MERCHANTS WILL ENTERTAIN CUSTOMERS

Some six different business concerns of O'Donnell will entertain customers at the Lynn Theatre on Thursday night and Saturday Matinee in the future. The novel plan of advertising in which the customer will be entertained on the above dates was put into effect this week, beginning Thursday and will run until June 9th.

The business establishments taking part in the entertainment, will give to each customer purchasing merchandise to the value of 50 cents or more, one complimentary ticket which will admit the holder with one paid adult ticket, to any Thursday night or Saturday Matinee at the Lynn Theatre.

Announcement of the merchants participating in the entertainment will be found elsewhere in this issue of the Index.

Grade and Staple Length to Be Listed

One of the most important measures passed at this session of the Congress is the one which provides for the listing of the grades and staple length of the cotton in the so-called carry over. The original bill by Congressman Marvin Jones was passed by the House in December. A similar bill by Senator Mayfield was recently passed by the Senate. The two bills were combined and as such have recently enacted into law.

There are between four and five millions of bales in the so-called carry over. There are ten tenderable grades of cotton. Hundreds of thousands of bales of the carry over are of tenderable character. Much of it is of non-merchantable character. All of this cotton, however without regard to grade or staple has heretofore been included in the reports and only the total figures given as so many millions of bales. Naturally this affects the market adversely the same as if all of such cotton were of a tenderable and merchantable character. By referring to all of this cotton as surplus or carry over, manipulators have been able to depress the market and greatly reduce the price.

Under the new measure it will be known just how much of this is of a tenderable and merchantable character, and how much of it should therefore really affect the price.

It is thought by the Department of Agriculture and by those who have studied the question generally that this measure will mean millions in increased prices to the producer of cotton throughout the South.

The measure also provides for abolishing the semi-monthly estimates of cotton production, and substitutes monthly estimates, thus utilizing the funds heretofore used in making estimates of production for the listing of the quality of the cotton. It provides, however, for the retention of the semi-monthly ginning reports of actual cotton production.

NEW ADDITION TO THE LOCAL FIRE DEPARTMENT

A new addition joined the ranks of the local fire department early Thursday morning, arriving at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Hubbard. It was a fine looking 10 pound boy, and has already begun giving order about the place.

Messrs W. F. Seigler and W. B. Baker of Farmersville were in the city Wednesday and Thursday of this week. The gentlemen are land owners in the Tredway community and have been reading the Index telling of the oil excitement in this section and deciding they had better come up and look after their holdings in this territory. They left Thursday with the hope and belief that O'Donnell would be the center of activity on the oil field in the very near future.

SANTA FE ADDING EXTENSION TO DEPOT

Work started last of the week on the Santa Fe depot on which the company plans to build a 32 feet extension on the present depot.

The present building has been inadequate to handle the large volume of business they receive from the O'Donnell trade territory for several months. In addition to the thirty-two feet extension, the old structure will be thoroughly overhauled and remodeled, giving O'Donnell a first class station, according to information given out by the local Agent, R. O. Stark.

The Santa Fe plans for an expenditure of approximately $5,000 on the present station.

REV. HICKS LEAVES FOR FATHER'S BEDSIDE SUNDAY

Rev. W. B. Hicks left Sunday afternoon for Pampa to be at the bedside of his father, Rev. J. T. Hicks, pastor of the First Methodist church of Pampa, who recently suffered a stroke of paralysis. Word received from Bro. Hicks early in the week stated that his father was slightly improved.

MISSSES PUGH AND HENDERSON ACCEPT POSITIONS AT COLORADO, TEXAS

A communication received from the Abilene Draughon's Business College, states that Misses Lois Pugh and Odessa Henderson, who have been attending business college in Abilene for the past several months, have been placed in good positions with big concerns at Colorado, Texas. Misses Pugh and Henderson who are O'Donnell girls have a host of friends here who join in extending congratulations and best wishes to the young ladies.

Mr. J. R. Burektt returned last of the week from Baird, Callahan county, where he was called by the death of his father, G. W. Burektt, who passed away at his home on Tuesday, March 8. The Index joins the many friends in extending condolences to the bereaved in their hour of sorrow.

O'Donnell's first wildcat test since the recent discovery of oil in a water well on the Yeattes farm 10 miles west of town was spudded in Tuesday afternoon.

The location was made on the Yeattes farm about 100 yards northwest of the discovery well which has caused so much excitement during the past sixty days. The test is the first of three shallow tests to be sunk in this vicinity by Dr. H. S. Gerson and associates, drillers of the Brownfield wildcat which is attracting considerable attention.

The drilling of the shallow tests west of town is being done by a local party, Mr. Boyd Fortner who placed machinery on the ground last Saturday with the expectation of spudding in Saturday afternoon, but due to the unfavorable weather, was postponed until Tuesday afternoon. Mr. Fortner started with a ten inch hole and is under contract to make a fifteen hundred foot test. The other two locations will be made in the same vicinity upon completion of the first one. A careful log of the well will be made by geologists camped at the well.

This test is being watched by oil men with much interest as it is the consensus of opinion that a rich shallow oil pool is hidden under the favorable geological formation west of town.

The sixteen thousand acre block calling for a 3500 foot test 9 miles southeast of town just over in Dawson county has developed into a case of watchful waiting. The Penn Drilling Company, contractors, posted a $10,000.00 bond in the First National Bank on last Friday morning as forfeit in case they should fail to fulfill their part of the contract. The Penn Drilling Company has 120 days in which to spud in on the above mentioned block, however, upon deposit of the bond at the First National Bank, the officials made the statement that they expected to have machinery on the ground and in operation within the next sixty days.

I. U. Durham, progressive farmer living southeast of town was here Monday trading. Mr. Durham lives on the 16,000 acre block on which a test for oil will be drilled. His chief source of worry is the fear that a dry gusher will damage the crop he is preparing to plant with the coming spring.

GANTT & HUBBARD TAKES OVER BUSINESS

We are pleased to announce to the people of O'Donnell that Messrs Grady Gantt and Cecil Hubbard have taken over the Liles Chevrolet Agency and will have charge of the business in the future. Final arrangements were completed this week.

In conversation with the Index man Wednesday, the new managers stated that within the very near future they expected to have on display a new line of cars and parts.

Mr. Gantt has been connected with the Liles Chevrolet Company for the past two years as head salesman. Mr. Hubbard is also well known to the people of O'Donnell having spent a number of years here in the gas, oil and repair business. Both of the gentlemen are energetic, capable young business men and we predict for them success in the automobile business in O'Donnell.

P. T. A. Holds Interesting Session

The P. T. A met at their regular meeting at the high school auditorium with about fifty present. An interesting program was rendered by the grade children. After the program the minutes were read and approved, then the votes were counted for the picture. Mrs. Streets room had the largest percentage of mothers present according to the number of pupils enrolled.

Five room mothers were present; they were: Mrs. Paul Gooch, Mrs. Sid Cathey, Mrs. Millwee Knight, Mrs. Vermillion, and Mrs. Parker. Each room has chosen a parent for their room mother, this mother is expected to visit the room occasionally, tell the children stories and help that room to get the picture and the banner. Business was discussed then we adjourned until March 23. Watch next week's paper for the program.

T. A. Harris of the Joe Bailey community was here Saturday attending to business. Mr. Harris is making a success of farming and is being done by a set rule of diversification. The country needs more of him. Mr. Harris.

ONE DAY FARMERS SHORT COURSE WILL BE HELD MARCH 21

On Monday, March 21st a one-day Farmers Short Course will be held in Tahoka. The general meeting place for lectures will be the district court room in the Lynn county court house. The purpose of the Short course is to better equip the farmers and the farmers wives of Lynn county for undertakings necessary in carrying out their farm diversification program.

The topics for discussion this day will be as follows:
Yard improvement.
Oil stoves and their care.
Poultry.
Dairying.
Swine.

These topics will be discussed by representatives of the Extension department of A. & M. College of Texas. You know, therefore, that they will be ably presented.

Remember that this is to be a county-wide Short Course, the first of the kind to be held in Lynn county. It is urged that everyone in the county attend. This is an opportunity for the club women, boys and girls of the county to get something that will be worth while to them. It is a service to the agricultural interests of Lynn county. Come to spend the day. Bring your dinner with you and spread it together on the tables to be erected on the court house lawn. Let us make this day enjoyable as well as profitable.

In properly carrying out this Short Course it will be necessary for us to have several head of the very best dairy cattle in the county, some of the best swine, and some of the best poultry. We hope that if you have some of the above of the highest type that you will call us and let them be used for that day.

Watch your local paper for the next two weeks for matters pertaining to the Lynn County Farmers Short Course.

G. H. Nelson, Secretary Tahoka Chamber of Commerce.

Millie M. Halsey, County Home Demonstration Agent.

The program for the Festive includes Margaret Matzenauer, Metropolitan Opera Singer, March 24, Little Symphony Orchestra, Canyon March 25, Contest Winners Program March 26, matinee and night, at the Tech Pavilion.

EVERY PLAYER AN ADDED ATTRACTION FOR
"PAINT AND POWDER"

Elaine Hammerstein, the youngest of the well known Hammersteins, will be seen at the Lynn Theatre Wednesday and Thursday in Chadwick Pictures Corporation's "Paint and Powder," the newest and one of the best of this popular star's many fine pictures.

When Miss Hammerstein first determined upon a screen career, she assumed the tremendous responsibility of living up to the accomplishments of one of the most distinguished families in the history of the American theatre. The accomplishments of her for-fears, Oscar and Arthur Hammerstein proved an inspiration to Elaine who saw in them goals at which to aim.

Her effort to establish the family name in the annals of motion picture history have been most successful. Her first screen engagement proved her natural aptitude for pantomime, and she continued to make rapid strides toward stardom. Within the last few years, she has enjoyed a rare popularity that only a few players are destined to attain, and the many excellent performances have more than justified her large following of fan friends for their interest in her.

In the "Paint and Powder," Elaine has one of the best roles of her career. The part Mary Dolan, the orphan of the New York slums, gives her unusual talents for intense emotional acting, while the latter scenes of the play in the picturesque back-

Supporting the star in this picture is a cast of many other well known favorites. Theodore von Eltz plays the leading role, and Stuart Holmes, one of the best known screen villains, will be seen in one of his typical roles. Others include John Sainpolis, Derelys Perdue, Russell Simpson, Pat Hartigan and Mrs. Charles G. Craig. Hunt Stromberg, producer of "The Fire Patrol," and many other recent successes directed the picture.

LEDBETTER-STANDIFER

Miss Hettie Lee Standifer became the bride of Mr. Isaac Ledbetter on last Sunday morning. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. W. L. Henderson at his home in O'Donnell.

The happy young couple are from the Tredway community and have a host of friends who join in wishing them much happiness and prosperity throughout their wedded life.

Mrs. E. T. Wells who underwent a major operation on last Thursday in a Lubbock sanitarium, is reported doing nicely. Her many friends hope that she will soon be able to return home.

Fred Henderson returned Monday night from a week's visit with friends in Quannah and other points.

Mr. and Mrs. R. O. Stark spent Sunday afternoon with friends in Slaton.

Mr. H. A. Ricks of O'Brien, Texas, was here this week looking after his farming interests. Mr. Ricks has a fine farm out seven miles west of town and was very much elated over the oil prospects in this territory.

Houses of Worship Found in Odd Places

The miners in the Mydd Newydd coal mines in Wales have no call to shave, shine their boots, or don Sunday garb when they go to worship. They have a chapel all their own at the bottom of the shaft, so that when they descend the pit they can have a short service before going to their working places.

Rough timbers form the pillars and beams of this chapel, and a coal trolley serves as a pulpit. The miners sit on rough wooden benches and the oldest among them acts as pastor.

A chapel, more finished in appearance, the St. Anthony, exists in the salt mines of Wieliczka, Austria. It has an altar, crucifix, and life-size figures of the saints, apparently in black marble, but really made of salt.

In the old German town of Oberstein an ancient church stands in a great rock rising from the river. The front is of stone, but the church itself is hollowed out of the rock and penetrates far into its heart. This curious church is now the only Protestant place of worship in the town.

A church in a Pennsylvania town is said to possess the distinction of being the work of one pair of hands. One man carried every block of stone of which it was constructed, cut each of them into shape, and laid it in place.

Strangers in Borneo Get Strange Welcome

A most unusual form of greeting is the one accorded visitors by the Dyaks of Borneo, as described by William Beebe, the noted naturalist, in an article in Liberty. "This Dyak greeting holds true to the old primitive ideal that a guest must be welcomed with a gift," Beebe explains.

"This gift is a very modest one," the writer continues, "but it is also very valuable. It is an egg. Throughout the whole country, if you find favor in the eyes of a tribe, you are formally presented with an egg on the day of your arrival in a village. And in the heart of Borneo, where food is, in the nature of things, a more or less undetermined quantity, the possession of an egg is a matter for profound congratulation. Particularly a fresh egg, because at times the Dyaks show a marked preference for high game and preserved eggs—an instinctive, almost racial preference not easily acquired by a more sophisticated taste. There is always the chance, however, that the gift egg will be a good egg."

Lesson of Forgiveness

Almost all lovers of art are familiar with Leonardo da Vinci's great picture, "The Last Supper." His biographer, tells us that while at work on his great masterpiece the artist quarreled with a man and vowed to take vengeance upon him. While in this vengeful mood he sketched the face of Judas, but when he started to paint the face of the Master he found he could not give it the expression he so desired until he had gone to the man against whom he had vowed vengeance and sought his forgiveness. When this had been done, he was able to finish the picture.

Making a Thorough Job

"Dear Harold," wrote his ex-sweet-heart, "as you are probably aware, I am to be married to Mr. Blank the coming month. I shall, therefore, appreciate it if you will burn all the little notes I sent you, assuring you of reciprocity with regard to those you sent me."

"Dear Dorothy," he replied promptly, "I shall certainly comply with your request at once. And, incidentally, as your fiance holds a few notes of mine, I shall deem it a great favor if you will induce him to burn them with the rest."

East Lynne's Premiere

The first American theatrical production of "East Lynne" was reviewed in the New York papers 62 years ago. The critics disagreed as to the merits of the drama, which had been seen at Niblo's garden the night before, and none foresaw that it was to become the most popular play of the century. Since then thousands of companies of every grade have played "East Lynne," and it has been staged in every theater and village "op'ry house" in the United States and Canada. It is based upon the novel written by Mrs. Henry Wood.

Easily Satisfied

Thomas did not like mathematics. He had been absent when long division in algebra had been developed, and on his return to school, had been unable to grasp the subject.

The day for the test came, and sure enough, there was a problem in long division. Thomas copied it, studied it thoughtfully for a few minutes and without the least attempt to solve it, wrote underneath it the following note: "Dear Teacher—If you will give me five on this problem I'll be satisfied, Thomas."

Brain Work and Sugar

Brain workers lose more sugar from the blood during their toil than do manual workers, according to recent experiments in Czechoslovakia. It is not known just why this happens, but it is thought it may be through some process in the liver. Brain workers are particularly liable to colds, and the Czechoslovakian physicians suspect this may be due to the reduction of their blood sugar.

World Always Good to Man Who Laughs

The mere fact of laughing heartily does one good. It makes the world seem a kindly place and it draws one closer to one's fellows. To be entirely engrossed in oneself and one's problems induces a morbid state of mind,
but as long as one can laugh with oth-

from one's brain, one is safe from the isolation of despair and egotism. Of course I mean laughing that is free
from either superiority or bitterness, which is certainly tonic to the whole spiritual system. Laughter clears the air, and the very fact that a man can laugh heartily is a sign not alone that he can enjoy life but that he has a sense of proportion about life. The capacity to laugh is much more than a capacity to see the funny side of things. It is really a sign of sanity.
People who take themselves too seriously cannot laugh simply; people who are too overwhelmed by existence cannot laugh naturally. To laugh is not to be callous, it is to be balanced.
And true laughter, being the expression of a simple emotion, is thoroughly healthy and sound. It is the outcome of a sense of humor, and a sense of humor arises primarily from a sense of values.—Exchange.

Monarch Mixture of Courtier and Buffoon

Of the famous manners of George IV of England many stories are told.
Once when riding he happened upon a man pilloried for issuing a libel against the ruler and wrote an apology
"for the seeming indelicacy" of taking advantage to view him. Again
he took the old Lady Clermont to her carriage and begged her to take her time and not hurry, for gallantly said he, "If you tumble, I shall tumble with you." The ruler, who achieved more by charm than character, in the estimate of Shane Leslie, a recent biographer, also was a famous mimic.
On a journey to Hanover he convulsed
the sovereign of the Netherlands by mimicking the old Stadtholder during his visit to Carlton house. The "Granville Papers" give a peep behind the scenes of 1805 when he was prince of Wales; "Lord Abercorn is furious with the prince. The prince takes him off remarkably well lying along the bench with his arm across looking very fierce and stretching out his legs as though he was trying to kick Lord Granville."

One Thing to Live For

Mrs. Nagger had married a wealthy husband and as a consequence had spent much of her married life in travel. At home she had had her every wish gratified almost instantly. In fact nothing interested her any more.
She was bored with life.
"Sometimes," she said one afternoon to Mrs. Holland, who had dropped in for tea, "sometimes I feel I have nothing in the world for which
to live."
Mrs. Holland shook her head sadly,
then suddenly brightened.
"Well, there's spite, my dear, there's spite."

Value of Courtesy

Courtesy is the one medium of exchange that is always accepted at par by the people of every country on the globe. Courtesy radiates a spirit of good feeling and suggests that we are not working entirely for the material returns of work, but for the friendly human associations as well. Life is not too short, and we are never too busy to be courteous.
Courtesy is the outward expression
and an inward consideration for others is always an effective lubricant that smoothes business and social relationships, eliminating friction.—Philadelphia Public Ledger.

Spiders Love Music?

Do spiders enjoy music? A London organist has noticed that every time he starts to play the organ a spider swings down over the keyboard by a single thread of its web.
As soon as the music stops he disappears. Either very soft or very loud music also causes the spider to disappear.
During a concert at Leipzig, a spider seemed to like violin music.
During two violin solos, he dropped down from a chandelier by its web,
but went back up again when the violin music stopped.

Tale of a Tail

During the summer a certain number of American visitors endeavored to smuggle dogs into England when they landed at Southampton, remarks
the London Post.
One day an official encountered a lady whom he had every reason to suppose was infringing the law.
"Madame," he told her, "it is contrary to the regulation to bring dogs into this country." The lady protested that she had no dog. "Then, madame,"
said the official coldly, "I am to understand that the tail hanging down below your coat is your own!"

Candlestick Symbol

Albert Churchward, in his "Signs and Symbols of Primordial Man," says:
"The seven candlesticks with lighted candles, we have no doubt, were introduced by Moses as a representative type of the 'Seven glorious ones'—that is, the seven stars of the Little Bear originally in the Star Mythos. We have at the present time the same in use as a symbol of the seven stars of the Little Bear."—Theosophical Society.

PLANS FOR C. OF C. CONVENTION ARE NEARING COMPLETION

WICHITA FALLS, Texas, March
7.—Detailed plans for the West Texas Chamber of Commerce Convention
May 16 and 17th are rapidly being completed by the staff of the Wichita Falls Chamber of Commerce and the West Texas Chamber of Commerce
co-operating. While the program proper is for two days, a three-day program is being arranged. As the Convention comes on Monday and Tuesday, Wichita Falls is expecting thousands of visitors on Sunday preceding and a program for that day is being arranged. From present indications this Convention, the ninth
in the history of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, will be the biggest ever held. Wichita Falls is planning to entertain 50,000 visitors.

A unique feature is planned for this year's Convention in that a Congress of Nations is being featured.
It is planned to have as many cities
or towns of West Texas come to represent some foreign nation, to dress in correct costumes and to carry the flag of the nation represented. Within a few days the countries to be assigned will be announced. If the colors of the nations are carried out properly, the big Convention Parade which will be staged Monday, May 16th, will be one of the most colorful parades the Convention has ever seen. This parade has always been a big feature. At the Amarillo convention last year it was more than three miles long and forty-two uniformed bands marched in the procession. It is expected more than fifty uniformed bands will attend
this year and take part in the contest for which prizes of $5,000.00
have been offered.

Several prominent national figures will deliver addresses during the Convention. The Hon. James J.
Davis, United States Secretary of Labor, has accepted the invitation of the Wichita Falls Chamber of Commerce and the West Texas Chamber of Commerce to attend and deliver an address on the second day.

The Honorable Nicholas Longworth
and wife, Mrs. Alice Roosevelt Longworth, have been invited to attend.
An acceptance from them, however,
has not been received. Mr. Longworth has been asked to address the convention on the second day. Among other prominent speakers will be the new President of the United States Chamber of Commerce. He will speak on Monday. Governors Moody of Texas, Dillion of New Mexico and Johnson of Oklahoma are also expected at the Monday morning meeting to bring greetings from the three respective states. While Sunday is not included in the program proper, it is

ELECTION

When that an in the City of the first Tues- the same being with: said elec- City Ha'), City for the purpose Aldermen, Attorney, for Texas for the A. M. and P. M.

disqualified by little with reference to my candidacy I have lived in your little city for a number of years and being personally acquainted with most all the voters, I feel that you all know me, and with out any comment, my reputation with you has long been established. Whether good or bad, I leave that for you to judge.

However, in justice to myself, and for information of some who may not know, I will say: I am not altogether without experience as a Peace officer, having served six years as Sheriff, prior to moving to O'Donnell. During that six year I received a fair conception of the duties and responsibilities of the office to which I now aspire.

If the good people of O'Donnell see fit to elect me, I shall without fear or favor, perform the duties of the office to the very best of my ability, without malice or partiality to anyone.

I only ask a fair consideration on April 5th, and I assure you that I will be well satisfied with your decision.

Yours for a better O'Donnell.
J. Y. Everett.

TO THE VOTERS AND CITIZENS OF O'DONNELL

In making my announcement for the office of City Marshall of O'Donnell, I have the following to say:

I have no complaint to make of the present City administration, and no mud to sling at any individual. I enter the race with the very best of feelings and with due respect to every one.

I don't feel it necessary to say but little with reference to my candidacy I have lived in your little city for a number of years and being personally acquainted with most all the voters, I feel that you all know me, and with out any comment, my reputation with you has long been established. Whether good or bad, I leave that for you to judge.

AN EXPLANATION TO THE VOTERS OF O'DONNELL

In my announcement last week, for re-election for Mayor, the following paragraph appeared:

"The City of O'Donnell should, for the next term be run on a conservative basis. If elected again, I will endeavor to protect the treasury, at the same time will favor such improvements as will be found necessary and that can be afforded. I will not favor the spending of a dollar unnecessarily."

The sentence, "I will protect the treasury," was not intended to cast any reflection upon the treasurer Mr. Sorrels, as some of my opponets have construed it, but was put in for the purpose of emphasizing my belief in a conservative administration.

The last sentence of the above paragraph, "I will not favor the spending of a dollar unnecessarily," was also for the purpose of emphasizing a conservative administration. I had no desire to cast any reflection upon the present council, as all expenditures were made by the vote of all members present at each and every meeting of the city council.

Some have come to the conclusion, by the wording of the paragraph in question, that there was some discension among the present aldermen. Let me say at this time that each and every question voted upon by the aldermen was always passed or rejected by a unanimous vote of all aldermen present. Never has it been necessary for me to cast a deciding vote which would have been required in case of a tie vote.

BARACCAS ENTERTAIN

On Friday evening, February 25th, the Baraccas Class of the First Baptist Sunday school entertained the T. E. L. ladies. A very pleasant evening was spent and a number of interesting games were played. Brother Horn performed some slight of hand tricks which were exceedingly clever. Quite a number of pennies were taken in from the booths which consisted of fortune telling, lung testing and cause of divorce.

Music was furnished by Sousa's Band after which delicious refreshments of hot chocolate and sandwiches were served to Mmes. Mansell, Sorrels, Hardberger, Eaton, Carroll, Tom Mansell, Guye, Horn, Miles, Stark, Musick, Yandell, Anderson, Wyatt, Howard, Lambert, Cabbness, Goddard, Newsome, James, Vaughn, Beatenbough.

The men proved to be very clever entertainers.

E. M. Wilder Announces for Mayor

To the voters of O'Donnell, I wish to announce my candidacy for Mayor. While announcing I wish to state just a few things I stand for without any reflection on the present administration or with out fear or favor.

First: I am for good churches, better homes and better schools, a cleaner City and sweeter place for us all to live in. But we should obtain these by gradual growth and not alone with money and not tax ourselves to death.

Second: I believe in spending the tax where it will be of most service to all people and where conditions demand it just at present. We should at all times and always be ready to upbuild our little city, we must progress. We as citizens should be very careful as to how we progress and guard the city's interest. We can never make a manufacturing town out of our city if we don't safeguard the city's interests for instance, the light and power rate is to high, and if elected your mayor I will do my best to get this corrected, and watch is the word.

Third: I feel like the citizens should know where and how their money is spent, and if I am elected your mayor, I shall with the assistance of the Aldermen, give you a quarterly report of all money received and where it has been spent and what for. I think this is due every citizen of our city.

Fourth: While times are as they are, we should handle the city business very careful at all times, and hold down our expenses and not raise the Mayor's salary. It should remain at a maximum of $25.00 and fees and not $75.00. We all know how hard it is to get a dollar just at present. Fifth: With the present tax money of this year we should be able to lower our tax rates for this year by running our city economically. With a business administration by business men, we can do so.

Sixth: I believe in the enforcement of the law with out fear or favor to anyone. Experience is our greatest teacher but who wants to pay the teacher. Having had several years experience already I feel like I can serve you without the extra pay.

You all know me and know my qualification as a business man. I earnestly solicit your careful consideration and you shall be the judge and I will abide by your wishes. If elected I assure you I can qualify for the office.

Yours very truly,
E. M. Wilder.

Mrs. Cathey Hostess To Missionary Society

Mrs. W. S. Cathey was hostess to the ladies Aid of the First Christian church on last Monday at her home in the north part of town.

The meeting was strictly of a business nature. Numerous matters of business was brought to the attention of the ladies, one was the change in date of meeting. The society voted to meet Tuesday afternoon of each week instead of on Mondays. Those present were: Mesdames Pirtle, Crunk, A. D. Brown, Marr, Edwards, Minton, and Grandmother Minton. We were indeed glad to have as our guest Mrs. I. L. Townzend, our pastor's wife of Lamesa.

Little Bobbie Taylor, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Taylor, is on the sick list this week.

Chevrolet Again Smashes All Records

Responding to an unprecedented and enthusiastic demand on the part of the public for the most beautiful Chevrolet in Chevrolet history, with its numerous refinements at lowered prices, the Chevrolet Motor Company during February again smashed all previous monthly production records by producing 85,821 cars.

February production this year showed an increase of 34,518 cars or more than 67 per cent over the total of 51,303 Chevrolets built in February, 1926.

Despite greatly enlarged facilities provided under the $10,000,000 expansion program completed December, 1926, the Chevrolet Motor Company was forced to extend its operations by working overtime, day and night, to meet the nation-wide demand for Chevrolet cars—a demand marking the rise of this company to its position as the largest manufacturer of gear-shift cars in the world.

"There is only one reason for the phenomenal growth in popularity of the Chevrolet car" said W. S. Knudsen, president of the Chevrolet Company, "and that is—it has pleased the public. It has met the desire of the public for high grade car, of exceptional quality and performance, at a reasonable price. It is this constantly growing approval of the Chevrolet car that is causing the company to extend its production to meet the increasing demand."

In the first two months of 1927 the Chevrolet Motor Company built 46,373 cars; in the same period in 1926 it built 97,740 and in January and February of this year it totaled 189,497 cars—an increase in two years for this period of 113,124 cars.

B. L. Parker Announces for Marshall

In announcing my candidacy for the office of City Marshall of O'Donnell, to be voted upon on April 5th. I wish to say that I do not claim to be the only man in your midst that is either capable or worthy of your vote, but do know that if elected I will make you a good Marshall.

I have served you good people in the past both as nightwatchman and Constable, have tried to uphold the law and enforce same strictly and firmly yet without any undue show of authority, as is often the case with those commonly called "the law". If elected I will immediately resign my present position as Constable with the county and apply myself alone to looking after my duties to O'Donnell, and its citizens. Will stay on the job and hold myself ready at all times to serve you Day and Night.

If after due consideration enough of you do vote for me to elect me, I will appreciate same and furnish the proof by service rendered according to my oath. As in the past I will show no partiality but will treat all law breakers alike regardless of whom they may be, the position they may hold, the influence they may wield, the money they may have, or may not have.

Yours for a cleaner Law abiding City,

B. L. Parker.
