VOLUME 50

IOWA PARK, TEXAS, THURSDAY, JANUARY 1, 1959

NUMBER 42

Love and Laughter and Faith and Hope — these are the promises of the New Year which started today. And little Carrie Dale Roberts, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rollin Roberts perfectly represents those promises. Young enough to look out upon the world with hope and faith, because she has been reared in such an atmosphere — the Herald's New Year Baby brings joy and brightness to this page.

Our staff joins with Mr. and Mrs. Roberts and their other two children Marsha and Mike, in wishing for everybody a New Year of love and understanding at every level.

Mr. and Mrs. Dale Hansard and son Kent of Lubbock visited her parents Mr. and Mrs. D. O. James and other relatives in Iowa Park and Wichita Falls during the holidays.

Cpl. James Beavers of Camp Pendleton, Calif., visited his parents Mr. and Mrs. Lacy Beavers and other relatives on his Christmas leave. James will receive his discharge in January.

Mrs. Bess Smith is visiting relatives in Houston during the holidays.

Mrs. Tirzah Portis and Miss Hazel Crites had as Christmas holiday guests Jack Crites of Hamilton and Herman Octger of Miami, Fla., both stationed at Sheppard AFB; and Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Sadler and daughter Clarabell of San Antonio.

BRUBAKER REUNION

Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Brubaker held a family reunion Christmas Day. Their three daughters and families were here to enjoy the get-together.

Present were Mr. and Mrs. Otis Martin and daughters Barbara, Patty and Marilyn of Lake Charles, La.; Mr. and Mrs. Roy Dickey and sons Rob and Phil of Wichita Falls; Dr. and Mrs. Theron Baber of Wichita Falls.

Believe it or not, the wrought-iron gates in this Spanish patio are not real—they are printed on a 7-ft. panel fabric of spun rayon and Celanese Fortisan rayon. This is one of the many room settings to be seen in "World of Ideas," the home decorating program with the international flavor presented by Celanese Corporation of America.

The program is divided into four parts showing how the ancient customs, architecture and colors of Denmark, Spain, Austria and several countries of Asia have been translated into American fabrics and furnishings.

"World of Ideas" will be shown on Thursday afternoon, Jan. 15, at the First Baptist church for the 23 Study club.

at the First Baptist church for the 23 Study club. Mrs. Lester E. Brooks will read the commentary on the 55 color slides in this program, which includes 35 room settings.

The program also includes colorful pictures of the countries visited in preparation of the slides. The meeting Jan. 15 will be a Guest Day for 23 Study club.

Krajca-Clements

In a beautiful marriage ceremony read Saturday evening, Dec. 27 in Our Redeemer Lutheran church of Wichita Falls, Miss Joyce Janice Krajca and Kenneth Darrell Clements exchanged solemn vows.

Rev. Theodore C. Moeller, pastor, was officiant for the ceremony, which was read before an altar flanked by arrangements of carnations and candelabra holding tall cathedral tapers. Floor candelabra and arrangements of palm trees and greenery decorated the setting.

The bride is daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank L. Krajca of Wichita Falls. The groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Leonard S. Clements of Iowa Park.

Traditional wedding music was presented by Mrs. Linda Bonham, soloist, and Eddie Wyatt, organist, both of Wichita Falls.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attired in a chapel-length white lace gown over taffeta fashioned with molded bodice and portrait neckline featuring tulle inserts with dainty bowknots outlined in sequins. Her fingertip veil of tulle was attached to a veil of lace and pearls. She carried a bouquet of white gardenias and lilies-of-the-valley.

Maid of honor was Miss Juanita Fuchs. Bridesmaids were Miss Betty Coufal of Seymour and Miss Pat Faulkner. Candlelighters were Miss Patricia Clements, sister of the groom, and Frank L. Krajca Jr., brother of the bride. Flower girl was Linda Meek and ringbearer was Kevin Cook.

Gerald Clements served his brother as best man. Ushers were Jack Hayes and Paul Wayne Ernst both of Grand Prairie, LaVell Stermer and Jack Stermer, Groomsmen were George Clements, brother of the groom, and Leo Cook.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in Wesley Foundation center at Midwestern university. The reception table was covered with a handmade white Portuguese cloth over blue centered with a candle surrounded by blue and white flowers.

Assisting in the house party were Misses Ann Stermer of Iowa Park, Helen Obermier of Henrietta, Virginia Jackson of Vera, Francine Faulkner of Iowa Park, Jolene Smith of Hastings, Okla., and Mesdames Eva Nell Cook, Dale Stermer and June McManus, all of Wichita Falls.

The bride was graduated from Wichita Falls high school and for two years attended Midwestern university. She is now a student at East Texas State college in Commerce.

The groom was graduated from IPHS and served two years in the army. He attended Midwestern university as a business education student. He will continue his studies at ETSC in January.

The couple will establish residence at South Dorm apartments of ETSC.

Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Clements were hosts to a rehearsal party Friday evening in their home. The bride's chosen colors of blue and white were used in decorations.

Coaches, Teachers, School Trustees and Guests Liven '29 Class Meet

Thirty years ago next May a gang of kids made life exciting in Iowa Park. The gang was officially known as the Class of '29 of Iowa Park High School.

To hear them talk at reunions, you'd think they were unholy terrorists, given to kidnapping athletic coaches, breaking window glass, waylaying their enemies at dark corners, and committing all manner of juvenile sin.

Last Saturday night, 14 of these erstwhile hoodlums met, of all places, in the Christian church fellowship hall, for their 30th anniversary reunion. They had with them various assortments of husbands and wives, children and grandchildren.

Ringleader and SPOKESMAN for the class is our own Loys D. Barbour, who was class president and now directs planning for the reunions. First such blowout was just after Christmas 10 years ago.

The reunion this year began in the afternoon, when Mrs. Ruth Gard was hostess of a reception in her home from 4:30 to 6:30. The gang then moved to the fellowship hall where church women served a baked ham meal for Class of '29 members, their families and an assortment of special guests.

Former teachers present were I. E. Griffin of Silsbee and Frank Belken of Aransas Pass, former coaches; Mrs. M. L. Hines of Lubbock, former English teacher; Mrs. T. J. Pace of Iowa Park, former history teacher.

Mr. and Mrs. Locke Lee and Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Clark, present, representing the board of education of 30 years ago.

Another special guest was Mrs. C. E. Birk of the Class of '28, who started high school with the group but made up a year and graduated ahead of her class. She was accompanied by Mr. Birk of a still earlier class.

Quiet music during the meal was provided by John Woodall. His mother was helping with the serving, so his father Rollins Woodall was invited and attended. The Iowa Park Herald was represented by George R. Huckaby (with Mrs. H. also in the kitchen).

The 14 class members present Saturday night were: Mrs. Elma Finch Barker; Mrs. I. L. Phipper; Mrs. Billy James; Mrs. Bruce Freeman; Mrs. W. R. Norwood; Mrs. Comer Tuck; Mrs. Ruth Gard; and Messrs. Franklin Love, Walter Davis, Joe Cunningham, R. L. Sunday, Theo Cheeves, Loys D. Barbour.

Members voted to meet again during the week after Christmas Day in 1963.

Noon club had as guest speaker Mrs. Katherine Sue Jacquart, who spoke on "Alaska" at the Ladies Day meeting held Tuesday at noon in the Christian Church fellowship hall.

Homer Thompson gave the invocation. Sam Hill introduced special guests: Mrs. Curtis Hill, Miss Janice Hill, Donald Hill and Otis Gay.

The club sweethearts Harriett Coppock and Thelma Gay entertained during the luncheon with winter songs, quite appropriate, with snow and cold breezes outside.

Mrs. Jacquart, a former Lions club sweetheart, gave an informative talk on America's 49th state: the flag, state song, climate, living conditions, modes of travel. She and Mrs. Gay modeled several items of clothing which are musts in the frozen north.

A question and answer period was conducted.

The Jacquart family returned to the States several months ago after Sgt. Jacquart served 2½ years in the air force there.

As 1959 takes the reins, we're taking this opportunity to wish our wonderful customers and friends the best of health and happiness and prosperity in the coming year. May your best dreams come true!

ABUNDANT LIFE

by ORAL ROBERTS

IN ONE HOUR

In one hour, a youthful shepherd, previously unknown except by the sheep, he tended in the hills near Bethlehem, became the national hero of Israel.

He was David! In that same hour, the legendary champion of the Philistines, perhaps the most formidable warrior the world has ever known, lay dead at the feet of his people.

He was Goliath! The confidence of the Philistines melted into dismay and confusion. The insecurity of the children of Israel turned into exultation and triumph. All within one hour!

Goliath towered in splendor 9½ feet. He was magnificent in impenetrable armor. His great sword flashed in the sunlight. Who in all the world was equal to this giant of giants?

David was but a lad in his teens. He was too light to wear protective armor. He had no experience with the sword. The only weapon he knew was a small hand sling. It was both gross insult and folly to pit this diminutive child against the might of Goliath.

The fate of Israel had never hung on so slender a thread in all of that nation's resplendent history. It was one of the earth's most dramatic hours.

David wound his sling and cried, "I fight not with sword and shield, but with the Spirit of the Lord."

two nations. Goliath fell. David stood upon him. Taking the giant's own great sword, he severed the massive head. There was a shout of victory from the host of the Israelites, and the Philistines turned and fled.

All within one hour! The history of David is one of the most inspiring stories of all time. They sang of him, "Saul hath slain his thousands, and DAVID his ten thousands!" What was the secret of this simple lad from the hills who became mighty in battle and king of Israel?

His secret was in his word of faith: "I fight not with sword and shield but with the Spirit of the Lord!" His secret was his act of faith. He wound up his sling and fired. His secret was the Spirit of God who guided the stone unerringly to the forehead of Goliath. His secret was his trust in the Lord. David believed God, and because he believed, he saw God's marvelous provision.

Goliath is a symbol, or a type, of the unconquerable enemy. When you are confronted with fear, you face Goliath. What is poverty but Goliath? What is failure, hunger, insecurity, indebtedness, or anything which blocks your way, if it is not Goliath? The uncertainty of the future is Goliath. In one hour David slew his giant because he fought with the Spirit of the Lord.

Goliath is not slain by any other weapon.

They all visited with Kenneth Berg in the Hamilton hospital at Olney.

Our Debt to Christ

by Clinton Davidson

This is the week, above all others, each year that we like to dwell for awhile on the deep significance of Jesus Christ and the Christian religion which He gave to the world.

Christianity is only one of the many religions the world has known. It is, however, much more than just another religion. Other peoples have worshipped and made sacrifices to the sun, the moon, or to carved idols.

Christ, whose birth we observe this Holy Week, gave a meaning to life and to the brotherhood of man. Through the nearly twenty centuries since Christ was born, many men have sacrificed their life for Him, but not a life has been sacrificed to Him.

He lived and taught the dignity and the meaning of life, its purposes and its rewards on Earth as well as after death. Christianity is truly a way of life and of living that has made the world more beautiful and more satisfying.

When we think of Christmas we think of Christmas gifts. In fact, "Christmas gifts" is about the most frequently used expression during this week. How many of us get more pleasure out of giving than receiving? Christ said, "It is more blessed to give than to receive." He also said "Give and it shall be given unto you; good measure, pressed down, shaken together and running over." He said, "There is no one who has given for my sake who shall not receive a hundredfold."

Does that sound practical to you? Or does it sound like a beautiful but impractical theory heard only from the pulpit? Well, let's see how it has worked when applied to our Nation.

Almost a hundred years ago the United States was the first among modern, civilized nations to give up slave labor. What did we receive? We have made America into the most mechanized and productive nation in the world.

Christ taught us that we are our brother's keeper and He said, "Inasmuch as ye have done it unto the least of these, so have you done it unto me." During the past 15 years we have given liberally of our material wealth to the less fortunate people of the world.

We have, I believe, given more than $30 billion worth of food, clothing, tools and other sustenance to the peoples of more than 40 nations. We have "cast our bread upon the waters" and it has come back to us one hundredfold.

I am 70 years old and I have never seen a Christmas when the great majority of the people of this country had such good homes, as good food, as good clothes, as many of the conveniences that make life more satisfying.

This is a Christmas season when all of us can truly say Jesus was a wise prophet when He said, "It is more blessed to give than to receive." For, in giving we have received many times over what we gave.

We have in our hearts that peace for which He died on the Cross of Calvary.

Safest Roads Control Access
By Jeanne Smith, Dodge Safety Consultant

ALTHOUGH it's commonly believed that four-lane divided highways are the safest roads on which to travel, a recent study reveals that such roads can be highly hazardous unless they have controlled access.

A survey by the Michigan State Highway department establishes that four-lane divided highways without access control are among the most dangerous roads to travel.

On the other hand, four-lane divided highways, with control of entrance and exit, are four times as safe as other highways, the study shows.

John C. Mackie, Michigan state highway commissioner, says the study indicates that four-lane divided highways, without access control, give the motorist a false sense of security.

"Such roads," he points out, "encourage travel at high speeds because they separate traffic and provide additional room for maneuverability. However, they still subject the motorist to friction from vehicles or pedestrians moving in and out of roadside services, business establishments and residences.

"They require stop lights at major intersections which vastly increase rear-end collision potential. They also require left-turning in the face of oncoming high speed traffic.

"In short," Mackie says, "although they are capable of carrying a greater volume of traffic than a two-lane highway, they still expose the motorist to the same hazards, at a higher rate of speed, as the obsolete two-lane highway they were designed to improve upon or replace."

Mackie believes that the present controlled access highway system in Michigan, along with the 900 miles of proposed similar highways, will save more than 50 lives the first year, and at least 2000 accidents.

The splendid spirit of the season shines in the hearts of men.

Places - People - Things

There is a building boom on in Holliday as of now and a few months past. There are several nice houses under construction now and I don't even know who is doing it or having it done.

I have watched with amazement how Iowa Park and Burk Burnett have grown in the past few years and tried in vain to figure out why anybody would build in either place when they could build in Holliday. One party explained it to me this way that loans could not be obtained here as easily as in the afore-mentioned places.

So trusting that info is correct, those that are now building have put down the "lettuce" to put together these nice homes.

Be that as it may, means little to us who have cast our lot here as to our obligation to these new people who will be living in these new homes. They will no doubt be a wonderful asset to our community and it will be up to each of us to manifest to each of them the spirit of "good neighbors."

The Holiday Civic club gave a program in September for the new people who had moved here, extending to them a special invitation to attend, and the response was gratifying. The idea was to get acquainted with them and to induce them to become members if possible. As a result there were about ten or twelve new members added.

There are other avenues through which we can let new people know we are glad they are moving among us. Visiting is a lost art and is no more, so far as I can learn. I have gone to a few places after supper at times and the entire family looked at me as much as to say "Okay, what ya want?" Television with the shoot-'em-ups has put the visiting out of business.

Clubs, churches and of course the school are the only places where we get together anymore. But all I am trying to say is—let us go out of our way to make newcomers glad they came.

Guests in the Paul Zink home during the holidays have been Mr. and Mrs. Bob McDonald and sons Robin and Chuck of Plainview; Mr. and Mrs. Gene Holderby, Barbara, Paul and Jay Lynn of Duncan, Okla.; Mrs. Edith McCabe of Borger.

Mrs. John Mixon and children Judy and Jerry are visiting John in Lindsay, Okla., this week.
