Know Your Law

The history of liberty often shows that a would-be tyrant likes to accuse his opponents of treason. So, to safeguard our liberty the constitution itself sets out the kind of proof we need to find some one guilty of treason.

For this reason America has had relatively few cases of treason. Not in early English and Roman law. "Treasonous acts" covered many things, in fact, anything that seemed to threaten the community safety.

In the fourteenth century the English tried to define treason: "The every subject owed allegiance to the King, trivial breaches of a private nature became a petty treason." But a subject disloyal enough as to attack or plot against the king himself was guilty of "high" treason. The kings liked this: For one treason subject to death.

The broadened treason widened other to include crimes against private persons. Later even the king himself was not exempted. In 1649 he indicted, convicted, and beheaded King Charles I for treason.

King Henry VIII made it high treason to slaughter Queen Anne or her children. Failure to take an oath not to slaughter the queen itself became treason.

Under Elizabeth I it became treason for anyone to hold a religion which did not conform to the Queen's.

Conviction of treason was easy. In some cases you needed no witnesses. Trials were short and the accused could not have defense.

In conflicts for power, the losing politicians often became "traitors" as they do in many countries to this day. Our early settlers lived in troubled times with the coming of the revolution creating new factions. For them treason was also a frequent accusation.

But after the revolution the founding fathers and the people had had enough.

They decided to limit "treason" and faced these problems: Should a new executive put down rebels and define treasons himself? Should the Congress during "troubled times" have power to define treason?

No. The new Constitution took treason out of politics. It said treason shall consist only of levying war against the United States or giving aid and comfort to the enemy.

Conviction required testimony of two witnesses to the same overt act.

Student Tells Of Life In Germany -- Due Here Soon

On September 26, 1939 I was born in Breslau as the first son of Viktor Blank and his wife Erica. I had one brother, Jurgen Viktor, who was born in 1941 and died in 1944. My father was killed in the war against Russia in 1942.

In January 1945 my mother and I left Breslau, shortly before the town was attacked by the Russians. After a very long travel by train, we at last came to Kassel to my grandparents, but air raids did not permit us to stay. At the end of the war we returned to Kassel. As there was no money to support our family, my mother had to work; having studied law she became a judge. She gave up this position, after in 1949 she had married the judge Hans Keiser. In 1951 my sister Gisela was born. My stepfather died in September 1953, after a long sickness.

From 1946 up to 1950 I was a student of the Volksschule (Primary School) at Kassel-Wehlheim. From 1950 to 1959 I attended the Wilhelmsschule (Secondary School-Gymnasium) in Kassel. In the upper classes I mostly was interested in German and English, in history and civic education. In my spare time I especially occupied myself with political questions; this has been so ever since.

Between the age of eight and ten I lived in children homes for three times. From 1952 to 1956 I was member of the boy scouts. We went on many hikes, and I spent some weeks in camp each year. From 1957 up to the end of my schooldays I was one of the editors of our school magazine. In April of last year I was elected secretary for the "Junge Presse Hessen". I am also the Hessian representative in the "Landerrat", the federal institution that is made up by all the state school magazine associations of Germany. Last year during the art exposition documents II, featuring modern art that originated between 1945 and 1959, at Kassel I was in charge of an international student meeting sponsored by "Junge Presse Hessen" in cooperation with European School-magazine Association. On February 19, 1959, I passed the final examination at my school (Abitur). I took up the study of law at Kiel-University. It was there that I became acquainted with World University Service and its work for the first time. During the 1959 summer vacations I was assigned to a Kassel law court for an internship of two months, that is required of all law students. In November of the same year I became student of Frankfurt University, continuing my law study. I also went to work again at the local WUS committee, being elected member of the executive committee at the end of the term.

(Ed. Note -- as stated last week Mr. Blank is a Rotary Exchange student and will be here for two months as guest of local Rotary Club. He is due here about July 15th)

Mr and Mrs. R. E. Hardberger and family of Beaver, Okla. visited Mrs. Synlie and Mrs. R. E. Hardberger last week.

YOUTHS ATTENDING BAND SCHOOL

More than 300 junior and high school musicians from throughout West Texas are enrolled in a two week Summer Band School currently underway at Texas Tech.

Each is getting intensive daily instruction from outstanding area bandmen who are specialists in individual musical instruments, said Keith McCarty, director of the annual Tech event.

Highlighting the days of practicing will be a three-band concert July 1 at 7:30 p. m. on the Ad Building green on campus.

Dean Killion, director of Tech bands, will direct the Symphonic Band throughout the school and at the concert. A native of Nebraska, the enthusiastic bandman is serving as a special resource person to the special school in addition to teaching two courses in band in Tech's regular summer school.

Students from here are: Mirra Botello, Jo Ann Lacy, Ioma Lois Cook, Keith Criner, Sherry Hays, Carolyn Reed, Jimmie Simmons, Ellis Traylor and Helen Utecht.

WE HAVE ADDED A LOT OF MERCHANDISE TO OUR 1-2 PRICE COUNTER. YOU BE THE BEST TO COME IN AND LOOK IT OVER. CICERO SMITH LUMBER CO.

The 1960 Poultry Conference will be held on July 6-7 at Texas A and M College. The program will emphasize breeding, health, feeding and management as factors in providing poultrymen with the greatest possible returns. The conference should be of special interest to poultry breeders, hatchermen, servicemen and commercial producers.

The USDA's plentiful foods list for July looks like a spread for a July 4th picnic. Turkeys head the list with plenty of summer vegetables, watermelons and cantaloupes, and peaches along with ice cream for dessert.

Rains from now thru August will almost certainly see cotton losses from root rot on the increase. Moisture plus the carryover from last year of the soil borne disease and late planted cotton will be contributing causes to the increase.

Heat is the worst enemy of egg quality. And during the hot summer months, Dr. John Quisenberry, head of Texas A and M's Poultry Science Department, advises egg producers to follow the best known production practices to keep egg production and quality up. Local county agents can supply information on the subject.

Stores To Close Monday, July 4th

All local stores and service firms will be closed Monday, July 4th. Folks are reminded to shop Saturday with the two day holiday in mind. Traffic will be unusually heavy with the long three day week end and if you travel, use extra caution. Remember that speed is the No. 1 killer of the highway.

Because of the holiday Monday, your home town paper will not go into the mail until Thursday.

Dial Phones Set For January

Mrs. Bill Davis, owner of the local telephone system, notified the City Council last Friday in a called meeting, that a completely new dial phone system would be installed here. Target date for completion is January of next year depending on weather and supply of materials. Estimated cost of the new system is about a quarter of a million dollars. A new brick building will be built on lots just south of the Assembly of God Church. Work on the building is starting in the near future.

The dial system will be the most modern of anywhere in the nation and the plant is being built as a show-place of modern telephonic equipment. The system will feature several new items not being used anywhere, even in the most modern plants.

The system remains entirely privately owned. Mrs. Davis is one of our most loyal civic workers down thru the 17 years she has owned the firm. She is currently vice president of the Womens Federation of Clubs.

Rates will be increased on the conversion date next January. The rates will be worked out in a conference of the City Council and Mrs. Davis.

A resident maintenance man will be here as well as bookkeeper, Tom Young will remain as a line assistant.

It's good news for the town and congratulations are in order to all who brought this progressive event to pass.

To Manage Firm

Announcement is being made this week that Mr. and Mrs. Bart Anderson will manage the Dale Thuren Farm Store at North Y. Read the ad on page three.

Judy Furlow and Melba Furlow visited in Nacogdoches last week.

GASS-MIDDLETON VOWS ARE EXCHANGED HERE

The home of Mr and Mrs. J. T. Middleton, Sr., the bride's paternal grandparents, was the scene for the marriage of Sherry Lynn Middleton and Jerry Eldon Gass last Thursday afternoon. Parents of the bride were Mr and Mrs. J. T. Middleton, Jr. and Mr and Mrs. Bill Gass of Draw. The Rev. Bill Burton, pastor of the O'Donnell First Baptist Church, officiated for the twin ring rite before the fireplace decorated with white gladioli and tapers. Music was presented by Jo Ann Lacy, pianist and Mrs. Bobby Cox, vocalist. The bride was given in marriage by her father.

Maid of honor was Sue Lott. Junior bridesmaids were Jaylane Middleton and Suzanne McLaurin. Bobby Cox was best man. Members of the houseparty for the reception were the bride's aunts, Mrs. Jessie Tafaya, Mrs. Lewis Thomas and Mrs. John Jewett. The wedding trip was to Corpus Christi. The couple will live here where Mr. Gass farms. Both are graduates of the local high school.

The bride's parents hosted the rehearsal dinner Wednesday evening in the home of Mr and Mrs. J. T. Middleton Sr.

One should be careful in offering advice on buying stocks — some one might be foolish enough to take it.

Don't relax your efforts in the production of high quality milk. That's the advice to dairymen from A. M. Meekma, extension dairy husbandman, who adds that seasonal jobs may take more attention now but herd management and production of top quality milk must always be prime considerations.

Hot weather is also horn fly weather. These insects, says C. F. Garner, extension entomologist, will be one of the chief pests of livestock from now until fall. They can be controlled and Garner recommends that producers check with their local county agent for the best practices and control measures.

CANCER AND HEART DISEASE ARE KILLERS OF OLDER FOLK

Cancer and heart diseases set a grim new record last year, accounting for almost half the 73,754 total deaths in Texas during 1959. Final tabulations of State Department of Health death statistics shows 24,629 deaths from heart diseases and 11,086 from cancer.

The cancer death rate in Texas is still well below the rate for the United States as a whole. Texas registered 117 deaths from the disease for each 100,000 population compared to the national cancer death rate of 150 per each 100,000 population. Texas has a younger population which probably accounts for the disparity between the Texas and national cancer rates. Cancer strikes most frequently at people past 45 years of age. Of the 11,000 cancer deaths last year, 9,768 were past 45. Heart diseases are demonstrating a significant increase. Three years ago there were 22,883 deaths from heart diseases — a rise of 1,741 for 1959 over the number registered for 1956. As life expectancy increases, more and more people are going to fall victim to heart diseases and cancer by living into the ages when they are more vulnerable to the ravages of the twin menaces.

The editor has to put his thoughts in black and white, and that tends to make an intelligent person think twice before he says things carelessly.

Know Your Law

Monday morning quarterbacks always have brilliant hindsight. How well they can see the coaches' mistakes last week.

So, with a lawsuit: After the jury brings in its verdict, people can tell how your lawyer should have tried your case.

But, as with sports, it's hard to look forward into the swirl of moves and counter moves to see how a given move would make out in a trial.

What's worse, unless your lawyer objects and makes the proper motion, he may lose the right later to have the court strike a piece of damaging evidence from the record.

Fully to protect you, your lawyer must so fight your case that he could take it, if he had to, "on the record" to a higher court by objecting then and there. That's why a lawyer may seem always to be objecting. He has to.

If he had not, for example, moved to "quash the indictment," or objected to certain evidence, the higher court might reject his appeal where your life, liberty, or property may be at stake.

By court rules, your lawyer must always keep in mind the thoughtful justices on the appellate benches. For they may some day sit down calmly to review what he did or did not do in the excitement of a trial.

HEAD SMUT THREAT TO GRAIN SORGHUM

College Station — Head smut, a disease of grain sorghum occurs in areas of Texas. Losses are estimated to range from 0 to 50 percent in Coastal Bend area of Texas.

Close examination of the near harvest is necessary to determine disease loss. With many affected varieties and hybrids, head is sterile. In such cases, blackish, powdery smut is formed, pushing the leaves aside and forcing lower on the stalk. On varieties and hybrids the male will be smutted and destroyed.

In harvesting a badly infested field, smut comes from a combine black cloud. When the smut first appears, it is covered by whitish membrane. The membrane soon breaks and allows the spores (spores) to be scattered by the wind and rain. The fungus ease overwinters as spores in plant trash or in the soil. The following spring and summer the spores germinate and produce more spores of another type, which turn, infect the sorghum thru the roots.

IT ONLY FEELS LIKE POWER STEERING
(Corvair doesn't need it)

Corvair's ingenious design simply places the engine in the rear. That means less weight on the front wheels and a lighter, happier feel in the curve of your hands. No power assist is needed in a car that's naturally nimble. See what a fresh engineering approach can do? From handling and parking ease right on, there just isn't anything ordinary or conventional about Corvair. Look at its practically flat floor, four-wheel independent suspension, fold-down rear seat. Its air-cooled rear engine that never needs water or antifreeze or radiator repairs... and leaves engine heat and noise back where you've been. All these special advantages are standard in every Corvair. Just wait till you see how much they add to your driving pleasure. But why wait!

There is always a better paying job somewhere but perhaps not a better job.

You can usually judge a person by his or her friends just like the saying goes.

The safe storage of agricultural chemicals is vital to farm safety, says the Texas Farm and Ranch Safety Council. The Council strongly recommends the use of proper labels on all storage containers and that storage buildings be locked when possible.

Plums $2.50 bu. Alford Orchard, Grassland 2tc

Only one team from Lynn County 4 H Club placed at the Texas 4 H Roundup at College Station last week and that was the entomology team which placed 8th out of 20 teams taking part. Members of the team are Valton Masker of Wilson, Ronnie Wood, Lyndol and Benna Askew all of here. Others who took part in the Soundup included Mar-cheta Wood, public speaking.

Ship and travel Santa Fe
...the longest railroad in the U. S. A.

See your nearest Santa Fe agent

Few friendships avoid at least one acid test.

Not taking yourself seriously is usually a sign of brains.

Looking busy has become one of the great talents in government work.

Commuter Snags Train But Can't Hold It
EUREKA, Calif.-Loafers around the railroad station here tell this for the truth. Seems the station agent heard a loud crash on the platform. He ran out and saw the rear end of a train disappearing around a curve. A disheveled gent lay prone on the ground, surrounded by the contents of his banged-up suitcases.

An owlish youngster stared at the gent, but made no effort to assist him. "Was he trying to catch the train?" the station agent asked the youngster.

"He did catch it," replied the youngster, "but it got away."

Why Mercury is the better low-price car

MORE VALUE. Just look at these Mercury advantages over other low-price cars:
You ride smoother because Mercury has up to 8 inches more wheelbase . . . and is up to 494 pounds heavier.
You're more comfortable because of Mercury's extra shoulder room, leg room, and foot room. You feel safer because Mercury's brakes are bigger (up to 26%), and visibility is better (up to 21% more).
Mercury has at least two dozen extra values. Why not enjoy them all, and save a little money, too?

PRICES START $63 TO $66* BELOW EVEN THE LOWEST-PRICED V-8 POWERED PLYMOUTH FURY OR CHEVROLET IMPALA.

And we're not talking about a 'stripped' Mercury. This price comparison is based on a deluxe-appointed Monterey with luxurious nylon interior and deep, soft wall-to-wall carpeting.

This amazing price story is the result of Mercury's dramatic 1960 price reductions (as much as $174 lower than last year, including extras that are now standard equipment).

Every Mercury is lower priced than last year. All Monterey's are now low-price cars. They are priced below, or within a few dollars of, the other deluxe V-8 series in the low-price field. Come in. See for yourself.

*Based on comparison of manufacturers' suggested 1960 retail base prices for lowest-priced V-8 models.
