Brenda Bludnick, Ralph Campbell Wed in Beautiful Church Rites

The Rev. Mr. Kenneth Flowers directed the exchange of promises made last Saturday evening by Miss Brenda Lea Bludnick and Mr. Ralph Campbell. The ceremony was performed in First Baptist church.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. George L. Bludnick of Iowa Park and Mr. and Mrs. George Campbell of Holliday.

The nuptial space contained an arch entwined with greenery and complemented with a plaque of white roses in the center. Arrangements of white gladiolus and candelabra at each side. Potted palms formed the background.

Music was provided by Mrs. Gene Overbey Steeie, organist, and Danny Parkerson, vocalist.

Mr. Bludnick gave his daughter in marriage. She was wearing a floor length bridal gown of white peau de soie gown with fitted bodice and flared skirt. Her net veil was trimmed in rose lace and was fastened to a satin bow. She carried white roses and turquoise carnations atop a white Bible.

Miss Georgia Paulette Bludnick was maid of honor for her sister, and Miss Julie Woods was bridesmaid. Their floor-length gowns of turquoise crepe had rose lace combined with turquoise satin ribbon. They carried cascades of white and turquoise carnations.

Mary Kathryn Bludnick, sister of the bride, was flower girl; and Shawn Neal Langford of Austin was ringbearer.

Burford Doyle Loyd of Holliday was best man. Jay Hicks of Holliday was groomsmen. Charles Campbell of Beaver, Okla., and Robert Davis of Holliday were ushers.

Gordon Wayne Langford and Ruby Elaine Vestal lighted the candles.

Mr. and Mrs. Bludnick were hosts for a reception in fellowship hall of the church. They were assisted by Patricia Langford, DeLores Vestal, Jeannette Millard and Carol Davis.

The brides table was covered with a white cloth and centered with candelabra holding turquoise candles and an arrangement of white roses and daisies.

Patricia Langford assisted at the registry table, which was decorated similarly to the bride's table.

Mr. and Mrs. I. C. Campbell were hosts for the rehearsal dinner in their home at 6:30 Friday.

Brenda attended W. F. George high school here and Midwestern university. She is now attending Carter's School of Beauty.

Ralph attended Holliday high school and is employed with H. C. Leach Construction Co.

The newlyweds are making a home in Wichita Falls.

Lone Star Gas Headquarters Moved Here

Northwest regional headquarters of Lone Star Gas Co. opened for business April 1 at the Iowa Park location northwest of town on the Electra road.

Re-organization in the firm has brought the Transmission Division to Iowa Park. Offices are housed at present in a 12x48 trailer house with W. E. Thomas in charge.

Several families of personnel are being moved here from other areas. Plans for permanent headquarters buildings are being drawn up.

The company has four regional areas in Texas with headquarters at Irving, Eastland, Waco and Iowa Park. Northwest Region extends from Ft. Worth, Jacksboro, Nocona, up to Purcell, Okla., across to Wellington, south to Stamford, and back to Jacksboro.

Read Books

Twenty-one children of the IP Library Story Hour supervised by Mrs. Donald Duerson, story hour conductor, and Mrs. George Bludnick, librarian, enjoyed an Easter egg hunt in City Park.

Mike Owens captured the prize egg and John Davidson found the most eggs. We thank Mrs. Leon Little for the daintily decorated cupcakes and drink that climaxed the hunt.

Our thanks to Linda Escue for her donation of books and Mike McQuerry of Wichita Falls for his donation of magazines.

Circulation for March was 963 as compared with 919 last year.

A pair of boy's black shoes were left on the library porch about two months ago. If someone has lost a pair of shoes, come by and identify these.

Celebration of 50 Years Together

Mr. and Mrs. Swan Reaves celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary Sunday afternoon in their home with an open house.

The affair was hosted by their children: Mrs. J. C. Farris and her husband of Houston, J. L. of Key West, Fla., Buster and Glen of Iowa Park, and their wives. J. L. did not come but visited with the family by telephone.

Other members of the household were Mrs. Reaves' sister Mrs. E. C. Hall of Wichita Falls, a sister-in-law Mrs. S. B. Reaves, and Mrs. E. E. Wallis.

Mr. and Mrs. Reaves were married in Iowa Park on March 27, 1921. They resided in Valley View community many years. He was a member of the school board, and the four children are graduates of Valley View high school.

The couple moved into town in 1960. They are members of United Methodist church here. She is pianist for the Wesley class and both are members of Christian Workers class.

Mr. Reaves is an independent oil operator.

The registry table and refreshment table were laid with white net cloths over white satin. The centerpiece on the refreshment table featured an arrangement of gold mums.

The couple have eight grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Little Miss Pageant to be Saturday Night

Thirty-five young ladies between the ages of 3 and 17 will be trying for the coveted titles of Iowa Park's La Petite 1971; Iowa Park's Our Little Miss 1971; and Iowa Park's Ideal Miss 1971.

There will be an Our Little Miss talent winner and an Ideal Miss talent winner.

Contestants are selling tickets to this gala event, with a gift being presented to the young lady selling the most tickets. So buy your tickets now and help support some lucky little girl to win the contest.

There will be lots of pretty modeling and lots of good talent. It promises to be one of the finest nights of entertainment in this area at 7:30 p.m. Saturday, April 7, in IPHS.

Tickets will be available at the door: Adults $1 and children under 12 fifty cents. Come All!

Senior Citizens

Refreshment time was a gay time Monday for the Senior Citizens club. Mrs. O. M. Jones and Mrs. Mae Roby provided sandwiches, cup cakes, orangeade, potato chips, and coffee, almost equal to a supper, served buffet style to 20 members.

Last Monday the group was dismayed to have the news that the president was in the hospital, having had an appendectomy on Saturday. This Monday they were surprised and delighted to see Gladys Thompson come walking in and taking part in activities as usual, evidencing a recovery better than many "junior citizens" might have.

Others present were Messrs. and Mrs. Raymond Good, Ed Hayes, J. A. Berg, M. L. Hines, Herman Evaris; Meses. Amma Cresher, Johnnie Starnes, Ruth Caldwell, Lydia Hudson; Messrs. F. A. Mann, Hill Spruiell, and T. M. Clark.

Seminar

Ten high school students took part in the annual Farm Bureau seminar elimination contest held here last week.

Winners selected to attend the Texas Farm Bureau citizenship seminar at Baylor university in Waco were: Johnny Roberts, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank L. Roberts of Iowa Park; Jan Spruiell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Spruiell of Iowa Park; Ken Willingham, son of Mrs. Sophia Willingham of Burkburnett.

Alternates selected were Chris Anburn of Burkburnett and Judy Watts of Iowa Park.

Hazelton Dies in Houston

Funeral service for V. M. Hazelton was conducted Sunday in Tanner Funeral Home Chapel by Calvin White, church of Christ minister in Graham.

He died Friday in a Houston hospital after a long illness.

Burial was in Highland cemetery here. Pallbearers were John Frederick, Larry Norsworthy, Bud Mercer, Ray Stubbs, Dean Simmons, Lawrence Holland.

Hazelton was born Oct. 1, 1926, in Graham. He married Gail Mullins in Oklahoma City March 18, 1960.

He was a construction electrician at Sheppard AFB, and the family had lived in Iowa Park 10 years.

Surviving are the widow; a daughter Kim of the home; three sons Stephen, Dale and Robert; his mother Mrs. Iola Hazelton of Graham; and four brothers.

Farm Bureau

Farmers and ranchers are being urged by Farm Bureau president Raymond Schroeder of Burkburnett to let the federal government know how proposed farm-truck-driver regulations would affect their operations. Letters can be addressed to John A. Volpe, Secretary, Dept. of Transportation, Washington, D.C. 20515.

Regulations will become effective on July 1 unless citizens can convince the government that they should not be put into effect. They were scheduled for Jan. 1, but were postponed to permit Farm Bureau and other organizations to study the regulations and file statements.

The regulations would affect the drivers of all farm trucks, including pickups, Schroeder said. Although the new regulations would be applicable to interstate commerce, recent court decisions indicate that the interstate commerce clause applies to anything which might at some time enter interstate commerce, Schroeder said.

Proposed regulations would include the following requirements for drivers of farm trucks:

1. Be at least 21 years of age.
2. Carry a certificate executed by a physician during the preceding 24 months, evidencing fitness to drive a truck.
3. Pass a road test in truck operation.
4. Take and pass an examination on the federal Motor Vehicle Safety regulations.
5. If driver is employee of farmer, he must supply the farmer with evidence of compliance with the four preceding requirements, plus an application for employment which shall disclose traffic violations and disposition thereof, plus an annual supplementary statement relating to traffic violations.
6. A farmer who employs a driver would be required to verify the driver's record—and to maintain for each driver a file containing items 1 to 5 above, plus a record of the employer's verification of the employee's driving record.

Farm Bureau is requesting that present exemptions be retained, Schroeder said. He said that farm truck drivers have an excellent safety record. In Texas the bodily injury claims paid per farm truck insurance policy is only one-tenth of the amount of bodily injury claims paid per policy for all non-fleet trucks.

Congressman Graham Purcell and the two Texas senators should be requested to intervene with the secretary in retaining present exemptions on in modifying proposed regulations so they will not be so damaging to agriculture.

Committees appointed were: Mildred McEmore, program Mildred Bell, hospitality Bessie Vestal, assistant weight recorder Joan Fontaine, telephone Shirley Hicks, picture taking

Dreamers

TOPS Dreamers met Monday evening in Texas Electric office, and 15 weighed in. Mrs. Joan Fontaine was queen and chose a gift from the grab box. Louise Helms must replace a gift for being the largest gainer.

In KOPS contest there is a 3-way tie: Mildred Beall, Betty Lowe and Pauline Steele.

Names were drawn for secret pals.

Committees appointed were: Mildred McEmore, program Mildred Bell, hospitality Bessie Vestal, assistant weight recorder Joan Fontaine, telephone Shirley Hicks, picture taking

Mrs. Dillie Duvall and children Bobby, Cathy, Patty and Eddie from near Austin, and Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Wilks of Bryson were weekend guests of their parents Mr. and Mrs. K. G. Wilks.

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Ross of Burkburnett are visiting her brother Mr. and Mrs. Wilks. Mr. and Mrs. Bob Campbell of Bandon, Ore., are visiting here this week. She is a cousin of Mr. Wilks.

Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Frie and son Mike of Arlington were holiday guests of her parents Mr. and Mrs. P. D. O'Brien.

Don

Don Harrison, 18, is son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Harrison, who reside at 513 West Magnolia. He is third in the class of 120, has a grade average of 94.86 and is the highest ranking boy.

He has excelled in sports since he was in the second grade, with major athletic interest in baseball and football, being co-captain of the 1970-71 team along with Steve Watson.

Don is described as a person of high morals who not only excels in school work but is a leader in the youth work at the church of Christ and speaks for youth groups when invited. He is a member of the youth singing group of the church and regular attendant in the church school.

Though Don lost an eye at an early age, he has not let this interfere in any way with his functioning as an active and effective person.

As a student he is a member of the UIL team in persuasive and informative speaking, was high in individual scoring in livestock FFA, third in individual soil conservation and in the science fair. He has been a member of the track team all four years, received the West Texas Scholar award, and is vice-president of the student council. He is a member of the Outstanding Texas High School Football Team chosen by the Football Magazine.

Don is dependable at all times, according to his teachers, and prepares himself for class work. He is president of the Spanish club. He has received a scholarship from Abilene Christian college.

Don plays the guitar, and table tennis is a favorite game.

Mrs. J. W. Cantrell, chairman of the 23 Study club Youth Award committee, reports there were 34 recommendations submitted representing 21 organizations and individuals.

CARD OF THANKS
We wish to thank each and every one for the kindness that was shown to us during the loss of our loved one; and a special word of appreciation to Bud Mercer and Earle Denny.

Outstanding Seniors Lauded

Miss Sylvia Sibley and Don Harrison, IPHS seniors, were named outstanding teenage girl and boy of the year by a team of Wichita Falls judges. The decision is being revealed today at the luncheon meeting of the 23 Study club, which is sponsoring organization of the annual project.

A paragraph from the letter of Dr. Arthur Beyer of Midwestern university, chairman of the judging committee, states what seems to be the general opinion of teachers and the public regarding all the young people whose names were submitted for the honor:

"I need not tell you that this is a difficult thing to do. All the youngsters are 'winners' in every sense of the word and I do hope that you are able to transmit this thought to each of them. The judging panel is proud of each of them and wishes there were more young people like these across the nation."

Other members of the panel included Mike Hagler, dean of men at Midwestern; Mrs. Merle Antony, department of history, and Mrs. J. C. Porter, dept. of English, WFSH.

Second place winners were Miss Carol Cole and Steve Watson; third places went to Miss Nancy Huckaby and Jay Cantrell.

Sylvia is 17, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Sibley. She is first in the class of 120 with a grade of 94.86. Her scholastic awards include: Who's Who in typing and in French; outstanding American high school student; outstanding teenager of America; member of National Honor Society.

Other activities in which Sylvia functions with outstanding records are: debate team, editor of the Hawk Annual this year, Future Teachers of America, member of the band, recipient of the DAR award and of a medal from the Volunteer service of Wichita Falls state hospital.

Sylvia is a member of United Methodist church, participates in its youth activities, works in the vacation church school and as a helper in the kindergarten department of Sunday school.

Her hobbies and interests include water skiing, photography, piano, swimming, sewing, reading, and horses. She corresponds with a French pen pal.

A quote from the recommendations submitted by faculty representatives says: "Sylvia has the emotional maturity normally expected of a person much older than herself. A more sincere, conscientious and dedicated young lady I have never known. She is the perfect example of ideal young American. . . . This year your club has the opportunity to honor, in my opinion, the strongest candidate that has ever been recommended for Outstanding Teen-ager of the Year, Sylvia Sibley."

Area senior girls have been invited to Midwestern university's College Information Forum next Sunday in Student Center ballroom. The forum, from 1:30 to 3:30 p.m., will consist of information about MU, a campus tour and refreshments.

Talks are to be given by the Panhellenic Council president and the presidents of MU's four sororities on campus activities, academic programs, dormitory life, personal development and sorority facts.

LIONS CLUB

Howard Hill to Open Store and Office Here

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Hill are now open for business at 101 West Cash. They are electrical contractors and service representatives. The business also has used appliances for sale.

Howard Hill was born and reared here and was graduated from IPHS in 1941. Mrs. Hill is from Megargel, coming here in 1944. She also is a graduate of IPHS.

They have nine children Howard Jr. is married and lives in Corpus Christi. Daughter Mrs. Dwain Jones lives in Wichita Falls and daughter Mrs. Courtney Larue resides in Iowa Park. There are seven grandchildren.

Howard said this week, "Our work in Electrical Contracting is licensed and bonded in Iowa Park, Wichita Falls, Burkburnett and Henrietta. We also do repairs and make service calls. We invite all the people of this area to come in for a visit and to get acquainted."

Mrs. Bessie Nipper of Iowa Park and Miss Marietta Hunt of Wichita Falls visited Sunday afternoon with friends in Altus, Ok.

Watson Made President of School Board

Organization of the "new" Iowa Park school board was the first item of business Tuesday evening when an agenda listing payment of bills, considering policy changes, adopting 1971-72 calendar, discussing vocational education, approving bond application, adopting basketball budget, discussing school building insurance and electing a board of equalization occupied the time from 7:30 to 12:15 o'clock.

Hoyt Watson was elected president and took over from Cecil Streich as soon as the election results were canvassed. Serving with Watson will be C. E. Myers, vice-president; Robert Wilcox, secretary.

A committee composed of Stanley Williamson, T. C. Berry and Jessie McCullough was named to work out a plan of insuring the school buildings. They voted to drop insurance on the old grade school at Valley View.

Joe Baxter and Floyd Browning asked the board to allow members of the Auxiliary to the Association for Retarded Children to operate some of the money-making concessions during the year to benefit the five Special Education classes.

Calendar for 1971 was adopted with Aug. 30 as first day of school and May 26 next year as end of second semester.

A report on the survey made on vocational education requests by juniors and seniors was given by Bob Dawson. Auto mechanics, ornamental horticulture, cosmetology and office machines headed the list, with building trades close behind. The board will decide May 1 what is to be offered.

Work on the vocational building is progressing on schedule.

Valley View community is organizing a volunteer fire department. Mr. Myers requested permission to store or park the fire-truck in one of the barns on the school campus should that project materialize. Permission was given.

Bill Steger reported a daily average of 1,476 meals served in March at the school cafeterias.

The board of equalization as elected for another year includes Clarence Mahler, Donald Schram and Arch Hughes, with Dee Hankins as alternate.

The school will buy $50 deductible insurance on driver's education vehicles. Instructors will be responsible for any uninsured damage.

Reunion

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Carter held their family reunion Easter Sunday at the Youth Center. Seven of the eight children and their families were present.

Daughter Mrs. Henry Kiser of Amelia, Ohio, could not attend.

This is the first time since 1962 that many have been together. There was a covered dish dinner and the men had a baseball game while the children had an Easter egg hunt.

The children and their families present were:

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Black of Warrenville, Ill.
Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Carter of Houston
Mr. Bobby Carter of Blackwell, Okla.
Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Abila of Wichita Falls.
Mr. and Mrs. James Howell, Mr. and Mrs. Billy Joe Carter, Mr. and Mrs. Mark Carter of Iowa Park

Parents Lose Appeal

A communication from the Texas School Board Newsletter was received last week by Supt. Faris Nowell. It reads:

"The right of the Pampa ISD to set a dress and haircut code for its high school students has been upheld by the Fifth U. S. Circuit court of appeals. The opinion upheld a US district court ruling that the dress code was a reasonable requirement in the maintenance of school discipline. It was based on the conflict between the school and a parent in which the parent contended it is his prerogative to decide how his son dresses."

Iowa Park school board has suggested what members think is a reasonable code for students.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Cobb of Harrisburg, Penn., were here for the weekend with his aunts Mrs. S. T. Buzzard and Mrs. Myrtle Travis. He is employed at Bethlehem Steel and was returning from a 13-week vacation in the Bahamas.

Mrs. Travis and Mrs. Buzzard have as guest in their homes for several weeks a 93-year-old uncle G. H. Douglas of Oak Grove, Mo. For the first time, he came by bus rather than driving his car.

Mrs. Jack Martin and daughter Jamey of Ft. Worth visited her parents Mr. and Mrs. Roy Fortner during the past week. Dr. Martin came on Saturday for Easter, and they all returned to Ft. Worth that afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Frie and son Mike of Arlington visited here during the holidays with her parents Mr. and Mrs. P. D. O'Brien.

At Texas Electric, People Power is at your service.

Can one of our air conditioning specialists help you?

We can't sell you any air conditioning equipment. Or install it. Or service it. Because our business doesn't include doing any of these.

Our business is selling electricity. And we want you to get the most value from every dollar's worth you buy from us.

This means helping you get maximum comfort from the equipment you buy from your electric air conditioning dealer. And at the lowest operating cost.

This is why we have people in the company who specialize in air conditioning. People you can call and ask for tips on how to operate your air conditioning equipment with the greatest efficiency.

Building or remodeling? Then an air conditioning specialist at Texas Electric can give you really helpful facts and advice, whether you're considering refrigerated window units or a central installation.

He can tell you about the kinds and amount of insulation you need to help your equipment do a better, easier job. Fill you in on all the various types of equipment. And estimate your operating costs.

If you wish, he will be pleased to consult with the contractor of your choice in planning your air conditioning system.

There is no charge for our help. It's yours for the asking. At Texas Electric, People Power is at your service.

Thornberry Letter Tells of Expulsion from Taiwan Under Political Cloud of Mistrust

The following letter was originally written to our friends in Taiwan, shortly after our arrival in Hong Kong. We have made some alterations to eliminate personal references that would be meaningless to those of you in the USA.

March 9, 1971

Dear Friends and Colleagues:

So much has happened in the past few days that it seems an impossible task to cover it all in a report to you. But we feel you are entitled to an account from us as well as we can give it.

It was exactly a week ago, last Tuesday, March 2, when the police arrived at our house. It was 12:30, and we were just preparing to sit down to lunch with David Chen, the principal of the seminary. Three men in plainclothes and a fourth in the black uniform of the foreign affairs police came to the door and asked us to accompany them to headquarters to hear some "advice from Colonel Wang, the head of that office." We asked them to wait until we finished our lunch, and they agreed to that. After lunch, we were taken in an unmarked police car, equipped with two-way radio, to the main foreign affairs police station, next door to the City Hall. Upon arrival we were ushered up two flights of stairs to the third floor, where Col. Wang and two other men awaited us.

The five of us then went into a large, green-carpeted room. Overstuffed chairs lined three of the walls; coffee tables were placed at intervals in front of the chairs. We sat down in one corner, and Col. Wang proceeded to read a brief English statement. It said, in essence, that he had violated the regulations controlling aliens in the Republic of China and had committed "unfriendly actions against the government of the ROC." Because of this, we were being expelled from the country and must leave within 48 hours. During that period our "movements and living" would be severely restricted. Col. Wang then presented Mike with a single typed copy of the statement and asked him to sign at the bottom, where there was a sentence indicating that he had read the statement and understood it. Mike said he would be glad to sign the statement if he could have a copy of it. Col. Wang said that there was only one copy, and if Mike did not wish to sign it, he did not have to. Mike did not sign.

Col. Wang went on to explain that any further questions we might have would be explained by a representative from the Yang-mingshan bureau (controlling the district where we live), who would be waiting for us at the house when we returned. Mike pressed him for an explanation of the vague term "unfriendly actions" and he replied that he didn't have time to explain to us. We asked if the American Embassy had been notified of our deportation order, and Col. Wang said that it had and a representative would come to see us that day.

We were driven directly back to our house, accompanied by a man and a woman. Awaiting us on our arrival were another man and woman. From then on we had two men and two women in our living room at all times. There were also several men and vehicles outside our house, but we were unable to tell just how many. The "representative from the Yang-mingshan bureau" never showed up, and further explanation of the charges or of our exact limitations was never made. We soon learned, however, just what was meant by severe restrictions on our movements and living.

Just after our return, the telephone rang. It was Selig Harrison, the Japan correspondent for the "Washington Post," who was supposed to have dinner at our house Tuesday evening. He was calling to confirm the engagement and to check on the time. Judith managed to blurt out to him that we were being deported before one of the policemen snatched the phone from her. Shortly after that the phone line was cut and the phone was removed from the house; we were completely cut off from the outside.

By then it was three o'clock in the afternoon. During the next hour we made several requests. If we were to leave the country in 48 hours, we would need airplane tickets and money for travel. Further, we needed instructions from the Board of Missions in New York and from our Bishop in Hong Kong about where we should go, what we should do, etc. Accordingly, we asked to speak with Dan Whallon, the Presbyterian field treasurer, who could, in our treasurer's absence, handle those matters. This request was refused. All such details could be handled by David Chen, our principal, they said. The complexities of the lines of authority governing missionaries were quite beyond their understanding. And they were especially anxious that no word of our deportation be spread, especially outside of Taiwan. (We were at a loss to understand just why they were so afraid of our contacting friends, even if only to say goodbye, until one of our guards indicated that they feared our friends might rally and stage a riot on our behalf. A classic example of over-reaction on their part!)

Surely, then, we had the right to talk with someone from the American Embassy. Had they been apprised of our situation? We asked for a second time. Yes, we were assured, the Embassy did indeed know about us. If they had not consented to our deportation, it could not have been ordered, one of our guards said. (We question the right of a foreign embassy to pass on the deportation of its nationals from another country, but that is certainly what the guard maintained.) We asked to see someone from the Embassy immediately and were told that there would be someone coming "soon."

The afternoon dragged on. We tried to get organized for packing, but it was terribly difficult to concentrate on anything for long. We were in a peculiar limbo, wondering if anyone knew exactly what had happened, wondering what people on the campus were thinking about the unusual activity in front of our house. Elizabeth moved in and out of the police lines, the only one of us free to do so, seemingly unaware that anything special was going on. Sometime during the afternoon we told her we would be going to Hong Kong on Thursday. She got very excited at the prospect of seeing her old friends, John Mark and Scott Carroll. In fact, she was so excited that she wanted to leave that day and cried at the thought of a two-day delay.

After supper, sometime between 7:00 and 8:00, we heard loud voices in English just outside the dining room window. We recognized Selig Harrison's voice and tried to open the front door to go out, but it was blocked by a policeman.

Judith then ran to the front dining room window and opened it, calling out, "Sig, they won't let us talk to anyone! Please get word out!" Sig tried to answer, but at that point he was shoved back, literally, several feet by one of the policemen. At the same time, one of our guards told Mike to get Judith back from the window. Our Guards were quite angry that we'd shown ourselves, especially since they'd just told Sig that we were not at home. We received a lecture on co-operation with the police during "difficult times."

Fred Beattie, the Consul arrived at 11:30 p.m. He was completely professional, offering to help ease our departure but making clear the Embassy was limited in what it could do. We made two specific requests of him. We asked if the Embassy had any more information than we had on what we were charged with by the ROC government. They had some particulars but they were "official" and he could not disclose them. We wanted to know if we were considered dangerous criminals. His reply was simply that it would be best for us to cooperate in every possible way and leave as quietly as possible.

The next morning the Dunns were allowed to come discuss property matters with us. Then Judith was permitted a trip to Taipei to see her physician. She also was permitted to shop in the West Gate area.

While Judith was gone, Mike had an interesting conversation with the guard, who expressed regret over the general situation. "I know that you two are not criminals. This is really a political matter. You must realize we are in difficult times here. The enemy is just the Straits, and our international position is deteriorating at a rapid rate."

We left Thursday noon for the airport, greatly bolstered by the presence of several friends outside the house, keeping a vigil of sorts. At the airport there were more good friends waiting for us.

There is no way of knowing how much we cost the ROC government by our departure. They were anxious that we not contact our Board for money, so they bought our airplane tickets not only into Hong Kong, but also to Okinawa. The Okinawa part was necessary because Americans cannot get into Hong Kong with a visa unless they have tickets taking them OUT of Hong Kong. They also waived our Taiwan taxes for all of 1970 and up to our departure date for 1971. Tickets cost $450 and our tax was about $350. There is no way to establish what their costs in manpower totaled. We had the final period of tension when they went through every piece of luggage. It took four people half an hour to finish the inspection.

One difficulty arose with some Sermons Mike had in his briefcase. Since they were written in romanized Chinese, no one there could read them, and they were quite suspicious of them. So Mike spent several minutes with one of the men, reading the sermons to him. It was a nice piece of irony that Mike had one more chance to give "witness to the word" before our departure.

In answer to news reports and editorial comments, we are constrained to make plain our actions in Taiwan: We have not participated in any acts of violence nor have we been party to any conspiracy to use violence.

We did not restrict our friendships to those who supported the government or to those who were apolitical. Most of our friends would fall into those two categories, but we also had friends who were in various ways opposed to the government.

Chinese newspapers in Hong Kong played up our supposed relation to the independence movement. At the press conference the question was put to us directly. Our response was that as far as we know, there is no independence movement as such in Taiwan. We believe there are probably many small, unrelated groups in Taiwan, often with quite differing views about what the island's future should be and how it should be achieved. They are united only in the fact that all are opposed to the present government of Taiwan.

That some of our friends were related to such groups is quite possible, although we never had any direct contact with or knowledge of such groups. Having such friends who were regarded as anti-government would certainly be considered an unfriendly act by the Nationalist government.

From the time we first arrived on Taiwan we felt that any ministry we had to its people demanded such wide contacts as we made. We tried neither to censor them for their views nor to lead them into other ideas.

We felt that we had to act as we did, and we are willing to accept the consequences of our acts, even if these include false charges.

WSCS

Circles of WSCS met in four homes for the regular monthly sessions Tuesday morning.

Mrs. Dave Whittington was hostess to the Cleo Hines circle. Mrs. James Owens directed the lesson on "Meant for Each Other" portraying marriage from a Christian viewpoint. The group then went to Metz Coffee Shop for pie and coffee and a social 30 minutes.

Others present included Mmes. David Thomas, George Smith, Fred Keck, Jerry Voyles, Don Rastetter.

"From These Roots" was title of the program in the other three Methodist women's circles. Its purpose was to "cite events and happenings in the American experience that have contributed to the present mood of the black man." The roots were described as: denial of selfhood, denial of compensation for his labor; denial of the ballot; denial of educational opportunities.

Bonnie Denny circle met in the home of Mrs. Floyd Boyd with Mrs. C. C. Robinson as leader. Others in attendance were Mmes. Carroll Hester, Etta Bennett, Bob McClelland, W. C. Albright, Gordon Clark, Carlene Bennett, Carl Sullivan, Gene Lowrey, James Todd, M. L. Hines.

Mrs. Clyde Winfrey was hostess to Deamy George circle. Mrs. Donald Cook was narrator of the program. Others present were the Mmes. Travis Smith, W. M. Owens, C. J. Thurber, Herman Mahler, J. W. Farmer.

Kate Abernathy circle met with Mrs. Elgin Denny with Mrs. Fred Widmoyer as program leader. Also attending were Mmes. Emma Gaunt, E. H. Pearce, James Oliver, Miles Thompson.

General meeting on April 20 will have a panel on "How the World Gets Around," promising a challenging study.

ORDINANCE NO. 63A

An ordinance making it unlawful to obstruct the sidewalks within the City as herein provided; and providing a penalty.

It shall be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation to keep or allow any obstruction of any kind to be or remain on the sidewalks in front of the premises or place of business of said person, firm or corporation, except as hereinafter provided:

Any established business, with a permanent place for the conduct of business, may display its wares and goods on the sidewalk inmediately in front of its said place of business, but under no conditions may such display of its wares and goods be allowed to obstruct passage on such sidewalk so that pedestrians shall be hindered in passing in front of such place of business.

The placing of such wares and goods on such sidewalk shall be for display only and within the ordinary hours of business, and

No perishable goods shall be displayed under any circumstances.

Be it further ordained by the City Council of the City of Iowa Park that any person, firm or corporation failing to comply with the provisions of this Ordinance shall be punished by a fine of not less than $5.00 and not more than $10.00, and each day's violation shall be considered a separate offense.

Trip to 6 Flags

In the eyes of a first grader, a trip to Six Flags is quite an adventure. Just ask Tammy Lott.

When asked what she enjoyed most she replied without hesitation, "Feeding the goats milk from a bottle!" On second thought she liked also riding across the high bridge in a sort of box with seats in it, and looking down at the river below and at the many people. A ride on the swinging up-and-down loop was fun too.

Hot dogs at lunch were so good she just had another for supper.

Tammy's eyes sparkled as she described the little pink puppy dog, a fuzzy one, and the pink billfold she bought. Too, she enjoys the circled cards she acquired—the ones made in a circle with numerals and kings and queens on them—that she uses when she plays Concentration.

Tammy's little friend Carol Schroeder bought a pink mouse. She herself did not much like a mouse.

Of course Tammy & Carol didn't make the trip alone last weekend.

Tagging along were the parents Mr. and Mrs. Richard Lott and Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Schroeder.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Sewell had their daughters and their families here during the Easter holidays: Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Montgomery, Patty, Monte Ray, Mike and his wife Claudia, all of Manhattan, Kans.; and Mrs. Jack Cowden of Oklahoma City.

S-Set Donald Santa Anna is attending the Air University academic instructor course at Maxwell AFB, Ala. He has completed 11 months duty in Southeast Asia. His wife Linda is daughter of Mrs. Ruby McKenzie of 112 Hope Lane, Iowa Park.

Mrs. D. O. James returned last Friday from San Antonio after a visit with her daughter Mr. and Mrs. Donnie McManus and boys Mitchell and Brent. While Grandma was there the parents went to National Guard Convention in Houston. Don James and family of Wichita Falls also attended the convention, and Don and his sister June had a nice visit together.

Trip to Ga., Fla.

Mrs. W. F. George and granddaughter Karen returned Monday from a 10-day vacation in Atlanta, Ga., and Panama City, Fla. Karen remained in Atlanta for a visit with her brother the Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Larry George.

Dr. and Mrs. Wesley Johnson and family of Rochester, Minn., met Mrs. George there and they drove to Florida where they soaked up sunshine and spent hours swimming at the beach. They report having been so long deprived of sunshine and so long living in banks of snow that Florida was like an oasis in another world.

To their surprise, Nell and Wes found that several other doctors and families from Mayo Clinic had preceded them at Panama City, all for the same reason.

Guests for Easter holidays in the L. B. Beaver home were her sister Mrs. R. W. Ely of Tyler and daughter Mrs. Betty Hall and children Mary Lou, Patti and Ricky of Whitehouse.

The Care Tree.
 Look for it in your community.
 The fruit of the Care Tree are company service pins proudly worn by more than 60% of our people. But each pin stands for more than just years of service. People who wear these pins are people who care.

Care about our company, the service we provide, the communities in which we do business. We're proud of these people and the Care Trees growing in our service area.
 Look for one in your community.

Lone Star Gas
