Donna James - Dwight Moody

Nuptial vows were made by Miss Donna Marie James and Mr. Dwight Lyman Moody, last Saturday evening in Sacred Heart Catholic church. The ceremony was directed by the Rev. Mr. Joseph Thomas, pastor of Our Lady Queen of Peace church.

The decorations were baskets of white gladioli and white tapers in seven-branched candelabra.

When given in marriage by her father the bride was wearing a formal gown of white tissue faille and re-embroidered Alencon lace. An overlay of lace formed a panel on the front of the Empire bodice and A-line skirt.

Her chapel train was bordered with lace and her veil of imported French illusion was held by faille bows. She carried white roses and baby's breath.

Kathleen McMurtrey was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Lary Kramer, Kathy James, sister of the bride, and Miss Jan Ferguson. They wore lavender crepe gowns and carried orchid and purple asters with static.

Hady Smith and Brent McManus were flower girl and ring bearer.

Mr. Moody was his son's best man. Groomsmen were Hugh Smith of Iowa Park, Don Winkle of Lubbock, and Dale Owen. Ushers were Robert James, brother of bride; and Larry Sweatt.

Mr. and Mrs. James hosted the reception in Clipper Room of the Trade Winds. Assisting were Miss Alisa Armstrong and Miss Pat Scott and the Mmes. Ray Sims, Eddie Barker, Mickey Shipman, David Smith.

Shower for Judi

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Barnhill was the scene Tuesday evening for a bridal shower complementing Miss Judith Fortner, bride-elect of William Erickson. Other hostesses were Mmes Harrel Sullivan, Faris Nowell and Jim Roberts.

The party room was decorated with shades of blue and green, the colors chosen by Miss Fortner for her wedding.

Of special interest was the refreshment table which was covered with an avocado cloth. The centerpiece featured a turquoise flower arrangement flanked by turquoise candles. Extending from the flower arrangement were satin streamers bearing the names "Judi" and "Bill."

Judith and her mother Mrs. Ray Fortner were presented corsages of turquoise carnations.

The young couple will exchange wedding vows Oct. 10.

Exes Move Back to Iowa Park

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Johnson and children Kathryn 10, Thomas Jr. 5, and Frank 6, moved here Aug. 29 from Wichita Falls. They have been there 14 years.

Mrs. Johnson is the former Jean Sargent, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elvy Sargent, former residents here.

Thomas was raised here and went all the way through Iowa Park schools. He is an accountant with Allred Armstrong & Blauvelt, CPA firm in Wichita Falls.

Miss Kidwell Speaks of Gadgets in Present Day Classrooms

"Relating Education to a Life of Fulfillment was the theme of the first meeting of the year when members of 23 Study club met Thursday, Oct. 1 for a salad luncheon in the home of Mrs. James A. Sewell. Mrs. T. M. Clark was co-hostess.

The president's message, "Education, What Is It All About Today?" by Miss Ethyle Kidwell, was high point of interest for the day. Representatives quotes are: "A rapidly changing world necessitates methods of doing things in all businesses, and education is a business—the biggest in the nation"

"Regardless of the critics' accusations, teaching is the greatest act of charity. And it is time for less destructive and more constructive criticism of our schools. Teachers are not responsible for all the under-achievement in our schools. True education never has been and never will be limited to the time spent in public schools and colleges"

"No type of teaching machines or teaching materials or gadgets can ever take the place of a well-trained and conscientious teacher—one who really cares."

"The so-called free enterprise plans will bear watching. It may prove interesting to watch for results in the schools which are contracting with the research laboratories in many sections of the United States. These laboratories' ment up to standard, especially in reading. Can they do it, or is it another fly-by-night experiment? What it does to and for the pupil is the important thing."

Mrs. Homer Blalock gave the invocation for the meal. A Chopin rumber by Mrs. Sewell, pianist, was the fine arts feature for the day.

A committee composed of Mrs. J. W. Cantrell, Mrs. Clark and Mrs. E. F. Soell was asked to get recommendations for the Youth award. Mrs. Gene Overbey Steele, with Mrs. Chauncey Weller and Mrs. Soell as assistants, was to decorate a car for the homecoming parade.

Others present were Mmes. C. E. Birk, Lester Brooks, Earle Denny, D. O. James, O. E. Lochridge, N. E. McKinney, C. L. Metz, Joe Singer, R. A. Tanner, T. M. Thaxton, Earl Watson, Fred Widmoyer, Rollins Oodall, and Carroll Duke.

Ginger Smith - Gerald Pyle

Miss Ginger Loy Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herman L. Smith, became the bride of Gerald Ray Pyle in a ceremony read at Faith Baptist church at 7:00 p.m. Saturday, Oct. 3. The Rev. Mr. Herb Crocker, interim minister, assisted with the exchange of vows. Gerald is son of Mr. and Mrs. Reid Pyle.

The nuptial space featured an archway of greenery flanked by baskets of gladioli and backed by candelabra holding white tapers.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore an empire style A-line white satin gown with lace bodice and long sleeves. The long lace train was attached at the shoulders. An iridescent beaded crown gathered the tiered illusion net veil. Her bouquet was a Japette orchid with a cascade of white pompons.

Cynthia Smith, sister of the bride, was her maid of honor. She wore a lime green chiffon empire line dress with white lace over satin. She carried long stemmed pink carnations.

Best man was Ricky Patterson. J. C. Smith, brother of the bride, and Gary Pyle, brother of the groom, were ushers.

Russ Smith, brother of the bride, and Timmy Ankney of El Reno, Okla., their cousin, were candle-lighters.

Dave Bridgers, organist, accompanied Mike O'Donnell as he sang "Whither Thou Goest" and the benediction "The Lord's Prayer."

Reception following the ceremony was in fellowship hall of the church. A white taffeta cloth with gold braid trim covered the serving table. It was centered with a three-tiered cake featuring the bride and groom ornaments. A complementary arrangement was on the gift table with pink cloth under white lace. A pink tree decorated the registration table.

Mrs. Doug Johnson and Mrs. Delbert Cullar of Wichita Falls, sisters of the groom, presided at the refreshment table. Tamala Ankney, cousin of the bride, registered guests. Other members of the houseparty included Mmes. Dwayne Williams, Sonny Bates, Billy Joe Carter, Donald O'Donnell.

Ginger and Gerald attended Iowa Park high school. For the wedding trip she wore a two-piece red knit dress with white accessories and a white orchid.

The groom is employed with a well-servicing company at Kamay. They will reside at 106 W. Alameda in Iowa Park.

Out of town guests for the wedding were Messrs. and Mmes. Ray H. Edwards, Timmy and Kathleen of Aberg, N.M.; Glen Ankney, Timmy, Tamala and Tonya of El Reno, Okla.; Ben F. Anderson, Terry Sykes and Cindy of Oklahoma City; Ray Pyle of Vernon, grandparents of the groom; and Lynn Pope of Vernon.

The Velfree Shop to Open Friday

A metropolitan, atmosphere permeates the Velfree, Iowa Park's newest retail establishment, which is announcing open house for Friday, Oct. 9, from 9:00 to 5:30.

Wrought iron furnishings, shag rugs and oak paneling afford a suitable setting for the exclusive merchandise which is on display or available.

Included in the store are two fitting rooms, office space, merchandise workroom and storage. An added note of luxury is the courtesy coke box and soda table, with wrought iron chairs, where customers may relax or where husband may find solace as he views the "out-of-this-world" purchase being contemplated by his wife which will rob him of that set of golf clubs he has in mind.

Some of the apparel on display includes misses' dresses by Mynette, Nardis, Act III, Catalina, and Henri; Juniors by aLa More, Wimscailli, Riverside 7, Carlette, Jr. Petite by Carl, Junior Theme and Joyce; and Miss Pat and Vassarette; Justin bags and bill folds with courtesy card compartment; boots in high colors; Vera scarves; hosiery, gloves and jewelry.

Featured also are lingerie by Generation Gap, suitable for both misses and juniors.

Mrs. O. N. Newman is proprietor of the new business. She is also a partner in a similar store at Freeport with the same name, Velfree, which is derived from the names of two towns in that area—Viasco and Freeport.

Mrs. Wilburn Bedford is saleslady assisting Mrs. Newman. Leta is a person who instinctively practices and knows good taste in dress and fashions and will be an able adviser to the purchasing public.

Mr. and Mrs. Newman came to Iowa Park in 1957, he as a practicing attorney and she as a busy mother and housewife. They have three children: Newt III, a student at North Texas State university; Jim, a junior in IPHS; and Staci, a first grader at Kidwell

Incidentally, Mrs. Newman's given name is Estaleen.

Boosters Meet

Monday night in the school cafeteria Pres. Hoyt Watson introduced Jim Frazier, a member of the Wichita Falls chapter of State Football Officials association. He discussed rules and penalties and had a question and answer session after his talk.

He told Hawk Boosters that there are only 10 basic rules in football. He said there are 83 violations and infractions including 31 five-yard penalty violations and 34 fifteen-yard penalties. He told of several other interesting situations in the game.

Frazier told the club that Rules serve two purposes: 1. to keep one team from taking advantage of the other; 2. for protection of the players.

Coach Watkins then took over and told the club that the Hawk coaches had selected two Backs of the week: Jeff McDonald and Steve Catlin; and that Jimmie Gilmore had been chosen again as Lineman of the Week.

James Frazier and Greg Ancell were named Big Play defensive winners; and Jeff McDonald made the Big Play on offense. Steve Watson was cited for a fine game, especially on defense with 14 tackles.

Tommy said the Burk Bulldogs were fine physically and executed both offense and defense well. He revealed that QB Greg Frazier is a doubtful starter against Stamford this Friday.

Bulldogs, Beware

Watkins talked some about the foe for Homecoming. He said that although Stamford did not have a team of big men, they had good speed and exceptional quickness. He noted that although they have lost three games, they have not been blown out of the tub by anyone.

Like the Hawks, they have faced AAA schools Ballinger and Sweetwater. Last week they lost to Jacksboro. Stamford runs a varied offense and uses a changing defense most of the time. They are not considered a driving team but rather a striking team. Most of Stamford's scores have come on long runs or passes and they don't mind putting the ball into the air.

QB Randy Leavitt is the main cog in the Bulldog offense. He runs well and throws better than average.

Watkins said the Hawks will have to watch TB Wayne Marsh No. 70 and WB Robert Stevenson No. 33, a track man. They run basically the same offense formation as Iowa Park uses with two men behind the QB and the WB set out to one side.

The Bulldogs run a pro type defense with 4 up front, 3 linebackers and two cornermen and two safeties.

Homecoming Queen coronation service will precede the game, so get to the field about 7:30. The kickoff will be at 8:00.

IPHS 7 Burk'b'n'to

Burkburnett's Bulldogs tried last Friday to cover themselves with glory for the benefit of Exes and Old Grads. It was Homecoming, and the beginning of a two-day celebration.

Thus fired up, Burk huffed and puffed and almost blew the IP string of 19 victories out. But the IP offense refused to be negated.

After playing some 46 minutes to a scoreless tie, the Hawks got a break which put them on Burk's 11 yard line with first down and 10 to go. Steve Webb picked up 7; Jeff McDonald was stopped with no gain, Steve Catlin kept and got to the 1. Then McDonald made it through the line for the score. Webb added a PAT kick, and the final result was Hawks 7 to 0.

During that first 46 minutes the fans of both schools had plenty of hard hitting football to cheer about. Iowa Park made 221 yards rushing and 9 yards through the air. The three Burk passes snared by the Hawk defense were not quite matched by the one lost Hawk fumble.

And just when the Bulldogs needed that something extra to stave off the Hawk scoring threat, their defensive squad found a way. Except for that fatal last minute! A roughing the passer call gave the Hawks new life and made it possible to have those final four plays necessary to keep the skein unbroken.

Fans of both teams can well be proud of the Burk Homecoming game of 1970.

The Banquet

Dr. Douglas Stockton has been secured as speaker for the Homecoming banquet Saturday at 6:30 in the high school cafeteria. He is athletic director at Midwestern university.

Stockton earned his PhD from Utah university. He studied at Oklahoma A & and played basketball for Hank Iba, a renowned coach. He came to Midwestern from Utah, where he was assistant coach at the time.

Chamber of Commerce office says late registrants may call No. 592-5441 and still get their names on the list for the banquet. The meal is to be catered and the price is $2.00.

Don Harrison, in charge of the parade on Friday afternoon, says more than 40 have been entered, with Camp Fire groups going out for the project. Judges will be Dr. E. F. Soell, Dr. E. F. Watson and O. N. Newman.

Homecoming game will be with Stamford at 8:00 p.m. Friday. A dance for high school students will follow the game.

Farm Bureau

Oct. 15 is the date set for Wichita County Farm Bureau's annual meeting in Iowa Park junior high school cafeteria, 412 E. Cash.

All FB families are invited to be present at 7:00 for a spaghetti supper and at 8:00 for the business session.

Millard Shivers, formerly organizational director for TFB, will be here to speak on equitable taxation for Texans. On Nov. 3 the voters will have opportunity to vote on Amendment No. 3, which he will discuss.

According to Pres. Raymond Schroeder, this is the most important meeting of the year. He urges FB members to be present and participate in the policy development discussion. Recommendations made earlier in community meetings will be adopted or rejected after being discussed.

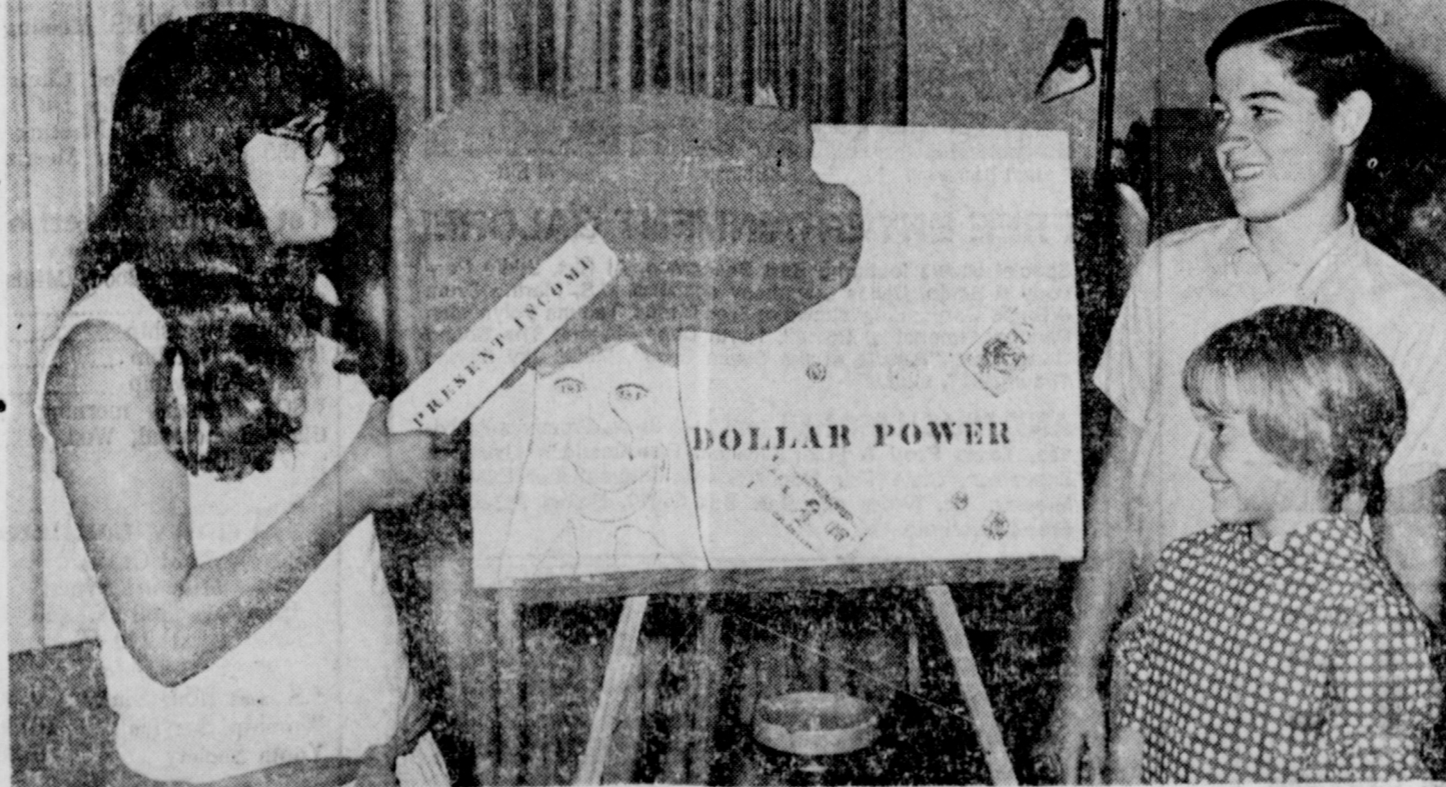

Annual reports will be made and new officers will be elected for 1971. Nominating committee includes Leys D. Barbour, Ed Foster jr. and T. J. Pace sr.

Iowa Park Consolidated School system has added a new course to be taught by Mr. Frank Rauscher. It is called "Building Trades." We are going to join the Vocational Industries Club of America. In doing so we had to elect a set of officers:

Other members are Jeff Ayers, Randy Byrd, Timmy Clark, David Harrington, James Maloney, Clifford Moore, Don Martin, Dewayne McKee, Vernon Overstreet, Logan Reddin, Randy Sykes.

Boys and girls can work together in many phases of 4-H club work. Above we have Kathy Davis giving a lesson on Dollar Power to Lydia Pushfield and Terry Ratcliff. Good adult leaders are the backbone of 4-H.

Miss Denny Tells of Europe Tour

On Aug. 29 a group representing all parts of the nation gathered at New York's Kennedy Airport to begin a three-week visit to the Alpine region of central Europe. Representing Texas was an Iowa Park resident Elga Ann Denny.

This was Miss Denny's third tour of the British Isles and European area. Being an avid student of history, she had done a lot of reading to gather information before each tour so she would have a knowledgeable background for what she might see. By request Elga Ann is sharing some of her experiences with those of us who do most of our traveling by proxy. Her account follows:

Frankfurt, the ancient German city on the Main, was the first stop. This city was heavily damaged by air raids in March 1944. Approximately 80% of it was destroyed.

The main points of historical interest center around those few areas which were relatively undamaged, such as the Roemer. This world famous landmark is an ancient building which was bought by the city in 1405 with the intention of making it the town hall. The upper story was used from the year 1561 by the rulers of the Holy Roman Empire as their coronation banquet hall. The Kaiserdom (imperial cathedral) in which the coronations of the German emperors were held has been reconstructed after sustaining heavy damage in the bombing. Also reconstructed is the 18th century Gothic house which marks the birthplace of Goethe, one of Germany's most famous and revered citizens.

Another point of interest to the student of history is St. Paul's church in which the 1848 Frankfurt Assembly met in an abortive attempt to unify the many small German states into a German nation.

Through years of hard work the people of Frankfurt have rebuilt their city into one of the main commercial centers of Europe.

Leaving Frankfurt our journey proceeded through the heart of the Black Forest. Destination was the lovely resort town of Garmisch-Partenkirchen which is located at the foot of the Zugspitze, Germany's highest mountain. The mountain is located on the border between Germany and Austria so that one can literally cross the border on the top of the mountain.

Cable cars from both Germany and Austria provide easy access to the peak.

A scenic drive through the Austrian Tyrol brought us to Salzburg, the home of "The Sound of Music." This city which was the setting of many of the scenes of that popular motion picture is a particular favorite of many Americans. Dominating Salzburg is the Hohensalzburg Fortress which was begun in 1077. It was built as a fortification during the Investiture Controversy between kings and popes from 1050 to 1300. Our visit included the birthplace of Mozart, one of Salzburg's most famous sons.

We then boarded a cruise ship for a short trip down the Danube which incidentally is not blue. Ancient fortresses, most of them in ruins, dot the high cliffs along the river. On the lower slopes vineyards are interspersed with small villages all along the route of the river.

The end of the cruise brought us to the city of music, Vienna. True to its reputation this international city was bustling with activity. The Stadtpark which dates back to 1862 is the most extensive park in Vienna. Located on the banks of the river, the park features music daily from early afternoon until long after dusk. At the invitation of the conductor of the orchestra, couples young and old alike swirl to the music of their beloved waltzes.

Perhaps one of the most enjoyable things a person can do in this interesting city is to wander through the narrow winding streets of the medieval section. Here one can visit the Griechenbeisl, one of Vienna's oldest inns dating back to the 14th century. It was a favorite meeting place of Johann Strauss and Franz Schubert. In the same general area is Vienna's oldest church St. Rupert's which dates back to the 13th century. Towering over the city is massive St. Stephen's Cathedral which had its beginning in the 12th century.

Other impressive buildings are abundant in Vienna although of a more recent vintage. Included in this group are the famous Vienna State Opera House, the houses of Parliament, the Burgtheater and Schoenbrunn Palace. The palace was the home of the Imperial family for many years. The guide solemnly assured us that the huge structure contains well over 2000 rooms.

Another interesting structure is the Hofburg, former residence of the Hapsburg family. It now houses among other organizations the famed Spanish Riding School.

Commanding a superb view of Vienna is Belvedere Palace, the summer palace of Prince Eugene. Its most recent contribution to history was its selection as the site of the recent SALT talks held in Vienna.

The most impressive night time view of Vienna is best seen from the giant ferris wheel located in the amusement park called the Prater. This wheel was erected in 1897 on the occasion of the World's Fair. It has a height of 67 metres and contains 15 carriages each of which will accommodate about 20 passengers. It takes about 15 minutes to complete one revolution.

A perfect ending to a visit to Vienna is to stop at the Sacher Hotel for a sample of its famous chocolate Sacher torte smothered with schlag (whipped cream). Our journey next took us through the unbelievably beautiful mountain scenery of Yugoslavia and Italy to St. Moritz, Switzerland. In passing through the remote Alpine villages it was not unusual to find traffic halted to allow cattle to walk down the main street on their way to pasture. As it was the season to harvest hay, many people were in the fields preparing the hay for the coming long hard winter. In many instances scythes are still used to cut the hay because most modern farming equipment is not adaptable to the steep mountain fields. Also the cost of the machinery which is available is more than some families can afford. The hay is usually raked by hand, stacked on racks to dry and finally loaded on wagons for the trip to the barn.

In the summer months showers frequently come to the mountains presenting problems in drying the hay. Therefore, on a sunny day whole families can be seen working in the field to take advantage of good weather. Even young children are often taken to the fields where they play while the parents and older brothers and sisters are at work.

A short ride by horse-drawn carriage brought us to the lovely Engadine Valley near St. Moritz. The stillness of this peaceful valley is broken only by the rush of a mountain stream and the sound of cowbells. The ice cold mountain streams take on a milky appearance as they sift through limestone on their journey to the valleys far below, where they join to form the great rivers of Europe. These streams are fed by glaciers and the snow which falls on the highest peaks the year round.

After an early morning drive we arrived at the village of Zermatt, Switzerland at the foot of the Matterhorn. In recent years Zermatt has become famous as one of the finest winter ski-resorts in the world. Its earlier history, however, was tied to the many attempts made to scale the 14,700 foot Matterhorn.

Finally on July 14, 1865, an Englishman, Edward Whymper, succeeded. Since then over 100,000 persons have climbed its steep walls — but nearly 100 have died in the attempt. Many of them are buried in the cemetery in Zermatt in the shadow of the giant they did not conquer.

For the less venturesome the highest cog-wheel train in Europe climbs the 10,289-foot Gornergratt to afford an unparalleled view of the Matterhorn and the snow and glacier covered range of Swiss and Italian Alps. From this vantage point one can barely see the microscopic towns which lie in the valleys below.

The area for miles around Zermatt is laced with hiking trails so treasured by the hardy rugged Alpine people. Here one can literally walk through the clouds which gather around the mountain peaks and sift into the valleys.

Traffic on these mountain trails can be very heavy at times as it is not unusual to meet entire families, including the family dog, hiking up and down the mountain sides.

The last part of our journey took us through the valleys of the Bernese Alps. Lovely chalets dot the vibrant green of the mountain sides. The typical Bernese chalet is usually decorated with boxes of flowers—flowers so huge and perfect they look as if they are made of plastic. Even the newest houses being built conform to this ancient style of architecture. A visit to the picture-book village of Grindelwald provided a close-up view of two of the mightiest peaks in Europe, the Jungfrau and the Eiger, both of which exceed 13,000 feet.

A short trip by way of the capital of Switzerland, Bern, brought us to another of Europe's most cosmopolitan cities, Geneva. It established its place in history many years ago as the center of the Reformation movement which swept Europe in the 16th century. In addition to its historical past as the home of the ill-fated League of Nations, today Geneva serves an important role as headquarters of the International Committee of the Red Cross and many of the United Nations relief organizations. In addition many private companies have their European headquarters in this Swiss city.

Our three weeks had come to an end. As our jet climbed through the late afternoon clouds covering Geneva, we were treated to one last magnificent view. There with its head proudly lifted above the clouds rose majestic Mount Blanc across the border in France. The 15,000-foot mountain has often been called the most beautiful of all mountains. We watched in awe as its white snow cap changed to brilliant shades of orange and pink in the sunset. We chased the setting sun across the Atlantic.

A few short hours later, New York appeared below like a gigantic jeweled necklace on black velvet. And so we arrived safe and sound, tired but happy, from a story-book land back to the land of reality . . . and to Monday morning jobs.

Members of Iowa Park Garden club have been busily engaged this week preparing a float for the Homecoming Parade, under direction of Mrs. Luther Shaw, chairman.

The telephone committee takes this means of reminding members that the Friday, Oct. 9 meeting has been canceled.

Murry Flahive, brother of Mrs. Johnnie Wortman, is in St. Paul hospital, Dallas. He had a heart attack Sept. 24 and is now reported doing all right. Flahive is a 1941 graduate of IPHS.

by Mrs. Edd Penn

Across a barren land scarred by centuries of war and neglect, the specters of ancient Israel appear, hover and fade away. Suddenly there is movement of a different sort, and slowly, steadily a startling transformation begins to take place.

This begins "His Land," the thrilling story of Israel from ancient to modern times. This color feature motion picture takes you on a journey through space, time and current events. You see the fact that Israel today is a living testimony to the words of the prophets when they proclaimed that Israel would take her place among the nations of the world.

In the company of Cliff Barrows and Cliff Richard, England's popular star, who sings a number of new Ralph Carmichael songs, some of which were written on location, you travel the vibrant streets and lonely solitary paths of this nation whose destiny is daily discussed in the councils of governments all over the world . . . the same paths taken by Jesus and the prophets: Galilee, the wilderness, Jerusalem, the Mount of Olives, mingle with the people of modern Israel as they work, play and build a nation.

Words of scripture come to life as the two men reflect upon the events that in recent years have confirmed much of the ancient prophecies. You are witness to the fact that out of death and desolation is emerging a new land . . . "Land of milk and honey" where the future climactic events of history will take place.

"His Land," rich in color and authentic sights and sounds, with a musical score composed and arranged by Ralph Carmichael, has been called a musical journey into the soul of a nation. It will be shown at First Baptist church in Iowa Park at 7:30 p.m. Oct. 17.

"His Land" is truly a feast of color, sound and song—an unforgettable experience!

WMS met in the home of Mrs. Ray Ackerman with Mrs. Arthur Brown in charge.
 Future meeting dates were set up. The program was on "Missionaries of Nigeria."
 Mrs. Earle Denny read the prayer list and Mrs. Ackerman, Hill, Penn, McKinney and Davis gave reports on several missionaries.
 Mrs. Darnell is program chairman.
 Refreshments were served to 15 members.

The Round-Up held Sunday was quite successful. Glenn Schell had a wonderful music program. We hope the enthusiasm will continue through the year.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Sewell had as guests from Friday to Sunday their daughter Mrs. Jack Cowden of Oklahoma City and her sons Jackie and Stevie of Oklahoma State university at Stillwater; Mr. and Mrs. Jarrett Cowden of Odesa and Mr. and Mrs. Weldon Pautsky of Fort Worth.

Mrs. Richard Hodge is home from the hospital.

Members of the Kum Dubl class of United Methodist church enjoyed a salad supper Saturday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bud Adams. They had a delightful tour through picture sas Harold Cowley showed scenes from vacation trips to Yellowstone National park, Bryce canyon, Zion National park, Big Bend, Carlsbad caverns, the Smoky mountains of Tennessee, Grand canyon, and the "Confederatarama" at Chattanooga.

Those present were Mrs. Delbert Todd and Messrs. and Mrs. John Fredericks, Gene Owens, Ronnie Bentley, Roy Childers, Don Cook, Don Youngblood, Joe Persons, Bob McClelland, J. W. Farmer, Harold Cowley and the Adamses.

Night WMS

An informative discussion on "Nigeria Now" was enjoyed by members of Night WMS of First Baptist church, who met in the home of Mrs. S. B. Reeves Oct. 5. Mrs. Louis Quick presided. Mrs. Virgil I. Woodfin opened the meeting with the prayer calendar and named those missionaries whose birthdays were Oct. 5.

The lesson was presented by Mrs. J. A. Berg. Nigeria is reasserting its independence since the Biafran conflict. The country has 12 states and determines to be independently reconstructed.

Mrs. Nelson Johnson discussed "Relief," which is carried on by missionaries in dentistry, trained nurses, gifts of clothing and cooking utensils.

They conducted clinics showing people require high protein foods and food additives.

"Reconstruction was badly needed," said Miss Ela Simmons. "Hospitals, high schools and homes had been destroyed, most of them severely damaged. Churches were weakened and little by little the people are returning to homes. Homes, schools and hospitals are being opened, but lack of faculty and staff is hampering the rehabilitation."

Mrs. J. C. Roby shewed the challenge to missionaries in the reconciliation of Nigeria. Visas are slowly being granted to teachers and ministers and other personnel to serve in their respective places. "Nigeria is a very independent country, accepting little aid with the understanding that no strings are attached to their acceptance of aid."

Others enjoying refreshments were Mmes Homer Blalock, D. O. James, Carroll Duke.

Oct. 19 meeting will be with Miss Simmons.

Trip to Europe

Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Bryan jr. embarked at New Orleans on a European tour, Aug. 18. She will be remembered here as Georgia Kay Trammell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Trammell. C. R. is better known as Chuck.

Their port of entry was Rotterdam. Due to a tugboat strike they docked at Hamburg, West Germany.

Chuck is an artist and wanted to tour the art world and study the techniques. They tucked a copy of "Europe on $5 a Day" by Frommer in their luggage and shipped their Volkswagen Camper, hoping it would be an asset toward such an accomplishment.

The Bryans have already toured West Germany, where they met two friends in Munich. After going through Switzerland and France, they are now in the British Isles. Plans call for visits to Spain and Portugal and Italy.

The Bryans will return to their home in Austin the latter part of November. He will continue in his art work and she will resume her duties as secretary with an insurance company.

I.D.C. REPORT

The Iowa Park Industrial Development Corporation, with the co-operation of the City Council and many other citizens and groups, has been working for several months with the Bandag Corporation, a company looking for a new plant location.

With this help, the many problems encountered, involving water, sewage, transportation and etc., were solved as they were encountered.

After several months all areas were eliminated by the company except Iowa Park, Wichita Falls and Abilene. Abilene was finally eliminated, but at the last moment were able to present a proposal that allowed them to acquire the new plant.

I wish to express, for the Industrial Corporation, a special note of appreciation to Mr. Hershel Nipper and Mr. Wayne House for the many hours spent in this effort, and to thank those many individuals and groups for their help. With co-operation like this we can not help but succeed in placing a good company in our town that will provide new jobs and income.

Dr. Richard C. Carver, Respectfully, President

ARC

Executive committee of Auxiliary to the Association for Retarded children had one big item on its agenda when it met Tuesday evening in the John Reynolds home: Get the Ball Rolling for Cur Rummage Sale. It is scheduled for Oct. 22, 23, 24 in the building next door east of Joy Togs at Park West Shopping Center.

Last year's venture was a huge success. With co-operation of the public there can be a repeat this year. If you have clothing, furniture, dishes, appliances or anything you want to donate, call one of these numbers: 592-4255 or 952-4797 or 592-5070.

If you can deliver your donation take it to the Reynolds home at 708 Rebecca or to the Bishop home at 207 Hope. The building in which the sale is to be held will be open for only three days before the sale, when you can take your rummage to that address on West Park.

With 41 children in the five Special Education classes this year, the teachers and parents hope to be able to do many things for them not provided for through other agencies.

Those present for the committee meeting were Mrs. Reynolds, pres.; Mrs. Faye Bishop, secretary; Mrs. Joe Baxter, treasurer; Alvin Kock, vice-president; and Ed Navratil, director.

The Kocks are moving to Iowa and will with regret their resignation was accepted. They have been staunch supporters of the Auxiliary and she was chairman of the Rummage Sale.

85th Birthday

Mrs. Alan Berry attended the celebration Tuesday of the 85th birthday of her father C. P. Hutchison in Graham.

Mr. Hutchison came to Graham in 1906 and has been in the funeral home business since that time. Employees and their families and friends and families came and spent the afternoon making the day a special occasion.

Cake and ice cream and coffee and soft drinks were served to everybody. An old time friend Mr. Spencer Mayes baked him a cake. Mrs. A. A. Morrison, his sister-in-law, who will be 96 next month, attended the party and brought a chocolate cake, his favorite kind, which she had baked.

Among special guests were Edd Harris, editor of the Graham newspaper; Jim Jones, manager of the radio station there; and Mrs. Nita Miller, correspondent for the Wichita Falls Times and Record News.

Mr. and Mrs. Viggo Ulrich were here last weekend from Oklahoma Christian college, Oklahoma City. He preached in both services of the Church of Christ here. They visited with her parents Mr. and Mrs. G. K. Beall and a host of friends.

Accompanying the Ulrichs were a group of OCC students to visit their parents: Dale Beall, son of the Ralph Bealls; John Maples II; Rhys Holmgren, son of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Holmgren.

H-SU Queen

Friends are congratulating Carol Rentschler on the honor she has had in being elected sweetheart of the Cowboy band at Hardin-Simmons university in Abilene. She is a member of the mixed band and plays flute in the concert band.

Carol is daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Rentschler and is a 1969 graduate of IPHS. For 12 years she studied piano with Mrs. James Sewell and was a member of the Hawk band.

At H-SU she is taking a double major in speech and in English with music as her minor. She is living it up and enjoying every minute as a college sophomore.

Mr. and Mrs. Randall Pierce and children Rickie and Lance of Carrollton met his parents Mr. and Mrs. H. Pierce at their lake home at Bowie. The home is at Salma Park Lake and was bought by Mr. and Mrs. H. Pierce on Sept. 15. They enjoy the home and surrounding and plan to move there in the near future.

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Owens spent several days this week with his brother in Bonham and at Big Thicket near Livingston.

Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Lindley have moved to Bridgeport where he is manager of the Recreation Center. Jeff and Aggie say Bridgeport is another Iowa Park. The people are quite friendly.

The Lindleys are living seven miles south of town and have tanks to fish in. They have seen deer, raccoons, quail, dove, armadillos. There are many trees. With all the wildlife about, they feel the new life they are living will be the best possible for their health. Aggie and Jeff are becoming a bit stronger each day.

Fuzzy Lovelace is doing fine at Park Manor. He will be 79 on Oct. 13 and Mrs. Lovelace says he will appreciate hearing from friends.

Jim Gard is having intensive training for a period of four to six weeks in Nashville, Tenn., leading to a job with a therapeutic firm. He expects to be assigned to an area in Texas or Oklahoma.

A family get-together was held Sunday in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Payton. Guests were a son Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Peterson and children Karen and Kristie of Lawton, Okla.; a daughter Mrs. Leverage Slaughter and children Lea Ann and Teresa; and Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Wortman and daughter Arlene.

Bradford PTA

More than 100 parents and teachers were present for an interesting meeting of Bradford PTA Tuesday in the cafeteria.

The program featured a musical program, including group singing and solos by pupils of the fourth grade, directed by Mrs. Mary Schell, assisted by student announcers.

Pres. Jerry Robertson directed the business period when plans were made for the Halloween carnival on Oct. 31 in the school cafeteria. On that day the public is invited to come eat chili and hotdogs from 5:00 to 6:30 and then join in the fun and games, such as spook house, cake walk or hay ride.

The invocation was given by Herb Davis. Mrs. Lee Walker read the minutes. The group accepted the year's budget as presented by Mrs. John Frederick.

It was also voted that Bradford PTA would be represented in the Homecoming Parade.

Mrs. Patsy Miller's group of Camp Fire Girls led in the pledge to the flag. Mrs. Herbert Elliott announced that Mrs. Opa Beall's room won the $5 attendance prize for the September meeting.

A social time with cake and coffee was had in observance of National PTA Week.

Nov. 3 meeting will be at 7:30. A nursery will be provided.

Mrs. Belle Wallace, another daughter, was hostess to the reunion. Her mother is living happily in a rest home there. When it came time for guests to leave she was glad to return to her "rest home" home.

Mrs. Armistead has 10 children—all living; 39 grandchildren; 41 great-grandchildren; 7 great-great-grandchildren.

Three sons and wives and two other daughters and husbands at the gathering were: Bishop and Valerie Armistead of Duncan, Okla.; Albert and Lois Armistead of Seminole, Tex.; Elmer and Irma Armistead of Ravenden Springs, Ark.; Hazel and Wayne Taylor of Bigpine Key, Fla.; and Mattie and Richard Becknell of Arlington.
