New Cars Are Here

This weekend is the showing of 1967 new cars. Showing here will be the Chevrolet, Pontiac, Ford and Mercury. Folks are urged to see these new products. Refreshments and door prizes, will vary in nature as to dealer but it will be a gala time. What you buy in O'Donnell helps make our town and costs no more—often less.

According to a called statement the local bank showed deposits of over $1,600,000.00 with loans at slightly over one million dollars. The call came at a bad time as no cotton has been harvested and government diversion checks not deposited. By January 1st deposits should double.

Rotary News

The O'Donnell Rotary met with President Wayne Noland presiding. Visiting Rotarians were Binie L. White of Tahoka and Moody Neeley, Weslie Mickey, Frank Liddell, Dallas Wickes, and C. E. Bruton of Lamesa.

From Nacka, Sweden comes to O'Donnell the letter telling of lace making in Sweden. Each design has a name—for instance—Vanskapsbandet, means The Bond of Friendship.

Thought for the week: "Willingness without action, is like a cloud without rain."

SCOUT NEWS

One of the highlights of the 56th Annual Meeting of the National Council of the Boy Scouts of America in Big D was the program of helping to make and keep America beautiful. This is an individual program that calls on each citizen to do his part in keeping America beautiful and starting in his own community. It means each citizen needs to put each piece of trash in the trash container. The strength of America depends on the individual citizen and each citizen CAN do his part.

The Silver Buffalo Award, Scouting's highest honor for service to boyhood was awarded at the annual meeting to Richard W. Darrow, president of Hill and Knowlton; Dr. John Henry Fischer, president of Teachers College; Charles Zachary Hardwick, vice president of Marathon Oil Co.; Lt. Gen. Lewis Blaine Hershey, director of Selective Service; Basil O'Connor, president of the National Foundation; and Philip Henry Powers of the West Penn Power Company.

Another highlight of the annual meeting was the recognition of the Scouts of Sanderson, Texas for their aiding in saving 30 lives in last year's floods.

Boy Scout Troop 789 meets every Monday night at the home of Truett Hodnett. Lanny Brewer is Scoutmaster. Troop 789 reminds the O'Donnell citizens to each do his part in helping O'Donnell to be a nice place to live.

The O'Donnell Eagles won another one here Friday night, blanking the Lorenzo Hornets, 6 to 0.

The Hornets ran over a first quarter TD but the play was called back on an infraction (offside). Robert Fisher carried the pellet on the nullified play.

It rocked along scoreless until the fourth and final frame. Danny Brewer bruised it over from 2 yards out for the O'Donnell ledger with only 26 seconds left in the ballgame. Point try was no good.

The Eagles out-gained Lorenzo 180 to 136 yards rushing. There was no passing yardage by either.

Social Security Numbers Needed At ASCS Office

If the ASCS county office asks you what your Social Security number is, please don't think you are being singled out for special attention, cautions Wayman Smith, chairman, Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation County Committee. The number is needed by the Internal Revenue for identification purposes in connection with farm program payments.

Many farmers have already filed Form 3435-A with the county office, listing their social security or employer identification number. Requests for the information were mailed last fall to each known producer who receives program payments. Producers who receive direct program payments and who have not yet filed the form, however, are asked to forward the information to the county office by Oct. 1, 1966.

For 1966, ASCS must report to the Internal Revenue Service any sight draft payments of $600 or more under direct payment programs. This includes the Agricultural Conservation Program; the feed grain, wheat, and cotton programs; the wool incentive payment program; and others.

And, beginning January 1, 1967, and each year thereafter, all such sight draft payments made to producers under these programs, will be reported to IRS without regard to the amount. Producers will be advised annually of the program payment reported to IRS, beginning with payments made in 1967.

Identifying numbers are already being used in payment-reports which banks and other paying agencies make to IRS, as required under the Internal Revenue Code.

Any questions about this matter should be taken up with the ASC County Committee.

Pesticide Use Warning Given

The wise use of pesticides inside your home is your personal responsibility says County Home Demonstration Agent Ann Duncan.

When actually using pesticides inside the house, be sure to read the label first, and understand all of the information. Use only the amount called for on the label. Provide adequate ventilation. Don't let the children help. Keep them away from where you are mixing or using a pesticide. Put the family pets outside while you are spraying and take their food and water dishes with them. Remove birds, bird cages, aquariums and fish bowls.

Take everything out of the dish cabinets, shelves and cupboards before you spray. Wait until the spray dries and then cover the shelves with clean paper or foil before you put things back. Never allow pesticides to get on food, dishes, pots or pans. Never spray the insides of a refrigerator or oven.

Pesticide products designed for use in the home are not automatically safe. It's how you handle them that makes their use safe or unsafe in your home, says Miss Duncan.

Keep home-type pesticides in locked safe storage before and after their use. These pesticide products—and other potentially poisonous products—can be dangerous unless they are safely locked away.

Some pesticides are flammable, so never smoke while using them and never spray them near a pilot light or a gas appliance.

If you should spill a pesticide, stop immediately and wash it off your skin with soap and water. Don't breathe the fumes or dust particles for any length of time. When you finish spraying, clean up the application equipment and lock it away with the pesticide. Then wash your hands and face with soap as a matter of routine. Launder your clothing, if any pesticide was spilled on your garments.

Make pesticides safety your personal responsibility.

$7.5 Million Crop Program Checks Will Boost Economy

Government price support and diversion payment checks totaling about $7.5 million dollars are being mailed Lynn county farmers by the local ASCS office, states Wallace Dove, office manager. These payments should make a big impact on the county's economy at this time.

However, Mr. Dove asks farmers to be patient as all can not be mailed at once because of long, tedious details of figuring each farm. He hopes to have most checks in the mail before October 1.

"As soon as humanly possible," Dove says, "We will mail out checks totaling $6,083,567.03 on the cotton program and $1,483,520.49 on the feed grain program for a total of $7,567,087.52."

Advance payments made earlier this year totaled $991,729.31 on the cotton program and $266,076.73 on feed grain.

Payments on cotton price support and acreage diversion on 1439 farms this year will average $4,916.81 per farm. Feed grain diversion and price support payments on 1288 farms will average $1,151.80 per farm. This totals an average of $6,068.61 per farm cotton and feed grain, which really is not a true average but gives a picture of the amount of money being paid out.

Cotton Payments Explained
Local ASCS office records show that the 1439 farms participating in the cotton program had 118,000 acres eligible for payment. Average yield is 402 pounds per acre, and the support price for compliance is 9.42 cents per pound of lint cotton, or $37.87 per acre, or a grand total of $4,468,660 in price support payments.

In turn, farmers diverted 61,754 acres of cotton land, for which they are being paid 10.5 cents per pound for the 402 pounds per acre they would theoretically have raised, or $42.21 per acre, or $2,606,636.34 for diversion payments on the total of 61,754 acres in the county.

These two payments total $7,075,296.34, of which $991,729.31 has already been advanced earlier this year, leaving $6,083,567.03 to be paid the farmers now.

Milo Payments Large

With 1288 farms participating, there are 68,513 acres of milo eligible for payments at $14.42 per acre, or $987,957.46 in diversion payments. Price support on 98,658 acres at $7.72 per acre brings in a total of $761,639.76. Thus, the diversion and price support payments total $1,749,597.22, of which $266,076.73 was made in advance payments earlier this year, leaving $1,483,520.49 in feed grain payments to be made now.

Grand total of cotton and feed grain payments being made this year is $8,824,893.56.

Patience Requested

Mr. Dove requests: "Your consideration in giving us time to figure these payments will help us to check the payments for accuracy, and in turn the office will be able to treat you, the farmer, more fairly and in the long run this will permit us to give you better service."

This is a lot of money, Lynn has a lot of contracts involved, and Dove says the ASCS office is try-

Water Hearing Set In Lubbock

Final hearing on the Texas Water Plan as it affects West Texas will be held in Lubbock Friday, Sept. 9, at Municipal Auditorium on Tech campus beginning at 9:30 a. m., announces Joe G. Moore Jr. of Austin, executive director of the Texas Water Development Board.

The meeting is open to the public, and those desiring to testify should, if possible, present written statements of their testimony. There will be opportunity, however, to speak extemporaneously.

The plan virtually leaves West Texas out of the gigantic program.

Joe D. Unfred of the Water Committee of Plains Cotton Growers, Inc., in testifying at the recent Wichita Falls hearing, pointed out that 23 Plains counties produce almost half the cotton grown in Texas and about one-eighth of the cotton grown in the nation, in addition to other crops of grain sorghum, wheat, soybeans, castors, vegetables, etc.

He made a plea for a water plan of benefit to the entire state, not one which leaves West Texas out of the picture, and one which would benefit land already in production rather than for new farm areas in South Texas.

In the Texas Water Plan, West Texas is left largely to rustle for itself in getting waters diverted from other states, which may or may not be possible.

Joe B. Pate Jr., also of the PCG water committee, testified in similar manner at the Amarillo hearing Wednesday of last week.

$7.5 Million Crop Program Checks Will Boost Economy

Government price support and diversion payment checks totaling about $7.5 million dollars are being mailed Lynn county farmers by the local ASCS office, states Wallace Dove, office manager. These payments should make a big impact on the county's economy at this time.

However, Mr. Dove asks farmers to be patient as all can not be mailed at once because of long, tedious details of figuring each farm. He hopes to have most checks in the mail before October 1.

"As soon as humanly possible," Dove says, "We will mail out checks totaling $6,083,567.03 on the cotton program and $1,483,520.49 on the feed grain program for a total of $7,567,087.52."

Advance payments made earlier this year totaled $991,729.31 on the cotton program and $266,076.73 on feed grain.

Payments on cotton price support and acreage diversion on 1439 farms this year will average $4,916.81 per farm. Feed grain diversion and price support payments on 1288 farms will average $1,151.80 per farm. This totals an average of $6,068.61 per farm cotton and feed grain, which really is not a true average but gives a picture of the amount of money being paid out.

Cotton Payments Explained

Local ASCS office records show that the 1439 farms participating in the cotton program had 118,000 acres eligible for payment. Average yield is 402 pounds per acre, and the support price for compliance is 9.42 cents per pound of lint cotton, or $37.87 per acre, or a grand total of $4,468,660 in price support payments.

In turn, farmers diverted 61,754 acres of cotton land, for which they are being paid 10.5 cents per pound for the 402 pounds per acre they would theoretically have raised, or $42.21 per acre, or $2,606,636.34 for diversion payments on the total of 61,754 acres in the county.

These two payments total $7,075,296.34, of which $991,729.31 has already been advanced earlier this year, leaving $6,083,567.03 to be paid the farmers now.

Milo Payments Large

With 1288 farms participating, there are 68,513 acres of milo eligible for payments at $14.42 per acre, or $987,957.46 in diversion payments. Price support on 98,658 acres at $7.72 per acre brings in a total of $761,639.76. Thus, the diversion and price support payments total $1,749,597.22, of which $266,076.73 was made in advance payments earlier this year, leaving $1,483,520.49 in feed grain payments to be made now.

Grand total of cotton and feed grain payments being made this year is $8,824,893.56.

Patience Requested

Mr. Dove requests: "Your consideration in giving us time to figure these payments will help us to check the payments for accuracy, and in turn the office will be able to treat you, the farmer, more fairly and in the long run this will permit us to give you better service."

This is a lot of money, Lynn has a lot of contracts involved, and Dove says the ASCS office is try-

Pesticide Use Warning Given

When actually using pesticides inside the house, be sure to read the label first, and understand all of the information. Use only the amount called for on the label. Provide adequate ventilation. Don't let the children help. Keep them away from where you are mixing or using a pesticide. Put the family pets outside while you are spraying and take their food and water dishes with them. Remove birds, bird cages, aquariums and fish bowls.

Take everything out of the dish cabinets, shelves and cupboards before you spray. Wait until the spray dries and then cover the shelves with clean paper or foil before you put things back. Never allow pesticides to get on food, dishes, pots or pans. Never spray the insides of a refrigerator or oven.
