OIL ACTIVITY HERE QUITER THAN EXPECTED

Oil activity in Foard County has proceeded with a slower tempo during the early weeks of spring than was expected by those familiar with conditions. It was confidently predicted by those associated with the local oil development that the early spring would see a great deal of drilling activity in the county. This prediction has failed of fulfillment on a large scale.

The M. C. Hammock, et al. I. W. Middlebrook well, located one mile north of Margaret, in the southwest quarter of Section No. 363, Block A, H. & T. C. Ry. Co. Survey, is drilling ahead at about 1100 feet, having encountered no shows at that depth. A gas sand was expected in this well at around 900 feet, and although this gas sand failed to materialize, it is still expected that the well will probably make a producer from the equivalent of the Tarver lime. Allowing for normal dip and known geological structures this stratum is expected to be reached at about 2200 feet. The log of the well is being checked with the old Texas Company Hlavaty No. 1 located about two miles southwest of the Middlebrook No. 1, and is checking somewhat higher than did the Hlavaty well. A small showing of oil was encountered in the Middlebrook well and it is thought that the same structure and thus offers good prospects for production from that sand.

Owens Test

A. W. Phillips, who is promoting the drilling of the well upon the Mrs. R. T. Owens farm southeast of Margaret, was in Crowell Tuesday with information that his well would soon resume operations from a depth of 570 feet, after penetrating the red beds at an encouraging shallow depth. Empire Oil and Gas Company and the Ven-Mex Oil Company have acquired interests in this well and

Approximately 200 members representing about 25 of the some 61 Farmers Co-Operative Gin Societies of Texas met in the district court room at Quanah last Saturday at a meeting called by W. W. F. L. Rennels Jr. Lays Claim to Kite Flying Championship Here

F. L. Rennels, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rennels, lays claim to the kite endurance flying championship of Foard County with a record of sixteen hours and thirty-five minutes.

F. L.'s kite took to the air at 7 p. m. last Friday and did not return to earth again until Saturday morning at 11:35 a. m. when a forced landing was caused by the wind tearing a hole in the paper of the kite. Sam Crews, Jr., and Clark Rennels, a younger brother, assisted as co-pilots in the endurance contest. At least one boy was with the kite until 2 a. m. Saturday and from then until 6 a. m. of the same day the kite was left to fly itself.

Spring Football Training Brings New Prospects

Spring football training that was resumed Monday, March 31st, after a delay of about two weeks, due to work for the county meet, will be completed at Crowell High School some time next week.

The spring training season will formally come to an end with the seniors playing all other classes.

Training has been taking place every other day with about twenty boys regularly reporting. Jack Russell and Hubert Smith who graduate from the Margaret school this year, have already started work with the team. The Margaret school only goes through the tenth grade and these two boys are going to Crowell High School next year in order to finish their high school work. Both weigh around 175 pounds.

Capheart of Thalia has also worked out in spring training some and is planning to attend Crowell High School next year. He is a capable backfield performer, having played formerly with Robstown High School. He is an excellent passer and broken field runner.

Coach Grady Graves is already working on a schedule for next season.

Crowell Schools Are Highly Complimented By State Officials

Superintendent I. T. Graves of the Crowell schools has just received a letter from the State Department of Education in which the local schools are highly complimented.

A state school supervisor was recently here and made a thorough investigation and inspection of the school system.

The budget system, adopted by the board of trustees of the Crowell Independent School District, was especially complimented in the letter.

Crowell High School is fully affiliated with the University of Texas in all of the twenty-four subjects taught.

Methodist Revival Is Making Nice Progress

Considerable interest is being shown in the Methodist revival now in progress here and fairly good crowds have been attending the services. Rev. B. J. Osborn is delivering some splendid messages.

The meeting started Sunday and will end on Easter Sunday, April 20. An urgent invitation is extended to the public to attend the services.

Jim Christian's Mother Died at Sanger Sat.

Jim Christian was called to Sanger, Texas, Friday to be at the bedside of his mother, Mrs. H. H. Christian, who died Saturday morning. Mrs. Christian had never lived here but had many friends in this town as she had visited here a number of times. She was 80 years old and has 9 children surviving her. Her husband died 7 years ago. She lived to see fifth generation.

About 75 visitors from Quanah, Ocala, Goodlett, and El Dorado, Oklahoma, were here Saturday night for a meeting of the Quanah Encampment No. 45 of the Odd Fellows. A class of thirteen was initiated after which refreshments were served to all present.

CROWELL P. T. A. WANTS PAPERS AND MAGAZINES

The Crowell Parent-Teachers Association has a number of worthwhile projects under way for the Crowell schools and is needing money to put them over. However, this organization is not asking the public for money but is asking the co-operation of the public in another manner that will not prove a hardship to anyone.

It is asking everyone to save their old papers and magazines and turn them over to the P. T. A. The papers are now being stored in the Masonic building, in the space formerly occupied by Ketchersid Furniture Company and the P. T. A. would greatly appreciate it if the people would carry their old papers and magazines there.

If this cannot be done it is requested that Mrs. L. A. Beverly, president of the P. T. A. be called, and she will see that the papers are picked up and stored in the building.

It is hoped that a carload of papers can be secured before school is out. To do this from fifteen to twenty thousand pounds of paper will be required. Magazines are especially wanted as the paper in them sells at forty cents per hundred pounds. The newspapers sell at twenty-five cents per hundred pounds. These are the prices for carload lots.

The P. T. A. is short on funds in carrying on its work that is of benefit to everyone in the Crowell Independent School District and it is hoped that the public will help them to raise money by co-operating in the manner mentioned above.

Stone Work at Court House Being Returned To Its Natural Color

Work is now being done on the court house that is greatly increasing its attractiveness. The flat stone work surrounding the building, just under the first story window and on the columns of the outside stairways, is being rubbed down with steel brushes.

Through this method the dingy color is converted into fresh looking white that does more to set the entire court house off in an attractive manner than most anything that could be done. Mortar is also being replaced where it has been wasted out between the stones. Bob Blesher and E. F. Henry, janitor, have charge of the work.

TALKING PICTURES STARTED IN CROWELL MONDAY; PICTURE FANS ARE PLEASED WITH PERFORMANCE

Large Crowd Turned Out For Opening Program at The Rialto Theatre; Public Expresses Appreciation to Theatre Officials for New Enterprise

Talking pictures in Crowell are an outstanding success, according to the hundreds of compliments that have been passed on the programs at the Rialto since talking pictures started there Monday night with the Ted Lewis picture, "Is Everybody Happy?" A packed theatre greeted the debut of talking pictures in spite of the short notice that was given the opening program.

The opening date for talkies here was indefinite last week as T. B. Richmond, manager, stated that the first program would not be given until it was reasonably certain that everything would be in proper shape so that a good talking picture could be given here as anywhere else. Mr. Richmond stated that he will continue to work toward making the pictures sound even better than they do now and is in hopes of securing a gold medal from the motion picture producers for perfect sound reproduction. Only a few theatres in the country have yet received such a medal.

T. B. Richmond and his associates, R. W. Simpson of Paducah and J. A. Nelson of Fort Worth, are certainly to be congratulated for establishing such excellent entertainment facilities for Crowell. The quality of the sound equipment and acoustical improvements in the theatre are not the only things to be commended as the quality of the pictures is certainly pleasing to picture fans.

New Pictures

One glance at the picture program for the future shows that Crowell will be showing some major pictures before they are received elsewhere in this section. "Redemption," with John Gilbert, will be shown at the Rialto Wednesday and Thursday of next week. The Rialto will be one of the very first theatres in Texas to show this all-talking production.

Monday and Tuesday, "Noah's Ark," a Warner Brothers talkie, will be shown. Among some of the pictures that are coming are: "Gold Diggers of Broadway," April 21-22; "A Lady to Love," April 23-24; April

WINNERS FOR HEN STORIES ARE CHOSEN

Miss Bonnie Cogdell, student in Crowell High School, and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Cogdell, won first place in the poultry essay contest sponsored by the Crowell Chick Hatchery on the subject, "Why Every Farm in Foard County Should Have Three Hundred Laying Hens."

Miss Lona Johnson, who lives on Route 1, was winner of second place; Vinson Hall of Crowell High School, third; and Addie Lorene Baker of Foard City, fourth; and Melba Mozell of Foard City, fifth. The first four winners will receive 100 baby chicks, 75, 50 and 25 respectively. They may choose any breed sold by the hatchery.

Excellent essays were also written by: Zelma Odle, Cecil Short, Elizabeth Brammar, Woodrow Blevins, Wood Roe Johnson, B. F. Hallmark, Jeff Bruce, Lela Parker, Beryl Harber, Mattie Polk, Tobbie Steele, Evelyn Steele, Margaret Cates, J. A. Blevins, Dale Jones, John Welch, Marie Kenner, Evelyn Greening and Rudell Russell.

The contest was open only to school children. T. L. Hughton and C. V. Allen acted as judges of the essays. Before they were turned over to these two men each essay was numbered and the names of the writers removed or obscured in some manner so that the judges would not know who wrote the essay they were reading.

Due to the fact that so many of the essays contain such worthwhile information, the News shall endeavor to publish at least one of them each week.

The first prize essay follows:

Winning Essay

Laying hens are probably one of the surest paying propositions that farms in this region can possess. The farmers can always depend upon having a market for either laying hens or their product.

In this region of Texas crops are very uncertain. Some years the crops

John Raser Winner of Flag Guessing Contest at Rotary

John Raser proved to be the star pupil at the luncheon of the Rotary Club Wednesday by correctly guessing the greatest number of countries represented by fifty-eight flags that were on display for the first time at the luncheon. The Rotary Club has just received an assortment of silk flags, representing the fifty-eight nations in Rotary.

Mr. Raser made thirty-five correct guesses and was awarded a box of stationery as a prize for his achievement by T. B. Klepper, who was in charge of the program. Que Miller was second with 28; T. N. Bell, third with 25; Eli Smith, fourth with 23; and L. W. Scott of San Antonio, fifth with 18.

Guests present at the luncheon included: L. W. Scott of San Antonio, president of the Haskell Telephone Co.; John W. Pace of Haskell, vice-president and general manager of the Haskell system; G. H. Williams of Seymour, superintendent of the same company, and J. N. Jordan of Plainview, member of the Jordan-Hall Construction Company, that is doing the city paving work here. Each of the guests made short talks. The telephone officials expressed regret that the shipment of the new switchboard for this city had been delayed but stated that it would be but a short time now until Crowell people would no longer have to turn the crank to make a call.

Mr. Pace complimented the progressiveness of Crowell in adopting the new system and stated that as yet his own city and the headquarters for the system, Haskell, which is considerably larger than Crowell, had not lined up for a modern system.

From January to July Weather in Ten Days

Thursday, March 27th, snow was falling here with the rapidity of a blizzard. Sunday, April 6th, only ten days later the mercury reached close to 90, or at least a number of thermometers here registered 89. The weather has been even hotter since Sunday and temperatures slightly above 90 have been reported. Thus we have had January and July weather in ten days time.

The hot weather and winds are causing the crops to suffer and a rain is needed badly.

CROP MAP OF TEXAS FOR MARCH IS CURIOUSLY SPOTTED; PROSPECTS IN GENERAL ABOVE THE AVERAGE

Dallas, April 10.—The crop map of Texas for the month of March, as reported by the Public Relations Department of the Southland Life Insurance Company, is curiously spotted. Prospects, in general, are excellent—perhaps more so than they have been in years. In some communities, however, the planting of crops has been seriously hampered by dry and unseasonable Spring weather. In others, strangely enough, the opposite is true—it has been far too cold and damp. Divided as to communities, these reports are indicated as follows:

Northwest: Conditions very good with spotted dry places in Southern portions, and slightly cool. North: From "fair" to favorable, with good season in most places although cool in spots for corn growth and cotton planting. Northeast: A number of counties report cool weather and rains have slowed up developments. East: Mostly favorable; occasional reports of cool weather and rains. East Central: Spotted, though generally favorable; rain needed in several counties; some complaint of winds and cold. West Central: Dry conditions reported generally although recent showers have helped situation; some counties badly in need of rain. West: All reports indicate need of rain; dry weather has seriously hampered crops. Southeast: Generally favorable now, but late spring and excessive rains have retarded activities. South: Generally favorable except that some northern counties report rain and cool weather have delayed work; warm weather needed.

One of the most encouraging aspects of the entire situation is that there are certain indications that diversification finally has taken a real hold with farmers of Texas. Almost without exception, reports indicate far greater diversification of crops than ever before. More feed crops; will be raised; the dairy industry is proving popular and profitable; poultry raising has become more widespread; and farmers, almost without exception, are apparently convinced of the wisdom of "raising their own living." Business conditions are decidedly more hopeful. Money is still tight, but in spite of these facts, income tax collections and other certain indicators have proven that money is available and that the recent stock market had but slight influence and did but slight harm in Texas.

The head of one of the State's largest financial institutions sums up the situation as follows: "Prosperity in Texas, greater than the state has ever known before, is in the offing. With even fair crop conditions, Texas should be jubilant by the time these crops are harvested, and, if this is true, the state will find itself on the soundest economic basis it has ever known."

West Texas Secures Ninety Industrial Enterprises in 1929

Ahliene, Texas, March 25.—Nearly 90 industrial enterprises were established in West Texas during 1929, according to a report compiled by the Industrial Department of the West Texas Utilities Company over the 45 counties they serve. The Department is maintained to aid Chambers of Commerce and other organizations in locating industries in West Texas.

The report consisted of major industrial concerns such as carbon black plants, gins, airports, hotels, produce companies, supply companies, compresses and other productive concerns which, though just beginning business activities during 1929, have materially added to West Texas progress. The location of these business enterprises has not only gone a great way in adding to the creative or manufacturing volume of West Texas but has also served to relieve the general unemployment condition. The new concerns have given employment to nearly 2,100 persons. This averages approximately 25 employees per concern.

Industrial development in this territory must necessarily be different from that of companies operating in large populated centers and in manufacturing areas. The towns in West Texas are small only two having a population of 25,000 or larger, the average being 2,500. In view of these facts it has been logical to build semi-large industries which go hand in hand with the major sources of income in this area.

West Texas, progressing at an above normal rate, still affords ample room for expansion, it is pointed out. The number of sizeable factories and the number of workers in them have been increasing year by year, though the supremacy of agriculture remains undisputed. Though West Texas is high in a few specialized industries, few sections have a lower degree of industrialism. The low development of general manufacturing in West Texas compared with other sections is in a large measure attributable to the inducements and often glittering opportunities open in other fields of endeavor for the employment of both labor and capital—generally, those who have been able, have exerted development of the great natural resources for which this territory is noted.

Chevrolet Coach Wins In Los Angeles Run

Los Angeles, March 27.—Competing against a field of 41 other entrants, a 1930 Chevrolet six cylinder coach, driven by Mrs. Paul A. Lawrence of Los Angeles, won the sweepstakes and first place in its class in the annual Gilmore Blue-Green Economy run here February 14.

Every type of road and grade was encountered in the run that covered 200 miles between Los Angeles and the Wrightwood mountains. Mrs. Lawrence's Chevrolet demonstrated its economical operation over a course that included city traffic, country roads and mountain stretches along a circuitous route rising from sea level to an elevation of 6,000 feet.

To win the event, the Chevrolet coach traveled 36.71 ton-miles to the gallon of gasoline, averaging 29.5 miles to the gallon for the 200 miles traversed. The total weight of the Chevrolet coach, with its driver and four passengers, was 3580 pounds. No oil and no water was used during the run.

The economy test was staged under the supervision of the American Automobile Association, sanction number 2306 and was limited to stock cars. Six classes of cars were represented among the 42 entries. The Chevrolet coach, with Mrs. Lawrence at the wheel, not only won first place in its class, but, in addition, won the sweepstakes for all classes.

When James Glynn appealed to the Detective Bureau of Chicago for help, he said the only thing he could remember was that he had been robbed of $5,000 in St. Louis.

THE FIRST REALLY NEW OIL IN 25 YEARS

This is the simple story of the new oil that is now enjoying such remarkable acceptance: Conoco Germ-Processed... In the first place, this new oil is an extraordinarily fine paraffin-base lubricant. And then... under exclusive Conoco patents, this oil is endowed with the unusual faculty of penetrating and combining with metal surfaces. This faculty, we call "Penetrative Lubricity." The Germ Process, by adding a precious oily-essence lacking in all other oils, does this... And so provides constant un-failing lubrication for your motor under any conceivable strenuousness of motor operation. Germ Process is the first fundamental improvement in refining methods in the last quarter century.

So won't you come into the next station you see bearing the Red Triangle and join the thousands of other motorists who have changed to Conoco Germ-Processed Oil in the last few weeks?

Economical Transportation

It's wise to choose a SIX!

It is wise to choose a six-cylinder motor—the only way to get six-cylinder smoothness. Six-cylinder smoothness takes out vibration and roughness. This saves motor, chassis, body, passengers, and driver.

The Chevrolet is a six. Yet it sells at a price that anyone can afford to pay. And it lasts longer, because of fine materials, oversize parts and a big, smooth, 50-horsepower six-cylinder engine that always "takes it easy."

With all its six-cylinder smoothness and power the New Chevrolet Six saves gasoline and oil, through modern efficiency—overhead valves—high compression power—latest carburetor—long-wearing pistons—crankcase ventilation—air cleaner. Thus Chevrolet brings truly modern transportation within reach of all who can afford any car. Chevrolet economy also means sincerity in manufacture. To illustrate:

Chevrolet valves are adjustable—to save replacing. Chevrolet molded brake lining greatly reduces brake upkeep. The rear axle inspection plate on the Chevrolet means accessibility.

The whole car is full of such evidence that true economy comes from advancement and refinement. There are four extra-long, chrome-vanadium springs controlled by hydraulic shock absorbers. They are mounted lengthwise, in the direction of car travel, with self-adjusting spring shackles to maintain quiet.

Modern low suspension and extra wheelbase give the Chevrolet Six good proportions. The front view is distinguished by the honeycomb radiator. The gasoline tank is at the rear for safety and finer appearance.

Chevrolet beauty instantly says "Body by Fisher"—style, quiet, safety—Fisher composite steel-and-wood construction—non-glare windshield—adjustable driver's seat—deeper cushions—greater leg room—clearer vision—finer fabrics and fittings.

There is just as much extra value throughout. BY ANY STANDARD the Chevrolet Six is the wisest choice in the low-price field... with its six-cylinder valve-in-head motor... with full scientific equipment... with Body by Fisher... with four long semi-elliptic springs, long wheelbase, low suspension, rear-mounted gasoline tank, honeycomb radiator and all the other features of this day and age.

Christian Science Sanatorium in California

SAN FRANCISCO: Under articles of incorporation already filed with the Secretary of State of California, permanent trustees took over on March 28 the ownership of the property and buildings which are to accommodate the Christian Science Benevolent Association for Pacific Coast. The Association, which will open its doors to guests about the middle of May, was established in accordance with Section 8 of Article 1 of the Manual of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Massachusetts.

The Benevolent Association for Pacific Coast is the third large charitable institution established by The Mother Church, totaling an investment of over $4,000,000. The Christian Science Benevolent Association, located in Chestnut Hill, Mass., was chartered in 1916, and The Christian Science Pleasant View Home, located in Concord, N. H., in 1925. While all three of these corporations are independent from a legal point of view they are under the control and supervision of The Christian Science Board of Directors.

The California property, known as Arden Wood, is a thickly timbered, 16 acre, piece of rolling land situated on the edge of San Francisco, its general location being between Twin Peaks and the Ocean. The Sanatorium is sheltered from the prevailing winds by the hill which forms the principal topographic feature of the property. No public roads or ways cross it, but paths will be arranged extending from the Sanatorium through the woods, making a feature of a small ravine which runs along the east boundary.

The Sanatorium, designed by Henry H. Gutterson, Architect, is of steel and reinforced concrete done in a modernized Breton style, with high central pavilion, tall classic

French windows and steep-sloping, red tiled roof. It will contain accommodations for 120 guests and associates.

Within the last few weeks a substantial piece of property jutting into the principal tract, formerly held by the city of San Francisco for school purposes, has been purchased to secure additional quiet and freedom from outside disturbances.

The Board of Trustees of the San Francisco institution will be in constant touch with The Christian Science Board of Directors as are the Boards of the two New England institutions.

The three Trustees of the new corporation are Mrs. Gertrude M. Glass, George D. Greenwood, and Marvin R. Higgins. Wilson D. Clark has been appointed Manager-Treasurer. All of these officers have been actively interested in Christian Science work for many years.

Konjola Only Medicine That Did Any Good

"I suffered for two years with kidney trouble," said Mr. M. D. Abbott, 600 East Hattie Street, Fort Worth. "I have scarcely been able to do any work. Lifting, or turning my body was the signal for severe back pains. Night risings were frequent. My stomach, too, added to my misery.

Anything I ate caused gas and a severe pain in the pit of my stomach. "Konjola is the only medicine that did me any good. I now feel better than I have for many a day. I can eat what I wish without suffering and the pains in my back are gone. My kidneys now are functioning normally. Konjola has gone right to the spot in my case and I praise this wonderful medicine for all that it has done for me. A medicine that did all Konjola did for me can help others and I am recommending it to a lot of my friends who are suffering as I did.

Konjola is not a "cure-all." There is no such thing. But when taken for six to eight weeks, Konjola will produce amazing results. The countless thousands of endorsements of Konjola have proven that it makes good, even in the most stubborn cases.

Konjola is sold in Crowell at Ferguson Bros. Drug Store, and by all the best druggists in all towns throughout this entire section.

TEXON TALES (Just a little bad gas from the oil fields)

Well, everything is coming out pretty and green down here but us. Now that they have prohibited candidate posters along the highways we could get out there and get away from them if they would only prohibit candidates on the hi-ways also.

We have a fellow down here who refuses to buy anything from peddlers or mail order houses. He claims the oil company pays him a good salary and don't turn him off for cheap labor. They protect him from seab labor. The home merchants helped him when he was sick and couldn't work but the peddlers and mail order houses didn't. He just feels like such protection is something to be appreciated and up to him to kick in with his part of the deal.

The wife claims a woman can dress well on what would keep a man looking shabby. We admit it is what the wife dresses well on that keeps us looking shabby.

We predict Foard County will raise so many chickens there will be an over-production on the market. For your sake we hope not, but for our sake we hope so as we haven't had a decent chicken dinner in the oil fields since before we came here.

One guy says, will them used cars run? The salesman says, well, they aint got no wings so they can't fly.

San Angelo Man Owns 19 Acres In 20-Mile Lake

San Angelo, Texas, April 10 (UP).—Following a recent ruling in his favor, John Lee of San Angelo is the sole owner of about 19 acres of land in the middle of the 20-mile lake which the West Texas Utilities Company is impounding six miles south of San Angelo.

It has not yet been determined whether the fact that the Civil Court of Appeals has ruled in Lee's favor will delay the impounding of water above the Nasworthy dam.

Unusual interest centered around the case here because the land in question for years had been considered property of Tom Green County. It had been used by the public for a roadway watering place and camping ground. It was deeded to the county about 25 years ago by Mr. Lee's mother, who now is dead.

When work was started on the dam, Lee obtained an injunction restraining the utilities company from cutting trees on the land, claiming that the title to it had reverted to him. This he claimed was because the land no longer was used for camping or as a watering place. The company then filed countersuit for damages because of delay of the work. The case was argued here about a month ago and decision was rendered in favor of Lee. Now the appeals court has ruled in his favor and the utilities company is awaiting his next move.

Lynch Davidson Urges Defeat of Both Dan Moody and Ferguson

Houston, Texas, March 25.—Calling Dan Moody a "petulant boy" and James E. Ferguson a "political pug," former Lieutenant Governor Lynch Davidson issued a statement today urging Texas voters to "put an end to the personal and factional strife which is swallowing up all hope of state progress."

Recalling past warnings, Mr. Davidson said that "unless Texans this year use their thick stub pencils to sweep from the political picture every man who tunes his campaign music to the Assassin's Song, we cannot justly hope for sound state government."

"The Marathon Legislature has ended with a requiem for prison concentration, judicial reform, tax equalization, farm relief and a score of other achievements so often pledged," said Mr. Davidson's statement.

"On the one hand we see a petulant boy, blaming the legislature for damage to his plaything, which he himself has broken up; on the other, that crafty old political pug, James E. Ferguson, fondly hoping that this statehouse bout will be but the 'preliminary' to a knockout political victory for himself.

This is at once absurd and distressing. But it is not surprising. It is the inevitable result of a weakness in our primary system which allows a handful of voters, blinded by the flares of spectacular combat, to dictate our choice of officers without a single fleeting glimpse of the real issues, hidden in the smoke.

"Thoughtful men and women all over our state foresaw this in 1924 and again in 1926. They pleaded for a new day. I joined my voice with them. From one end of the state to another, in my 1926 campaign for governor, I warned of the danger of putting passions ahead of judgment. For just one example, take this excerpt from an Associated Press dispatch, from Denton, July 10, 1926:

"Lynch Davidson declared in an address here Friday night that the election of either Governor Miriam A. Ferguson or Attorney General Dan Moody as governor will mean two years of factionalism at the State Capitol. Bitterness bred during the present campaign, he insisted, will continue, forbidding a business administration, which, he said, was becoming vitally necessary for the economic salvation of the state."

"I lay no claim to prophecy. The above was merely what all those who looked past the smoke and fire could see. I repeat it now in the very earnest hope that Texans everywhere in the coming campaign, will see the same significant warning. And I repeat it with the urgent hope that they will put an end to the personal and factional strife that is swallowing up all hope of state progress."

"Moody's two administrations have failed to carry out one major paragraph of his promised program. This is not surprising. In fact, the reverse would be surprising. Why? There are two main causes.

"First, Moody himself, too young in years, younger still in experience, for his job, arrogant, unskilled in the art of agreement, and lacking in seasoned wisdom and poised determination necessary for leadership. He blames the legislators. But when has a legislature followed out a governor's program except when the governor proved his right to leadership by proving his own capacity? James Stephen Hogg so won his leadership. But can you imagine Hogg whining that the legislature treated him with "small boy contempt," as Moody complained in a recent inspired newspaper article?

"This cause of his troubles we can hardly expect Moody to admit. But he has already admitted the second: That Jim Ferguson has usurped the leadership! Less than two weeks ago Moody made this confession openly. Clothed in the vast advantage of his high position, he is driven to admit that the man he defeated only four years ago, has after that short time come back to master him in his own castle.

"And now this petulant boy and his revengeful adversary are arming once more for the sort of fight which they hope to bring votes by obscuring the failures of both combatants. Let us unite to inform them that their fight will bring no gate receipts. Let us inform every candidate that Texas is through with putting into high office men whose chief claim is that of being a good antidote for some other man. Let us call for men who can help the state, not merely hurt their enemies."

When her house caught fire, Mrs. Carl Coppola of Rockford, Ill., leaped from an upper window and tossed her month old baby into the arms of a passerby. She then jumped and was injured.

THE GRADE CROSSING MENACE

In spite of the great safety of the railroads, which has been successful in almost every phase of operation, grade crossing accidents continue to increase.

The lines are conducting a constant campaign to educate the public to the dangers of carelessness at grade crossings and to secure cooperation. That motorists have failed to respond is not the fault of the railroads.

A number of decisions, including the Supreme Court, have held that the burden of responsibility at grade crossings is on the motorist, and not the railway company. Those who fail to take reasonable precautions must take the consequences.

A survey once determined that the average train consumes but seven seconds in passing a given point. Yet thousands of people are killed and injured each year in a vain attempt to "save" this infinitesimal bit of time.

Perhaps to the most telling commentary on grade crossing accidents is that a large percentage of them occur when automobiles hit trains, instead of trains hitting automobiles! And the constantly increasing number of deaths from such accidents affords a terrible example of the truth, "Stop, Look and Listen!"

The First Season Record of a "Caterpillar" (Holt) Combine Owner

Harvested 5,000 acres of wheat averaging 20 bushels to the acre and 2,000 acres of Hegari or row crops. Operated day and night.

"By being able to unload the grain bin without stopping the machine, I gained at each unloading one-fourth mile in length, 20-foot swath, over other machines that had to stop to unload. I find that less time is required to keep the "Caterpillar" (Holt) properly lubricated than any other I have ever used. Slow motion in action to obtain same threshing efficiency is a factor in its long life and low cost of upkeep."

The above statements are from a letter written by Clyde Merryman (address on request) outlining his first season's experience.

"Caterpillar" Combines and "Caterpillar" Tractors hold unbeaten records for speed, dependability and low cost in harvesting. We have a representative near you who will gladly show you this equipment.

FLORIDA SETS GOOD EXAMPLE

That by applying business methods to government, Florida operated its machinery of government in 1929 at a saving of more than $1,250,000, and a drop in total expenditures of more than $5,500,000, is the claim of the governor of the state.

seven major departments was cut $722,000.

By applying business methods to road maintenance, by proper engineering, business methods in office work and purchasing, reorganizing field forces and using modern labor-saving machinery, the cost per mile was reduced from $523.48 in 1928 to $298.11 in 1929, making a total saving in this department of $499,817.61.

Business men have been asked to assist in forming the most applicable and most equitable taxation method for state government. It is to be a cooperative problem, worked jointly by bodies of law making and representative business men.

Florida encourages investments instead of discouraging them with high taxes.

FAMOUS FIRST GOVERNOR TO BE RETURNED

Austin, Texas, April 10. (UP).—James Pickney Henderson, romantic figure of the 19th century, warrior, statesman, diplomat and charming lover, will find a last resting place next San Jacinto Day in the State cemetery of Texas.

Henderson was the first governor of Texas. His remains are being brought from the Congressional cemetery at Washington, D. C., for reinterment at Austin. Exercises in the state capitol will precede the burial.

Born at Lincolnton, N. C., on March 31, 1808, he was practicing before the Supreme Court of his state at the age of 21. At 28 he was Attorney-General of the Republic of Texas, and a year later Ambassador to Great Britain and France.

Henderson was roused by the resistance of Texas to Mexican rule. He championed the cause of Texas and sought to rouse the whole South to its rescue. Raising volunteers, he landed at Velasco to assist the struggling Republic.

Ill health caused Henderson to give up his foreign post under the Texas Republic.

Settling in St. Augustine, Henderson practiced law there, declining a proffered place in President Sam Houston's cabinet. He re-entered public life in 1844 when he was named with the late Isaac Van Zandt to negotiate a treaty for the annexation of Texas to the United States.

On February 19, 1846, between the hours of 11 and noon in front of the capitol, Henderson took the oath of office which made him the first governor of the Lone Star State. He had hardly taken the reins of government however, before he was called upon to defend his country on the battlefield. The Legislature granted him a year's leave of absence to take command as a major general in the United States army of all Texas troops in the Mexican war.

On November 9, 1857, the Legislature elected Henderson to the United States Senate to succeed his old law partner, Thomas J. Rusk. Henderson was in bad health at that time and before going to Washington, his health became worse, but he was sworn in office on March 1, 1858. He was too ill to attend to his duties and died on June 4 of that year.

After the death of her husband Mrs. Henderson and children lived in Marshall until 1861; then they went abroad. Her daughter, Fanny, married Baron Clemons von Freuscher, an officer in the Austrian army.

Mrs. Henderson died January 27, 1897, from the effects of a stroke of paralysis, and was buried in Rose-dale cemetery there.

James Pickney Henderson Adams, a grandson of James P. Henderson, and his daughter, Florence Day Adams, reside in Oklahoma City.

STREET RAILWAY TREND DISTINCTLY IMPROVING

Survey of the electric railway situation, made by the American Electric Railway Association in September, 1929, reveals some interesting facts—among them that the elimination of unnecessary lines, development of lines that really render a service to the public, and economies in operation made possible by faster and lighter cars are enabling the companies to distinctly improved showings.

In that month, while revenues were down 1.44 per cent, operating expenses decreased 3.02 per cent, leaving a net gain of 3.13 per cent in net revenue. In large centers street railway business is growing, the loss of business being attributed mainly to uneconomical lines that would never have been built if the automobile had been foreseen.

Cattle Thieves Active Around Clay County

Ranchmen and farmers of Clay County are taking steps to curb cattle stealing, which has caused them heavy losses in recent months. The cattle rustling taking place in that county now is entirely different from the old time methods and is now common, unromantic sneak-thievery.

According to reports from Clay County, the present-day thieves are traveling by truck and he and his stolen beef may be many miles from the scene of the theft by the time that it is discovered.

An organization has been perfected in Clay County to deal with the cattle stealing but is naturally not making public its methods of dealing with the cattle thief.

Missionary Zone Meet Held Here Last Thurs.

Last Thursday, April 3, was the day set for the all-day meeting of Zone No. 1 of Vernon District of Missionary Women. About 78 women of the societies of this zone were present. Mrs. Walter Hoffman of Vernon, zone chairman presided. The theme for the day's program was "Christianization of Human Relations." Mrs. M. S. Henry of Crowell welcomed the visitors in fitting words and Mrs. D. S. Aynes of Rock Crossing responded. The participants on the day's program were chiefly women who had attended the Missionary Council at Amarillo. Reports of that meeting from different viewpoints were intensely interesting, instructive and inspirational.

Pastors and officers present were Brothers Anderson of Odell, Aynes of Rock Crossing, Hood of Margaret, Osborne of Crowell and Mrs. J. O. Haynes, district superintendent of study and Mrs. George Self, conference superintendent of study. Special music was rendered by Mrs. Olin Raines of Elliott and Miss Carrie Maurice Allee of Crowell.

Crowell Auxiliary served lunch in the basement of the church. Mrs. Hoffman has been appointed district secretary and Mrs. C. B. Morris was elected to serve as zone leader of Zone 1.

Elliott asked that the next meeting be with them and the invitation was accepted.

It was a most profitable day, thoroughly enjoyed by all who were privileged to attend.

Local Masons Plan to Attend Wichita Meet

There are prospects of a good delegation attending the meeting of Masons in Wichita Falls on April 17, according to Sam Scales, secretary of the local lodge.

Melvin Johnson, one of the most noted Masons in the nation, will be a speaker at the meeting. He has written books on Masonry and is regarded as one of the country's foremost educators. He will speak at 8 p. m. at the Memorial Auditorium.

It is expected that over 5,000 Master Masons will gather in Wichita Falls for this event.

Oil Activity—

are confident of its possibilities. The territory around the Phillips-Owens No. 1 has been mapped by the consulting geological firm of Gilber, of Wichita Falls, and is considered very promising territory. The geological features of the vicinity have been determined chiefly by the correlation of logs of wells previously drilled on the Owens No. apparently tops the structure which is an offshoot of the Thalia Tarver structure.

California Plans

The California Company is proceeding with arrangements for the beginning of its W. H. Nichols No. 1, located in the northwest corner of Section No. 298, Block A. H. & T. C. Ry. Co. Surveys, about ten miles southeast of Crowell. Active operations in this territory are being delayed by lack of water, and it is probable that they will have to await a rain before proceeding with the drilling of the tests in that vicinity.

Outside of these developments the oil business is practically at a standstill in Foard County. The major companies have relinquished great bodies of acreage in the county recently, although the Gulf Production Company has renewed a few of its leases expiring during the months of March and April. The Gulf Production Company at this time has a large crew of men in the county doing geo-physical work, chiefly with torsion balance machines, and it is probable that if the machines indicate any attractive territory they will be in the market later for Foard County leases.

Continental Oil Company, operating in this district from their Ponca City office, have made no further announcements regarding their contemplated locations upon the Beverly block north of Crowell and upon the Worsham and Johnson block north of Ioan Springs. It is regarded as virtually certain, however, that one of these blocks will be drilled during 1930, and probably both of them.

Crowell Loses First Ball Game of Season

The Crowell ball club lost its first game of the season Sunday to the McElreath Motor Company club of Wichita Falls by the score of 15 to 5. Numerous errors by the Crowell team were responsible for most of Wichita Falls' runs. The visitors earned only five runs while Crowell earned four out of their five.

Crowell has prospects of having a good team this year, in spite of their showing Sunday, as few teams ever play in the best form in their first game of the season. J. L. McElreath, head of the McElreath Motor Co., flew here in his airplane for the game.

FARM BUERAU MEETING

All members of the Texas Farm Bureau Association here are urged to meet in the office of the county agent Saturday at 3 p. m., according to C. E. Morris. Delegates are to be chosen at this meeting for a district meet at Seymour.

Poultry Essay—

are fine and farmers make good money, but again the crops may fail. For about the last four years crops have been failing on account of the lack of moisture, therefore, farmers have to have something else to turn to. They have found it profitable to have laying hens, for then they can either eat or sell the chickens and also the eggs.

Chicken is a very healthful food. The eggs are one of the most healthful, as well as one of the cheapest foods. As long as eggs sell at a reasonable price there will be a good market for them. Many farmers' wives take pride in their flocks of chickens. There are scarcely no amusements on a farm and the farmer's wife can therefore tend to her flocks better.

Chickens are very inexpensive, for they do not eat expensive food. The general class of food that chickens live on is a cheap kind. It is generally the culls of the seed crop. The chickens can run on the pastures. Here they can obtain the proper kind of food which they require, such as worms, broken glass and the like. Corn is very healthful for laying hens. It can be raised without very much expense to the farmer. Wheat is also a healthful food for chickens. Foard County raises a great deal of wheat. The amount of wheat that the chickens would eat through the winter, when it is too cold to get out on the pastures, is very small in comparison with the amount you could sell the eggs for.

Chickens require fairly good shelter, but the farmer can build the buildings for his chickens on rainy days when he is unable to work. The building must be tight enough so the cold air of winter can not strike the chickens.

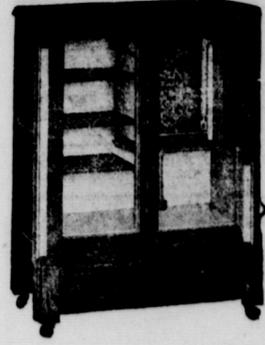

A farmer's family seldom gets to go to town except on Saturdays. When they go they want ready money to spend and if they have laying hens then they will have eggs to sell.

One of the worst troubles of a farmer is that he has to have his groceries charged until the end of the year. In this way he runs up a large debt in a very short while.

Three hundred laying hens should

Northland Refrigerators

It is becoming more evident every day that housewives have a desire to own better refrigerators. They want refrigerators which are more reliable and serviceable in action. They want a feeling of confidence that their food will be properly preserved at all times.

The Northland—a medium priced line meets this demand with a new method of air circulation which floods the provision compartment with fresh, pure, cold air, without increase in operation cost.

feed any family of moderate size. Then if the farmer has no grocery debt to pay when he finally gets the money from his crops, then he will be a more cheerful and a better man.

Then if chickens and such can buy the necessities of life, the farmer will have a little surplus cash that he can spend on cars, radios, delco lights and so forth.

In former times there would be no use in a very small family having three hundred laying hens, for eggs would accumulate. Then they had no cars, only buggies, and it would generally take a whole day to make the trip to town and they could therefore very seldom be made. In this way eggs would only spoil. Now we have cars and are able to come to town more often.

Tending to chickens is not hard labor and, therefore, the women and children on a farm can do it. Crops require hard labor, and therefore, the average farmer has to secure a small amount of outside help. When he does this he has to pay out more money and too, he generally has to board his outside help.

We now have a county agent who shows the farmers the most modern ways of caring for chickens. In this way one farmer can afford to raise more chickens in a more paying way.

Therefore I believe you will agree with me that each farm in Foard County should have at least three hundred laying hens.

Income Policy

When the clock of life strikes "5 past 60" for YOU—your body will demand rest—few will be interested in your welfare—and THEN an income will be desired above everything.

Look around your community, you will find the majority of people who have reached the striking of "5 past 60" with no provision for old age comfort and happiness; but are forced to continue to work or are dependent. Don't make the mistake and say, "I will be able to retire in comfort at 65." They were of the same opinion when youth and prosperity were with them.

Our especially prepared OLD AGE INCOME POLICY guarantees YOU an endowment or income for life after reaching 65. If you do not live to enjoy the endowment or income, the full value of the policy will be paid to your dependents or estate.

A nominal deposit with this Company each year will assure YOU of old age comfort and happiness; and remove the thought from your mind, "What will I be doing at 65?"

Baptist Church News

Last Sunday was a fine demonstration of loyalty on the part of Crowell Baptist. The Sunday School had a substantial gain again over the previous Sunday. Rev. E. H. Crouch of Brazil stirred the hearts of our people with his message of love. Great is the Gospel of Jesus Christ. Wherever it is preached men believe and are saved. Bro. Crouch brought us the fresh news of how the people of Brazil have an open heart for the gospel as never before. May we match this wonderful opportunity with our gifts. God is blessing our missionary endeavor around the world.

The pastor is in Wichita Falls holding a revival meeting this and next week. Great crowds are in attendance.

There will be no preaching at the Baptist church next Sunday on account of the Methodist revival. Sunday School at 9:45. B. Y. P. U. at 6:45 p. m. Let there be no slacking at these hours. God is blessing. A welcome to all.

RUBEN LOFTIN

Loftin of Clay Co. States His Views In Race for Senate

Ruben Loftin, of Henrietta, Clay County, is a candidate for the seat in the state senate lately filled by Senator W. D. McFarlane, who is a candidate for congress.

Ruben Loftin is no stranger to legislative matters, having been a member of the lower house three terms where he made an admirable record. The district he seeks to represent in the senate is composed of the counties of Clay, Wichita, Wilbarger, Hardeman, Foard, Knox, Baylor, Young, and Archer. He is 39 years old and was born in the district he is asking to represent.

In his platform he enumerates the things he stands for and thus announces his position with reference to the prison system:

"I am opposed to the present proposition of relocating the penitentiaries of Texas. In my judgment this is a useless expense to the citizens of this state. The penitentiary system of Texas owns around eighty-six thousand acres of land. The majority of it is the best land in Texas. This could not be sold unless sold at a sacrifice. The state owns thousands of dollars worth of buildings and improvements that nobody else could use but the state. These naturally would be a total loss if the present system were sold.

"I believe that the legislature probably ought to sell some of those isolated farms and concentrate the system on one or more of its farms, and that they ought to take this money they receive from the sale of the other farms and spend it in improving and reclaiming the land already owned.

"I would be in favor, if it was necessary and found to be less expensive, of establishing additional units of the system. For instance one in north Texas; one in central or south-west Texas; whatever the legislature might deem wise in the premises to do. It is my candid judgment that the legislature cannot relocate the penitentiary of Texas, selling the properties now owned and repurchasing new location, without at least a loss of from ten to fifteen million dollars."

READING THE PUBLIC MIND

The success of a business depends on its ability to analyze the mental operations of the public, and to determine how people decide as to where they shall buy goods. The merchants who read the public mind most accurately get the business.

When one finds that he needs something, the question comes up where that article should be bought. From some source back in the mind the suggestion comes that such and such a place would be a good store to visit for that purpose. Whence comes that suggestion.

In the majority of cases, it is created by the store that has made the greatest effort to impress its reputation on the public mind. People remember the things they hear about constantly, and they forget other things that are rarely called to their attention. The advertised store conforms to the laws of psychology, by constantly calling public attention to its enterprises, its goods, its methods, its prices, and the advantages of trading with it. Consequently the inner consciousness, when asked what or where a person should buy, is apt to respond by suggesting certain advertised goods.

It is, of course, true that while a store by advertising can always draw a lot of new trade, it can't keep it unless it really does give good values. But advertising helps a store do that, notably in these two ways:

Advertising encourages merchants to handle big lots when such are offered them at low figures. They know that by appealing to the public by advertising, they can swing these big lots and turn them into money in a short time. Thus buying in a large way and taking advantages of special opportunities, they are able to offer special values.

Advertising increases volume of trade, thus reducing the operating and overhead expense per article, making it possible to cut prices to the public. The advertised store buys and operates at low figures and can thus make low prices.

SPLINTERS

Published in the interest of the people of Crowell and vicinity by the Cicero Smith Lumber Co. R. J. ROBERTS, Manager.

"It won't be long now," until the new concrete highway will be completed and with the new street paving project, which has just started, done Crowell will be among the few towns its size to have so many modern improvements—a new and up-to-date flash light system, now being installed by the Haskell Telephone Co. All "talkies" by our progressive showman, T. B. Richmond, as good electric service as the largest city, water, sewer and natural gas, furnished from one of Foard County's own gas wells. Who could picture a better place to live, modern church buildings and schools second to none. Hotel accommodations as good as any found in a town our size, garages with up-to-date equipment and good mechanics. Service stations that give you the service you are entitled to, modern dry goods stores with new and up-to-date merchandise, grocery stores well supplied with best in goods, drug stores to supply you with such articles found in the best stocked stores of much larger cities. Up-to-date lumber yards well stocked with the best in building materials to supply you with your needs in their line. Yes and many other things we could tell you about Crowell and Foard County and its many industries but space does not permit, neither is it necessary for these are common facts known by all our good citizens but sometimes overlooked by some of us.

See the pictures move and hear 'em talk at the Rialto Theatre. Got 'em all talkies—as good as you will see and hear anywhere. When you get hungry for a good show—head right into the Rialto.
