Look To The East

by Aaron Edgar

We woke up Friday morning to the fact that another tax had hit us - one that had been promised us for a little better than three months.

We realized that it wasn't just a bad dream; neither was it an April fool joke. It was for real!

We're referring to the fact that, while we slept, that new five-cent gasoline tax (or was it a "use fee"?) had hit us. It went into effect just a second after midnight on March 31, and gas prices were upped by at least that amount on most pumps supplying the consumers.

Shortly before Santa's visit in December, Congress voted to raise the federal levy to 9 cents from 4 cents, where it had stood since 1959. It was a "Reaganitis" Christmas gift to us!

President Reagan said the $5.5 billion in annual revenues generated by the increase would be needed to repair highways, bridges and decaying mass transit systems. It would give jobs to the unemployed, too, thus helping the unemployment situation and the economy.

It was estimated that the new tax would cost the "average motorist" about $30 per year. They failed to mention how much the person whodunit was paid for arriving at this figure.

To our way of thinking, it is what we'd classify as a "just" or "equal" tax, in that it applies to rich and poor alike. Every person who drives up to a pump and says "fill'er up" will be contributing to the tax. If you drive, you pay it!

Now this doesn't mean that the chug holes in our highways will be filled up immediately, or that we'll be driving on super highways everywhere within the matter of months, but it's a start. It's another tax, too, that may be continued from here on out.

While reflecting on the new tax, we were reminded of a clipping that came to our desk recently, entitled: "Here's why I haven't paid my account". It's been going the rounds of weekly and daily newspapers for some time and appeared in a "This N' That" column by Annetta Bunch in the Times-Courier of Ellijay, Ga. It was sent us by a reader of our newspaper, Mrs. Joy Fuller of Fort Worth. Here it is:

Dear Friend,

Answering your inquiry as to why I have not sent you a check in payment of my account, I wish to inform you that the condition of my bank account has made it impossible. My shattered financial condition is due to the Federal Laws, State Laws, County Laws, City Laws, Corporation Laws, School Laws, mother-in-laws, sister-in-laws and out-laws.

Through these laws, I am compelled to pay a business tax, amusement tax, head tax, use tax, poll tax, school tax, gas tax, carpet tax, income tax, food tax, furniture tax, cigarette tax, luxury tax, defense tax, stock tax, sales tax, dog tax, excise tax, until my poor brain is taxed to comprehend it all.

I am forced to get a business license, truck license, hunting license, dog license, not to mention marriage license.

I am also required to contribute to every society, relief agency and organization which the genius of man is capable of bringing to life; to women's relief, unemployment relief, children's relief, old age relief, chiseler's and gold digger's relief. Also to the Red Cross, Black Cross, Blue Cross, Fiery Cross and the Double Cross.

I am required to carry life insurance, household insurance, accident insurance, liability insurance, sickness insurance, burglary insurance, real estate insurance, mortgage insurance, hail insurance, business insurance, earthquake insurance, unemployment insurance, old age insurance, automobile insurance and fire insurance.

My business is so governed that it is no easy matter for me to find out who really owns it. I am inspected, expected, suspected, dejected, examined, re-examined, informed, required, summoned, fined, commanded, instructed, ordered and compelled to supply money for every known need, desire or hope of the human race.

Should I refuse to donate I am boy-

Burnett Leads Ticket In Race For City Council

More than the usual amount of interest was shown by voters in Munday's city council race last Saturday, despite the fact that only three candidates were listed, with three places to be filled.

A total of 170 people registered at the polls, and 27 write-in votes were cast in the election.

Bobby D. Burnett, Munday attorney, proved to be the greatest vote-getter, leading the ticket with 159 votes. Doris Dickerson followed closely with 151 votes, while Jessie Tucker, the third candidate, received 140 votes.

All these are newcomers to the City Council, since none of the three incumbents - Ray Lynn Hardin, Donald Hobert and M. M. Booc - were up for re-election.

Marijuana Found On Airport Road

Floyd Reed, Sr. made an unusual find at about 7:15 a.m. Friday as he was en route to his farm northeast of Munday.

As is his usual custom, Floyd was travelling the airport road to get to his farm. As he was within about 100 yards of the parking lot "turn around" at the airport entrance, he ran upon several packages scattered along the pavement. One of the packages was partially open, and he investigated to see what he had found.

It was marijuana! Floyd immediately got in touch with his son, Mark, who notified Police Chief Gerald Saffel and Melvin Cybert, who picked up the packages at about 7:45 a.m.

Investigation revealed six packages of the weed, weigh-special minutes were read. No alterations. Mayor Reid stated minutes are approved as written.

Mayor Reid next asked that those with engineering and planning proposals give their individual presentations on the $500,000 grant project by H.U.D. in Munday.

First presentation was by J. E. of Biggs and Matthews, Wichita Falls. He formerly gave his presentation in writing offering to perform both engineering and planning in one contract. A written presentation was reviewed. His firm proposed to do the engineering with Jack Russell of Dallas to do the planning work. Next presentation was by David Todd of Abilene of Barber, Brannon, Traylor and Todd. He was accompanied by Kay Howard of Lubbock. Their firm, they said, proposed to do both engineering and planning under one single contract fee. Mr. Todd made the presentation in writing and then gave an oral presentation with Mrs. Howard assisting.

Next presentation was by Kenneth Martin of Jacobs and Martin, Abilene. They presented a proposal in writing to do both the engineering and planning work under a single contract fee. Mr. Martin gave their oral presentation with Jacobs also commenting.

Next presentation was Randy Randolph, Abilene, of Randolph and Gilreath, Planners. He presented their proposal in writing for planning only. Randolph was assisted by Gilreath in the oral presentation.

Gary Smith of Abilene presented his proposal in writing for planning only. He also made the oral presentation.

Mayor Reid asked if anyone from Arredondo and Epperson was present. No one was present. He asked if anyone else wished to make a presentation. No one did.

This concluded presentations from all firms present at the meetings for engineering and planning for the project.

Mayor Reid informed the Council that Blanche Honeycutt of H.U.D. recommended we evaluate all the proposals, pick our number one choice of engineering and planning proposals and attempt to negotiate a price with that firm for services to be done. If this is unsuccessful then we pick our number two firm and negotiate with them.

All those who made presentations had left the meeting. Mayor Reid made comments and asked each Councilman to do the same. All proposals were carefully examined. After lengthy discussion the Council decision was to follow this course: One firm is to be responsible to the City for both engineering and planning.

Hobert made the motion that Jacobs and Martin be chosen as the number one firm to negotiate with for a possible contract. Von Marr seconded the motion. Voting for were Hobert, Hardin, Marr

Tomatoes Are Favorite For Texas Gardeners

If Texans could choose but one vegetable to grow in their gardens, the tomato would win hands down.

Tomatoes are grown in about 95 percent of all home gardens in Texas, estimates Dr. Sam Cotner, a horticulturist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University System. Once people taste the great flavor of vine ripened, home-grown tomatoes, they just don't want any other kind, says Cotner.

Tomatoes are thought to have originated along the slopes of the Andes Mountains in South America and were brought northward by migratory tribes of Indians. Early explorers took the fruit-ed plants back to Europe and from there it came to America. The first recorded instance of the tomato being grown in the United States was by Thomas Jefferson in his garden at Monticello in 1781, notes Cotner. However, the influence of the French cuisine in South Louisiana actually started the tomato on its way to becoming every gardener's favorite vegetable.

To grow a bountiful supply of tomatoes in Texas, Cotner first of all emphasizes planting the right varieties. Varieties such as Big Set, Spring Giant, Jack Pot and Better Boy consistently perform well in all areas of the state.

The horticulturist advises buying transplants of these varieties at nurseries or garden centers or buying seed and planting it in a hot bed or containers but not directly in the garden, since plants need to be started well before cold weather is over.

Before setting out transplants, get the soil in good shape by adding plenty of organic matter and a complete fertilizer such as 10-20-10 or 12-24-12.

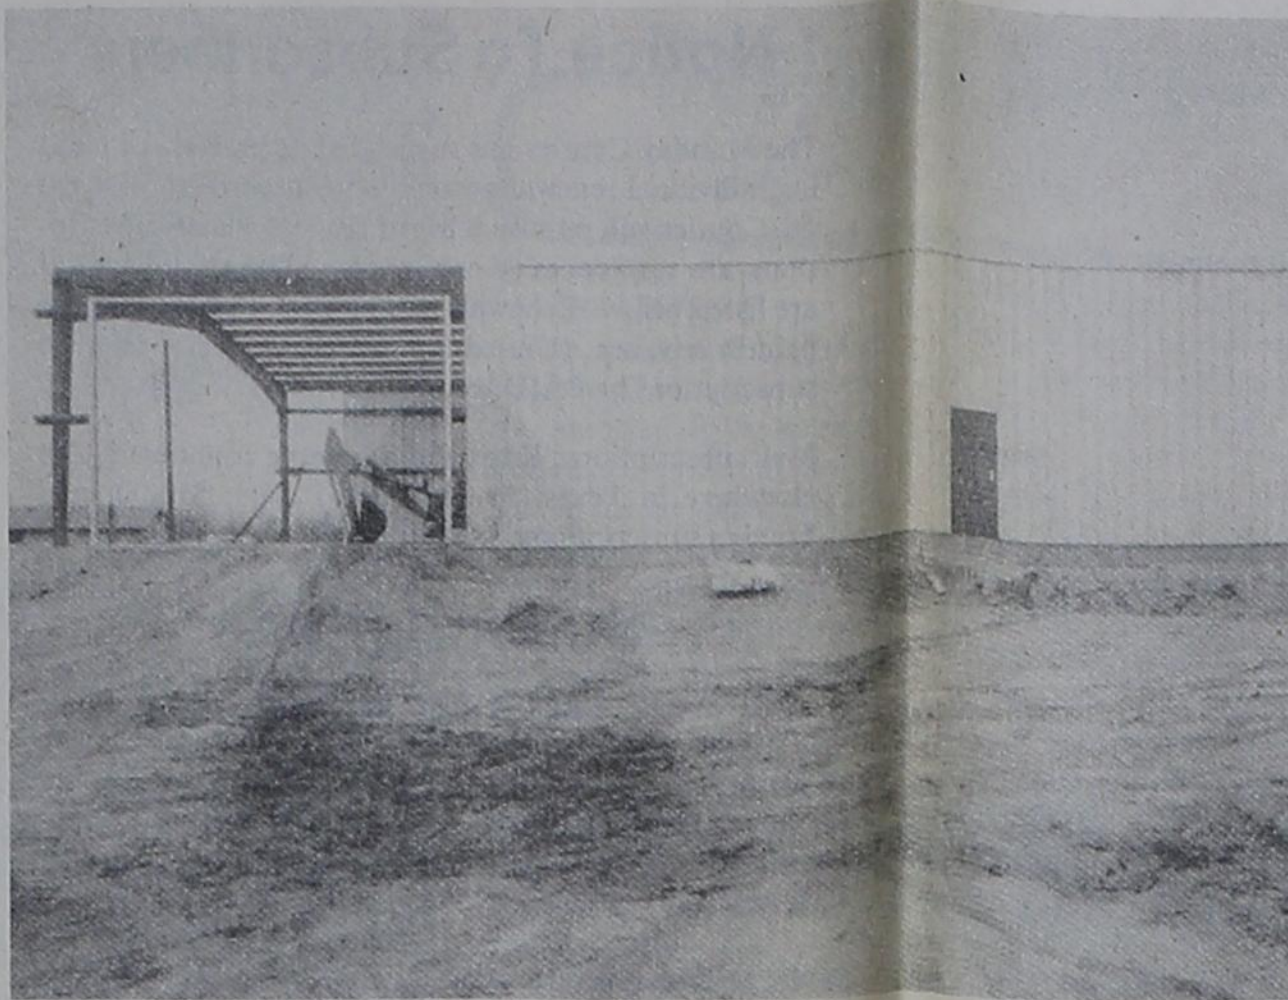

Set plants at least three feet apart, with three or four feet between rows. Use boards, shingles, milk cartons or something similar to protect them from early spring winds. Wire cages around plants can provide a structure for plastic trash bags or plastic sheeting that will protect young plants. Later the cages will support the plants, eliminating the need for staking and tying each plant.

Tomatoes also need nurturing throughout the season. This means applying a fertilizer solution - one to two tablespoonfuls of a garden fertilizer dissolved in a gallon of water - every week to 10 days once small tomatoes appear. This solution can be applied in a depression in the soil around the base of the plant or in pots or containers (with holes in the bottom for drainage) set in the ground mid-way between each plant.

Cotner also emphasizes the need for proper watering during the growing season and for controlling insect and disease problems should they occur.

Paying attention to these key practices can lead to a bountiful harvest of tomatoes - the Number One Texas vegetable.

Have a nice day!

Fourth Graders Try To Increase Postal Volume

Students in the fourth grade classes of Mrs. Linda Edrington and Mrs. Debbie Wilson have been learning some facts about the state of North Dakota that were not originally included in this year's curriculum.

A packet of letters from fourth graders in Edgeley, North Dakota has sparked the interest of local students who have sent letters in return in the hopes of becoming pen pals.

The youngsters from North Dakota studied the names of small towns in Florida and Texas and chose Munday as the town with which they wanted to get acquainted.

The population of Edgeley is 846, and the local teachers are assuming there are only seven fourth graders in the school there, as that's how many letters were received.

One of the letters reads as follows:
Dear 4th Grade,

I am Kristi Mathern from Edgeley, North Dakota. And I would like to tell you about North Dakota.

We have four seasons. They are spring, summer, autumn and winter.

Spring starts in late March and lasts through April and May. Spring is the time when farmers start their crops.

Summer lasts through June, July and August. Summer is when it is fun to go bike riding, fishing and playing.

Autumn starts in August through October. Autumn is when the leaves fall to the ground and you have to rake them up.

Winter is the longest season we have. Winter is fun. It's when you have fun on your sled and on the ice.

Red River and Missouri River are the largest rivers in N. Dak.

North Dakota is largely a farming state. We rank first in durum wheat, barley, flaxseed, spring wheat and sunflowers.

Your friend,
Kristi Mathern

Other letters explain that North Dakota is divided into four regions: the Red River Valley Region, Drift Prairie Region, Missouri Plateau Region and Slope Region. Bismarck is the capital city. One young man remarked that his main hobby is playing football and his favorite team is the Dallas Cowboys.

In addition to the letters, the students sent a map of their state.

Mrs. Wilson said her students were very excited about the letters and had tried to learn more facts about North Dakota on their own time. "They are learning to use encyclopedias," she said, "and have been looking up lots of things about North Dakota."

There are 38 students in the fourth grade at Munday Elementary School, and each one wrote a letter to the Edgeley students. The letters were sent all together, but the writers sent their home addresses so they can receive more letters. Some students, Mrs. Wilson said, sent their school pictures.

The Munday students told their new friends about Texas being the Lone Star state and about its capital and governor. They described our seasons and crops and told about the wind and sandstorms we will soon be receiving. Several talked about their school and class and mentioned our Munday Mogul football team. Nearly all, according to Mrs. Wilson, agreed that the Dallas Cowboys are nearly everyone's favorite.

Some letters included one of the brochures written about Munday and distributed by the Munday Chamber of Commerce and Agriculture. Mrs. Edrington said her students discussed with their parents what they should say about our community, and probably learned things about Munday that they had not known before in their search for interesting facts.

"This even gave us a chance to learn proper letter-writing form," Mrs. Edrington said. "We have learned so many things from this. The students were just fascinated by the fact that we were chosen out of all the cities in the United States."

Both teachers conclude that this has been a real learning experience for their classes and one that has generated a lot of excitement. Now the students are eagerly awaiting replies to their letters. Postmen in Munday and Edgeley may be a little busier than usual for the next few weeks, as these fourth graders do their part to better inter-state relations!

The City Council of the City of Munday, Texas met in special session at 8 p.m. on Saturday, March 26, at the Munday City Hall.

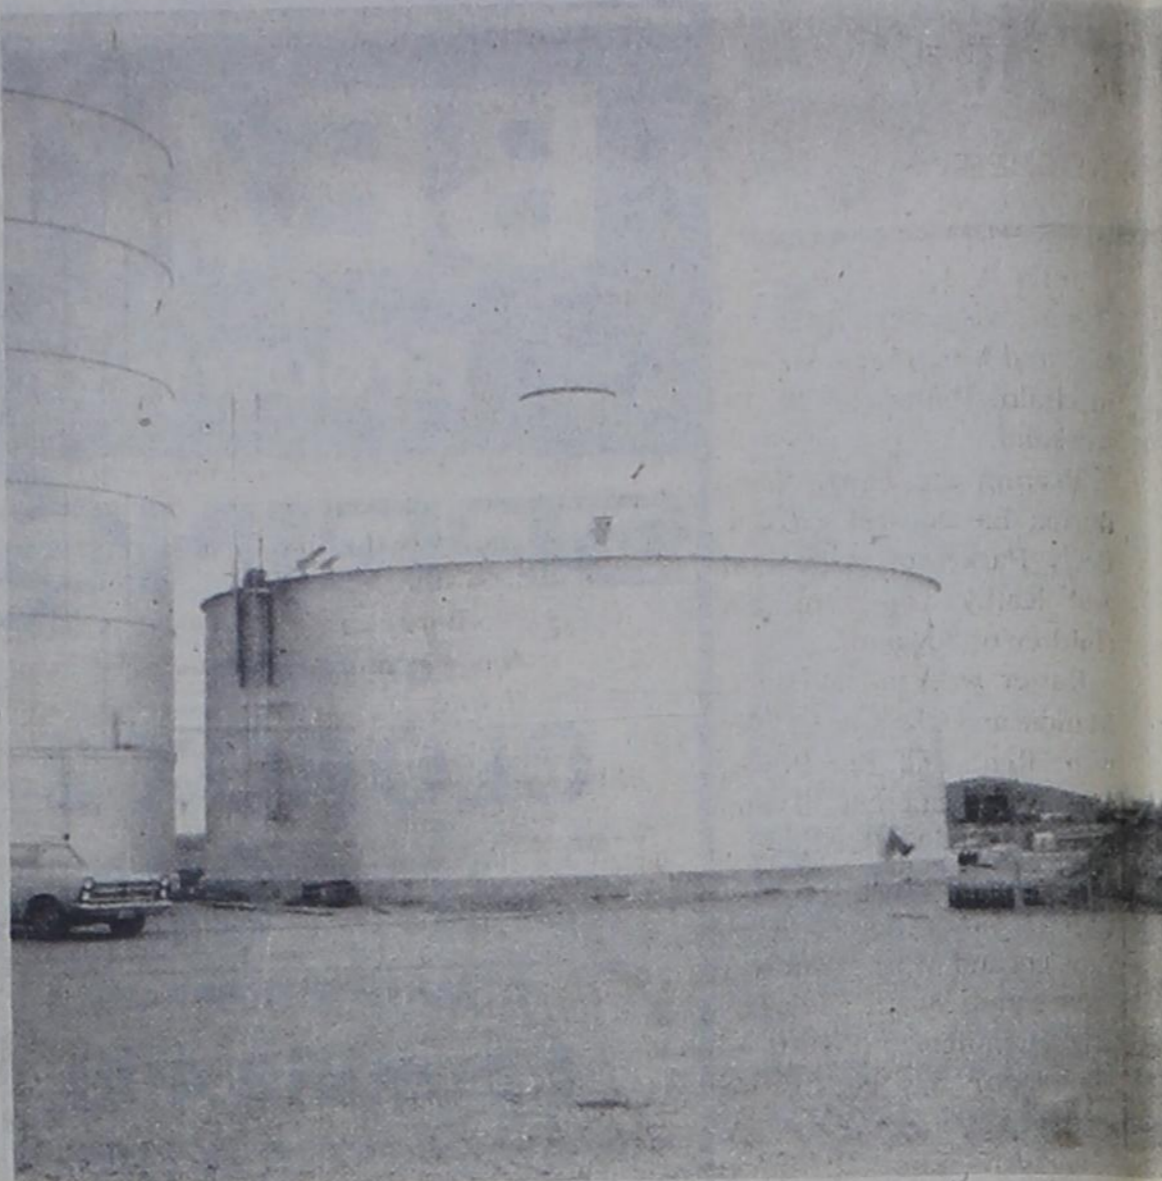

Members present: Mayor James W. Reid and Aldermen M. M. Booe, Bob Therwanger, Donald Hobert and Ray Lynn Hardin.

Members absent: Von Marr. Also present at the meeting were Billy Jacobs and Kenneth Martin of the firm of Jacobs and Martin, Abilene.

Mayor Reid called the meeting to order. Purpose of the meeting, he said, is to receive firm proposals for engineering and planning for the $500,000 City of Munday H.U.D. drainage and paving project. The firm of Jacobs and Martin has been selected as first to negotiate with for engineering and planning combined, Mayor Reid said. The City is ready to receive their proposal. The Council decision requires that both engineering and planning be done in its entirety as nearly as possible to conform with all H.U.D. requirements turn-key.

Kenneth Martin presented two proposals to do the work "turn-key" as required. One contract is entitled "Agreement for Engineering Services", base fee $38,000.00. The other contract is entitled "Contract for Planning, Management and Administrative Services for Community Development Block Grant Program" for the lump sum of $10,000.00. Continuous on-site inspection during construction will be at cost plus 7 1/2%, this service as deemed needed by the City and Engineer to assure a good job. Jacobs assisted Martin in the presentation.

Mayor Reid asked for a motion. Therwanger moved that the agreement for engineering services for a $38,000 flat fee be accepted, also other terms and

The Environmental Impact Statement work is to commence immediately with preliminary surveying and other work to commence as soon as possible. The motion further states that Mayor Reid be authorized to sign both agreements for the turn-key project upon approval of both contracts by the Munday City Attorney and meet requirements of H.U.D. Hardin seconded the motion. Voting for were Therwanger, Hardin, Booe and Hobert. Noes, none. Carried.

Therwanger moved to adjourn. Hardin seconded. All in favor.

Committee present at 1 p.m. 3-31-83 at Munday City Hall were Donald Hobert, M. M. Booe and Walter Hertel. Sealed bids on a new 2 ton garbage truck as per City Specifications sent to bidders were opened.

IN HOSPITAL

Beth McCanlies is a patient in Wichita General Hospital. She is feeling fine; but, according to family members, will be there several weeks undergoing treatment. She is in Room 337. I'm sure she would enjoy cards from her friends. They would make the time go by, as days do become long in the hospital.

SCHOOL NEWS

As is always the case, the spring time has brought a lot of activity in Benjamin school.

The one-act play, supervised by Belle Grill, has been a going thing for a while. Competition was last week in Vernon. Wendy Pollock and Toni Benson were named to the all-star cast. Troy Pratt was the other member of the cast of Benjamin's play, "Sister McIntosh".

The district tennis meet was held last week. The only results I have is the girls' doubles. Kim Conner and Wendy Pollock were in Vernon on Monday and played Northside, winning this match. On Tuesday they defeated Rochester, Knox City and Aspermont, thus becoming district champs. They are now gearing up for the regional meet which will be in mid-April in Abilene. Good luck, girls!

According to Garris, "The eight day course is intensive, with theory, policy and procedure and practical application covered. It's a demanding class designed to prepare the managers to handle the duties of their challenging position and better serve our customers."

Change Shocks To Keep Your Car In Shape

Nobody likes to be shocked. Yet every year worn shock absorbers contribute to countless repair bills resulting from increased wear on tires and suspension systems, in addition to causing handling problems that result in poor driveability. Trouble is most people don't know what a shock absorber does, let alone when to change one, says Green Light Auto Parts Jobber R. J. Anderson of Munday Auto Supply.

"In the days of a horse and carriage, nobody needed shock absorbers. When the horse pulled, the wheel turned. Horses pulled relatively slow, so the bumps in the road could be endured. Cars move much faster, which means more bumps per minute. The axle on an automobile is solid - so when the right tire hits a bump, the left tire rebounds, too. Without shock absorbers, drivers would have little control or protection," Anderson said.

Today's automobiles have complex suspension systems designed to provide steering stability with good handling and maximum passenger comfort. It's important that the right shocks be fitted to your car, he explained, and important that your shocks are in good shape.

"Your tires are sometimes the first indicator of the need for shock absorbers. Tire wear can tell you whether you have too much toe-in or toe-out, so that your tires meet the road at the wrong angle. Bad alignment, tires that wobble or small scuff marks in your tread are some of the warning signs."

Make sure you ask yourself these questions at least once each year:

--Is the car's ride too rough?
--Does the steering wheel "Shimmy"?

--Does the front end pull to the right or left?

Do the tires show excessive or uneven wear?

--Are you finding oil leaks near your wheels?
--Is there any apparent, visible, damage like bent suspension parts, broken mountings or dents?

Anderson added, "People are hanging onto their cars longer these days. If a car's been driven 25,000 miles or so, there's a good chance it needs new shocks."

"Whenever there is an unusual 'feel' to your car, you might consider the shocks as a possible cause," he concluded. "They're one of the most important elements in passenger safety, but one of the most overlooked."
