Heavy Poll Tax Paid in Lynn

The total number of poll tax receipts issued up to February 1st amounted to 2,667, with 45 exemptions, according to the report of Sheriff and Tax Collector Sanford furnished the Index. It is a hard matter to estimate the number of voters that will participate in the coming elections, as there has been such a great influx of people, the greater part of whom will be entitled to vote. The following shows the number paid in each precinct:

L. L. Busby Again Candidate for Public Weigher

L. L. Busby announces his candidacy this week for reelection to the office of Public Weigher for Commissioners' Precinct No. 4. In making this announcement, the Index does not deem it necessary to introduce Mr. Busby to the voters who will participate in the Democratic primaries, since he is better known in his precinct than the writer, but suffice it to say that he has filled the office he seeks with accuracy, neatness and dispatch during the past season and if there has been one dissatisfied patron of his scales the Index has not heard of it. Mr. Busby has been a resident of the county for 8 years and is known by all for his honesty, sobriety and square dealings with all whom he has come in contact. Mr. Busby wants your vote and influence in the coming Democratic primaries.

R. P. Smith came in Thursday with a car loaded with household goods, farming implements and livestock. He will start farming operations at once on his farm near Newmoore.

Season Supper for Benefit of Library

The school, with the cooperation and assistance of the mothers of the school and the business men of the town, are planning a Season Supper on Thursday evening, February 14th, for the purpose of raising additional funds to purchase a library for the public school.

Every patron of the school should realize the very important part that a well equipped library holds in all school work, and every citizen of the town should know that the school cannot be classed or affiliated with any of the larger state institutions of learning until it is equipped with a library such as the State Board of Education will recognize.

With the two above facts before them, every patron of the school and every citizen of the town should attend the supper and show their appreciation of the efforts of those who have the matter in charge to raise necessary funds. The obliging proprietors of the White House Cafe have tendered the dining room without cost, and the merchants are acting as a unit in donating the supplies for supper.

The supper will be held at the White House Cafe, beginning at 6:30. You will be served at four tables representing the four seasons, Winter, Spring, Summer and Autumn, all for fifty cents.

R. C. Carroll, proprietor of the Carroll's Plow and Wagon Shop, has installed a new oxy acetylene welding plant at his shop, and has secured the services of G. W. Walker an expert welder, to manipulate the plant. This will prove a drawing card for this popular shop and will keep a lot of money at home, besides the convenience it will prove to be to those desiring expert welding.

Marshall Simpson, candidate for Sheriff and Tax Collector, was circulating among the people Saturday in the interest of his candidacy while transacting other business. Mr. Simpson is serving as deputy sheriff.

Geo. E. Halliday Announces for County Judge

George E. Halliday of Tahoka, announces his candidacy for County Judge and County School Superintendent through the Index this week, and in doing so, asks the consideration of his candidacy by the voters of this county at the coming Democratic primaries.

In asking for the suffrage of the people of the county, Mr. Halliday states that he does so on the platform of systematic efficiency in office affairs, economy in handling the county's finances, strict and speedy law enforcement, but always tempering justice with mercy, building up of the county's schools to the highest extent, and the development of the county's resources.

Mr. Halliday was born in Newton county thirty-five years ago in a two-room log cabin, forty miles from a railroad and saw his first passenger train when eight years of age, when he made his first move toward the great West that is now his home. As a boy he had to work in a saw mill, giving his earnings toward the support of the family and attended school only a few months in the year. At the age of seventeen, he was only in the seventh grade. He worked his way through high school and after graduating from a business college, he served as cashier for a saw mill and saved sufficient funds to enter Baylor University at Waco. While at the university he paid part of his expenses serving as business manager of the college paper during one year and as editor the next year. After leaving Baylor University, he entered the State University and made his expenses reporting for one of the daily papers of Austin. He then accepted the position of head bookkeeper for the institution where he remained for seven years, only severing the connection because of his health breaking. While with the University as head bookkeeper, Mr. Halliday made changes in the system of accounting and so modified and simplified the old methods that the services of one clerk were dispensed with. His work attracted the attention of President Robt. E. Vinson and he was sent with the assistant to the president of the University to the Annual meeting of the Association of Business Officers of State Universities at Iowa City, Ia., to gain all the information possible in the latest methods of college accounting. While on this mission, he visited the Universities of Iowa, Wisconsin, Michigan, Illinois and the University of Chicago, where he studied the methods of accounting used in those institutions.

After his health broke, Mr. Halliday came to Lynn county and after rapidly regaining his strength, returned to his work at Austin, but soon suffered a relapse and again sought health in the sunshine of the West, this time going with Mrs. Halliday to Colorado. After a short residence in Boulder, Mrs. Halliday was taken with pneumonia and died. The two children were sent to Lynn county where they have since resided with their grandparents on a farm ten miles north of Tahoka. As soon as he was able to travel, Mr. Halliday returned to Lynn county, where for the past four years he has been making a struggle, and always cheerfully, to regain his health, and has so far succeeded that he has discarded his wheel chair and is now able to make his campaign with the aid of crutches.

Mr. Halliday has been a Christian since childhood, joining the

Marshall Simpson Out for Sheriff and Tax Collector

This issue of the Index carries the announcement of Marshall Simpson as a candidate for the office of Sheriff and Tax Collector of Lynn county. In announcing his candidacy, Mr. Simpson states that he will make the race strictly upon his merits and qualifications to efficiently fill the office if elected. He has been a resident of Lynn county for eight years, coming here from Runnels county where he served as deputy sheriff for a number of years. For four years Mr. Simpson was City Marshal of Tahoka and is now serving as deputy sheriff of this county. Mr. Simpson is ably qualified to fill the office if elected and asks the vote and influence of the old-timer and the new-comer alike in the coming Democratic Primaries.

Alfred Boone arrived from Roscoe Friday with a car of household goods, livestock and farming implements, and is now on his new farm getting ready for a crop.

church at the age of seventeen, and always taking an active part in church and Sunday school work. During the strenuous days of the fight for state wide prohibition in 1911, he stumped parts of East Texas in favor of the law.

Having served in official capacities with Baylor University and the University of Texas, Mr. Halliday has an experience that will be of great benefit to him in his official capacity of County School Superintendent if elected, and his training in newspaper work will be of value in giving out matters of publicity that will pertain to the development of the county.

In announcing, Mr. Halliday states that on account of being handicapped physically he may not be able to meet all the voters personally as he hopes to. He has studied Lynn county and its needs and asks that the voters give his candidacy due consideration. If elected he promises to serve to the best of his ability.

Filipino Quartet Coming February 9

Native Filipino song, beautiful according to musical authorities beyond even the alluring melodies of Hawaii, will be heard in O'Donnell, when the Pam Pamga Filipino Quartet is presented in concert at the school auditorium on Saturday evening, Feb. 9th.

There is a melodious cadence and a sweetness of tone in the native music of our Island cousins that is unguessed in Occidental music and this organization of Filipino artists is devoting itself to introducing that unusual music in America. The quartet consists of four young native musicians, all of whom have had the advantages of American education and collegiate training.

Native instruments are played—the Bandurias, the Laud, the Octavina, the Guitarras, the Bajo, to the accompaniment of piano. Their own beautiful native melodies are interspersed with classical airs, operatic gems, and light and popular numbers, together with some of the finer Hawaiian pieces.

In addition, the instrumentalists are vocalists of distinction, and many vocal numbers in solo and ensemble, both in native tongue and in English are added to round out one of the most unusual programs of the Lyceum platform, and one which has been meeting with remarkable success and warm appreciation throughout America.

J. R. Sanders is making plans for the comfort of patrons of the Theatre this summer by preparing to install another unit of power to propel eight oscillating fans and one large blow fan. The housing for the engine has been completed and the machinery has been ordered and will be in readiness for the warm weather.

WHAT ARE YOU GOING TO DO WITH 1924?

We now stand on the threshold of a New Year—a year of Opportunity a year of Destiny. What are we going to do with it?

This is a question that each of us must answer for himself. We can waste it by haphazard spending and thriftless ways; Or, we can turn over a new leaf, travel the recognized road of Success, and make 1924 bring us nearer to the goal of our ambitions.

ANNOUNCING Change in Ownership of Fritz Drug Store

I WISH to announce to the citizens of O'Donnell and its surrounding trade territory that I have purchased the Fritz Drug Store from J. S. Fritz and have cast my lot with the business interests of the town.

I respectfully solicit the continuance of the patronage of the old customers of the store and place before you my bid for part of the trade of those who have been trading elsewhere, promising to give service in every respect and a square deal with every purchase. I want you to come in and get acquainted whether you buy or not.

It is my aim to keep the store up to the high standard set by Mr. Fritz and will add new features to keep the store equal to the demand as the town grows.

In the future the store will be known as

Sick for Ten Years
Gained 60 Pounds
by Use of PE-RU-NA

Read This

Mr. John Wick

No matter how long you have been sick or how much you have suffered, you must not give up hope. Mr. John Wick, of Monocome Falls, Wisconsin, did not and is a well man today. In September, 1918, he wrote: "I have been a user of Pe-ru-na for nearly twenty years. I had catarrh of the stomach for ten years. Nothing did me any good. I grew worse until a friend advised me to try Pe-ru-na. While using the first bottle, I felt I had found the right medicine. I am entirely cured. My weight was down to 135 pounds and now I weigh 195 pounds. I have used very little medicine for the last ten years."

The condition known as catarrhal is not confined to the nose and throat. It may be found wherever there are mucous membranes and is responsible for a multitude of troubles. Coughs and colds are catarrhal as well as stomach and bowel disorders.

Do as John Wick did. Keep Pe-ru-na in the house. It stimulates digestion, aids in throwing off the poisonous secretions, enriches the blood, increases the resistance to disease and promotes good health generally.

Insist upon having genuine Pe-ru-na in either tablet or liquid form. Your dealer has it.

Grand opera being under discussion, a Plunkville citizen was asked if he had ever seen much of it. By way of reply he had this to say:

"Last year I saw an opera called 'La Boheme.' There was a girl in it named Mimi. She was the heroine, in fact. Along about the third act, when I had to leave, she was pretty sick. But she must be better now, because I see the opera will be back here next week."

There is nothing more satisfactory after a day of hard work than a line full of snowy-white clothes. For such results use Red Cross Ball Blue.—Advertisement.

The constant irritation of a cough keeps the delicate mucus membrane of the throat and lungs in a congested condition, which BOSCHEE'S SYRUP gently and quickly heals. For this reason it has been a favorite household remedy for colds, coughs, bronchitis and especially for lung troubles in millions of homes all over the world for the last fifty-seven years, enabling the patient to obtain a good night's rest, free from coughing with easy expectoration in the morning. You can buy BOSCHEE'S SYRUP wherever medicines are sold.

DEATH COMES TO WOODROW WILSON

WAR-TIME PRESIDENT'S CAREER ENDED PEACEFULLY BY DIVERGENT ORGAN DISORDER.

LINGERED FOR A LONG TIME

Nation Turns Head Toward Washington in Memory of Former Chief of U. S.

Washington.—Former President Wilson died Sunday at 11:15 a. m. Fatigued and worn by the battle with death, which began before he left the White House in 1921, the war President of two terms, eight of the most momentous years in the history of the world, closed his eyes and slipped peacefully away.

As Mr. Wilson died, prayers for him were being offered from hundreds of pulpits and from the hearts of thousands of devoted followers.

The end came when vitality no longer could retard the steady dissolution which set in with the stroke of paralysis that laid Mr. Wilson low on his return from the western speaking trip in 1919, in which he declared he was glad to give his life for the League of Nations if that would make it a success.

The cause of death, as officially announced, was general arterio-sclerosis and haemoptilia.

The general sclerosis had been progressively hardening Mr. Wilson's arteries since he was first stricken in 1919. The haemoptilia, which refers to the paralytic condition of his left side, manifested itself principally in his left arm and leg.

A digestive disorder, which developed on week ago, hastened death by a new and virulent attack on the waning vitality of the former President. He took a sudden turn for the worse Thursday night and his physicians found that thereafter it was only a question of how long they would be able to prolong life.

The passing of the former President was announced in the following statement issued by his physician and friend, Rear Admiral Cary T. Raymond:

"Mrs. Wilson, his daughter, Margaret, and Dr. Grayson only were in the death chamber at the end. Dr. Grayson, restraining tears with obvious difficulty, gave the formal announcement to waiting newspaper men. Worn with the strain, his voice was barely audible when he said that the former President's last moments had been peaceful.

First word of the seriousness of Mr. Wilson's condition was given by Dr. Grayson Friday morning after he had spent Thursday night at the bedside. He called in at once two other physicians and members of the family were summoned by telegraph.

From then on he lingered on the verge of eternity. He slept fitfully and toward the last refused nourishment, but before extreme weakness overtook him he talked with those about him and told Dr. Grayson he was "ready to go." Step by step he lost ground and his physicians knew that the end was but a question of a short time.

As the news of his death spread throughout the city and was flashed around the world, messages of sympathy poured in a great flood tide to the widow who so long had kept him in a tender care.

One of the first to send a message of condolence was President Coolidge, who on Friday when the serious nature of the illness became known conveyed to Mrs. Wilson the hope of himself and Mrs. Coolidge that the former President would recover.

The scene in front of the house when the death was announced was heart-rending. Here were gathered several hundred persons, their eyes red with weeping, testified they were drawn by affection, not by curiosity. Some remained gazing at the house. Others, feeling a personal loss for this man to whom they had never even spoken, walked slowly down the hill wiping their eyes.

A young woman clerk, poorly dressed, went up to the door just after Admiral Grayson had returned inside. She carried a single white lily and handed it in her humble tribute to departed greatness.

Wilson Planned Aid for Germany
New York—Woodrow Wilson planned to aid needy intellectuals of Germany just before he died, James W. Gerard, former ambassador in Berlin, revealed. Gerard said he received a letter from Mr. Wilson's secretary in which the former President offered to become a member of a committee to raise funds for writers, doctors, artists and other German intellectuals. "It is characteristic of Mr. Wilson that in the midst of his own personal distress, he should make this effort to help the starving."

ENGLAND ACCORDS
RUSSIA RECOGNITION

Note to Minister Tchitcherin Urges That Russia Cease Propaganda

London.—The Labor Government of Britain has stretched out the hand of friendship to the workers' Government of Russia and granted full de jure recognition to the Soviet regime. British Trade Representative Hodgson, now in Moscow under the Anglo-Russian trade agreement, handed Foreign Minister Tchitcherin a note in which Britain recognizes "the Union of Socialist Republics as the de jure rulers of territories of the old Russia Empire which acknowledge their authority."

A note which was made public in a Foreign Office communique here urged that Russia cease propaganda, and notified Russia that Hodgson would act as Charge d'Affaires for Britain pending the appointment of a British Ambassador to Moscow.

It stated that Britain would be glad to receive a Russian Charge d'Affaires in London.

The note stated that it would be necessary to conclude definite and practical agreements on a variety of matters for the purpose of creating normal, friendly relations. These include the adjustment of questions of pre-war treaties and the problem of settling economic claims and restoring Russian credit.

The note stated that Britain therefore invited Russian representatives to come to London at the earliest possible moment, empowered to draw up a treaty settling all outstanding questions.

It is understood that Capt. James O'Grady, a Laborite who has had frequent contact with Russian affairs, will be British Ambassador to Russia.

Russian circles assume that Christian Rakovsky, who was a member of the Russian delegation to the Genoa conference, and who is now in London, will be Russian Ambassador here.

It will be a remarkable exchange of Ambassadors. O'Grady has been a Labor member of Parliament for the southeast division of Leeds since 1918, and has also served as secretary of the National Federation of General Workers.

Rakovsky comes of a family famous in Bulgarian revolutionary history. He was born in 1873. While still only a boy he was expelled from school for organizing a group of revolutionary students. Compelled to flee to Western Europe, he studied at universities in Switzerland, Germany and France, generally under police espionage.

His arrest in 1907 by the Roumanian Government was the cause of serious riots in which fifty police and workers were killed. When the Roumanian Government attempted to deport him, workers tore up the railway tracks in front of his train.

Washington.—As the result of the testimony of E. L. Doheny, California oil magnate, that Thomas W. Gregory of Austin, Texas, former Attorney General of the United States, was employed by a number of oil companies and that he has been counsel for the Island Oil Company. President Coolidge has definitely made up his mind not to retain him as counsel in the oil cases. The executive taken over the matter with Chairman Lenroot and Senator Curtis of Kansas, the assistant Republican leader in the Senate. He will see Mr. Gregory upon his arrival here from Texas.

A formal statement issued at the White House said that such employment "might be an embarrassment to Mr. Gregory and perhaps otherwise would be improper."

Salmon Eggs Are Used To Lure Mountain Trout

Salmon eggs are another delicacy that the mountain, cutthroat, dolly varden and rainbow trout of the western ranges are very partial toward. This bait is fished in the swift and tumbling waters of the little mountain rivers of Idaho, Washington and Oregon to a large extent, as they are obtained in the vicinity of the great salmon canneries.

Used in connection with a small spinner or double spoon spinner these eggs are a deadly killer on the western trout. They are also great lures for the gray trout of the northern lakes.—Sportsmen's Digest.

Experimental Fur Farm

An experimental fur farm is being established in the northwestern part of New York state by the bureau of biological survey of the United States Department of Agriculture, in order that observations and studies may be made of the habits of fur-bearing animals and of the possibilities of growing them in captivity and producing fur of good quality. A similar farm, which has been operated by the bureau at Keesville, N. Y., will be discontinued as soon as the new one is ready. The new farm is located three and one-half miles from Saratoga Springs, N. Y., on the state highway to Corinth, and is more easily accessible than the old, both by automobile and by bus line. The tract comprises 20 acres, of which approximately 14 are covered by an excellent growth of timber, and will furnish an ideal situation for the desired purpose.

One Reason for Nervous Disorders

YOUR doctor can tell you that nervous disorders are very common among Americans. One reason for this is found in the fact that they are great coffee drinkers.

Coffee contains caffeine, a drug, prescribed by doctors as an emergency stimulant for the heart and nervous system. It has a tendency to increase blood pressure, develop heart irregularities and cause digestive disturbances.

If you feel that coffee is not good for you, serve Postum as your meal-time drink.

Postum is a pure cereal beverage that refreshes and satisfies. It is absolutely free from caffeine or any other irritating drug.

Try a cup of Postum with your dinner or supper tonight. Postum is sold everywhere.

Improvements at Highway Garage

The Highway Garage has installed a windmill over the well in the rear of the building, erected a large tank and is now laying a pipe line to supply the business houses on the west side of the square with water. This is only a beginning of what will eventually be a water system to supply the town.

School Enrollment Continues to Climb

Superintendent Fletcher states that the attendance to the school is increasing rapidly, this week's attendance totaling 450 pupils. The scholastic population has more than doubled since the opening of the school and it is taxing the present school building to its limit to house the students.

Wind Careens Church Building

The new Baptist church was slightly careened on its foundation by the high winds of Sunday, but by bracing, the building was saved from any particular damage. A number of other houses were pushed out plumb, including the walls of the home being erected by W. J. Shook.

LOCALS

Miss Dora Casey of Lubbock, arrived this week and will spend some time as the guest of her sister, Mrs. L. L. Drumheller.

Little Eldon, the two and a half year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Baker has been quite ill this week.

Well Dressed men and women have their clothes pressed at our place.—O. I. Luellan, The Tailor.

John L. Greenfield spent Sunday in Tahoka.

Mrs. E. L. Sorrels, who has been ill for several weeks, was taken to a Lubbock sanitarium Wednesday, an ambulance and two trained nurses coming down to take her there for treatment. The many friends of Mrs. Sorrels hope that she will soon recover and return to her home here. Mr. Sorrels also made the trip to Lubbock.

FOR SALE—Pure bred Bronze turkey gobblers at $5 each. I also have a practically new 120-egg Wisconsin incubator for sale for $8. See or write Mrs. H. E. Gillespie, Route 1, Box 11, O'Donnell, Texas.

Gayle Talbert of Milford, publisher of the Milford News, was here Monday on a business mission. Mr. Talbert is contemplating making his home in some of the live towns of the Plains. He was very favorably impressed with O'Donnell, believing that it has a great future.

NOTICE—H. C. Waggoner, an Income Tax expert, will be at the First State Bank on Saturday, February 22, where he will assist anyone in making out their Income Tax reports.

C. M. Cox and family arrived from Lamesa this week, and being unable to find a house for rent, are temporarily living in the home of Mayor Sanderson. Later Mr. Cox will build. Mrs. Cox is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sanderson.

CEDAR POSTS—For good cedar posts, cheap, see Lightfoot & Fairley, at Fairley Real Estate Co's office.

Roy Roberson was taken suddenly ill first of the week and rushed to a sanitarium at Lubbock where he underwent an operation for appendicitis on Tuesday. Reports state that he is rapidly recovering and will soon be able to return.

The Highway Garage is making some changes in the front of the building by extending the roof and making a double driveway into the filling station. This will add greatly to the convenience of the patrons of this garage.

WANTED LAND BROKEN. I have forty acres of land one mile from town that I want broken. See J. W. Stuart.

F. L. Stocker, representing the Specialty Film Corporation, was here this week and as a result of his visit, patrons of the State Theatre will have an opportunity of seeing the famous picture "Where the North Begins," in which Rin-Tin-Tin, the famous German police dog will be shown at his best. Heretofore, the picture has only been shown in the larger towns, and Mr. Sanders is to be congratulated in securing this great Warner Bros.' masterpiece for O'Donnell. The date of its appearance will be some time in March.

Card of Thanks

Having sold my drug business, I take this method of thanking the patrons of the store for their loyal support and co-operation during the time I have been operating the same. In turning the business over to Mr. Cox, I respectfully ask that you continue to make the store your headquarters, assuring you that you will receive the same courteous treatment that I have always tried to give my customers. In selling the business, I wish to assure you that I done so for the benefit of my health and will continue to reside in O'Donnell.
Yours respectfully,
J. S. FRITZ.

HAD TO LET HOUSEWORK GO

So Ill Husband had to do the Work. Completely Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

South Bend, Indiana.—"I was all run-down, tired out, and had pains in my back and bearing-down pains. I was so sore I could hardly drag myself around and was not able to do a bit of housework. My husband worked all day in the shop, and then came home and helped me at night. The doctors said I had female weakness, and there was no help but to be operated upon, and of course that would cost us a great deal. My husband heard about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound at the factory and one night he stopped at the drug store and bought me a bottle of it. I had begun to think there was no help for me, but I took three bottles of it and now I feel like myself once more. The price for three bottles wasn't so much as the doctor had charged. I cannot praise Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound enough."—Mrs. DORA OSBORNE, 430 Sherman Avenue, South Bend, Ind.

Women troubled with female weakness should give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a fair trial—now. For sale by druggists everywhere.

With the returns about all in, the State Prison Commission announces that its farm products have brought a little more than $1,000,000 cash. The sugar cane sold for $100,000, the cotton brought close to $800,000 and the corn and other commodities make up the remainder. These figures were presented by Walker Sayles, member of the Prison Commission.

Why You May Need—

There are three main groups of prospective buyers of Chevrolet automobiles and commercial cars.
First, are all who know from comparison or through the experiences of friends that Chevrolet provides the utmost dollar value in modern, economical transportation of people or merchandise.
Second, the large group of people with modest incomes who have the false impression that so good a car as Chevrolet is beyond their means.
They do not realize that due to engineering excellence and full modern equipment, Chevrolet operating and maintenance costs average so low that during the life of the car, it delivers modern, comfortable, fast transportation at the lowest cost per mile, including the purchase price.
Third, the smaller but very important group of car owners of ample means, only a small percentage of whom as yet realize that Chevrolet as an extra car virtually costs them nothing, due to the reduction in their transportation expenses effected by it.
We respectfully suggest consideration, investigation and comparison of Chevrolet with any other car at any price.

DEATH TAKES WOODROW WILSON, OUTSTANDING FIGURE OF THE AGE

Remarkable Career of the Man Who, After Gaining Fame as an Educator and Author, Became President, and During the Great War Was the Most Powerful Individual in the World—Originator of the League of Nations.

Woodrow Wilson, twenty-eighth president of the United States of America, was the most prominent world-figure of the events growing out of the World war, the most momentous of all wars. His place, as history will fix it, can only be conjectured. Hundreds of millions placed him at the zenith, as they placed the ex-kaiser at the nadir.

The great war brought to the front many men whose names will live in honor. In the last analysis three men stand out: Wilson, Lloyd George, Clemenceau. Of these three it was Wilson who held the world's eye—Wilson, the human phenomenon of the times, until fifty-four no more than a college president and political writer and at sixty-three on a pinnacle of fame and honor and power unsurpassed if ever attained by any man in history.

It is impossible now to differentiate between Woodrow Wilson the man and Woodrow Wilson the head of the most powerful nation of earth in wealth, material and fighting men. Certainly he could not have reached the place he held without great ability and extraordinary capacity for leadership. By virtue of his place he became a focus of world attention as soon as the great war began. Before the armistice was signed he had become a great moral leader with the ear of the peoples of the world. Only as such could he have forced upon the allied world the unofficial acceptance of his project of a league of nations, with its

the poles. Senator J. Thomas Heflin (Dem., Ala.), when representative spoke on the floor of "Woodrow Wilson, the greatest apostle of world liberty and democracy since Jesus Christ."

Senator Thomas W. Hardwick (Dem.) of Georgia, said January 21 in the senate: "I believe in a written constitution. I believe in a strict interpretation of it . . . and I believe that unless we leave and abandon this mad saturnalia of Imperialism here at home and return to the ancient principles of our fathers there will be no safety nor happiness for the people of this republic."

Senator Albert B. Cummins (Rep.) of Iowa expressed the half-way view when he said in the senate January 23: "I think President Wilson is the most intensely practical statesman of this or any other day. He began his administration in the belief that the executive office had not the power that it ought to have. He has accomplished more in the direction in which he set his face and his mind than any other man, either in this generation or in any former generation; and the only criticism, if it be a criticism, is that he has not marched in the right direction and has done things that he ought not to have done."

In the process of wresting from congress all the powers he believed the Constitution conferred upon the executive, President Wilson made many political enemies who questioned not his ability, but his motives and methods.

representatives himself. Robert Lansing, Hen. M. House and General Tas. He sailed December 4, 1918, and arrived at Paris December 14. The French capital was en fete for the occasion. December 24 he went to England and thence to Italy. He returned to Paris January 8, after a journey that resembled a "triumphal procession."

After the preliminary sessions of the peace conference President Wilson returned to the United States in February, returning to Paris March 15, 1919. He signed the peace treaty June 28, 1919, and returned to the United States July 8. His second term as president expired March 3, 1920.

After his retirement from the presidency Mr. Wilson lived quietly, making a partly successful fight to regain his health. He occasionally went to the theater and rode much in his car about the environs of Washington. He bought a home in Washington and in 1921 formed a law partnership with Bainbridge Colby, who had been his secretary of state, succeeding Robert Lansing. He took part in the funeral procession of President Harding in Washington and was the recipient of much public attention.

Mr. Wilson's last public utterance was last fall. November 10, 1923, the eve of Armistice day, he spoke by radio to the American people, defending his peace policy and saying that the American people had withdrawn into a "solitary and selfish isolation which is deeply ignoble because manifestly cowardly and dishonorable."

Armistice day Mr. Wilson briefly addressed thousands from the front steps of his home, concluding thus:

"I am not one of those that have the least anxiety about the triumph of the principles I have stood for. I have seen fools resist Providence before and I have seen their destruction, as will come upon these again—utter destruction and contempt. That we shall prevail is as sure as that God reigns. Thank you."

Chronology of Wilson.

Woodrow Wilson was born December 28, 1856, in Staunton, Va. He was the son of Rev. Joseph R. Wilson, a Presbyterian minister, and Jessie (Woodrow) Wilson. In 1885 he married Ellen Louise Axsen. They had three daughters—Jessie (Mrs. Francis B. Sayre), Eleanor (Mrs. W. G. McAdoo) and Margaret. Mrs. Wilson died August 16, 1914, in the White House. December 18, 1915, Mr. Wilson married Edith (Bolling) Galt, a descendant of Pocahontas. The first 29 years of Mr. Wilson's life covered his boyhood and education. The next 25 were devoted to teaching and writing. With his election to the governorship of New Jersey in 1910 began his active political career. His chronology follows:

- 1858—Family removed to Atlanta, Ga. Student in private schools.
- 1875-9—Student at Princeton.
- 1879-82—Law student at University of Virginia.
- 1882-3—Practicing lawyer in Atlanta.
- 1883-5—Post-graduate course at Johns Hopkins university in history, jurisprudence and political science; received degree of Ph. D.
- 1886—Associate professor of history at Bryn Mawr college.
- 1888—Professor of history and political economy at Wesleyan.
- 1890—Professor of jurisprudence and political economy at Princeton.
- 1902—President of Princeton (first nonclerical).

Political Career Begins.

- 1910—Elected governor of New Jersey.
- 1912—Nominated by Democratic national convention in Baltimore in June on forty-sixth ballot by vote of 990 out of 1,086 over Champ Clark of Missouri and Judson Harmon of Ohio. Elected president over Taft and Roosevelt.

1916—Nominated by acclamation by Democratic national convention in St. Louis in June. Elected president over Charles E. Hughes.

Woodrow Wilson's Ph. D. thesis was "Congressional Government: A Study in American Politics" (1885). His later works include:

- "The State: Elements of Historical and Practical Politics" (1889; new edition, 1911).
- "An Old Master, and Other Political Essays" (1893).
- "Division and Reunion" (1893).
- "Mere Literature, and Other Essays" (1896; new edition, 1913).
- "George Washington" (1896; new edition, 1913).
- "The Free Life" (1908; new edition, 1913).
- "Constitutional Government in the United States" (1908).
- "Civic Problems" (1900).
- "History of the American People" (5 Vols., 1902; new edition, 1912).
- "The New Freedom" (1913).
- "When a Man Comes to Himself" (1915).

fourteen points as set forth to congress January 18, 1918.

Abroad and at Home.

The enthusiasm evoked by President Wilson's visits to Paris, London and Rome was proof of his unique place in the regard of the people. It was evident that he was to Europeans not so much a man as a voice—a voice putting into words what they wanted and had not been able to express; his ideas and ideals were a sort of religion to them.

But he showed himself a statesman as well as a voice. He played the game masterfully. He established sympathy between himself and his man or his crowd. He made few if any mistakes in taste or judgment. He "matched his mind," to use his own expression, with the best of Europe and he got his league of nations before the peace conference and got it adopted.

President Wilson's two months in Europe may be divided into phases. When he landed the attitude toward the league of nations was this: The government of France was antagonistic; Great Britain's was suspicious; Italy's was skeptical. The first phase, his triumphant progress through France, England and Italy opened the eyes of these governments to his hold on the people. The second phase, the preliminary work of the peace conference, convinced these governments that President Wilson had an idea rather than a set plan which he proposed to force upon them. This simplified the situation and the rush to climb on the bandwagon began.

Contemporary estimates of President Wilson at home were as wide apart as

To particularize would be largely to review the political history of the last six years. The railroad situation, however, may be cited as an example. Representative E. E. Denison (Rep.) of Illinois said January 15, 1919, "Government ownership of railroads will be the dominant political issue in the next national campaign and Mr. McAdoo will of course expect to be the candidate of his party. He will hope to capitalize what has been done for the railroad men."

President Wilson was re-elected in 1916 upon a peace platform. October 25, 1918, just before the congressional elections, he issued an appeal to the voters of the United States asking them, if they had approved of his leadership and wished him to continue to be their unembarrassed spokesman in affairs at home and abroad, to express themselves unmistakably to that effect by returning a Democratic majority to both houses. The result of the elections was to change the political complexion of both houses as follows: 65th congress—Senate, 51 Democrats and 45 Republicans; house, 215 Republicans and 213 Democrats. 66th congress—Senate, 47 Democrats and 49 Republicans; house, 239 Republicans and 193 Democrats.

President Wilson in attending the peace conference made several new departures. He left the country during office. He took the office with him, signing acts and making appointments while in Paris. He ignored the senate, though he is empowered by the Constitution to make treaties "by and with the advice and consent of the senate." He appointed as the American repre-

Is Winter Time Your Backache Time?

DOES every cold, chill or attack of grip leave you lame, aching and all worn out? Does your back throb and ache until it seems you just can't keep going another day? Do you know these troubles are often due to weakened kidneys?

Winter's colds and chills throw a heavy strain on the kidneys. The kidneys are apt to weaken and fall behind in filtering the blood. Poisons accumulate and upset blood and nerves.

Then comes constant backache, rheumatic pains, headache, dizziness and kidney irregularities.

Don't wait! Delay is often serious. Use Doan's Pills—a stimulant diuretic to the kidneys. Doan's have helped thousands. They are recommended by users everywhere. Ask your neighbor!

"Use Doan's," Say These Good Folks:

C. B. Bickers, brakeman, 104 S. Paris St., Ennis, Tex., says: "My back was weak and hurt all the time. It ached for hours and when I moved around, sharp catches took me. My kidneys were irregular and acted frequently. The kidney secretions were scanty and burned in passage, too. After using Doan's Pills the trouble was removed entirely."

Mrs. M. J. Huckaby, 403 N. Ritchie St., Gainesville, Tex., says: "My back pained so I couldn't do a thing. Every move sent sharp twinges all through my back and I was never free from headaches. I had a dizzy feeling and my sight was blurred. I sent for Doan's Pills and after I started using them it was almost no time before I was entirely over the trouble."

Four Eggs per Week

Same Hen--

Fed Differently

Ordinary "chicken feed" will make a good hen lay two eggs a week. Purina will make the same hen lay four eggs a week.

So don't ask for "chicken feed." Demand PURINA CHICKEN CHOWDER and PURINA HEN CHOW in checkerboard bags.

Please do not feed Chowder without Hen Chow or Hen Chow without Chowder--to do so upsets the scientific balance and loses you extra eggs. Feed as directed on the instructions with each bag and get more eggs.

Condensed Austin News

Spring-like winds from the north-west swept down upon the plains like a wolf upon the fold. Tin cans, boxes and tumble weeds were loosed from their beds of winter's ease and started on a pilgrimage to the Cap Rock at a speed of about fifty miles and hour, and for a time it looked as if some of the houses under construction would follow in their wake. The dust and sand invaded the sanctity of the home and made life miserable for the tidy housewife, but it was nice clean old Lynn county sand and a little shoveling and dusting after the winds had quieted and all was lovely once again. The storm was a novelty to the newcomer and he seemed to enjoy the change. The old-timers said it reminded him of the days of long ago when such disturbances were a common thing, and was full of reminiscences concerning real sandstorms. The sun is shining again and every day brings us one day nearer spring.

Sells Drug Store

C. M. Cox of Lamesa, has purchased the Fritz Drug Store, the invoice of the stock and the consumation of the deal being made the first of the week.

Mr. Cox has been a resident of Lamesa for about ten years and is well known to many people in O'Donnell, and will prove a valuable addition to the business circles of the town. He is a member of the Lamesa band and will lend his aid in building up the local band. He states that he will change the name from Fritz Drug Store to the Corner Drug Store and make a number of changes in the arrangement of the stock.

Mr. Hunt will continue as head prescriptionist in the store and in waiting on the trade.

In selling, Mr. Fritz states that he needs a rest and expects to make a short visit to his brother, J. M. Fritz, at Arrey, New Mex., and take a course of baths at the Palomas Hot Springs while there. He expects to return in the Spring and devote his time to his business interests here.
