Big Auction in Crowell Saturday Afternoon for Will Rogers Memorial Fund

WIDE RESPONSE GIVEN IN FOARD FOR MEMORIAL

A grand auction will be held in Crowell Saturday afternoon at which will offer opportunity to buy most anything from home-canned pickles to a pair of horses. Everything to be sold at the auction will represent the Will Rogers Memorial fund which is being raised for the purpose of erecting a monument to the late actor.

WILL BURNETT SENDS CHECK FOR $50.00

Mr. L. Burnett of Iowa Park, who is the Triangle Ranch in Foard County, sent a $50.00 check to the Will Rogers Memorial fund in Foard County. He had $100 in Wichita County and $50 in Cottle.

WANT 3,000 NAMES

A real goal in the eyes of the committee must rest in the number of friendships registered in the campaign, and all names registered, whether the contribution is a penny or $100—a fruit or a horse. Money is not the goal, although the subscribed must be reflected in the ultimate choice of the millions, it is anticipated, for their appreciation of Rogers in a contribution of $100. It is hoped that 3,000 names of Foard County people will be listed. No quota in money in this drive will be set. It is to complete the drive by the general love that people had for the great humorist, Foard County has other names for making an outstanding record in this campaign. The name is distinctly honored in the name of its ranchers, Jim Minnick, a member of the "Will Rogers Memorial Commission"—a nationally prominent and responsible friend, by Vice President John Minnick, who had the feeling for Foard County, shown in talks during stage shows at Wichita Falls and his visit here in July, 1932, interrupted a rush trip westward toward an old friend, the Minnick ranch, near City. Knowledge that Minnick was not in the county at the time he was going to the "outfit" belonging to his close pal long be achieved world-wide fame, he wished to make a cash donation leave it or send it to the name to the Crowell bank, this newspaper or any committee members listed elsewhere. Remember, every single subscriber will be used for the name to Will Rogers. Expenses

WILL ROGERS

Form of Memorial

One thing is certain, the Memorial Commission will sponsor no cold shaft of marble for this warm, friendly man. Rather, there will be living, continuing memorials projected to honor the charitable, educational and humanitarian traits which were so beloved in Will Rogers, the living man.

The committee members are also urged to do everything possible in promoting interest in the campaign in their localities. The entire campaign is being conducted in a simple, somewhat informal manner. No special forms are being used. School teachers throughout the county are co-operating in a splendid manner. Most of the schools have been visited by local men who have explained the drive to the teachers and pupils. A school pupil who contributes a penny will be registered just the same as an individual contributing $100. Many pupils have expressed desires to do without luxuries until they can save a few nickels and dimes for the Memorial fund.

Girl Accidentally Stabs Self Tuesday Morning at Thalia

Dorothy Butler, 13, daughter of C. R. Butler, is in a serious condition at the local hospital following an accident at Thalia shortly before noon Tuesday when she accidentally stabbed herself, cutting a large artery at the base of her neck.

She was rushed to Crowell and taken to the office of Dr. Hines Clark, where she remained Tuesday night and Wednesday morning because her serious condition did not permit her removal. She was taken to the hospital Wednesday afternoon.

The accident happened when the little girl was playing with a knife belonging to a brother. With the open knife in her hand, she started to run while playing with her brother. Her arm struck a post and the blade was driven into her neck.

Mr. Butler arrived in Foard County this week from Littlefield to pick cotton and had just secured a job near Thalia when the accident occurred. Accompanying him here were five children and one nephew. His wife died at Broken Bow, Okla., about 8 years ago. When asked where his home was, Mr. Butler replied that it was wherever he and his children happened to be. For the past year the group had been in the vicinity of Stratford, Dalhart and lately at Littlefield.

The father reported that he was anxious to locate his youngest child, Kathleen, who was four months of age when her mother died. Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Brewer, grandparents, took charge of the baby at that time. The last time that Mr. Butler was in touch with them was when the grandparents were with the child at Greenville, Texas, about three years ago. Mr. Butler stated that he had since tried to get in touch with them, but without success.

PLANS FOR 45TH ANNIVERSARY EVENT START

Official action in commemorating the forty-fifth anniversary of the organization of Foard County was taken Monday night at the regular monthly banquet of the Farmers and Business Men's Association at O'Connell's Tea Room. It was decided to celebrate this occasion as a pre-Centennial feature in honoring the pioneers of this area at Crowell on April 27, 1936, the birthday of the county.

A committee composed of Geo. D. Self, H. E. Ferguson, Jno. C. Roberts, Fred Rennels, D. R. Magee and Mack Boswell was named by President A. Y. Beverly to arrange preliminary details for this event.

It was pointed out at the banquet that one of the greatest celebrations in the county's history took place in honoring pioneers here on Foard's 40th birthday. (Continued on Page Five)

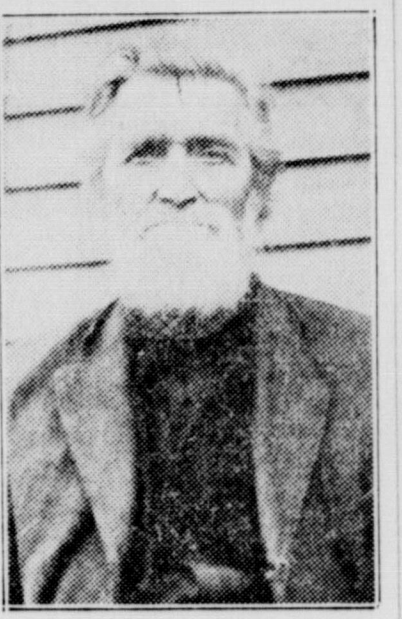

GRAIN SIGNERS INCREASE IN FOARD COUNTY

Indications are that approved wheat contracts in Foard County in connection with the AAA program for 1935 will total more than 180, according to information from the office of the county agent, Fred Rennels. County and community committees have been busy this week approving the contracts and B. F. Vance of College Station, district agent, was here Wednesday to check them and to give instruction on the matter of sending the contracts to the State Grain board now in session at College Station.

Foard's 156 wheat contracts for 1935 aggregated 21,527 acres. With at least 180 contracts for 1935 plus the five per cent acreage increase that has been allowed, it is likely that about 30,000 acres will be represented in the AAA wheat program in Foard County for 1936.

The final rental payment for 1935 will reach wheat growers next summer when compliance with the 1936 wheat contract is completed.

INFORMATION FOR VOTERS

All "unders" and "overs" must have exemption certificates to vote in 1936 elections, according to information from the office of the county tax collector. There is no charge for the exemption certificates.

RECORD CROWD IS EXPECTED FOR DIST. 9-B CHAMPIONSHIP CONTEST IN LOCAL STADIUM

NO SPECIAL TRAIN

Latest reports from Olney indicate that there will be no special train from that city as originally proposed, however, hundreds of fans plan to come from there by auto and bus.

FUNERAL HELD SATURDAY FOR CIVIL WAR VET

After a prolonged illness, C. B. Garlinghouse, 92, Foard County pioneer and veteran of the Civil War, died at 9 o'clock Friday night in his home here. Mr. Garlinghouse served four years with the Union army and was one of two surviving Civil War veterans in Foard County. The other is John Wesley of Margaret, the county's earliest settler who also served with the Federal forces. The deceased came to Crowell in 1891.

Funeral services were conducted at 2:30 Saturday afternoon in the Methodist Church by Rev. Geo. E. Turretine, pastor, who returned from the annual Northwest (Continued on Page Four)

NOTICE

THANKSGIVING SERVICE

Announcement was made at the Methodist Church last Sunday that a Thanksgiving service would be held at the church next Thursday morning. A good program is being arranged and the public is cordially invited to attend this service.

With the eyes of all Northwest Texas football fans turned toward Crowell, the greatest crowd ever in attendance at an athletic event in this city is expected tomorrow night (Friday) when the Olney Cubs clash with the Crowell Wildcats at 7:30 o'clock in Crowell's fine new stadium.

The Cubs and Wildcats are the only unbeaten teams in District 9-B competition and tomorrow's contest is truly a championship affair, since it is the last game on the Crowell schedule and next to the last for Olney. The Cubs meet Seymour at Olney on Thanksgiving, however, the Panthers are given little chance of stopping Olney's powerful machine.

The championship battle in itself is enough to attract a great crowd, however, hundreds of additional out-of-town visitors are expected because there will be no competition to speak of that will be offered by other games in this area. Vernon, Quanah and Wichita Falls have open dates. Childress travels to Cisco and Electra to Grandfield. Class B games are being played in the afternoon, or tonight, in making it possible for fans all over this area to attend one of Northwest Texas' outstanding grid classics for 1935.

Not only will the district title be at stake in this game, but also the championship of the five-year series that the Wildcats and Cubs have engaged in since Crowell reentered 9-B competition in 1931. Olney won 7-0 and 14-0 in 1931 and 1932 in breaking undefeated conference records for the Wildcats. Crowell returned the favor in 1933 and 1934 with victories of 19-12 and 33-12. For the fifth consecutive year, the two teams will meet with perfect conference records.

Crowell's only loss to a Class B football team in five seasons on the home field was to Olney. The mighty "Bull" Graves, Olney quarterback, smashed the line in the last quarter for the lone touchdown of the 1931 game, which Olney won 7-0. Dick Todd was player.

TEACHERS OF FOARD ELECT 1935-36 LEADERS

The Foard County Teachers' Association met in its first 1935-36 session Monday night in the Crowell High School auditorium. The nominating committee consisting of Walker Todd, F. U. Powell and F. P. Chandler presented and the assembly unanimously adopted the following report:

W. Lee Cox of Thalia, president of the Foard County Teachers' Association.
Miss Florence Griffith of Four Corners, secretary of the association.

Choral Singing—Miss Cora Carter, Crowell.

Extemporaneous Speech—W. A. Smart, Margaret.

Interesting talks were made at the meeting by I. T. Graves on the plans and trends in curriculum in Texas and by Supt. Cox of Thalia concerning plans for organizing a division of the Texas State Teachers' Association for West Texas.

Two of West Texas' Strongest Class B Clubs Ready for Opening Whistle

While the above pictures do not represent the exact starting lineups in tomorrow's championship battle, yet they include most of the boys who will participate in this 9-B classic.

In the Crowell picture are: backfield—McKown, Crews, F. Meason and Horn. Line—Saunders, Nichols, Dunn, Lilly, W. Brisco, Cogdell and Dunagan. Two of this group are definitely out of the line-up, W. F. Brisco fell a victim of the 8-semester rule early in the season and Cogdell was lost as the result of an appendicitis operation. All of the others will likely start tomorrow night's game, along with Austin Wiggins and Oliver Brisco.

How Calotabs Help Nature To Throw Off a Bad Cold

Millions have found in Calotabs a most valuable aid in the treatment of colds. They take one or two tablets the first night and repeat the third or fifth night if needed.

How do Calotabs help Nature throw off a cold? First, Calotabs is one of the most thorough and dependable of all intestinal eliminants, thus cleansing the intestinal tract of the germ-laden mucus and toxins.

Second, Calotabs are diuretic to the kidneys, promoting the elimination of cold poisons from the system. Thus Calotabs serve the double purpose of a purgative and diuretic, both of which are needed in the treatment of colds.

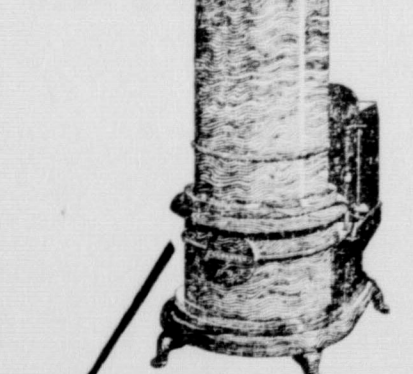

Calotabs are quite economical; only twenty-five cents for the family package, ten cents for the trial package. (Adv.)

ON TEXAS FARMS

By Minnie Fisher Cunningham, Extension Editor

The Agricultural Adjustment Administration will soon offer the farmers of the South a four-year cotton acreage adjustment contract. The details are not known now, but presumably the program is much the same as the present one with certain improvements.

Whatever the faults of the last three years, few will deny that the vast improvement in Southern prosperity is due largely to the increased buying power of the cotton farmer.

The cotton income has been doubled since 1932. One bale of cotton now buys almost twice as much as one bale bought in 1932.

Census figures now being released by the States, credit the adjustment programs with making possible the greatest strides toward balanced farming ever known in the South. The use of rented acres has enabled the cotton farmer to live at home on a scale hitherto unknown.

The South has led the Nation toward business recovery. Countless figures and testimony can be produced to show that the towns have richly shared in the benefits accruing to farmers in the cotton program. On the third Saturday night and Sunday throughout 1936 and we hope to see a large crowd out next preaching day.

We are glad to report that Miss Vidie Phillips is regaining her health.

ON OCTOBER 31 of last year, Henry Ford announced his intention to build a million Ford V-8s in 1935. We are pleased to report that this goal was reached in exactly ten months instead of a full year.

One million cars and trucks is an impressive total. But figures by themselves mean nothing. It is what they represent that counts. Selling a V-8 at a low price has brought a new kind of automobile within reach of the people. Producing it has provided steady work for hundreds of thousands of men in the Ford plants, its associated industries and on the farm. These million Ford V-8 cars and trucks have helped to make things better all around. In the first ten months of 1935 the Ford Motor Company paid out in the United States alone, $140,119,326.00 in wages and $523,111,389.00 for materials.

Texas Farmers Keep Accurate Records

College Station.—Approximately 19,000 Texas farmers are putting down their profits and loss on record books according to a recent survey conducted by the Extension Service under the direction of S. A. McMillan, Extension economist in farm management.

Of the 19,000 record bookkeepers in Texas, 10,000 are using AAA record books issued through the county agricultural agents.

In comparing totals, it was found that Extension district four has the largest number of record keepers this year, which is 4,439.

Extension district two has the unusual record of having 100 per cent coverage. Every county in this district has some record.

As an example of one outstanding county, St. Augustine County had a total of 991 AAA record books kept this year.

W. L. Knapp, county agricultural agent reports that 75 per cent of this number were contract signers.

"The Extension Service, in line with this record keeping, has recently made an application for a PWA project to provide for a thorough summarizing and analysis of farm records kept in Texas this year," S. A. McMillan said.

"The completion of this project would aid the farmers in each of the 20 types of farming areas of the State to determine the best combination of enterprises and the most efficient size of farm units, thereby aiding them to organize their farms in such a way as to provide the best utilization of their resources and increase farm income," the Extension economist in farm management said.

Speed of Birds

Conditions of wind and weather greatly affect the speed of birds, and where there are records of remarkable individual performances favorable winds may often be regarded as having been a factor.

A carrier pigeon can fly great distances at 40 miles an hour, but this speed may be cut in half against a wind, or doubled if the wind is in the bird's favor.

The swallow is rated one of the swiftest of birds, and there is a record of one which traveled from Compeigne to Antwerp, 140 miles, in an hour and eight minutes.

On the other hand, there is an instance of a golden plover traveling a few miles at a rate of 212 miles per hour, while various observers tell of plovers and curlews covering short distances at better than 200 miles an hour.

OPPORTUNITY TO BUY BROOM FACTORY IS OFFERED LOCAL MAN

A letter addressed to W. A. Cogdell, care of J. H. Self & Son Grocery, Crowell, was received by Mr. Cogdell last week. In the 25-years-ago column of Aug. 29, an item was printed in The News about Mr. Cogdell growing some broom corn and making some fine brooms by hand, which were put on sale at the Self & Son grocery.

Somehow a man at Abilene read the item and confused it with a present day one, with the result that he sent a letter to Mr. Cogdell offering to sell him his complete broom factory equipment, or go into the business with him on a partnership basis.

ing his first of four years with the Wildcats at that time. In 1932, Todd was unable to play against Olney because of a severe arm injury suffered the week before in ankle-deep mud at Paducah and the Cubs won 14-0. With the great Wildcat going at top speed, the Wildcats came through with victories over Olney and district championships in 1933 and 1934.

With a considerable advantage in weight, experience and reserves, plus a more impressive record for this season, the Cubs go in tomorrow's game as the favorite over this section to win. Press reports in daily papers from Olney clearly indicate that fans of Cubville are aware of this fact and are freely predicting that Coach Blannard Spearman's team will return to Young County with the district crown, which Olney wore for five years before Crowell's Wildcats took the situation in hand during the last two seasons.

Going into the game as the underdogs is not a new experience for Coach Grady Graves' Wildcats and in the present situation may be judged by similar ones in the past, it simply means that the Wildcats will fight harder than ever in bringing glory to their school, town and themselves. In past years Crowell athletic teams have handed the dope some of its most severe upsets and local fans believe the Wildcats have as good a chance to come through with a victory as they did when the dope was against them in the 1931 and 1932 Chillicothe games and the 1933 Olney game.

Wildcat fans have loyally supported their team throughout the years and when the Crowell High football boys take the field in tomorrow's decisive battle, they may rest assured that the people of Crowell and surrounding territory are backing them one hundred percent and if moral support and encouragement means anything, the Wildcats will have worlds of it to go with their own skill.

Garlinghouse--

Texas conference at Plainview for this purpose. Burial followed in the Crowell Cemetery.

Pall bearers were: J. R. Allee, E. Swain, Howard Ringgold, T. A. Spears, Julian Wright and Harry Adams.

Flower bearers were, Mrs. W. C. McKown, Mrs. Ben Greening, Mrs. Jim Cook, Mrs. R. R. Magee, Mrs. Willie Dykes, Mrs. A. L. Johnson, Mrs. Henry Lankford, Mrs. Roy Archer.

Cyril Buell Garlinghouse was born in Van Buren County, Iowa, Aug. 14, 1843. At 13 he moved with his family to Effingham County, Illinois. Later the family moved to Switzerland County, Indiana.

At the age of 18, he volunteered for service with the Union forces in Sept., 1861, and entered Co. E, 50th Indiana infantry. After serving three years, he re-enlisted for 3 more years in Co. D, 52nd Indiana infantry and served with this company until he was discharged on Sept. 18, 1865.

Near the end of the war he received a slight injury to his hip when it was struck by a piece of shell. He was sent from there to battles and skirmishes at the Ohio River and through Kentucky to Nashville. He was at Parker's Crossroads and was also present for the capture of Little Rock by General Frederick Steele. One of the hardest battles in which he participated was at Jenkins Ferry, Ark. He was at Mobile, Ala., when the war ended.

His family was living in Spencer County, Ind., upon his return home. From there he went to Kansas and drove an 8-mule team to a freighter. On one of his trips in 1867, the wagon train of which he was a part, was attacked four times by Indians.

From Kansas Mr. Garlinghouse went to Louisiana, where he worked as a carpenter, and from there to Collin County, Texas, where he started work at a cotton gin northeast of McKinney. After working in a country blacksmith shop in Collin County, he went to Old Mexico and got a job as a cowboy in helping to drive cattle to Nebraska. Crossing the Rio Grande at Eagle Pass, he proceeded up the Chisholm Trail and remained with the cattle until reaching a point near Vernon, where he gave up work as a cowboy, and left for Grayson County, settling about 13 miles south of Sherman.

While in Grayson, he and Miss Amelia Fitzpatrick were married July 30, 1879. They remained there a few years before moving to Lebanon, the Indian Territory, now Oklahoma.

After remaining there six years, they came to Crowell Sept. 5, 1891, about five months after the town had been created. Their son, Bruce, was with them at the time. Mr. Garlinghouse went to work for Tom Donahoo in his blacksmith shop at the corner where the Ringgold Variety is now located. After working there a few months he bought the shop and later moved to lots he bought east of the Crowell State Bank.

About 1900 he sold his shop to George Burks and Bill Moncus and bought a farm on Mule Creek, southeast of Margaret. He remained there a few years before returning to Crowell, where he had since made his home in what is probably Crowell's oldest residence. Upon his return he went to work for Burks and shortly afterward bought his tools and established a shop of his own. Mr. Garlinghouse was actively engaged in the blacksmith business until Nov., 1921, when he sold his shop to T. A. Spears, who has since owned and operated this business. He was 78 when he retired from active blacksmith work. For a brief period in 1912, he worked on a commission basis for E. Swaim.

Three children were born to Mr. and Mrs. Garlinghouse, two of whom are living. Bruce, Garlinghouse of Crowell and Elmer Garlinghouse of Eustis, Florida. An infant daughter died in Grayson County.

Mr. Garlinghouse was the last survivor of his own family, which Despite ill-health, in recent years, Mr. Garlinghouse maintained an optimistic nature, throughout his life his unusually friendly attitude to all with whom he came in contact and his general kind nature and square dealing served in gaining hundreds of devoted friends. Even to the last, Mr. Garlinghouse kept well informed on all leading topics of the day and in his passing the county has lost one of its finest and progressive pioneers.

Will Rogers was Only Southwest Cowboy To Take Forty-five Mile Taxicab Ride Any gathering of cowboys would cause Will Rogers to travel any number of miles by train, plane or taxi. He never was completely weaned from the ways of the range. Of his last trips to Texas was to attend the Stamford Cowboy reunion last July 4. It is an annual meeting that always draws the old time ranchers, the working cowboys and the range people from West Texas. Rogers flew from his home in California to Abilene. When he got out of the plane, he hailed a taxi and gave the driver instructions to drive to Stamford. This was too much for the taxi driver, "Stamford?" he repeated in consternation. "Sure," said Rogers, "Won't your car run that far?" Rogers sought to conceal himself in the crowd at Stamford. He wanted to surprise some of his old friends by playing tricks on them before they knew he was in town. But the amazed taxi driver spoiled Rogers' plans. "I think I brought Will Rogers over here," he told the Stamford crowd. "The fellow I brought over is a cow country man and Will Rogers is the only one of that gang who would pay taxi fare to ride 45 miles."

Millions now have an opportunity to contribute to the memory of Will Rogers. Famous friends have organized The Will Rogers Memorial Commission. It is hoped every one who smiled with Rogers will come forward with a subscription. Take it or send it to your bank—or any bank—or use the accompanying coupon to send your

Every man is ready to give in a long catalog of those virtues and good qualities he expects to find in the person of a friend, but very few of us are careful to cultivate them in ourselves.

OLNEY AND CROWELL PAVE WAY TO CHAMPIONSHIP GAME WITH PERFECT DISTRICT RECORDS

Archer City provided the feature victory in District 9-B last week, defeating Seymour 25-0 through the use of a tricky assortment of plays. Chillicothe won as expected but the size of the score, 43-0, over Burk Burnett caused some surprise. Crowell beat Throckmorton 13-0 and Olney swamped Iowa Park 51-0 in maintaining their undefeated records.

Weatherford and Nocona continued strong in District 10 with victories 38-0 and 43-0 over Jacksboro and Bridgeport, respectively. Weatherford and Nocona clash at Weatherford this week for the championship of District 10 and the right to meet the Crowell-Olney winner for bi-district honors. Each team is the champion of its half of the district.

In the district west of here, Matador beat Floydada 20-13 in a thrilling game at Floydada, leaving the Bullfighters as the only undefeated team of the district. Matador still has two tough teams to hurdle, Spur and Paducah.

Childress' startling upset of Quanah to the tune of 20-7, provided the feature in District 5-A. Wichita Falls beat Woodrow Wilson High of Dallas 20-0. Vernon and Electra played each other Armistice Day, Vernon winning 12-6.

Except for the Olney-Crowell and Nocona-Weatherford championships, this will be a quiet weekend in Northwest Texas football. Vernon, Quanah and Wichita Falls have open dates; Childress journey to Cisco; Electra to Grandfield; Iowa Park to Burk Burnett, and Seymour to Throckmorton. Archer City and Chillicothe have open dates.

In ten games last week, we picked 7 winners. We were wrong last week in picking Seymour to beat Archer City; Quanah to beat Childress, and Centenary to beat Baylor.

In games mentioned this week, we pick Crowell to beat Olney; Childress to beat Cisco; Electra to beat Grandfield; Burk to beat Iowa Park, and Seymour to down Throckmorton. In Southwest conference games, we believe Rice will beat T. C. U.; S. M. U. will beat Baylor; Arkansas will beat Texas.

April 27, 1931, and that the 45th anniversary should be an occasion for an even greater celebration. April 27, 1936, will fall on Monday, as it did in 1931.

Other business taking place at the banquet included a report by Geo. Self on Christmas opening plans in Crowell for Friday, Dec. 6; reading of correspondence by H. E. Ferguson regarding efforts to secure a C. C. C. camp for soil conservation work in this area; voting of the membership to continue Thrift Day each Saturday in Crowell; plans for welcoming the proposed special train from Olney, and a few other matters.

Mr. Ferguson read letters from Rep. W. D. McFarlane, stating that he was keeping after the C. C. C. matter for this area. According to a letter received by Mr. McFarlane from the C. C. C. chief, it was stated that consideration would be given to this area in making recommendations for future placements. Alva Spencer, J. E. Harwell, John Roberts, A. F. Wright and Ernest Spears were named on a committee to aid in securing transportation for Olney people arriving by special train for the game here Friday night.

Following discussion and action on several business matters, the regular program for the banquet was conducted with D. R. Magee as toastmaster. An interesting talk was given by Jno. C. Roberts on city and county co-operation that should be given the program started by the Garden Club recently organized in the county by a group of women.

Mr. Roberts stated that in view of the thousands of visitors coming to Texas for the Centennial and for civic pride in general, a real challenge faced local people in planting shrubs and trees and cleaning up their premises so that Crowell and Foard County would not only be a more pleasant place in which to live, but also an area to be favorably remembered by all passing through here. He mentioned that the local Garden Club proposed to conduct a campaign for beautifying streets and highways; a spring clean-up campaign; a contest, a flower show and other activities in this line.

An inspiring tribute to the memory of Will Rogers was given by Geo. Self, who later in the evening presented a framed natural color picture of Will Rogers to Jim Minnick, Foard County rancher and one of the closest personal friends of the great American.

Plans for Foard County's part in the national drive for a living and continuing memorial to Will Rogers were discussed by Mack Boswell, who was named to lead the drive locally.

The association voted to sponsor an auction in Crowell Saturday, details of which are published elsewhere in this issue. Several volunteered to visit Foard schools in spreading information on Will Rogers memorial plans in Foard.

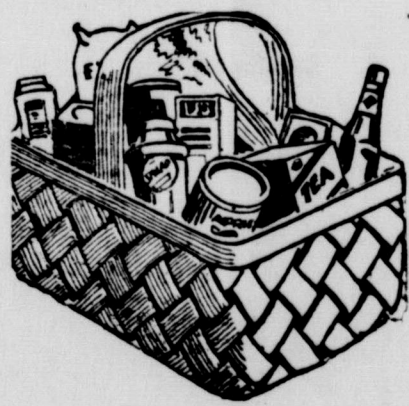

Howard Ringgold volunteered to collect Thrift Day funds for Saturday. A. F. Wright and Leo Spencer were named to sell tickets for the December banquet.

Statue an International Symbol
The Statue of Liberty in New York harbor has become an international symbol, having been used on postage stamps of at least three countries. In 1922 Peru issued a 6 centavos stamp showing the portrait of President Luis M. Sanchez Cerro. After this stamp was placed on sale it was discovered that it conflicted with the laws of Peru. It showed the portrait of a living man. The issue was withdrawn and a new stamp designed using the same frame but substituting the Statue of Liberty for the portrait. Before this was accomplished President Cerro had been deposed and assassinated.

KNOW YOUR WILDCATS
Well, we are back again this week to introduce you to some more Wildcats. First we'll take Paul McKown. Paul, who is said to be following in the footsteps of Dick Todd, is also making a fine reputation for himself as a football player. Paul weighs 151 pounds, is five feet and ten inches tall, and has had two years experience in a uniform. Paul thinks that the game with Olney will be quite close, but he does not know in whose favor.
Another Wildcat that we will probably see in the line-up Friday will be Goodloe Meason. This happens to be Goodloe's first and last year but in spite of this Goodloe is regarded by the fans as a very valuable player. He is five feet eight inches tall, weighs 139 pounds, and is every ounce a Wildcat. He refuses to predict the outcome of the game with the Cubs.
SOME THINGS THEY NEVER FORGET
John Cogdell—A certain Grammer player that showed up in an Olney drug store Friday night.
Frank Meason—A package of chewing gum when he leaves the store so that he can chew after Physics class.
Raymond Kibson—That on Tuesday night Julia Bell must not have a date.
The Chem students—That Chemistry is really hard and there is no use of studying.
The C. H. S. student body—That good grade they made on some easy test last six weeks.

FOOTBALL HIGHLIGHTS

The Wildcats have their toughest opponent to beat before they can claim the district crown again. This is the fifth straight year that the Wildcats and Cubs have fought it out for the top position in the district. On paper the Cubs have the game sewed up, but the Cats seem to think that it is customary to play the game on the gridiron to get the final result.
The Olney crew can place eleven men on the field that average 183 pounds plus, and have a starting lineup that averages 173 pounds plus, which is 24 pounds to the man more than the Wildcats weigh. However, the old saying is, "the larger they are, the harder they fall."
Nine of Crowell's eleven will be playing their last district 9-B game and you should be there if you want to see them perform!

Fine Records Made by Foard County Farm Food Supply Demonstrators

Mrs. Whitten—Riverside
Sale of milk, butter and eggs during the year added $118.30 to the family income, according to Mrs. R. G. Whitten, Farm Food Supply Demonstrator for the Riverside Home Demonstration Club. Of this amount $71.16 was from the sale of eggs, $26.76 from cream, $10.43 from butter, and $9.95 from milk. This was in addition to an adequate supply for the family through the year.
Mrs. Whitten told her club members and visitors at the achievement day meeting on Tuesday, November 12, that she had canned 261 quarts of food and 20 glasses of jelly. This was valued at $79.18. Mrs. Whitten whitewashed the walls of her concrete cellar to make it lighter and arranged the canned food on the shelves, classified it according to food value.
Mrs. Groomer—Good Creek
Fifty-four feet of shelving was added to the cellars in order to provide room for the canned food supply of Mrs. C. H. Groomer, Farm Food Supply demonstrator for the Good Creek Home Demonstration Club. These shelves were made wide enough to hold two rows of jars and about ten and one half inches apart. They were made from one by four's, a small crack being left where the two boards were fitted together. This was not large enough to interfere with the placing of jars but did allow for ventilation. Mrs. Groomer now has four shelves extending down one side and across the end of the cellar.
The wood ceiling of the cellar was whitewashed. The walls which were dirt, were covered with paste-board and this whitewashed with lime and butter milk. The lime cost 30c and the lumber for shelves $2.65 making the total expense of improved storage space $2.95.
Mrs. Groomer has 854 pints of food valued at $157.80 with meats, cheese and some green tomato products yet to be done.
Mrs. Morgan—Vivian
One object Mrs. L. R. Morgan had in developing the farm food supply demonstration was to provide an incentive for making a cellar in which to store her canned products. That aim has been realized. Mrs. Morgan now has a well equipped cellar to take the place of shelves in her dining room for storing her products. The cellar was built and equipped at a cash outlay of $1.65. The top was made from old bridge timber, the walls covered with old cotton sacks, whitewashed with a mixture of seven pounds of lime to one-half gallon of butter milk, and the 51 feet of shelving made from scrap lumber. The cash outlay was for lime and nails.
Mrs. Morgan, who is demonstrator for the Vivian Club reports having canned 896 pints, 76 more quarts were canned in exchange for empty jars to use for her products.
Twenty-nine varieties of vegetables were planted in the garden and thirteen different ones from her garden displayed at the achievement meeting. Mrs. Morgan reports having canned 37 gallons of beans for herself, gave 11 gallons to others, and gave beans to five families from her garden. The total cost of the garden was $3.00.

Many Visit Display of Food at Home of Mrs. F. A. Davis

The West Side Farm Food Supply Achievement Day was a gala affair. It began Wednesday, Nov. 20, at an early hour when the school bus and several cars loaded with Miss Patterson's home economics classes and Coach Graves' agricultural class visited the pantry of Mrs. F. A. Davis to become acquainted with the work of Co-operative Agriculture and Home Economics. They made many complimentary remarks about the display.
The business session of the club was held at ten o'clock. Mrs. Tate gave a report of the co-operatives. It was found that fifteen members had canned 4,489 containers of food in the past year and had assisted 48 families that are not members of H. D. Clubs. Mrs. Davis gave a report of her work as a demonstrator and stated that this achievement had given her a very high regard for the work that A. & M. College is giving in co-operative extension service. After visiting the pantry a bountiful covered dish luncheon was

TURNIP KRAUT

Turnips seem to be plentiful at this time. How about making turnip kraut? Turnip sauerkraut is a very appetizing food product and adds variety to the diet. Some state that they like it even better than cabbage kraut.
One method of making the kraut is to shred the turnips and mix salt with them at the rate of four ounces of salt for each ten pounds of turnips. Pack this mixture directly into glass jars. About an inch head room should be left at the top of the jar for expansion of the gas which is formed. Leave partly open for 2 to 5 days to allow the gas to escape and the jars should be placed in a pan in order to catch the juice that is forced out. After 2 or 3 days the lid may be clamped down and the fermentation allowed to proceed. From 15 to 20 days will be required for the fermentation to be complete.

GRAMMAR SCHOOL ASSEMBLY

The grammar school pupils had a singing program in assembly Wednesday of last week. Mrs. Miller and Miss Carter were in charge of the program. Special numbers were given by Mrs. Crews' Rhythm Band and Miss Hill's chorus.

Miss Holman gave a demonstration on sewing. The club meets again Nov. 22 at the auditorium.
RIVERSIDE H. D. CLUB

Whitten, president; Mrs. Harry Simmonds, vice president; Mrs. Bonnie Schroeder, secretary-treasurer; Miss John Taylor, council delegate. Mrs. John Taylor was appointed farm food supply demonstrator.
Mrs. Whitten, the present farm food supply demonstrator, told what she had done for the past year. Miss Holman made a very interesting talk on fixing cellars and eating certain foods to prevent illness.
Twelve members and one visitor, Mrs. Hershall Butler, were present. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Harry Simmonds Nov.

THE STORY

CHAPTER I — Following his bitter criticism of his idle...

CHAPTER II

For an hour Hal went across the street for a glass of...

"Seven," said Miller. "Six besides yourself, 'ey?"

"I guess I'll see it soon enough," said Hal. "What are we waiting for now?"

"Well, where's everybody else?" "In the office, reckon."

"How about loading 'em in and starting?" Miller chuckled again. "Guess we might as well."

Hal leaned against a pillar of the garage—hands in side pockets, quick, sure eyes brooding, mouth moodily set between the lean lines of his cheeks—and watched them file in, his "companions" for an eight-day July drive through country which he vaguely conceived as the flat, dusty setting for mid-western novels.

First came Mr. and Mrs. Pulsipher—she almost scuttling, like a brood hen who knows that in another moment panic will be at her heels, and he following close with lanky bewilderment and the short steps of someone being pushed from behind. They hurried into the back seat.

Then came the nun, who had sat cool and unmoving all this time in a corner of the office, her tranquil face patient, faintly sad, and immaculate as its tight white framing. And then came Miller, stuffing soiled money into his soiled wallet; and then Martin Crack, looking like an ambitious, easily pleased countryman except for the special tidiness of his thinning hair and the lazy speculation under his blue eyes.

After a while he said, "She's going to Hollywood?" "I like to see what she's up to," said Hal. "I like to see what she's up to," said Hal.

ankles; I hope Martin Crack makes you and makes you like it. A little after eleven, some luggage—two veteran suitcases, a cardboard hatbox already losing the rim of its lid and a dress-box tied up with two kinds of string—arrived from the Grand Central. It was the work of but fifteen minutes more for Larsen to find Jake Miller in the garage behind the office and start him loading. Miller's car was a large Packard sedan of another decade with paint stained and lustrous as the garage floor, a diagonal of adhesive tape across the dull windshield, and all the nickel-work the color of old and unloved pewter.

Miller's futile hand unfolded an immense trunk rack on the back, took out a tarpaulin and began spreading it with care over two oil puddles on the garage floor. On this he stacked the luggage with what seemed accidental neatness and lashed the tarpaulin around it with clothesline.

Added to everything else, thought Hal, he'll go sound asleep at the wheel and run us into somebody's house. "How many passengers have you got?" Hal asked when the luggage was up.

"Seven," said Miller. "Six besides yourself, 'ey?" "Got a invention. Got a seat stands on a box between the jump-seats." He chuckled as if he had outwitted some one. "I'll show it to you."

"I guess I'll see it soon enough," said Hal. "What are we waiting for now?" "Nothin'," said Miller, grinning. "Well, where's everybody else?" "In the office, reckon."

"How about loading 'em in and starting?" Miller chuckled again. "Guess we might as well."

Europe." The burly man in the front seat turned slowly and suspiciously round, a fresh but unheeded cigarette puffing and goggling at the side of his lips as he said, "Which boat, ma'am?" "All the boats—to Europe," said Mrs. Pulsipher, her manner implying she hadn't been speaking to him.

The man edged himself sidewise, with his arm along the back of the seat, and looked at her with a scholar's potential respect. "You've been to Europe," he stated. "No," said Mrs. Pulsipher severely. "But we've been in New York two weeks and my son-in-law from Bridgeport showed us all over and showed us where the boat goes from."

"I believe you, mam," said the man, his deep voice quiet and respectful. "It's very interesting. My name is Kerrigan—Giles Kerrigan. I am looking forward to this journey, but I judge we're mostly strangers. Let us have introductions." His unsmiling look continued past Hal in the direction of Mrs. Pulsipher.

"Mrs. Ella Pulsipher," she said, less severely: "and that's John Pulsipher, my husband." "You're from Iowa, mam," said Kerrigan. "Yes," said Mrs. Pulsipher, interested beyond distrust now. "Burbank. How did you guess?" "Los Angeles is the capital of Iowa, mam," said Kerrigan solemnly. "and I was told this crate—this car was going there." Hal thought, the man's probably a nut. Kerrigan went on: "I vote for you for chaperon of this emigration, Mrs. P. Will you get us the names of the other ladies?"

There was a moment of silence and then a very soft, careful, faintly foreign voice behind Hal said, "I am Sister Anastasia." It was surprisingly beautiful to hear her say "Anna-stahzia." Hal looked up at the duplicate rear-vision mirror to see if the Trafford girl's expression was as soft and gentle as that name, but he could see only her clear, possessed profile and the brief flow of golden hair under the protective rim of her blue hat.

CROWELL HIGH WINS 13-0 OVER THROCKMORTON

The Crowell Wildcats defeated the Throckmorton Greyhounds 13 to 0 on a muddy field at Throckmorton last Friday afternoon. This made Crowell's sixth successive win in District 9-B, and maintained the Wildcats' perfect record in conference competition.

Both of Crowell's touchdowns were made in the second quarter. McKown scored the first one on an off-tackle jaunt of 10 yards. A 30-yard pass, Saunders to Wiggins, put the ball in scoring position after two tries at the line. McKown went across and then hit the line for the extra point, making the score 7-0.

On the first play after receiving the kick-off, a Throckmorton pass was intercepted by McKown who ran over 50 yards in crossing the goal line, however, it was ruled that he went out-of-bounds on the 8-yard line. Crews gained 3 yards and then Frank Meason plunged five yards for the second and final touchdown. A pass for extra point failed. Crowell 13, Throckmorton 0.

Numerous penalties in the third quarter offset several Crowell gains. Sam Crews contributed one of the prettiest plays of the game in the final period when he caught Wiggins' pass and then raced about 50 yards for a touchdown with the aid of some fine blocking by Dunn and Saunders. Due to Crowell being offside, the ball was called back and Crowell penalized 5 yards. Near the end of the game, the Wildcats reached Throckmorton's 8-yard line, but lost the ball on downs. Throckmorton never threatened to score during the game.

Outstanding defensive work by Captain Aldon Horn was one of the features of the game. Crowell completed the only two passes attempted by the Wildcats. The Greyhounds tried 6, completed none and had 3 intercepted.
