Southland Boys In Service

2/c Seaman J. W. Corley, Jr., who is stationed at San Diego, came home Thursday to visit his parents in Lubbock.

Lt. Charles Clark and wife visited the school Friday. The former coach had just completed his secondary training at Pampa and was en route to Austin for his final course. They planned to visit her parents at Wilson and his, who reside at Pensacola.

Last Wednesday at the Northwestern University at Evanston, Ill., out of a class of 200 seamen, 69 were promoted to 3/c petty officers. Leon King was among the lucky few.

Lt. Garth Thomas of the Marines stationed at El Toro, Calif., writes of a scarcity of training planes until lately.

Lt. J. J. Duff, Jr., who has been stationed in Alaska since last year, writes his brother that there are so few girls in Alaska, that the scarcity is acute.

Billy Becker made the best grade in code in his group at the University of Colorado. He has seven more weeks to make the required grade of 40 words per minute and he already has 37.

This boy, who didn't finish his Freshman year in high school, is proud of his sheaf of perfect papers returned to him.

Stationed At San Diego

Lawrence Skively, store keeper, 2 class, of the United States Navy, and former teacher in the Post High school in charge of the band, writes Mrs. F. L. Bailey from San Diego, California where he has recently been stationed. "I am now attached to the navy landing force at the Destroyer base. There are fifteen or twenty boys in the office from Texas so I feel quite at home here. I see by the Post Dispatch that the teaching force has changed quite a bit but I notice Mr. Bearden is still there, tell him "hello" for me. I wonder how Mr. Holman likes his job. I am really enjoying the paper, it is always interesting to read about people back home. Just to see names of people you know gives one quite a thrill."

Lawrence enlisted in the Navy more than a year ago and was at first stationed in San Francisco.

Calls Parents Sunday

Pfc. Pervin G. Drake called his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Drake Sunday saying he was okay and was getting along fine. Pervin is requesting a furlough and expects to visit here soon. He will be glad to see all his friends and relatives. He is stationed in Kansas.

SPOTLIGHT ON THE SOUTH PACIFIC

NEW YORK—This map shows you the area of which General Douglas MacArthur speaks in his warning that the Japs are winding up for another all-out offensive in the South Pacific. The Japs have massed air and naval power in the region of Truk and Rabaul and around other bases in the areas marked in black. They also have an estimated 200,000 men concentrated at bases around Australia. Secretary of War Stimson announced that MacArthur would be given the planes he asked for to cope with the new Jap threat.

Little Scotchman Is Spending Furlough In Post

Jack (Scotchman) Samson arrived in Post last weekend to spend several days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George (Scotchman) Samson. Jack was accompanied by Corp. Bowen of New Haven, Conn. Both soldiers are stationed at Camp Hood, Texas. The visitor, who returned to camp Monday afternoon, had never been in the cattle country before so he was shown the wide-open places by "old-timer" Jack. In commenting on the ranches here the Yankee said, "You all sure have lots of room here... the people, too, follow the pattern of the country and are the biggest hearted folks I have ever met." He was impressed, too, by the fact that everybody knows everybody else and said, "Why, Jack knows everybody." Corp. Bowen before entering the army was a bookkeeper in a bank in New Haven. Jack brought the editor of the Dispatch the April 15th edition of The Hood Panther, camp paper, published every two weeks under the supervision of the Special Service Office of the Tank Destroyer school is designed to emphasize the words... Seek, Strike, Destroy... and is used effectively on the paper heading.

Sgt. Bob Gibson of the South Plains Army Flying School was in Post Monday and was the guest of George Samson. Gibson before entering the air corps was connected with the Triple A Office in Post.

Visit Here

L. J. Richardson, jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Richardson, sr., spent the weekend in Post visiting with his family and friends. He is stationed at Sheppard Field in Wichita Falls and is classed as Specialist Clerk General. He formerly was an employee of the First National bank.

Finishes Basic Training

Eugene Tennison, of the U. S. Navy, son of Rev. and Mrs. R. C. Tennison, finished his basic training at Norman, Oklahoma, on May 1 and is now classed as Aviation Mechanist Mate 3/c. He will be transferred sometime soon to another training center, it is understood.

Receives Commission

Pt. Leonard Wood, Mo.—William C. Lester, whose wife, Mrs. Beulah F. Lester, lives on route 2, Post, was commissioned a second lieutenant in the Corps of Engineers on completion of a course of instruction at the Officer Candidate School at Fort Belvoir, Va., recently, and has been assigned to the Engineer Replacement Training Center here for duty.

Visits Parents Here

Pvt. Wagner Johnson who is stationed in Clovis, New Mexico, visited homefolks and friends from Thursday of last week until Saturday afternoon. He returned to camp Saturday night.

Corporal and Mrs. Edsel Cross of Mass. arrived in Post on Wednesday for a visit with their parents.

Since the beginning of the stocking salvage campaign three months ago, 12,522,540 pairs of silk and nylon stockings have been salvaged by the women of America for war use. In the third month period, which ended February 15, 252,969 pounds of hosiery were collected in stocking salvage depots of thousands of retail stores. This is an increase of 81.4 percent over the first months collection figure, bringing the total up to 626,127 pounds.

Eighth Grade Students Finish Active Year's Work

By Lavena Carpenter

The Eighth grade has had three sponsors during this year. Our class was first organized under Miss Memphis Porter. Our present sponsors are Miss Fannie Faye Porter and Mrs. E. Cash. The Eighth grade class met early in September to organize. James Everett was elected president of the class; Roy Lee Mullins, vice president; Lee Roy Jenkins, treasurer; Sunny M. Cray, secretary; and Peggy Sue Robinson, reporter. Mrs. Outlaw and Mrs. Robinson were chosen for room mothers.

The first important class event was the participation of our class in the race for Halloween Queen. In a class meeting on October 29, 1942, Grace Evelyn Williamson was nominated as our candidate. Boxes were placed in stores and offices in town. We were very proud of our representative. She was dressed in a bright colored Halloween costume. Her escort was Gene Hyden Giles. The money taken in from votes was turned over to the P-TA which sponsored the carnival.

During November the town of Post was combed for any scrap metal, rubber and other items essential to war needs. The eighth grade was divided into several groups. Some went to farms inquiring for scrap. Others visited many places they knew where scrap had been discarded. Still others went from door to door within the town. The eighth grade found a metal statue of Hitler and put it in front of their pile of scrap. Then when they brought their scrap they threw it at him as a sign of how the scrap was going to harm him. Most of the Eighth grade participated freely in this and everyone had fun working for the victory of the nation.

Our one party of the year was a Christmas party. It was held in the High school gymnasium. Several very interesting games were played. Refreshments were prepared and served by the room mothers.

The Eighth grade planned a picnic last Friday. They chose to remain on the school campus. Our room mothers brought some delicious food to go with our individual lunches. We played several basketball games. Later we were served ice cream and cookies by our room mothers. —Reporter

Mrs. Roy Mullins presented her expression and personality pupils in a recital May 4 at the High school auditorium. She had very clever stage decorations and costumes. The program was made up of songs and readings.

Wednesday, May 5, at 5 o'clock Miss Maxine Durrett, who directed the Sophomore plays, took the play casts, stage manager, prompter and their guests to Two Draw lake for a swim and after that a picnic supper. Twenty-five attended. Everybody enjoyed it.

The Baccalaureate sermon is to be Sunday night at 8:30 at the High school auditorium. Rev. R. C. Tennison is to talk.

School Buses Frozen On Job

School buses must be kept on the same job unless special approval is obtained from the Office of Defense Transportation. School superintendents in Texas were notified this week to remind bus operators whose contracts expire at the end of this term that all such vehicles were frozen in service by a recent ODT order.

Onion, Potato Maximums Raised

Maximum prices on dry onions and white potatoes of the late 1942 crop for sales during May and June, 1943, will be 10 cents higher than in April, the OPA has announced. The change in price is designed to spread available supplies evenly over the next three months.

Now is a good time for all business men to take a good look at the last syllable in industry.

ABOUT THAT GARDEN

... the Scotchman

Dig For Victory

Dig! Yes and do a thorough job of it for your Victory Garden is going to be more important than ever this year.

Keep Ahead of Pests

It is a lot easier to apply the "ounce of prevention" rather than the "pound of cure" so necessary once insects are well established.

Common Pests In The Victory Garden

Cutworm— Will appear on all crops and newly set plants; they will appear from the time the garden is prepared up to June 15; apply poison bait at 2-week intervals.

Cabbage Maggots— Will appear on all members of the cabbage family; will appear during the first three weeks of May; apply corrosive sublimate solution.

Flea Beetle— Will appear on tomatoes, potato and eggplant; they will appear from the time the plants are set up to June 1; keep a light coating of copper-arsenate on the leaves.

Aphis— Will appear on almost any crop, especially peas; will appear anytime; apply a contact poison such as nicotine sulphate.

Cabbage Worm— Will appear on any members of the cabbage family; will appear from June 1 to fall freeze; keep leaves covered with non-poisonous material, rotenone or pyrethrum. If not obtainable use arsenate until heads start to form.

Cucumber Beetle— Will appear on most of the vine crops; they will appear from the time the seedlings appear to July 15; apply a light coating of any contact or stomach poison on leaves or cover plants with netting.

Mexican Bean Beetle— Will appear on most all kinds of beans; they will appear from June 5-25 and from August 5-25; apply any bean beetle material to both sides of leaves during this period.

Editor's Note— "Keep 'em Growing" ideas for May will be the basis for the Scotchman's Column next week. Watch for it as worthwhile and practical information for the Flower garden will be listed.

INOCULATION OF LEGUME SEED

Thorough inoculation is necessary if legume crops are to make their best yields and to be of any value to the soil in the way of soil building.

The material used in inoculation are laboratory cultures in which the bacteria or organism has been grown or introduced.

The cost of the inoculation material is cheap, a small can will inoculate up to 120 pounds of peas or soybeans, this size can retails for about thirty cents.

Trucks Engaged In War Service Get Priority Service

Motor trucks engaged in war-time service, motor trucks engaged in off-the-farm movement of important food and other farm products need special attention to assure their ability to shoulder the burden of hauling the tremendously increased tonnage of this year's production.

Dealers everywhere are giving priority in their service departments to the maintenance of vehicles in essential highway transportation.

Frequent check-ups of such vital units as the engine, starter, generator, clutch, transmission, universal joints, rear axle, brakes, steering gear and tires are recommended.

Entered at the Post Office at Post, Texas, as second class mail matter, according to an Act of Congress, March 3, 1879.

BOYS DO LIKE THE HOME TOWN NEWSPAPER

In a recent newspaper story by a prominent and widely known editor, he stated that "Hometown newspapers take up badly needed cargo space, and reports indicate that they are only sketchily read."

The Post Dispatch is only an ordinary publication printed once a week, but if this editor will only take time we can show him proof that the local paper is read with interest by more soldiers, sailors and marines than any other printed matter outside personal letters. Not only are the boys in service reading the paper but they write letters to the editor from all over the world asking him to send the "home town paper," and give him news to print in order that his buddies in the far corners of the world can keep up with him. We would like to let the man who made the statement read letters from the boys at the front; let him see the faces of the parents stopping by to tell that their children have been receiving the Dispatch; let him hear with his own ears the sincere comments from the daily visitors of servicemen and women who praise the paper and exercise great care in giving their address in order that they will not miss a copy. . . . Every publisher of a country weekly can produce similar evidence that his paper is looked forward to with pleasure and welcomed joyously by men in

TWO-LEGGED STOOL

Public statements have been issued by the War Manpower Commission and the Department of Agriculture appealing to employees in various phases of production and processing of food to remain on the job. They were informed that they were contributing as much, if not more to the war effort than they were working at other war activities.

No one questions the essentiality of food production and processing. But what of the food after it has been processed? It is utterly inconsistent, as well as useless to encourage food production and processing, and then ignore distribution. Thousands of retail merchants are going out of business. With each merchant that retires from the field, the problem of how to get food and other necessities to consumers becomes more efficient. We don't hear a great deal about those other necessities, but they are as important as food.

The retail distribution industry must feed and clothe 130,000,000 Americans. The scope and complexity of its task is tremendous. It is a task that must be carried out smoothly or the war effort will topple like a two-legged stool.

We have no desire to toot our own horn, but we thought the famous editor had better stand corrected on this particular point of Home Town Papers.

TEAMWORK

One of those simple arrangements that has a two-way benefit has been worked out at Paris, Missouri. A farm family that expects to have some surplus garden stuff teams up with a town family that is going to need vegetables for immediate use or canning. The local Triple A Farm Field woman is the connecting link in this case.

The procedure is simple and can be adapted to any community. The farm family notifies the intermediary that it will have some extra produce. The town family gives notice of its wants. Then the two are matched up. As a result there is no waste, and this is a year when we cannot afford to waste food. —Country Gentleman.

Make your scraps reduce the Axis to crumbs. Your scrap metal is needed now.

Views of Neighboring Editors:

The Lynn County News—The housewives of Lynn county seem to be doing their part to feed the nation. One Tahoka grocery store alone has been paying to farmer's wives an average of more than a thousand dollars a week for eggs, according to the proprietor. And his chicken feed business has grown into quite a big business itself. When all the grocery stores and all the produce houses operating in the county are taken into consideration, it becomes apparent that many thousands of dollars worth of eggs are produced and sold each week. In a year's time it would run into the hundreds of thousands. The Lynn county hen is worth more than an oil field right now.

The Scurry County Times—The federal government, in a general memorandum to the people of Scurry and adjoining counties, asks that people spike rumors that War Ration Book No. 3, which will be issued in July, will include stamps for rationing of many items of clothing and food not now limited. There is a good chance that a few items in addition to those rationed, will be limited by July, but the new ration book is, in the main, a replacement for War Ration Book No. 1, coupons in which are already playing out.

Rationing has not hurt the American public too much so far, and those who holler the loudest, according to a governmental viewpoint, are those who waste essential supplies of food and clothing, and have not yet learned a lesson of thrift and savings.

Colorado Record—This war, you think, has changed many things for us all—travel and comfort and certainty. Most of all it has changed home for the fellows who are fighting this war rather than fussing at it from a safe angle. Home for them is no longer a settled place. Home is a train with the baby crying . . . a tourist camp . . . quarters at the post . . . a small room somewhere for which a patriotic landlord charges triple rent.

We who have stayed in our homes, what do we know about changes? What have we done of which we can boast when we see these little Army wives? There are two riding with their soldier husbands Going to Alexandria, La. They're pretty girls, especially the black-haired, red-lipped one. But they're tired and their too young faces show the strain. The prettier one, bare-legged, sandal-footed, bare-headed, rests her head on her sergeant husband's shoulder. You look away.

Good luck has a habit of always butting in while a man is hard at work.

Double Wedding Plans Announced At Lovely Tea Wed.

A beautifully appointed tea to announce the approaching marriage of her daughters, Billie and June, was given by Mrs. Lee Bowen on Wednesday afternoon. The Bowen home was artistically decorated for the occasion with handsome bouquets of summer roses in pink and white and a lovely touch of bright red was added by use of sprays of Paul's Scarlet climber roses combined with mock orange blossoms of white.

In the receiving line were the brides, Misses Billie and June and Mrs. E. W. Sutton. The brides-elect were dressed in beautiful floor length net frocks of blue and white respectively and each wore a shoulder corsage fashioned from pink and white roses and fern.

Miss Billie will become the bride of Orland Cannon, who is a member of the U. S. Air Corps and is stationed at Del Rio, Texas. His home is in Idalou and he is the son of Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Cannon of that city. Miss June will become the bride of John Sutton, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Sutton of Post. He is a member of the Geophysical crew of the Scholeser Oil Company. The wedding will take place at the First Baptist church at six o'clock in the evening on Sunday, May 16. Judge J. Lee Bowen will give his daughters in marriage at the double ceremony.

Miss Margie Smith presided at the refreshment table from which lovely refreshments of punch, open faced sandwiches, individual rakes squares and nuts were served. The lace covered table was centered with an unusual arrangement of red and white roses in divided crystal holders and flanking each side of the arrangement were tall blue candles in crystal holders. The entire floral piece rested on a crystal mirror. All crystal services were used on the table.

The announcement was revealed as guests were presented with favors of miniature rice bags of white net tied with blue and white ribbons and holding small scrolls with the inscription: "Orland and Billie, John and June, May 16."

Presiding at the brides' book was Miss Zelma Stephens, cousin of the honorees. The books were fashioned from white paper and each was decorated with a lovely picture of the bride-elect. Around each picture was a lace frill and an attractive satin bow in the brides' chosen colors. More than one hundred friends registered in the books.

Miss Erma Lee Cass and Miss Margaret Stone were houseguests of Miss Helen Lanham in San Angelo last week end. They attended the officer's dance at Goodfellow Field on Saturday night.

Guests in the L. J. Richardson, Sr. home Sunday were Private L. J. Richardson of Sheppard Field, Mrs. Leroy McCrary and Bill of Amarillo, Mr. and Mrs. Preston Mathis, Mr. and Mrs. Floy Richardson and Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Haws of Post.

Miss Virginia Elliott To Marry Lewis G. Williams

Miss Virginia Elliott announced her approaching marriage to Lewis G. Williams of Camp Carson, Colorado, on last Friday night when she entertained the trustees and their wives of the Verbena school. Miss Elliott is principal of the school and honors the school board each year with a cleverly arranged party.

The wedding date was not revealed but the month was announced as the hostess served a refreshment plate during the closing hours of the party. The inscription "Lewis-Virginia, June 1943" was attractively arranged on the cookies that were cut in the shape of wedding bells. Sandwiches, ritz crackers and punch completed the delicious refreshment course. A pink and white color theme was stressed in table covers and the chosen colors were also used in appointments for the same tables. The hostess designed the score pads and tally cards. Just as she was serving the refreshments, Mrs. Patterson, 90-year-old friend who is making her home with Miss Elliott, read a very suitable poem, "Advice to a Girl" that set the theme for the announcement to follow.

Games of "42" and rummy formed the diversion for the lovely party. Guests attending were Messrs. and Mrs. Charlie Bird, Julius Fumigalli, A. M. Lucas, M. R. Davis, Roy Pennington, Holly and Sol Davis and Mr. Al Bird and Mrs. Patterson.

The bridegroom-elect before joining the army lived in Tahoka. It is understood that Miss Elliott will continue with her teaching at the Verbena school. She was recently re-elected by the school board.

25th Anniversary Observed By Ray W. Rickers Sunday

Mr. and Mrs. Ray C. Rickers observed their silver wedding anniversary on Sunday when members of their family and relatives from Lubbock assembled at their home in Post.

The Rickers were married on May 3, 1918, in Detroit, Michigan. They have been living in Post several years and have a host of friends here who sent congratulations to them on their anniversary. The birthday of their granddaughter, Connie Joe Holl, was also observed on their wedding date.

A beautifully decorated wedding cake formed the attractive and appropriate centerpiece for the dining table which marked places for the honor couple, Mr. and Mrs. R. Rickers and Mr. and Mrs. Wes Rickers, all of Lubbock. Mrs. Ruth Ross and two children, and Ray Rickers, Jr. The couple received many lovely gifts.

Mrs. Ben Sargee Is Hostess On Tuesday With Luncheon

Mrs. Bennie Sargee was charming hostess to a number of friends Tuesday at one o'clock with a delightful luncheon.

Informality was the keynote of the party and an hour of interesting conversation was enjoyed around the beautifully appointed table. Places were marked by hand-painted cards bearing clever reproductions of blue birds. Pottery services added a colorful note to the luncheon table that was centered with a lovely bouquet of seasonal flowers.

Those enjoying the occasion with Mrs. Sargee were Mrs. W. R. Graeber, Lester Presson, T. L. Jones, W. F. Presson, O. D. Cardwell, Ed Warren, J. E. Parker and Irene Rodgers.

"Hobo" Party Closed Year's Club Events For Jr. Culture Club

By Ethel Jones Love

One of the most unique parties took place Monday evening when the Junior Culture club had their last social of the year. The event of the evening was a "Hobo" supper, in which all club members dressed accordingly.

The group met at 7:15 with Margie Smith, and from there walked to Mrs. Surman Clark's for open faced sandwiches. Then our course took us to the home of Mrs. Lee Bowen where delicious fried chicken was served. Our curiosity was getting the better of us by this time, and we wondered where next we were to be led. It didn't take long to find out, when we stopped at Mrs. Jack Martin's to get some cornbread, which we carried to the home of Mrs. Noah Stone, who had ready for us a large pot of red beans and onions. This we thought, was surely the end of our feast, but no, back we went to Mrs. Martin's where we were served carrot sticks and celery. There the girls who "were not dressed up enough" according to the rest of the crowd, were immediately redecorated before going to the home of Mrs. R. Cox where potato salad was enjoyed while relaxing on the lawn.

Surprises never ceased, for from there we went to the home of Mrs. Edward Warren, with Kitty Faires as hostess, where refreshing iced tea and peanuts were awaiting us. Here we took advantage of the beautiful patio swing and chairs to really catch our breath. Our last stop was at the home of Mrs. Ashley Lawson where apple cobbler was enjoyed.

Some of the girls decided additional exercise was needed, so acrobatics, leap frog and various games were played on the back lawn. We then went into the house where games, accompanied by music were played and after every one singing "Goodnight Ladies" we returned to our respective homes. Miss Fannie Faye Porter won the prize for being dressed in the most appropriate manner. She was given an unusual piece of lingerie.

Those participating in the hilarious event were: Mesdames Ashley Lawson, Surman Clark, W. C. Love, Jack Martin; Misses Billie and June Bowen, Margaret Stone, Mary Ruth Haggard, Gene Duff, Sybil Pirtle, Barbara Jo Cox, Thelma Clark, Maxine Durrett, Margie Smith, Fannie Faye Porter and Kitty Faires and our guest, Mrs. Edward Warren.

Al Bird has as his guest his daughter, Mary Kay, who arrived here several days ago from California where she has been with her husband who is in the Air Corps. He is now assigned to the Ferrying Service between America and England. Mary Kay will live here temporarily.

Miss Billie Gene Ferguson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cleo Ferguson, is attending a beauty operators school in Lubbock.

Ceremony For Miss Helen Wells and S. Sgt. Caffey Held

Wedding vows were read for Miss Helen Wells, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gid Wells of Morton, Texas, and S/Sgt. Henry Caffey, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Caffey of Post, Saturday evening, April 24, at 7:00 p. m.

The ceremony was performed in the parsonage of Rev. Jeff D. Welch, pastor of the Central Baptist church, Lubbock. Rev. Welch officiated for a single ring ceremony.

The bride wore a navy alpaca suit with navy and white accessories. Her hat was navy and white with shoulder length veil, and she carried a white Bible presented to her by Miss Mary Lanham. For something blue, she carried a blue chiffon handkerchief belonging to Miss Isabelle Speer. The maid of honor, Miss Isabelle Speer, wore a powder blue alpaca dress with black patent accessories. The bridegroom was attended by Sgt. D. J. Plausche of South Plains Army Flying School.

The bride is a senior student of Texas Technological college, where she is a member of Alpha Chi, and Phi Sigma Alpha, and is a former graduate of Idalou high school. The bridegroom, who lived in Post, before entering the Army is now stationed at South Plains Army Flying School.

The couple will be at home at 1938, Avenue N in Lubbock.

Culture Club Met In Home Of Mrs. B. E. Young

The Culture club met in regular session last week in the home of Mrs. B. E. Young. The study was based on topics from Time Magazine with Mrs. J. R. Durrett as leader. The following report of the meeting was given by Mrs. John Cearley:

"Food and Wages: The Interlocking Problem," a discussion of the Bankhead Bill and its subsequent veto by the President, was presented by Mrs. John Cearley.

"Child Prodigies is Crime" was discussed by Mrs. J. E. Parker. There has always been a juvenile delinquency problem but there has been an alarming rise in the number of cases this last year.

Mrs. T. L. Jones presented the article, "Is Home Training Necessary?" Specifically, is home training necessary for the making of a good soldier. It was generally agreed that good home training in early years is the basis for all life, soldier or civilian.

There was much interest in these problems as evidenced by the general discussion on all the topics.

In the business session it was decided, since the district convention in Amarillo was to be only one day, that we not send a delegate. Plans were completed for the final meeting. Mrs. J. R. Durrett and Mrs. J. E. Parker were named to make all arrangements.

The hostess passed refreshment plates of delicious tea and cookies to ten members.

Mrs. Casey Pippin arrived here last Tuesday from Madison, Wisconsin, where she has been with her husband for several months. Casey who is in the Army Air Corps as radio technician was transferred recently to Boca Raton, Florida, for a special course. Following his work at Boca Raton he was sent to Tallahassee, Florida, and is now out on a field trip for several weeks. Mrs. Pippin expects to join him later in the summer.

"THE PALM BEACH STORY" AT THE GARZA THEATRE SUNDAY AND MONDAY

Claudette Colbert and Joel McCrea are co-starred for the first time in Paramount's "The Palm Beach Story" which comes to the Garza Theatre Sunday and Monday.

"The Palm Beach Story" is said to be a highly humorous tale of married love temporarily sidetracked because the little woman believes she can be more of a helpmate as a "sister" than as a wife.

Rudy Vallee is cast as the richest man in the world and Mary Astor plays his matrimonially-minded sister.

Miss Kitty Faires spent the week end at her home in Lamesa. Her brother, Leah, and several friends came for her Saturday afternoon and brought her back to Post late Sunday afternoon.

War Prisoner Pays Tribute To Red Cross

Remain calm and trust the Red Cross.

That's the essence of letters Captain Joseph S. Frelinghuysen, Jr., son of the former senator from New Jersey and now a prisoner of war in Italy, wrote his mother. Captain Frelinghuysen, captured by the Germans in November while on a reconnaissance mission, writes:

"I am in a transient prison camp in Italy. See the Red Cross about my address. Can receive mail and parcels. Please don't have a fit. I'm much better off than you might think. Don't forget your contribution to the Red Cross."

Again, after telling how the monotony of camp, he writes: "Red Cross food packages are extremely welcome. They are being received weekly. Please send the same toilet articles and some wool clothing. I'm sure the Red Cross will tell you details about the size of the box," and in subsequent letter "our chaf, progresses fairly well without even tanning fork or a catch pipe."

In his last letter to his wife, Captain Frelinghuysen, who was awarded a silver star for gallantry in action when landing at Oran, says: "Things are going generally well. I hope you are still working for the Red Cross."

YANKEE DOODLE DANDY

WALTER HUSTON • RICHARD WHORF • Directed by MICHAEL CURTIZ

JEANNE CAGNEY • FRANCES LANGFORD • GEORGE TOBIAS • IRENE MANNING

"Yankee Doodle Dandy" At Garza Wed. - Thurs.

The year's most spectacular film is on its way to the Garza Theatre and will be shown next Wednesday and Thursday. Yet, spectacular in its true sense, does not describe "Yankee Doodle Dandy."

"Yankee Doodle Dandy" tells the life story of America's greatest showman—George M. Cohan. And it tells that story in the grandest way possible—through the songs and plays that he wrote—his vaudeville and legitimate stage career and through the inspiration he gave to others. It is the life story of a man, but it is also the life story of show business from the 1880's until today.

James Cagney plays the role of George M. Cohan, and advance reports say that he fits it in every detail. His hoofing is perfect and his talking of songs rather than really singing them, which was always Cohan's way of putting over a number, makes the characterization perfect.

The cast is made up of a fine group of performers. Joan Leslie is cast as Mary, a naive girl who wants to get on the stage. She meets George M. Cohan and he gives her a chance to do a song and dance act. However he decides she'd make a better wife than a vaudeville act, and she becomes Mrs. George M. Cohan. The Four Cohans, which in the Gay Nineties was famous in every town that was large enough to have a theatre, was made up of Jerry Cohan, played by Walter Huston; Nellie, his wife, played by Rosemary DeCamp; Jeanie, George's sister, portrayed by Jeanne Cagney, and George himself, Sam Harris, the musical producer who played a very important part in Cohan's life, is portrayed by Richard Ward. Fay Tompkins, who was the country's heartthrobs at the turn of the century, is played by alluring Irene Manning, whose charming soprano voice does full justice to Cohan's lively tune, "Mary's A Grand Old Name."

Navy Wants Men For Seabee Division

Every Navy recruiting station in the Dallas district today is preparing to handle a land-office business in the enlistment of Seabees, following the announcement that for the first time since last December, men between the ages of 18 and 35, as well as the 17-year-olds and the men between 38 and 50 can volunteer their services for the Navy's construction battalions.

Under the new plan for voluntary induction, eligibles between 18 and 35 now can use their trade to fight with the Navy Seabees. This new setup will allow the applicant first to visit his nearest Navy recruiting station, where a preliminary physical examination will be given, and a check made of his skilled trade qualifications to determine if he is in the profession needed.

Upon approval, the applicant then will be sent to the main recruiting station in Dallas, transportation furnished, where he will undergo a complete physical exam and be granted an interview by a construction officer. If found qualified, he will be advised concerning ratings and then given a letter directed to his local draft board, with instructions to be inducted in the next induction date, or no longer than 30 days from that date.

Hereafter, only boys 17 and men over 38 could volunteer for the Seabees with assurance that they would get the branch of the service. A similar plan is employed by the army.
