Pleasures and profits always cost something; and gratitude ought not to be stinted, much less our money, on such occasions. Last night the burden seemed to rest on Mad's Tudor, Brower, McGowan, Misses Taylor, Edge, Fountain and Wiley, but they cheerfully bore it. The pretty and gentle Miss Claire Smith gave a very select reading which was apt and appreciable. The hall proved too small and the opera attraction was a disparagement, but withal there is much reason for congratulation.

These suppers should be encouraged. They provide excellent social enjoyment, are inexpensive, and there are few better ways to raise funds for the charitable uses to which they are devoted. The News would amend the method, however, by including the day, as well as the night. Making ready, as the printers say, is the biggest job, and there are many who would feast during the day who could not, or dare not at night.

The Curtiss Comedy Company, the young folks say, is dispensing some stirring enjoyment.

Mrs. Siders and Miss Nan Bayse and little tot Millard contribute to the performance.

The Curtiss Comedy Company.

This popular company closed its three nights engagement here Wednesday night with the rural comedy: "Jason Joskins," which is one of the best comedy pieces ever put on the stage in Woodard, written by Mr. S. M. Curtis with special reference to showing his own peculiar excellencies.

Mr. Curtis himself needs no introduction to Woodard people, and has many friends here who were glad to welcome his return. Mr. Curtis excels in high-class comedy, and was never better than in the part of Gerold Gray in "The Phoenix."

Mr. Ritchard St. Vrain, a talented actor, and unexcelled in the part of Lester Blake, the heavy villain, which he took in "The Phoenix."

Miss Nan Bayse, as Sonbrette and Madge Irving as leading lady, have few equals in their respective parts. The acting of both ladies was especially pleasing in the plays presented here, which seemed especially adapted to their charming personalities.

Miss Victore Harrison in the new popular songs and dances, created a very favorable impression, but the most popular vocalist in the company, was the lovely Saidee St. Vrain, whose dignified manner and sweet, strong, well trained voice, suggested to her hearers the ideal which all conscientious musicians are striving to realize.

The entire company, from leading lady down, is a good one, and not a poor part is to be found in their entire repertoire.

The opera house was packed to the doors every night during the engagement, and the company may rest assured that their impression on Woodward theatre goers, has been a decidedly favorable one, and their return would be welcomed with pleasure at any time they may see fit to favor us again.

Fred Reimer had an examining trial before Judge Marrs for the theft of a grip, taken from P.V. Depot Saturday Night, was found in a negro house trying to dispose of its contents. The grip belonged to Judge Gaugh of Herford.

Mr. J. W. Mc Adams of Spring Draw was on our streets yesterday.

FOUND—A telescope grip—packed 50 cts this office.

A. B. Spencer went down the Pacos Valley this morning.

The young folks do say the opera last night was first class—and that fellow Curtis knows just how to cater to their tastes.

Powell & Co the Tombstone men, do not look so doleful as one might suppose. They have just received a new consignment, and better than ever prepared to suit taste of patrons. Come to the rear of the news office and select something to suit your taste out of his many deans and prices.

"Oh, where shil we go w'en de great day comes,
Wid de blowin' er de trumpits en de bangin' er de drums?
How many po' sinners'll be knock-ed out late
En fina no latch ter de golden gate?
No use ter wait twell termorrer,
De sun mustn't set on yo' sorrer—
Sin's ez sharp ez a bamboo brier—
O Lord! fetch de morners up higher

Judge R. R. Wheatley and Barney Plemons of Moore Co. were in town. They inform our reporter that the Santa Fe from Liberal, Kan. is complete to the Canadian, over which a large shipment of hogs to Kansas City has already been made. They also inform us that they together with a number of other citizens have ditched the Canadian river and daily shipments of hay is being made to the Boer army, via the said canal. For shipping rates etc, address Ed Trigg, Wharf Master.

Ed Johnson thinks he will be in his new quarters, the "Red Front" building by Wednesday or Thursday.

An Interesting Announcement

The management of the great Texas-Colorado Chautauqua at Boulder, Colorado, announces that its next session is to be from July 1st to August 15th inclusive, longer and in every way stronger than ever.

The management is now booking, regardless of great expense, the very best educational and platform talent securable in this country for the edification and pleasure of the hundreds who will be on hand during the session. The further announcement is made that, in the interest of complete satisfaction for its guests, the Chautauqua Association will considerably enlarge the previously existing cottage tent and dining facilities and will operate the whole itself, contracting nothing to outside parties, and completing every detail necessary to comfort and pleasure in advance of its opening date.

The Curtiss Comedy Company will play Man and Master at the opera house to-night.

CLEVER SPECIALTIES
High Class Vandeville people to be seen with the Curtiss Comedy Company

With a view of making his one of the best repertoire companies on the road, manager S. M. Curtis, of the Curtiss Comedy Company has engaged several well know Vandeville people who appear in this specialty between acts and during the production of different plays presented by the company. The head line of the specialty people with the company is Mrs. Victorie Harrison who will be seen in her wonderful spectacular dances and illustrated songs. A battery of calcium tanks is carried for this feature and the light and color effects will eclipse any similar act ever seen in the city.

Miss Sadie St. Vrain the wonderful female baritone is another feature that will be appreciate, as will Mr. Wallie Wilson who will present a line of parodies on the latest songs and ballads.

The cake walkers, Cameron and Harrison, will present a new act and one that never fails to receive several encores. These are only a few of the different features that will be given during the week and lovers of fun should not fail to attend.

Tickets are now on sale at Roach's drug store. Price 25, 35 and 50 cents.

Williard Prickett is our new "devil"—just in from Higgins. His first job was to circulate dodgers. He says he fortunately escaped a severe hugging yesterday. Approaching a woman who thought he was one of her loved ones arriving, she rushed at him with open arms to greet him, but taking in the situation he backed off the gallery. He says if she hadn't looked so much like a married woman she could have squeezed the breath out of him, before he would have squealed.
