W. P. A. PROGRAM IN TEXAS IS DISCUSSED BY ADMINISTRATOR

(By H. P. Drought, State Administrator Works Progress Administration.)
San Antonio, Aug. 26.—Texans today face the challenge of President Roosevelt and of 147,387 of our own destitute citizens. "The federal government must and will quit this business of direct relief," President Roosevelt has declared. "We are tired of living on the dole. All that we ask is a chance to earn a livelihood." Certainly, that would be the sentiment of the vast number of Texans now being given relief allotments in lieu of work where their numbers pooled today. PICKED FOR BIG JOB

The Marquess of Linlithgow, viceroy of India in succession to the earl of Willingdon, whose five-year term will expire next April.

now registered on the relief rolls of the state. We have been allocated more than $50,000,000 to expend toward wrecking the dole in every county and city in Texas. That vital task has been placed squarely before WPA by the national administration. Our responsibility is yours in the counties and towns of Texas. We have the money to spend, you have the needed work projects and you are the men and women who must work. Your task, and it is one which must be performed at once, is to decide how money may be spent to provide jobs for the largest possible number of unemployed in your district. The double incentive of providing work for the jobless and of securing needed public improvement benefit to your community is offered by WPA. Necessity for speed in suggesting projects is justified by advice from Washington authorities that not nearly enough proposals have been presented at national headquarters. Thus admonished, every state will be striving to gain precedence for its program. Texas has presented a mere three and one-half millions in works proposals for federal improvements at the end of the week of August 17. We are anxious to have twenty million dollars in projects in the hands of federal examiners by the end of this month. Our state is peculiarly adapted, due to physical advantages, to such ambitious projects as lateral farm-to-market roads. Too, elasticity of project requirements makes it easy to find many types of needed improvements to which WPA energies may be devoted. With proper co-operation from our political sub-divisions, any of which may participate in the program, this state can forge far ahead on the federal allotment schedule. This opportunity for states, counties, and cities to get permanent, lasting improvements at a minor fraction of the cost may not arrive again. No county in Texas is so "broke" that its paper would not be accepted by practically any materials dealer in the state. Construction material costs may easily be spread over a period of years, so that the burden would not be too heavy. WPA's expenditure in your community is limited, in most instances, only by the number of unemployed your project will put to work. We are restricted only by the necessity of receiving the ed course in approving projects. We must earnestly urge, therefore, that sponsors exercise possible haste in submitting projects. It cannot be emphasized that those sponsors who delay in submitting proposals in the hope of getting a higher per cent grant will be doomed to disappointing chances of their own unemployment to get jobs. Drastic curtailment of FEDERAL allotments scheduled for November I will place the burden of unemployment on our own needy upon the shoulders of WPA and you will have awaiting those persons who relief grants are discontinued. Procrastinate and you will have your own chances for receiving benefits of worthwhile improvements and you will be ignoring the plea of your unemployed neighbors who await an opportunity to remove themselves from the morale-shattering influence of the dole. Charles O'Brien of Seattle, a court order ejecting his mother-in-law from his home and forcing her to return. Pieces of bone from the leg of Albert Tampusett of London were grafted into his spine, effecting complete recovery from a neck injury. The right ear of George G. Shon, a North Dakota farmer, was bitten off by a vicious horse. Court costs in a suit brought Oklahoma over ownership of a cow valued at $45 have advanced to $150, and the case is yet to go to the supreme court. SORE GUMS—PYORRHEA. Foul breath, loose teeth, bleeding gums are disgusting to both patient and family. LETO'S PINKETTES REMEDY is highly recommended by leading dentists and other appointments. TO HEAD HULL HOUSE

Announcement is made of the selection of Mrs. Adena Miller Rich to be president of Hull House, the Chicago neighborhood settlement founded and made famous by the late Jane Addams, whom she will succeed as its head.

Mrs. Rich was associated with Miss Addams in the work of the settlement for 20 years and for several years has been its first vice president, hence is eminently fitted to carry on the work of her distinguished predecessor, who died last May.

Described as "tall, alert, with kindly blue eyes, and a sympathetic address that denotes years of close association with the homeless and friendless," Mrs. Rich is the wife of a Crocoago broker.

Aside from her activities at Hull House she is a director of the Immigrants' Protective League, also a director of the Illinois League of Women Voters, and of the Woman's City Club. When notified of her new appointment, she said: "Jane Addams was more than the president of Hull House—she was a mother to us all. Any woman that I might arrange for the operation of the house will naturally be based on a continuation of the humanitarian principles on which she founded the institution."

Mrs. Rich will assume her duties as president on October 1, and will be succeeded in the first vice presidency by Miss Grace Abbott, former head of the children's bureau of the Department of Labor.

Some rude boys have been tampering with the street lights, turning on and off the switch. It would be well for them to let the lights alone. Some have gone so far as to throw stones at the lights. A little control by the parents along this line might save them not only the humiliation of the boys' prosecution, but the expense also.

Will you join us in a prayerful preparation for a great meeting. Further announcement next week.
J. A. PHIPPS, Pastor.

Methodist Church
We begin the fall session of the church school Sunday. We would like that every child who starts to school on Monday would be present also Sunday. This could be made possible if every parent considered the spiritual welfare of the child as important as the mental training. Goodness is far more valuable than cleverness. New people will be moving in for school advantages and the church is anxious to contact them that it may be of service to them. May every loyal Methodist come to this service Sunday and bring someone with you. We went over the 200 mark by nine on August 25. We invite the visitors at that service to become regular attendants. Communion service in the morning and evening service on the lawn.

There are only two and a half months left of this conference year and we are now on the home stretch and if every member and friend of the church will find their place and do their part God will be pleased and the church strengthened.
"Come with us and we will do this good."
MARVIN BROTHERTON, Pastor.

REAL WAR HERO?

Determined to obtain for Sergt. Bernard J. Early, shown above, of New Haven, the credit given to Sergt. Alvin C. York of Pall Mall, Tenn., for annihilating a German machine-gun battalion, the Connecticut department of the American Legion adopted a resolution calling on congress to award the Congressional Medal to the Connecticut veteran. Sergeant Early is totally disabled due to war injuries. The resolution asserted that the capture of the Germans in the Argonne forest was effected by Early and that he turned them over to Sergeant York, then his corporal, to take back to the lines.

False Economy in Medical Matters Often Dangerous

Austin, Texas, Aug. 29.—In these times no one can be blamed for economizing. In fact, thrift is commendable. The reckless spending of the speculative era is no longer possible for most of us. Nevertheless, there are limits even to one's thrift. Commodities must be circulated if business is to improve. Consequently, the purse tendency to hold the purse strings less tightly is a hopeful economic sign. Unfortunately, however, an entirely unwarranted caution is being exercised by many where expenditures involve medical services, stated Dr. John W. Brown, State Health Officer. Even in the days when money was plentiful, there were numerous persons who were disinclined to incur doctors' bills. No one can deny that such an attitude is false economy.

While it is true that the medical and surgical sciences never have been so highly developed as they are today, they only will be of minimum value to those who, because of an illogical sense of value, refuse to seek medical advice promptly and thus substitute their own ideas of treatment for a self-diagnosed condition.

Splendid, comprehensive and efficient as public health services may be in the mass control of disease, there yet remains the individual obligation to supplement or complement these activities by the adoption of sane living principles, and a full realization of the value of prompt medical attention when one becomes ill.

Who Pays for ADVERTISING?

Contrary to public opinion, it is not the advertiser himself, because if he did so the incentive for extensive advertising would be lost.

Does the consumer pay the cost? Certainly not. If he could buy more economically from the non-advertiser he would do so. Most people prefer and demand advertised products, and buy locally from consistent advertisers.

The Non-Advertiser Pays for Advertising!

Seemingly a paradox, the statement is nevertheless true. Advertising is paid for in increased volume and the volume comes from business taken away from competitors.

The cost of investment in advertising is not added to the cost of the product because the advertiser increases his sales, and sells at a corresponding saving because he enjoys quantity buying, quick turn-over, and actually makes more money on a smaller margin of profit due to the increased volume.

Bombed in Illinois Miners' War

Two rival unions of miners in Illinois have been at war for a long time, and the bombing of trains is a not uncommon incident in the conflict. The photograph shows the wreckage of a train that was blown up near Springfield. Three trainmen were badly injured.

STRAY CATS AND DOGS

The zeal of those who stress the importance of kindness to animals may sometimes appear to be a manifestation of sentimentality, yet there is generally behind it a sincere and laudable impulse.

While it may be argued that the sympathy and effort expended on unfortunate animals might better be exerted in behalf of human beings, the fact is that those who treat horses, cats and dogs with humane consideration are more likely to exhibit a similar attitude toward their fellowmen.

A New York women's organization reports that during a single year it found homes for 607 homeless dogs and 549 stray cats, while 68 dogs and 10 cats were returned to their owners through identifying tags on collars. Bronze medals were presented to two men who saved a dog at considerable risk to themselves.

An important work for such an organization is the humane education of children, many of them most of whom have an apparent tendency to make life miserable for helpless animals, particularly those not their own. In some cases the mistreatment of animals is merely the result of thoughtlessness and may be checked by kindly admonition, in others there appears to be a tendency toward wanton cruelty, which sterner measures are necessary to repress.

The teaching of kindness to animals should have a place in the training of every child and it can be taught better by personal experience than in any other way. To befriend a stray cat or dog is to teach a lesson in humaneness to all who observe the act. And such lessons are worth while.

Small American flags missing from veterans' graves at Port Huron, Mich., were found to have been used by chipmunks to line their nests.

An applicant was refused a fishing license at Fairmont, W. Va., because he admitted he had never been naturalized. He was a full-blooded Indian, and told the official: "I am more of an American than you are."

Hectic Days Sleepless Nights

IF YOU are nervous today, you probably will not sleep well tonight. If you don't sleep well tonight, you will probably be nervous tomorrow.

Don't allow yourself to become nervous. Take Dr. Miles Nerveine. It will relax your tense nerves and let you get a good night's sleep.

Irritability, Restlessness, Sleeplessness, often lead to Nervous Headache, Nervous Indigestion, Hysteria—sometimes to a nervous breakdown and organic trouble.

Some of the people, whose letters are printed below, were as nervous as you are—possibly more so—yet they have found relief.

Three years ago I was so nervous I could not bear to go out in company and could not sleep nights. A friend recommended Dr. Miles Nerveine. I now enjoy myself thoroughly and sleep every night. Miss Juliette Currier, New Market, N. H.

I have used Dr. Miles Nerveine in liquid form and find it the best medicine for the nervous I have ever used. Christene Lanier, Middleton, Tennessee

Whenever I have over-indulged and feel restless I take one or two Nerveine Tablets just before I retire. In the morning when I awake I feel like a new person and can go about my work as usual. Dr. Miles Nerveine Tablets quiet your nerves, loosen you up and are the simplest, most convenient tablets to take I have ever found. Miss Grace Redman, St. James, Miss.

Before using your Nerveine I was very nervous and irritable. Since I have started to take it I feel so much better that my family notice the difference. I still take it from time to time and the good result is wonderful. J. H. Redding, 1027 11th Ave., Rock Island, Ill.
