Council approves electric rate increase

The Iowa Park city council Monday night approved a rate increase for Texas Electric Service Company, and set a public hearing for annexation of several parcels of land.

Due to the absence of City Administrator Gene Britton, and additional information in his possession, aldermen took no action on an ordinance establishing a truck route in the city. Britton was reportedly ill at home.

Acting on the recommendation of a professional consulting firm, the council approved an 8.33 percent rate increase for TESCO, about a third of the 23.6 percent requested by the utility company.

TESCO made the request to increase its income $79.1 million, to finance its conversion from natural gas fueled generation plants to coal and nuclear fuels. The request was made for the increase in June.

The Public Utility Commission (PUC) staff has recommended an increase of 15 percent, generating an additional $44 million.

Wichita Falls and Burkburnett councils have approved the same rate of increase as Iowa Park, while other cities in the TESCO area of service have gone along with the 15 percent increase, except Fort Worth, which voted no increase at all.

Local TESCO manager Wayne House said the 8.33 increase would have to be appealed to the PUC, because it "simply was not enough."

House expressed concern that different cities were setting different rates, explaining that all communities in the past have been paying the same rates. He said if one city is paying less than others, then those paying higher rates were in effect subsidizing the lower rates.

The 8.33 percent increase would generate $27.9 million for the utility company, when applied to all customers, according to figures presented at the meeting.

According to the ordinance setting the new rate, TESCO has 10 days in which to furnish a rate and tariff schedule for council action. The council then has 20 days in which to approve or disapprove the rates.

Because there are numerous different rates charged, such as residential, commercial, industrial, city, etc, the average increase for all rates charged here is to produce an 8.33 percent increase overall.

The council approved the rate increase with a 4-0 vote, with Alderman Bud Adams abstaining.

ANNEXATIONS

A public hearing on annexation of five tracts of land will be held at the next council meeting, Nov. 14.

Included in the annexations, all of which have been petitioned by property owners, is a 21-acre housing development in the northeast corner of Johnson and Magnolia intersection, known as Colonial Heights.

Petitioning for annexation is owner Bill Swan. The land was to have been annexed under another ownership last year, but never came about when changes in the plat were required by the Planning and Zoning Commission.

Between that tract and Park Plaza is another area which has been donated by developer Tom Foley, to the city for use as a park. The tract does not front Johnson Road.

Other tracts to be annexed are the city's waste water treatment plant, Little League baseball park and Top of Texas football field, both on Magnolia.

Land to be annexed totals almost 30 acres.

Acting on the recommendation of Britton, the council approved permitting a city employee to join the Volunteer Fire Department, but on a temporary basis to allow observation of the practice.

Alderman C.A. Hicks, only councilman voting in opposition to the proposal, expressed concern that the employee, Mark Wicks, might leave a job where he was needed and take a city vehicle needed by fellow workers, to answer a fire call.

The council also approved permitting Britton to enter into negotiations for designating a Wichita Falls lawyer as city prosecutor.

Hicks also voted against this proposal, but it carried 4-1. The alderman expressed concern about cost, and that is one of the points on which Britton is to make his decision.

City Attorney Mike Hubbard, responding to questions from the council, pointed out that it was possible for the municipal judge to throw out any case of the city's, because the government was not represented in court.

Both local attorneys, Hubbard and O.N. Newman, have declined representing the city as a prosecutor in municipal court.

The truck route issue is to be put on the agenda for the next meeting.

Mayor Johnny Crawford expressed his appreciation to the quick response of the Texas Highway Department on erecting stop signs at three locations on the old highway, as well as responding to a request to shape the shoulders along the route.

RAINFALL SATURDAY was welcomed by more than farmers. Employees at 3-M Restaurant set their plants out on the sidewalk for some beneficial watering, gratis Mother Nature.

United Way fund 86% complete

Iowa Park United Way volunteers are wrapping-up their campaign as the annual drive goes into its final week.

At the last report meeting held Tuesday in Wichita Falls, contributions totaled $956,630 or 86 percent of the $1,112,805 goal sought for Iowa Park, Burkburnett and Wichita Falls. The money is used to fund 32 community service agencies in those three cities.

Iowa Park Chairman Charlie Lee said, "This last week will be a real push to get the local drive completed for the final tally at the Victory luncheon."

Most of the divisions are nearly complete with some reporting increases, according to Lee. "The public service area shows the Iowa Park Schools with a substantial increase," Lee said. "Our metro division is over two-thirds complete, and advance gifts is almost finished."

The Major firms area, under the chairmanship of Wayne House, is "faring very well compared to last year," according to Lee, and "some increases may show up there."

Lee cited the impact of United Way funding to individuals who receive the services of an agency. "When the campaign started, our senior citizens who regularly attend the Friendly Door, a United Way funded agency, asked for pledge cards to make personal donations. They said they know what the United Way could do and wanted to be sure they did their part to assure the continuance of the Friendly Door for their use."

The Victory luncheon for the final round-up of the campaign is scheduled Tuesday at 12 noon in the 1st Methodist Church in Wichita Falls with all volunteer workers and

Volunteers explain program

Neither time nor place offers any obstacle to members of the United Way Loaned Executive Team.

Recently Andy Lenox, whose official job is manager of network administration for Southwestern Bell Telephone in Wichita Falls, conducted special sessions at Bill Gilmore Welding, all in an effort to explain the United Way, what it does and where contributions go.

But Lenox will tell you that loaned executives will go anywhere at anytime to get the United Way message across.

"We believe in this one organization as the best way to assure the continuance of community services all our citizens now enjoy," Lenox said.

"I try to tell the people with whom I talk that this is one drive for all 32 service agencies and that if it weren't for the United Way, we would have 32 separate drives, or we would have to eliminate some services or, as a third option, we would have to depend on federal funding and regulation.

Members of the nine-man loaned executive group, so termed because they were lent to the United Way for the duration of the campaign by their businesses, have held group discussions, shown films, and answered questions in such diverse places as a train caboose, large company warehouses seating over 500 employees, and small confined offices on a one-to-one basis since the opening of the United Way campaign on September.

"There's only a short time left in the campaign, but we're still ready to go," Lenox said, adding, "We really appreciate citizens', such as Bill Gilmore, allowing us a few minutes to explain why we feel the United Way is worthwhile. We just feel that when our citizens are so willing to contribute their hard-earned wages, they deserve to know where it's going and how it's handled."

Any business that would like a United Way presentation is asked to call the office in Wichita Falls.

"Just ask for a loaned executive, and we'll be there," Lenox said.

ABOUT FRIDAY'S FOOTBALL GAME

Some good news and some bad news

There's some good news and some bad news about tomorrow's game between Iowa Park and Mineral Wells, slated for 8 p.m. in Hawk Stadium.

The good news is that sophomore tailback Troy Thompson, leading rusher for the Hawks until he was hurt in the Stephenville game, is back in uniform.

The bad news is, neither experienced Hawk quarterback is likely to play.

Thompson will be suited out in the oversized thigh pads to protect the leg he received a serious, deep bruise when tackled after a long run against the Yellow Jackets. He's the fastest player on the team.

Both quarterbacks were injured in the Brownwood game. Bruce Holder received painful ankle sprain, and Coach Pat Tone said he wasn't able to move on it at all Monday.

Holder had taken over at quarterback when David Wright was moved to tailback to replace Thompson. But Wright was hurt in the first half Friday, and watched the second half from the sidelines in his street clothes. He has a large knot on his hip.

Tone said he would call on his number three signal caller Terry Daniels, a senior who starts in the defensive secondary. He's seen very little action on offense.

The Head Hawk is hoping Daniels will do for him what the third string quarterback did for the University of Texas Longhorns when he was called on. Win.

As for a backup for Daniels on

WRONG TURN -- The Glen Reeves home at 704 Rebecca was heavily damaged last Friday when a car crashed through the closed garage door and into an adjoining laundry room. Wanda Morgan had left the car running and parked it in the street when her small child apparently put the auto into gear and guided it up the Reeves' driveway.

Cook of the Week

One of the best ways to wake up sleepy morning appetites is with pancakes served with butter, syrup or honey. They are also popular for supper, particularly in winter.

Pancakes, griddle cakes, flap-jacks - whatever they are called - these tender flat cakes are an old American favorite. Their popularity dates back to pioneer days when ovens were not always available and griddle-cakes were the only form of bread to be made. The first pancakes were of pounded grain and water and spread on a rock to cook.

Every country has its own variation of pancakes, many of them rolled and filled. A few of the most familiar are French crepes, Italian canneloni, Chinese eggrolls and Russian blini. In America pancakes are a traditional breakfast treat. Thanks to Mrs. Zearl Gilbreath for her Larry's Hot Cake Mix this week, which she says is excellent for reunions or any occasion where a large number of people are served.

Fall Festival slated Saturday

The annual Red River Valley Square and Round Dance Association Fall Festival will be held Saturday at Square Dance Land in Wichita Falls.

Request rounds by Norman Teague will start at 7:30 p.m., and Rocky Strickland will be the featured caller, starting at 8, according to Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Cole, publicity chairmen.

Church sets goal at 400

The Faith Baptist Church is in the final week of the "upward 400" campaign and has set a goal of 400 in Sunday School Sunday to climax the campaign.

During the month of October, members have been visiting inactive and prospective members in an effort to attain the goal. Sunday School will start at 9:45 a.m. and the worship service at 11:00 a.m. The Rev. Bill Campbell is pastor.

Mrs. Gilbreath, a 15-year resident of Wichita Valley Farms, attended high school in Oklahoma City but did not graduate. Through the years she has aspired to complete her high school education, and in the spring of 1977 she received her diploma after having completed work for it through Region IX adult education classes.

A member of the Iowa Park Church of Christ, she served as president of the Wichita Valley Home Demonstration Club before it disbanded. She enjoys crocheting and horseback riding for hobbies.

Mr. Zilbreath works for Texas Highway Department. The couple's children are Zearl III of Wichita Falls, Mrs. Roger Mills of Pensacola, Fla., Tommy, a junior in Iowa Park High School, and Daniel, a second grade student at Bradford Elementary School. They also have one granddaughter.

Wyatt-Boren wedding vows exchanged in Wichita Falls

Miss La Nita Darlene Wyatt and Walter Ray Boren were united in marriage Oct. 15 in a service performed by the Rev. Jerry Hodges at Western Hills Baptist Church in Wichita Falls.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jim C. Wyatt of Wichita Falls and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J.W. Boren of Iowa Park.

The couple recited nuptials at seven o'clock in the evening in a setting featuring a large arrangement of white gladioli flanked by branched candelabra holding white wedding tapers.

Mrs. Jackie Ford, pianist, played "Love Story" for a prelude number and the traditional marches for the entrance and exit of the bridal party.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attired in a formal gown of white Chantilly lace over satin accented with a wide ruffle at the neckline and hemline of the skirt. She wore a shoulder-length bridal veil caught to a camelot lace cap and carried a bouquet of white roses and daisies.

Miss Penny Duell, the maid of honor, wore a long mint green double knit gown and a green picture hat. She carried a nosegay of yellow daisies.

Jimmy Wyatt, brother of the bride, was best man and Terry Young was usher. The groom wore a tan suit with brown shirt and accessories and the best man wore white pants with blue shirt and coat.

Mothers of the bride and groom complemented their street-length wedding dresses with orchid corsages. Mrs. Wyatt was dressed in wine double knit and Mrs. Boren wore dark rose double knit.

The bride's parents were hosts for the reception following the wedding which was held at the church.

The refreshment table was centered with the three-tiered white wedding cake with a set of filigree dividers and floral frosting decorations consisting of yellow roses and white daisies. The top ornament, the handiwork of the bride's mother, was a miniature ceramic bride and groom standing inside a ceramic patio lantern.

Additional table appointments were a basket arrangement of yellow roses, white daisies and pink tulips, a long bouquet of yellow roses and the crystal punch service, the latter two appointments marking table extremities.

Reception assistants were Mrs. Terry Young, the bride's sister, Mrs. Brenda Baker, sister of the groom, Mrs. Jerry Musick and Mrs. Skip Brown.

Guests registered in the church foyer at a table holding a bouquet of white daisies. Mrs. Kenneth Woolridge of Graham secured their signatures.

Hawk basketball practice starts

Official basketball practice for 1977-78 started October 17, for the Iowa Park Hawks. The varsity started with two-a-days at 7:00 a.m. working out with weights and conditioning at the field house, and at 6:00 p.m. working out at the gym. The freshmen and junior varsity basketball players work from 2:30 to 3:30 in the gym.

The Hawks open the season on November 14 at Notre Dame, for the first game of a twenty-five game schedule lined up for the coming season. The tournament schedule highlights the season with the Gainsville tournament on Dec. 1, 2, 3; the Midwestern tournament on Dec. 15, 16, and 17; and the Lubbock tournament Dec. 27, 28, and 29.

Dangerous pastime

A new "pastime" at the high school is throwing firecrackers during the lunch period. The area in which they are thrown is dangerous because of the gravel which could fly up and put out an eye. The teachers on duty are watching the situation very closely.

No classes

School was not held Monday, October 24, because of a TSTA District IX meeting at MSU. The teachers attended special meetings and workshops in various fields.

FHA-HERO installation

The Future Homemakers of America-HERO held the installation of Senior and Junior Chapters officers Oct. 18 at St. Michael's Alley in Wichita Falls.

Kim Baca installed officers and presented each with a red and white carnation after her duties were read to her.

Denise Hambrick is new teacher

Denise Hambrick, English III teacher is one of the 12 new teachers this year at I.P.H.S.

Mrs. Hambrick is from Springfield, Missouri, and attended college at The School of the Ozarks, near Branson. This is her first year to teach full time, as well as her first year for English III.

Drip, drip, drip

Raindrops keep falling on my head? This must be the theme song for Mr. Ratcliff's fifth period Algebra II students. A leak in the girls restroom apparently caused water to drip through the ceiling of Mr. Ratcliff's room. However, the leak was repaired and everything has dried up!!

She and her husband live in Wichita Falls. When asked what her hobbies were, she replied, "I like to sew, and needlepoint, and macrame, and I like to snow ski." For entertainment, she said she likes to attend movies. She said she loves anything that is chocolate, and generally, "Anything that's fattening."

Grading system equal?

This week a rather controversial topic is to be discussed: The Grading System. This is one area that many students and parents alike have disagreed with for years. The grading-system varies from teacher to teacher in the same subjects. Everyone wants to be treated equal. Some students feel this is not the case at school. They may have studied hard and made the highest possible score on a test or daily-work only to find that someone in another English, Biology, Etc., class has made 110% because of bonus questions. Also some teachers give extra-credit work, so that a student can bring up their grade while other teachers may not.

We are not trying to criticize bonus or extra-credit work, but if one teacher has this system it should be used by all the teachers. It seems to us that the teachers should get together and try to compromise on an equal grading system.

CORNERBACK Keith Hillard, 40, fights off a block to stop Brownwood's Chris Mayo for a short gain in the fourth quarter of the Dist. 4-AAA game played Friday in Hawk Stadium.

Travel didn't bother Brownwood

Traveling four hours on a bus did not seem to bother the Brownwood Lions as the number two ranked AAA team in state dealt the Hawks their straight loss this year.

The Hawks looked like they might just give Brownwood their best battle so far this year. But the second half disproved this.

On the opening Brownwood received the ball on the 39 yard line. Brownwood tailback then proceeded to do what has happened in just about every game the Hawks have played in this year. On the first play from scrimmage the Brownwood tailback took the ball the remaining 71 yards for a touch down.

It looked like another one of those games. The Hawks were forced to punt not being able to move the ball; luck went the Hawks way as the Brownwood punt returner fumbled the ball with Keith Hillard falling on it.

But the Hawks could not move the ball and were forced to punt deep not in Brownwood territory. Again luck was on the Hawks side when two plays later Barney Scott fell on a fumbled Brownwood ball.

The Hawks then set their sights on the end zones. An illegal procedure call set the Hawks back five yards. Bruce Holder then passed 13 yards to Richard Dietrickson. David Wright then ran three yards to pick up the first down. It looked as if the Hawks were going to score, but Kip Fuller coughed up the ball upon the five yard line.

Brownwood then looked like they were going to score when Jeff Nolen picked up the loose ball for the Hawks third fumble recovery. The Hawks then picked up a first down before two penalties for 20 yards set the Hawks back. Ronnie Taylor then punted into a strong wind.

Brownwood also picked up a first down before it was forced to punt. The Hawks could not move the ball down the field and had to punt.

Brownwood then drove 56 yards for its second touch down.

Disaster then strikes. After the Hawks were forced to punt again it only took one play as Brownwood passed for its third and last touchdown of the half.

Brownwood had one more chance to score, but a 36 yard field goal went wide.

The Hawks probably should not of come out for the second half. Brownwood scored the next four times they had the ball.

They were forced to punt the next two times and the third time ended when Keith Hillard intercepted a Brownwood pass.

The Hawks offense did not seem to have any punch as the Hawks only went past the 50 yard line two more times.

Leading rusher for the Hawks was Bruce Holder who carried five times for 25 yards. Close behind him was Kip Fuller who carried 11 times for 23 yards. David Wright, who did not suit up the second half with a back hip bruise, carried six times for 11 yards with Gary Blackerby carrying three times for nine yards. Andy Sitgreaves and Nolen each carried two times for three yards.

Leading passer was also Holder who threw nine out of 25 for 92 yards. Terry Daniels and Wright were zero out of two.

On the receiving end of most of Holder's passes was Dietrickson who hauled in five passes for 47 yards. Eddy Cannedy pulled in two passes for 16 yards. Hillard and Blackerby each caught one with Hillard picking up 18 yards and Blackerby picking up 11.

The defense turned in a few good performances. Besides the fumble recovered by Nolen, Scott, and Hillard. There were some fine defensive plays.

Turning in fine defensive plays were Fuller, Blaine Horton, Sid Waldrop, Pat Cooke, and Ray Willingham.

The Hawks are now 0-4 in district and 0-2 on the season. This Friday Mineral Wells travels to Iowa Park.

FHA initiation given members

During the week of October 17-21, the new members of F.H.A. were initiated. Every day they had to do certain things such as: on Monday, they had to wear an apron, carry a cookbook and say the F.H.A. creed to two officers and one advisor. Tuesday, they were to wear a red bow in their hair and bring something for their F.H.A. "Big Sister". On Wednesday, they had to say a chant to the other members and wear their initiation ribbon. Thursday, they wore a dress or a nice pantsuit and said the color, motto and purposes to one Senior Chapter officer. And on Friday, they supported the Hawks all the way by wearing a sign that says "F.H.A. Supports the HAWKS".

The F.H.A. is looking forward to a good year!

ROLLING THUNDER

1. A hard hitting movie in the spirit of "Walking Tall" starring Charles Deane as Major Charles Rane. Major Rane comes home a hero and in just two weeks loses his wife, his kid, and his hand.

The action is fast and exciting as, using his war-learned experience, the major goes after the killers. Tommy Lee Jones and Kubba Haynes co-star. Directed by John Flynn. (R)

LINCOLN CONSPIRACY

2. A supposedly factual account of the killing of Lincoln that gives the answers to all the unanswered questions about his death. The plot and the acting is good. Kirby Sewell, senior electrical engineer for TESCO, checks construction progress at the Comanche Peak nuclear plant site.

Today most of your electricity is made with cheap natural gas. But this gas will be gone soon.

How will we supply the electricity you'll need then?"

"About 70 percent of the electricity you use today is generated in plants that run on natural gas.

Most of it is gas we got at a low price many years ago. But those long-term contracts will expire soon.

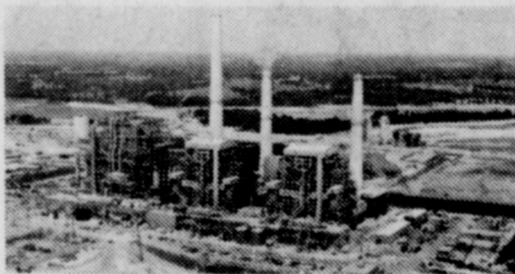

This is why our construction budget is nearly a quarter-billion dollars this year — so we can continue building plants that can use other fuels, specifically lignite coal and nuclear.

The first unit of the Comanche Peak nuclear plant is scheduled to go into service in 1981 and the second unit in 1983.

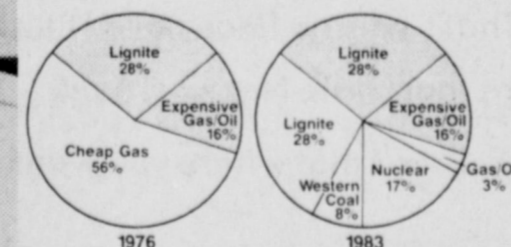

And we have five lignite coal-fired generating units in operation now, with five more under construction. Others are being planned.

By 1983, over 80 percent of your electricity will come from coal and nuclear fueled plants. This is how we intend to continue supplying you with the electricity you'll need."

Electricity. You count on it today. We're working to keep it that way.

At the Monticello plant near Mt. Pleasant, two lignite coal units are in operation now and a third unit is under construction.

One reason for Texas Electric's low rates is low cost gas contracted for years ago. As the chart on the left shows, more than half the fuel we use now is cheap natural gas. But our contracts for this gas expire soon. The chart on the right shows how we will replace this gas by 1983 with more abundant fuels.

Traffic keeps police busy

A bizarre automobile accident and the installation of new four-way stop signs at three intersections helped keep Iowa Park police busy this week.

Between 35 and 50 warning tickets have been handed motorists since the new four-way stop signs were installed last Friday along the old highway at the intersections of Johnson Road, Yosemite and Victoria.

Next week police here will begin handing out citations that carry fines to motorists not stopping at the newly marked intersections, police here said.

Although no mishaps occurred at any of the three intersections, police said there were numerous "near misses."

Police said the stop signs have greatly improved the traffic situation at the three locations.

Last Thursday police investigated a one-car mishap at 704 Rebecca, the home of Glen Reaves.

Wanda Morgan had parked her car nearby and left the engine running. While she was away from the car, her child apparently engaged the car's transmission.

The car crashed through Reaves' closed garage door and continued traveling through the garage, crashing into an adjoining laundry room.

The garage door was demolished, along with the laundry room and its contents which included a small dog that was rescued unharmed. Brick on the backside of the home was left in a pile on the ground.

The child was not injured and no one was at the Reaves home at the time of the mishap, reported at about 9:45 a.m. last Thursday.

In other action police responded to a call Wednesday morning that a California woman was hallucinating on a charter bus.

Police stopped the vehicle at Johnson Road and U.S. 287 and the woman said she was under treatment for alcoholism. She was taken to Sheppard AFB Regional Hospital.

Glenn Winn told police Tuesday that gasoline had been stolen from a church bus parked in the 300 block of E. Bank.

On Monday police investigated a report of criminal mischief in the 1000 block of Louisa where several unlocked cars had been rolled into the street.

Carl Davis told police Saturday that someone had upended a candy machine at a laundry at 309 W. Bank and stolen about 60 candy bars valued at $12.

Absentee voting light

If the Nov. 8 constitutional amendments election turnout can be forecast by absentee votes, Iowa Park election judges don't need to worry about being over worked.

After the first week of absentee voting no ballots had been cast in Iowa Park, according to election officials.

Persons who will be unable to participate in the regular election have until Nov. 4 to vote absentee.

My girls and I would greatly appreciate it. I'm sure other families would to. I pray you give this some sincere thoughts.

Prayerfully Yours

P.S. I wish my name to be with held so as not to embarrass my other children any more than they have already been.

Dear Prayerfully,

As the father of five children, I have some idea of your problems. However, not being a journalist, I don't think you know mine.

A community newspaper has the obligation of reporting all activities taking place. This means the good as well as the bad. I will not knowingly tell a lie, such as looking the other way when something happens, good or bad. Municipal Court proceedings are a matter of public record, not the creation of your newspaper.

offense, Tone said he may have to bring one up from the junior varsity or freshman team. He didn't know for sure Tuesday who he would pick.

The Rams of Mineral Wells are 4-3 on the season. They won their three non-conference games, 28-26 over Cleburne, 22-12 over Castleberry and 27-17 over Commanche.

Weatherford won the district opener, 26-12, but the Rams got back in the winning column with an 8-7 decision over Graham. They then lost to Brownwood 41-0 and Stephenville 20-17.

Mineral Wells, figured to have the most overall speed of any team in the district by Tone, has 22 seniors on its roster. However only six seniors are offensive starters and eight on defense.

The Rams are not a large team, with only one player weighing over 193 pounds, and he is listed as 200.

As I See It....

By BOB HAMILTON

Different seasons have different meanings to folks.

When I was in my younger teens, the fall season meant football, hot dogs and movies.

You might readily associate football and fall, but maybe not hot dogs and movies.

Well, out on the plains area at Hereford, there wasn't much work for a young teenager, except in the fall. But after the first frost, there was shocking of feed, and that meant that we could get out and earn money for all the hot dogs we could eat Saturday night, and enough left over to see the Western movie when we were through eating.

There just wasn't much work for youngsters in those days. People didn't have lawns good enough to hire someone to cut them. There weren't enough businesses to go around for all the youngsters who wanted jobs working behind soda fountains, sweeping, grocery sacking and delivering groceries or shining shoes.

Vegetables weren't as big a business at Hereford in those days either. And besides, they were all harvested by fall.

But there were endless fields of maize to be shocked. And for anyone who wanted work, you got all you wanted.

The bundles of feed would be lying on the ground, catching all the dust and dirt the constant breeze could carry. The dirt, and the chaff, were the worst part of the work. After you'd been out for an hour or so, you got so you didn't mind the cold wind. That is, if you were working hard enough, and had some gloves to help keep you warm.

It was dull work, picking up two or three bundles and leaning them together as a base to stack other bundles against. You didn't have to worry about stacking too many in one shock, though, because you'd walk yourself to death before you did that.

So you build shock after shock.

The time went slow, unless you got to horsing around with others working with you. A trick in getting time to pass more quickly was to think about how many big, juicy hot dogs you would eat that night.

And sure enough, pretty soon your shadow would be cast 30, 40 feet to the east, and it was time for the farmer to take you all back to town.

We took time to clean up, but it was quick. Then a quick walk 10 or 15 blocks from the house to downtown, and Mr. Curtsinger's Candy Store.

Now, that store did make and sell homemade candy, but that wasn't what Mr. Curtsinger was famous for, in my memory. It was those great big hot dogs, running over with homemade chili and heaped with onions.

They were a dime, and Cokes were a nickle. Boy, or boy, I'd sit there and eat three or four of those hot dogs. Big? Well, the ones we get today are less than three-fourths the size of those back then. And, somehow, the last bite was as good as the first.

Then I'd rush across the street to the Star Theatre, where I'd have enough money not only for a ticket, but sometimes for a big sack of buttered popcorn. And then it was a good, solid hour and a half of shoot-em-up and cartoons.

Those Saturdays in the fall were great. You worked hard, you ate good, and you had a good time on that dollar bill you earned for shocking feed all day.

Letters to the Editor

Mr. Bob Hamilton,

I am writing this letter with many reservations, but I feel I owe this to my other children to speak up. Do you realize how hard you make it on brothers and sisters of the people you so boldly publish in your newspaper. They are not responsible for what anyone else does. They have to listen to the sneers and taunts of their classroom peers. Also you and I both know that almost all "Adults" look at brothers and sisters with a watchful eye. Just waiting. I personally know kids and some adults which commit worse crimes, moral or legal, than being drunk, in this town. Granted this behavior deserves punishment, but to the wrong doer only. These people aren't caught legally, so we pat them on the back and look the other way. Heaven forbid you should publish all the dirt in this town. You would see more red faces than white.

I feel this municiple court column serves no purpose at all, except to embarrass family and friends. It certainly isn't news or interesting. I for one resent this type of material. I have two daughters you have so cruelly embarrassed because of your

Brownwood overcomes bobbles to defeat winless Hawks 49-0

Eventhough Brownwood's fourth-ranked Lions scored on the first play of Friday night's district game here, Lion mentor Gordon Wood doubtfully had moments when he wasn't for sure of the final outcome.

But size, depth and experience came through, and Brownwood handed Iowa Park its worse defeat of the season, score-wise, 49-0.

It was the swan song between the two, as Brownwood has been moved to Dist. 11-AAA starting next fall.

Fleet halfback Doug Hurt sprinted 71 yards over right guard on the first play of the game, and before the Hawks realized what was happening, Brownwood led 7-0 with only 17 seconds ticked off the scoreboard clock.

Then, a series of fumbles put the Hawks in excellent scoring position.

Forced to punt after the ensuing kickoff when they were unable to pick up a first down, the Hawks quickly seized on their first opportunity.

Punter Ron Taylor boomed the ball 43 yards downfield where, on the Lion 35 yard line, the receiver bobbled the ball and Brent Catlin alertly claimed possession.

Again unable to gain a first, Taylor punted out of bounds on Brownwood's 12. After a three-yard gain, another Lion fumble was claimed, this time by Barney Scott on the 15.

Despite a five-yard motion penalty, the Hawks gained a first when quarterback Bruce Holder passed to Richard Dietrichson for 13 yards and David Wright broke for a seven-yard run. Holder then tried left tackle, for no gain, and on the next play fumbled, with Brownwood capturing the ball on the five.

Brownwood came roaring

Frosh blank Hirschi 23-0

The Iowa Park Hawk freshmen team whitewashed the Hirschi Husky freshmen here Thursday night 23-0 to avenge a 20-14 defeat three weeks ago.

Mike Ray scored two touchdowns and kicked an extra point to lead the Hawks offensive attack. Ray picked up 68 yards on 12 carries for the night, with 60 of those coming in the first half. Steve McCord was the second leading ground gainer with 65 yards on 19 carries.

On the first play of the second quarter, Ray hit left tackle, cut back to his right and scampered 22-yards for the Hawks first touchdown. McCord drove over right guard for the extra points, giving the Hawks an 8-0 lead.

Late in the first half, Ray capped a 54-yard, 14-play drive with a one-yard plunge over left tackle on fourth down. Rickey Wharton added the extra points to give the Hawks a 16-0 halftime lead. The Hawks were successful on two other fourth down plays in the drive. The third quarter saw the Hawk defense hold Hirschi without a first down while moving the ball for only one first down.

With 4:33 left in the game, Mike Wright capped a 43-yard, six-play drive with a 31-yard scoring toss to Wharton. Ray booted the extra point to give the Hawks their final score.

The Hawk defense allowed only three first downs in the game and accounted for one partially blocked punt, that by Walton.

The Hawks take on the Burk Burnett Bulldogs at home this afternoon at 5:30.

In the first encounter between the teams, the Hawks spotted the young Bulldogs a 6-0 halftime lead before storming back in the second half behind Ray's touchdown pass to Wharton which tied the score and then Ray scored the extra points to give the Hawks an 8-6 victory.

The Hawk Frosh record is 2-5. Two of the losses came in the last two minutes of play.

ONE HE MISSED - Hawk end Richard Dietrichson strains for a pass in the third period of Friday night's game here with Brownwood, but missed. He did catch five other attempts, however, all from quarterback Bruce Holder, good for 57 yards.

LIONS EVERYWHERE - Senior tailback David Wright is swarmed by Brownwood Lions on an attempt to run around right end. Wright, converted from quarterback two weeks ago, was held to only 10 yards on seven carries during the first half, and because of a hip injury, didn't see any action the second half.

back, picking up a couple of firsts, and then sending James Fikes all the way to the Hawk end zone from the Lion 34 yard line. But a dipping penalty took the ball back to the Iowa Park 38.

On the next play another Lion fumbled, and Jeff Nolen fell on it at the 35, to thwart the high-flying Lion drive.

Brownwood did score a couple more times in the first half, both midway in the second period.

But Iowa Park was still in the game, especially when Blaine Horton covered Brownwood's fourth fumble, which took place on another punt catch attempt, at the Hawk 45.

It looked like Iowa Park might score then, especially when Holder carried for 20 yards, longest gain of the evening for the Hawks, on the next play. However, a couple of sacks on the Hawk quarterback, and Brownwood took over on downs, at the Brownwood 49 yard line.

Brownwood committed one other turnover, late in the fourth period, when Keith Hillard intercepted a Lion aerial. With 1:29 remaining in the game, Hillard returned the ball to the Brownwood 37.

The Hawks, trying desperately to get on the scoreboard, advanced, mainly through the air, all the way to the Brownwood eight yard line, where four straight passes fell incomplete and the drive stalled with 13 seconds left on the clock.

Holder found Dietrichson to be his favorite target for the night, connecting on five passes for 57 yards. He also hit Gary Blackerby twice for 20, Eddie Cannedy twice for 16, and Hillard once for 18, while missing on 14 other attempts.

Brownwood's defense, realizing it had the Iowa Park ground game stopped, and the Hawks having to go to the airways also because they were behind in the score, put an all-out rush on Holder, sacking him seven times.

Kip Fuller was the leading rusher for the Hawks, gaining 25 yards on 11 carries. Wright, who has been moved to tailback, gained 10 yards in the first half, but was injured and had to watch the second half from the sidelines in his street clothes.

Council referees long session

Tempers flared on several occasions at Tuesday night's lengthy Holliday City Council meeting which covered the topics of stray dogs, city personnel and the fire department.

Councilmen spent the last half of the 4½ hour meeting behind closed doors, presumably for private discussion of personnel.

City employees Junior Akers and Hershel McDaniel met with the board in its executive session, the second in as many meetings.

The council disbanded after the executive session without taking action.

The first flurry of verbal exchange occurred early in the meeting when Fire Chief John Harrigal asked the council for winter-proof housing for the city's old fire truck.

Harrigal and several other firemen suggested the council insulate and heat the back portion of the metal vehicle shed at the city yard.

The old truck, Harrigal said, "is just too good a piece of equipment to let it set up out there and freeze." Otherwise, the truck will have to be drained to avoid the pump bursting during freezing weather.

Alderman Red Denney voiced concern over the city spending the money to insulate and heat the north portion of the building.

"I just think there's other things the city should be spending its money on ... I'd like to get some streets paved ... I'm not against the fire department," Denney said.

Firemen countered, explaining a piece of emergency equipment -- even the old truck used now as backup --

Holliday-Muenster, a real grudge match

The wait is over.

The grudge match between Holliday and Muenster that most likely will decide the District 13-A championship is set for 8 p.m. Friday at Eagle Stadium.

However, the stage was set more than a year ago -- a year and a week to be exact.

It was on Oct. 22 last year that Muenster nudged past Holliday 15-14.

Ranked seventh in the state among Class A teams at the time, the loss to is useless if not ready to roll on a moment's notice.

"I would rather they get their figures down pat and everybody think about it a little more," said Alderman Ben Ezzell, whose motion to table action until next meeting was approved.

Controversy next focused on the door locks being changed at Holliday City Hall.

Mayor Jim Darr said the locks had been changed because a set of tools and a typewriter had been stolen from city offices.

"A lot of papers have been gone through and ransacked, too," Darr said. That's when he ordered the locks be changed, he said.

About 25 keys to city hall were in the hands of different persons, city officials estimated.

The hassle was that none of the firemen had keys to open city hall, where they hold meetings, store records and where one of three radios capable of setting off the fire alarm is stored.

Without access to city hall and in the absence of Harrigal and Melvin Briscoe, other firemen have no way of setting off the alarm.

The council voted to give city hall keys to Glenn Wood and alderman Melvin Bills, who both have fire telephones in their homes.

Tom Hall, refuse superintendent, told the council it needed to have another pit dug at the city dump and the road to the dump ground needed to be oiled for easier passage in wet weather.

The council voted to advertise for bids to have someone dig a new pit. Councilmen also voted to have the city's truck loader repaired.

City employees Danny and Timmy Teafatiller both were voted salary increases.

David Kucinski complained that while in the city's pickup truck, Akers had spun the truck around in the street and sprayed Kucinski's parked car with gravel.

Akers explained he was having problems with a youth following him at night while he was catching dogs.

Discussion erupted into a heated exchange between Kucinski and Akers, who later apologized.

"Let's drop this subject," the mayor said.

Hershel McDaniel stormed out of the council chambers after asking the council to abolish dog catching for 30 days or until the city's new pickup truck is delivered.

Apparently, there were conflicts between Akers and McDaniel over use of the pickup truck during some parts of the day.

"Ya'll are not trying to get along," Denney told Akers and McDaniel.

Shortly after McDaniel stormed out of the meeting, the council voted itself into executive session. After about an hour with Akers, McDaniel was summoned to the meeting for another hour behind closed doors.

The council did not formally reopen the meeting to the public as required by law, but just began filtering out of the meeting about 11:20 p.m. Tuesday.

If the council took any action as a result of the executive meeting, it was done behind closed doors.

None of the councilmen indicated any action had been taken when asked.

Holliday, Muenster and Archer City all are battling a thousand in loop play with two district victories each.

Muenster's two victims have been Callisburg and Petrolia, while Archer City had handled Lindsay and Callisburg.

Friday night's clash between Holliday and Muenster will mark the first clash among district powerhouses.

However, the oddsmakers will give Holliday the edge considering the Eagles took on five Class AA teams in pre-district play to build their 5-2 season record, the best in the district.

Elsewhere in the district, Petrolia is 1-6 on the season with a 0-2 district mark, while Lindsay is 3-4 on the year and 0-2 in the loop. Muenster is 4-3 this season with a 2-0 district mark.

Archer City is 3-4 on the year and 2-0 in district. Callisburg is 2-2-5 on the season and 0-2 in district.

Limping Eagles maintain top spot

Despite a backfield roster riddled with injuries, the Holliday Eagles maintained their top spot in District 13-A with a 35-13 win over Lindsay.

Head Coach Don Lucy was forced to reach elbow deep into his list of backfield reserves including sophomore James Porter, a junior varsity recruit, who displayed a talent for finding daylight.

Senior Andy Barton, who had seen plenty of action in the trenches, had his jersey numbers switched from 63 to 32 and spent most of the night at fullback.

Old heads Stanley Craddock, Jay Wright, Rusty McDaniel and quarterback Steve Lucy filled out the list of ball handlers.

The extended use of more inexperienced runners was inherited by Coach Lucy while injured Larry Ayres and Bimbo Stone traipsed the sidelines nursing injuries.

Mark Mankins, Lynn Ayres and Buff Young were suited out but did not see action for fear of irritating old wounds.

Offensively, the spotlight was shared by McDaniel, Craddock, Lucy and Barton, who each stepped across the goal line for touchdowns.

Defensively, the limelight bathed Lynn Coats, Barton and Lucy, who each recovered Lindsay fumbles, Safety Gerry Graves just missed an interception, while Wright and McDaniel fought some good aerial battles.

Dennis Holt and Kent Lemons lead defensive rushes for Lindsay losses on more than one occasion.

However, Holliday's victory over Lindsay was not decided as easily as the statistics might suggest.

In fact it was a come-from-behind decision for the Eagles, and a comfortable hint of smile did not settle in on Coach Lucy's face until the final quarter.

The Knights shell shocked the Eagles late in the opening quarter when a Petrolia defensive player robbed a Holliday backfield miscue and returned the steal 20 yards for a touchdown. The PAT was good.

Holliday took Lindsay's kickoff and marched 68 yards to answer the Knights on an 11-yard TD run by McDaniel. Mark Wells split the uprights and tied the contest with 7:33 left in the half.

Lynn Coats recovered a Knight fumble to quash one of Lindsay's drives, but another serious threat came when McDaniel was swarmed by three defenders, one which snagged Lucy's pass intended for McDaniel.

The Knights found a hole in the Eagle secondary and quickly completed a 42-yard pass. Controversy erupted when the time keeper, obviously a little trigger happy, stopped the clock before the play had been blown dead and gave the Knights two seconds to get off another play.

A field goal try by the Knights failed and both teams went to the dressing room with seven points.

Holliday took Lindsay's kickoff to begin the second half.

McDaniel and Craddock combined for 85 yards and a TD drive capped by Craddock's 18-yard romp. Wells kicked the PAT, and Holliday pulled out front for the first time of the night.

After taking Holliday's kickoff, Lindsay was unable to move the ball and was forced into a punting situation.

A flag on Holliday for roughing the kicker gave the Knights a new lease on life and set up their next touchdown. Lindsay went for the extra points on a fake kick and pass play but the effort failed and Holliday maintained a narrow 14-13 margin with four minutes left in the third quarter.

Three plays after taking Lindsay's kickoff Wright scampered 42 yards before being collared. Porter and Craddock supplied the remaining yardage, and Craddock stepped into the end zone from five out.

Wells, who kicked 100 per cent for the night, easily handled the PAT and Holliday pulled out front 21-13.

A fumble recovery by Steve Lucy set up Holliday's next score when a Lindsay player dropped his reception early in the fourth quarter.

The biggest single chunk of yardage came on a 17-yard aerial from Lucy to Wells.

Barton, the guard-turned-fullback who probably could give Tony Dorsett some pointers on backfield blocking, got the call and exploded four yards into the end zone for the score.

A five-yard flag was stepped off against Holliday, but Wells split the goal posts like a pro and the Eagles were out front 28-13 with nine minutes left in the contest.

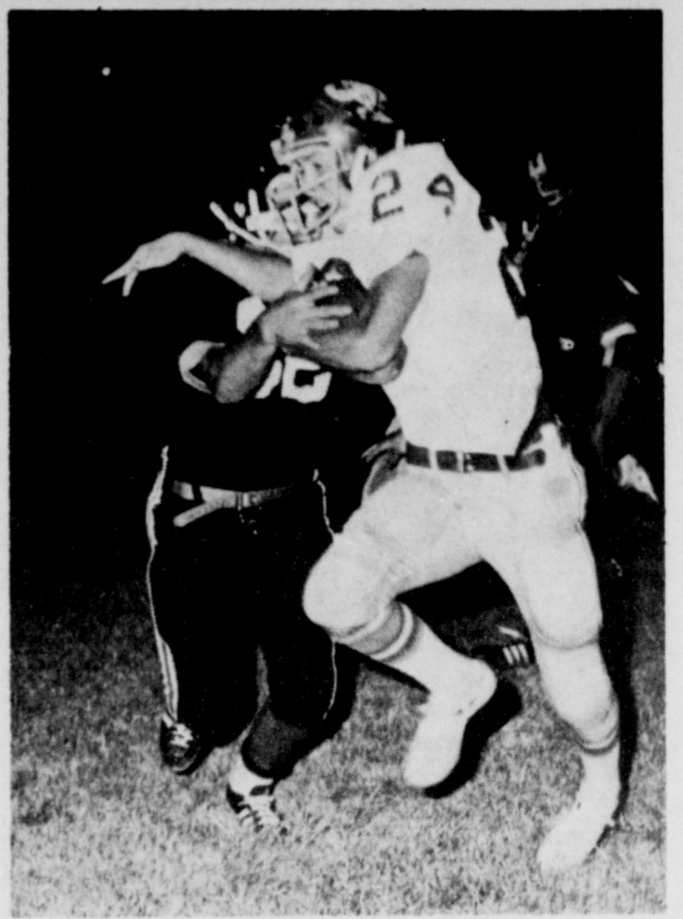

Barton recovered a fumble a few minutes later, but the Eagles were unable to capitalize and forced to punt for the second time of the night.

McDaniel and Wright collided in mid-air to end Lindsay's ensuing series, and after taking the Knight punt the Eagles began their final TD drive.

Lucy ended the drive on a 14-yard quarterback keeper as he zigzagged through the Lindsay defense and scored. Wells booted the PAT and Holliday pocketed a 35-13 win over Lindsay, the Eagles' second district win in as many loop bouts.

Keep winning streak alive

Holliday's junior high and junior varsity teams kept alive their winning streaks by handing Windthorst teams a trio of losses.

Jeff Belcher punched it across from two yards out for Holliday's third quarter TD. Gil Gilbert ran in the extra points.

24-0 by the half on a 30-yard touchdown run by Looney. Chase provided the extra points.

JUNIOR VARSITY
Hampered heavily by penalties, Holliday's junior varsity Eagles managed to sting Windthorst 12-0.

In the third stanza Looney scored on a 39-yard run, and Chase crossed the goal line from one yard away in the fourth quarter.

Kirk Styles scored for Holliday on the second play of the game when he broke loose for 67 yards.

Flowers hauled in three interceptions, and Looney also snagged a stray Windthorst aerial. Tim Wade and Brad Hardin each recovered a Trojan fumble.

The Eagles came back to score in the final period on a 10-yard run by Joey Kincaid.

Defensive standouts were Mike Bryant, who recovered a pair of fumbles, and Jim Ezzell, who also recovered a fumble.

Other Holliday standouts included Donnie Bridges, Wayne McDaniel, Morris Davis, Wade Moyer, Johnny Craig, Mark Rathman and Joel Mankins.

TOP OF TEXAS CHAMPIONSHIP PLAY ...Defense was a major factor for Iowa Park teams.

Bradford splits championship

The Bradford Hawks split the Top Of Texas football championship Saturday as the Pee Wees fell to Kidwell 22 to 0 and the Midgets overcame Seymour 12 to 6. The Pee Wees, who never quite got going offensively on the rain soaked field, played most of the game without the help of this year's leading ground gainer, Scott Weaver. Weaver had only 21 yards rushing before having to leave the game in the second quarter with a bruised arm. Shawn Finley led Bradford with 26 yards rushing followed by Kirk Martin and Joe Don Finley who had 3 yards apiece.

Martin was the defensive standout, making nine unassisted tackles. Shawn Finley added seven stops while James Woody had six. The Midget game was highlighted by defensive play against a tough Seymour team on sloppy field conditions. The score was tied at six at the end of regulation play.

Finally, with five minutes and 55 seconds to go in the second overtime period, Donnie Cavinder ran five yards over left tackle to clinch the championship.

Mark Copeland anchored the defense with nine stops. He was followed by Charles Perry with six and Dale Hayley with four tackles and a pass interception.

Cavinder led the offensive unit with 120 yards rushing as he scored both Hawk touchdowns. Mike Kent tallied for 38 yards.
