NEARLY 200,000 BUSHELS WHEAT ALREADY SOLD

Wheat men estimated that about two hundred thousand bushels of Foard County wheat had been sold to the elevators at Ft. Foard City and Margaret yesterday afternoon. Wheat as a whole is testing and is averaging about sixty bushels to the bushel in weight. It is believed that the average yield of the county is averaging about sixty bushels to the acre, while it is inclined to believe that the yield is heavier than that. The price of wheat is to be fine except the price of the harvest started at $1.15 from 15 to 36 cents per bushel.

Physician Advises White Washing to Prevent Spreading of Disease

White washing of various farm buildings, such as chicken houses, hog barns, hog houses and other property is important with the coming of summer as a measure to prevent the spreading of disease, according to Dr. Rennels, county agent.

Three methods of preparing white wash are given below. The first formula is known as the government formula and while it is more difficult to prepare and contains more ingredients, yet it will stay on much longer.

Government White Wash
This formula has been used by the government for the past 30 years on the White House grounds and also on the light houses and other property. The formula below is for one-half bushel, however the quantity may be made as required:

One-half bushel of unslaked lime—10 pounds.
Slaked lime—10 pounds.
Covered during time to keep the lime black and yellow ocher will be a brownish tinge-red, ocher will give a reddish tinge.

Second Formula
Hydrated lime—25 pounds.
Common table salt—3 pounds.
Molasses—one-half pint.
Ground alum—one and one-half pounds.
Water—five gallons.

Third Formula
Quick lime—30 pounds.
Sulphur—4 pounds.
Water to make a thin paste.

Only Five Marriage Licenses Issued In Foard Co. This Year

The Texas marriage law and the general depression have made the marriage license department of the office of the local county clerk, Grady Magee, a non-profitable institution. So far in 1931 only five licenses have been issued and the first half of the year is almost up. At this same time last year eight licenses had been issued.

No licenses were issued in June last year while two have been issued this year. Of the five licenses issued this year, four have been to white couples and one to a negro couple. A total of twelve licenses were issued during 1930. The Texas marriage law went into effect in June, 1929, and thirty licenses were issued during that year. Eighty-six licenses were issued during 1928.

FOARD COUNTY LIBRARY HAS SHOWN GROWTH

Although it is still operating on a small scale, yet the Foard County library has shown an excellent and steady growth since its establishment in February, 1930, by the Foard County Federation of Women's Clubs, the organization which is still sponsoring this institution.

The library is located in the office of the county treasurer, Miss Margaret Curtis, which is next to the west entrance to the basement of the court house. Miss Curtis also acts as librarian.

At the time it was started the library had 93 volumes and a membership of nine. It now has 491 volumes and 61 members. Part of the books have been purchased, however, the library has really been made possible through the interest of those who have donated books to it and it is through these donations that the library has secured most of its volumes.

The County Federation established the library as part of its program and purpose in aiding and bettering the community in which it exists in any way possible. In starting a county library that organization has performed a service of the utmost importance to the people of this county.

WHEAT FIELDS ON FARMS OF J. H. CARTER, T. N. BELL AND S. T. KNOX SUFFER HEAVY LOSS FROM FIRE

Foard County suffered its second and third disastrous wheat field fires during the past week. Saturday afternoon around 175 acres were destroyed in the fields of J. H. Carter and T. N. Bell, about six miles east of Crowell.

More than two hundred persons from Crowell and the community surrounding the field joined in fighting the rapidly spreading flames in the 1,000-acre wheat field. The Crowell chemical fire truck and a number of plows were brought into use before the flames were finally checked.

The fire is said to have started from a spark from the exhaust on the tractor used in pulling a binder that had started work in the fields belonging to Mr. Bell. About 50 acres were destroyed in his field and about 125 in the Carter field. No insurance was carried.

Another fire broke out Monday afternoon in the 265-acre wheat field on the S. T. Knox farm, six miles south of Crowell, and about two hundred acres were destroyed before the fire was brought under control. As was the case with the other fires, large numbers joined in fighting the flames and the Crowell chemical truck, and members of the local fire department who handled it, proved of great assistance.

The blaze started when a tractor pulling a combine in the field back-fired. The $2,000 combine belonging to Earl Steele, was almost totally destroyed and the tractor was slightly damaged. No insurance was carried on these machines. The wheat was insured. Mr. Knox stated that it was averaging thirty bushels to the acre.

On June 2 about 200 acres of wheat were destroyed by a fire near Foard City on the A. Weatherall and Lewis Sloan farms.

About 125 acres of wheat on the Wright Radford farm, 7 miles east of Quannah, were destroyed by fire Monday afternoon.

All of Self Family Here for First Time In Sixteen Years

Self, all of whom live in Crowell are: Clarence, Bert and George, and Mrs. Claude McLaughlin, Mrs. George Hinds and Miss Winnie Self.

With the exception of Riley, the entire family was together here last year, July 2, in connection with the celebration of Mr. and Mrs. Self's golden wedding anniversary.

Important to Give Proper Attention To Hens in Summer

At this time of the year when hens have a tendency to stop laying together with the facts that egg prices are low and farmers are busy with other duties, it is very easy to neglect poultry flocks in the way of feeding, watering and checking the spread of insects and disease.

Increased egg production in the fall and winter when prices are better will result if the poultry flocks are given special care at this time, according to Fred Rennels, county agent.

If plenty of water and mash are kept before the flock at all times; if plenty of shade is provided, and if proper steps are taken to prevent insect and disease loss, the results of this care will be reflected in increased production when it is most needed.

The dusting of sodium fluoride on the birds is the best method of killing lice. This is the season when intestinal worms make their appearance and there is a number of successful remedies on the market that may be secured from local druggists and feed dealers.

Whitewashing and disinfecting of poultry houses are important steps to be taken protecting poultry. Methods of preparing white wash are given in another article in this issue of The News.

Quitque Man Tells of Damage Caused by Briscoe County Flood

R. E. Wells of Quitque was in Crowell Wednesday looking for work in the wheat harvest. He was one of the farmers of the Quitque section that suffered heavily in the flood there on Monday night, June 8.

Mr. Wells state that a ten inch rain fell within a period from about 5:30 in the afternoon to about 12 o'clock that night. What cotton survived the rain was killed by sandstorms on the Wednesday, Saturday and Sunday following, according to Mr. Wells, who lost two hundred acres of cotton himself. He had replanted his cotton for the second time before it was wiped out by the flood and sandstorms.

The Briscoe County flood took in an area of several thousand acres along the section traversed by Pease River and Kent Creek, in the Turkey and Quitque sections. It was on the banks of Kent Creek where three children in one family lost their lives during the downpour. Their mother came near drowning, but grabbed hold of a tree as she was floating down the creek and remained in it during the night.

The Red Cross is now assisting the flood sufferers in getting more seed, and an appropriation has also been made to furnish many with food.

Mr. Wells stated that one gin is furnishing cotton seed at 17 1/2 cents per bushel and is not requiring payment until fall.

The land covered by the flood is also greatly damaged and is packed together almost as tight as new land, according to Mr. Wells.

HAIL DAMAGES MANY CROPS IN FOARD COUNTY

Close to one thousand acres were covered by a severe hail storm which struck the Gambleville community last Friday night. Many fields of wheat, which had not been cut, were practically wiped out, gardens ruined and houses damaged.

CITY PASSES 2 NEW HEALTH ORDINANCES

Two ordinances, that are printed in full elsewhere in this issue of The News, were passed by the city Council Tuesday night. The following comment relative to the ordinance is made by Willis E. Collins, sanitarian for the State Health Department, whose headquarters are in Seymour:

Two measures were passed on Tuesday night which will have a great effect on the spread of such diseases as typhoid, dysentery, cholera, and hookworm. The City of Crowell is to be congratulated upon having a council which has the personal welfare of its people at heart and is willing to take steps to prevent the influx and spread of disease with the necessary preventative measures.

The Standard Milk Ordinance will enable the local dairymen to build up their milk production to a definite standard as set forth by the City Council and the State Health Department. Compliance with these regulations on the part of the dairymen will make it possible for the city to guarantee a clean, safe milk to the consumer. Milk is the only food sold to the people which cannot be washed. It is therefore very important that the consumer is assured that every reasonable precaution be used in order to produce the best grade of milk. It is a real step on the path of progress that the City of Crowell has taken; one which other cities should gladly imitate.

The Pit Privy ordinance will enable the city of Crowell to do away with a serious menace. It is commonly known that diseases mentioned above are brought to man most frequently by flies or insects coming in contact with human excreta which contains the germs causing these diseases. Since the depositing of human excreta on the surface of the ground enables the flies to come in contact with the germs would not it be safer to construct the privies in such a way that flies would be excluded from the human excreta and in that way the further spread of these filth diseases could be prevented. That is what the Pit privy ordinance will help the citizens of Crowell to do.

Satisfactory compliance with this ordinance will not necessarily mean the construction of a new toilet but rather the repairing of the present privy to meet the new requirements. The repairing can be easily done by utilizing the scrap lumber lying about the place.

The pit should be dug according to the dimensions as set forth in the ordinance. A post or 2 by 4 set in each corner of the pit with a curbing around it will serve as a foundation and keep the pit from caving. All cracks in the floor, seat, or back of the building below the seat level should be closed with boards to prevent entrance of flies. Self closing lids can be made to work readily by using pieces of inner tubes or insides of casings for hinges. A box flue can be made out of 1 by 4 material or metal downspouting over 3 inches in diameter will also be satisfactory. The house should be banked at least a foot with earth to shed the rainwater. Successful operation of this toilet will depend upon keeping it dry. No garbage, rainwater or foreign matter should be allowed to enter the pit. Toilet paper should be used as this will decompose readily and heavy paper will prevent bacteria action. The principal thing to bear in mind is that a fly will not enter a dark place. Keep the lids closed and close all the cracks so that the fly will cease to be a menace to the community and you. Any further information desired may be obtained through Mayor C. T. Schlaegel or City Secretary Tanner Billington.

Three methods of preparing white wash are given below. The first formula is known as the government formula and while it is more difficult to prepare and contains more ingredients, yet it will stay on much longer.

THIS WEEK in Washington

Special to Foard County News Washington, D. C., June 18 (Auto-caster)—There is no longer any question in the minds of political gossipers here as to who is the leading candidate for the Democratic nomination for President in 1932. Franklin D. Roosevelt, Governor of New York, is much more strongly entrenched in the lead today than Al Smith was at this time four years ago, while his position is a thousand times better than that of Woodrow Wilson in 1911. No attempt has been made to try and line up delegates for the big convention this far in advance, although Governor Roosevelt's "non-political" visit to Ex-Governor Cox of Ohio, the 1920 candidate when Roosevelt ran in second place on the ticket, and to George White, the present governor, drew the statement from Mr. Cox that he would be glad to support Roosevelt for the nomination, while Mr. White proved more than friendly to Roosevelt. What the hot weather prophets look upon as the greatest boost for the New York governor is the public announcement by Col. Edward Mandell House that he wants Roosevelt to run and will be glad to do anything to further his prospects. If Col. House should be made Roosevelt's campaign manager it will mean that the Republicans will have to extend themselves to win. House's support of Wilson proved the turning point in the war president's career, and Wilson's victory was largely due to the astute politics played by the man from Texas. Col. House, in his statement, declares if Roosevelt is defeated for the nomination, he will back Newton D. Baker as his second choice. In many ways Col. House is the most powerful politician in the Democratic ranks, if not in the entire country. A millionaire, he has shown not the slightest desire for political preferment for himself, declining the highest offices in the gift of President Wilson. He is a politician out of sheer love for the game. Although 73 years old he is wiry and active and can hold his own with much younger men, physically. Col. House is a "dry," politically but is well liked by the "wets" for his stand against national prohibition. He is believed to have inspired Wilson's famous letter in which he declared that prohibition was a local question and should be kept out of national politics. Roosevelt, while a dry personally, holds the same position as Wilson on liquor, that it is not a matter for the Federal Government but a purely local question. Being a dry has not been easy for Col. House. The Democrats of Texas split wide open years ago on the liquor question and it needed all of Col. House's astuteness to pull victory out of the fire caused by the gaps made in his fences by the question. If he handles Roosevelt's campaign it will be up to him to manoeuvre so that the wets and dries of his party can find a common basis on which to work for the success of the national ticket. A "moist plank" will have to be explained very carefully to Southern Democrats but, if anyone can make them adopt such a plank, it is felt that Col. House is that man. Washington gossip believe that John J. Raskob's effort to "put over" Al Smith again is already a failure, and that Governor Ritchie of Maryland, an out-and-out wet, right now is Roosevelt's leading opponent for the nomination. His stand on liquor is felt to be against him, much as he is liked personally. At the present moment, close students of politics can see nothing but a race between Hoover and Roosevelt in the 1932 presidential campaign and the New Yorker, with the prestige of following exactly in Wilson's footsteps as far as the liquor question is concerned, and the advantage of having the same sponsor as Wilson, is in a most powerful position, even his opponents say. Woodrow Wilson has been dead 7 years and it is ten years since he left the White House to become a private citizen. In those years his enemies have exhausted their vituperations and the real Wilson is beginning to emerge as a popular figure. Lincoln was only a Republican idol until some forty years ago, when the whole country began to understand that he belonged to all parties and his true greatness began to be appreciated. Wilson's memory is undergoing the same process and the coming campaign may see his name used with that of Jefferson, for the purpose of conjuring votes for Roosevelt.

Jimmy Murphy, four-year-old youngest of Memphis, is now a ward of the Rotary Club.

Miss Harriet Anderson will represent North Carolina at the Anole Blossom fete.

College Station, Texas, June 18— "Nothing steals poultry profits like outbreaks of disease," says Dr. R. G. Dunn, school of veterinary medicine, Texas A. & M. College, whose discussions of poultry diseases at the twenty-second annual Farmers Short Course at the college the week of July 27 will be among the features of the poultry program.

"To make poultry a dependable source of income the average farm has increased the number of chickens and this has brought about greater contamination of the yards, making disease prevention an important item to be considered. Frequent and thorough cleaning of the house is the first requirement of good sanitation. A double yarding system aids greatly in keeping down the contamination of the range as it permits one side to be plowed up and reseeded to green feed, while the flock is ranging on the other portion. Water vessels are often the cause of spreading disease unless they are of a type that prevents birds from getting into them and that can be easily cleaned."

The short course poultry program Thursday, July 30, will be devoted exclusively to sanitation and poultry diseases of chickens and turkeys, including intestinal worms. Other topics of discussion during the week will include economics of the Texas poultry situation in relation to United States and world-wide conditions; methods of reducing cost of production taken from actual farm records; methods of brooding, feeding and managing baby chicks; and hatching, raising and finishing quality turkeys for market.

Consider your Adam's Apple!★

Don't Rasp Your Throat With Harsh Irritants

"Reach for a LUCKY instead"

Eve started it and the daughters of Eve inherited it. Eve gave Adam the apple, and it seems that Adam must have passed it on. For every man and every woman has an Adam's Apple. Put your finger on your Adam's Apple—that is your larynx, your voice box—it contains your vocal chords. Consider your Adam's Apple—when you do so, you are considering your throat—your vocal chords. Don't rasp your throat with harsh irritants. Reach for a LUCKY instead. Here in America LUCKY STRIKE is the only cigarette which brings you the added benefit of the exclusive "TOASTING" Process, which includes the use of modern Ultra Violet Rays. It is this exclusive process that expels certain harsh irritants present in all raw tobaccos. These expelled irritants are sold to manufacturers of chemical compounds. They are not present in your LUCKY STRIKE. And so we say "Consider your Adam's Apple."

TOO HANDY WITH GUNS

Another most regretted double killing by a quick triggered deputy sheriff is reported from Oklahoma, where two Mexican youths, one of them a cousin of President Rubio, were slain on the public highway.

The slayer and another deputy accompanying him say one of the boys drew a pistol as the officers approached their parked car to question them as to what they were doing. Whether this be true or not, the boys were dead and can not give their side of the case.

WHEN TO ADVERTISE

The question most frequently asked of advertising men is: "When should I advertise?"

There are two kinds of advertising—constructive and destructive. The question can be answered by the simple expedient of determining which kind of advertising you prefer to have associated with your business.

Constructive advertising is consistent advertising; it builds business in much the same way that compound interest builds bank accounts.

The question therefore answers itself. If you want to advertise constructively, the time to advertise is now—today, tomorrow, next week and next month.

SLAVES STILL EXIST

It is almost incredible that there should still be 5,000,000 or more human beings existing in abject slavery in various parts of the world.

Slavery is found, it is said, in nearly a score of countries, and is especially prevalent in Abyssinia, China, Hedjaz and Liberia. A traveler in Abyssinia has described "slavery, open, cruel and fiendish, gangs of slaves marching in misery, the men chained together in rows, an dthe women and children dragging themselves along beside the main body."

Carle Conway, head of the Continental Can Company, has a customer in Massachusetts who makes Cranberry sauce.

They dined together, and after dinner the talk turned to world business conditions which, says Carle, "seem to have eliminated prohibition from conversation, so that there is that much to be said in favor of depression at least."

The Cranberry man said: "During the war I was making cranberry sauce and we were not able to get sugar except at an exorbitant price. Everyone in the industry said we had better get out of business because we had to have sugar to make cranberry sauce, and sugar at thirty cents a pound would stop sales."

"I went into a huddle with myself that night and came to the conclusion that I would let the customers decide whether they would buy cranberry sauce made with thirty-cent sugar; that I had just one job in the world and that was to run my business, and I was going to let the world take care of itself, and everyone else take care of himself, and I was going to figure how I could take care of my business and solve the problems each day as they came along."

"I did not think I was big enough to help or harm the world's progress, but I did think I could help or harm my own business."

One thing which makes this depression seem more discouraging than others is the fact that all countries have been so closely knit together. In other periods of slow business we in the United States did not worry because the coffee market was bad in Brazil or the corn plaster industry had collapsed in Timbuctoo.

This year our newspapers, through their truly wonderful news gathering forces, have brought us all the bad tidings from everywhere. The result is that the average American business man is going around trying to carry the troubles of the whole big world.

I may be all wrong, but my idea about the other countries is that they are all having serious difficulties, just as we are, but in every one of them there is a solid backbone of people just like you and me—hard working, sensible men and women who have their homes and families, who do not want to see the social order overthrown and who are doing their individual best to solve their own problems.

Ultimately, I believe, this silent majority will win. In the meantime, when anybody comes into my office to discuss world conditions, I courteously ask to be excused. I am trying hard to work out my own salvation.

If everybody in the world does that the world will be saved.

TODAY AND TOMORROW

Technical problems to be overcome are the most difficult they have ever encountered. Leaders in radio development are hopeful but not certain.

Today a small picture in motion can be sent by radio, or better by wire, over apparatus which costs about $100,000 at each end of the line.

Annual Ranchmen's Round-Up at Sonora On August 11 and 12

College Station, Texas, June 18—The sixth annual Ranchmen's Round-up at the Ranch Experiment Station, between Sonora and Rocksprings, will be held August 11-12, Director A. R. Conner of the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station has announced. This yearly gathering, fostered since 1925 by the Sheep and Goat Raisers Association of Texas, brings together ranchmen and their families from all over the Edwards Plateau region. Many of them travel more than 200 miles to attend the two-day session given over to discussion of livestock problems particularly pertinent to their section. Various recreational features, typical of the ranch country, enliven the meetings.

No round-up was held during the summer of 1930 because of conflicting conditions. Attendance at the 1931 meeting is expected to be around 2,000, the average for round-ups of the past. Tom Bond, Sonora, at a meeting in May of directors of the sheep and goat raisers association, was named chairman of the association committee to work with the experiment station authorities in formulating program for the 1931 meeting.

As announced by Director Conner, this year's program will emphasize progress made at the Ranch Experiment Station and elsewhere in study and methods of control of diseases and other livestock troubles of concern to the ranchman. Demonstrations in posting animals will be given.

The Edwards Plateau region, served by the substitution where the round-up will be held, provides range for most of the 3,000,000 Angora goats and 6,000,000 sheep to be found in Texas, a total of about 83 per cent of the Angora goats of the United States and a sheep total in excess of that in any other state of the Nation.

Summer Schools on Soil Conservation To Start June 30

Austin, Tex., June 18—The program of farm terracing demonstrations sponsored by a group of agricultural agencies, which start June 30, was commended to farmers all over the state today by J. E. McDonald, commissioner of agriculture, as an opportunity to learn practical lessons in soil conservation.

The program was planned by A. K. (Dad) Short of the Federal Land Bank, Houston; M. R. Bentley, extension service of A. & M. College; and R. Reece, agricultural agent of the M. K. T. Railroad.

They will be in active charge of the demonstrations, assisted by representatives of the state department of agriculture, the department of vocational agriculture, county commissioners, courts, and other organizations in the communities in which the demonstrations will be held.

The first demonstration will be on Hollandale Farm in Dallas county, owned and operated by Frank P. Holland, publisher of Farm and Ranch, who has taken an active interest in the work.

For the first time this year the committee planned to take advantage of the new law allowing use of county owned road machinery in terracing farm lands, members of the committee pointing out that with this aid, the maximum amount of work could be accomplished.

Schools will extend over the entire summer, with demonstrations in several different sections of the state. The itinerary has not been completed.

Commending the program to all persons interested in agriculture, McDonald declared too little attention had been paid to soil conservation in Texas.

"Our soil," he said, "is our most valuable natural resource, and we have been mining it at an alarming rate. All interested in soil conservation would do well to attend these terracing demonstrations and obtain valuable and instructive information from these men who are devoting their time to this most important work."

How One Woman LOST 47 LBS.

In 3 Months and Feels Years Younger

Mrs. S. A. Solomon of New Bern, N. C. lost 47 lbs. in 3 months with Kruschen Salts. She reduced from 217 to 170 lbs. She feels much stronger, years younger and pains in sides, back and abdomen that bothered her for years are all gone. She says she not only feels better but looks better as all her friends tell her.

"I shall never be without Kruschen Salts, will never cease taking my daily dose and more than glad to highly recommend it for the great good that is in it."

A bottle of Kruschen Salts that lasts 4 weeks costs but 85 cents at all druggists the world over. Take one half teaspoon in a glass of hot water every morning before breakfast.

Attention to diet will help—cut out pastry and fatty meats—go light on potatoes, butter, cream and sugar—the Kruschen way is the safe way to lose fat. Try one bottle and if not joyfully satisfied—money back.

Uncle Bill Wheeler got a tire punctured Sunday by the prank of a playful nag running in his lot and was laid up for a few days by the injury.

J. W. Allison, Duke Wallace, and J. D. Leeper accompanied Rev. J. E. Billington to Monkey Run school house Saturday night and a good crowd of the voters of the vicinity met them and heard a good strong prohibition talk by Bro. Billington.

Paul Shirley received a vicious kick in the mouth by a jack Wednesday, loosening all the teeth on one side and painfully cutting and bruising his lips, chin and jaw.

Tricky Mules

Garland Burns took a part of his gentlemen friends to the railroad tank Tuesday night behind the tricky mule team of the Crowell Grocery Co. and when these perverse hybrids had reached the point in the program where they thought it was time for them to put on a few vaudeville specialties the performance came right off then and there. While the mules came-walked and waltzed and did a lively two-step, three-step and then some other performers did some ground and lefty bumbling which the mules were inclined to endorse, but the boys somehow failed to enter into the spirit of the occasion with the same zeal, and there was no response. But the News learns that Jess Howard can stand on his head longer than any of them, as ever and Tom Hazzard can slide further on one eyeball than any amateur in Texas, that Garland Burns can bump a stump harder without jarring any teeth loose than any other boy and that J. D. Leeper is the most graceful somersaulter and can hammer further on his elbows and shoulders than any man in Crowell who has had no more training than he has.

When this troupe of specialists ambled into town they found the mulemen standing in front of the store as meek and innocent as Jake Walters after he has put one of his deceptive stunts over on the State-widlers. The wagon now sports a new tongue, and the boys are afflicted with the dry grins. But the mules are as peart and chippy as ever and are right for a repeat performance.

Last Sunday was a day of promise. The crowds were good in spite of the fact that so many were harvesting. We could hope that our people would observe the sabbath to their greatest possible power during these days. The test is on. Remember He who blessed us with the good grain crop has power to give wealth and to withhold.

God gave us four additions to the church during the day. Two conversions and two came by letter. We were made happy by their coming. A praying soul-winning church is always well-pleasing to our Master. May our church ever be a soul-winning church.

Next Sunday, Sunday School at 9:45; preaching at 11 and 8:15; B. Y. P. U. training service at 7:15; prayermeeting at 8:00 p. m. Wednesday, The T. E. L. Class will have full charge of the prayer meeting. Let all the church come and help them.

On account of going to Eldorado last Sunday afternoon to baptize eight young people, I remained with the brethren there and preached in the evening at which time one good lady came into the church by reinstatement and therefore did not preach the sermon, "Satan, a God and a Prince," at the evening hour as announced. CAUSING OTHERS TO STUMBLE
Romans 14:13-23

Rev. Samuel D. Price, D. D.

The Minneapolis Times said on March 2, "Prohibition has come to the forefront as the leading national issue." This was the opinion after a poll had been taken. Administration of Justice was second on the list. Thus in giving attention to the quarterly temperance lesson you are but in harmony with the popular study of the day.

Paul was writing to the Romans from Corinth and took his illustration from things that respect should be killed and certain parts only offered to idols in worship. The rest was meat absolutely good for food. Many Christians objected to eating meat which had first been offered to idols. The Apostle says that respect should be paid to personal opinion and a thing omitted for the sake of the good in another which might not be any harm in itself. He gave as a good reason for such conduct: "For the kingdom of God is not meat and drink, but righteousness, and peace, and joy in the Holy Spirit." The question about how much we will give for the sake of another centers around the consideration of how much we really love our fellow man and desire his greatest good.

In the case of the beverages, use of liquor, the matter is decided different, for alcohol is always poison. History does not contain a paragraph that credits intoxicating liquor with a single achievement that has benefited mankind.

SERMONETTE

WHAT WILL YOU DO WHEN YOU GET THERE?

By Arthur B. Rhinow

Emerging from the tunnel our attention was arrested by a sign on the cliff.

"Honest now," it said in large letters, "what will you do when you get there?"

For the moment we had no time to discuss the question with ourselves or with others. We had to adjust our shifts in order to keep up with the procession of automobiles, some of them honking impatiently. Besides, we were preoccupied with the plans of the day. But the question had a way of persistent intrusion.

What will I do when I get to my destination? Silly insinuation. As though I didn't know. I know exactly what I am going to do. I have a definite purpose. Today it is business. Tomorrow it will be pleasure. From the beautiful natural park on the rocky crest we shall view a wonderful panorama. On a clear day one can see the Brooklyn Bridge without field glasses.

Yes, but what is it all about? Why the speed to put this business deal over, to beat that competitor, or to rush through a few hours of fun. We know exactly what we are going to do when we get there; but is that all we are going to do? Perhaps we had better turn into this country road where we can slow down and stop and think, and give our best self a chance. Life is more than making a living. Then why not live. Why not touch the hand of Him who knows the meaning of it all, who knows just what we are going to do and what we have done in their higher significance. "Get there" is slang for achieving success. Honest now, what will you do when you "get there"? See your triumphs turn into dry leaves because you were selfish, or into fruit to feed the hungry because you worked with God.

Foreign Beauties Here for Galveston's Annual Show

American girls will have to look to their laurels, judging by the looks of six European beauties who have crossed the Atlantic in an effort to become "Miss Universe." The girls are (left to right) Lucienne Nabman, France; Gerd Johansen, Sweden; Karen Schmitz, Denmark; Dany Friedberg, Germany; and Miss Belgium, Belgium.

Miss Belgium" Wins

Incidentally, members of the staff of the Foard County News passed judgment on the picture upon its arrival and accordingly acclaimed the Belgian girl as "Miss Universe."

There were several days before she was officially selected. Maybe we should make application as judges for the next pageant.

Mrs. Williams Speaks At Rotary Luncheon

Mrs. Reid Williams of Loveland, Colorado, was the principal speaker at the luncheon of the Rotary Club Wednesday. Miss Jo Bourk was also on the program and gave two enjoyable readings.

Mrs. Williams, who is here visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Self, is the county superintendent of schools in Lamar County, Colorado. She gave an interesting discussion of the school system in Colorado as compared to that in Texas. She stated that each state enrolled the other in certain types of school work and that while the Colorado system was ahead of the system of this state at present, the school system of Texas was making more rapid progress in improvements than was the state in Colorado.

In stressing the importance of good school systems, Mrs. Williams stated, "As the school goes, so goes the citizenship of a community."

Mrs. Riley Self of Sacramento, California, was a visitor at the luncheon.

Library—

Library it has been a valuable asset and though it is not a large library at present, yet it has many fine and interesting books and the one dollar yearly membership for a family is indeed small when compared with the value received in the reading of the best literature. Of most importance, however, is the fact that in starting the library the County Federation planted a seed which will result in considerable growth with the passing of each year and consequently its value will continually increase.

The real purpose in establishing the library was to provide the people of Foard County an opportunity to read the best literature at a minimum of cost and for that reason the annual dues have been set at only one dollar.

- Rules
- The following rules governing the operation of the library have been used since its establishment:
  1. Membership fee for residents—$1.00 per year.
  2. Membership fee for family privilege only.
  3. No books read without presentation of library card and no card transferable.
  4. Deposit of non-residents—$1.00 per year.
  5. Amount of five cents per day to be paid on books by non-residents.
  6. Reference books may be kept for three days only.
  7. Ordinary fiction may be kept 5 days.
  8. New fiction may be kept five days.
  9. Fines on all books kept over-time—five cents per day.
  10. Readers shall reimburse library for books lost.
  11. No person allowed more than two books at a time.
  12. All money taken in by library to be used for maintenance of library only.

It is hoped that anyone who has good books for which they have no further use, will donate them to the library.

The following books of fiction have recently been purchased by the library and are now in it: "All the King's Horses" by Margaret Wilder; "High Fences," and "The Twenty-Fourth of June," by Grace S. Richmond; "The Understanding Heart," by Peter B. Kyne; "Little Men," "Little Women," and "Eight Cousins," by Louisa M. Alcott;

District winners in the fourth state-wide improved room contest have been announced by Mrs. Bernice Clayton home improvement specialist in the Extension Service, Texas A. & M. College and the U. S. Department of Agriculture. The contest is conducted annually by the home demonstration agents of Texas in co-operation with the Semi-Weekly Farm News, a Dallas farm publication. The contest this year involved 87 farm women in 48 counties. At least ten times that number of neighbors made partial improvements. Judging was by home demonstration agents who exchanged districts for judging.

Winners of District 2 (Northwest Texas) were: Class 1—First, Mrs. L. T. Wright, Benjamin, Knox County; second, Mrs. J. O. McCluer, Loving Young County; third, Mrs. Russell Morris, Seymour, Baylor County. Class 2—First, Mrs. J. H. Adams, Lamesa, Dawson County; second, Mrs. W. E. Logan, Amberst, Lamb County; third, Mrs. Lynn Martin, Ivan, Stephens County.

Class one included those making improvements that cost less than $50; class two, in excess of that amount. First place district winners in each class will be judged during the next few weeks by Miss Mildred Horton, state home demonstration agent, for announcement of state winners at the Farmers Short Course at A. & M., July 27 to Aug. 1. District and state prizes are given by the Semi-Weekly Farm News.

Mrs. C. D. Hall of the Black community was the winner of this contest in Foard County this year.

THALIA AND ROCHESTER LEADING LEAGUE RACE

Thalia and Rochester are now tied for first place in the West Belt Baseball League as a result of Thalia's 5 to 3 victory over Medicine Mound on the latter's diamond, and the fact that Rochester tied with Seymour in the sixth round of play this week.
