Farm worker fingers suspect

Information from a farm worker who voluntarily walked into Iowa Park Police headquarters resulted in the Wednesday morning arrest of the man charged with last week's skateboard slaying of a Wichita Falls woman.

Less than two hours after Iowa Park police received the tip on the suspect's whereabouts, Jose Osorio Moreno was apprehended in a barn near Kamay and formally charged with first degree murder in connection with the death of Bernice Perry Moreno of Wichita Falls.

Moreno, the estranged husband of the dead woman's daughter, allegedly beat Mrs. Moreno to death last Friday with a skateboard and another board at the woman's Wichita Falls home.

About 8:45 a.m. Wednesday a Mexican-American farm worker walked into Iowa Park Police headquarters and said one of his co-workers had told him he had spent Tuesday night with Moreno.

The informant indicated several of his farm hands were afraid of the fugitive, who had a revolver in his possession at the time of his capture.

Sgt. Charles Whittingstall said he notified Wichita County Sheriff's Department and the Texas Rangers.

A posse of about a dozen law enforcement officers was quickly organized and converged on a hay barn owned by Johnny Allred located one and a half miles north of Kamay. The barn has two blue grain silos nearby.

Some brandishing shotguns, the posse included six Wichita County deputies, a Texas Ranger, two DPS officers, Iowa Park Police Chief Jim Voyles and Sgt. Whittingstall.

Officers reportedly tried to summon the suspect via public address systems in their vehicles. When that produced no results, Voyles, Whittingstall and Deputy Grady Smith entered the barn.

Hay was stacked up ten to 15 feet high on one side of the barn. Three of the lower bales had been moved, Smith said.

Smith and Voyles had climbed up into the hay and were being backed up by Whittingstall with a shotgun.

Voyles said he heard something move and motioned to where Moreno was thought to be holed up.

"I could see where the bales were out. I hollered and he (Moreno) came out," Smith said.

"He came crawling down. He had his hands behind his head," Voyles said, adding the suspect offered no resistance.

Moreno was ordered to lay face-down on the barn floor, and Voyles handcuffed him.

Officers believed Moreno was sleeping, but the informant said Moreno had stated he would not be taken alive.

Voyles said he asked the prisoner, "Where's the pistol?"

"In the hayloft," the Iowa Park police chief explained.

Officers found a pearl handled .38 caliber revolver, Smith said.

Amidst an army of newsmen, Moreno was brought to Wichita County Courthouse in a sheriff's department unit about 10:30 a.m. Wednesday.

He did not speak and offered no resistance when told to pause with officers while newsmen's cameras clicked and rolled.

Moreno's clothes and shaggy black hair were matted with grime and hay, evidence of his efforts to evade police in the rural area south of here.

The suspect was wearing no shoes, only red socks. His print shirt and jeans were dirty. He also had a sweatband tied around his head.

Handcuffed behind his back, Moreno was escorted before Justice of the Peace Ed DeMontel. With the aid of an interpreter, Moreno was informed of his rights and charged with first degree murder.

Wednesday's arrest ended the manhunt for Moreno which began last Friday.

Although there were reports that

Youth bitten

Another Iowa Park youth has become the victim of a dog bite, according to Iowa Park Police Department.

The youth, Kerry Nault of 1203 W. Wall, was bitten above the ankle by a German Shepherd.

Police also investigated an incident of criminal mischief involving rocks being thrown at motorists near the intersection of Foley and West Highway.

Terry Riley reported youths hit his automobile with rocks.

Police here also received a report that blank checks and medication had been stolen during the burglary of a home at 604 E. Washington.

No indictment in grain case

The federal grand jury investigating the business dealings of missing Iowa Park grain dealer Bobby Johnson dismissed Wednesday morning without returning any new indictments in the case.

The federal panel convened Monday at the Federal Building in Wichita Falls and dismissed at 11 a.m. Wednesday.

Although the grand jury addressed the Johnson case Monday, there were no indictments returned as a result of the continued investigation.

In May the same jury returned an indictment charging Johnson with 13 counts of interstate transportation of stolen grain.

Johnson has been missing since Jan. 3 when he reportedly fell off a fishing boat and drowned in the Gulf of Mexico near Port Aransas.

Personnel possible subjects

The subject of personnel possibly will be on the agendas of both the city council and school board when they meet Monday and Tuesday nights, respectively. Neither agenda will be finalized until Friday.

City Administrator Gene Britton in discussing Monday's possible agenda said he might ask for an executive session to discuss personnel with the council.

That meeting is to begin at 7 p.m. in the Texas Electric Service Co. building, where the council is meeting while its chambers are being remodeled.

Britton said a review of insurance coverage of buildings and personnel will also be on the agenda, especially taking a look at additional coverage on members of the fire department. Discussion will also be held on the city's study of joining in intervention of the Texas Electric rate he ring for rural customers, which was postponed for further study at the last meeting.

Besides reports on cafeteria, transportation and taxes, school trustees will open bids for supplying breads and milk products for the year; budget amendments, personnel resignations and elections along with a study of pupil-teacher ratio in kindergarten through third grades; and a discussion on the pending budget.

Supt. Faris Nowell said there would be considerable information discussed on the new state education bill and how it will affect the local school district.

The board meeting will begin at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday in the administration building.

Teel-Lind wedding held in formal rites Saturday

The beauty of candlelight imparted interesting distinction to the setting for the formal wedding Saturday evening uniting Miss Susan Annette Teel and Randy Carl Lind. Equally impressive was the skillful arrangement of one hundred and twenty votive candles to illuminate the setting and still allow for the bride and groom to be the focal point of attention in the altar space.

At the Faith Baptist Church where the ceremony was solemnized, lighting started at tall tree candelabra in front of the baptistry high above the choir loft. Graduated branched candelabra extended from the tree on either side through the choir loft onto the rostrum to spiral candelabra at its extremities. Providing the only supplement for the candlelight were palm trees placed in front of each grouping of candles.

Another feature of the wedding that contributed to its unusual excellence was the use of lavish silk flowers in bouquets, boutonnières, corsages, decorations for the reception and pew markers. The pews were marked with votive candles in blue vases resting on bases covered with white silk lilies of the valley centered with lace wedding bells tied with blue silk picot ribbon. The trailing ribbons were imprinted with "Susan and Randy" in gold.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L.W. Teel Jr. and the groom's parents are the Rev. and Mrs. Roy L. Lind of Verden, Okla. The groom's father, who is pastor of First Baptist Church at Verden, was officiant for the matching bands ceremony.

Parents of the couple "believing that they were designed by God to share their lives as one in Christ" invited a large group of relatives and friends to witness the exchange of vows at seven thirty o'clock and to the reception afterwards. The words of Christ concerning marriage found in Matthew 19:4-5 were engraved on the front of the invitations.

The organ prelude music was provided by Mrs. Glenn Schell of Vernon who played a medley of appropriate selections, including "His Gentle Look" and "All Good Gifts" by Schutz and "For All We Know" by the Carpenters. For the entrance of the mothers, she played "Song for a New Year".

Mrs. Teel wore a long yellow crepe gown trimmed with matching embroidery at the high waistline and on the border of the jacket. Mrs. Lind was attired in an aqua knit gown topped with a full length lace jacket. Their silk corsages were created of blue dahlias and mint green daisies.

Accompanied by Larry Delay from Oklahoma Baptist University, guitarist, and the organist, Mr. and Mrs. Mike O'Donnell of Abernathy sang "Our Song" composed by the groom, and "Love Is Here to Stay" by Pelz.

Steve Paul, also of OBU, led the congregation in singing "O Perfect Love" and in reading "The Christian Family" responsively.

Mrs. Schell played "Hymn to Joy" by Beethoven for the processional and for the recessional following the benediction, "New 23rd Psalm" sung by Miss Angela Lind, sister of the groom.

Escorted to the altar by her father who presented her in marriage for both parents, the bride was a lovely picture in her formal Empire-style candlelight silk organza gown. Swiss cotton lace and delicate tucked organza provided unusual and dainty trim on the bodice, stand-up collar and cuffs of the full bishop sleeves. Tiny organza buttons trimmed the yoke and closed the wide cuffs. A band of candlelight hugged the bride's slender waistline and formed a cascading bow in the back.

The bride's candlelight illusion veil swept to chapel length from a cluny lace camelot cap dotted with seed pearls. Her bouquet, fashioned of silk flowers, consisted of blue baby's breath and cosmos, soft lime asters and daisies centered with a fresh blue orchid which was lifted out later for her to wear with her going away ensemble.

Completing her bridal costume, she kept tradition by wearing a wrist watch given to her by the groom for "something new"; an ivory Bible given to her mother by her brother, Dr. Bill McClarty for "something old". She carried a handkerchief that was carried by her mother at her wedding belonging to Mrs. F.T. Felty of Burkburnett for "something borrowed" and the touch of blue was the orchid that centered her corsage.

Two college friends of the bride, Miss Nancy Farrand of Hobart, Okla. and Miss Pam Pierce of Maud, Okla., shared the spotlight as "maids of honor". They carried baskets of silk daisies, snapdragons, peach blossoms, baby's breath in pastel hues accented with long blue silk streamers. They wore clusters of baby's breath touched with seed pearls in their hair and white lace gloves.

The honor attendants wore dainty blue voile and dotted swiss gowns adorned with cluny lace. The dotted swiss bordered with the lace was used effectively in the yokes, ruffled cuffs of the long sleeves, at the slightly raised waistlines and in hemline flounces.

The groom chose a candlelight tuxedo to match the color of the bride's gown. The masculine participants in the wedding were attired in royal blue tuxedos and white shirts. The groom's boutonniere was a silk flower like one in the bride's bouquet.

Like the bride, the groom chose two of his close friends, Phil Mastores of Oklahoma City and Larry Love of Ponca City, Okla. to share the title of "best men". Duties of ushering were assumed by George Teel, brother of the bride, and Alan Nunn of Wichita Falls, cousin of the bride.

Miss Kim Gillette of Amarillo, cousin of the bride, directed signatures of wedding guests as they entered the church foyer. The bride's book and feather pen table, laid with blue lace over blue linen, was appointed with a white pillar candle encircled with blue silk cosmos and white baby's breath. The names of the bride and groom were impressed on the blue picot ribbons that fell from a white wedding bell in the center of the floral circlet.

Following the wedding, guests walked a path outlined with hurricane candles to the Fellowship Hall of the church for the reception given by the bride's parents.

The wedding cake table was draped with flocked candlelight organza over blue linen. The beautiful appointments featured a centerpiece of luxuriant silk flowers composed of white shasta daisies, and tea roses, pink geraniums, ice blue baby's breath, white apple blossoms, large soft green majestic daisy mums arranged in a crystal epergne with dangling prisms. Flanking the centerpiece were blue cathedral candles burning on gold leaf candelabra with crystal pendants.

The blue bell wedding cake resting on a crystal plate featured a square tier and two round tiers, each being raised with crystal pillars. Decorated with massive framed borders, each tier was draped with royal blue icing bells from eight points. The complimentary top ornament was created with crystal hand-blown glass to form a heart centered with two wedding bells. In the front two tiny swans were nestled close together as if they were enjoying the happiness of the occasion.

Two round tables on either side of the wedding cake table were laid with ruffled mint green linen, one held the punch fountain and crystal cups and the other the silver coffee urn and crystal cups.

Reception assistants wore corsages of pastel pink, blue and yellow silk apple blossoms. The group included Mmes. Clark Lemond, Michael Ehlert and Randy Stewart of Wichita Falls, Larry Gillette of Amarillo, Freddie Patrick of Burkburnett, Johnny Spruiell, Jerry Williams, Miss Susan Brown and Miss Karen Guthrie of Iowa Park.

The new Mrs. Lind was graduated from Iowa Park High School. She attended Oklahoma Baptist University at Shawnee and Midwestern State University. A graduate of Anadarko, Okla. High School, the groom received a music and education degree from OBU in May. He is the music and youth director at First Baptist Church in Lamar, Mo. where the couple will live.

The groom's parents were hosts for dinner Friday evening at McBride's Restaurant in Wichita Falls in connection with the wedding rehearsal. Gold and brown were noted in the table decorations.

The section where the betrothed couple sat was centered with amber votive candles banked with daisies and roses, and the side tables were decorated with miniature wedding parties. Napkins with the names of the betrothed couple were held in simulated gold wedding bands.

During the evening, the couple exchanged gifts and presented gifts to their attendants and parents. China plates were given to the bride's attendants and parents for them to be served a slice of the wedding cake the next night.

Mr. and Mrs. George McClarty and Mrs. Norma Teel of Burkburnett, the bride's grandparents, were among special wedding guests.

House-McLemore nuptials exchanged

As the organ sounded the familiar strains of Wagner's processional, Miss Ann Janette House entered the sanctuary of First United Methodist Church Friday evening and walked the bridal aisle lined with hurricane candles on the arm of her father for recitation of marriage vows with James Oliver McLemore.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne House and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J.W. McLemore.

The decorative setting for the wedding featured antique white fifteen-branched candelabra complemented with emerald greenery, white satin bows and luminous white cathedral candles for the central appointment. The kneeling bench was a meaningful part of the setting which was completed with two artistic arrangements of white snapdragons, mums, emerald and lemon leaf.

Family pews were marked with yellow, green and white daisies combined with the chosen greenery.

Mrs. B.G. House of Sulphur, Okla., aunt of the bride, presented a concert of pre-nuptial music. Her selections included "For All We Know", "With This Ring", "Our Wedding Prayer", "Tenderly", "To Each His Own", "Theme from Romeo and Juliet", "Liebestraum" and "O Perfect Love."

The organist accompanied Miss Robin Collins, soloist, who sang "If" and "The Lord's Prayer", and concluded her offerings with Mendessohn's recessional.

Rev. Jim Connatser, pastor, officiated for the double-ring ceremony. When he asked "Who giveth this woman in marriage?" the bride's father replied "Her mother and I."

The bride's formal wedding gown was created of white organza and Venice lace over peau de soie. The distinguishing marks of the slightly raised bodice were a sheer yoke accented with Venise lace appliques encrusted with pearls and sheer bishop sleeves strewn with lace appliques and cuffed with Venice lace.

Appliques of the lace were scattered over the full skirt which was enhanced with a lace-bordered attached chapel train. The bride's chapel veil of illusion adorned with matching lace floated from a camelot cap of lace and pearls.

The bouquet carried by the bride consisting of white sweetheart roses, daisies and baby's breath was arranged according to cloud style. Observing tradition, she wore her mother's diamond bracelet for "something borrowed", and further complemented her costume by wearing as "something old" an opal pendant that belonged to Miss Deanna Kingcade, a close friend. With "something blue and new", the young lady further observed bridal tradition.

Miss Gail Greenwood of Wichita Falls participated in the wedding as maid of honor. She wore a stylish formal pastel green organza gown over peau de soie designed with a raised waistline, three rows of daisy trim around the yoke, butterfly sleeves, picturesque tiered skirt and a Dior bow at the back waistline. She wore daisies and baby's breath in her hair and carried a lace lovely bouquet of yellow, green and white daisies and baby's breath.

Bridesmaids were Miss Shanley Griffith, Miss Janice Harris and Miss Betsy House, sister of the bride. They were attired in yellow organza gowns corresponding exactly to the style of Miss Greenwood's gown, and the ornamentation for their hair and bouquets were the same as hers.

The colors of the bridal attendants' gowns were reflected in the shirts the masculine members of the wedding party wore with their chocolate brown tuxedos. The groom wore a white ruffled shirt and a white

J.W. McLemore was his son's best man. Groomsmen were Eddie White, Kevin Wright and Rusty McLemore, brother of the groom.

Stacy and Ronald Parrott, cousins of the groom, lighted the candles to illuminate the bridal path and altar area and served with Wendell House, brother of the bride, as ushers.

Green cymbidium orchids were worn with the long dresses chosen by mothers of the couple for the wedding. Mrs. House wore an apricot chiffon gown with a matching capelet trimmed with embroidered lace, and Mrs. McLemore wore a light blue knit dress topped with a white lace jacket.

The bride's parents were hosts for the postnuptial reception held in the Fellowship Hall of the church. They were assisted by Miss Elizabeth Ward and Miss Cynthia House, cousins of the bride, who registered guests, Miss Neta Mashburn, Miss Tamara Parrott, Mmes. Wendell House, Tom Hester, Ronnie Cheek, J.E. Goodson, Randy Delcoure and John Hail.

Rice bags were handed out by Shannon Hail of St. Jo and Chriss Cheek of Grandfield, Okla.

The registry table was laid with white satin featuring a lace overlay. In addition to the bride's book and plume pen, the table held the couple's wedding invitation framed in gold and a bouquet of yellow, green and white daisies and baby's breath.

The special beauty of the bride's table draped with white lace over yellow satin was stressed in the five-tiered white cake with three sets of dividers effecting its towering height. Pastel yellow confection roses cascaded down each tier and two white doves flying before a bearded heart was the attractive ornament for the top tier. A pyramid arrangement of daisies in the colors of the bridal attendants' gowns and bouquets centered the table. Harmonizing with the table decorations were the punch service of superior brilliancy and the napkins inscribed with "Ann and James July 29, 1977".

Covered with a candlelight tailored cloth, the groom's table held the interlocking rings chocolate cake decorated with clusters of yellow grapes and the silver coffee service.

The couple went to Dallas on their honeymoon, the bride traveling in a smart black knit dress trimmed with black and white plaid bias bands on the skirt and bodice which also had buttons and loops for front trim. She wore black and white accessories and a corsage of yellow, green and white daisies.

Both were graduated from Iowa Park High School. She worked as a child care aide at Kidwell Elementary Kindergarten and he is employed at Cryovac.

The groom's parents hosted the rehearsal dinner at Underwood's Thursday evening.

Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Bill Vincent and Mr. and Mrs. L.W. Cady of Burkburnett; Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Parrott of Haskell; Mrs. Na Cook of Throckmorton; Mr. and Mrs.

Coffee being sought for hospital patients

The coffee cupboard for patients at Wichita Falls State Hospital is nearly bare.

The State provides one cup of coffee per day for each of the 650 patients. The Volunteer Services Council is appealing to citizens of the hospital's 23-county catchment area to provide extra coffee.

For many years the Volunteer Services Council kept a coffee cupboard. Now as the price of coffee has gone up, donations to the coffee fund have gone down drastically.

Coffee is used as a part of the therapy for patients as a reward for good behavior, as a break-time drink, to ease tense moments and for socialization.

The Volunteer Services Council is able to purchase coffee for the patients at a discount. For that reason the Council asks that donations, earmarked coffee fund, be made out to the Volunteer Services Council, Wichita Falls State Hospital, P.O. Box 300, Wichita Falls, Texas 76307.

Since the drive for increased donations began in July, checks and commitments have been made for regular donations by individuals, service clubs, Sunday school classes, veterans groups, and employee organizations.

Vacations over, workouts Monday

Vacation season is over for candidates for Iowa Park High School football teams, because two-a-day workouts start early Monday morning. Coach Pat Tone said he expects 120 or more boys to report at 7 a.m. Monday. This includes some 70 from the upper three grades, and 50 freshmen, who also will get in three weeks of two-a-days. Players will go through four days of non-contact conditioning before being allowed to put on their pads for contact Aug. 12, Tone pointed out. Candidates received their shoes and socks yesterday, so they could start conditioning on their own. Players are required to purchase their student insurance before being allowed to practice, it was stated. The policy costs the student $9, and is required by school board policy. The school also pays $35 per player for additional insurance.

First scrimmage will be Aug. 19 at Grapevine. The host team is a defending district champion, losing to Gainesville in the playoffs.

Bowie will be the second scrimmage opponent. The Hawks will travel there Aug. 26, Tone said.

JUNIOR HIGH

Seventh and Eighth Grade footballers will not start their workouts until the first day of school, according to state policy.

Tone said the teams were scheduled to play their first game Sept. 1, four days after the first workout. He didn't know if that game would be postponed or played as scheduled.

Tickets on sale to option holders

Big savings for reserved seats

Season ticket holders for Hawk home football games are going to get a real bargain for their money this year, according to Bob Dawson, high school principal.

Tickets are now on sale at the high school for option seat holders, Dawson said, but season tickets will not be sold to the general public until the season nears.

Option holders are those who contributed to the construction of Hawk Stadium, and have maintained their options each year since by purchasing season tickets. They are offered the opportunity to renew their options first each year.

Dawson said he would announce at a later date when the season tickets would be put on sale for the general public.

Season ticket purchasers this year will be able to save 50 cents per game. Price for the six home games, including reserved seats, is $12, or $2 per game.

General admission tickets will be $2.50 per game, Dawson pointed out.

Tennis clinic set Aug. 15-19

A five-day tennis clinic will be held at the Iowa Park High tennis courts this month under direction of Jon Brotherton and an assistant from Weeks Tennis Center.

Classes will be offered for adults, beginners and advanced, between 8 and 9 a.m., and youngsters between 9 and 10 a.m. Aug. 15-19.

Both classes will be limited to 16 participants. Reservations can be by telephoning 592-5726.

Coaches hired

Three new coaches were hired during the past week, all subject to board action next week.

They include boys basketball coach Keith Barrick, girls' basketball coach Mike Fountain, and Richard Crawford to replace Marvin Brixey in junior varsity assignments.

IPTA meeting is cancelled

The regular monthly meeting of the Iowa Park Tennis Association has been cancelled.

It was scheduled to be held Monday. The next regular meeting of the organization will be Sept. 12.

Tax bill confusing

The tax portion of the newly-passed public education bill was briefly explained Tuesday at the Noon Lions Club meeting by Bill Steger, tax assessor/collector for the Iowa Park school district.

He said the new bill is actually "complicated even more" than the previous bill and noted "simplicity is a thing of the past."

One point of the bill conflicts, according to Steger. It provides for the tax roll to be fixed in May or June, but school boards do not set their rate until sometime in August. "I don't know how school boards will do it," he said.

Boards traditionally wait until the latter part of the summer to set their budgets, and rates, because it is not until then they know how many students and teachers they will have in the fall, and prices for supplies which will be needed as well.

Cook plays

Ray Cook will be playing tomorrow evening in the 28th annual Greenbelt Bowl All-Star Football Classic in Childress.

His nominee for queen of the event is Robin Doan. The game's kickoff will be at 8 p.m.

"Even though I live in an apartment, I'm extra conscious about how I use electricity."

"I'm a customer operations representative for Texas Electric, and I know people are getting higher electric bills.

Of course, I know why, too. Higher construction costs. Higher fuel costs. Everything's more expensive now.

Even though I live in an apartment where the bills are included in the rent, I try to save electricity.

If I'm not going to be home during the day I cut the air conditioning or heat off or at least turn it so it won't come on as often.

I know if I don't conserve electricity and if the guy next door doesn't — then everybody ends up paying for it. The rent goes up. It has to.

Because electricity is costing more, you just need to be extra conscious of how you use it.

If you'd like a free copy of a new booklet full of energy-saving ideas for apartment dwellers, give Texas Electric a call. Or request one on the comment portion of your electric bill!"

Electricity. You count on it today. We're working to keep it that way.

Freddy DeLaPaz, Texas Electric Customer Operations Representative.

Mrs. Cravens heading Breath of Life drive

Mrs. Marie Cravens has been appointed the 1977 Breath of Life Campaign Chairman in Kamay for the North-East Texas Chapter of the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation. The chairmanship was announced by Houston E. Holmes, Jr., president of the chapter.

Mrs. Cravens was the 1975 chairman for the CF drive.

In accepting the chairmanship, Mrs. Cravens expressed her hopes for a successful fund raising drive this fall.

Holmes pointed out that, "through volunteer efforts and increased community support, we may one day realize a future in which children no longer suffer from lung-damaging diseases, the most serious of which is cystic fibrosis."

Little more than a decade ago the CF Foundation was working to keep children with cystic fibrosis alive long enough to start school. Now, the foundation is trying to help some of these same patients, who have grown to young adulthood, enter college or find jobs.

"Longevity has increased year by year," Holmes said, "and we have every hope that scientists will find a control or cure for cystic fibrosis. A major purpose of the CF Foundation is to conquer this tragic inherited disease which occurs once in every 1,600 live births in the United States."

Through volunteer efforts in Chapters across the country, the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation's Breath of Life Campaign helps support:

- * research for a control or cure of cystic fibrosis, a leading genetic killer of children.
- * a network of over 100 Cystic Fibrosis Centers specializing in diagnostic and treatment services for children with CF and other lung-damaging diseases, including asthma, bronchiectasis, childhood emphysema and chronic bronchiectasis, childhood emphysema and chronic bronchitis.

* public health education programs to alert parents to the symptoms of lung-damaging disease in their children, and to seek the treatments which can improve their children's lives. Lung-damaging diseases still kill more children in this country than any other disease except cancer, and these children need the support of the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation.

As I See It... by BOB HAMILTON

Oh! For heaven's sake! I got a response from someone claiming to be a homosexual.

Our policy is to print in full any letter to the editor, but we require them to be signed. This one was signed only as "a local businessman", and yes, the latter was misspelled.

There are, to be sure, two sides to every argument, and the writer certainly showed the other side to my recent column comments.

I appreciated the comment "It is easy to figure out that you hate gay people." But that's incorrect. I do not hate them. I only hate what they do and what they stand for.

My statements about homos were termed "rude and in bad taste" and none of the statements were true, according to the writer. Maybe so, but the only comments I've had to my face were those in agreement.

"You stated in the article that gay people have no place in society. You are very wrong in saying that. Most of my gay friends and myself are in a professional field of some sort," states the writer. I stand on my statement. Anyone attempting to go against society has no place in it. This has been society's means of controlling itself in history.

"I can't see how the gay society could hurt the rest of the nation. We do not push our views on anybody. The straight society thinks as though we are communist, pushing to convert people to our way of life. This is not true." I'd have to say the "gay society" is pushing extremely hard, if not trying to convert, then trying to be accepted.

That pushing includes court battles to allow he-he and she-she marriages, adoption of children and other privileges of normal lawful relationships.

And it seems I hurt the writer's feelings by calling such people queers. "We prefer to be looked at as human beings." Well, it's a queer way of life, the term was queer long before I heard the term homosexual, and I just guess it would be even more queer to try to change.

At the end of the letter was a threat. And it's one I'll be happy to accept any time.

"If all this keeps up the gay community will stand up and fight back. Just a few years ago the Negroes fought for acceptance and freedom and we will do the same if forced to."

Whatever you say, "local businessman". But be ready for a good one when you start. Most of us so-called "straights" don't go much for slapping.

Suspect

he might have fled to Mexico, the search focused Tuesday near Camp Stonewall Jackson south of Holliday.

A DPS helicopter joined in Tuesday's search, but authorities failed to turn up any clues to support the theory that Moreno might be hiding near the reunion grounds.

Water department records of the City of Holliday showed a home near the intersection of College and Seymour Highway had been occupied about a year under Moreno's name.

Several Holliday residents reportedly saw Moreno in Holliday during the weekend after the beating death.

Hightower comments

Congressman Jack Hightower announced the increase in the target price for wheat passed by the Congress last week will mean additional payments to wheat farmers of approximately $606,401.82 in Wichita County. This figure is an estimate based on the county allotment and the historical yield.

The House passed the 1977 Agricultural Act Thursday with the 1977 target price for wheat set at $2.90 per bushel.

Joins SCS staff here

Electra native Michael A. Isbell has joined the staff of the Iowa Park office of the U.S.D.A. Soil Conservation Service.

The district conservationist came to Iowa Park from Matador where he had been with the service three years.

A 1962 graduate of Electra High School, Isbell received a degree in agriculture education from Texas Tech University.

In addition to nine years with the soil conservation service, Isbell taught a semester of agriculture at Mozelle.

Isbell and his wife, Jimmie Lee, have a daughter, Robbin Elaine, 9, and a son, James Michael, 6.

Isbell's work with the federal agency primarily involves construction and installation of conservation measures such as waterways, irrigation systems and terraces.

Eagles to open practice Monday

Football fans will have an opportunity to take in a sneak preview of this year's Eagles when two-a-day workouts begin Monday.

Head coach Don Lucy, busy with his staff this week making last minute preparations, said his men will be hitting the gridiron twice a day beginning Monday at 8 a.m. and 5 p.m.

Coming back from last year's heartbreaking 9-1 season, the Eagles returned as the perennial choice of Texas Football editors to dominate District 13-A this year.

The Eagles will go up against at least seven opponents before district competition begins.

Lucy said a scrimmage is scheduled Aug. 19 at Knox City, and Olney's Cubs will scrimmage the Eagles here on Aug. 26.

Regular season play begins Sept. 2 when the Eagles are scheduled to travel to Nocona.

On Sept. 9, 16 and 23 the Eagles will host Electra, Quanah and Seymour, respectively.

The Big Red Machine will travel to Henrietta on Sept. 30.

District play opens Oct. 14 with Petrolia coming to Holliday.

Then it's on to Lindsay on Oct. 21, and back home for Muenster on Oct. 28.

The Eagles will venture to Archer City on Nov. 4 and end regular season play with Callisburg here on Nov. 11.

Homecoming is scheduled for the Seymour game on Sept. 23.

MRS. STEVEN LOUIS WILSON

Stone-Wilson vows recited Saturday in Baptist Church

Miss Vickie Lynn Stone and Steven Louis Wilson were united in marriage during a double ring ceremony Saturday evening at the First Baptist Church in Holliday. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B.W. Stone, and the groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Wilson, all of Holliday.

Rev. Loyd Riddles, pastor, read the vows.

Votive cup candles and bows on the pews lighted the aisle, and a half arch votive candelabra formed an arch in the choir loft. Flanking the archway were two seven-branch candelabras.

A prayer bench was decorated with yellow roses and carnations in addition to two large baskets of yellow and white mixed flowers on wicker stands.

A program of pre-nuptial music was performed by Angi Anderson, who played guitar and sang, "There Is Love," "My Sweet Lady," and "Annie's Song." During the ceremonies she performed "Savior Like a Shepherd Lead Us."

Doris Anderson sang "The Lord's Prayer" while the couple knelt at the prayer bench, and Beth Parker played the traditional bridal march on the piano.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, who she kissed at the altar after she had paused to kiss her mother and give her a long stemmed yellow rose.

The bride carried a teardrop bouquet of yellow and white silk sweetheart roses, morning glories, stephanotis, baby's breath on a white Bible with yellow ribbon streamers. The bouquet included a symbidium orchid which she wore on her going away costume.

The bride wore a formal gown of poly-organza trimmed in rashed lace. The gown had a scalloped square neck, long tapered sleeves with lace appliques, seed pearls and ruffles at the wrist. The skirt was trimmed in lace appliques and had a ruffle at the hemline that extended into a chapel train.

She wore a fingertip illusion veil attached to a Juliet cap of lace and seed pearls and a wide row of rashed lace.

The bride's traditional "something new" was a pearl necklace given to her by her parents. Opal earrings were "borrowed" from Chris Wilson, a bridesmaid, and something blue was her blue lace garter. "Something old" was a white handkerchief of her mother's.

After the couple exchanged rings, they paused to light a unity candle. The bride presented the groom's mother a yellow long stem rose and a kiss as the couple left.

Paula Ruth served in the wedding as maid of honor. She was attired in a poyester crepe gown with a cape of yellow miramist and flocked yellow and white daisies. She wore a yellow picture hat with matching band of sweetheart roses, stephanotis, baby's breath. It was accented with lace and yellow and white streamers.

Bridesmaids were dressed identical to the maid of honor.

Candlelighters were Kelly Cheatum, cousin of the bride, and Terri Wilson, sister of the groom.

Tishia and Rene Stone, nieces of the bride, were flower girls. They wore gowns similar to the maid of honor with yellow and white ribbons in their hair.

Dressed in a yellow tuxedo with white shirt, Chris Esquibel of Wichita Falls, the groom's cousin, was ring bearer.

The groom was attended by Gilbert Arredondo of Wichita Falls, the groom's uncle, as best man. He wore a yellow tuxedo and white shirt with ruffled front and cuffs.

Duties of ushering were assigned to Joey Wilson, brother of the groom, Bimbo Stone, brother of the bride, Trent Walker and Kevin Eason of Wichita Falls. The groom was attired in a solid white tuxedo. His white shirt with ruffled front and cuffs was accented by a yellow silk rose boutonniere.

Mother of the bride wore a candlelight knit dress with a lace bodice and lacy long sleeves. Groom's mother wore an apricot knit gown caught up at the bodice with a rhinestone pin.

The bride and groom were both graduated from Holliday High School. She was junior beauty nominee, band sweetheart nominee and FHA queen and president. The bride also qualified for regional in tennis three years and was head majorette three years.

The groom was FHA king and played football and participated in track.

A reception followed in the church recreation building.

Bamboo screens backed with yellow provided background for the bride's table while black wrought iron screen with yellow served as background for the groom's table. A garden scene was created in the church yard including lawn furniture, hanging baskets surrounded by a circle of hurricane lamps. A white wrought iron flower cart was the center of attraction decorated with yellow and white bows and greenery. It served as the gift table.

The bride's table was covered with yellow knit with a white net overlay and skirt with a swag drape around the top caught up with yellow and white bows.

A four candle silver appointment held an arrangement of yellow roses, carnations and baby's breath. Yellow roses, daisies and morning glories were noticeable in the decorative scheme of the four tiered cake with two sets of Grecian lattice pillars. Featured in the top ornament was the bride and groom under an arbor of tulle and yellow rosebuds.

The groom's table was laid with a candlelight lace cloth with yellow candle and greenery in silver appointments. The interlocking ring shaped chocolate cake top ped with yellow roses and white daisies had the bride and groom's names and date to complete the decor.

Milea Wilkerson and Kristy Henderson served the bride's cake and Susie Buller was at the punch bowl.

Diane Carlington served the groom's cake, and the punch bowl was attended by Charlene Cavenor.

Donna Ruth secured signatures for the bride's book at a table decorated with yellow over net overlay. A beautiful candle with a wedding invitation on white ring and stand and feather pen completed the scene.

Rice bags were distributed by cousins of the bride, Holly Henderson of Pasadena and Teresa Oliver of Graham, who mingled through the crowd carrying long stem roses in wicker baskets with yellow ribbons.

The groom's parents hosted a rehearsal dinner at the Bonanza Steak House in Wichita Falls. Each attendant was presented a gift. A large dried flower arrangement in brown hues was the centerpiece. Yellow carnations in white milk glass vases decorated the dinner tables. Angi Anderson entertained by singing and playing guitar.

Out of town guests for the wedding included Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Henderson, Holly, Christy and Amy of Pasadena, Mr. and Mrs. Doil Dalton of Grapevine, Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Cheatum of Arlington, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Smith of Snyder, Mr. and Mrs. Bud Enis of Decatur, Mrs. Gertie Haire of Graham, Mrs. Marie Henderson of Gainesville, Miss Debbie Stone of Dallas and Mr. and Mrs. Andy Cortez of Austin.

The new Mrs. Wilson wore a white linen jumpsuit with red and white polka dot trim and tie belt when the couple departed on their wedding trip to Dallas and Six Flags. They will make their home in Wichita Falls where he is employed by Piping and Engineering and she is employed at Henry D. Mason and Co.

Trustees approve parking lot paving

Parking lot paving was the key issue addressed by Holliday school trustees who met in a called session last Wednesday night.

Trustees voted to have Archer County haul in sandstone and bring the parking facilities up to grade.

The school board decided to advertise for bids to complete the paving project.

Board members also voted to pay for the gasoline used by the county used in hauling the sandstone.

Trustees voted to ask Wichita Valley Water Supply Corp. to render its property for tax purposes, and decided to make an effort to secure a list of automobiles from the county for tax purposes.

Great News FOR THE World

Last week we showed that the Bible supports one glorious theme: which Jesus and his disciples referred to as the "GOSPEL". This gospel speaks of a time when "The glory of the Lord shall cover the earth as the waters cover the sea". A time spoken of by Daniel the prophet in chapter 2 verse 44 "And in the days of these kings [of the last days] shall the God of Heaven set up a Kingdom, WHICH SHALL NEVER BE DESTROYED; and the Kingdom shall not be left to other people, but it shall break in pieces and consume all these Kingdoms [of the "last days" kings] and it shall stand for ever." In Daniel chapter 7 verse 27, "And the Kingdom and dominion, and the greatness of the kingdom UNDER THE WHOLE HEAVEN, shall be given to the people of the saints of the most high, whose kingdom is an everlasting Kingdom, and all dominions shall serve and obey him."

Isaiah speaks of this time in chapter 2 verses 2-4, "And it shall come to pass in the last days, that the mountain of the Lord's house shall be established in the top of the mountains, and shall be exalted above the hills; and all nations shall flow unto it. And many people shall go and say, 'Come ye, let us go up... to the house of the God of Jacob; and he will teach us of his ways, and we will walk in his paths: for out of ZION shall go forth the Law, and the word of the LORD from Jerusalem. And he shall judge among the nations, and rebuke many people; and they shall beat their swords into plowshares, and their spears into pruninghooks: NATION SHALL NOT LIFT UP SWORD AGAINST NATION, NEITHER SHALL THEY LEARN WAR ANY MORE."

Cook of the Week

With temperatures reaching the century mark and above most every day, what could sound better to eat than homemade ice cream? Mrs. Steve Bracken will undoubtedly score a hit with many Leader readers with her Chocolate Ice Cream recipe.

Americans love for ice cream goes back to our earliest days of independence. George Washington kept very personal, hand-written records. Listed in the Washington household inventories are such items as "Cream Making for Making Ice Cream" and "Two Pewter Ice Cream Pots." Credit for ice cream should, by right, go to the Romans who sent swift runners into the mountains for snow which they served with syrups and fruits. However, it is usually considered an American dessert, and it has been brought close to perfection in this country.

Janice Bracken, wife of the new minister of the Church of Christ, attended high school at Morton, Texas. Since she married, she has lived at Lubbock, Fluvanna, Cortez, Colo., Floyada and Seagoville. At the latter place she worked at the Christian Care Center and found it very rewarding. She is very fond of tennis and enjoys participating in summer camps. She and her husband both sing country music for pleasure and he plays the guitar.

The couple's children are Kim (Mrs. Tommy) Garrett of Seagoville, Rhonda (Mrs. David) Edmonds of Mesquite, Stephen 10 and Dan 8, both of the home. They have a six month-old granddaughter. Mrs. Bracken said that her Pecan Rolls were a must at Christmas and for special occasions.

Thank You

Remember when - Charity was a virtue and not a deduction? - "Graffiti"

The above quote seemed to be the feelings of everyone that turned out in 106° temperatures Sat. July 30th at Horseshoe Lake, for the 2nd Annual Cripple Children's Trail Ride and Barbecue. Everyone with the "spirit" to give jumped in and gave a hand. Mr. Charlie Jones, who represented Nocona Boot Co. by donating 2 pairs of boots that were given away that day.

Joe Howard of Desota, Tex. brought his covered wagon, pulled by four miniature mules and gave free rides throughout the day.

Jimmy Via and his band the Country Pride furnished music that set the barbecue, beans, and potato salad, cooked by Manny Quezada, off. Mr. Earl Sergrant of K.W.F.T. Radio and wife came by for lunch. Mr. Sergrant contributed by telling listeners weeks prior to Sat. Also Jim Hill of K.L.U.R. Radio excelled his advertising on the air by doubling as MC & auctioneer for the affair. Several ladies made pastries that were auctioned off.

To each one that came or sent contributions we, Monroe and Polly Britton, Leo Dunlap, Sherrie Humphries, Dick and Leota Goode, would like to say "Thank You". We never could have done it without you. We hope to see you next year for the 3rd Annual Cripple Children's Trail Ride.
