MUNDAY, KNOX COUNTY, TEXAS, APRIL 14, 1927.

KEEP MUNDAY MONEY IN MUNDAY

Humble's Goode No. 1 Spudded In On Monday With Big Barbecue

The well of the Humble Oil Producing Company on the Goode farm, three miles south of Goree and about seven miles east of Munday was spudded on Monday afternoon, and a big barbecue was spread for the hundreds of citizens of this section who had gone there to witness the spudding, also an elaborate program had been arranged by citizens of Goree, but at the appointed hour for the beginning of the festivities of the evening a threatening cloud hovered overhead and before the barbecue and other good things that had been provided could be served it began raining, and knowing the slippery condition of the roads, everyone made a dash for their cars and back home, thereby spoiling what promised to be a most enjoyable evening for the hundreds who had gone there to witness the ceremonies and participate in the festivities pertaining thereto.

Quite a number of Mundayites were noticed among the crowd, and while the Times family arrived just as the rain started, and were immediately beating our way homeward in the rain and hail which accompanied it, a glance at the great steel derrick and the brand new string of tools bore mute evidence of the intention of this company to give this location a thorough test, and the equipment on the ground is capable of going to a depth of 4,000 feet or deeper if they deem their chances for striking oil justify.

Others who attended the ceremony from Munday were H. A. Pendleton, C. A. Eiland, T. G. Bengt, Fred Pendleton of Dallas, Miss Mamie Maxwell, W. W. Wallace, W. E. Reynolds, George Isbell, and possibly others whose names we failed to get.

Chamber of Commerce Directors Hold An Enthusiastic Meeting

On Thursday evening of last week the directors of the Munday Chamber of Commerce held one of the most enthusiastic meetings that has been held since the revival of this body some weeks ago, and the organization was completed with the election of J. A. Kennedy as secretary of the organization.

Some very important questions were brought up for discussion and programs were outlined for some real constructive work along conservative lines, about which we shall have more to report at a later date, but let us say that this organization is functioning, and if there isn't much balahooping ever what is being done, bear in mind that plans are being laid for some real worthwhile work for the betterment of Munday and the Munday country, and with the full co-operation of all who have pledged their support to the organization, there will be much to the credit of the Munday Chamber of Commerce at the close of the year.

Mrs. Vela Harding Died at Her Home At Texico Friday

Mr. and Mrs. Ardell Speice and J. E. Coffey of Weinert left by automobile on Friday morning of last week for Texico in response of a message advising them of the critical illness of Mrs. Vela Harding, a sister of Mrs. Speice and Mr. Coffey, and despite the fact that they made the distance in eight hours running time, death had claimed her before their arrival there.

Deceased was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Coffey, for many years a resident of this section, and who survive her. In addition to her parents she is survived by her husband and several brothers and sisters. She was seventeen years of age.

Two Arrests Made Following Charges Of Criminal Assault

T. C. Carter, Jr., and Jack Harper, two young men of Knox City, were placed under arrest last Thursday after charges of criminal assault had been filed against them in Justice W. S. Bailey's court here, and following a preliminary hearing conducted in his court on Thursday afternoon Harper was released on a $2,000 bond, while Carter was ordered held without bail.

Following the action of the Justice court attorneys for Carter sued out a writ of habeas corpus and a hearing was held on the writ here on Friday by Judge J. M. Milam, after which Carter was allowed bond in the sum of $7,000, and was remanded to the Knox County jail at Benjamin upon his failure to make bond in this amount.

Harper was allowed bond in the lesser amount due to the fact that he is a juvenile and his case will go to the county court, while Carter, who is said to be 19 years of age and married, will face trial in the district court, and is being held under bond in the amount above referred to await the action of the grand jury.

The alleged victim is a girl twelve years of age.

ALL SCHOOL TRUSTEES WILL CONTINUE TO SERVE

At the school trustee election held on last Saturday only a few votes were polled, and all of the old trustees were re-elected for another term. Those re-elected were D. C. Fritz, P. C. Phillips and M. H. Reeves.

Knights Templars From Haskell and Seymour To Hold Easter Service

On Sunday afternoon at three o'clock an Easter service will be conducted at the Methodist church in this city by the Knights Templar membership of Haskell and Seymour, at which service the Rev. Baker of Haskell, Presbyterian minister, will deliver the principal address.

An interesting program is being arranged, in which members of the order from both Haskell and Seymour will participate, and music for the occasion will be furnished by a local orchestra, composed of Mrs. M. F. Billingsley at the piano, H. P. Hill, baritone, Jack Nix, violin and cornet, and Mrs. J. A. Kennedy, cornet.

While this service will be in charge of the Knights Templar order, the public at large is cordially invited to attend.

Attorney J. S. Kendall went to Abilene first of the week where he represented Roy Beasley of Breckenridge in a suit against the Oil Belt Power Co. in Federal court. Beasley sued for damages as a result of injuries received when he came in contact with a live wire of the power company which resulted in severe injuries, and he was awarded a verdict for $5,000 in the trial at Abilene.

J. C. Campbell went to Stamford on Tuesday to attend the funeral of Whitfield Colbert, whose death followed an automobile accident on April 2, in which his father-in-law was also killed.

Special Meeting At Church of Christ Is Going With Interest

The special meeting which began on last Sunday at the Church of Christ has been in progress throughout the week and much interest has been shown in them by the members of this congregation and the public at large, however, due to the fact that the heavy rains have made roads impassable, many of the speakers from a distance who were to have appeared on the program have been unable to get here and substitute speakers have been used.

One of the greatest disappointments of the week was the failure of Dr. Batsell Baxter, president of Abilene Christian College, to reach here for an appointment on Wednesday evening, at which time he was to have delivered a sermon on evolution, and many had signified their intention of hearing this able man on this subject.

The services will continue until Friday night, and the pastor, Bro. J. E. L. Harrison, will preach on Sunday as usual.

ORDER OF THE EASTERN STAR WILL HOLD MEETING ON THURSDAY AFTERNOON

A special meeting of the Order of the Eastern Star will be held at the lodge rooms on Thursday afternoon at three o'clock, at which time the District Deputy Grand Matron will be present and witness the conferring of degrees by the local team, and all members of the order are urged to be present at this meeting.

Home Talent Play, "Eyes of Love" To Be Given April 19

On next Tuesday evening, April 19th, the play, "Eyes of Love," will be presented at the city hall under the auspice of the Sunshine class of the Methodist Sunday School and a most capable cast of home talent has been procured for the presentation, and all members of the cast have been diligently rehearsing the play, and it will be a treat to those who witness its presentation. The cast will include Misses Thelma Atkinson, Faye Briggs, Claudia Hodge, Francis Atkinson, Messrs Palmer Barton, Harvey Lee, F. E. Starling and Avis Maples, all of whom are known to be exceptionally talented along this line and it is needless to say that the play will be well presented.

J. R. Hancock Died On April 3rd at His Breckenridge Home

Mrs. Barney Lindsey has returned from Breckenridge, where she was called on April 3rd by a message advising her of the critical illness of her father, J. R. Hancock, a former citizen of this community, whose death occurred about six hours after he had been stricken with acute indigestion.

Mr. Hancock resided in this community for some three years and had moved from here to Breckenridge only a short time ago. He is survived by his wife and several children to whom we extend our sincere sympathy in their bereavement. Interment was made at Breckenridge.

Munday Will Have Baseball Club This Season; Now Assured

That Munday will have a baseball club this season now seems an assured fact, as on Wednesday afternoon about thirty baseball players and fans met at the city hall and perfected an organization and laid plans for the immediate organization of a real baseball team for Munday, and they plan to begin their work-outs within the next few days, and later on the week-end out work will begin.

At the organization of the club the following officers were elected: U. R. Houser, president and business manager; I. M. West, playing manager and coach; P. G. Barton, secretary-treasurer.

Uniforms will be purchased at once and training will be under the direction of I. M. West, who has much experience in this line of work and is thoroughly capable of developing a team with the material at hand that will make an excellent showing with amateur teams throughout this section of West Texas, and it is predicted that local fans will be able to witness some real baseball here at home by May first.

While no definite action has yet been taken, it is likely that the team will be known as the Munday Fire Department team.

$2,250,000 Good Roads Program Being Worked Out By Knox Citizens

While at Benjamin on Monday we learned that plans were on foot for launching a campaign for an election county-wide in scope for the purpose of submitting to the citizenship a proposition to vote approximately a $750,000 in bonds for the purpose of building a system of hard-surfaced roads throughout the county. The program, as outlined to us by a member of the committee, called for the hard-surfacing of Highway No. 54 which traverses the county from north to south through Truscott, Benjamin and Knox City, and the F. F. Highway from the Baylor county line through Benjamin to the King county line and Highway No. 30 from the Baylor county line through Goree and Munday to the Haskell county line to the south.

Members of the Benjamin Chamber of Commerce who have held a conference with a member of the State Highway Commission state that for each dollar expended by the county on this system of highways the state will spend a like amount and the Federal government will expend double the amount expended by the county, hence the proposed bond issue of $750,000 would mean the expenditure of $2,250,000 on the highways of the county, which, according to figures given their committee by the highway department, would mean the expenditure of about $30,000 per mile on the highways of the county.

DR. E. J. BURNS AGAIN TO REPRESENT C. M. T. C. IN KNOX COUNTY

Dr. E. J. Burns has been formally notified by Mr. Jas. N. Heidt, State Aide, that he has been re-appointed to represent the C. M. T. C. Association in Knox County as Chairman of the committee in charge of the enrollment of applicants for the C. M. T. Camps this summer.

This re-appointment brings all activities in behalf of this summer's C. M. T. Camps under his direct supervision.

Plans for the camps, which Dr. Burns has received provide for the apportionment of separate quotas to each county so as to give a fair allotment of vacancies to all parts of the State.

Dr. Burns says that, regardless of quota for this county every acceptable young man in the county has an opportunity to apply and may be accepted.

He hopes the response to the Government's offer of thirty days camp life and training, without expense, will exceed the quota.

Only those who complete enrollment at an early date can be assured of attending camp. Complete enrollment, Dr. Burns explained, includes the proper filling out of an application blank, accompanying it with a certificate of character from a reputable citizen and physical examination, vaccination and inoculation, usually performed, free of charge, by a local physician.

BOY SCOUTS ENJOY HIKE AND OUTING

Dick O'Brien

We have been waiting with much anxiety for spring weather to set in so we could go on a hike. More than half of the joys of being a Scout is the opportunity to go on a hike, and sleep out under the stars. We decided last week that the weather was fine for a hike so we made arrangements accordingly. Th boys themselves had charge of these arrangements. They organized in a way to insure lots of eats. You need not be very particular about what it is, but be sure there is enough of it. Boys who will turn up their noses at ambrosia at home will eat pork and beans for breakfast on a scout hike. A stomach that will revolt at the most digestible foods at home, cooked in the latest approved manner by mothers who use electric ranges, will accept without complaint half cooked bacon with half raw spuds, no grease and too much salt, half masticated and irrigated with lake water, when you are on a hike. Raw onions and light bread make a better dessert on a hike than jello and cake would make at home. Coffee that is good to the last drop when made in an electric percolator at home, is not to be compared with that which is made in an old bucket on the camp fire, sugared from a paper bag, creamed from a tin can, stirred with a stick, and delicious to the last ground.

Everybody took plenty of bedding, but I do not know why, as some of them never used it, nor allowed the ones who did to enjoy theirs. Speaking of beds, isn't it strange how luxury can be enjoyed on a thin mattress of old quilts, read on the grass, with a pair of trousers folded for a pillow, blanket for cover and the sky for your ceiling. We would have enjoyed a good night of sleep, no doubt, if some of the boys who were out for their first camp trip, could have worn the wire edge off enough to get quiet. We ate supper early so we would have lots of time to play before bed time. We wrestled, boxed, engaged in different contests and talked until late in the night, then we attempted to rest, with the above mentioned results.

We had as our guests Prof. A. D. and F. E. Starling, who we found to be real scouts. We hope they will be with us each time we go for a hike. We had also Mr. J. J. Keel, with Miss Maggie and Miss Leona for a short visit just after supper. We are always glad to have visitors, as we never engage in anything of which we are ashamed.

As Scout Master, I was not satisfied with the way we got back home the next day. Some came on early, others waited later, and still others went to a nearby lake to fish, and we do not know when they got home. This is not for the best interest of the Troop. The next time we go on a hike we would be glad to have the parents of the boys indicate when they want the boys to come home and we will try to see that their wishes are respected. Of course it is impossible to keep up with all the boys all the time as we had more than thirty scattered over a section of land, literally intoxicated with liberty of the out-of-doors. We do not know of anything that is better for the inside of a boy than the outside of the house, and the free range of the great open space, but we are anxious to please the parents and co-operate with them in their task of making real men out of their boys.

The next time we hike we would be glad to have a number of the fathers of the boys go along with us. We feel that it will do them good, and it will go a long way toward showing the boys that we are really interested in them.

Marshal C. R. Elliott reports that the Chevrolet automobile stolen on the streets of Munday on Saturday night, April 2, had been located at Abilene, where it was parked on the street and left. At about the same time a Willys-Knight sedan was found near Munday which had been stolen from a citizen of Abilene and officers think it is possible that both thefts were perpetrated by the same party or parties, as both cars were parked and deserted.

Dr. and Mrs. Wm. P. Farrington spent Sunday in Wichita Falls visiting his mother, who is visiting in that city.

SPECIAL SERVICES

On next Sunday morning there will be special Easter services at the Baptist church. Mrs. Ingram and her Choral Club girls have a great musical treat in store for all who attend. These girls have been hard at work getting ready for this program, and we hope they will have a large congregation present to enjoy their music. The male quartette will also give a number. The sermon will be along appropriate lines.

Sunday night Dr. F. S. Groner, of Dallas, Secretary of the Baptist State Mission Board, will speak. Mr. Groner is not a stranger in these parts, having taught school in this section several years ago, and was at one time pastor of the First Baptist church at Stamford. You will enjoy his message.

We invite strangers to worship with us in all our services. P. D. O'Brien, Pastor.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

There will be the regular services at the Presbyterian church on next Sunday. The pastor has gone this week to Hillsboro, to attend the Spring meeting of the Ft. Worth Presbytery, of which he is the retiring moderator. But he will return in time for the services on next Sunday. Every one is most cordially invited to worship with us on this Easter Sunday. The subject for the morning sermon is, "The Meaning of the Resurrection of the Christian." There will be special music both morning and evening. Come and worship with us.

Sunday School 10:00 a. m.
Preaching 11:00 a. m.
Christian Endeavor 3:00 p. m.
Services 8:00 p. m.
James M. McLean, pastor.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Gray of Abilene were here Sunday visiting in the home of Judge and Mrs. W. S. Bailey.

AT METHODIST CHURCH

In the absence of the pastor, Rev. R. B. Freeman, who is conducting a revival in Arkansas, there will be no preaching service at the Methodist church on Sunday morning, and instead the Sunday school program given on this page will be rendered, and a cordial invitation is extended to the public to attend this program.

COUNTY SCHOOL FAIR AT BENJAMIN ON APRIL 22

The program for the County School Fair appears in this issue. Every school in the county will be represented. The schools are divided into groups. The independent schools are in one group, the common schools of more than three teachers make up another group, and the one and two teacher schools make up the third group. The exhibit, will be graded by points. The best exhibit will receive eight points, the second will receive six points, and the third will receive four points. The school which has worked out some project that is not called for in the program will receive ten points. The school winning the most points in its group will receive a beautiful championship pennant. These pennants have been contributed by three study clubs of the county.

There will be an entertainment feature in connection with the exhibits. The program will begin at 10 o'clock Friday, April 22, in the High School auditorium of Benjamin Texas. Each school will be represented by one number on this program.

Sometimes a floating indebtedness gets heavy enough to sink.

Some men who stand on their dignity give evidence of not having much else to stand on.

Many a man falls into debt, but the process of getting out is usually one of crawling.

EASTER

Easter comes at a glad season of the year. The festival itself, is both commemorative of the resurrection of Jesus Christ and as a memorial to the atonement wrought by the death of the Master upon the cross.

It is hailed with great acclaim in all the Christian churches of the world. In Greek and Latin and in the languages derived from them, Easter was known as "Pascha," "Pasch," "Pasqua," "Pasques," etc., from the Chaldee word, "Pascha," the equivalent of the Hebrew "Pesach." The "Destroying Angel's" act is recalled by the last name in "passing over" the households of the Hebrews when he smote the Egyptians, as disclosed in the twelfth chapter of Exodus.

This year Easter will fall on April 17. The way by which Easter is determined is that of the first Sunday after the paschal full moon—the fourteenth day of the calendar moon, or the full moon which happens upon or next after March 21; and if the full moon happens on a Sunday, then Easter day is the first Sunday following.

As usual, Munday churches will observe Easter with elaborate programs. It is an event that the children and the grown-ups have learned to look forward to with much pleasurable anticipation; it is an event all should remember with some beautiful thought for the day.

GROW WITH MUNDAY

The "boom" town is ever alluring to large numbers, in that it seemingly offers the opportunity to grow up with the place. To get in on the ground floor, so to speak, at first blush, prompts great numbers to rush to the new place, where they will find many others who had been attracted in the same manner.

They seek their new home with the avowed purpose of growing up with the town and that determination serves as an impetus extra effort. If perchance the ambitions of its founders are realized, those with that determination to grow with the place will succeed, provided the determination is sincere and a proportionate amount of energy is displayed in their efforts.

Have you grown with Munday; have you kept pace with its advancement and development? There has been no boom here, as that term is usually applied to the growth of the so-called mushroom cities that spring to life overnight, only to fade away almost as quickly. There has been however, a healthy, steady, wonderful growth and advancement here for the past ten years. True there has been no stream of prospectors added to the normal growth to cause the population to increase as rapidly as has been the case in many other cities of this size.

The growth in wealth and health has been phenomenal. The advancement in civic improvements, its streets, churches, schools, residences, is such that there is just cause for exceeding pride.

There have been and are now as great opportunities for success here as there are in those new or proposed boom towns. The opportunity to grow up with the place, to get in on the ground floor holds as good in Munday as the other places. If your desire to grow up with the city is real, there will be the accomplishment. If your desire to grow up with Munday has been sincere and the effort expended sufficient, you have grown up with it.

Munday is going to continue to grow and develop. You may if you choose grow with it. When you do so, yours and the city's growth will be mutual. In just the proportion in which your aid is given in the advancement and development, will the return be by the city.

GARDEN TIME

Poets and philosophers tell of the satisfaction obtained from cultivation of flower and vegetable gardens, but the practice is not as general as could be wished. In many places there is much less gardening than there was some years ago. People have too many things they want to do with their spare time.

In many cities and towns, however, the garden movement has been pushed as a community proposition. People have been urged, in a systematic way, to decorate their grounds with handsome shrubbery and flowers, and some of these communities have developed an amazing amount of this beautification.

Such towns become noted, and every minute of time put in on those flower beds is no doubt paid for in the higher value of real estate that is established in such a town.

Home pride is the motive that can best be relied upon to promote the gardening movement. People will usually do what their neighbors do. If you persuade one or two influential families on a street to spend a little more time and money beautifying their places this season, the majority of their neighbors would, within a year or two, fall into line and do the same thing.

As respects vegetables, the advantage of the back yard garden ought to be obvious in these times of high prices. The children of the modern community do not have enough share in the home tasks, and it would do them good to have some regular labors in a garden and they could well do a good deal of its work. But the old folks cannot expect them thus to labor unless they also are willing to do some stunts with the spade and hoe.

BOOTLEG HEARSE

Instances of bootleggers' employment of hearses for transportation of their contraband product have been noted in the American press, in one Detroit case an entire "funeral" procession, including the hearse and cars of the "mourners" having been found full of liquor.

A similar incident is reported from Italy, where a Mussolini edict forbids the baking of bread whiter than the prescribed "economy loaf" made of either whole wheat or a mixture of wheat and other grain.

As a hearse passed slowly through the streets of Naples, Fascisti police sniffed the odor of fresh bread emanating from the funeral car and pounced upon the luckless "undertaker." Finding the hearse filled with pure white loaves, he was promptly lodged in jail, while his wealthy customers waited for him in vain.

To make matters worse, a list of these customers was found on the culprit's person, and they were at last accounts nervous through fear of being arrested also.

The moral of all this would appear to be: Don't try to pull off a funeral without a real corpse.

OUR CIGARETTE BILL

No habit indulged in by the American people has grown with such rapidity as that of cigarette smoking. Without moralizing on the subject, we merely give some figures to show the trend during the past few years.

In 1926 the United States consumed approximately 90 billion cigarettes, costing about $625,000,000. Someone has figured that these placed end to end would extend to the moon and back eight times.

The growth of the habit may be seen by comparison with the year 1914, when only about 30 billion cigarettes were smoked, showing an increase of 60 billion, or a trebling of the quantity, in 12 years.

During the same period the domestic output of cigars declined from a little more than 8 billion to about 7 billion, while the amount of tobacco and snuff manufactured was also decreased approximately 10 per cent.

The revenue tax on all domestic tobacco products now reaches about $370,000,000 a year, or more than $3 in taxes alone for every man, woman and child in the country.

ON BEING A HOME-TOWN BOOSTER

This paper believes in Munday and Munday's future. It believes that Munday is destined to be a much greater city than it is today. It believes that the great majority of people in Munday have an abiding faith in the city's future and in the Munday of today. It is this faith that has made Munday and it is this same faith that is going to continue to make Munday a greater city.

Munday is already a great place in which to live. If one were to look all around the world, none better could be found. When everything is considered, no one honestly can say that any other town is a better place than Munday.

For that reason, if you have any money to invest invest it in Munday. It is safer at home than it is any place else. Keep out of the clutches of the oilytongued stock salesman who comes from a distance and wants your money to invest in an enterprise, the merit of which you know nothing save what is told you by the man or men seeking to "separate you from your coin."

If you have any money to invest, think it over—and then invest in Munday. Every resident of Munday ought to be a booster for Munday and Munday enterprises. Owning Munday real estate will go a long way toward making all citizens a booster for the home town. Build or buy a home—and grow with Munday, and enjoy to the full all the benefits of being a Munday home owner.

HOME TALENT BASEBALL

Baseball has become universally recognized as the national sport, and that it is an ideal sport is recognized by all.

But what has become of the home-town baseball clubs? In former years every town and community had their own baseball club and these teams came together in friendly rivalry each summer, much to the delight of local fans, and furnished entertainment of a delightful character.

In the good old days Munday boasted of an excellent baseball club, and all neighboring towns possessed teams equally as good, and the citizens of these neighboring towns came together at these games in a friendly way to root for their home teams, and while some may have become over-jealous over the merits of their respective teams and have caused unfriendly feelings to exist, the people as a whole enjoyed the games and regret that they are no longer privileged to witness them.

But, what has become of the home-town clubs? Munday, like many of her neighbors, no longer boasts of a team. Has the game become entirely commercialized? Is it no longer possible to find young men who are sufficiently interested in the sport to participate in the games unless financial remuneration is forthcoming? It seems that the young men of today are entirely satisfied only to receive the results of the big league over the radio, telegraph or through the daily papers.

But do these fans realize that a majority of the big leaguers have been procured from the home-town clubs? And, with the local interest in the sport lying dormant, where is the baseball talent of tomorrow to be procured? The great Tris Speaker started his career as a member of the Hubbard club; Rogers Hornsby was a small-town player prior to going to the big league, and so was Ty Cobb and practically all of the great baseball players of today drafted from the "brush," and while we are glorying in their success we may be passing up opportunities in developing baseball stars for tomorrow by allowing interest in the game to lag, and by contenting ourselves with reports of the big league games from day to day.

We would like to see a good baseball club in Munday—composed of Munday boys who have sufficient interest in the game to play for the love of the sport. We've never been able to get much "kick" out of big league baseball, but, man, we do get a beautiful measure out of seeing the home-town team go out and win against a good neighboring team.

Of course, there are several obstacles in the way at this time, but with some effort they can be removed, and we're looking forward to the day when Munday will boast of a good home-town team that will be conducted entirely free from those demoralizing influences that have, to our mind, done more to tear down the local game than any one thing, such as gambling, followed by a tendency to commercialize the game for the benefit of those who gamble.

Let's have a good, clean baseball team in Munday this summer. "It can be done."

OUTLAW SLAYER DEAD

There recently died in Coffeyville, Kan., John Joseph Kloehr, who 35 years ago was hailed as a hero, as he really was. Single handed he killed three of the notorious Dalton gang of outlaws with his trusty shot-gun.

Kloehr was proprietor of a livery stable in Coffeyville in 1892, when the bandits robbed a near-by bank. While they were inside doing the job Kloehr saw what was going on and stationed himself behind a board fence and waited. When the outlaws ran for their horses he opened fire, killing Bob and Grat Dalton and Bill Broadwell.

His prompt and effective action broke up a gang which had terrorized Kansas and Oklahoma for quite a while. It was the last of the organized bands of horsemen whose bank and train-robbing exploits were a picturesque feature of western life, and in which the James and Younger brothers were the most conspicuous figures.

Organized society owes a debt of gratitude to men like John Joseph Kloehr.

AN ATHLETIC MOTHER

In casting about for a tennis champion, one ordinarily would hardly select a middle-aged woman, mother of five children. Yet such a woman won victories in three final events at Chestnut Hills, Mass., recently in a single day.

Mrs. George W. Wightman in the woman's national indoor tennis tournament defeated a young opponent, Miss Margaret Blake, in the final singles match; a few minutes later she assisted in winning the woman's doubles event finals; then with little rest she aided in winning the third title for the day by able support of her partner in the finals of mixed doubles.

Throughout the strenuous play of three matches in succession Mrs. Wightman showed little sign of fatigue, while her superior head work throughout the day elicited great applause from the spectators.

Her five youngsters have good reason to be proud of their robust and agile mother.

SOLD WIFE AT A PROFIT

Few of the present generation particularly in the North, know that before the Civil War a great many negroes in the South owned other negroes as slaves. Some interesting facts concerning the subject are given in Prof. Carter Goodwin Woodson's book, "Free Negro Heads of Families."

He shows that as far back as 1820 one-seventh of the negroes in the country were free, some of them rich, owning large plantations and other valuable property. In 1857 one negro in South Carolina owned 200 slaves, in Louisiana four negroes owned respectively 91, 89, 50 and 47 slaves. Many others owned smaller numbers, it being estimated that 40,000 free negroes owned nearly 100,000 slaves at one time.

The story is told of a Charleston negro who admired a female slave owned by a neighbor and bought her for a wife. Later on, when she had failed to behave herself as he thought proper, he sold her at a profit of $50.

FATHER OF RURAL MAIL

Rural free delivery of mail is now so generally established throughout the country that the farm boy and girl of today take it for granted, and few of them know that its first beginnings were only 30 years ago.

Perry Sanford Heath, a newspaper man who died a few days ago at the age of 69, was the father of rural free delivery. Through his activity in behalf of McKinley's election in 1896, Heath became first assistant postmaster general in 1897. With only $30,000 of an unexpended appropriation for experimental purposes to begin with, he established a few rural routes. The farmers liked the idea and through Heath's persistence Congress was induced to appropriate more and more funds for the extension of the service.

As a direct result of his vision and zeal, the system of rural free delivery, which now serves more than 30,000,000 persons, has become one of the greatest blessings which the government confers upon the public.

Every rural mail box in the land is a modest monument to Perry Heath.

CAN'T

Can't is the worst word that's written or spoken;

Doing more harm here than slander and lies;

On it is many a strong spirit broken.

And with it many a good purpose dies.

It springs from the lips of the thoughtless each morning.

And robs us of courage we need through the day;

It rings in our ears a timely-sent warning.

And laughs when we falter and fall by the way.

Can't is the father of feeble endeavor.

The parent of terror and half-hearted work;

It weakens the efforts of artisans clever.

And makes of the toiler an indolent shirk.

It poisons the soul of the man with a vision.

It stifles in infancy many a plan;

It greets honest toil with open derision.

And mocks at the hopes and the dreams of a man.

Can't is a word none should speak without blushing;

To utter it should be a symbol of shame;

Ambition and courage it daily is crushing;

It blights a man's purpose and shortens his aim.

Despite it with all your hatred of error;

Refuse it the lodgment it seeks in your brain;

Arm against it as a creature of terror.

And all that you dream of you some day shall gain.

Can't is the word that is foe to ambition.

An enemy ambushed to shatter your will;

Its prey is forever the man with a mission.

And bows not to courage and patience and skill.

Hate it, with hatred that's deep and undying.

For once it is welcomed 'twill break any man;

Whatever the goal you are seeking, keep trying

And answer this demon by saying: "I CAN."

The ancients had a notion that the three elemental thrills were wine, women and song. Women are the first thrill for men, and men for women, but money and gossip beat wine and song for both sexes.

I often think the world, poor as it is, suits the men better than it does women. Of complaints, probably more come from women than from men. . . . And this is reasonable: women have the worst of it.

It is often necessary for gentlemen to become rougher than the rough necks. If violence is excusable on one side it is on the other.

A woman correspondent jumped all over me the other day. . . . And I was thinking I was rather a good fellow!

Every honest man must frequently think of himself: "I'm contemptible." . . . There is no complete remedy; but the churches, newspapers, teachers, neighbors, are continuously urging us to be less contemptible, and pointing out easy methods of partial improvement.

It is a logical conclusion that friends and neighbors will be more likely to understand each other and each other's problems than would be the case with strangers; they are, therefore, more likely to be useful to each other.

Ours is a home-folksy bank, ready to serve home-folks first.

We hope all our homefolks will so consider it.

WOMAN AND THE PRESS

Phebe K. Warner

Last week the Texas Woman's Press Association held its annual meeting in the city of Dallas. That meeting was more than a Woman's Press convention. From start to finish it was also an art exhibit.

To begin with the setting for each and every meeting was a real art exhibit. Especially to those of us from the smaller towns and the country who are not accustomed to attending club meetings in such beautiful places as Bamboland and the Palm Garden of the Aldolphus Hotel, and the Blue Room of the Y. M. C. A.

Though not a great BIG meeting, the Texas Women's Press was a success first from the standpoint of its real mission—the discussion of women's work for the Texas Press. In this the three day session was filled to the brim with helpful suggestions, helpful criticisms and much inspiration. Beside being an inspiration to every struggling woman writer the Dallas meeting was a real social success, where many new friendships were formed and many happy memories stored away in our memory boxes for use all the rest of our days. And the crowning feature of the Dallas meeting was its fine arts features. From the table decorations to the Pentagou Male Courtes with Curt Beck, director, every feature of that meeting was a work of art.

As hostess City Dallas proved herself a most delightful home maker for the Texas writers during their three days sojourn in the city that seems to have skimmed the cream of culture from the whole State of Texas. It's the only thing about Dallas that does not seem quite fair to those of us on the outer edges of the State. There centered and settled in one beautiful city with about a quarter million souls in it, is enough culture and brains and talent to leaven the lives of the whole five million souls in Texas. Our greatest ministers, educators, artists, singers, musicians, thinkers, readers and writers all concentrated on a few square blocks and to the millions of us who have so little of the very best in our lives it sometimes looks like the artists in every line in Dallas and every other city just lived to mill around in one small spot and amuse one another while the masses of the people, all but starve for the most beautiful and the best in life.

But during those three days in Dallas the Rotarians, the Chamber of Commerce, the Dallas Pen Women, the official Engineers of the Suza Lake, the Women's Forum of Dallas, Holland's Magazine, The Dallas News, The Evening Journal and the Writers' Club all vied with another to fill those days with pleasure for every member of the Texas Women's Press and feast not only their physical nature but the mind, heart and soul of every member present.

But Dallas is doing more than that every day for us all in Texas. Thanks to the radio, her great sermons and lectures and musical programs are reaching out over the air to the uttermost corners of the State and flooding the humblest homes and the most isolated lives with the inspiration of the city's very best talent. Thank God for the new mission of the AIR. Today the air not only supplies our lungs with enough oxygen to keep our hearts pumping but it brings to our very homes and ears and souls the spiritual food so many of us have longed for so long.

But there is another broadcasting system in Dallas that carries more inspiration to all the people than even the radio and that is the Dallas Press—The Dallas News, the Evening Journal, the Dallas Semi-Weekly, Farm News, Holland's Magazine, the Progressive Farmer, Farm and Ranch and all the other publications that pour out of Dallas on every out-going train. After all Dallas is sending back to the country a lot of her talent and brains and culture if not always in person she is sending it through the press and over the air. And it takes concentration to do that. And we are all growing closer to a better and more democratic day. Some day there will be a better understanding between all the people everywhere.

And this broader and better understanding between all the people is one of the ultimate goals of the Texas Woman's Press. Especially is the Texas Woman's Press trying to prove by demonstration that women have learned to THINK, or at least they are trying to learn to think. It takes practice to learn to think just the same as to learn to sing or play a violin. And we all have to have something or somebody to practice on. And we have to have some kind of a training field just as our athletics have to have an athletic field to learn to jump and kick and run and play. And that is just what the Texas Women's Press is. A mental athletic association for Women, where we too can learn to think a little quicker, kick a little harder against the things that should not be, jump a little higher in our new profession, root a little louder for the side that ought to win, and do our best to inspire every woman to play a better and happier game of life.

That's the business of the Texas Women's Press. And every new year they are gaining some headway in their business. One of the most hopeful signs is the way our college girls are going into the game at the very threshold of their lives. Getting into the schools of journalism from the high school to the University. Our Texas girls are learning to understand things and think things earlier in life than their mothers ever had a chance to do and this is going to give the Press Women of the future a great advantage over the present generation for which we are all truly thankful.

There is another advantage the average woman has over her brother in the writing game. Not many of us have any other official job. And not many of us are seeking any official position which leaves us unhampered by the fear of loss of position and power if we speak the truth. And there is another thing that is urging women to say what they think today more than in former years. A lot of women KNOW more today than they look like they do. We are not all the innocent, ignorant creatures that folks used to think women were. And this fact has parred a lot of thoughts loose in the minds of the women of today.

CARD OF THANKS

To all of the neighbors and friends in Munday and Red Springs, who so graciously extended their assistance during the illness and death of our husband and father, Lonnie Earnest Cooper, and who was put to rest on Wednesday, March 30th, we take this occasion to express our deep and heartfelt thanks, and we shall ever be grateful for the many kind favors extended to us during this sad hour.

Very graciously and respectfully signed,

Mrs. L. E. Cooper and children.

SIDE LIGHTS

When one reaches his 91st birthday he is certainly entitled to a real celebration. So thought Colonel Charles Goodnight, former frontiersman, who celebrated his by marrying Miss Corine Goodnight, aged 26, at Ft. Worth, Texas.

An aged Indian is reported to have recently voiced his scorn for our effeminate civilization, which has substituted rouge for war paint, and silk stockings for suckskin leggings. He ventured no opinion concerning what has been substituted for whiskey.

Tests of a certain make of pens are said to include dropping them from a 24-story building and having them run over with motor trucks without damage. These are just the kind Uncle Sam should supply for the lobbies of postoffices.

Mrs. Joseph Glasecock of Veedersburg, Ind., recently received a dollar for a watermelon stolen from her father's patch 60 years ago. An accompanying note said: "I am on my way to heaven and on my way ran up against that melon, which got so large I could not get over it." This is perhaps the first instance on record in which pride in getting away with a watermelon was not life-long.

Commenting on the seriousness of marriage, H. L. Hencken says that it is "comparable with entering a monastery or enlisting for war." Coming from a bachelor, that remark stamps its author as a close observer.

Jeff Ashworth, a North Carolina farmer, was rescued alive after being buried in a cave-in well for 13 hours. But when brought out he was almost too weak to sign the vaudeville contract awaiting him at the top. He will be billed as "North Carolina's Floyd Collins."

Merchants at Columbia, Mo., report that college boys at the state university simply won't buy the new derby hats, although assured that they are the correct thing. Opinion among the girls is divided. One declared that a derby makes a man look "just like a count or a duke," but another expressed her disgust by saying, "they belong in the funny paper."

JACK DIAL, ONE OF OLD CITIZENS OF CITY, IS DEAD

Stamford lost one of her oldest and best-known citizens Saturday evening when Jack Dial passed away. Death was caused from pneumonia following an operation only a few days ago. The deceased, who was 61 years of age, had lived in Stamford since 1900, and was proprietor of Dial's Barber Shop, one of the oldest business establishments in town.

Funeral services were held Monday afternoon at the Baptist church with Rev. Moffett officiating. The burial service and interment was made in the Spring Creek cemetery. Barrow Furniture and Undertaking Company had charge of the funeral arrangements.

Surviving relatives are an only child, Louis R. Dial of this city; four brothers, A. R. Dial of Stamford, G. C. Dial of Abernathy, Will Dial of Childress, E. R. Dial of Weslaco; two sisters, Mrs. W. C. Herrington of Lauders, and Mrs. Geo. Loop of Abilene. Other relatives here for the funeral were Miss Grace Dial of Wichita and Miss Florence Dial of Abernathy.—Stamford American.

ABOUT WOMEN

Miss Florence Silvertown of Chicago, after graduating from high school a few years ago, took an office job at $4 a week. Now she is a leading certified public accountant, with earnings of $30,000 a year.

Miss Olga de la Barra, aged 21, is performing the duties of her father as Chilean consul in Glasgow, during his prolonged absence.

Miss Rosalie G. Jones, noted suffrage leader, who was recently married to United States Senator Clarence C. Dill of Washington, will retain her maiden name for all except social purposes.

Mrs. Robert E. Speer of New York, president of the Y. M. C. A. national board, says that instead of asking what is the matter with youth the question should be, "What's the matter with old people?"

Miss Adelaide Ambrose of Newton, Kan., in spite of having won several beauty contests has no ambition to go into the movies, but has established a book publishing business.

Miss Rosamond Pinchot, beautiful and talented niece of former Governor Pinchot of Pennsylvania, played the part of the nun in the original New York cast of "The Miracle" with great success, but has entered the University of California as a special student in English and psychology.

BOYS AND GIRLS

Our Seniors

"Where are the grave old Seniors?
 Safe in the wide, wide world."

Lois Bowden entered Munday Public Schools in the first grade and has since that time been a member of the Seniors '27. She is a science student with three years work to her credit. Lois is now seventeen years of age, several years from realizing her ambition to be an old maid.

Walter Counts entered the schools here in his sophomore year, 1924. He is a science student with credits in that subject. Walter was a member of this year's football and basketball team, working as tackle in the former game and guard in the latter.

Nolly Farrington, one of the funniest of our Seniors, entered the first grade of the schools here in 1915, and, although he remained with it, he out-grew the class. Nolly is a Latin-science student carrying two credits in each of those subjects. He held the position of center on foot ball squad this year and played his part well.

The Track Meet

The school was represented in the track meet April 2, at Truscott. In the Junior girls division we held second place in high-jumping and broad-jumping. In the Senior girls division we carried off second place in the 100 yd. dash and first place in volley ball. In the Junior boys division we captured second place in the 440 relay and first place in broad-jumping. For the Senior boys we held second place in the 100 yd. dash and first place in volley ball.

The finals of the Senior boys Tennis singles was won by Knox City, defeating Charles McGlothlin 6-0, 6-2, 6-3.

Although we did not have many entries we gave a good account of ourselves. No doubt we would have held the track laurels if there had been more entries.

Goree 8—Moguls 7

Some of the Moguls journeyed to Goree Friday afternoon and dropped a close game. At the end of the scheduled seven innings the score was tied at 7 all. Goree came back in the extra inning to score and win the ball game. Cecil Blanton played a good game, both at second and at bat, getting one home run, double, and a single. Parker and Bowden tried to bring the Moguls victory but failed.

Sophs

The Sophs are certainly enjoying this sunny weather and are glad to think that spring has come at last. We will have to be careful though and avoid this "spring fever".

Almost all of the Sophomore boys went on the Scout hike Friday night and we certainly enjoyed every minute, although some did not get to bed at all and the others slept about an hour. All except Sebern and F. E. Starling and you could not wake them with a bomb.

Joe and Sebern visited Vernon Sunday and saw many good things for "sore eyes." They report a very pleasant trip.

Runt said he fished Saturday and caught sixteen fish that weighed a pound each. If you know Runt you will just consider this another "habitual fish tale."

Veda Ameen has been absent for this last week and we understand she is visiting in Oklahoma with her parents.

J. Doyle Cearly has been absent from his classes on account of illness. We are hoping for a speedy recovery.

MISS DELPHINE HENDRIX ENTERTAINS

Miss Delphine Hendrix very delightfully entertained a number of her friends with a "42" party at her home last Thursday evening. After playing "42" a greater part of the evening, a biography for each one present was written. The reading of these added to the merriment of the evening. Following this a clever penny contest was held. Otis Burnett and W. C. Newsome won first and second prizes, respectively. A dainty plate, suggestive of the Easter season, was served to the following: Misses Thelma Newsome, Annie Mate Tate, Madge and Mauryse Smith, Myrl Lowe, Frances Akesson, Charlotte Williams, Frances Dashner, Hattie Lucile Paxton, Messrs W. C. Newsome, Otis Burnette, Clyde Brewer, Virgil Craig, Truman Mann, Gaynor Kendall.

HOWE ABOUT—

By ED HOWE

(Copyright by The Bell Syndicate, Inc.)

Bill Johnson has written a book called "These Women," and manages to make a good suggestion (I have not seen it before in years). . . . The good suggestion is, ante-nuptial agreements. That is, before marriage let the proposed husband and wife talk things over, and make agreements for the future, in presence of witnesses, and in legal form. If either party has unusual notions, let them be discussed at a time when separation may be accomplished without scandal or alimony.

I know a woman who was divorced from her husband ten years ago, and it is a source of gratification to me to know that she is one of the most popular women in the town where she lives. It is a very unusual case; divorced people somehow seem to have tar on them.

It is generally said of a man I know that he is losing his mind. The trouble is, he is letting himself go: talking too much about trifling things, bothering his acquaintances too much with his opinions, and is a little meener. Little faults he hid years ago, he now boldly displays. Men do not go crazy; they become meener.

I heard a railroad man grumbling the other day. A cement road had been built beside a railroad track connecting two populous towns. On the completion of the cement road, a line of automobiles was put on, and the railroad robbed of most of its passenger business. . . . The railroad man was grumbling because his company had been compelled to pay 24 per cent of the expense of the cement road.

Another of my notions is, we should assert our civil rights as we have asserted our religious rights, and cause the politicians to treat us as respectfully as the churchmen treat us.

When a show or a book is half way good, it goes big. Too much is not expected of authors or readers.

Soon after people begin hearing of a man rather regularly, they begin picking at him.

The Destroyer of Your Crops—Hail

WHEN black clouds and chill winds release their destructive torrents of hail, what becomes of the crops which represent your big investment of money and labor? You cannot stop the hail, but you can avoid financial loss!

Your only real protection is a dependable hail policy—dependable insurance in a company which may always be relied upon for a fair and prompt adjustment of your loss.

Insurance other than this is insurance in name only! You need the kind of protection which can be offered only by a company having large cash resources and a reputation for satisfactory settlements.

You get all of this when you insure in the Saint Paul Fire and Marine Insurance Company, incorporated in 1865 and now having total assets of $26,834,753.00. No other company offers you greater protection.

Ask your Saint Paul agent to show you why the best policy is the cheapest. The sooner you do this, the sooner you may cease to worry about hail in the thunder heads.

Mrs. Burnett Hostess To Dorcas Class

The Dorcas Class of the First Baptist Church held their regular business and social meeting in the pretty home of Mrs. M. O. Burnett Wednesday, April 6th, at 3:00 p. m. Plans were discussed for maintaining a good attendance and for enlisting many others who are eligible, needed and welcome in Bible class.

During the social hour two interesting contests were tried, the first one puzzles on a penny and the last one revealing the fortunes of each of the ladies present.

While we were being served delicious refreshment we were favored with readings by Ella D. Weaver and Mildred Burnett. Thanking our hostess for a most pleasant afternoon, we departed for our respective homes.

MR. AND MRS. C. M. HENDRIX ENTERTAINS

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Hendrix entertained on Friday evening of last week with a forty-two party, at which three tables were arranged and the guests participated in this fascinating game throughout the evening, after which delicious refreshments were served to Dr. and Mrs. A. A. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Decker, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Moore, Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Barnes and Mr. and Mrs. Chester Bowden.

LADIES OF W. T. U. CO. TO HOLD OPEN HOUSE ON THURSDAY AFTERNOON

The ladies of the West Texas Utilities Company will hold open house at the district offices of the company on Wednesday afternoon from three to seven, at which time the ladies of Munday and vicinity are extended a cordial invitation to call.

The ladies auxiliary of this company is a real live-wire organization, and is composed of the wives of employees and employees, and they have given some excellent programs at various times in the past.

Mrs. O. Wallace is chairman of the entertainment committee while Mrs. F. F. Seifert is chairman of the refreshment committee.

Pollyanna Class Delightfully Entertained

The members of the Pollyanna Sunday School class and teachers of the Sunday School classes of the Methodist church were entertained Thursday afternoon in the home of Mrs. J. C. Campbell, Mrs. John Spann, Mrs. J. W. Wiley, Mrs. Chester Borden and Mrs. P. V. Williams were assistant hostesses. The rooms were pretty with flowers of springtime. Six tables arranged for "84" made the afternoon a pleasant one. As this was the occasion for the identity of Pollyannas to become known it was with much interest and exclamations of delight that the presents to each other were opened and passed around that all might view. Names were drawn for new Pollyannas to be kept for the next three months.

The hostesses passed refreshment plate of ice sherbert and angel food cake to about fifty guests.

PRAIRIE VIEW 4-H CLUB

The 17th of March Miss Maxwell met with the club girls at the regular hour and regular place.

The girls handed in their cup towels and finished their hot-pan holders.

We cut out our aprons and made the botton holes and sewed the buttons on our caps and learned how to fix the emeral for the caps and will hand them in the next meeting.

The members present were, Frances Beecher, Freddie Hutcheson, Edith Wardlow, Tillie Mae Strange, Annie Howard, Claude Lee Lindsey, Elna Cluck, Ina Frasure, Jimmie Jois Frasure, Ruth Burns, Ada Burns and Marie Banks. One of our members quit and all were very sorry to have her quit.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Duval left Tuesday for San Antonio, where Mrs. Duval will remain some time for the benefit of her health.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Parks of Roscoe, Texas, were here Sunday visiting Mrs. Park's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Bailey.

Mrs. Anna Markham of Ardmore, Oklahoma, is here visiting her daughter, Mrs. L. E. Tomlinson.

Town Talk

Mrs. Lewis Reinlee and Mrs. H. O. Love and children of Dallas are guests this week of their parents Mr. and Mrs. John McGraw and other relatives here.

Miss Mae Murphy of Paducah has accepted a position with the West Texas Utilities Company as bookkeeper in the district offices here, succeeding Carrol Neely, who has been promoted to the commercial department in this district.

Dr. E. J. Burns was in Benjamin Monday afternoon attending a meeting of the board of directors of the County Hospital, of which body he is a member. He states that no definite plans have yet been made as to the operation of the hospital, and it is not yet known whether it will be operated as a county hospital or leased out and operated as a private institution.

Mrs. M. B. Bounds of Wichita Falls is here this week visiting her daughter, Mrs. M. F. Billingsley.

Dr. E. M. Ammons was in Benjamin on Monday afternoon to meet with the county hospital board.

Mrs. E. J. Muse of Alto, Texas, is the guest of her granddaughter, Mrs. L. E. Tomlinson.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. O'Dell have returned to their home at Haskell after a very pleasant visit with their daughter, Mrs. H. F. Barnes.

That veterans of the World are taking advantage of loans available on their policies is indicated by the number of applications that have been filed with Pelmer G. Barton at the First State Bank, who reports that applications have been filed by the ex-service men for loans in the sum of $1,238.57 to date, and he predicts that many others will apply for the loans. He has the necessary application blanks and will gladly assist any ex-service man in getting his loan through, and states that contrary to reports that are current, there is very little red tape in procuring loans on these policies.

G. E. McKinley of South Bend, Indiana, is here this week visiting his old boyhood friends, L. E. Loveless. Mr. McKinley holds a responsible position with the Piggly-Wiggly corporation and plans to be transferred back to Texas, his native state, at an early date.

Mr. and Mrs. F. N. Payne and daughter, Miss Lucille, of Shreveport, La., were here first of the week visiting Mr. Payne's sister, Mrs. J. W. Bullock, and have gone to Lubbock to visit other relatives before returning to their home. Mr. Payne is distributor of the Willys-Knight-Overland line of automobiles at Shreveport and reports business good in that section.

APPROPRIATIONS ASSURE TEXAS TECH SUFFICIENT FUNDS TO FINISH YEAR

Lubbock, Texas, April 12.—Official information from the Governor's office has just been received at Texas Technological College that the appropriation of $47,350.00 which was asked for the summer school has been allowed in full. At the same time an emergency appropriation of $66,626.00 was also granted, which will, according to President P. W. Horn, make it possible to round out the present fiscal year in good shape.

School authorities are particularly pleased at Tech over the receipt of the news of the full appropriation for the summer school. This will enable them to carry out the plans for a twelve-week session which is to open June 7 and close August 27. This period will be divided into two terms of six weeks each.

Practically all of the regular faculty will remain as instructors during the summer, including the four deans and sixteen heads of departments. In addition several experts have been added to the faculty, including instructors in the Problem Project method, primary methods, and other subjects. The plains climate is being heralded as the coolest in Texas during the summer months.

ZANE GREY FILM COMING TO PEOPLES

"Desert Gold" Paramount Thriller Has Great Cast of Stars

A Zane Grey story pictured by Paramount with absolute fidelity and authenticity; with one of the most notable sellers and supporting casts in screen history and acclaimed by reviewers as one of the most entertaining and thrilling Grey stories to date, comes to the Peoples Theatre for an engagement of one day starting Saturday.

"Desert Gold" concerns itself chiefly with the lawless days at the close of the last century, along the southwestern border. Into this seething whirlpool comes the son of a rich man and there he encounters a girl. With her he escapes from bandits into the Painted Desert and amid wild rides, fights and adventure, finds love and gold.

Robert Frazer plays the role of the son of wealth and Shirley Mason that of Mercedes, the Spanish girl. Neil Hamilton is seen as Lieutenant Thorne, of the United States cavalry and William Powell as Landree, bandit and killer.

The supporting cast numbers in its personnel George Rigas, remembered for his excellent work in "The Wanderer," and Frank Lackteen who scored as a half-breed Indian in "The Pony Express."

The picture was directed by George R. Seltz and supervised by Lucien Hubbard of "The Vanishing American" fame.

"MARRIAGE LICENSE?" HAS ALMA RUBENS IN FEATURE ROLE

Alma Rubens is featured in "Marriage License?" Fox Films version of "The Pelican," the play by H. M. Harwood and F. Tennyson Jesse which scored such a tremendous success in New York and London and which comes to the Peoples Theatre Wednesday and Thursday.

In this dramatic story of a beautiful woman's sacrificing love for her son, Miss Rubens gives one of the most remarkable performances of her career. In the first sequences she is a young bride and in the later ones she is a perfectly poised woman who has fought and won against seemingly overwhelming odds.

The action takes place in the aristocratic home of the Heriots in England and in the romantic atmosphere of a lovely villa in France.

Walter McGrail and Walter Pidgeon have the principal male roles in the production. Richard Walling plays the boy. Emily Fitzroy, Charles Lane, Edgar Norton, George Cowl, Langhorne Burton, Lon Poff, Billie Latimer, Patsy O'Byrne, Arthur Rankin and Eric Mayne complete the cast.

Frank Borzage directed the production.

The local newspaper is the most highly regarded advertising medium, it was disclosed. In all, 929 companies answering the questionnaire used the local papers and 338 did not. The institutions buying space in local papers are evenly divided among all sections of the country. Comparing six media for selling personal trust services and considering their effectiveness from the standpoint of producing results, the speaker declared that the local newspapers should head the list. Posters and booklets can reach a limited audience, he observed, but the newspaper is the best medium for acquiring prestige and mass circulation. It should never be omitted, he urged.

HOW FAKE AUCTIONS GET YOUR MONEY

By W. R. MOREHOUSE

Public Relations Commission, American Bankers Association

(This is one of a series of articles exposing the wiles of shoppers who are after your money.)

NEARLY everyone is ready "to take a fling" at getting something for nothing or at least for less than it is worth. Because of this many are duped into paying more than regular market prices for things they buy. This class of people is especially susceptible to the appeal of anything resembling an auction. Fake auctions with the cards stacked against the buyer are very common. They rank high among the fraudulent schemes of the country.

The "here today and gone tomorrow" auction faker rents a fine looking house in some high-class section of the city in which he plans to operate. He furnishes this house with the cheapest imitations of high-class furnishings, with here and there a fine piece which is to serve for bait. Certain pieces are alleged antiques with a thread of glorious history behind them. Of others it is claimed that they have been handed down for generations, originating with some person noted in history or with some famous Southern family. Of other pieces it is maintained that they are made of rare and precious woods imported from far across the sea. The overstuffed furniture, it is claimed, is all high grade of standard manufacture.

Regardless of its superiority and antiquity, the furniture must be sold at once, for the owner is compelled to take an extended trip, the family physician having ordered travel and a change of climate as a means of saving his life. Nothing is to be spared and the deep slashings of the auctioneer's axe must go on with no price too low. Individual pre-auction sales, of course, will be arranged for persons who are unable to attend the auction.

The day of the sale is here. Purchasers are arriving. They are met at the door by the woman member of the outfit—a dramatic person who knows when to shed tears at the thought of having her happy home broken up and her valuable furnishings torn from her. She tells her sad story—how she must leave her home and go to distant lands with her husband whose health is broken and life in danger. But she is resigned to her "awful calamity" and will sell all her lovely furniture even at a great sacrifice.

As she directs attention to certain pieces of furniture her voice quavers. She almost sobs aloud as she names the price she is forced to accept. "Less than half the original cost, but price is no object. We must take the train tomorrow," and she wipes a tear from her eye. Fully convinced the sale is genuine, and sympathizing with the unfortunate woman, buyers clamor for the furniture.

But no sooner are the articles transferred from their setting in the slightly darkened rooms of their original owner and displayed in the sunlight of the purchaser's home, than the truth about the sale begins to dawn in the mind of each new owner. Close examination reveals that evidently this wonderful collection of furniture was but odds and ends and unsalable pieces picked up from second-hand stores by these fly-by-night fakers. Some proves to be the rankest of imitations of the cheapest grade, and the overstuffed is so poorly constructed that it squeaks and weaves under the lightest weight.

The Birds Have Flown

When those who have been cheated rush back to the house the next day, intent on making it "hot for the faker,

(A future article will present means to foil crooked promoters' wiles and tell how to separate good from bad investments.)

they find hanging in the front window a sign, "For Rent." The birds have flown, without leaving any address. Fake auctions are not exclusive to residences, but are sometimes staged in stores. We have reports of a certain furniture firm that failed, having on hand stock invoiced at $12,000. An auction sale was announced. As usual the stock must be closed out as quickly as possible within a few days, regardless of cost. On the windows appeared glaring announcements of big bargains. Although represented as a legitimate sale, it had the earmarks of an auction by Messrs. Catch 'em and Skin 'em. An investigation of the store made six months later disclosed that its stock was then larger than the day it announced the auction. Its sales in the interim had exceeded $600,000. The facts are that two trucks and backed up to the rear of the store nightly and unloaded new merchandise, principally odd lines and job lots picked up here and there at a bargain. Under the guise of a legitimate auction, or private sale at auction prices, fourteen times as much furniture was sold in the six months as the store contained at the time of the failure. Comparison of sale prices disclosed that victims were persuaded to buy liberally on the assurance they were getting sacrifice prices, when as a matter of fact they were actually paying from five to 25 per cent more than reliable stores were charging for better goods.

Fake auctions and private sales are used not only for furniture but also in the sale of jewelry and other merchandise. The lesson which this story teaches is that there is nothing to be gained by patronizing such sales. On the other hand, there is a better than 50-50 chance of sustaining a loss. Not all auctions are fraudulent, for some are conducted fairly and honestly, but before you draw your savings from the bank and spend them for auction goods it will pay you to get the facts. For your own protection make it an unbreakable rule to confine your expenditures and investments to reliable firms and individuals. In dealing with them you are assured a square deal.

SNAPPY STUFF

After waiting 20 years for the return of his wife, who deserted him two months after marriage, Walter Gattton of Noblesville, Ind., became impatient and sued for divorce.

The world's largest dog is Shanganagh, an Irish wolf-hound, which standing on its hind legs measures 8 feet 2 inches.

Miss Myra Sells of Brighton, Eng., who admitted smoking a pipe and drinking whisky for about 75 years, died at the age of 105.

Miss Imo Hughes, secretary to an Atlanta doctor, confessed that she had stolen $2,000 from her employer to give to Rev. Richard Jordan, an itinerant preacher, who had suggested the thefts during a period of several years.

Solomon Johnson, farm lad of Puxico, Mo., threw up a mowing machine rivet after it had been in his stomach 16 days, causing high fever.

Private Robert Gordon of the Eighth Cavalry, stationed at Fort Sam Houston, Tex., was left $200,000 by his uncle on condition that he should get married within 30 days.

Aroused by thefts of their poultry, farmers near Trenton, Mo., have organized a vigilance committee which plans to "shoot to kill" if any more hen houses are raided.

"THE HOUSE OF QUAKITY"

be saved. This is the very crux of the matter of the individuals salvation.

Jesus, evidently well pleased with the answer of Peter, says at once, "Simon son of John, flesh and blood has not revealed this unto you, but my Father which is in heaven." No man can make clear by logic of reasoning the Deity of Jesus; it must be revealed to the heart by the Spirit of the Father. The human mind cannot conceive of one being at one and the same time the Son of Man and the Son of God, and yet that is exactly what Jesus is. He is man. He is God. Thru His human side we approach God, thru His divine side God approaches us. We meet God in Christ, and are reconciled to Him thru the blood of His atoning death. Flesh and blood cannot understand this great mystery, and teach it to men, it must be revealed unto us by the Father in heaven.

Jesus continues by saying: "Thou art Peter, and upon this rock I will build my church, and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it." Without attempting to go into the depths of this great deliverance we would call attention to a few very vital thoughts to be remembered. (1) Jesus was to have a church. (2) He was to build the church Himself. (3) The church was to be built upon a rock foundation. (In Eph. Paul says Jesus is the head of the corner, also the chief corner stone. In 1 Cor. 3, He is the foundation for which there can be no substitute, in the Gospel He is the stone rejected by the builders, etc.) (4) It was to be a future institution, the word church not having appeared in the Bible up to this time. (5) It was to stand forever, in spite of the mightiest force of hell that would be hurled against it. (6) It was to be the source of spiritual authority upon earth.

This last statement grows out of the remark of Jesus to Peter about the keys. It is silly to think of Peter as being the guardian of the gates of Heaven, allowing only such as please him to enter there. The meaning evidently is, that the church which Jesus was to build, and of which Peter was to be a charter member, should have authority to say who should come into it, and who should be excluded from it. The church, exercising this authority, under the direction of the Holy Spirit, may be sure that its acts are ratified in heaven. "For whatsoever ye bind on earth shall be bound in heaven, and whatsoever ye loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven."

Following this event which had served to bind the disciples closer than ever to Jesus, He begins to prepare them for the greatest test to which their faith is to be subjected. He knows that they are going to be shocked beyond words when He yields to the enemy and is taken to the cross and to the grave. So he tells them exactly what is to happen. Peter in his usual manner, begins to rebuke Jesus, declaring that no such thing can happen to Him. But Jesus, whose lips have but a moment before spoken in the highest terms of the faith and loyalty of Peter, now turns to him in bitter rebuke, telling him that his thoughts are not now from God but satan, and snatching him to the foot of the cross. "Get thee behind me satan," He says, "Thou art a stumbling block unto me."

We close with this thought. There is no place or occasion so sacred that Satan will not enter and destroy the peace and harmony if he can; and that it is possible for us as the disciples of Jesus to be a stumbling block to Him, hindering Him in the great plans which He is carrying out in the world. May we have any sinner in the world. Without this confession from the heart, no man on earth can

NEW STAGE SCENERY AT RHINELAND

A few days ago Rhineland had the stage in the spacious auditorium of the public school equipped with beautiful scenery. The scenery includes one exterior with a back drop curtain, and a front ad drop. All scenes are painted on strong, durable cloth.

The artist work is indeed good. Many words of praise have been uttered by those who have seen the work. The pretty design, with the harmonious blending of the colors, is very attractive and pleasing to the eye, and demonstrates very effectively the skill that the artist, Mr. J. M. Moore, possesses in those two phases of his profession.

The front drop curtain contains nineteen artistically arranged and painted ads. Thirteen of these were purchased by Munday's business men, two by Goree's and four by Rhineland's.

To each and every one of these good people we express our sincerest thanks and most cordially invite, and expect them to visit our school to see for themselves the double purpose their investments are serving. Seats have been ordered for the auditorium. They are expected to arrive any day.

Rhineland is proud of their school building. They can justly be, for it is very doubtful whether there is another rural school district of its size that can boast of such a building with its modern equipment and facilities.

HOWE ABOUT—

By ED HOWE

(Copyright by The Red Book Co., Inc.)

I know of a married man who acted so well throughout his life that I like to point to him with pride. He was a good boy at home and at school.

Went to work as soon as was natural, and prospered.

Married at about the usual time, and was a liberal and respected husband.

Early in life he was useful to his town, as his institution was one of the kind to which citizens pointed with pride; it gave employment to a large number of men at good wages, and his product was a great convenience.

All the time he was accumulating money, and when he died at thirty-nine, left the best home in the community and the greatest fortune.

The widow is still beautiful at thirty-seven.

I love to tell the story to the ladies, they so enjoy it.

"In my town," a man writes, "there is a famous scandal. The other day one of the parties to it told me all the details. I did not learn a single new thing; gossip had supplied every detail. With all their viciousness the gossips had invented nothing!"

A man attacked a woman's devotion to her church. "Yes," she replied, "I attend church entertainments and church services, and I like the women there better than those I find elsewhere playing cards, dancing, and smoking cigarettes." I thought the answer very good. There may be objections to church entertainments, but not so many as to affairs where the saxophone, the bottle, cards and cigarettes are exploited. Those of you who do not attend church are invited to try it, and see if I am not right.

The stories told of great men are usually interesting, but I often doubt their truth. . . . It is told of the elder Dumas that he always kept in his apartment a bowl filled with gold coins, and invited his friends to help themselves. . . . Most of the big stories are untrue, but what's the difference, so long as they are interesting? Since we wish to be amused, why worry ourselves over a small matter like truth or probability? Nearly everything peddled around to attract attention is invented, or greatly exaggerated.

Carload of Eggs, 400 Crates, Shipped By Poultry Growers At Wellington

Wellington, Texas, April 3.—The first car of eggs ever shipped from Collingworth county was shipped by the Collingworth County Poultry company March 26. Approximately 400 cases were in the shipment, valued $3,000 which was sent to eastern markets.

The poultry association was organized a little over a year ago, much interest having been manifested throughout the entire year. The association is buying feed in car load lots for their chickens, selecting the best feed on the market to serve this purpose.

The members of the association spent all their efforts for the past year in raising chickens for the egg values. The chickens are bought by the thousands from the hatcheries and are kept in brooders which have been built on most of the chicken farms, especially for this purpose.

The white leghorn stock seems to be the most favored with the farmers in Collingworth county as they are noted for their egg production during all seasons.

The members of the association netted an actual profit of 10, 15, 25 and sometimes as much as 40 dollars per week from their hens during the fall and winter months. This is one of the surest ways of profit that the farmers of Collingworth county has and offers many possibilities to those who plan diversification, according to poultry experts.

T. G. Benge, local golf hunter, went out and took several lessons in the game while in Dallas last week and is now offering his services to the public as instructor in the mysteries. With his new $65.00 set of clubs he has been able to lower his score to 67 on the local course. Those desiring his services may find him at the oil mill—and they may not.—adv.

NEXT SUNDAY'S SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

P. D. O'Brien

Subject: Peter's Great Confession.

Scripture: Matt. 16: 13-24. Golden Text: Thou art the Christ, the Son of the living God—Matt. 16: 16.

We trust that those who are patient enough to read those comments on the Sunday School lesson each week will fully realize the great importance of turning to the lesson text in the Bible and reading all suggested Scriptures. In so doing you will add to the profit and interest of the study a hundred fold. We encourage our study today by no being an interesting event in the life of the apostle Peter in his relationship to Jesus as the spokesman of the favored Twelve.

Jesus had quietly slipped away from the crowded regions of Galilee, across the lake to the north country. Here in this sparsely settled region He engages the disciples in earnest discussion of the most vital question ever considered by men or angel. More depends upon the answer men give to the question raised by Jesus upon this occasion, than any other question that has ever been asked. This was the question: "Who do men say the Son of man is?" In other words what does the world think of me? They gave different answers. Some say you are Elijah returned from heaven, others that you are Jeremiah, or some of the other Old Testament prophets, and still others say that you are John the Baptist come back from the dead. Thus we see the world of that day was divided in its opinion of Christ. And so it is this day. Some men now say He is a good man, a great teacher, a wonderful philanthropist, a good example, etc. But this was not the main thing Jesus was after at that time. The thing He wanted to know definitely was what those men who had been with Him thru the recent months thought of Him, so He asked them, "What think ye of Christ?" He made the question personal, putting the matter squarely up to them as individuals. And so He does to this day. Men must give individual answer for themselves to this great question. No matter what your parents believe, or no matter what you think of the church, your Christian neighbors, certain doctrines or practices of men, the vagaries of philosophy or the findings of science, but man what do you think of Christ? Upon your answer to this question will hang your hopes of heaven in the day of judgement, for "he that believeth that Jesus is the Christ is born of God," 1st John 5: 1, and "he that believeth not the Son shall not see life, but the wrath of God abideth upon him," 1no. 3: 36. Happy is that man who can and does give the answer given by Peter on this occasion, for without hesitation he said, "We believe that thou art the Christ the Son of the living God." This confession made from the heart will save any sinner in the world. Without this confession from the heart, no man on earth can
